NOTING THE CAVALIERS

- Virginia is No. 4 in this week's ITA team rankings, matching its season-best ranking
- Virginia is the only school with both its men's and women's teams in the top 5 of the team rankings
- The Cavaliers have been ranked in the top five since Feb. 27 for all except one week where they were No. 6 and have been in the top 10 since Feb. 14 after starting the year at No. 12
- The Cavaliers finished the season at 12-1 in conference play, tying for first place with North Carolina. This is the second time in program history that the team has finished as the regular season co-champion (also did so in 2014)
- The Cavaliers matched the program record for ACC victories in a season (12, set in 2014) and set the mark for fewest conference losses (1). The 2014 team lost twice, posting a 12-2 mark
- Virginia has set the program records this season for consecutive wins (10), consecutive ACC wins (9) and best start in conference play (9-0)
- Virginia has seven victories against top 25 teams. The team's three losses are against then No. 5 Michigan (twice) and then-No. 6 North Carolina
- Senior Hibah Shaikh is ranked No. 23 in singles with a 24-9 record (11-4 ACC)
- Sophomore Annabelle Xu is ranked No. 61 in singles with a 19-11 record
- Shaikh and Xu have combined for four wins against top-10 singles players (three for Shaikh, one for Xu)
- Shaikh and Xu have split time between the No. 1 and 2 courts
- Senior Sara Ziodato is ranked No. 86 in singles with a 27-10 record
- Junior Mélodie Collard went 10-1 in singles in conference matches and is 12-2 this year at No. 6. She is 27-8 overall
- Collard and Ziodato lead the team with 27 singles victories apiece
- Junior Elaine Chervinsky is ranked No. 99 in singles with a 16-4 record (all in dual matches)
- The Cavaliers have only dropped the doubles point five times this season and only two of those were in ACC matches (vs. Georgia Tech and vs. NC State)
- Collard and Chervinsky are No. 8 in the doubles ranking with a 12-6 record. They were the ACC Doubles Team of the Week three times this season
- Shaikh and grad student Natasha Subhash went 10-2 in doubles in conference matches. They are 22-4 overall and currently ranked No. 38
- Shaikh and Subhash are 9-1 in their last 10 doubles matches and have won five straight headed into the ACC tournament

VIRGINIA & ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Virginia is the No. 2 seed in the championships, its highest ever seeding (previous best was a No. 3 seed in 2014)
- Virginia is looking for its third ACC title. UVA won back-to-back titles in 2014-15
- Virginia has made three trips to the finals since 1990 (the present format for the championship) winning the title in 2014 and 2015. UVA was the runner-up in 2022
- UVA also has two runner-up finishes in previous tournament formats in 1978 and 1989
- Sara O'Leary is looking for her first conference championship as a head coach. Her Davidson Wildcats made the conference final in her second of three seasons there (2016)
- Prior to taking over the Davidson program, O'Leary was an assistant coach at North Carolina, her alma mater, from August 2008 to June 2014. In 2011, O'Leary was named ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year after North Carolina won its first ACC title in nine years and reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championships. UNC was the ACC runner-up in 2010 and 2012 while O'Leary was there

HOOS IN THE PROS: DANIELLE COLLINS AND EMMA NAVARRO

The Virginia women's tennis team has two alumnae currently ranked in the top 25 of the WTA World Rankings - Danielle Collins and Emma Navarro

Danielle Collins won back-to-back titles in Miami and Charleston, moving her up from a No. 71 ranking on February 5 to her current No. 15 ranking. She has been ranked as high as No. 7 in the world after her 2022 run to the finals of the Australian Open. She announced earlier this year that this would be her last on tour.

Collins played three years at UVA from 2014-16, after transferring in as a sophomore. She won the NCAA Singles Titles in her sophomore and senior seasons (2014 & 2016). She was the Honda Award winner for tennis her senior year. She was a three-time ITA All-American with an 88-18 record, including a 38-4 record her senior year where she finished the campaign with a No. 1 ranking.

Emma Navarro made the Round of 16 at the BNP Paribas Open at Indian Wells after taking out world No. 2 Aryna Sabalenka. She opened the season with a semifinal run in Auckland followed by winning her first WTA title at the Hobart International. She made the Round of 32 at the Australian Open and was a semifinalist in San Diego. She is 22-8 this season, reaching a career-high No. 20 ranking on March 18.

Navarro also made her Billie Jean Cup debut last week, helping the US to a 4-0 win against Belgium in the qualifiers. She played singles on the opening day, winning her rubber against Hanne Vandewinkel.

Navarro played two years at Virginia (2021-22), choosing to go pro after her sophomore season. She was the 2021 NCAA Singles Champion as a freshman, going 25-1 in singles that year, the best winning percentage in program history. She is a four-time ITA All-American (two singles, two doubles). She was 51-3 in singles in her two collegiate seasons. This year would have been her senior season had she not turned pro.
