KEY STORYLINES

THE SERIES

- Virginia Tech is 22-12-3 all-time against Radford in a series that was reignited last year after a 10-year hiatus.
- The Hokies played the Highlanders to a 0-0 draw last season, extending Tech's unbeaten streak to two against Radford.
- The Highlanders last defeated Tech on Oct. 25, 2011, by a 2-1 scoreline in Radford.
- Tech hasn't lost to Radford in Blacksburg since a 2-1 defeat on Sept. 12, 2000.

A WIN WOULD...

- Be Virginia Tech's fourth straight non-conference win.
- Be Virginia Tech's first win at home since defeating High Point, 3-2, on Sept. 26.
- Be Virginia Tech's third result in a row against Radford.
- Secure an above .500 regular season record at home for the Hokies.

LAST TIME OUT

- Virginia Tech fell to No. 18 Virginia, 3-0, last Friday - marking Tech's largest defeat of the season and only the second time that Tech has been held scoreless all year.
- In a game that Tech was largely competitive in, specifically in shots (16-13), three costly mistakes led to Virginia getting on the score sheet.
- Virginia struck first in the third minute - the earliest goal that Tech had conceded all season.
- The Cavaliers tacked on a goal later in the first half from a free kick then wrapped it up in the 59th minute with a third. Two goals were scored by Stephen Annor, the ACC's second-leading scorer with 10 goals.

ACC Tournament (Nov. 1 - 12)
NCAA Tournament (Nov. 16 - Dec. 11)

DEFENSE BY COMMITTEE

- After Welnilton Jr. went down against Louisville, the Hokies back five became a group that included three players that weren't defenders by trade when they arrived in Blacksburg: Noe Uwimana (winger), Theo Drennan (midfielder) and Willie Cardona (midfielder). Carter Hensley, who also slides into the back line on occasion, made his name as the 2021 North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year as a midfielder.
- Declan Quill has also featured in the back line this season, following a knock to Sergios Feneridis in the Queens game. Mason McClendon and Isaiah Byrd have also seen action.

UNTIL THE FINAL WHISTLE

- The Hokies have salvaged points out of three games (Loyola [Md.], Davidson and William & Mary) in which they've trailed in.
- Virginia Tech's has led just once at halftime this season - at No. 20 Pitt on Oct. 6.
- In its losses against Clemson, No. 20 Pitt and No. 8 Notre Dame, Tech has surrendered the game-winning goal within the last 20 minutes.
- In its five losses this season, Tech has only trailed three times at the half (UCLA, Clemson and Virginia), while the game-winning goal has come in the second half of each game.

SENIOR DAY

- Prior to kickoff on Tuesday, Tech will honor six players in their final year with Tech: Daniel Cummings (manager), Connor Jordan-Hyde, Mayola Kinyua, Mason McClendon, Welnilton Jr. and Conor Pugh.

OLLIE'S ON FIRE

- Freshman Oliver Roche has netted four goals in his rookie campaign, including the winners against No. 5 Louisville and Queens.
- A native of Odense, Denmark, Roche's four goals are the most by a freshman since Dani Pereira's five in 2019.

MAYOLA'S MOMENT

- In his 79th career game - his 60th with the Hokies - Mayola Kinyua scored his first career goal last Friday against No. 20 Pitt.
- Kinyua, who leads all Tech players in career games played, is experiencing a career-high season in offensive production with a goal and two assists.
- A four-year starter and 2021 All-ACC selection, Mike Brizendine often says the team "goes as Mayola goes."

UNDERCLASSMEN ON THE SCORESHEET

- Twelve of Tech's 17 goals this season have been scored by underclassmen.
- Oliver Roche, Ethan Ballek, Noe Uwimana, Misei Yoshizawa, Marcos Escoe and Andy Sullins make up a crew of seven freshmen or sophomores that have found the back of the net.

FIXED THAT PROBLEM

- Mike Brizendine's been on the record through the early portion of the season that Tech's goalscoring problem from last season has been remedied, so the focus turns now to securing shutouts.
- The Hokies scored in six games total last season and have gotten on the scoresheet in 12 of 14 games this season.
- Leading scorer Oliver Roche has four goals from open play, which matches Conor Pugh's team-leading tally from last season. All four of Danny Flores' goals came from the penalty spot.
- The Hokies suffered nine one-goal losses last season, including eight 1-0 defeats.

VERSATILITY OVER THE PITCH

- The Hokies benefit from an assortment of players that fit in at several positions across the field - none more so than juniors Declan Quill and Carter Hensley.
- Hensley, the 2021 North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year, came into Tech as a highly-touted midfielder, but has featured on the wing and at wingback for the Hokies. After filling the LWB slot for Tech's first four games, he naturally slotted in as central midfielder starting against North Carolina.
- Quill, another talented midfielder in high school, debuted for Tech as a midfielder his freshman year against Duke before picking up a season-ending knock. Since then, he's filled in as a striker, winger and midfielder for Tech.

NEWCOMER CONTRIBUTIONS

- Twelve players have made their Virginia Tech debuts this season.
- Freshmen Noe Uwimana, Oliver Roche, Sergios Feneridis, Marco Escoe, Nick Laffey, sophomores Theo Drennan and Ben Fisher, and junior Timi Adams have started their careers with the Hokies.
- Entering with previous college experience, Ethan Hackenberg, Marco Vesterholm, Isaiah Byrd and Andy Sullins have also debuted in maroon and orange early on for Tech.

UWIMANA, THERE GOES THAT MAN

- Noe Uwimana has taken the ACC by storm in his freshman season, as he's second in Tech's lineup in points (7) with two goals and three assists.
- As a dynamic weapon that Brizendine can use on both the left and right wings, the Philadelphia Union product has scored two remarkable goals with his right foot this season, including the winner against Boston College.
- Before kicking off his goal-scoring streak against Boston College and High Point, Uwimana had three assists in games against Loyola (Md.), Davidson and No. 5 Louisville.

ADAMS EARNS ACC HONORS

- Timi Adams' performance against No. 5 Louisville in just his third career start earned him ACC Defensive Player of the Week recognition.
- With four saves, including a big one down the stretch with less than a minute remaining, Adams posted a career-high mark in net.
- Both Ben Martino and Timi Adams, freshmen in 2021 for Tech, earned their first wins away from home against top-five opponents (Martino, vs. No. 1 Marshall).

BRAZIL BROS

- There's a unique connection between center-backs Theo Drennan and Welnilton Jr., as both were born in Brazil and speak Portuguese - often to communicate in the back line.
- While Welnilton Jr. experienced a more traditional route of being born in Para, Brazil before moving in his teens to attend Montverde Academy, Drennan's is a little different.
- The son of a full-Brazilian mother and half-Brazilian father, the Richmond United product moved to the U.S. at the age of eight after being raised in Curitiba, Brazil. He developed a love for soccer by playing futsal on the beach at his grandparents' place in Brazil.

GO DEC QUILL

- Junior Declan Quill was an underrated work horse for the Hokies in 2022, as he was tasked with being a target man up top due to injuries, but never could find that breakthrough.
- The Virginia native has found his footing in his third year with the program, however, with a team-high (with Uwimana) three assists and scoring his first career goal against High Point.

MONTVERDE CONNECTION

- Virginia Tech boasts three players from Montverde Academy: Mayola Kinyua, Welnilton Jr. and Misei Yoshizawa.
- Welnilton Jr. and Kinyua serve as captains of the Hokies squad, along with being among the team's leaders in appearances. Kinyua has 70 career appearances in his collegiate career, including 52 for the Hokies.
- Yoshizawa burst onto the scene in 2022 - appearing in all 18 games for Tech and registering two goals and four assists. His play earned him ACC All-Freshman Team honors.

▶ THE BRIZ FILE

Taking over the reins of a program that faced strict recruiting restrictions, head coach Mike Brizendine has rebuilt the men's soccer team and has seen the most success in program history. Brizendine has made it his mission to lead the Virginia Tech program to new heights and make the Hokies into one of the top programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Since 2016, Virginia Tech has qualified for six NCAA Tournaments and reached four 'Sweet Sixteens.' As one of five programs to reach each tournament from 2016-2021, the Hokies were one of three to advance in each NCAA postseason, as well.

Along with postseason success, the Hokies have built a reputation of developing pro talent, including 2021 MLS SuperDraft No. 1 overall pick Dani Pereira. At the conclusion of the 2022 season, sophomore Ben Martino and Danny Flores added their names to the pro Hokies club by signing MLS contracts.

Under Brizendine's watch, the Hokies have knocked off three No. 1-ranked teams: Marshall (2021), Notre Dame (2017) and UNC (2011).
