He was awarded the game ball following the game. He was also named a Lou Groza Award Star of the Week following his performance against the Seminoles.
- It was the first Irish win on the final play of the game since 2014 when the Irish defeated LSU in the Music City Bowl on a 32-yard Kyle Brindza field goal as time expired.

- The 366 yards set a Notre Dame record for most passing yards in a season-opening game. The previous record was held by current offensive coordinator Tommy Rees when he threw for 346 yards against Temple in 2013.
- Coan also tied the Notre Dame record for most passing touchdowns in a season-opener with four. He tied with Jimmy Clausen (2009) and Ron Powlus (1994).

- After falling behind in the beginning of the third quarter, Coan brought the Irish back ahead on the very next drive. He went 3-for-3 on the ensuing drive and capped it with a 37-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Austin Jr., on third-and-one.
- His fourth touchdown pass of the night came on the next drive in the third quarter where he went 4-for-4 for 79 yards. Facing third and goal, he hit Kyren Williams in the flat for a six-yard touchdown pass.
- All four of his touchdown passes came on third or fourth down.

THE MAYER OF TALLAHASSEE

- Sophomore tight end Michael Mayer did not waste any time making an impact this season for the Irish, as he was the main target on their very first drive of the season.
- One the first play from scrimmage, Coan hit Mayer in the flat for a 25-yard pass. Four plays later, the pair connected on a 41-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-one to put the Irish ahead 7-0. The 41-yard reception was a career best mark for Mayer.
- At the half, Mayer had five receptions for 89 yards. The 89 yards had already bested his previous career high mark of 73 yards.
- He finished the game with 120 receiving yards for his first 100-yard game of his career.
- He was the first Irish tight end to record a 100-yard game since Cole Kmet had 108 yards against Georgia in 2019.

- He tied for the NCAA lead for receiving yards among tight ends in Week 1. He was the only player tied for the lead who played in a true road game.

I AM KYLE HAMILTON

- Junior safety Kyle Hamilton made his presence known in the season opening win over the Seminoles.
- He recorded two interceptions for the first multi-interception game of his career. He also totaled six tackles on the night.
- Hamilton was tied for the lead nationally for interceptions during Week 1. He was just one of two players to have two interceptions in true road games.
- He was the first Irish player to record two interceptions in a game since Aloh Gillman had two against Syracuse in 2018.
- After both interceptions, the Irish offense scored a touchdown.

2021 CAPTAINS

- Dick Corbett Head Football Coach Brian Kelly announced seven team captains for Notre Dame's 2021 football campaign this fall. They include Avery Davis, Kyle Hamilton, Kurt Hinish, Jarrett Patterson, Myron Tagovailoa-Amosa, Drew White and Kyren Williams. All seven players were SWAT captains during the summer workouts.

- The seven captains tie for the most in a single season in Notre Dame history. The Irish named seven captains prior to the 2017 and 2019 seasons.

NEW SHERIFF IN TOWN

- After spending four years at Wisconsin to begin his collegiate career, graduate student Jack Coan transferred to the Irish in the Spring of 2021.
- He played in 25 games for the Badgers, and made 18 starts to finish with a 12-6 career record.
- Coan finished his career at UW third all-time in completion percentage (68%) and third in pass efficiency rating (144.7).
- Prior to this season, Coan was named to the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Watch List.

- Jarrett Patterson and Josh Lugg are the two most experienced lineman returning from the 2020 squad.
- Patterson, a team captain for 2021, has made 26 career starts in his career and is coming off a 2020 season where he was named an honorable mention All-American by Phil Steele.
- Heading into this season, Patterson was named to the Rimington Trophy, Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists.
- Lugg has played in 41 games and made 13 starts on the line.
- In 2020, he played in 11 of 12 games and made three starts for the offensive line that was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award.
- Prior to this season, Lugg was one of six Irish named to the Reese's Senior Bowl Watch List.
- An impact transfer who will help the Irish on the offensive line is Cain Madden who joins the Irish from Marshall.
- Madden was a 2020 Walter Camp Second Team All-American and an AP Second Team All-American.
- He started 9-of-10 games for the Thundering Herd in 2020 and the offensive line paved the way for Marshall to outrush their opponents in 7-of-10 games and outpass opponents in six.
- Prior to the 2021 season, Madden has earned preseason All-American honors from Walter Camp (first team) and the Associated Press (second team). He was also named to the Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award Watch Lists.

DEEP DEFENSIVE LINE

- Even after losing two starters from last year to the NFL Draft, the Irish bring back some of their most experienced players on the defensive line.
- Graduate student Kurt Hinish is the most experienced player returning on the team as he has played 53 games in his career and started in 28 games over the past three seasons.
- In 2020, Hinish had the best season of his career with a career-best 19 tackles, 7.5 tackles-for-loss and 2.0 sacks.

- Tagovailoa-Amosa is also on a number of watch lists heading into the season including the Nagurski Trophy, Wuerffel Trophy, Reese's Senior Bowl and Polynesian Player of the Year. He was also named to the AFCA Good Works Team this preseason.

The Irish turned defense into offense in the third quarter tallying a touchdown four plays after a fumble recovery with a three-yard run into the endzone from Kyren Williams to cut the deficit to 17-7 with 1:19 left in the third. Notre Dame continued to chip away and pulled within a score after Drew Pyne hit Braden Lenzy for a 32-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.
