NUMBERS OF NOTE

With the 87-77 win over No. 19 Clemson on Tuesday, Wake Forest has now started 10-0 at home for the second season in a row and their 28-2 mark in the Joel over the past two seasons is the best mark in the ACC during that time.
This season marks the first time Wake has had back-to-back 10-0 home starts in program history.
For the first time since the 2013-14 season, Wake Forest has now defeated two Top 25 teams in the same season in then-No. 14 Duke and No. 19 Clemson Cameron Hildreth has increased his ppg average to 13.1 this season while leading Wake Forest on the glass (6.32 rpg). Back on Nov. 26, in a home victory over Hampton, the Worthing, England native became the third player in program history to record a triple-double, finishing with 14 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists. With the triple-double, Hildreth is the ONLY ACC player to achieve the feat so far this season.

Sophomore big man Matthew Marsh has increased his minutes per game from his freshman to sophomore campaigns by 13 minutes, recording just 6.0 minutes per game in 2021-22 to 19.0 minutes per game this season.

Wake Forest is in the top five in the conference in multiple statistical categories during ACC play -

Andrew Carr is among the top 10 rebounders in the league during ACC play, coming in at eighth with an average of 7.38 boards per ACC game.

Hildreth is 12th in the league in rebounding during ACC play with 6.25 boards per ACC game. He leads all guards in the ACC 6-4 or under in rebounding and is 8th nationally among players 6-4 or under.

KEY STORYLINES
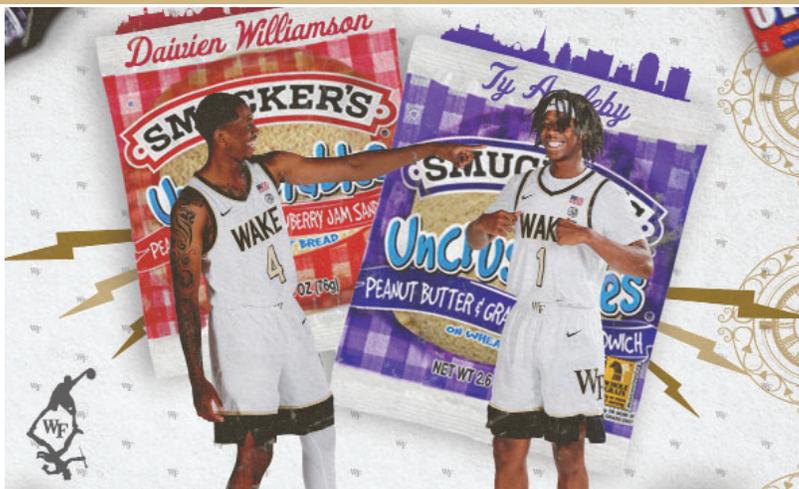

BACKCOURT BLISS WITH PEANUT BUTTER AND JELLY

With one of the best backcourts in the country, Wake Forest is the only school among major conferences in the country to have two players measuring 6' or shorter averaging 8.9 points or more for the season in graduate guards Tyree Appleby (18.1 ppg) and Daivien Williamson (8.9 ppg). Appleby's 18.1 points per game leads all major conference players 6' or shorter. His 47.0 field-goal percentage is the best in the country for players 6' or shorter.

Appleby leads the ACC in assists, averaging 6.05 dimes per game and 7.38 per ACC game. He is second in scoring with his 18.1 ppg overall. Williamson is averaging 90.3 percent from the free throw line as he's gone 28-31 this season. Appleby is shooting 82.4 percent with 98 makes on 119 attempts.

Both guards are members of the 1,000-point club with potential to reach 2,000 in their final collegiate season. Williamson is eight points away from 1,500 and Appleby is 104 away from 2,000. For Williamson to reach the 2,000 milestone, Wake Forest will have to play 34 games where Williamson averages 19.4 points per game. Williamson has averaged double figures in each of the past three seasons and is currently averaging 8.9 ppg. For Appleby to reach the milestone, Wake Forest will have to play 34 games where Appleby averages 13.2 points per game. He has averaged double figures every year of his collegiate career and is currently averaging 18.1 ppg.

MONSANTO'S RETURN

Redshirt junior Damari Monsanto tore his achillies at the end of May 2021 and had what was anticipated to be season-ending surgery in early June of 2021. In January 2022, he was fully cleared for full-court contact about a week prior to the Deacs' game at Georgia Tech on Jan. 19, 2022. Playing at around 230 pounds last season, Monsanto has gotten down to playing at 200 this season.

Since his return last season, Monsanto has played in nearly every game for the Deacs, recording a season-high 31 minutes in his first start of the season last year at Clemson in February 2022. He scored a season-best 17 points and tied a season-high with four triples in the loss to the Tigers. He also hit four three-pointers in 20 minutes at Syracuse. He reached 19 minutes in the win against North Carolina at home and made three triples in a row in the second half.

This season, Monsanto has earned a spot in the starting lineup for 12 out of 18 games. He has reached double-figure scoring in 11 of the 18 games this season and is currently averaging 12.0 points per game while shooting 40.5 percent from three-point range. His average of 2.94 three's per game is the third-best mark in the league. He has made three or more from range in 10 games this season, including five conference games.

Monsanto recorded a Wake Forest-career best 22 points in the loss at Rutgers in December and in the win against Florida State, draining six triples in both matchups. He also made six against Hampton in November, becoming just the third Wake Forest player since 1996 to make six triples in three games throughout a single season.

MOST IMPROVED

Sophomores Cameron Hildreth and Matthew Marsh have taken exceptional leaps in their second seasons of collegiate play as two reliable factors for the Demon Deacons this year.

After averaging close to four points and three rebounds per game in 2021-22, Hildreth has increased his ppg average to 13.1 this season while leading Wake Forest on the glass (6.3 rpg). Back on Nov. 26, in a home victory over Hampton, the Worthing, England native became the third player in program history to record a triple-double, finishing with 14 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists. Hildreth has started 14-straight games this year and recorded scoring double-figures in 13 of his last 15 appearances.

Marsh has played in 16 games this season while starting the team's past nine. The 7-1 big man continues to display eye-popping efficiency, holding an 89.4 field goal percentage. Playing 19 minutes per contest, Marsh averages 6.1 points per game and 4.6 rebounds per game. He has already notched new career highs in points (14 vs. Loyola Marymount) and rebounds (11 vs. LSU). Marsh has missed five shots this season (42-47) and has been perfect from the field nine times.

KEY STORYLINES

NEW YEAR NEW FACES

Andrew Carr
The 6-10 forward came to Winston-Salem from the University of Delaware where he started 34 of 35 games during the 2021-22 season and averaged 10 points and five rebounds in 28 minutes per game. He was second on the team in field goal percentage, shooting 56.4 percent from the floor. He led the team from beyond the arc (minimum 10 attempts) with a 40.5 three-point percentage. Defensively, he led the Blue Hens in blocks, with 37 on the year, and was third in steals with 29.

Davion Bradford
Coming to Wake Forest after playing his first two seasons at Kansas State, Davion Bradford had one of the best freshmen seasons in school history. As a freshman during the 2020-21 season, Bradford was one of only three players to play in all 29 games, making 25 starts. He logged over 600 minutes (603), averaging 20.8 per game. He averaged 7.7 points on 62.1 percent shooting (90-of-145) with 4.3 rebounds per game while connecting on 58.9 percent (43-of-73) from the free throw line.

Bradford registered the second-highest field goal percentage (62.1/90-of-145) in school history, including the highest ever by a freshman, and was just the sixth player to connect on 60 percent or better from the field in a single season. He led the team in field goal percentage in Big 12 games, while he was second in field goals made (61), total rebounds (82) and offensive rebounds (32).

Since his arrival in Winston-Salem, Bradford has lost 40 pounds, arriving in the high 290s this summer and weighing in around the high 250s most recently.

Jao Ituka
The 6-1 guard came to Winston-Salem from Marist College in Poughkeepsie, New York. He led the team in scoring with 15.3 points per game on 52.6 percent shooting from the field, 41 percent from three-point range and 76.8 percent from the free throw line. He also pulled down 3.1 rebounds in 22.1 minutes per game. During the season, he was named the MAAC Rookie of the Week a program-record nine times on his way to earning Rookie of the Year honors in the MAAC. He was also a finalist for the Kyle Macy Award, which is presented to the top Division I men's basketball freshman.

After missing the first five games of the season, Ituka made his Wake Forest debut against South Carolina State Nov. 23.

Tyree Appleby
The 6-0 guard came to Winston-Salem from the University of Florida where he spent the past two seasons. Prior to being a Gator, Appleby spent the first two years of his collegiate career at Cleveland State.

A regular in the Gators' starting lineup throughout his two seasons, he led the Gators in assists both years. Appleby tallied 1,552 points and 504 assists over his four seasons, scoring 653 points and dishing out 207 assists in 59 games played with 44 starts for the Gators.

Bobi Klintman
Originally from Malmo, Sweden, the 6-9 forward came to Winston-Salem from the Nike Elite high school program at Sunrise Christian Academy. Klintman's brother, Ibbe is a sophomore at Central Arkansas.

Klintman returned to Sweden this past summer to compete with the Swedish National Team in the FIBA U20 European Championships (July 16-24). He led Sweden in all major categories of points (16 ppg), rebounds (10 rpg), assists (5.1 apg), steals (2.6 spg), blocks (0.9 bpg), efficiency (160.0), and minutes played (29.9 mpg), as Sweden finished with a 6-1 record.

Zach Keller
The 6'10, 225-pound forward brings size, versatility and physicality to a Demon Deacon frontcourt that lost graduates Dallas Walton and Khadim Sy at the conclusion of the 2021-22 season. Keller was the top-ranked prospect in the state of Colorado according to 247Sports, along with being the No. 10 power forward nationally and the No. 76 overall player nationally.

The 80-72 win over Louisville Jan. 7 marked the first time Wake Forest has won a game inside the KFC Yum! Center.

The 87-77 win over No. 19 Clemson was the Demon Deacons' second win over a Top-25 team this season. It is the first such feat for the program since the 2013-14 campaign.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Team Credentials: Outside of players and coaches, team credential lists can be emailed directly to Lucy Berres (berresl@wfu.edu). Please identify individuals who need parking as well as photographers/videographers. Credentials will be at the scorers table during your shootaround unless otherwise coordinated.

Media Credentials: Please direct your media to email Milita Godette on the Wake Forest Communications staff (godettem@wfu.edu) to request game credentials and parking. You may also submit your media list to Lucy Berres along with the team credential list if you prefer.

Game Notes: Limited copies will be printed for TV and radio crews. Digital files can be found at GoDeacs.com/mbbmediacenter

Parking: Media parking is located in the McCreary Tower lot, a short walk across the street from LJVM. You will receive a digital parking pass via email prior to the game. The entrance to the McCreary Tower Lot is located off Deacon Blvd. on the left side after passing LJVM. Visiting team personnel parking can be made available in the Operations lot directly behind LJVM if necessary.

Media Will Call / Entrance: Media members must pick up credentials and enter the arena at the West Lobby Will Call window. Media Will Call opens 90 minutes prior to the scheduled start time.

Media Seating: Media seating at LJVM is located in section 113/114 behind the home team basket. Seats will not be assigned in the media seating area. Power and wifi will be provided.

Photo/Video Locations: Photo/Video locations are located on the baseline opposite the team benches (closest to courtside seating sideline) with limited space available on the bench-side of the basket. The LED tables on the benchside of the baseline CANNOT be blocked during the game. There will be no assigned spots for photo/video on the baselines. Photographers and videogrpahers CANNOT shoot behind team benches or scorers table.

Photographers and videographers may set up workstations in the press room through the visiting team tunnel on the right hand side.

Visiting Radio: The visiting team receives three seats for its radio crew at the scorer's table immediately adjacent to the visiting team bench. There is a fourth seat at the radio location that can be used by an SID or administrator.

TV Announce Location: Top of section 118 in the lower bowl.

SID Seat Location: If the SID does not keep the visiting team scorebook, the SID will be seated at the visiting radio's location (there are four seats). There will also be two seats on the visiting team's baseline for team photo/video.

PA Announcer: Jeffrey Griffin; Official Scorer: Gary Strickland; Official Stats: David Kivett, Cameron Goodman, Lori Hall.

Official Stats: Wake Forest uses NCAA LiveStats.

The official stats crew is located at the scorer's table two seats down from the official scorer. Stat sheets (maximum of 6) can be picked up by the visiting team at each media timeout. Managers or SIDs may pick up a couple box scores at halftime and/or after the game if requested. Otherwise, we will deliver 10 copies of the final stat books to both locker rooms after the game.

Live game stats are available at wakeforest.statbroadcast.com.

Postgame Interviews: Wake Forest will return to in-person postgame interviews for head coach Steve Forbes and players in the press room. Visiting teams will have the option to do an in-person interview in the press room or utilize a different room for a virtual press conference of their own. Please let Lucy Berres know in advance of your preferred postgame format so we can make the room accommodations. Please also provide links for virtual press conferences.

Meals: A pregame meal voucher will be provided to credentialed media and school officials in the press room and can be redeemed at Concessions. Media members are asked to eat in the press room but if it is taken to your seat in the media section that is acceptable.

Internet Access: Visiting team personnel and media can connect to the Wake Forest media wireless network with the login provided in the press room. A member of the Wake Forest IT department will also be on hand on game day to assist with any connectivity issues.

FORBES FILE

- Wake Forest Director of Athletics John Currie named Steve Forbes the 23rd head coach of Wake Forest basketball on April 30, 2020.
- Coach Forbes is a proven winner and builder of championship cultures with a 260-77 (.722) overall record in his five years as the head coach at East Tennessee State and at three previous community college head coaching stints.
- ETSU won 130 games and two SoCon championships during his tenure, while all 22 of his seniors earned their ETSU degrees.
- Forbes joined elite company in 2018-19, becoming one of just 10 active Division I head coaches who have reached the 100-win mark in their first four seasons.
- Forbes won at least 24 games in each of his five seasons as the head coach for the Buccaneers while finishing third or better in the SoCon every year.
- During the 2019-20 season, ETSU was having its best season in program history before the cancellation of the NCAA Tournament. The Bucs finished with a 30-4 record and SoCon regular season and tournament titles.
- Forbes earned conference coach of the year along with the Hugh Durham Award, given to the most outstanding mid-major coach in the country.
- During his time as an assistant, the Vols ascended to their first No. 1 overall ranking in program history in 2008 while winning a program record 31 games. In 2015, Wichita State won a NCAA record 35-straight games to start the season, earning the first No. 1 seed in program history.
- Forbes also spent two record-breaking seasons in College Station, Texas (2004-06) when Texas A&M set a program record for Big 12 Conference wins. Picked to finish last in the Big 12 prior to the 2004-05 season, the Aggies won their first 11 games and went on to a 21-10 record and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament. In 2005-06, Texas A&M advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1987 while recording a 22-9 record, the third-most wins in school history.
- A native of Lone Tree, Iowa, Forbes graduated from Southern Arkansas University with a degree in secondary education in 1988.

It's going to be a great hire for them." -Nick Nurse, Toronto Raptors head coach

ASSISTANT COACHING STAFF

ASSISTANT COACH
BROOKS SAVAGE

Brooks Savage joined the Wake Forest basketball staff in May 2020 after a highly-successful five-year stint as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State University alongside head coach Steve Forbes.

During his five seasons in Johnson City, Savage helped the Buccaneers compile an overall record of 130-43 (.751) and a Southern Conference record of 71-19 (.789). The Bucs earned a pair of first place finishes in the Southern Conference and NCAA Tournament berths in 2017 & 2020. During his five seasons with the Bucs, ETSU reached the SoCon Tournament championship game four times.

Prior to ETSU, Savage coached at Chattanooga from 2013-2015. He helped the Mocs to a 40-25 record in his two seasons, finishing 2nd in the SoCon both seasons. During his seven years in the Southern Conference, his teams posted a 98-26 (79%) conference record finishing in the Top 3 each year.

Before UTC, Savage entered the D1 Assistant ranks in the Big South conference by helping lead Presbyterian College through the Division 1 transition during the 2012-13 season. This followed a championship year in 2011-12 as an Assistant at Northwest Florida State College where the Raiders 32 wins set a school record, won the Panhandle Conference title and finished as the National Runner-Up.

Over Savage's nine years as an assistant coach his teams have amassed a record of 210-92 overall while finishing first or second in conference play in seven of those nine seasons. He was also named one of "50 Impactful Mid-Major Assistants" by Silver Waves Media in 2020.

A 2008 graduate of Tennessee, Savage holds both bachelor's and master's degrees in sports management/business. As an undergrad, he worked as a student manager and graduate assistant from 2004-10 and was a part of five Volunteer NCAA Tournament teams in his six seasons. Savage and his wife Lauren are the parents of a daughter, Waverly.

ASSISTANT COACH
BJ McKIE

BJ McKie, a former All-SEC player at South Carolina, joined the Wake Forest basketball staff in May 2020 after coaching alongside Steve Forbes for three seasons at East Tennessee State. McKie joined the ETSU staff prior to the 2017-18 season after a 15-year professional playing career.

McKie is the most decorated player in South Carolina basketball history. The SEC Freshman of the Year in 1996, he became just the 12th player in league history to be named first team All-SEC by the Associated Press in three seasons. The two-year captain played in 123 consecutive games at guard for the Gamecocks, scoring in double figures in 111 games and collecting 38 games with 20 or more points. McKie was third in the SEC in scoring as a senior in 1999 with a 17.3 average. He helped the Gamecocks to the NCAA Tournament in 1997 and 1998 and represented South Carolina as an SEC Legend in 2011. McKie is one of just five Gamecock players to have his jersey retired after having scored 2,119 points at USC, the most of any Gamecock in school history.

Following his playing career, the Norfolk, Va. native played professionally both in the U.S. and overseas. McKie was a 2001 CBA All-Star while playing with the Connecticut Pride and spent time playing in France, Cyprus, Italy, and Israel while being named a Player of the Year in Germany.

He started his coaching career at Charleston Southern in 2011 and spent six years alongside head coach Barclay Radebaugh. McKie was a part of two CSU Big South regular season championship teams and helped the Bucs to a pair of NIT berths. He helped guide CSU to its winningest season in school history in 2015 and was promoted to associate head coach following the season.

McKie and his wife, the former Brittany Brooks, have a son Justin who played basketball at South Carolina and was a member of USC's 2017 Final Four team. BJ and Brittany also welcomed their daughter, Brielle Tonya McKie, in August of 2020.

ASSISTANT COACH
MATT WOODLEY

Wake Forest men's basketball coach Steve Forbes announced the addition of Matt Woodley to his staff as a special assistant in September 2020 and he was moved to assistant coach in April 2022.

Woodley came to Winston-Salem after spending two years at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa as an assistant coach under Darian DeVries.

As a member of the staff for two years now, Woodley was a part of the biggest turnaround in ACC play in league history by Wake Forest. The Deacs won 10 more ACC games in 2022 than they did in 2021. He was also instrumental in the development of forward Jake LaRavia during his single season in Winston-Salem before getting drafted 19th overall in the 2022 NBA Draft by the Memphis Grizzlies.

Additionally, he boasts extensive and diverse experience at the professional, collegiate and high school levels. Woodley has coached 21 (now 23) future NBA players including Klay Thompson and Hassan Whiteside in addition to serving as the head coach of the Memphis Grizzlies D-League team and an assistant for the franchise's summer league team.

As a three-year starter at Drake, Woodley played in 83 games and was twice named honorable mention All-MVC and the team MVP as a senior in 1999-00. He ended his career as the program's all-time leader in three-pointers and steals. He remains the Bulldogs' all-time steals leader with 194 and earned a bachelor's degree in education from Drake in 2000.

Since earning his degree, Woodley has accumulated nearly two decades of extensive coaching experience at nearly every level of the game. Prior to Drake, he served as special assistant to the head coach at the University of Pittsburgh during the 2017-18 season, where he assisted with game preparation, practice plans, scouting reports as well as day-to-day basketball operations.

Prior to Pitt, he gained experience in the professional ranks with three seasons on the staff of NBA D-League's Iowa Energy, including serving as the organization's head coach in 2016-17.

Woodley joined the NBA following three seasons as the head coach at Division II Truman State where he improved the team's record in each of his three seasons to amass a 38-44 record as a head coach by taking over a lagging program and leading the team to eight, 10 and 20 wins in his three seasons. In 2013-14, he guided the program to just the sixth 20-win season in program history and set a program record with 13 conference victories.

Woodley took the reins at Truman State after two years back in central Iowa as the head coach at Waukee High School where the Warriors won their first Central Iowa Metro League (CIML) conference title and a trip to the 2011 state tournament.

Woodley added to his already extensive resume at Washington State under head coach Tony Bennett from 2006-09. During his stint at the school, the Cougars advanced to three consecutive postseason appearances, including the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2008. He served as the program's recruiting coordinator, landing top-20 recruiting classes twice in three years. On the court, he helped the program post back-to-back 25-win seasons and NCAA tournament appearances for the first time in school history.

He spent five seasons in the Sun Belt Conference, first at the University of Denver (2001-04) before joining head coach Kermit Davis' staff at Middle Tennessee State as an assistant coach (2004-06). Woodley's responsibilities included recruiting, scouting, scheduling and film exchange, as well as the daily preparations for the team. At both Denver and Middle Tennessee State, Woodley supervised the men's basketball academic programs, landing a combined 14 players on Sun Belt Conference all-academic teams. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Wayne State (2000-01).

Woodley and his wife, Jennifer, have four children – Michael (9), Molly (8), Mackenzie (6) and Miles (5).
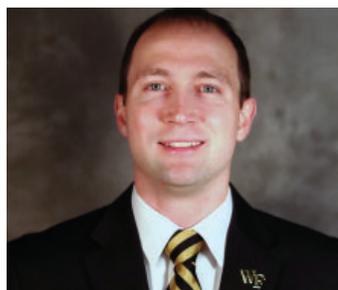

Director of Operations
FRANK DAVIS

Frank Davis joined the Wake Forest basketball staff in May 2020 as the Director of Basketball Operations.
Davis spent the last three seasons as the director of operations on Steve Forbes' staff at East Tennessee State after having started his career as an assistant coach at Tennessee Tech.

Davis is Tennessee Tech's all-time three-point shooting leader with 251 triples during his playing career from 2006-10. He finished his career by appearing in 125 games, the second-most in school history, and scoring 1,118 career points. Davis excelled in the classroom as well, being named to the Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll four times.

As a coach, Davis was instrumental in Tennessee Tech's 2015-16 season in which the Golden Eagles went 19-12 and returned to the postseason for the first time in four seasons. Following that season, Davis was named one of 30 assistant coaches to be recognized by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) on its 30-Under-30 team.

Davis is a native of Gainesville, Ga. and a 2010 graduate of Tennessee Tech with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and physical wellness and a Master of Arts in elementary and secondary physical education in 2013.

He is married to the former Allison Price who was a three-year starter at guard for the Tennessee Tech women's basketball team, and they are the proud parents of their son Cameron.
