ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

Virginia won its first ACC Championship in 2004 in a dramatic penalty kick shootout against North Carolina in the final in Cary, N.C. The Cavaliers thrashed Virginia Tech 8-0 in the quarterfinals and rallied from a halftime deficit to down Clemson 2-1 in the semifinals to set up a matchup with the 15-time defending champion Tar Heels.

In the final, the Cavaliers took an early lead in the 24th minute when Sarah Huffman crossed a ball to Lindsay Gusick, who one-timed the ball inside the far post for a 1-0 Virginia advantage. Virginia maintained that advantage at halftime. In the second half, the Tar Heels created several chances to equalize early in the second half and finally did in the 56th minute. Elizabeth Guess was fouled in the penalty area and Kacey White converted the penalty kick to tie the game at 1-1.

The game remained tied at 1-1 after a pair of 10-minute overtime periods and the championship would be decided by penalty kicks. Each team scored four times in the first five attempts, forcing extra kicks. In round six, Kristen Weiss converted her penalty kick for Virginia and Cavalier goalkeeper Christina de Vries saved Mary McDowell's kick to win the championship.

2012 ACC CHAMPIONS

Virginia became only the second school to win multiple ACC Championships when it took home its second title in 2012. Seeded fifth in the tournament, the Cavaliers knocked off three top-10 opponents in an eight-day span to win the championship.

In the quarterfinals, Virginia traveled to Chapel Hill and posted a 1-0 win over the eighth-ranked Tar Heels on Caroline Miller's goal in the 11th minute of play. With the goal, Miller became the only visiting player in history to score two game-winning goals at UNC's Fetzer Field. In the semifinals, the Cavaliers used a two-goal, one-assist performance from ACC Tournament MVP Morgan Brian to down second-ranked Florida State 4-2 and setup a matchup with Maryland in the final.

The Cavaliers claimed the trophy with a 4-0 victory over the seventh-ranked Terrapins at WakeMed Soccer Park. Gloria Douglas gave Virginia a 1-0 halftime lead with a goal midway through the first half. Morgan Brian and Caroline Miller added early second half goals and Makenzy Doniak pushed the final margin to four with her late goal.
