NUMBERS TO KNOW

2

- Only two times has Tech started ACC play 3-0 since it joined the league in 2004-05, with doing so in 2006-07 and 2018-19. A win Saturday would be the third.

8

- The Hokies have started the season 8-1, which they haven't done in two years. Tech started the Sweet 16 year (2018-19) 14-1 and got up to as high as No. 9 in the AP poll.

21

- After averaging just 2.5 steals through its first seven games of the season, Tech has kicked it up a notch defensively and swiped 21 steals its last two contests.

AT THE RIM

- Hitting the road for the first time in over a month, the No. 24/RV Virginia Tech men's basketball team will play at in-state rival No. 23/24 Virginia on Saturday at 2 p.m. on ACCN.
- The Hokies and Cavaliers played each other twice last season, with UVA coming out on top both times, including winning in Blacksburg thanks to a clutch game-winner. (More on page 5)
- Tech, which is 56-95 in the all-time series with UVA, is 14-39 when away against UVA.
- The two schools have played each other only four times when they both are ranked and the Hokies are 1-3 in those matchups.
- Tech's Mike Young is 0-3 against UVA's Tony Bennett, losing 74-39 in 2012 in Charlottesville when he was at Wofford and twice last season.

WHO TO WATCH

- After already setting his career high for points twice this season, Keve Aluma did it again with his best performance yet (career-high 26 PTS).
- The redshirt junior also filled up the stat sheet, owning six rebounds, four assists and three blocks.
- Justyn Mutts, who only had cracked the double figures scoring plateau twice coming into the Miami (Fla.) game this season, exploded for a season-high 15 points.
- The Delaware transfer almost had a double-double, too, grabbing nine rebounds.

LAST TIME OUT

- Getting up by as many as 17 points over Miami (Fla.), the Hokies held off a 'Canes comeback to win by two, 80-78.
- Getting stellar play from its bigs, Tech got a combined 41 points and 15 rebounds from forwards Justyn Mutts and Keve Aluma.

A WIN WOULD

- Make the Hokies 3-0 in league play and atop the ACC standings for being tied for first place. It would be just the third time in school history Tech began its first three ACC games with wins.
- Be revenge for getting swept last year by UVA and make coach Mike Young 1-3 versus the Cavaliers and coach Tony Bennett.
- Extend Tech's winning streak to five games and then snap its four-game skid to UVA, dating back to Feb. 10, 2018, a one-point overtime road win.
- Be just Tech's second win in a ranked-ranked game with UVA.

BEST IN THE COMMONWEALTH

- The Hokies and Cavaliers both typically aren't ranked in the AP Top 25 poll when they face each other twice a year, but have seen that trend change in recent years.
- Only four times has it happened and this Saturday will be the third time in just the last three seasons.
- Tech has only been ranked higher once in the previous four ranked-ranked outings, with that coming in 1995, an eight-point win.

Date	Ranking	W/L	Site
Feb. 28, 2019	#20 VT, #3 UVA	L, 64-58	VT
Jan. 15, 2019	#9 VT, #4 UVA	L, 81-59	UVA
Dec. 28, 1995	#21 VT, #22 UVA	W, 72-64	ROA
Jan. 19, 1983	#17 VT, #7 UVA	L, 74-64	RICH

OUT IN TRANSITION

- For the first time in the Mike Young era, the Hokies had four straight games of scoring in double digits in the fastbreak points category, topping the previous high of three straight contests, which was done two times prior to this season.
- Tech had 12 fastbreak points against Clemson, 15 versus Coppin State, 13 against Longwood and 15 versus Miami (Fla.) for an average of 13.8.
- Tech, which averaged 9.5 fastbreak points per game last year against nonconference foes and just 8.1 versus ACC opponents, is averaging 11.1 so far this season.
- According to KenPom, the Hokies' tempo is on a little more of an uptick compared to last year, with them averaging 67.6 (adjusted tempo rating) this year to 65.5 last season.

NOT THE FASTEST BY ANY STRETCH

- Saturday's game will showcase two of the 'slower' teams among high-major conferences (P5, AAC, BIG EAST), as UVA owns the slowest tempo at 60.8 and Tech is the 21st-slowest among high majors at 67.6.
- Last year's games were pretty much the first to the mid-50s wins. Tech only had 39 in the first round and just 53 in the second outing, compared to UVA's 65 in the first game and 56 in the second.
- Interestingly enough, coach Mike Young's teams only scored exactly 39 points his first two times against UVA's Tony Bennett, making 53 in the most recent one the high for an average of just 43.7 ppg.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

- Forwards Keve Aluma and Justyn Mutts sure came to play against Miami (Fla.) this past Tuesday, carrying Tech to a victory with not its best play out of its guards in some time.
- The two combined for quite the stat line: 41 points, 15 rebounds, six assists, four steals and three blocks.
- In doing so, the two set some career and season highs, including Aluma's career high in points (26), assists (4, tied) and blocks (3, tied) and Mutts' career best in 3s made (3) and season highs for points (15), rebounds (9, tied) and steals (3).

BOOTS FLIRTIN' W/ DOUBLE-DOUBLES

- Tyrece "Boots" Radford has come oh so close to getting his first double-double of the season, and really, has come close twice his last two games.
- Boots had nine points and eight rebounds against Longwood on Dec. 21 to wrap up noncon, then came back with a 13-point, nine-rebound outing versus Miami (Fla.) on Tuesday.
- He's averaging 11 points and 8.5 rebounds per game his last two contests.
- The Louisiana native had three double-doubles last year, including two of those coming in ACC play (Wake, Miami).

NA STAYIN' STEADY

- Sophomore Nahiem Alleyne, who is in the top three for best shooters on the team (Cone, Cattoor), has been pretty steady this season from downtown.
- The guard has made at least one triple in all but one game this year, with that one being against VMI.
- That day, he went 0 for 7 and really dropped his 3-point percentage average, which is 40.9% on the season. If you take that game away, he's shooting 48.6% from 3.
- If you remember last season, the Georgia native made a 3 in 13 consecutive games, which tied for the fifth-longest of any ACC player last year. And of that group, only him and Syracuse's Buddy Boeheim returned this season.
- This season, he ranks fifth in the ACC in 3-point field-goal percentage (40.9%) among players that have hit at least 15 triples. He will face another player on that list on Saturday in UVA's Trey Murphy (51.6%), who ranks second.

CAUSING HAVOC DEFENSIVELY

- Tech forced Miami (Fla.) into committing 19 turnovers on Tuesday, which was a season high for the 'Canes, as well as a season high forced by Tech.
- Over the last seven seasons, Tech has only done that (forced 19 or more TOs against an ACC team) five times, making it a first in the Mike Young era and for the first time since 2017.

What's a Hokie?

The answer leads all the way back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute. With the change came the necessity for writing a new cheer and a contest for such a purpose was held by the student body.

Senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Hokie" yell which is still used today. Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull explained the word was solely the product of his imagination and was used only as an attention-getter for his yell. It soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics.

The official university school colors - Chicago Maroon and Burnt Orange - also were introduced in 1896. The colors were chosen by a committee because they made a 'unique combination' not worn elsewhere at the time. The official definition of "hokie" is "a loyal Virginia Tech Fan".

WHERE THEY AT

- Tech has 15 players on the squad who represent 10 states and two international countries (Netherlands, Nigeria), making it tied for eighth in the country for most states and countries represented on a roster this season.
- Virginia leads the way with three players – Joseph "Joe" Bamisile, Gill Williamson, Grant Yates – while Maryland has two players – Keve Aluma and Darius Maddox.
- New Mexico, Penn and UT Martin are No. 1 nationally with 15 players from different states and countries, while in the ACC, Boston College (13) is first and Florida State is tied with the Hokies for the second most in the league with 12.
- Of the 23 schools that have 12 or more players from different spots, nine are from high-major conferences, including BC, Kentucky, Butler, FSU, Iowa State, Nebraska, Tennessee, Tulane and the Hokies.

'19 CLASS OF HIGH-MAJOR COACHES

- Out of the seven high-major conferences (ACC, American, BIG EAST, B1G, Big 12, Pac-12 and SEC), there were 14 head coaches hired for the 2019-20 season.
- Virginia Tech coach Mike Young was just one of six coaches that were a mid-major coach to jump up to the big leagues, joining Alabama's Nate Oats (Buffalo), Arkansas' Eric Musselman (Nevada), Tulane's Ron Hunter (Georgia State) and Washington State's Kyle Smith (San Francisco).
- Of the 14 new coaches, Young was the longest-tenured coach to leave, following his 17-year stint as the head guy at Wofford.
- The NBA saw three of its coaches jump into the college ranks, with Michigan's Juwon Howard (Miami Heat), Nebraska's Fred Hoiberg (Chicago Bulls) and Vanderbilt's Jerry Stackhouse (Memphis Grizzlies).
- In this cycle, only one assistant coach was promoted from within and that was Temple's Aaron McKie, who served as an assistant under Fran Dunphy for five seasons in Philadelphia.
- Former Hokie coach Buzz Williams, who is at Texas A&M, was one of just two coaches to jump ship and go high-major for high-major, with UCLA's Mick Cronin (Cincinnati) being the other.
- A full breakdown of the 14 coaches in the cycle is below, with the SEC welcoming the most among the seven leagues with four. The Big 12 was the lone conference not make coaching change heading into the 2019-20 season.

TEAM AVERAGES

- Of the 14 categories below, Tech owns just four categories to its name, including a good size separation in points per game (+2.3) and rebounds per game (+2.8).
- The Cavaliers on the other hand own a substantial FT% (+8.7) and block margin (+1.0).

LAST TIME vs. VIRGINIA

- Trailing by as many as 15 points, the Hokies went to work and began to chip away at the deficit and ended up tying the game at 53-all with 11 seconds remaining after a clutch runner in the lane by Tyrece Radford, but UVA responded with a clutch play itself, as Kihei Clark hit a game-winning 3-pointer with two ticks left to win.
- Tech didn't do itself any favors early, scoring as little as 11 points in the first half, which was the lowest ever in either half since it joined the ACC in 2004-05, thanks to shooting just 20.8 percent from the field. But a better second half (51.9 FG%) paved the way to make it a game.
- The Hokies' bench shined once again, outscoring UVA's bench 36-10 with Jalen Cone (8 points) and Hunter Cattoor (6) combining for 14 of those 36.
- Tech limited its miscues, coughing up only seven turnovers compared to forcing eight Cavalier turnovers, and hit more 3s than UVA (9-6).

SCOUTING VIRGINIA

- Virginia is coming off a nine-point road win at Notre Dame (3-5, 0-2) on Wednesday, 66-57, having three players score in double figures, including a team-high 19 points from preseason All-ACC pick Kihei Clark.
- Bennett enters his 11th season as the head coach in Charlottesville, following his three-year stint at Washington State where he led the Cougars to consecutive NCAA Tournaments for the first time in school history. At UVA, Bennett has earned three National Coach of the Year awards and won the '19 NCAA title.
- The Cavaliers are led by Clark, who is averaging 10.6 points and 3.4 assists per game, and Marquette transfer Sam Hauser, who owns a team-high 12.9 points and team-best 6.4 rebounds per game.
- Committing only 8.9 turnovers a game, the Cavaliers rank fifth nationally and first in the ACC in that category, as well as playing fundamental defense with sitting seventh nationally and second in the conference in fouls per game with just 14.

FINDING A WAY TO GET IT DONE

- Tech, as most teams, doesn't do well in the win column when it allows its opponent to shoot better than 50 percent from the field.
- Since coach Mike Young has gotten here, the Hokies are 1-4 in games when its opponents shoot better than 50 percent.
- Before Tuesday, Tech was 0-4 in those situations, until it pulled out the win over Miami (Fla.), which shot 53.6 percent from the field.
- The only other team this season that the Hokies allowed their foe to shoot more than 50 percent was against Penn State (50.0%), the lone loss this season.

80 THE SWEET SPOT

- The Hokies, who are averaging 72.1 points per game over the last two seasons, are 8-1 when scoring 80 or more points in the Mike Young era.
- Tech dropped 80 on Miami, marking only the third time its scored 80 or more against an ACC team the last two seasons, and just the second in a regulation game (80 vs. WF, 95 vs. Miami in 3OT).
- Therefore, Tech tied its ACC high in the Young era Tuesday for a regulation game.

WAS A FUN RIDE

- Tech played all of its December games in the friendly confines of Cassell Coliseum, taking on six foes in total.
- December treated the Hokies well, winning five of those six contests, with its lone loss coming to Penn State in the ACC/B1G Challenge.
- Now, Tech will begin its slate in the New Year with two road contests at UVA (Jan. 2) and UofL (Jan. 6).

DUNK CITY

- The rim was rocking quite a bit in Tech's last game, with the Hokies tallying seven dunks against Longwood on Dec. 21.
- The seven dunks marked the most in the Mike Young era, topping the previous high of five set against Maryland Eastern Shore last year (Dec. 29).
- Keve Aluma had multiple dunks (2x) and then Nahiem Alleyne, David N'Guessan, Hunter Cattoor, Tyrece Radford and Justyn Mutts all had one and joined in on the 'dunk party' as well.
- To put it in perspective of how rare that instance was, Tech has three games this season (Coppin State, Villanova, USF) that it didn't get a single dunk.
- Last year, Tech had five games of three dunks, six games of two dunks and 11 games of just one.

DON'T MAKE 'EM LIKE ME ANYMORE

- Keve Aluma has been arguably Tech's best player so far this season, with being the team's leading scorer (14.8) and rebounder (6.8), and put it all together in Tech's most recent outing.
- Against Longwood last week, the redshirt junior put together quite the stat line, registering 14 points, four rebounds, three blocks, two steals and an assist in just 24 minutes of action.
- Because of that outing, he is just one of five ACC players and only 13 high-major guys, including Iowa's Luka Garza, to do that stat line or better this season.

SOMETHING 'BOUT THOSE TWO

- When you look at the shortest players on the rosters for Virginia Tech and Miami (Fla.), it's not your typical 6-foot walk-on, as Tech's Jalen Cone (5'10") and Miami's Chris Lykes (5'7") are pretty short considering DI averages.
- But, despite their challenges of that, the two have formed a bond with one another and consider each other friends off the court.
- The two text regularly and Lykes has given Cone tips on best practices of overcoming his lack of height in the ACC, with Lykes being a couple of years older than Cone and sharing words of wisdom of what has worked for him over the years.

SMALL BUT MIGHTY

- Among high-major conference teams, there are only 35 players that are less than six feet tall, including Tech's Jalen Cone, standing at 5-foot-10.
- Of those 35, 19 of them are walk-ons, while the other 16 are on scholarship.
- In the ACC, Cone is one of eight players shorter than six feet, and is just one of five scholarship players in the league.
- This week, Cone will go against two of the more famous shorter guys in the league, including Miami (Fla.)'s Chris Lykes and UVA's Kihei Clark.

UPTICK IN SHARING THE ROCK

- Sophomore guard Hunter Cattoor has improved his ball handling and decision making from last year, and it really has showed here the last couple of games for the Hokies.
- With Cartier Diarra opting out of the season (since Dec. 15), Cattoor has filled in as the secondary point guard, spelling Wabissa Bede, and has done a nice job, turning in eight assists his last two games.
- That two-game stretch of eight dimes is his best two-game stretch yet as a Hokie, topping his previous high of seven assists last season versus Delaware State on Nov. 20 and then-No. 3 Michigan State on Nov. 25.
- Versus Coppin State on Dec. 19, he dished out a career-high five assists – not bad for a guy who is known as a catch-and-shoot specialist.

UNDER A HANDFUL CAN SAY SO

- Tech is one of just four high-major schools this season to have two players drill five or more 3s together in the same game.
- The Hokies are one of two ACC schools ('Cuse) to do so this year, while the other two teams are two top-10 teams in No. 4 Iowa (vs. UNC), which actually had three players accomplish the feat, and No. 5 Villanova (vs. Georgetown).

20-ASSIST PLATEAU

- Tech has had six games of 20 or more assists in the Young era and is 5-1 in those games, with the lone loss coming to Syracuse at home last year in a close one, 80-78.
- The Hokies had 20 assists against Coppin State for a season high, with three players owning at least four, including Wabissa Bede (5 ast.), Hunter Cattoor (5) and Jalen Cone (4).

TOP ITEMS IN YOUNG ERA

- To give perspective on how well the Hokies were clicking on all cylinders Saturday against Coppin State on Dec. 19, here are how some key items that stand out in the Mike Young era.
- Tech's bench exploded for 51 points, which is the most in the Young era, topping the previous high of 49, which was set twice - Delaware State (Nov. 20) and Maryland Eastern Shore (Dec. 29).
- Tech's 20 3s were the second most in school history, as well as the Young era (21 vs. Delaware State).
- The 97 points were the second most in the Young era, topping the triple OT game against Miami (Fla.) last year of 95 points, but being a triple short of the Delaware State game's 100-point outing.
- Also, Tech had eight players make a 3 versus Coppin State, which hasn't happened at Tech since Nov. 21, 2017 against Houston Baptist (8 as well).

NOT GREAT, BOB - OH WAIT

- Tech had not been shooting the ball well from downtown as of late, making just five 3s versus then-No. 24/RV Clemson, six 3s against Penn State, four triples versus VMI and only five the one before that (USF) for a combined 20-of-81 clip (24.7%).
- In the Mike Young era, that was the fewest 3s made in a four-game stretch.
- So, after hitting just 20 3s its last four games heading into Coppin State, Tech ripped off the exact amount in just one game.

FALLING BUT WINNING THE GLASS

- Tech coach Mike Young is 12-2 at Tech when his Hokie team out-rebounds the opponent, with another instance of it happening in Tech's last game versus Penn State (39-33).
- It marked just the second loss when his group has outrebounded its opponent, with the only other loss coming last season against Boston College on Feb. 8, 2019, with a +1 differential.
- In fact, out of Tech's 20 ACC games last year, it only out-rebounded its league opponent three times, with two of those being versus Clemson.

BOOTS EXPANDING HIS VERSATILITY

- Guard Tyrece Radford, otherwise known as "Boots", tied his career high in assists against Radford, racking up five assists.
- Radford has done so three times now, with the other two coming last year against Syracuse (Jan. 18) and Maryland Eastern Shore (Dec. 29).
- Last year, the Louisiana native had seven games of four or more assists. So, after working on his passing ability this offseason, expect Boots to share the rock on an uptick this season instead of having his head down traditionally on his way to the rim.
- Since the season opener versus the Highlanders, Radford has found his groove with sharing the rock, leading the team in assists in three games so far, including Tech's game vs. Penn State (3 ast.).

RARE, LIKE MR. CLEAN WITH HAIR

- Justyn Mutts, who doesn't have a bad hairdo himself, became just the fifth Hokie in the last decade to have a 10-point, nine-rebound, six-assist or better stat line and the first since 2019 (Nickeil Alexander-Walker) when he did so vs. VMI.
- Mutts is just one of two in the ACC players in the ACC to do so this year (Louisville's Carlik Jones).

Player	Date	PTS	REB	AST
Justyn Mutts (vs. VMI)	12/3/20	10	9	6
Nickeil Alexander-Walker (Miami)	3/8/19	21	10	8
Kerry Blackshear Jr. (Citadel)	11/12/17	22	15	8
Chris Clarke (Citadel)	12/17/16	13	12	10
Jeff Allen (Penn St.)	12/12/10	11	13	6

PUTTIN' ON THE CLAMPS

- Tech gave up less than 59 points in back-to-back games against USF and VMI, marking just the third time in the Mike Young era.
- The previous two times were a four-game stretch (Chattanooga, Gardner-Webb, VMI and Maryland Eastern Shore; Dec. 11-29) and a three-game stretch (Coppin State, USC Upstate and Lehigh; Nov. 8-16).

'ROUND THE BLOCK

- With more of an intentionality of scoring inside this season with the added presence down low compared to last year, Tech showcased that vs. USF with 42 points in the paint, which was most in the Mike Young era, spanning over 35 games.
- The previous high was 40 points against then-No. 10/8 Duke on Dec. 6 in Cassell, a 77-63 lost.

GETTIN' TO THE CHARITY STRIPE

- Coach Young was not happy with how little the Hokies got to the free-throw line last year, with an average of 13.4 per game, which ranked second-to-last in the ACC and was in the bottom 25 nationally.
- So now, with not being as dependent on the 3-ball and having more players that can get to the rim, Tech has increased that average to 22.1 this season, including a three-game stretch of 20-plus three-throw attempts versus Villanova, USF and VMI.
- Last year, the Hokies only had eight games (out of 32) of having 20 or more free throw attempts. When doing so, they were 7-1, with the lone loss being against Miami (Fla.) in triple overtime.
- Tech accomplished consecutive contests with 20-plus free throws only twice (Jan. 7-14) last year.

STARTIN' OUT HOT

- The Hokies have started the season out on a strong note, with defeating their opponent by 10 or more points twice through five games.
- In Young's final season at Wofford (2018-19), that was a norm, with his Terriers having 22 games of winning by double digits.
- Last season, though, Tech only won by 10 or more 10 times, including just four times against a high-major conference opponent.
- The Hokies already have one double-digit win against a high-major team (USF) this year.

MORE ON THE DECK

- Sophomore Hunter Cattoor was a more balanced player in high school he shared recently, with doing a little bit of everything (3s, mid-range, floaters) at all three levels.
- Since his arrival to Blacksburg, he's been more of a catch-and-shoot player and is looking to buck that trend.
- So, against USF, the guard set a career-high eight free throw attempts and cashed in six of those. Cattoor last year, out of 31 games, only got to the line in eight games for a total of 22 free throw attempts. So expect more times than not he will put it on the deck and attack the rim.

LEVELIN' UP

- The grad transfer from Iowa, Cordell Pemsl, stepped up in a big way against USF, subbing in for Keve Aluma when he picked up his second foul early in the first half.
- Pemsl came in and made some big plays, playing 12 minutes and recording eight points and four rebounds alone in the first half.
- He would go on to finish with 10 points and six rebounds - not bad for a role player who had 13 minutes, one point and two rebounds combined the first two games.

BENCH MOB HEATIN' UP

- In the USF win, the Hokies had five players score in double figures, which was a first this year and only the third time in the Mike Young era (UMES, Michigan St.; both with five players).
- Of those five players Sunday, two did so coming off the bench, respectively, in Cartier Diarra and Cordell Pemsl. Last season, that happened just eight times, with half of those in ACC play.

THAT'S A FIRST
- Tech basketball under the direction of Coach Young is known for being a quality 3-point shooting team, with the Hokies finishing with the most 3s made last year in the ACC with 315.
- So when they are having an off shooting night from downtown, it's tough to overcome it and get a win.
- Last year, Tech had three instances when it made five or less 3s and went 0-3 in those games.
- This year, with not being as reliant on the deep ball, Tech made only five triples versus USF, but still earned a blowout win, a first in the Mike Young era.

DOWNTOWN, A STAPLE
- As you know, 3-point shooting is a staple of the Coach Young offense.
- And to back up his prowess, Young is one of only two coaches whose teams have ranked in the top 80 nationally in 3P% each of the last six years (since 2014-15).
- The only others are Saint Mary's Randy Bennet, Duke's Coach K, Michigan State's Tom Izzo and Gonzaga's Mark Few each with five a piece.

TOP-THREE WINS
- There are only two teams since '10 that have won a game against a top-3 team in their first six games of the season in consecutive years, with it being Tech and Duke ('17, '18).

THE FEW, THE PROUD
- Only eight players this season have racked up 13 rebounds and dished out five assists in a game, with Tyrece Radford accomplishing the feat against then-No. 3 Villanova.
- Three of those players reside in the ACC, with Radford, Duke's Jalen Johnson and Pitt's Justin Champagnie.

WITH THE BEST OF THEM
- Over the last five seasons, only Tech, Duke, UNC and Kansas have the most wins against AP top-five teams, with all four squads owning six games apiece since 2016.

UPSET TIDBITS
- Coach Young earned his second ranked win at Tech, following his upset of then-No. 3 Michigan State last November in Maui, and makes him 2-0 at Tech versus the AP's third-ranked team.
- For the third time in Coach Young's last four seasons he's earned a top-five win (No. 5 North Carolina, 2017, when he was at Wofford).
- Tech now has three straight seasons of winning a nonconference tournament game against a ranked opponent (No. 23/22 Purdue, 2018, Charleston Classic).

THE GLASS
- Tech didn't control the glass too much last year in games against ACC teams, with only out-rebounding its ACC opponent three times out of 21 games.
- But what was a weakness, with a good amount of that coming down to size, last year is arguably now a strength, as the Hokies out-rebounding third-ranked Villanova by nine.
- Tyrece Radford tied his career high with 13 boards to lead the charge on the glass for Tech.
- Keve Aluma (8) and Justyn Mutts (6) combined for 14 boards, including three of those being offensive.

BEEN A MINUTE
- Tech scored 81 against then-No. 3/3 Villanova, marking the first time the Hokies have scored 80 or more points since Feb. 19, 2020 against Miami (Fla.) in a triple overtime thriller.
- A total of seven games came in between the Miami and 'Nova games.
- The Hokies are 5-1 when they score 80-plus points under Coach Young. The lone loss was the Miami (Fla.) triple OT contest, a 102-95 setback.

COMEBACK KIDS
- Tech put together a 12-point comeback against the third-ranked 'Cats in the win.
- The last time the Hokies were down double digits and came back to win was vs. UNC on Jan. 22, 2020, which was also a game that went into overtime.

EFFICIENT AS THEY COME
- Forward Keve Aluma had quite the debut vs. Radford, netting seven of his 10 shots for a career-high 19 points.
- The redshirt junior likely won't keep a 70 percent field-goal percentage going all season, but it is something to keep an eye on the rest of the way.
- In his final season at Wofford (2018-19), Aluma shot 67 percent from the floor, which ranked 17th among all Division I players (minimum 140 FGA).
- So, expect a high clip from the Maryland native this season.

THE LONE SWEEP
- Last season, Tech swept Clemson with defeating the Tigers once on the road (Nov. 5) and once at home (March 4) for its lone sweep of a team on the year.
- It marked just the second-ever over the Tigers (2017).
- The Hokies had six players hit a 3-pointer, including four players hitting at least two.

SOMETHING ABOUT 4
- Tech, which didn't necessarily have a handful of high-end scorers in Mike Young's first season, looks like it does now, as six players made at least four shots against Radford.
- So there must be something about the No. 4, as Tech also had four steals, with four players getting one swipe apiece.
- Last year, Tech didn't have a single game of six players making four or more field goals (closest was five players twice), marking the Radford game a first in the Mike Young era – a promising sign for the Hokies of a more well-balanced attack offensively.

NBA & G-LEAGUE

NAW IN YEAR 2
- Nickeil Alexander-Walker has left his mark on Virginia Tech and is working on making a name for himself at the next level with the New Orleans Pelicans.
- A first-round draft pick in 2019, the Toronto native played in 47 games for the Pels in the 2019-20 NBA season. On Feb. 26, he was moved down to the Erie Bayhawks, then came back up when the bubble in Orlando started.
- He scored a career-high 27 points against the Miami Heat on Saturday, Nov. 16. He followed it up the next game on Sunday, Nov. 17 with 19 points, five rebounds and four assists versus the Warriors, for his best two-game stretch of the season.
- This season, NAW has played in two games for the Pelicans and is coming off a 11-point, four-assist performance on Dec. 29 at Phoenix.

Season	G	P	R	A	B	S	FG%	M
2019-20	47	5.7	1.8	1.9	0.2	0.4	36.8	12.6
2020-21	2	7.0	0.5	2.0	0.0	0.5	41.7	12.7

HANGIN' IN
- It was a little bit of a whirlwind for Tech alums Nickeil Alexander-Walker, Justin Robinson and Ahmed Hill last year, with all three going up and down and all around on their quest to solidifying a roster spot in the NBA.
- Robinson, who signed as an undrafted free agent after the NBA Draft concluded with the Washington Wizards, was waived on Jan. 4.
- Hill signed with the Hornets this summer on a two-way deal, but was released in early November. However, he landed nicely on his feet, with now playing on the NAZ Suns, the G-League affiliate of the Phoenix Suns.
- Justin Bibbs, who plays for the Boston Celtics' affiliate (Maine Red Claws), hit a game-winner on Jan. 19, 2019, finishing with 15 points and six assists.

SHARING IS CARING

- Tech dished out 18 assists versus the Highlanders, which was the third-most by an ACC team in season openers.
- The Hokies had 18 or more assists in seven games last year and went 6-1 on those contests, losing to Syracuse 71-69 at home in the lone setback.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

- Tech has three (!) players that just started playing basketball recently, with Keve Aluma, Cartier Diarra and John Ojiako all first playing basketball in high school.
- Each began that late for various reasons. Aluma was in love with soccer up until then, Diarra was a dancer and Ojiako had someone run into him on the street and told him he should give it a try.

MY TURN

- Coach Young this fall created a non-profit called MY TURN, which is an anti-bullying organization.
- Through this organization, Coach Young hopes to bring attention and awareness to bullying in schools, as well as prevention tactics to the community at Tech and the surrounding areas.
- Growing up in Southwest Virginia, Coach Young spent a lot of time in Cassell Coliseum with his late father, Bob Young, whose service and dedication as an educator and coach impacted many young lives in the new river valley community.
- Following in his father's footsteps, Coach Young's passion for coaching and teaching makes him a great advocate for promoting change and equality.

NOT TOO SHABBY

- Tech ranked highly in a few categories nationally last season and hopes to do the same this season, with those including being fifth in turnovers per game (9.9), fifth in assist-turnover ratio (1.48), 13th in 3-point field goals per game (9.8) and 17th in personal fouls per game (14.8).

WHAT'S NOT TO LIKE?

- KenPom had the Hokies at No. 35 out of 351 teams in its preseason rankings, which are based off of adjusted efficiency margin.
- Out of the ACC, it has Tech tabbed as the eighth best team in the league.

FIRST-YEAR WINS

- Tech coach Mike Young tallied 16 wins his first year in Blacksburg, making him tied for the fifth-most wins by a first-year Tech coach in school history.
- The 16 wins were the most by a first-year Tech coach since 1999-00 when Ricky Stokes had 16 as well.

THAT NEW, NEW

- Tech is tied for the 12th-most newcomers in the nation, bringing in nine players this past offseason.
- Two of those guys were already on campus in Keve Aluma and Grant Yates, but had to sit out last year due to NCAA transfer rules.
- Speaking of transfers, Tech welcomed three this past summer in Cartier Diarra (Kansas State), Justyn Mutts (Delaware) and Cordell Pemsl (Iowa). Mutts has two years of eligibility, while Diarra and Pemsl each have one season left. However, the NCAA waived the players' eligibility that compete in winter sports, therefore all three could return an additional year.
- Then the other four players are freshmen, with three being on scholarship and one is a walk-on.
- The Hokies have the most newcomers of any team in the ACC.

Having just three players returning who saw minutes the previous year in 2018-19 on the team, Young had to act quickly when hired on April 7, 2019 and build a roster to compete in the best conference in the nation. Adding a staff and six scholarship players in a hurry, Young's first season in Blacksburg started off with a bang, as the Hokies went down to South Carolina and defeated Clemson in style to give Young his first Hokie and ACC win, as well as his 300th career victory.

Another big-time W came at the prestigious Maui Jim Maui Invitational against then-No. 3 Michigan State. On ESPN2 with Dan Shulman and Jay Bilas on the call, the young Hokies (7 of the 9 rotation players were underclassmen) pulled off one of the bigger upsets of the season with a 71-66 win. With the upset of Sparty, it marked the first time since 1964 that Tech beat a top-five team in nonconference play.

Despite being the shortest and second-youngest squad among high-major conference teams, Young and Co. tallied 16 wins to make it the most victories by a first-year head coach at Tech since 1999-00 and tied for the fifth-most wins ever by a first-year Hokie coach. He also became the first coach to win two of his first three road ACC games in school history.

Leaning on a mix of young and old in his first season, Young developed junior Wabissa Bede into one of the finer point guards in the country, as Bede would go on to finish with the sixth-best assist-to-turnover ratio nationally (3.34) and first in the ACC. And under Young's tutelage, redshirt freshman Tyrece Radford blossomed into one of the better all-around players in the league, with being one of only two players in the ACC to average 10 points, six rebounds and shoot over 60 percent from the field.

Under the direction of Young, the Hokies put together some new records during the 2019-20 season. On Nov. 20 versus Delaware State, Tech racked up 21 3-pointers, marking the most in school history and the most ever by an ACC team. Speaking of 3s, the 315 hit last season were the second-most in school history.

Four freshmen hit 49 or more 3-pointers, which was the most by any program in over the last 25 years. Behind the young bucks, Tech finished 13th nationally in 3-pointers made per game with 9.9 triples a contest, which was the most in school history.

Utilizing its freshmen on the offensive end last year, Tech finished with its freshmen averaging 50.7 points per game, which is the fourth-most in ACC history behind Duke's 2018-19, 2017-18, 1982-83 teams.

Making sure his team played the game the right way by limiting miscues, Young's prowess showed on Dec. 29 when Tech committed only two turnovers against Maryland Eastern Shore to tie a school record. The Hokies would go on to finish fourth in the nation in fewest turnovers committed per game (9.9).

The Radford, Virginia native joined the Hokies after a record-setting 17-year tenure as the head coach at Wofford. The Terriers posted a 30-5 overall record in 2018-19, including a perfect 18-0 mark in Southern Conference play, and registered a convincing 84-68 win over Seton Hall in the first round of the 2019 NCAA Tournament.

The 2019 Sporting News Coach of the Year, Young built the Terriers into one of the Southern Conference's preeminent programs and a perennial NCAA Tournament participant. He guided Wofford to five NCAA Tournament berths over the past 10 seasons and five Southern Conference championships.

FINAL: Virginia Tech 81, No. 3 Villanova 73.

Marks the second year in a row Va Tech knocks off a top-three team in November. Hokies erase a 12-point deficit in the final nine minutes, then overcome a weird ending to regulation. Mike Young can coach, man. Keve Aluma was terrific.

Matthew Gutierrez ✓
@MatthewGut21

Already starting to regret placing Virginia Tech in the bottom portion of the ACC. The way they move so well offensively and defend with energy, they'll compete in conference play

Jon Rothstein ✓
@JonRothstein

Today we saw why many NBA folks felt that Mike Young could be an offensive coordinator at the professional level. Guy is a genius offensively.

Bryan Ives
@awaytoworthy

Only Mike Krzyzewski (5) has more wins vs AP Top 5 teams away from home than Mike Young (3) over in the last four seasons.

Young's wins:
2017 at 5 UNC
2019 vs 3 MSU (Maui)
2020 vs 3 VILL (Mohegan Sun)

Leonard Hamilton and Chris Beard also have 3 such wins.

Hell of a win for the Hokies in a game that was put together less than 48 hours ago.

Keve Aluma followed Mike Young from Wofford to Blacksburg and just finished with 23 points and 8 rebounds in the win.

The "basketball gods" rewarded @HokiesMBB. They deserved to win this game. @NovaMBB defense inside & out has been a major issue in two of three games. Mike Young, as was ascribed to great Bear Bryant, "can take yours & beat his and take his & beat yours."
