NOTING THE CAVALIERS

- Virginia moved back up to No. 2 in the ITA Team Rankings
- The Cavaliers started the year at No. 1, have been in the top 10 all season, and have remained in the top five since their return on March 5
- Virginia brings a 12-match win streak into the tournament
- UVA has won 60 consecutive matches against ACC opponents including post-season, ITA Kickoff Weekend, ITA Indoors and non-conference meetings. Their last loss against an ACC foe was a 4-2 loss against North Carolina on Feb. 13, 2021 at ITA Indoors
- Virginia has not lost a match outdoor since the NCAA Round of 16 match against USC on May 17, 2021
- The Cavaliers earned the ITA National Team Indoors Sportsmanship award, presented to the team that display exceptional sportsmanship, character, and ethical conduct throughout the ITA Indoors championship
- Senior Chris Rodesch posted an 11-1 record in ACC singles this year, his only loss coming against FSU's Antoine Cornut-Chauvinc. Rodesch has only lost two ACC matches in the last two years, going 20-2 over the two seasons. Rodesch was 2-0 last year at the ACC Championship, including a 6-1, 6-4 win against Cornut-Chauvinc
- At No. 4, Rodesch is the highest-ranked singles player in the ACC, looking to hold onto that ranking and earn the conference's automatic qualification into the NCAA Singles Championship. Rodesch was the ACC AQ his sophomore year (2022). Cornut-Chauvinc was last year's with a No. 6 ranking while Rodesch was No. 7. Georgia Tech's Andres Martin was No. 8. Rodesch was a NCAA Semifinalist in singles last season
- Senior Jeffrey von der Schulenburg has won his last nine completed singles matches and leads the team with a 24-12 singles record this season
- Senior Inaki Montes was the 2022 ACC Player of the Year in his sophomore season. He has been occasionally limited in play this season due to injury, but has also at times played through discomfort. In dealing with his issues, he has sometimes chosen to serve underhand, including during UVA's ITA National Team Indoors semifinal run. He was named the ACC Player of the Week after picking up straight-set wins against No. 33 Etienne Donnet of Louisville and No. 34 Sebastian Dominko of Notre Dame, while serving underhand
- Montes and James Hopper are ranked No. 12 in doubles and have been as high as No. 6. They are only 8-2 on the season, but they have tallied quality over quantity with a 4-0 record against teams in the top 25. Hopper is a transfer from DIII Case Western Reserve where he was a two time NCAA III Doubles Champion, 2023 NCAA team champion and eight-time ITA Division III All-American (four singles, four doubles)
- Dylan Dietrich owned the ACC Freshman of the Week honor this year, winning it six times. No other freshman in the conference won it more than once. Dietrich was No. 2 on the ITA National Newcomer list and has risen to a No. 45 singles ranking, playing mainly at 3-4, but has also played at 1 and 2 this season. Dietrich went 8-2 in conference matches and is 15-5 in duals. Dietrich is 12-3 in doubles this spring with a 10-2 mark at No. 3
- Senior Alexander Kiefer went 10-1 in singles in conference matches this season after going 10-0 last year. Kiefer bring a 10-match win streak in singles into the tournament (in completed matches). He ended last season on a high note, not dropping a singles match in the months of April and May
- Kiefer is 10-0 in doubles in dual matches this spring

VIRGINIA & ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

- Virginia earned the No. 1 seed in the tournament for the fourth year in a row
- Virginia went 12-0 in the ACC for the fourth straight year, their 14th perfect conference season. UVA has won 50 consecutive ACC matches dating back to the COVID-shortened 2020 season
- Virginia won the regular season title for the 17th time in program history
- Virginia is looking for its fourth straight ACC title and its 16th overall
- Virginia won the title last season, besting Duke 4-1. Chris Rodesch was named tournament MVP Ryan Goetz won the clinching point
- Inaki Montes won the clinching point in UVA's 2021 and 2022 championships, both were against UNC

CAVALIER COACHING STAFF

- Head coach Andres Pedrosa was the 2022 & 2023 Wilson ITA National Coach of the Year, the first men's coach to win the honor in back-to-back seasons
- Pedrosa has two NCAA titles as a head coach and one as an assistant. He was Virginia's associate head coach when the team won its first NCAA title in 2013
- He is a three-time ACC Coach of the Year (2019, 2021-22). He was the ITA National Coach of the Year last year, but not the ACC Coach of the Year
- Pedrosa, a Duke alum, defeated his alma mater three times last season, including the ACC Championship final (4-1) and in the NCAA Round of 16 (4-0), and looks to do the same this year, winning 4-1 at ITA Indoors, 6-1 in the regular season, and could face them again in the ACC Semifinals
- Pedrosa is in his seventh season at UVA and has a career record of 150-38
- Treat Huey is in his first season as a full time assistant coach after serving two seasons as UVA's volunteer assistant coach
- Huey retired last season from playing on the ATP Tour
- Two years ago, Huey balanced playing on the tour (including advancing to the second round of doubles at the 2022 Australian Open) and mentoring the Cavaliers. He was not present in Champaign when UVA won the NCAA title but was in Rome, Ga. for the ACC title. He was at both the ACC and NCAA Championships last season
- Huey is one of the Cavaliers' most successful professional players. The doubles specialist won eight career ATP doubles titles, including three 500-level tournaments, and made the 2013 1000-level ATP Masters Indian Wells final. Ranked as high as No. 18 in the world in doubles, he has appeared in 28 Grand Slams, including advancing to the Wimbledon semifinals in 2016
- Huey was a two-time All-American, a four-time All-ACC honoree and the 2008 ACC Championship MVP. He helped lead the Cavaliers to their first ITA National Team Indoor Championship in 2008. He spent 17 weeks ranked with a No. 1 ITA doubles ranking and holds the program record for career doubles victories with 134 and is ranked second in combined doubles and singles wins with 263
- Brian Rasmussen is in his first season as a full-time assistant coach
- Rasmussen first came to the Cavaliers as a volunteer assistant coach in 2019, working alongside Pedrosa and then associate head coach Scott Brown. In three seasons, he helped Virginia win the 2021 ACC Championship before taking a position as the senior high-performance coach at the Boar's Head Sports Club. He returned to help mentor the men's squad during the postseason of the 2022 NCAA title run and then joined the staff full-time in the summer of 2023

ACC HISTORY

2013 ANTHONY J. MCKEVLIN AWARD ACC TOP MALE ATHLETE

Aside from Maryland's John Lucas, who played both tennis and basketball, Jarmere Jenkins was the first tennis player to be named the top male athlete in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The title has a past honoree list that includes four Naismith Basketball Hall of Famers (including Michael Jordan), seven number one NBA draft picks and a Heisman Trophy winner.

Jenkins was the fifth Cavalier to receive the McKevlin Award. He joins football star Frank Quayle (1969), basketball legends Barry Parkhill (1972) and Ralph Sampson (1983) and lacrosse standout Chris Rotelli (2003).

THE STREAK

On April 23, 2006, the Cavaliers fell 4-3 against Duke in the final of the ACC Championship. It would be the last loss that UVA would have against an ACC opponent in a dual match for almost a full decade.

The Cavaliers won 140 consecutive dual matches against ACC foes, the longest winning streak in conference history in any sport. The run started with a victory over Wake Forest on May 14, 2006 and ended with a 4-2 loss to North Carolina on February 15, 2016 in the final of the 2016 ITA National Team Indoor Championship.
