JAMES MADISON WELCOMES VIRGINIA IN MARQUEE MATCHUP

- James Madison faces its biggest test of the young season on Tuesday evening, as the Dukes welcome Virginia to the Atlantic Union Bank Center for the first time for a nationally-televised matchup at 6:30 p.m.
- The Dukes handled crosstown foe Eastern Mennonite in their last contest, outscoring the Royals 65-21 in the second half to romp to a 96-54 victory. JMU has started 4-0 at home for the first time since the 2010-11 season and started 7-2 overall for the first time since 2007-08. The Dukes are 14-4 at home in the short history of the Atlantic Union Bank Center.
- JMU's five Division I victories have been by a total of 15 points, winning by 5, 1, 3, 2 and 4 points, respectively. The Dukes have trailed at some point in the second half off all five victories. Against Wright State on Nov. 23, JMU erased a 15-point first half deficit, its biggest come-from-behind victory since March 2, 2013 against William & Mary, when the Dukes trailed by 19.
- The Dukes are led on offense by graduate transfer Takal Molson, who scored 25 points against Eastern Mennonite, the most by a JMU player this season. Molson finished just shy of his collegiate high of 28 points.
- Redshirt junior Jalen Hodge is shooting 17-for-33 (.515) from three this season. He has scored 51 of his 73 points via the three.
- The Dukes have 101 offensive rebounds (11.22/game) this season, grabbing 11 or more on the offensive glass in six contests.
- Graduate transfer Alonzo Sule is tied for 11th in the country in field goal percentage (.692), making four or more baskets in six of JMU's nine games played.
- This is the first-ever matchup against Virginia for JMU head coach Mark Byington. In his head coaching career, Byington is 1-3 against opponents from the Atlantic Coast Conference.

SCOUTING THE CAVALIERS

- After a dramatic victory over Pittsburgh this past Friday that saw Virginia score five points in the final 10 seconds to grab a 57-56 win on the road, the Cavaliers sit at 6-3 on the season and with a 1-0 mark in ACC play.
- Virginia is led by senior forward Jayden Gardner, who is averaging 14.0 points per game on a 54.7% shooting percentage. Gardner also leads the team in rebounds with 66. He had 21 points and 13 rebounds on Nov. 23, as Virginia shut down Providence, 58-40.
- The Cavaliers have found their way to the free throw line, with 144 attempts on the season compared to just 97 for their opponents.

SERIES HISTORY

- Located just an hour apart, JMU and Virginia have squared off 11 times in men's basketball, with the Cavaliers taking all 11 victories, including all three on the Dukes' home court.
- Virginia last visited Harrisonburg on Nov. 14, 2014, taking home a 79-51 victory in the last sellout at the JMU Convocation Center.

JMU ACCEPTS INVITATION TO SUN BELT CONFERENCE

- On November 6, 2021, the Sun Belt Conference announced the addition of James Madison University into the league after a unanimous vote of the Sun Belt CEOs. JMU will join the Sun Belt Conference no later than July 1, 2023.
- In the last decade, the Dukes have built one of the strongest mid-major athletics departments in the country. In addition to the success in football, the last six years have seen JMU win the 2018 NCAA Championship in women's lacrosse, reach the semifinals of the 2021 Women's College World Series and the 2018 national quarterfinals in men's soccer.
- JMU has continued to build its national profile, finishing inside the top 100 of the Learfield Directors' Cup each of the last six seasons, culminating at No. 67 in the country in 2020-21. All told, the Dukes have racked up 28 conference titles across 11 different sports since 2015.

DUKES ADD NEWCOMERS FOR 2021-22

- The Dukes return four starters from last season's championship squad, but have restocked their depth with the arrival of eight newcomers for the 2021-22 campaign.
- Incoming freshmen Andrew McConnell, Devon Savage and Jaylen Stinson all officially signed to play for the Dukes in last winter's early signing period, coming to Harrisonburg from all over the east coast: Georgia, Washington, D.C. and Pennsylvania, respectively. Freshman Shane Feden also joined the Dukes prior to the start of the season.
- JMU also did well on the transfer market, adding Charles Falden, Tyree Ihenacho, Takal Molson and Alonzo Sule to the JMU family for 2021-22, transferring to JMU after standout seasons and careers elsewhere.
- Falden arrives in Harrisonburg for his final year of eligibility after a standout career at Winthrop. This past season, the Richmond native averaged 10.1 points and 3.2 boards across just 20.8 minutes in the Eagles' substitution-heavy system, helping lead Winthrop to the Big South title and earning Honorable Mention All-Big South honors along the way. He also set the Winthrop single-season program record for three-point accuracy as a sophomore with a 40-for-87 (46.0%) performance.
- Ihenacho is fresh off an outstanding freshman campaign at North Dakota, where he was named the Summit League Freshman of the Year and a finalist for the Kyle Macy National Freshman of the Year award, presented annually to the top freshman in Division I men's college basketball. He packed the stat sheet in his first collegiate season, averaging 8.7 points, 5.6 rebounds and 4.2 assists across 22 games and 21 starts.
- Molson was at Seton Hall this past season, where he played in all 27 games and averaged 5.3 points and 2.9 boards across 19.5 minutes. Prior to that, he spent two outstanding seasons at Canisius. As a freshman in 2017-18, he was named MAAC Rookie of the Year after averaging 14.8 points, 5.2 rebounds and 2.3 assists, then raised his game as a sophomore, earning First Team All-MAAC honors after scoring in double figures in 30 of 32 games and averaging 16.9 points and 5.0 boards.
- Sule has been a consistent post presence at Texas State for the last three seasons, starting all 25 contests for the Bobcats this year as they captured the Sun Belt regular season title. As a junior in 2020-21, Sule averaged 7.8 points per game and pulled down 3.2 rebounds, while averaging an assist per game from the frontcourt.

DUKES OPEN FIRST FULL-CAPACITY SEASON IN ATLANTIC UNION BANK CENTER

- The Atlantic Union Bank Center opened in November, 2020 as the sparkling new home of the James Madison University men's and women's basketball programs, while also opening the door to a multitude of other events to benefit the campus and the local community. It stands as the preeminent facility of its type in the entire Shenandoah Valley.
- The Convocation Center debuted as home to JMU basketball in 1982. Plans for a new facility were first publicly shared in April of 2015. In October of 2017, Union Bank & Trust was named as the naming partner for the venue. General contractor S.B. Ballard broke ground on the construction project in April of 2018, and in spring of 2019 a rebrand by the naming partner resulted in the facility's new official name as the Atlantic Union Bank Center.
- In addition to S.B. Ballard as general contractor, Moseley Architects worked in collaboration with Populous on the facility design process. Anthony James Partners designed the technology infrastructure of the building while Advent took the lead on graphic design elements. The completed building includes two primary sections with a 8,500-seat event venue as well as a comprehensive basketball program area, designed to maximize student-athlete success across all aspects of the collegiate experience. The project also included construction of a 1,500-car parking deck, which officially opened in the Fall of 2019.
- The AUBC offers a comprehensive array of services and spaces to maximize student-athlete success in line with the holistic experience provided at James Madison University. Spaces include a practice court, locker room, film room, staff offices, academic success area, sports medicine with hydrotherapy area and strength and conditioning, including a cardio mezzanine.
- Further information on the project can be found at AtlanticUnionBankCenter.com.

Head Coach Mark Byington

-UNCW '98
-Second Season at JMU
-Ninth Season Overall

As head coach Mark Byington enters his second season at the helm of JMU Men's Basketball, the effect of his hiring on March 20, 2020 has been felt immediately, as he led the Dukes to the 2020-21 CAA Regular Season Championship and was named CAA Coach of the Year, NABC District 10 Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Hugh Durham Award, presented annually to the top Division I mid-major coach in college basketball.

In just his first season in Harrisonburg, Byington made an incredible impact on the program, taking a team that was picked to finish ninth in the CAA Preseason Poll and leading it through a challenging logistical season to the ninth regular season title in program history and first No. 1 seed in the CAA Tournament since 1992-93.

The improvement from 2019-20 to 2020-21 marked the first time a team has gone from last place to first place in the CAA since Richmond accomplished the feat in the 1982-83 and 1983-84 seasons - the first of which was done when the league was still known as the ECAC South.

Byington quickly built a fast-paced JMU offense that paced the CAA in scoring during the regular season at 78.5 points per game while racking up a +8.1 scoring margin, nearly four points ahead of the closest team. The Dukes got it done on both ends of the court, holding opponents to a 41.4% field goal percentage on defense, the best mark in the league.

A native of Salem, Va., Byington returned to the Commonwealth after seven years at the helm of the Georgia Southern men's basketball program, where he led the Eagles to a 131-97 record. He was also the first GSU coach to win 20 or more games in three consecutive seasons - his final three in Statesboro - in more than 30 years.

Under Byington's leadership, Georgia Southern racked up 13 all-conference selections, including Tookie Brown, who was the first Sun Belt Player of the Year in program history in 2019 and was the first player in league history to take home four First Team All-Sun Belt nods. Byington departs GSU with the highest winning percentage in conference games of any active Sun Belt head coach.

Prior to his arrival, the Eagles had produced a winning season just once in seven years. In the seven years since, Byington has presided over excellence both on and off the court, notching six winning campaigns and averaging nearly 12 league wins per season while posting a 100 percent graduation rate and recording the 10 highest team grade point averages in program history across the last five years.

Before earning his first full-time head coaching job in Statesboro, Byington spent seven years as the top assistant coach at College of Charleston under legendary head coach Bobby Cremins. He was also named interim head coach for the last month of the 2011-12 campaign when Cremins took a leave of absence, guiding the Cougars to a 7-4 record in their final 11 games.

All told, Charleston posted a 194-100 record while Byington was in the Lowcountry, including a 108-51 mark in Southern Conference contests. The Cougars notched six 20-win seasons in his nine years, adding three SoCon regular season championships along the way.

Byington began his collegiate basketball journey in the Colonial Athletic Association, where he starred for Head Coach Jerry Wainwright at UNCW before embarking on his coaching career. He was a three-year starter for the Seahawks, scoring 1,088 career points on his way to two CAA All-Academic selections, as well as Second Team All-CAA and CAA All-Defensive Team honors as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from UNCW in 1998.

No stranger to coaching in Virginia, Byington started his coaching career at national powerhouse Hargrave Military Academy, while also making later stops at both Virginia Tech and Virginia, where he earned his master's degree in sport psychology in 2003.

Prior to college, Byington was a standout at Salem High School, where he was named State Player of the Year as a senior while leading Salem to a state championship. He also picked up honorable mention All-America honors and was named First Team All-State twice. Following his senior season, he was named MVP of the Virginia High School League All Star Game.
