KEY STORYLINES

NAPPER BREAKS OUT: In Sunday's game against Western Carolina, transfer Taylor Napper had a career day. The senior set a new career high for points with 21, her first time eclipsing 20 points in a single game. Her big performance came from an efficient 55% shooting performance but also an incredible 9-10 mark from the free throw line. Her 33 minutes and seven rebounds in the contest were also season-bests through three games.

TRAYLOR-WALKER FIRST IMPRESSIONS: Adelyn Traylor-Walker set a strong first impression in her first week of action. The newcomer got her career off to a solid start coming off the bench for some key scoring this past week. In her collegiate debut, Traylor-Walker scored seven points at #11 Duke. She was also a perfect 5-5 from the free throw line while totaling five blocks on the defensive end, most on the team.

RADFORD vs. VIRGINIA: Wednesday's meeting marks the 14th meeting between the two squads and the first since Mike McGuire and the 2018-19 program went into John Paul Jones Arena and pulled off a resounding 57-44 victory. The win was the first for the Highlanders in Charlottesville, Va. since the 1976-77 season as program standouts Destinee Walker, Khiana Johnson and Savannah Felgemacher dropped 10+ points to lead Radford in the power victory. Overall in the series, Virginia owns 8-5 record with a 7-2 record at home.

NOTABLES TO WATCH FOR

40 YEARS AT DIVISION ONE: Radford will be celebrating their 40th season competing at the Division I level this season. The Highlanders, a founding member of the Big South Conference, made the move up for the 1983-84 season and have left a trail of dominance ever since with 10 Big South Tournament titles, 7 regular season titles, 4 NCAA Tournament Appearances, 6 WNIT appearances and 3 WNIT victories.

SHIPP-DAVIS CHASES MILESTONES IN THE RED AND WHITE: Transfer Adriana Shipp-Davis (Longwood) joins the Highlanders this season and is still chasing milestones in her illustrious collegiate career. The graduate is currently 7 made field goals short of 400, 25 steals short of 100, 3 games started short of 125, and her career point total sits at 1,064.

FIREBAUGH CLOSE TO MULTIPLE CAREER MILESTONES: Transfer Makayla Firebaugh (Rider) joins the Highlanders this season chasing milestones after an incredible four-year career at Rider. The graduate currently needs 19 made shots to reach 500, 32 made three-pointers to reach 250, 6 games started to reach 125, 9 steals to reach 150, and 118 points to reach 1,500 in her career.

PLAY BY PLAY

The Highlanders had one of their best starts to a game this season immediately taking a lead against the visiting Catamounts that would hold until deep in the game. Napper got her big day started with Radford's first points while Carlson also added a three to make it a 7-0 Radford lead early.

Scoring wouldn't come easy for the Catamounts early, as Radford's defense was able to hold them to just seven points through the opening quarter. Leading 13-6, Radford added on at the free throw line three minutes into the second quarter as Napper made it a 17-6 advantage.

Radford's defense continued to play the largest role as both offenses looked to string points together. At the end of the first half, Radford led comfortably 24-16. Out of the break, the Catamounts hit a three in the opening minutes of the second half that ignited the team.

Radford was paced by Williams and Napper who helped keep the lead intact. But the Catamounts offense had found its step and ended the third quarter on a buzzer-beating three that made it just a 40-39 Radford advantage.

In the fourth, the Catamounts earned their first lead of the game as both teams would trade shots back and forth. Radford got crucial points from Napper down the stretch who scored the team's final eight points. After Western Carolina got a big second chance layup to take the lead 54-53, Radford had multiple good looks in their final possessions that just rang out allowing the Catamounts to escape with the 55-53 final.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH (TWELTH SEASON)

► @coachmcguire

► @mamcguire77

Mike McGuire has become a household name in the New River Valley thanks to his success on the court, his involvement in the community and his reputation as a man of great character. His time at Radford has been full of joyous moments and unforgettable seasons, leading his teams to four WNIT postseason appearances as well as an NCAA Tournament berth in 2019. He is currently ranked sixth for overall wins, seventh for tournament wins and fifth for conference wins in Big South Conference history.

McGuire owns the third-best winning percentage and second-most overall wins in program history with an overall record of 178-156 (.533). He has gone 123-81 (.603) in Big South play leading the Highlanders to two Big South regular season championships and one tournament championship. Opponents beware, as the Highlanders have defended the Dedmon Center to the tune of a 92-42 record at home in the McGuire era.

The 2024-25 season will mark his 12th year at the helm of the Radford women's basketball program after taking the position on April 24, 2013. McGuire quickly laid a solid foundation when he arrived at Radford and has successfully seen his vision come to fruition. For the past seven seasons the Highlanders have been selected in the top-6 of the Big South preseason poll, including a three-year span being selected as No.1 (2017-2019).

McGuire has been recognized three times as the Big South Coach of the Year (2015, 2018, 2019), making him the first coach in program history to achieve the feat and fourth in Big South history to have three or more. He collected his 100th career Big South win, the first Highlander coach to do so in program history, during the 2020-21 campaign against Charleston Southern on February 20, 2021. Under his direction there have been 24 Highlanders named All-Big South including 2018 Defensive Player of the Year – Jayda Worthy, the 2018-19 tournament MVP Lydia Rivers and 2023 Freshman of the Year Ashlyn Traylor-Walker. The program has also excelled like never before in the classroom, earning an APR score of 1,000 across the last four years. Academically during McGuire's tenure, Radford has had 11 conference All-Academic selections with Jen Falconer named to the VaSID Academic All-State team after the 2018-19 season.

The Highlanders have a history of upsetting the powers of the women's basketball world and that trend has continued under McGuire. Over 11 seasons, Radford has topped the likes of Penn State, Virginia and Wake Forest. Victories over regional rivals such as Appalachian State, VCU, UNCG, Davidson, Liberty and others have also buoyed the Highlanders' resume in recent years.

McGuire is happily married to his wife, Nataleigh. The couple has three beautiful daughters named Harper, Ellie, and Reese. The trio have already proven to be some of Radford's biggest fans!
