NOTES

DUAL MEET CHAMPS

- With the thrilling victory over the Wolfpack Feb. 5, Virginia Tech clinched at least a share of the ACC Dual Meet Championship. The Hokies claimed the trophy outright with their 27-12 win over Pitt on Feb. 12.
- This is the fourth time Tech has won the ACC Dual Meet Championship, after three-peatng from the 2014-15 season through the 2016-17 season.
- Including the ACC Tournament championships, this is the eighth team title for the Hokies since joining the conference.

HOKIES FINISH UNDEFEATED

- With their 27-12 victory over Pitt, Virginia Tech wrestling finished the regular season undefeated for the seventh time in program history, the first since the 1956-57 season.
- At 9-0, 2020-21 was the longest undefeated season in school history, topping the 8-0 mark set by the 1954-55 team.
- Head coach Tony Robie is the fourth coach in school history to engineer an undefeated season, joining Frank Teske, George Herring and S.B. Sutton.

CONFERENCE SWEEPS

- Hunter Bolen, Sam Latona and Korbin Myers each went undefeated through the conference season, with Bolen being the only Hokie to go a complete 5-0.
- Myers defeated three straight ranked ACC opponents when he defeated Louie Hayes, Jaime Hernandez and Jarrett Trombley in succession, all by major decision.
- Latona went 4-0 in the ACC this season in his first year as a starter. The two-time ACC Wrestler of the Week defeated Jakob Camcho 7-4 to clinch the dual for the Hokies.

ACC SEEDING

- The Hokies have five wrestlers earning first-round byes at the 2021 ACC Championships, including No. 1 seeds Hunter Bolen and Sam Latona.

How to Watch

• Bryce Andonian, Mekhi Lewis and Korbin Myers were each seeded second in their respective brackets. Andonian and Lewis will have a shot at redemption as their only losses this season came to wrestlers seeded first in their weight classes. Myers finished the season undefeated at 6-0.

• Seeded third are 157-pound starter Connor Brady and heavyweight Hunter Catka. In his first season as a starter, Brady went 3-2 in ACC play this season and 5-3 in dual matches. Catka is 7-1 on the season with a 4-1 record in dual meets, including 2-1 in ACC duals.

• Rounding out the remaining seeds for the Hokies are Dakota Howard (No. 4 at 174 pounds), Sam Hillegas (No. 5 at 141 pounds) and Andy Smith (No. 5 at 197 pounds).

BOLEN LOOKS TO REPEAT

- Hunter Bolen was the only Hokie to win an individual ACC title at the 2020 ACC Championships, defeating Trent Hilday 2-1 in the 184-pound final.
- This season, Bolen's been dominant, not allowing an opponent takedown all year. He defeated Hilday for the third time in his career in a 2-1 decision earlier this season.

• Bolen is ranked as the No. 1 184-pound wrestler in the country in each of the InterMat, FloWrestling and TrackWrestling rankings. He's also been the No. 1 choice in both NCAA Coaches Rankings.

• The Floyd, Virginia native was the only Hokie to go 5-0 in the ACC season.

ONE FOR ONE?

- Six of the 10 Hokies competing at the 2021 ACC Championships Sunday do so for the first time in their career.
- Redshirt sophomore Dakota Howard, redshirt freshmen Connor Brady and Sam Latona, and true freshmen Hunter Catka, Sam Hillegas and Andy Smith will all wrestle in the conference tournament for the first time.

• Latona is the highest seeded of the bunch, coming in at No. 1 in the 125-pound weight class, followed by Connor Brady and Hunter Catka, each seeded third in their brackets. Howard (No. 4), Hillegas (No. 5) and Smith (No. 5) round out the group of championship newcomers.

When Virginia Tech head wrestling coach Tony Robie came to Blacksburg in 2006, he was an associate head coach who inherited a barren program that had the potential to be great. Progressively he helped build the Hokies into one of the top programs in the ACC and a mainstay in the top 10 nationally. Three full seasons into his tenure as head coach, Robie is still leading the Hokies into new territory.

In 2019-20, the program rose up the ranks to the No. 3 spot in the National Wrestling Coaches of America Coaches Poll, the highest rank under Robie and tied for the highest in its history. He helped the progression of redshirt sophomore Hunter Bolen, who went on to win his first ACC title in 2020 and was the No. 2 seed for the 2020 NCAA Championships at 184 pounds. True freshman Bryce Andonian and fifth-year senior David McFadden were also ACC runners-up in 2020 under Robie's tutelage.

In 2018-19, Robie helped guide Mekhi Lewis to the program's first national championship and Most Outstanding Wrestler honors at the 2019 NCAA Championships in Pittsburgh. Lewis' title run at 165 pounds wrapped up a season that saw the Hokies finish in the top 11 at the NCAA Championships for the eighth consecutive season and a top two placing at the ACC Championships for the seventh straight year. Tech had three All-Americans and three ACC champions in Lewis, Zack Zavatsky and David McFadden. Robie's performance earned him 2019 ACC Coach of the Year accolades, his second time receiving the honor.

In his first season leading the program, Robie continued Virginia Tech wrestling's run of success as the Hokies won its second consecutive ACC Championship and placed eighth at the NCAA Championships in Cleveland.

Robie became the first coach in the history of ACC wrestling to guide his team to conference championships in his first two seasons. With Robie on staff, Virginia Tech has won four ACC titles over the last seven years and seven conference trophies overall when including dual meet championships.

In Robie's first full campaign, Virginia Tech placed at least three wrestlers on the podium at nationals for the sixth consecutive season. Jared Haught led the group of three All-Americans in 2018 by becoming the Hokies' second-ever national finalist, joining Devin Carter in 2014. Four Hokies – Haught, David McFadden, Brent Moore and Dennis Gustafson – won ACC titles, with Moore taking home Most Valuable Wrestler honors. Robie also coached McFadden to a regular season record of 30-0, the first undefeated season at Virginia Tech since 2001-02.

In duals, Robie led the Hokies to a 14-3 overall record, a 4-1 mark in ACC matches and a final ranking of No. 10 in the final NWCA Coaches Poll. Robie's 14 dual meet victories ranks second in the ACC record book for most wins by a first-year head coach behind Wade Schalles' 15 wins with Clemson in 1978. His .824 winning percentage ranks third all-time in ACC history for a rookie head coach. In Virginia Tech history, Robie's winning percentage ranks first among rookie head coaches while his 14 wins ranks second behind Tom Brands' 16 dual meet wins in 2004-05. Robie, who started five freshmen in duals for a majority of the season, was also named a finalist for the Theraworx NWCA National Coach of the Year award.

On March 21, 2017, Robie was promoted to head wrestling coach at Virginia Tech after serving as interim head coach since February of that year. During that span, Robie led the Hokies to the team title at the ACC Championships and a sixth-place finish at the 2017 NCAA Championships in St. Louis – Tech's fifth-straight top-10 finish at nationals.

Robie was an integral part of the Virginia Tech wrestling staff for 11 seasons as associate head coach under former head coach Kevin Dresser. Between that 2006-07 and 2016-17, the Hokies won three ACC Dual Meet Championships, three ACC tournament championships and finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships five times. One of those top 10 team finishes included a then-ACC record and program best fourth place finish in 2016. He also helped recruit and coach 17 ACC champions and 14 All-Americans.

Robie came to Blacksburg after serving as the head coach at Binghamton University, a program that had been discontinued after the 2003-04 school year because of budget constraints. Before taking over at Binghamton, he was an assistant coach for four seasons at the University of Michigan.

In seven years as a Division I assistant coach, Robie helped coach 23 All-Americans, nine Academic All-Americans and one national champion. As the Wolverines' top assistant coach, Robie recruited three top-10 classes, including the No. 2 ranked class in 2004. His one-on-one work with Michigan student-athlete Ryan Bertin culminated with Bertin's 2003 NCAA championship - the school's first national champion in 18 years. In all, Michigan's team earned national top-10 status all four years that Robie was a coach there. His dedication and influence off the mat resulted in the wrestling team winning the 2003 community service award at the school.

Robie joined the Michigan staff after coaching stops at West Virginia (1998-99) and Edinboro (1999-00).

A world-class wrestler in his own right, Robie was a two-time All-American at Edinboro and a 1997 NCAA finalist at 158 pounds who turned in a career record of 126-23. A two-time captain for Olympic gold medalist Bruce Baumgartner, Robie was a three-time Eastern Wrestling League Champion and a three-time Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) champion. As a senior, Robie led the Fighting Scots to a sixth-place national finish - the highest in school history. He ranks fourth on the school's all-time wins list and went on to earn a bronze medal at the 1998 U.S. Open Freestyle Championships. In 2008, he was inducted into the Edinboro Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Erie, Pa., Robie was a Dean's List student at Edinboro and received the school's Academic Achievement Award before graduating with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in 1997. Robie and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Christiansburg with their three children – Nate, Luke and Jake.
