Numbers To Know

66

The 2023 campaign marks the 66th varsity season in North Carolina men's lacrosse history. After starting the program in 1949, the program would be relegated to a club program beginning in 1955, but would be reinstated as a varsity program prior to the 1964 campaign.

This season marks year 15 for head coach Joe Breschi at the helm of the Tar Heels. A 1990 graduate and four-year member of the Tar Heel program, Breschi became the 12th head coach in program history on June 18, 2008.

Through his 14 seasons as the leader in Chapel Hill, head coach Joe Breschi sits at a program best 152 wins at UNC. In his 25 seasons as a head coach thus far, Breschi sits at 243 career wins, fifth best among active Division I coaches.

Following the loss of 11 letterwinners from a season ago, the Tar Heels return 34.1 percent of point production from 2022. Most notably graduated in NCAA career point leader Chris Gray's 80-points (48-32).

North Carolina has won 25-straight season opening contests, a streak that started on Feb. 26, 1999 against Colgate. The last time UNC did not win the season opener was Feb. 22, 1998, a one-goal loss against Butler, 13-12.

The shakeup of the 2023 roster includes 21 new faces representing the Heels, including 15 freshmen and six graduate transfers.

Since Joe Breschi took over in 2009, the Tar Heels are 143-31 when scoring 10-or-more goals in a game. Last season, North Carolina was 8-2 when eclipsing the double-digit mark in the scoring column.

#1 Logan McGovern

Named a Midseason All-America selection last week by Inside Lacrosse, Logan McGovern leads the Tar Heels in goals, assists, and points on the year. A two-time USILA Team of the Week honoree, McGovern is the lone Tar Heel to score a goal in all 10 games this spring.

Scouting Virginia

- The Cavaliers enter Friday's matchup ranked No. 3 in the country by the USILA Coaches Poll and Inside Lacrosse Media Poll.

- Connor Shellenberger leads UVA with 48 points (14 G, 34 A), as Xander Dickinson (36 G) and Payton Cormier (29 G) pace the Cavalier offensively.

- At the faceoff X, Preseason All-ACC choice Petey LaSalla (151-257 - .588) is the primary guy for the Cavaliers.

- Between the pipes, Matthew Nunes has started all nine games for Virginia, boasting a .502 save percentage on the year.

- Lars Tiffany is in the middle of his seventh season at the helm of Virginia. In his time in Charlottesville, Tiffany has won two National Championships, in 2019 and 2021.

Tar Heels vs. Top-Three

- Against teams ranked in the top-three, North Carolina is 33-78 all-time.

- The first matchup in program history against a top-three ranked program was on April 4, 1973, a 19-1 defeat to Maryland.

- The first ever win against a top-three opponent was on May 10, 1980, a 7-5 Carolina victory at No. 3 Washington & Lee.

- The last time Carolina defeated a top-three team at Dorrance Field was April 23, 2016, when UNC downed then No. 1 Notre Dame 17-15.

Everyone Contributes

- North Carolina enters Friday with a three-game winning streak, with victories against Dartmouth (25-7), High Point (16-9), and Providence (25-8).

- In the last three games, the Tar Heels have had 22 different goal scorers and 29 players record a point.

Sharing The Wealth

- In the win against Dartmouth on March 19, the Tar Heels recorded assists on 22 of the 25 goals scored.

- The 22 helpers tied the most in a single-game in program history, matching a mark set on March 25, 1989, a 29-1 victory against Ohio State.

- In the game against Dartmouth, 11 Tar Heels recorded an assist, led by James Matan's career best five.

Getting Defensive

- The victory over Providence on March 25 was the eighth time this season the Tar Heels have allowed less than 10 goals in a game.

- Under head coach Joe Breschi, the Tar Heels are 91-13 when allowing nine-or-fewer goals.

- UNC defensive coordinator Kevin Unterstein, recently named in the same role of Atlas LC of the Premier Lacrosse League, is overseeing a defensive unit that ranks third in the nation in scoring defensive (as of 3/29), allowing just 8.50 goals per game.

Coming Down The Stretch

- With just around one month remaining, the Tar Heels face arguably one of the toughest stretches in the country.

- Three of the final four games for UNC are against the top-three in the NCAA RPI rankings (As of 4/3).

- After facing Virginia (No. 3 in RPI), the Tar Heels square off with Syracuse (No. 26 in RPI), and close with back-to-back games against Notre Dame (No. 2 in RPI).

Offensive Transfers' Immediate Impact

- Attackman Logan McGovern has made a huge imprint thus far, in his first 10 games as a Tar Heel.

- The Bryant transfer leads the Heels offensively with 47 points (27 G, 20 A), including two eight-point outbursts against Syracuse (Feb. 25) and Dartmouth (March 19).

- Fellow transfer Sean Goldsmith (Mercer) ranks second on UNC with 29 points (21 G, 8 A) this season.

Adjusting To Speed

- Since being inserted to the starting lineup against Syracuse on Feb. 25, freshman attackman James Matan ranks fifth on UNC in goals (9) and fourth in points (16), while ranking second with seven assists.

- The Kensington, Md. product has posted five-straight multi-point efforts, including a seven point showing against Dartmouth (2 G, 5 A).

- The seven points against Dartmouth on March 19, were tied for the second most in a game by a freshman in program history.

- 8: Mike McCall vs. Fairfield (4/27/02)
- 7: James Matan vs. Dartmouth (3/19/23)
- 7: Nicky Galasso vs. Maryland (3/22/11)
- 7: Nicky Galasso vs. Lehigh (4/17/11)
- 7: Jimmy Bitter vs. Hofstra (4/14/12)

- Five Tar Heels were named to the Inside Lacrosse Midseason All-America list on March 31.
- Connor Maher earned first-team honors, as Paul Barton, Ty English, Collin Krieg, and Logan McGovern collected honored mention recognition.

Breschi, Miller Named to Ohio Lax HOF

- Head coach Joe Breschi and former midfielder Joel Miller were named part of the 2023 Ohio Lacrosse Hall of Fame induction class.
- In Breschi's 11 seasons at Ohio State, the head coach won 92 games, taking a non-scholarship program and building the Buckeyes into a three-time NCAA Tournament qualifier.
- Miller, who played two seasons in Chapel Hill, was one of the top freshman in the country in 1999, led the Tar Heels in takeaways and groundballs during his time as a Tar Heel.

Transfer Production

- Graduate transfers Griffin Gallagher (Gettysburg), Andrew Geppert (Brown), Sean Goldsmith (Mercer), Logan McGovern (Bryant), JT Roselle (Marist), Harry Wellford (Bucknell) arrive in Chapel Hill for the 2023 campaign.
- The group are using their extra year of athletic eligibility granted by the NCAA, in result of the COVID-19 pandemic, which forced the 2020 season to halt.
- The six have combined for 219 games in their collegiate career, which includes 184 contests started.

- The grad transfer combined statistical production includes:

- 245 goals
- 148 assists
- 393 points
- 343 groundballs
- 131 caused turnovers

- Additionally, the following career records were broken by Sean Goldsmith and JT Roselle at their previous institutions:

- Goldsmith: Goals (111), Assists (43) and Points (154)
- Roselle: Caused Turnovers (59)

Breschi Reaches 150 Wins at UNC

- Entering the matchup, Tar Heel head coach Joe Breschi sits at 152 wins during his 15 seasons at UNC, the most wins in program history.
- In the history of North Carolina Athletics, Breschi and 22 other head coaches have accomplished 150 wins during their time in Chapel Hill.

- Breschi reached the milestone on March 19, a 25-7 victory against Dartmouth. Coincidentally, Breschi also achieved his 25th career victory (while at Ohio State) and 50th career win at UNC also against the Big Green.

Breschi In The Top-Five

- Head coach Joe Breschi sits fifth among active Division I head coaches, with 244 career victories.

Head Coach Joe Breschi

Joe Breschi's coaching philosophy is summed up in three words....

FAMILY • ACADEMICS • LACROSSE

Breschi has installed his philosophy at every level of the program and its outreach to alumni, student-athletes, their families, and the Chapel Hill community. Carolina men's lacrosse is achieving at the highest levels on the field, in the classroom, and in the community. The credit for that goes to Breschi, one of the sharpest minds in collegiate coaching circles.

Breschi enters his 15th year as the head coach of Carolina's men's lacrosse program in 2022-23.

Following the 2016 and 2017 campaigns, the words "big winner" were added to the resume. Breschi always had successful programs at Ohio State and UNC, but on Memorial Day weekend 2016, he took the Tar Heel program to heights it had not achieved since 1991 – the NCAA championship.

In December 2018, he signed his first-ever long-term contract at Carolina, inking a deal with athletic director Bubba Cunningham for an additional five-year tenure as the Tar Heels' head mentor.

Breschi, a 1990 Carolina alumnus and former assistant coach for the Tar Heels, became the 12th head lacrosse coach in Carolina history on June 18, 2008. Breschi came to Chapel Hill from Ohio State, where he had served as the head coach for the previous 11 seasons. Young men pursuing college lacrosse careers and college degrees want to play for a man with the character of Breschi. A solid recruiter, excellent tactician, and tremendous communicator, Breschi and his staff know they have put the Tar Heel program on sound footing talent-wise. The Tar Heel players have also achieved at high levels in the classroom being community service leaders.

A native of Baltimore and a 1986 alumnus of Loyola-Blakefield School, Breschi compiled a 92-63 record in his 11 years at OSU along with a 34-18 regular-season Great Western Lacrosse League mark. The Buckeyes shared GWLL regular-season titles in 1999, 2003, and 2008 and won the conference championship outright in 2004. The Buckeyes had seven winning seasons in Breschi's last eight years and made NCAA Tournament appearances in 2003, 2004, and 2008. Taking over a non-scholarship program in 1997, Breschi built the OSU program to prominence from scratch. Along the way, OSU had three double-figure winning seasons, going 10-3 in 1999, 12-4 in 2004, and 11-6 in 2008, when the program had the most significant wins in its history.

Breschi was one of the finest lacrosse players in the history of the ACC while playing for UNC from 1987-90. He was an All-ACC selection in 1989 and 1990 and was selected to play in the prestigious USILA North-South All-Star game in 1990. He was a first-team All-America pick on defense in 1990 and an honorable mention All-America in 1989. He was elected the sole team captain in 1990. Carolina has elected a single captain only three times since 1981, including Breschi's senior year.

After leading the Tar Heels his senior season to the NCAA semifinals and an ACC title, Breschi was selected as UNC's nominee for the 1990 Anthony J. McKevlin Award, given annually to the outstanding male athlete in the ACC. In 2002, Breschi was named to the prestigious ACC 50th Anniversary Men's Lacrosse Team, honoring the Top 50 players in league history. He was a member of U.S. National Teams that played in the World Lacrosse Games in 1994 and 1998. Breschi earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from Carolina in 1990. He was a member of two U.S. National Teams (1994 and 1998).

Breschi and his wife Julie have five children, the late Michael Breschi, and four daughters, Sam, Abby, Lucy, and Emily.
