

Virginia Postgame Notes

- UVA is 66-53-1 in night games and 42-18-1 at Scott Stadium at night.
- Virginia has now won eight-straight night games
- The Cavaliers improve to 84-39-9 all-time in season openers
- Under Bronco Mendenhall, Virginia has won five of six season openers
- Billy Kemp had four receptions against W&M and now has 108 for his career, tied with Patrick Jeffers for the 19th most in UVA history.
- Kemp's career-high, 55-yard punt return in the first quarter setup the game's only points in the first quarter, a 39-yard field goal by Justin Duenkel.
- The Cavalier defense held William & Mary to 183 yards of total offense, the first time holding an opponent to under 200 yards since limiting the Tribe to 193 in 2019.
- Virginia's last shutout in a season opener came on August 30, 2003, a 27-0 blanking of Duke
- Virginia is 31-6-1 against W&M and has won five-straight meetings
- Saturday's shutout was the 13th against William & Mary in 39 all-time games. The last time the Cavaliers shutout the Tribe was in 1951, a 46-0 victory in Charlottesville.
- It marked the first time William & Mary was shutout since September 29, 2018 (23-0 against Colgate).
- Quarterback Brennan Armstrong passed for 336 yards, his second 300-yard passing game of his career
- The Cavalier offense amassed 500 yards of total offense for the three-straight home game. The Cavaliers compiled 518 yards against Abilene Christian on Nov. 21 and 549 against Boston College in last year's home finale.
- Armstrong scored Virginia's first touchdown of the season, a two-yard rush in the second quarter. The signal caller also scored the first of the year last year, a four-yard score against Duke.
- UVA has now won nine-straight games against non-conference opponents at Scott Stadium. UVA is 10-2 under Mendenhall against non-ACC foes.
- Since 2019, Virginia is 13-1 at Scott Stadium.
- Linebacker Nick Jackson led UVA with 12 tackles, the eighth time in his career he's recorded 10 or more tackles.
- Saturday marked the first career starts for Dontavion Wicks, Chayce Chalmers and Fentrell Cypress.
- Three true freshmen made their debut for the Cavaliers – West Weeks, Langston Long and Jacob Rodriguez.
