Five Starting Notes

1 – Navy is beginning its 115th season of basketball Tuesday night.

2 – Navy and Virginia met two years ago in Charlottesville. The Cavaliers posted a 65-56 victory over the Mids that day. Navy was within one point, 41-40, when Virginia went on a 12-0 run.

3 – The Mids are starting the season with three-straight games against teams from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The last time Navy faced three teams from the ACC at any point in a single season was in the 1968-69 campaign.

4 – Navy is facing a nationally-ranked team for the sixth time under head coach Ed DeChellis. Most recently, Virginia was ranked 13th by the coaches and 16th by the AP when it played Navy on Dec. 29, 2019.

5 – Tuesday's game will be the 299th for Ed DeChellis as the head coach of the Mids.

About Navy

- Navy returns four starters,10 letter winners and 19 players from last year's team.
- The Mids posted a 15-3 overall record and, with a 12-1 record, won the south division and earned the No. 1 seed in the Patriot League Tournament for the first time since the 1997 event.
- Included among last year's wins were a 78-71 win at Georgetown and a 73-67 victory over Mount St. Mary's, which won the Northeast Conference Tournament to advance to the NCAA Tournament.
- The one starter Navy lost from last year is Cam Davis. A first-team all-league performer as a senior, Davis led the Mids in both scoring (17.1 ppg) and assists (41) and tied for the team lead in steals (22).

About Virginia

- Virginia brings back two starters and nine letter winners from its 2020-21 team.
- The Cavaliers compiled an 18-7 overall record and won the ACC's regular season with a 13-4 record last year.
- Virginia advanced to the NCAA Tournament (first round) for the seventh-straight season in which the tournament was held.
- The two national 2021-22 preseason polls each placed Virginia 25th.

Navy-Virginia Series

- Navy holds a 32-14 advantage in the all-time series with Virginia.
- The teams first met, Feb. 5, 1910, in Annapolis. Navy posted a 51-6 victory in that game, which was played 37,168 days ago from Tuesday night.
- Virginia has won each of the last eight games played in the series, dating back to the 1967-68 season.
- Navy's last win came on Feb. 5, 1967, in Annapolis.
- The Cavaliers hold a 7-1 advantage in games played in Charlottesville. Navy's only road win in the series came on Jan. 9, 1932, in what was the first game played in the series outside of Annapolis.
- The teams met fairly regularly from the 1929-30 through the 1973-74 seasons. After that span, the teams have met during the 2013-14 and 2019-20 seasons.

Navy-Virginia Pace

- Possessions will be at a premium when Navy and Virginia square off as each team typically ranks along the slowest-paced teams in the country

Game Notes

Navy vs. Nationally-Ranked Teams

- Virginia is ranked 25th in both sets of national preseason polls.
- The Cavaliers will be the sixth team Navy will face under Ed DeChellis that held a national ranking at the time of the game.

- Navy's last victory against a nationally-ranked team was March 16, 1986, when the David Robinson-led Mids posted a 97-85 win at Syracuse in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Orange held rankings of No. 4 and No. 5 in that game against the No. 17 Mids.

DeChellis on 2021-22 Non-League Schedule

- "We can simulate their rotation, we can simulate the pack (defense) for the most part. What we can't simulate is their size. As I always tell our guys and staff, it is going to take us a few minutes to get up to speed with the speed and the agility. We can't simulate the length. Virginia is really long this year. Then you get Virginia Tech and then you get Louisville. You can't simulate the speed of the game, the length of the game, the quickness. The court will look a lot smaller because their guys are bigger, but we know how to hedge ball screens and work the post. We can work on those things and what the looks are."
- "People say you are crazy for playing the schedule you are playing. Yeah, maybe, but there is only one team from our league going to the NCAA Tournament. We are not a two-bid league, we are a one-bid league. So I am going to try and make it as tough and as competitive as I possibly can in a non-conference schedule, because I think our guys can do it. I think our guys have proven they can win a big game or two, like beating George Washington here (in Annapolis) and Georgetown on the road. So why not challenge them?"

First ACC Network Games

- Tuesday's game will mark Navy's first appearance on the ACC Network. The Mids will not have to wait long to play their second game on the network that is in its third year of existence as Navy's Nov. 15 game at Louisville also will air on the network.

Miscellaneous Game Records

- Navy has posted a 2-0 record in games played on Nov. 9.
- The Mids have posted a 162-105 record in games played against teams from the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- Navy has tallied a 53-76 record in games played in Virginia.

DeChellis Nears 300th Game at Navy

- Friday's game against Virginia Tech will be the 300th game for Ed DeChellis at Navy. That will tie him with John Wilson for fourth place for the most games as the head coach of the Mids.

Eighth-Annual Veterans Classic

- Navy returns to Annapolis after facing the Cavaliers to play host to the eighth-annual Veterans Classic Friday.
- Traditionally held around the Veterans Day holiday weekend, the event pays tribute to veterans of all our armed forces.
- This year's field features Utah State vs. Richmond and Virginia Tech vs. Navy.
- The teams immerse themselves in the USNA on Thursday through tours of ship simulators, helicopters, and ships. They then eat lunch in King Hall with members of the Brigade of Midshipmen.

About the United States Naval Academy

The U.S. Naval Academy

As the undergraduate college of the Naval service, the Naval Academy prepares young men and women to become professional officers in the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps. USNA students are midshipmen on active duty in the U.S. Navy. They attend the academy for four years, graduating with bachelor of science degrees and reserve commissions as ensigns in the Navy or second lieutenants in the Marine Corps. Naval Academy graduates serve at least five years as Navy or Marine Corps officers.

Founded in 1845, Academy started as the Naval School on 10 acres of old Fort Severn in Annapolis with an original class of 55. In 1850 it became the United States Naval Academy. A new curriculum went into effect requiring midshipmen to study at the Academy for four years and to train aboard ships each summer. Congress authorized the Naval Academy to begin awarding bachelor of science degrees in 1933.

USNA Mission Statement

"To develop midshipmen morally, mentally and physically and to imbue them with the highest ideals of duty, honor and loyalty in order to graduate leaders who are dedicated to a career of naval service and have potential for future development in mind and character to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship and government."

Midshipman

The word midshipman first appeared in English in the 17th century in the form of the word midshipman to designate those men who were stationed "amidships," i.e. in the waist or middle portion of the vessel, while on duty. By 1687, the second 's' had been dropped to give the current form of the word. Midshipmen were originally boys, sometimes as young as seven or eight, who were apprenticed to sea captains to learn the sailor's trade.

In the early days of the American Navy, midshipmen trained aboard ship until they were eventually commissioned as ensigns. With the founding of the Naval Academy in 1845, it became possible, as it still is, for a midshipman to enter the Navy directly from civilian life.

Head Coach Ed DeChellis

- Ed DeChellis is in his 11th season as the head coach of the Mids.
- The native of Monaca, Pa., is a 1982 graduate of Penn State (B.A. in secondary education).
- He has guided the Mids to 109 victories over the last seven seasons (2014-15 through 2020-21), including 66 wins in league play.
- This is after the program had totaled 79 wins in all over the previous seven seasons and 43 wins against league foes over the prior nine years.
- In 2020-21, Navy compiled an overall record of 15-3 and won the revamped Patriot League's South Division with a 12-1 record. The Mids also earned the outright No. 1 seed in the league tournament for the first time since the 1997 tournament.
- DeChellis earned Patriot League Coach of the Year accolades in 2021.
- In 2019-20, Navy was tabbed to place ninth in the Patriot League but garnered the No. 6 seed in the Patriot League Tournament. The Mids played 15 league regular season games that were decided by 10 or fewer points. That was not only the most of any league team but also the highest number of close league games in program history.
- In 2018-19, the Mids faced the toughest strength of schedule of any team in the Patriot League. The Mids would end the 2018-19 year with an overall record of 12-19 and tie for fifth place in the Patriot League with an 8-10 record.
- Additionally in 2018-19, the Mids reached the semifinal round of the Patriot League Tournament for the second time in three seasons. Navy's 2017 berth in the semifinal round was the first for the Mids since 2001.
- Included in this recent span were records of 20-12 overall and 11-7 in league play during the 2017-18 campaign. It was the first 20-win season for the Mids since the 1999-2000 season.
- DeChellis won his 100th game as Navy's head coach in the quarterfinal round of the 2019 Patriot League Tournament when the Mids defeated American on March 7, 2019.
- Navy's ensuing game, March 10 at Colgate in the semifinal round of the tournament, was his 250th on the Navy sideline and the 700th game in his career as a head coach.
- DeChellis has been the driving force behind the creation of the Veterans Classic, a one-day basketball doubleheader that honors ours nation's veterans. Past teams to have participated in the event include Auburn, Davidson, Florida, Marquette, Maryland, North Carolina, Michigan State, Ohio State and Vanderbilt. This year's event, the eighth edition of the games, features Richmond vs. Utah State and Virginia Tech vs. Navy.
- His 298 games as a head coach through the 2020-21 season ranks fourth at Navy, and his 129 wins at the school ranks fifth.
- DeChellis ranks second among Patriot League coaches for the most career games won as a head coach.
- DeChellis also is beginning his 26th season as a head coach. He previously served as the head coach at East Tennessee State (seven years) and his alma mater, Penn State (eight years).
- He is one of nine active coaches to have won at least 100 games at three or more Division I schools.
- He has posted 20-win seasons at each of his three stops.
- DeChellis led East Tennessee State to Southern Conference North Division titles in 2001, 2002 and 2003, with the Bucs also winning the conference tournament and advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2003.
- DeChellis took Penn State to national postseason tournaments three times in his eight seasons. This included a 2006 trip to the NIT just three years after the program posted the second of back-to-back seven-win seasons, a 2009 NIT championship and the 2011 NCAA Tournament. The 2011 effort marked the first trip to the Big Dance for the Nittany Lions in a decade.
- Another honor bestowed upon DeChellis was his being selected as the 2006 National Coaches vs. Cancer Man of the Year for his contributions in raising both funds for and awareness of the fight against cancer.
