LARS TIFFANY

Tiffany Enters His Fifth Season at the Helm of the Cavaliers

Lars Tiffany is in his fifth season as the head coach of the Virginia men's lacrosse program after being named the 17th head coach of the Cavaliers on June 21, 2016.

UVA was 4-2 during the 2020 season before it canceled by the NCAA on March 12 due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19). The shortened season saw Michael Kraus become just the fourth Cavalier to reach the 100-goal, 100-assist mark for a career.

The 2019 season was a special one for Tiffany as he brought both NCAA and ACC titles to Charlottesville. Virginia tied a program record with 17 wins in 2019 as the Cavaliers finished 17-3, winning their first NCAA title since 2011 and first ACC title since 2010.

Virginia's offense hummed all season, finishing No. 7 in the country in three key categories: scoring offense per game (14.10), assists per game (8.60) and points per game (22.70). Virginia also finished No. 4 in the nation in scoring margin per game (3.85). Leading the way was Matt Moore, who became the first player in program history to record 40+ goals and 40+ assists in the same season. Moore finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 8 in the nation with 89 points (46-43). Dox Aitken, a first-team USILA All-American for the second-straight season, broke his own single-season UVA record for points by a midfielder (52). Aitken also became the only midfielder in program history to reach 100 goals for a career. Ian Laviano led the ACC and was No. 9 in the nation with 51 goals, which ranks No. 4 all-time at UVA on the single-season ledger.

Ryan Conrad, a first-team USILA All-American, was named the Senior CLASS Award winner for 2019, the second student-athlete to win the coveted award under Tiffany (Brown's Jack Kelly, 2016). Conrad, a two-time captain, was MVP of the ACC Tournament and named to the NCAA All-Tournament team. He finished the year with 31 goals and 18 assists, which places him tied for No. 3 all-time at UVA in single-season points by a midfielder.

UVA was one of the nation's most feared riding teams. UVA's opponents cleared at .711 percent for the season, which ranked No. 2 in the nation behind Cleveland State's .707 percent. UVA was also one of two programs to have a top 20 offense and defense, as the Cavaliers limited opponents to 10.25 goals per game, while scoring 14.10 per game. The scoring margin of 3.85 goals per game ranked No. 4 nationally and No. 1 in the ACC.

For the third year in a row, Tiffany's Cavaliers team ranked No. 1 nationally in ground balls (41.55) in 2019. Defensively in 2018, Virginia led the nation with 38.0 ground balls per game and in 2017 averaged 43.33 ground balls per game, averaging nearly seven more ground balls per game than No. 2 Brown (36.56), Tiffany's old program. Prior to Tiffany coming to UVA, his Brown squad in 2016 led the nation in ground balls as Tiffany's staff three years in a row has led the nation's best team on the ground. Goalie Alex Rode was named Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 NCAA Tournament after going 4-0 with 43 saves between the pipes. Rode recorded 18 saves against Duke in the NCAA semifinal round and posted 13 saves against Yale in the NCAA final. Freshman Petey LaSalla was stellar all season at the faceoff X, including going a perfect 6-of-6 in overtime periods. LaSalla, a College Crosse (SB Nation) Freshman All-American (1st), finished No. 1 in the ACC with 100 ground balls. He also was No. 2 in the ACC and No. 21 in the nation with a .587 faceoff winning percentage. LaSalla's 216 faceoff wins rank No. 2 in UVA's single-season record book.

In 2018, Tiffany's Cavaliers were No. 5 nationally in assists (7.72), No. 7 in points per game (20.33) and No. 7 in scoring offense (12.61). Michael Kraus became the third Cavalier in program history to reach 80 points in a season, finishing with 83, ranking No. 8 nationally. First-team All-American midfielder Aitken first set a midfielder program record with 51 points in 2018.

During Tiffany's first season on Grounds his Cavalier offense finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the nation in three offensive categories: goals per game (14.40), assists per game (9.13) and points per game (23.53). Aitken shattered UVA's freshmen midfielder record of 29 goals and 40 points. Aitken broke the goals record in eight games. Attackman Kraus was named ACC Freshman of the Year and was the only rookie on the All-ACC team after leading UVA with 34 goals and 56 points.

Tiffany came to Virginia with 12 years of head coaching experience. He spent 10 years at Brown, his alma mater. He led the Bears to Championship Weekend in Philadelphia in 2016 behind a 16-3 record. The 16 wins in 2016 was a program record for the Bears. Brown's offense was potent in 2016, leading the nation with 16.32 goals per game. Under Tiffany's tutelage, nine Brown Bears earned All-America honors in 2016, while Dylan Molloy was the recipient of the 2016 Tewaaron Trophy and was named by the USILA its most outstanding player and attackman of the year. Brown goalie Jack Kelly was named the nation's most outstanding goalie and the winner of the 2016 Senior CLASS award for men's lacrosse.

Tiffany returned his alma mater to national prominence with Ivy League regular season titles in 2008, 2010, 2015 and 2016 and NCAA Championship berths in 2009, 2015 and 2016. Tiffany was named the New England Coach of the Year in 2008, 2009, 2015 and 2016 and earned Ivy League Coach of the Year honors in 2015 and 2016.

"Stepping into the seat as the head coach of the Virginia's Men's Lacrosse program brings both a tremendous exhilaration and responsibility," Tiffany said after being hired. "I am very fortunate to have been entrusted with this program. It is also clearly understood that the coaches and athletes of Virginia Lacrosse that have come before me have established a very high bar for measuring success in Charlottesville. My staff and I are eager to begin working with the men as we establish the principles and guidelines of our aggressive, fast-paced system of play that relies upon uncompromising fitness, competitive fire and a passion, and joy, for the game of lacrosse."

Tiffany guided his 2015 team to the number one seed in the Ivy League Tournament, an Ivy League championship and NCAA Tournament berth, changing the landscape of college lacrosse with a unique fast break offense that scored 237 goals, averaging 13.94 goals per game, fifth best in the nation.

Since taking over the Brown program in 2007, Tiffany transformed the program from one that was winless in the Ivy League in 2006 into one of the preeminent teams in the Ivy League and the nation.

Tiffany guided Brown to its second Ivy League Championship under his watch in 2010, while also earning a berth in the first-ever Ivy League Playoffs. His team also posted back-to-back winning seasons in 2013 and 2014.

In 2009, Tiffany coached Brown to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997, before falling in overtime to Johns Hopkins in the NCAA First Round. His 2009 team posted a 12-4 record and was ranked as high as eighth nationally during the season, finishing the season as the 11th ranked squad in the nation.

Tiffany's 2008 squad captured the Ivy League title with a 5-1 league mark, posting an 11-3 record to earn the most wins at Brown since 1994. Brown, the number one ranked team in New England, finished 13th nationally in the final USILA coaches poll, with just six teams in the nation winning more games than the Bears.

In his first season at the helm of the Brown team, Tiffany turned the fortunes of the program in the right direction, guiding the Bears to a 7-7 record in 2007, and a national ranking as high as 18th.

Tiffany came to Brown from Stony Brook, where he was the head lacrosse coach in 2005 and 2006, posting an 18-13 overall mark. His 2006 squad finished second in America East with a 4-1 league mark and was ranked in the Top 20 in two weeks. In 2005, Tiffany's Seawolves appeared in the Top 20 for the first time ever, and were ranked as high as 14th nationally. Tiffany, the 2005 America East Coach of the Year, led Stony Brook to wins over Penn State and Rutgers, as his Seawolves boasted the number-one ranked man-up unit in Division I.

Tiffany arrived at Stony Brook after successful stints at Penn State, Dartmouth, Washington & Lee and LeMoyne. He spent his four years at Penn State (2000-2004) as the top assistant under head coach Glenn Thiel, and was involved in all facets of the lacrosse program as the team's defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Tiffany's defensive units were outstanding during his four years, and in 2002, the Nittany Lions led the nation in man-down defense.

Prior to coaching at Penn State, Tiffany was an assistant coach at Dartmouth College, where he spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons under head coach Rick Sowell. In his two seasons as defensive coordinator, the Big Green's goals allowed per game in Ivy League contests dropped from 15.3 to 9.0. Dartmouth earned its first share of the Ivy League title and a berth in the NCAA tournament in 2003.

Tiffany was an assistant coach from 1997-98 at Washington & Lee University. In 1998, the Generals went 13-3 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament while finishing fifth in the USILA Division III national rankings.

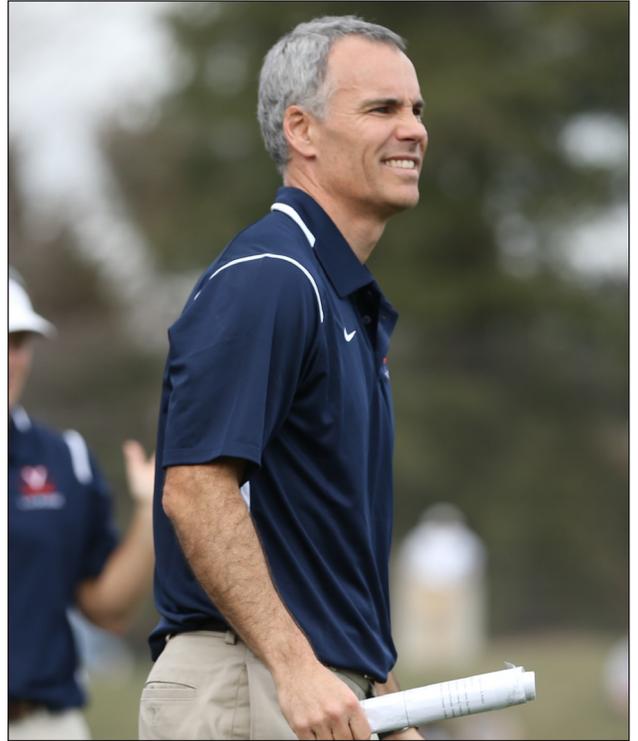

Tiffany began his collegiate coaching career at LeMoyne College, where he served as an assistant coach of men's lacrosse and co-head coach of the women's lacrosse program from 1994-96. A native of LaFayette, N.Y., Tiffany graduated from LaFayette High School where he lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. Upon graduation from Brown, he taught biology and coached lacrosse and football at the Robert Louis Stevenson School in Pebble Beach, Calif., from 1990-94.

A 1990 graduate of Brown, Tiffany was a two-time team captain and starter on defense for three years. Tiffany played for former Virginia head coach Dom Starsia at Brown. A Biology concentrator, Tiffany played on two Brown teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament (1987 & 1990). He was Co-MVP of the Brown squad that captured its first-ever NCAA playoff victory in 1990 (12-9 vs. UMass). Tiffany capped his career by playing in the North-South Senior All-Star game.

Lars and his wife, Tara, reside in Charlottesville with their daughter, Charlotte.

ASSISTANT COACH

SEAN KIRWAN

Sean Kirwan is in his fifth season at Virginia and his seventh season under Lars Tiffany.

UVA was 4-2 during the 2020 season before it canceled by the NCAA on March 12 due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19). The shortened season saw Michael Kraus become just the fourth Cavalier to reach the 100-goal, 100-assist mark for a career.

The third season under Kirwan's offense was a special one for the Cavaliers as UVA tied a program record with 17 wins, capturing NCAA and ACC titles in the process. Virginia's offense hummed all season, finishing No. 7 in the country in three key categories: scoring offense per game (14.10), assists per game (8.60) and points per game (22.70). Virginia also finished No. 4 in the nation in scoring margin per game (3.85). Leading the way was Matt Moore, who became the first player in program history to record 40+ goals and 40+ assists in the same season. Moore finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 8 in the nation with 89 points (46-43). Dox Aitken, a first-team USILA All-American for the second-straight season, broke his own single-season UVA record for points by a midfielder (52). Aitken also became the only midfielder in program history to reach 100 goals for a career. Ian Laviano led the ACC and was No. 9 in the nation with 51 goals, which ranks No. 4 all-time at UVA on the single-season ledger.

In year number two under Kirwan in 2018, UVA finished No. 5 in the nation in assists per game (7.72) and No. 7 in the nation in both scoring offense (12.61) and points per game (20.33). Aitken first set UVA's single-season record for points by a midfielder with 51 points while earning first-team USILA All-American honors. Michael Kraus became the third Cavalier to tally at least 80 points in a season as he led UVA with 44 goals and 39 assists, earning second-team All-America honors. Moore was named ACC Freshman of the Year after scoring 19 goals and dishing out 15 assists.

During Kirwan's first season at UVA in 2017, his offense finished No. 1 in the ACC and No. 3 in the nation in three offensive categories: goals per game (14.40), assists per game (9.13) and points per game (23.53). Under Kirwan's guidance midfielder Aitken shattered UVA's freshmen midfielder record of 29 goals and 40 points. Aitken broke the goals record in eight games. Kraus was named ACC Freshman of the Year and was the only rookie on the All-ACC team after leading UVA with 34 goals and 56 points.

Prior to UVA, Kirwan spent two seasons at Brown running the offense under Tiffany. Under Kirwan's tutelage in 2016, the Brown offense was potent, leading the nation with 16.32 goals per game. Dylan Molloy was the recipient of the 2016 Tewaaron Trophy and was named by the USILA its most outstanding player and attackman of the year. Kirwan helped change the landscape of college lacrosse in 2015 with a unique fast break offense that scored 237 goals, averaging 13.94 goals per game, fifth best in the nation.

Kirwan perfected his offensive approach at his alma mater, Tufts, guiding the Division III Jumbos' offense to an NCAA-leading 423 goals in 2014, the most all-time by any team in NCAA lacrosse history (all divisions). His

KIRWAN'S BIOGRAPHY AT-A-GLANCE

Born: October 30, 1989, in Boonton Township, N.J.

Secondary School: Mountain Lakes H.S., Mountain Lakes, N.J.

College: Graduated from Tufts in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in child development.

Playing Career: Tufts (2009-12).

Championships Won: Tufts (NCAA DIII - 2010 as a player; 2014 as a coach).

Coaching Background: Assistant men's lacrosse coach at Tufts (2013-2014); assistant men's lacrosse coach at Brown (2015-16); assistant men's lacrosse coach at Virginia (2017-pres.).

Tufts squad also led the nation in team goals and assists (251). Kirwan coached three 100+ point scorers, the first time in NCAA history that three players from one team scored over 100 points in the same season.

A native of New Jersey, where he attended Mountain Lakes High School, Kirwan graduated from Tufts in 2012, where he broke single season and career goal scoring records with 66 goals in 2011 and 150 career goals. An All-American in 2011 and 2012, he was also an Academic All-American and team captain in 2012 as well as winning the NCAA Division III National Championship with the school in 2010.

Kirwan and his wife, the former Taylor Smith of Guilford, Conn., reside in the Charlottesville area. The couple has one son, Cameron.

ASSISTANT COACH

KIP TURNER

Kip Turner is in his fifth season at Virginia and his 10th season under Lars Tiffany.

UVA was 4-2 during the 2020 season before it canceled by the NCAA on March 12 due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19). During the shortened season, goalie Alex Rode was No. 1 in the ACC and No. 16 in the nation with 13.17 saves per game and No. 2 in the ACC and No. 18 in the nation with a .552 save percentage. For the fourth year in a row in 2020, Turner helped UVA finish No. 1 nationally in ground balls per game (43.33)

For the third year in a row in 2019, Turner helped UVA finish No. 1 nationally in ground balls per game (41.55) as the Cavaliers tied a program record for wins (17) while capturing the NCAA and ACC titles. Overseeing faceoffs and goalies, two of Turner's pupils shined in 2019. Alex Rode was named Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 NCAA Tournament after going 4-0 with 43 saves between the pipes. Rode recorded 18 saves against Duke in the NCAA semifinal round and posted 13 saves against Yale in the NCAA final. Freshman Petey LaSalla was stellar all season at the faceoff X, including going a perfect 6-of-6 in overtime periods. LaSalla, a College Crosse (SB Nation) Freshman All-American (1st), finished No. 1 in the ACC with 100 ground balls. He also was No. 2 in the ACC and No. 21 in the nation with a .587 faceoff winning percentage. LaSalla's 216 faceoff wins rank No. 2 in UVA's single-season record book.

Turner also assisted in UVA leading the nation in ground balls in 2018 and 2017. In 2017, UVA averaged 43.33 ground balls per game which was nearly seven more ground balls per game than No. 2 Brown (36.56), Turner's previous coaching stop. Turner helped Brown lead the nation in ground balls in 2016 before he joined Tiffany in Charlottesville for the 2017 campaign.

In 2018, Turner oversaw the emergence of Justin Schwenk at the Faceoff X. Schwenk led the ACC and was No. 12 nationally with the .598 winning percentage. Schwenk also led the ACC in ground balls per game (5.71). Turner also was the face-off coach for Brown, developing Will Gural into an All-American and one of the top face-off men in the nation in 2015 and 2016.

In his first two years at his alma mater, Turner has aided in the development of freshmen goalies. In 2018, Rode led the ACC with 9.20 saves per game. In 2017, Turner aided in the development of first year goalie Griffin Thompson. Thompson went on to tie a UVA freshman goalie single-game record with 18 saves against Robert Morris.

At Brown, Turner helped develop All-Ivy goalies Matt Chriss and Will Round, as well as a slew of young goalkeepers on the Bears squad, including Kelly, who matured into an All-American and a unanimous first team All-Ivy selection. Turner also was the face-off coach for the Bears, developing Will Gural into one of the top face-off men in the nation in 2015 and 2016.

Turner also practiced his trade in the professional ranks, including leading the Chesapeake Bayhawks to two consecutive MLL Championships in 2012 and 2013. Turner was originally selected second overall in the Major League Lacrosse draft by the Boston Cannons, the highest goalie ever picked in a draft. He made an immediate impact, being named the Cannons' Defensive MVP in 2008. A three-time MLL Defensive Player of the Week in 2010, Turner was named the MLL Goalkeeper of the Year for his outstanding play. Turner was also selected the starting goalie in the MLL All-Star game in 2013. After a nine-year stint in the MLL, Turner decided to retire in the spring of 2016.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Virginia with a bachelor's degree in government, Turner was a four-year letterwinner for the Cavaliers. He was the UVA defensive MVP in 2006, leading the Cavaliers to the ACC Championship and NCAA title. Turner was an All-ACC first team selection in 2007, and named to the All-ACC Tournament team in 2006 and 2007.

Turner was inducted into the Severn High School Hall of Fame in the spring of 2016 for his achievement in soccer, ice hockey and lacrosse. Turner is married to Emy Deyhle Turner and the couple has one daughter.

TURNER'S BIOGRAPHY AT-A-GLANCE

Born: December 2, 1984, in Annapolis, Md.

Family: He is married to the former Emily Deyhle; one daughter.

Secondary School: Severn School, Severna Park, Md.

Coaching Background: Assistant men's lacrosse coach at Brown (2010-16); assistant men's lacrosse coach at Virginia (2017-pres.)

COOPER FERSEN
VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Cooper Fersen is in his first season on Lars Tiffany's staff and serves as a volunteer assistant coach.

Fersen is a 2019 graduate of the University of Virginia after appearing in 32 career games as defenseman for the Cavaliers. He spent the 2019 NCAA title season as a student assistant for UVA.

The Dorset, Vt., native picked up 25 career ground balls and caused 13 turnovers. The avid fisher came to UVA in 2015 as the nation's No. 89 recruit out of the Berkshire School.

BRIAN WILBERGER
OPERATIONS ASSISTANT

Brian Wilberger is in his third season on Lars Tiffany's staff as the Operations Assistant.

Wilberger has been a lacrosse fixture in the local community for many years as a high school coach with Albemarle, Monticello, and Fluvanna, helping lead teams to one state championship and two additional state finals appearances, along with helping found the boy's and girl's VHSL programs at Fluvanna.

Brian is currently the Director of Seminole Lacrosse and has also ran a successful local travel lacrosse club. He is also past vice president of Central Virginia Chapter of US Lacrosse and current vice president of The Lacrosse Foundation, which has helped initiate many local programs and grants. Wilberger is the chairman of the Virginia Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

After playing lacrosse at Albemarle High, Wilberger went on to play at both the NCAA DI and DIII levels in college, and post college played for the American Lacrosse League's successful Charlottesville Herd team.

Wilberger is a Charlottesville native and lives in Fluvanna County with his wife and three children.

TIFFANY ON AITKEN

2021 – “Wants the ball in big moments ... embraces the pressure ... elite athlete and fantastic shooter ... but eats larges slices of humble pie ... more concerned about being a great teammate than being put on a pedestal.” 2020 - “College athletes are certainly amateurs. But describing Dox’s approach and preparation to everything we do on and off the field is best characterized as professional. Sure, he works hard, but so do most athletes. Dox trains with purpose, critically assesses his own play, pursues film study as if it is one of his core academic requirements, fuels his body wisely and throughout it all maintains an open mind to learning and growth.” 2019 - “With more opposing defensive schemes designed to limit his impact, this man has increased his time commitment to studying film, enhancing his tactical comprehension and improving the technical aspects of his game.” 2018 - “After a strong first year, arguably the best rookie season for a UVA midfielder ever, how does Dox follow it up? From the weight room to the practice field to the film study, there is little evidence our Freshman of the Year award winner is resting on any laurels - actually, it is quite the opposite. Dox is a student of the game, constantly pursuing greater knowledge - both offensively and defensively - and enhancing his dodging and shooting techniques. He balances a tremendous drive to be great with a refreshing humbleness.”

26 JACKSON APPELT

Midfield • 5-8 • 170 • Senior
New Canaan, Conn. • New Canaan HS

• Lives on "The Lawn" at Virginia

TIFFANY ON APPELT

2021 – "First step is catapult-like ... the burst of a Ferrari ... an itchy trigger finger, he is ready to shoot ... fabulous teammate and emotional supporter for the rest of us, as in ALL of us ... speaks up when a voice or question is needed." 2020 - "It may be easier to describe this man by what he is not doing because the achievements are many and activities are exhaustive. Jackson juggles a plethora of pursuits, from pre-Chuck Drill motivational speaker to spearheading our service efforts with Harlem Lacrosse and WB 23 which raised $25,000 this past fall. On the field, Jackson's quickness and adeptness at instigation of offensive plays are once again being witnessed due to his return to full health." 2019 - "The progression is moving forward as planned. Skinny has been replaced by powerful, tentative with aggressive, single-faceted with versatile." 2018 - "Defending Jackson is like corralling the chickens - it appears you have him right where you want him, and then he is gone and out of your reach. This burst of speed Jackson possesses allows him to separate from his defenseman and shoot uncontested. Not surprisingly, Jackson is proving he has a quick retention of the offensive schematics. This first-year brings an inquisitiveness and fresh perspective to our training sessions."

42 MICHAEL BIENKOWSKI

Midfield • 6-0 • 180 • Sophomore
Islip, N.Y. • Islip HS

TIFFANY ON BIENKOWSKI

2021 – Attitude: any day without lacrosse is a wasted day ... always has a stick in his hand ... lives to compete ... dangerous goal-scoring midfielder ... looking to expand his role this spring. 2020 - “The burst of speed is clearly evident, allowing Mike to create separation as he dodges to the cage. But what is distancing him from many of the rest is his playmaking ability, both with his ability to score on the run and the poise to understand opposing defensive slides in the moment. Playing meaningful minutes in his first spring in Charlottesville is anticipated.”

2020

- Appeared in all six of UVA's games
- Scored first career goal in the season-opening win over Loyola
- Also scored goals against High Point and Air Force

4 JEFF CONNER

Midfield • 6-0 • 195 • Junior
Wallingford, Pa. • Strath Haven HS

TIFFANY ON CONNER

2021 – “Preparing for the next step, the break out year ... unselfish and a complete sponge, willing to learn and embrace teaching ... the consummate teammate, a man you want on your midfield line.” 2020 - “Do you want to observe textbook lacrosse fundamentals? Watch this man play: Jeff is an obvious product of great tutelage as a youth player. But he deserves most of the credit, for not all of us are willing to take the time to learn to do things properly. With his second season at UVA approaching, we are prompting Jeff to carry more responsibility and to play a larger role in our team offense.”

2019 - “With a heightened awareness of space and team offense compared to most rookies, this first-year is proving daily he is prepared to both complement the attributes of his teammates and make his own dent.”

TIFFANY ON CONNERS

2021 – "Prepares like a predator ... training and intensity in practice unmatched ... rare LSM who has both the squat-down 1v1 cover skills and brings juice to the offensive end ... leads with his voice and the look." 2020 – "The formula is a simple one. Jared transformed himself from a steady, good defenseman into a game-changing, impactful All-American by conscientiously choosing the harder option. His preparation for practice, and the intensity he delivers in every drill, are jaw-dropping and rare. Jared has been recognized accordingly by his peers, having been voted as a captain for the 2020 season." 2019 – "There is a rarely witnessed energy emitting from this man for every drill in every practice. He is preparing himself to carry the load and be an essential and pivotal athlete for us in 2019." 2018 – "Don't let the disarming smile and friendly persona fool you: Jared is a fierce competitor. The transformation happens as he steps on the field. He is becoming one of the program's best cover defensemen, utilizing his disruptive approaches, long reach and unforeseen strength. For these reasons, Jared may be employed down low on close defense at times. But he is a natural in the middle of the field, creating pressure on both ball carriers and the opposing goal as he sparks our offensive transition."

Oakville, Ontario • Oakville HS

• Name is pronounced Cor-mee-aye

TIFFANY ON CORMIER

2021 – “Shoots first, ask questions later ... more athletic than first glance ... don’t mistake his reserved demeanor – he is an extremely passionate lacrosse player ... dangerous scorer inside and outside ... better vision than assumed.” 2020 - “Serving as a testament to the rehabilitation efforts of our medical and training staffs, Payton has remained steadfast in his commitment to returning to the field better and stronger than before his knee injury in November of 2018. The results have been impressive to observe on the practice field and in scrimmages this fall. Payton is a dangerous scoring threat due to fantastic hands and his savvy use of his size in crowded spaces.” 2019 - “The physical transformation of this man started with his first day in the weight room: it was gratifying to witness the change! Unfortunately he will miss the spring season of 2019 due to injury.”

2020

- College Crosse (SB Nation) Freshman All-American (1st)

14 WILL CORY

Attack • 6-0 • 190 • Sophomore
Charlottesville, Va. • Brunswick School

TIFFANY ON CORY

2021 – “Very productive fall semester ... enhanced his dodging skills ... sharpened his already sophisticated shooting accuracy ... embracing the riding game ... understands how to be a reliable teammate.” 2020 - “Simply put, this first-year is a goal scorer. Will possesses a fundamentally sound shooting stroke, providing him the accuracy to place his shot into small windows. His movement without the ball also puts pressure on the opposing defense, as Will has a knack for locating seams and openings. Grasping the nuances of our team’s schemes, including riding, will be a focus this spring.”

2020

- Appeared in one of UVA’s six games
- Made collegiate debut against Air Force and caused one turnover

HIGH SCHOOL

- Captain as a senior
- Two-time All-IAC and All-Met

10 XANDER DICKSON

Attack • 6-1 • 160 • Sophomore
Greenwich, Conn. • Brunswick School

TIFFANY ON DICKSON

2021 – “Has an extensive repertoire of tools in his offensive kit ... and continues to add to it ... slippery ... difficult to anticipate his next move ... creates scoring opportunities for both his teammates and himself.” 2020 - “Another weapon in our offensive arsenal, Xander’s ability to create opportunities from behind the goal was employed in most games during his first year. With his advanced skill set of scoring, despite little to no angle and good vision, Xander is a tactician in our two-man game. His transformation into a more durable, reliable member of our program has him poised to earn an ever-growing number of game-day minutes.” 2019 - “The traits that are difficult to coach are found in this first-year: savvy lacrosse knowledge and maneuvers near the crease that generate quality possessions for our offense.”

2020

- Did not appear in any of UVA's games
- Missed season with an injury

2019

34 JOHN FOX

Midfield • 6-0 • 200 • Senior
New Canaan, Conn. • Brunswick School

• One of UVA's two captains

TIFFANY ON FOX

2021 – "Fox Streamlining himself to be more agile ... fearless as he takes on the biggest and strongest of opposing offensive threats ... leads us with his voice and his tenacious play ... no better leader." 2020 - "The captain embodies everything that is expected of the role. Lead by example? Check that box – John gives the most honest of efforts. Good luck beating this man to the training or locker rooms for a morning session. Concern for others? Empathy abounds in this man – John attends to his teammates needs before his own. Team first? Nothing gets in the way of the team's mission – John will never sacrifice our program's objectives and priorities." 2019 - "Defying his second-year status, the leadership observed from this man builds confidence in all of us for his continued growth as a reliable, punishing defensive midfielder." 2018 - "Having made a strong, positive impression already, this first-year midfielder is earning playing time for us as a short-stick defender. John anticipates the next play, whether it is the ball carrier's upcoming dodge or an opponent's attempted pass. He also foresees the impending slide or rotation well and is thus proving he has grown more confident with our slide packages. The workmanlike persona John brings to the program is particularly valuable."

33 PETER GARNO

Midfield • 5-11 • 190 • Sophomore
Haverford, Pa. • Haverford School

TIFFANY ON GARNO

2021 – “Rewarding to witness his fall semester ... enriching and diversifying his game ... he is creating himself into a multi-handed threat for our offensive midfield ... can score from deep with room and time, or off the dribble.” 2020 - “The impact was witnessed early in his UVA career this fall as Peter scored three goals in the Alumni Game, utilizing both hands to find the net. The growing confidence is supporting his drive for playing time and making our program better. Even if a regular spot on a midfield line cannot be secured in his first season with us, there is serious consideration for Peter playing on our EMO unit: his shot is the hardest, most deceptive on our team.”

2020

- Appeared in all six of UVA's games with two starts
- Made collegiate debut against Loyola and first career start against Air Force
- Scored six goals and dished out two assists

44 JAKE GIULIERI

Defense • 6-1 • 190 • Sophomore
Potomac, Md. • Georgetown Prep

TIFFANY ON GIULIERI

2021 – “Strong first-year here in Charlottesville ... great burst upfield when clearing ... tough V-hold on the corner ... closing the gap with timing of slides and rotations ... even played some SSDM this fall semester.” 2020 - “A promising start to his Virginia lacrosse career was witnessed this fall. Thrown into the proverbial fire, Jake was assigned elite attackmen in both practice and scrimmages. Jake’s next step will be to build upon that experience, incorporating more aggressive approaches to the ball carrier while also maintaining a trusted, active voice in our schemes.”

2020

13 GRIFFIN HARRIS

Attack • 5-11 • 195 • Senior
South Hamilton, Mass • The Governors

TIFFANY ON HARRIS

2021 – “Crafty offensive weapon ... more comfortable than it seems possible within close proximity of the crease and multiple swinging, slashing defenders ... embraces smashing into the opponent while never losing sight of the net.” 2020 - “How often is there a clear and identifiable explosion in a college athlete’s abilities as a third-year? This is exactly what we observed this fall in Charlottesville. By November, Griffin was scoring goals in bunches daily. Griffin’s discovery of the path to the realization of his greatest self has been tremendously productive for him and the program. He is earning playing time and will most likely be used as an offensive midfielder this spring.”

2019 - “The flashes of his jaw-dropping, electrifying maneuvers around the cage stimulate our sport’s senses: consistency will critical for his continued rise up the depth chart.” 2018 - “With deceptive dodging skills and the ability to score with both hands, Griffin presents a variety of means for creating offense. This first-year’s diverse talents are already being realized as Griffin has been able to leave his mark both as a midfielder and attackman. There is a promising future ahead for Griffin as he continues the maturation process of his skills and scheme comprehension.”

16 KYLE KOLOGY

Defense • 6-4 • 225 • Senior
Chatham, N.J. • Chatham HS

- USILA Preseason All-American (HM)
- Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-American (HM)

TIFFANY ON KOLOGY

2021 – “Dean of the Defense ... understated to call him a coach on the field ... provides matchup flexibility: he can be assigned to a top dodging threat or to an inside threat from where he can direct all traffic.” 2020 - “For unit efficacy, a strong, insightful field commander is highly valued. With a repertoire of alternatives to employ in ever-changing scenarios of offensive motions and imbalances, Kyle dictates many of our scheme employments and counters due to his highly developed acumen for the game. Even more impressive is the physical evolution Kyle has undergone as he has enhanced his strength, mass and fitness.” 2019 - “The rest of us are hopeful this once-upon-a-time walk-on is less hesitant as a second-year to bark out orders and dictate more of our schematic maneuvers. He comprehends the game at an extremely high level.” 2018 - “Not recruited and offered little optimism from myself for making the team, much less playing, this first-year has quickly proven me wrong. How does an unheralded defenseman quickly make such a shockingly positive impression? Kyle is a very intuitive lacrosse player who makes quick and very often accurate decisions as an off-ball defender. He is quickly becoming a man we can rely upon and our staff recognizes Kyle makes us a smarter defense.”

23 PETEY LASALLA

Midfield • 5-7 • 185 • Junior
Miller Place, N.Y. • Rocky Point HS

TIFFANY ON LASALLA

2021 – “Hits the ignition switch for our team ... attacks the cage relentlessly ... nothing in the weight room is too heavy ... adapting to the new faceoff rules ... fearless in pressurized moments.” 2020 - “What makes Petey the difference-maker he became in 2019? His control of the ball with his exits improved dramatically last season. But in addition, the lacrosse acumen he brings to the field allows this man to play a surprising variety of roles and to shatter the term specialist. How often do we throw a pass to a FO man? Petey’s teammates do this without reservation, and his impact on the offense can expand this spring.” 2019 - “Perceptive of offensive opportunities and subtleties, this quiet, unassuming and hard-charging first-year faceoff man is proving to be more than just a specialist at the X.”

3 IAN LAVIANO

Attack • 5-8 • 175 • Senior
Laurel Hollow, N.Y. • Cold Spring Harbor HS

TIFFANY ON LAVIANO

2021 – “Spirited as they come ... his extreme passion for playing this game infects the rest of us ... wakes up everyday craving more lacrosse ... no one, and I mean no one, is as maniacal about riding.” 2020 - “To use the word passionate to describe Ian’s affinity for the game of lacrosse and his teammates only begins to scratch the surface. The man never hits the off switch on the lacrosse field, where he moves faster without the ball than anyone else whether he is cutting to an opening in the defense or hunting the ball during our riding phase. There is something else there too with Ian - his effort lifts the energy of our practices as he shares his joy for playing.” 2019 - “A dynamic weapon, this man proved in his first-year as a Cavalier to always be dogged in riding situations and hunting ground balls and goals with a love for the game and for his fellow teammates that is rare.” 2018 - “Does anyone come to practice with more energy and excitement? Or is anyone else firing the ball faster at teammates and expecting the same in return? Ian has made a splash with our program in his first year on Grounds, playing with a startling amount of pizzazz. Ian combines an astute lacrosse knowledge with exceptional hand and foot quickness. His teammates are recognizing Ian’s abilities and they are enjoying being on his same line.”

22 QUENTIN MATSUI

Defense • 6-0 • 200 • Sophomore
Eden Prairie, Minn. • Eden Prairie HS

TIFFANY ON MATSUI

2021 – “Molding and evolving into a dominant close defenseman ... five months last year combined with this past fall semester have seen him emerge ... combination of his own unique cover techniques and new tricks.” 2020 - “How quickly would the first-year defender from Minnesota adapt to the speed of collegiate attackmen and the necessary communication for accurate decision-making? Quentin showed us that given a month, he would prove himself to be up for the one-on-one challenges. He has also become more vocal, demonstrating a growing comfort with the defensive schemes and terminology, which is preparing him to be a contributor right away.”

7 CHRIS
MERLE*Midfield • 6-1 • 200 • Junior
Westhampton Beach, N.Y. • Westhampton Beach HS*TIFFANY ON MERLE

2021 – “Rough and tumble quality to his game ... can ignore pain and the impending crunch or slash in pursuit of the lacrosse ball ... this hungry dog hunts ... cerebral acumen for defense has skyrocketed during his three years here.” 2020 - “After two years of playing multiple positions for us, including carrying a long stick, and overcoming injury, Chris is in the correct role and is prepared to have a break out season. Without fail, he proves himself daily to be one of our most tenacious competitors. Chris’ repertoire of traits makes him an ideal short-stick defensive midfielder: gritty, a ground ball vacuum and in possession of a powerful, neutralizing two-handed check.” 2019 - “Back and forth between the offensive and defensive meetings, film sessions and drills, this versatile, ball-swarming midfielder continues to prove his tireless work ethic in all of our training.” 2018 - “Chris’ role this spring will be as both an offensive and defensive midfielder while he learns our system. Having just entered UVA in January of 2018 after a semester at IMG, Chris will be asked to learn a great deal in a short amount of time.”

2020

Attack • 6-2 • 200 • Senior
Garnet Valley, Pa. • Garnet Valley HS

- USILA Preseason All-American (3rd)
- Inside Lacrosse Preseason All-American (2nd)
- Preseason All-ACC

TIFFANY ON MOORE

2021 – “Taking his leadership role with the team to astronomical levels ... personally taking responsibility for the offense and all of its constituents ... to say he is razor-focused and passionate about guiding his teammates is to understate.” 2020 - “The question of whether he should serve as a midfielder or attackman no longer lingers after the spring of 2019. Initiating much of our offense from behind the cage, Matt was both a scoring and feeding threat. What is truly inspiring is his will to be better: the self-evaluative list he creates at the end of each semester tediously critiques his own play, assessing mechanics and fundamentals he is adamant to improve upon.” 2019 - “Where No. 5 will be found on the field this spring is still to be determined as his combination of physical and elusive dodging puts pressure on a defense as both a midfielder and attackman.” 2018 - “The table is set after one semester. Matt spent his first few weeks on our practice field testing himself, discovering what he needed to learn and what needed to improve. Then he went to work: the subsequent results are promising. With growing confidence and positive support from his teammates, Matt is poised to make a difference for UVA on the offensive end in his first spring as a Cavalier.”

49 JACK PEELE

Midfield • 5-11 • 180 • Senior
McLean, Va. • The Potomac School

TIFFANY ON PEELE

2021 – “Made the graduation of Ryan Conrad a little less painful last year ... is an undeniable force on the wings of faceoffs ... a quick-study with the team defense ... will play a larger role as a SSDM this year.” 2020 - “Improvement is not always easily noticeable, but this is not the case with Jack. Due to his intrinsic drive, Jack propels himself forward with an absolute commitment to being the best student and teammate. His speed separates him, but it is the evolution of his shooting skills and the grasp of our offensive schemes that has allowed this former walk-on to play a prominent role in our program.” 2019 - “No sophomore slump here - quite the opposite as he has noticeably elevated his skills and awareness, proving to be a reliable option in Coach Kirwan’s arsenal.” 2018 - “He did it, and it was not by the proverbial skin of his teeth. This walk-on earned a spot on our roster due to effective dodging, accurate shooting and personal persistence. Jack quickly blended in with the men of our program, proving he belonged due to his play on the field and his unselfish demeanor. Having played both attack and midfield in high school, Jack can be useful in multiple ways for us but will focus primarily as a midfielder.”

46 RYAN PRIDE

Midfield • 5-9 • 185 • Senior
McLean, Va. • The Landon School

TIFFANY ON PRIDE

2021 – “Not backing down to anything ... love for his teammates is second to none ... playing as a SSDM for us ... possesses a powerful check ... one of our strongest in the weight room.” 2020 - “This midfielder will unfortunately not be on the field with us this year due to a knee injury sustained on the lacrosse fields of Lake Placid. But the dedication both to his recovery and to supporting the needs of his teammates has been inspiring to witness. It is difficult to exemplify leadership skills from the literal and proverbial sidelines, but Ryan is doing exactly this.” 2019 - “Don’t try to bring more ‘juice’ than this man – such an attempt will fail as he attacks each training session with a zeal that is supporting his ever-improving game.” 2018 - “With little shortage of confidence, Ryan steps on the field emotionally prepared to make plays. He is a versatile athlete for our program, capable of filling roles at both ends of the field. Ryan competes with a clearly recognizable intensity, similar to the razor-sharp focused energy he brings to the weight room. This midfielder will face multiple tasks this spring as he plays different positions and supports the needs of the team.”

19 REGAN QUINN

Midfield • 6-2 • 190 • Senior
Rockville Centre, N.Y. • Chaminade HS

TIFFANY ON QUINN

2021 – “Difficult to categorize as shooter or feeder first ... can unload heat but is always surveying and spying open teammates ... continues to sacrifice and enhance his training and strength.” 2020 - “ Does anyone have better vision on the team? Regan is superb with both putting the ball on the ear of the recipient as well as anticipating not yet realized openings in a defense while his teammates move. His ability to do such with both hands makes Regan that much more effective with putting pressure on the opposition, who must also respect the impressive range he has with his outside shot.”

2019 - “This second-year’s repertoire of feeds and shots is growing in complexity and efficacy, building upon the meaningful experience he earned in his first season in Charlottesville.” 2018 - “The typical growing pains experienced during the transition from high school lacrosse to the collegiate level were witnessed earlier this fall for Regan, but changes for the better are starting to be observed. Regan can fire the ball with startling speed, and he is doing so with both hands. There is a path to playing time for Regan, and he can realize this route with continued growth in both his dodging and assuredness in himself.”

Alex Rode was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 2019 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Tournament.

38 ALEX RODE

Goalie • 6-1 • 200 • Senior
Timonium, Md. • St. Paul's

TIFFANY ON RODE

2021 – “One of a kind ... one of the best ever to play in goal in Charlottesville ... brings a linebacker mentality to the goalie position ... would rather be saying “man” versus “ball” in a 2v1 encounter.” 2020 - “What a transformation: the quiet man who preferred the shadows is becoming a boisterous field general. Alex’s voice in practice has grown exponentially, evidenced in both practices and games. The advantages of such abound, as the rest of us are witnessing his heightened level of play in the goal along with more consistency. The improvement in our team’s transition offense has much to do with Alex sparking it with aggressive, accurate outlets.” 2019 - “Despite earning the starting position for much of last season, we are witnessing both a new level of stopping the ball and accuracy with outlet passes that characterize a newfound approach to being an elite athlete.” 2018 - “A first-year goalie, this mild-mannered, unassuming young man off the field transforms himself once he steps into the crease. It is both this presence and Alex’s shot-stopping abilities that builds his teammates’ confidence in him. The poise belies his youth, yet it is clearly evident. Alex is also demonstrating the dexterity to quickly and accurately release the ball with his outlet passing after a save. Alex is in the thick of the competition for the starting position in our goal.”

2020

- Started all six of UVA’s games
- No. 1 in the ACC and No. 16 in the nation with 13.17 saves per game
- No. 2 in the ACC and No. 18 in the nation with a .552 save percentage
- Named ACC Defensive Player of the Week after making 19 saves in UVA’s season-opening win over Loyola
- Also picked up six ground balls and caused two turnovers against Loyola
- Saved 17 shots against Brown

2019

- Appeared in 19 of UVA’s 20 games with 17 starts
- Posted an 15-3 record as a sophomore goalie
- Named Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Tournament after going 4-0 with 43 saves
- Recorded 18 saves in the NCAA semifinal round against Duke and 13 saves in the NCAA title game against Yale
- Picked up 50 ground balls, caused three turnovers and dished one assist

- Found Jared Conners for a score against Maryland in the NCAA quarterfinal round for his first career point
- Made 19 saves against Brown
- Made 11 saves in the ACC title game against Notre Dame
- Preseason All-ACC

2018

- Appeared in 15 of UVA’s 18 games with 12 starts
- Posted an 8-6 record as a freshman goalie
- Made first collegiate start against Princeton
- His 138 saves places him No. 4 all-time among UVA freshman goalies
- Picked up 53 ground balls and caused eight turnovers

31 PAUL RODRIGUEZ

Attack • 6-1 • 200 • Junior
Los Angeles, Calif. • Harvard-Westlake HS

TIFFANY ON RODRIGUEZ

2021 – “Goal-scorer’s mentality ... “heads” player ... very difficult to double-team ... made significant improvement this past fall semester ... accurate shooting while both moving towards or away from the cage.” 2020 - “Looking for the prototype and fundamentally precise lacrosse player? Watch Paul Rodriguez play the game. Or, better yet, ask our defense to tell you who is the toughest man to double team or who shows little of his stick as he possesses the ball. Paul is a fantastic student of the game, with an analytical approach to incorporating the ideals of our sport in order to make himself the most technical player in our program.” 2019 - “The progress this first-year is making is identifiable almost daily - shooting, stickwork and dodging techniques continue to adapt and become enhanced.”

47 DAVID ROSELLE

Goalie • 6-2 • 205 • Sophomore
Charlotte, N.C. • St. Paul’s School (N.H.)

TIFFANY ON ROSELLE

2021 – “No one improved more than him this fall semester ... gives of himself tremendously to the rest of us ... gets upset if our staff tries to reduce his workload of real shots ... makes the rest of us better.” 2020 - “The battle to earn a place on our roster was a significant one as three men vied for the extra goalie slot. David came through as the clear winner, demonstrating an ability to make saves with both his body and stick, as well as accuracy with his outlet passes. David has provided an honest effort each training session, strengthening our roster and program.”

TIFFANY ON SALLADE

2021 – “The time has come ... preparing to emerge as an impact player ... has made affirming strides with schematic comprehension ... this is allowing him to be less hesitant and to unleash his significant athleticism.” 2020 - “It is wonderful to have this upbeat, unflappable defensive midfielder back to full health. With the superb speed and athleticism which Grayson possesses, he can ignite our transition game with electrifying bursts. He is also proving to have a strong technical grasp of our defensive schemes. As Grayson gains more experience, there is ample reason to anticipate his role expanding with faceoff wings and early offense.” 2019 - “Having made an immediate athletic impact, this first-year is now proving to possess a high level of defensive scheme comprehension and clearing capability.”

Defense • 6-5 • 215 • Sophomore
Dallas, Texas • Highland Park HS

• Name is pronounced Sauce-Tad

TIFFANY ON SAUSTAD

2021 – “Dramatically missed last year, and not just because of his cover skills ... combines length with Hoover-esque qualities on ground balls ... strong foundation of knowledge of the defense, and is growing more comfortable directing others.” 2020 – “How does a first-year handle the pressure of competing in some of the most intense venues in college lacrosse while often being assigned the opposing team's best attackman? The answer lies in both the poise and competitiveness of the man and also the high-level football experience Cade enjoyed while winning state titles at Highland Park. Cade's next step in his evolution includes playing a larger role in commanding the defense.” 2019 - “It did not take long for this first-year to make a strong, positive impression on the rest of us and to climb the depth chart to a place where playing time and even a starting position can be earned.”

1 CONNOR SHELLENBERGER

Attack • 6-1 • 195 • RS-Freshman
Charlottesville, Va. • St. Anne's Belfield

TIFFANY ON SHELLENBERGER

2021 – “Evolution of offensive tactics occurring in front of our eyes daily ... Combination of powerful dodges being added to his explosive shot ... learning both the midfield and attack roles.” 2020 - “Where do you put a first-year player who can make an impact at both attack and midfield? Connor’s versatility was seen daily this fall as we asked him to play both positions. With a dynamic burst and powerful shot, he is a scoring threat from multiple spots on the field. As he throws caution to the wind and becomes less concerned with turnovers, Connor’s game will rise to the next level.”

12 JACK SIMMONS

Midfield • 5-10 • 180 • Junior
Lutherville, Md. • McDonogh School

TIFFANY ON SIMMONS

2021 – “Brings a cerebral approach ... possesses a startling jolt to his game, both with his speed and shot ... believes in his teammates and willing to support them in any way he is asked.” 2020 - “There is no denying the speed he possesses, making Jack an ideal initiator from up top in our offense. Jack is difficult to defend one-on-one, exemplified by his ability to sweep across the middle despite efforts to prevent such. Sean Kirwan utilized Jack in several playoff games in 2019 to do just this. We are eager to observe his growth and continued development this spring.” 2019 - “With a bolt of lightning burst characterizing both his foot speed and the heat he produces with his overhand shot, there is an opportunity for this first-year to create an impact in his first season.”

2020 SEASON IN REVIEW

Game 1 Virginia 12, Loyola 9 Feb. 8 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers used a strong first half to outlast the No. 14 Loyola Greyhounds, 12-9, at Klöckner Stadium.

Cavalier goalie Alex Rode tied his career high with 19 saves, including 13 in the first half as Virginia built a 9-3 heading into intermission.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA opened the game on a 4-1 run in the first quarter, netting goals by Ian Laviano, Matt Moore and two from Payton Cormier. Moore's unassisted score at 3:16 in the first capped the run. After Loyola scored an extra-man goal at 13:42 by Adam Poitras, via a Aidan Olmstead helper, The Cavaliers reeled off five-straight goals, taking a commanding 9-2 lead.

Peter Garno started the spurt with his first collegiate goal, while Moore scored two more goals and assisted another. Michael Bienkowski capped the run on a Laviano assist. The seven-goal UVA lead was insurmountable for the Greyhounds, despite finishing the game on a 7-3 streak

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"I loved how physical we played today. We came out with really good energy. We probably had too many penalties because of that physicality and energy, but that's the style of lacrosse we want to play and we just have to rely on our man-down defense to be solid. We did a decent job man-down today, but boy, the guy behind us [Alex Rode] is who bailed us out and allowed us to breathe a little better with Alex Rode being such a wall in the cage. Seeing an extension of what he did last May, and we've seen that in practice and throughout the scrimmages, and it was really wonderful to see that come to fruition in the first game of 2020. Offensively you can see how we can go on big runs. Certainly not happy with how we played lacrosse in the second half offensively. Give credit to Loyola's zone defense and their goalie play, but I thought we became a little tight and we have to make sure we aren't going a little shorter with our possessions and that we're playing a little more free and looser." – Lars Tiffany

Game 2 Virginia 12, Lehigh 8 Feb. 15 • Charlottesville, Va.

The No. 1 Virginia Cavaliers used a strong first quarter to outlast the No. 18 Lehigh Mountain Hawks, 12-8, at Klöckner Stadium.

Michael Kraus led the Cavaliers with four goals and one assist in the winning effort. The assist for Kraus gave him 100 for his career, making him the fourth Cavalier all-time to record 100+ career goals and 100+ career assists. He is also the 10th player in ACC history to accomplish this feat.

HOW IT HAPPENED

The Cavaliers opened the game on a 6-1 run to start the first quarter. Kraus scored three goals during the run, while UVA also received scores from Matt Moore, Jared Conners and Payton Cormier. Peter Garno found Cormier with 1:39 left in the first quarter to cap the strong UVA start.

Lehigh made it a game in the second quarter, scoring three-straight goals to cut UVA's lead to two goals, 6-4. Christian Mule' scored with 8:44 left in the first half to finish off the run. Lehigh didn't score again for the next 22:54 and UVA began to put the game out of reach, staking claim to a 9-4 advantage with 2:40 left to play in the third quarter. Goals by Moore and Kraus to start the fourth quarter solidified the UVA lead, 11-5, with 9:14 left to play as the Cavaliers held on for the victory.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Contested ground balls were the critical key today. We felt like when there were two or three Lehigh men and two to three Virginia men who came up with a lot of those extra possessions, which was critical in a game where the opponent was very strong at the faceoff x as Lehigh is with both [Conor] Gaffney and [Mike] Sisselberger. Our team defense, there was some really good communication going on out there. Give Lehigh's coaching staff credit for making adjustments throughout the game. Minor adjustments, trying to go after what we were doing defensively, so we had to make some adjustments. Our young defense, really kind of spearheaded by Kyle Kology and his decision-making. He [Kology] made some really good decisions on when to slide, when to support the dodger and changing some slides at times. It's really a credit to Kyle and the rest of the defense working together. Really appreciative of the fans coming out on a near freezing temperature day but what a beautiful, sunny day to play lacrosse at Klöckner again." – Lars Tiffany

Game 3
Princeton 16, Virginia 12
Feb. 22 • Charlottesville, Va.

No. 2 Virginia dropped its first game of the season, 16-12, to the Princeton Tigers at Klöckner Stadium. The loss snapped UVA's 10-game winning streak that dated back to an April 13, 2019 loss at Duke.

HOW IT HAPPENED

With Virginia leading, 7-6, with 3:58 left in the second quarter, Princeton went on a 6-1 run that put the Cavaliers on their heels for the rest of the afternoon. UVA scored on a Matt Moore singer at 4:06 in the second to tie the game, 6-6. On the ensuing faceoff, Petey LaSalla won the draw and streaked to give UVA its final lead of the game at 3:58 in the second quarter.

Tewaaraton Trophy candidate Michael Sowers, who tallied eight points in the game (4 goals, 4 assists), started the Princeton run with 1:53 left to play in the second quarter. By the time PU's Connor McCarthy scored an extra-man goal at 3:02 in the third quarter, the Tigers owned a steady 12-8 lead.

A 4-1 UVA run brought the Cavaliers to within one goal, 13-12, capped when Moore found Ian Laviano with 8:54 left to play. UVA had a chance to tie, but Laviano's shot was saved and the Tigers ran the transition, resulting in a Princeton goal by Phillip Robertson at 5:11 to start a final 3-0 run that capped the win.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"This game was played really fast. That is the way the game is meant to be played. I love how quickly Princeton moves and plays their transition offense and how quickly they got the ball up off the ground. We certainly have to learn from what happened today and learn from our opponent. The pace I think caught us off guard a little bit and I give credit to their players and the Princeton coaching staff. I think we're just starting to realize Princeton isn't just a one-man team. Michael Sowers is an incredible player, the leader in the Tewaaraton [Trophy] hunt right now, but the people around him are going hard to the goal. They are playing aggressive defense, making plays and picking up key ground balls. That's a heck of an opponent we just faced today."— Lars Tiffany

Game 4
Virginia 18, High Point 15
Feb. 25 • Charlottesville, Va.

No. 8 Virginia used a late 3-0 run to outlast the High Point Panthers, 18-15, at Klöckner Stadium. The win was the 150th by the Cavaliers at Klöckner Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED

High Point tied the game, 15-15, on a Devon Buckshot goal with 9:32 left in the game. UVA responded with a 3-0 run to outlast the Panthers. Ian Laviano started the run when Jeff Conner found the attackman on the crease for a goal at 2:57 in the fourth. UVA won the ensuing faceoff and in transition Jared Conners found Michael Kraus with 2:38 left in regulation. Kraus scored an empty-net goal with 43 seconds left to cap the run and secure the win.

The Panthers opened the game on a 4-1 lead after Dalton Sulver scored with 7:09 left in the first quarter. UVA responded quickly with a 9-1 run, taking a commanding 10-5 lead with 4:31 left in the second quarter. Kraus scored twice during the run and Payton Cormier finished off his first-quarter hat trick.

High Point utilized an 8-3 run to tie the game, 13-13, as time expired in the third quarter. UVA and HPU traded goals on the way to a 15-15 tie, setting up UVA's final run.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"First of all, what a huge effort by Michael Kraus. He didn't practice yesterday because of some sort of stomach bug and we weren't sure he was going to play at all today. For him to come out and score five goals and have a couple assists was a big effort. With the faceoff game, we really needed every single one of those possessions. Petey LaSalla was fantastic, as was Justin Schwenk, and that was very important because this High Point team can score goals and they can score goals quickly. Their transition game is so dynamic. We were fortunate that our clearing was 100 percent today, we were getting more possessions on faceoffs and we needed every one of those against a high-powered offense."— Lars Tiffany

Virginia 15, Air Force 5
March 1 • Charlottesville, Va.

No. 8 Virginia cruised to a home victory over the Air Force Falcons, 15-5, at Klöckner Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED

UVA held a 6-3 lead with 5:48 left in the second quarter after Air Force's Ethan Grandolfo scored on a Brandon Dodd helper, cutting UVA's lead to three goals. The UVA vise grip went into effect as UVA went on a 9-0 run and held the Falcons scoreless for the next 32:31 of game action to solidify the win.

Peter Garno started the run with his second goal of the game with 3:45 left in the second quarter on a Michael Kraus helper. Kraus capped the streak with an extra-man goal on a Jeff Conner assist with 8:52 left to play. Birthday boy Payton Cormier scored twice during the run. In the closing 3:17 of the game, Air Force managed two goals to snap its scoring drought in the losing effort.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"Today was certainly our best all-around effort. In terms of our team offense, I think we shot the ball as well as we've shot and this was against a great goalie. [Braden] Host has been fantastic and we scored at a high rate. Defense, communicating, when to slide, when not to slide, we made some really good decisions there. When do we need to support the dodge and when not to? We were able to get the shot clock low during their offensive possessions. And, I am certainly really grateful for how well we rode today in terms of creating that pressure with our ten-man ride, and causing a bunch of turnovers and getting the ball back."— Lars Tiffany

Game 6
Brown 14, Virginia 13
March 8 • Providence, R.I.

No. 8 Virginia (4-2) could not overcome Brown's (3-2) eight third-quarter goals as the Cavaliers dropped their second game of the year, 14-13, at Stevenson-Pincince Field.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Virginia came out strong, taking an early 8-2 lead and holding the Bears scoreless for a period 20:53 between the first and second quarters.

Brown responded with an 8-2 streak to take a 9-8 lead, its first of the game, with 7:35 left in the third quarter. Luke McCaleb capped a 7-0 run that gave Brown the lead. UVA responded quickly with back-to-back goals from Matt Moore and Jack Peele, giving the Cavaliers their final lead of the day at 10-9 with 5:27 left in the third quarter.

The Bears reeled off three straight goals to take a 12-10 lead into the fourth quarter. UVA responded as Moore and Dox Aitken scored to tie the game, 12-12, with 7:49 left to play. Brown took the lead for good, 13-12, with 6:17 left. After a UVA turnover, Brown scored an empty-net goal with 42 seconds left for the two-goal advantage, 14-12.

UVA responded quickly as Justin Schwenk won the ensuing faceoff and found Moore with 37 seconds left to bring the Cavaliers back into striking distance. Schwenk won the final faceoff and UVA called a timeout to set up a play, but a turnover with 11 seconds left by Moore sealed the Brown victory.

FROM THE LOCKER ROOM

"What an outstanding atmosphere for a college lacrosse game. Combining the impressive new additions to Stevenson-Pincince Field with an enthusiastic and boisterous crowd, that was an exciting contest to be a part of. But the real credit goes to the Brown Bears for their intensity of play and the relentless pressure they put on our defense, breaking us down often in the second half. I did not make the necessary adjustments in the second half to prepare our defense for the Brown offensive push. Brown was the better team and they did not flinch despite being down four goals at the half."— Lars Tiffany

ADMINISTRATION

JAMES E. RYAN University President

James E. Ryan serves as the ninth president of the University of Virginia. A leading expert on law and education, Ryan has written extensively about the ways in which law structures educational opportunity. His articles and essays address such topics as school desegregation, school finance, school choice, standards and testing, pre-K, and the intersection of special education and neuroscience. Ryan is also the coauthor of the textbook "Educational Policy and the Law" and the author of "Five Miles Away, A World Apart," which was published in 2010 by Oxford University Press. Ryan's most recent book, "Wait, What? And Life's Other Essential Questions," based on his popular 2016 commencement speech, was published in 2017 by HarperOne and is a New York Times bestseller. In addition, Ryan has authored articles on constitutional law and theory and has argued before the United States Supreme Court.

Before coming to UVA, Ryan served as dean of the Harvard Graduate School of Education. In this role, Ryan increased the size, strength, and diversity of the faculty through new hires and promotions. He established the Harvard Teacher Fellows program, an innovative teacher training program for Harvard College seniors and recent alumni, and began a school-wide effort to reimagine its master's degree programs. Ryan oversaw an expansion of professional education, including the creation of two new online certificate programs, and launched Usable Knowledge, an online resource designed to broadly disseminate actionable research findings in education. He and colleagues also embarked on an ongoing effort entitled "Fulfilling the Promise of Diversity," intended to prepare students for careers working in diverse environments, and resulting in new courses, prominent speakers, and teaching workshops related to diversity and inclusion. Under his leadership, the school surpassed its campaign goal of $250 million more than a year ahead of schedule, and raised the largest gift in the school's history, a $35.5 million gift to establish the Zaentz Early Education Initiative.

Before his deanship, Ryan was the Matheson & Morgenthau Distinguished Professor at the University of Virginia School of Law. He also served as academic associate dean from 2005 to 2009 and founded and directed the school's Program in Law and Public Service. While at Virginia, Ryan received an All-University Teaching Award, an Outstanding Faculty Award from the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, and several awards for his scholarship. Ryan has been a visiting professor at Harvard, Yale, and the University of Auckland. He has also served on numerous education boards and commissions, including the U.S. Department of Education's Equity and Excellence Commission and the board of the Maya Angelou Public Charter School in Washington, D.C.

Ryan received his AB summa cum laude from Yale University and his JD from the University of Virginia, which he attended on a full scholarship and from which he graduated first in his class. After law school, Ryan clerked for William H. Rehnquist, the late Chief Justice of the United States, and then worked in Newark, N.J., as a public interest lawyer before entering into teaching. Ryan and his wife, Katie, who is also an alum of the UVA School of Law, have four children.

CARLA WILLIAMS Director of Athletics

With a background as a student-athlete, coach and administrator, Carla Williams' approach to leading Virginia is forward thinking. Her focus is on providing opportunities for student-athletes to maximize their college experience while establishing a culture and support system for the sport programs to compete for championships. Above all, her commitment to academic excellence is unwavering.

Williams impact at UVA was recognized when she was named the Women Leaders in College Sports 2019 Administrator of the Year for all NCAA Division I FBS athletics programs

Williams wants student-athletes at UVA to grow, prosper and prepare themselves for their futures away from athletic competitions. To ensure that approach becomes a reality, she announced The Master Plan project in 2018 that will set the course for generations of future Hoos.

The $180 million Master Plan addresses the immediate needs to upgrade facilities for the Cavalier football program and UVA Olympic Sports. Administrative buildings, sport performance centers and new playing surfaces will be the most visible phases of the project that also includes the demolition of University Hall.

The services and support areas encompassed within the project will have meaningful and lasting impacts on student-athletes in the form of leadership, ethics, stewardship, wellness and academic achievement.

It is a plan that is aggressive in scope, but one that Williams feels is needed to ensure UVA's place among the nation's leading athletics departments. The end result will provide student-athletes an unsurpassed experience in terms of personal development.

During her short tenure as UVA's athletics director, Williams has witnessed a revival of the Cavalier football program and a history-making performance by the men's basketball team. Under coach Bronco Mendenhall, UVA's football program has gone from a two-win season in 2016 to winning the ACC's Coastal Division in 2019 and playing in the ACC Championship Game and the Orange Bowl

The Virginia men's basketball team won the program's first NCAA Championship in 2019, finishing the tournament with a run of three dramatic come-from-behind victories to cap an epic storyline after UVA exited the championship a year earlier as the first No. 1 seed to lose to a No. 16 seed.

The Cavalier men's lacrosse team captured its eighth national title in 2019 and helped UVA to an eighth-place finish in the Directors' Cup. Virginia also claimed the Capitol One Cup for men's sports in 2019, the second time it won the award since 2015.

In the classroom, UVA student-athletes have set record numbers (496 in 2020) for placement on the ACC Honor Roll, achieved highest grade point average totals in program history and been recognized by the NCAA for outstanding achievement on academic progress reports. A total of five UVA student-athletes were named their sport's respective ACC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2019-20. Williams' appointment at Virginia in October of 2017 made her the first female African-American athletics director at a Power Five conference institution. At the time, she was the fifth active female athletics director at that level.

Recently, Williams worked on the NCAA's NIL Legislation Solutions Group to examine student-athlete name, image and likeness rights and is a member of the NCAA Federal and State Legislation Working Group.

Prior to Virginia, Williams served as an athletics administrator at the University of Georgia for 13 years and was named deputy director of athletics in 2015. During Williams' tenure as an administrator at Georgia, its athletics teams won 16 NCAA team championships and 37 Southeastern Conference titles.

In her role as deputy director of athletics at Georgia, Williams was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the department and its $127 million budget. She served as administrator for the Bulldogs' football and Lady Bulldogs' women's basketball programs and also had supervisory responsibility for academic support services, business operations, compliance, event management, external operations, facilities and new construction, human resources, sports facilitators (21 sports and 15 head coaches), sports medicine, strength and conditioning, student services and ticketing. She helped to oversee $162 million in facility additions, upgrades and improvements for the UGA athletics program.

Williams served as the Georgia Athletic Association's liaison to the president's office, provost's office, general counsel, equal opportunity office and student affairs. She also served as the athletics department's deputy Title IX officer.

Williams has the unique background of competing, coaching and administering at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. She was an All-SEC guard on the basketball court, then helped recruit and coach some of the greatest teams in Georgia's history before moving on to become one of the highest-ranking female administrators in Division I athletics.

Williams began her administrative career at Georgia in 2004. She served as associate athletic director (2004-2008), senior associate athletic director (2008-2011) and executive associate athletic director (2011-2015) before being promoted to deputy director of athletics.

Prior to joining the Bulldogs' staff, Williams was an assistant director of athletics at Vanderbilt (2000-03) and an associate director of athletics (2003-04). She oversaw 11 men's and women's sports as well as the Commodores' CHAMPS/Life Skills program. From 1997-1998, Williams was coordinator for student-athlete development and life skills at Florida State. While completing her Ph.D. in sport administration, Williams was also a graduate assistant for athletic academic support from 1998-2000.

Williams was instrumental in Georgia's programming to enhance the lives of its student-athletes and prepare them for a life beyond athletics, including its comprehensive "The Georgia Way" program. She also helped build ties for Bulldog alumni, including the creation of UGA's NFL alumni development program. Her involvement at Georgia included serving as a member of the student-athlete conduct committee and student wellness committee. She was involved in general campus affairs which included serving on the University's Terry College of Business board of directors and being active in numerous campus personnel search committees.

NCAA and national organization committee membership are a big part of Williams' resume. She served on the executive committee (2010-2014) for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. She was a member of the Southeastern Conference's executive committee (2009-2011), participated on the NCAA women's basketball issues committee (2010-2014) and was an executive board member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (2007-2009).

A native of LaGrange, Ga., Williams was a three-year starter for the Lady Bulldogs from 1987-89. She finished her career with 1,115 points, 425 assists and 285 steals. Those tallies ranked No. 10, No. 2 and No. 3 among Georgia's career leaders at the completion of her career.

Williams was then an assistant coach on hall of fame coach Andy Landers' staff from 1991-96, including teams which reached the 1995 and 1996 Final Fours, finished as NCAA runner-up in 1996 and won the 1991 and 1996 SEC Championships. Following the 1995-96 season, Williams moved into administration and served as UGA's assistant director of compliance from 1996-97 before continuing her ascent up the administrative ranks at Florida State, Vanderbilt and Georgia.

Williams was an active member in her community, local schools and church and was on the board of directors for the Athens Area Community Foundation and LLL Community Group. She has served as a committee member for Oconee County School System projects and been involved in the Athens Clarke County Mentor Program.

In May 2015, Williams was recognized by the Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia as the Athens Woman of Distinction. That same year she was named one of the top-10 senior woman administrators in the NCAA by the website CollegeAD.org.

Williams and her husband Brian, who holds the title of associate professor of public policy at UVA's Frank Batten School of Leadership and Public Policy, have three children: daughters, Carmen and Camryn, and a son, Joshua.
