■ Conference Tournaments -- This is the first time the Cardinals have been a No. 11 seed in the ACC Tournament. UofL was a No. 7 seed in last year's event -- one of two times as a No. 7 seed position -- and have been a No. 4 seed twice, and a No. 9 once.

The ACC Tournament was in Brooklyn when the Cardinals earned their first victory in the event in 2018. The No. 4 seeded Cardinals beat Florida State 82-74 in that 2018 tournament before falling to top-ranked Virginia 95-58.

Louisville's No. 11 seed in the 2022 ACC Tournament is the lowest in a conference tournament for the Cardinals since it entered the 2006 Big East Tournament also with a No. 11 seed in their first year in that league. Louisville did not participate in the 2016 tournament and the 2020 event was cancelled due to COVID before No. 3 seeded UofL played a game.

- Rebounding a Key Louisville is 11-3 this year when winning the rebounding battle, but have been outrebounded in 11 of the last 16 games (38-28 advantage in its last game vs. Georgia Tech).

The Cardinals rank 79th in the NCAA in defensive rebounding (26.6 rpg) and 108th in total rebounds per game (36.5) through March 5. The Cardinals grabbed 12 offensive rebounds against Georgia Tech in their last game, their 16th time this season with at least 10 on the offensive glass. UofL had a season-high 17 offensive rebounds vs. Maryland.

Louisville dominated the glass in its two games in the Bahamas, claiming a 47-38 rebounding advantage vs. Mississippi State before outrebounding Maryland 51-25. The plus-26 rebounding margin against Maryland is the largest for the Cardinals since finishing plus-28 against Evansville on Nov. 25, 2020. The margin is the largest for UofL away from home since plus-30 against Northeastern on Nov. 28, 1986. It was the largest rebounding advantage against a current Power Five program since a plus-29 vs. Virginia Tech on Feb. 6, 1986. ■ Davis, King Sign with Louisville Basketball -- D'Ante "Tae" Davis, 6-6, 175-pound guard from Warren Central High School in Indianapolis, Ind.; and Fredrick King, a 6-10, 220-pound center from Mangrove Cay, Andros, in the Bahamas; have each signed a national letter-of-intent to continue their basketball playing careers at the University of Louisville.

Davis averaged 13.5 points and 6.2 rebounds per game as a junior last season in helping Warren Central post a 19-7 record before falling to 4A state finalist Lawrence North by a point in the sectional semifinals. The younger brother of current UofL sophomore guard/forward Dre Davis, Tae is ranked among the nation's top 150 players, including No. 139 by Rivals.com and No. 147 by 247Sports. com. He was an AP high honorable mention all-state selection as a junior in 2020-21, an All-Metropolitan Interscholastic Conference honoree and was named to the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association Underclass All-State Supreme 15. Davis had transferred to Warren Central for the 2020-21 season after his father, D'Andre Davis Sr., became the school's head coach after previously serving six seasons as an assistant coach at Lawrence Central. As a sophomore at Lawrence Central, Tae averaged 10.9 points and 4.7 rebounds per game in 2019-20.

Many collegiate programs became aware of King when he joined the NBA Academy, where he averaged 23 points and 12 rebounds to lead his NBA Academy Latin America team to a 3-0 record at the NBA Academy Games in San Luis Potosi, Mexico in September. In his top two games in the NBA Academy International event, King scored 31 points and grabbed 16 rebounds in an 82-61 win over NBA Africa Red, and totaled 29 points and 13 rebounds in a 93-87 victory over The Skills Factory. King, who turns 18-years-old in February, was the first Bahamian to enroll at the NBA Academy. Before his move to the NBA Academy in January, King's C.I. Gibson team was the GSSSA runner-up last season.

■ Mack Was Out for First Six — Chris Mack, who mutually departed from UofL on Jan. 26, served a university-imposed suspension for six games from Nov. 8 through Nov. 27. The University concluded that while Mack was a victim of an extortion attempt by former assistant coach Dino Gaudio, Mack failed to follow University guidelines, policies, and procedures in handling the matter. The sanctions imposed upon Coach Mack were unrelated to the extortion attempt itself and the ongoing NCAA process. During the suspension, Mack was prohibited from having contact with the men's basketball coaching staff or student-athletes. Mike Pegues, the Cardinals' current interim head coach, served as acting head coach during Mack's suspension and led Louisville to a 5-1 record and the Baha Mar Hoops Bahamas Championship. Pegues was the coach of record for those first six games and now has a 7-10 record as a head coach.

■ 12th Season in KFC Yum! Center -- UofL is playing its 12th season in 2021-22 in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The 22,090-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million and includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

UofL's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot UofL adidas store or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in 2012 and 2015, the NCAA South Regional in 2016 and 2019 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship. A 2023 NCAA men's basketball regional will be staged in the KFC Yum! Center.
