FINAL NONCONFERENCE WEEKEND FOR HOKIES BEFORE STARTING ACCS

Homestand comes to an end: Due to last week's weather in the region, Tech found itself with an unexpected seven-game homestand, which will come to its conclusion after this weekend's three-game set with Bryant. The three-game series with the Bulldogs starts Friday at 3 p.m. and is schedule through Sunday, with a first pitch slated for Noon. The Hokies will open ACC play next weekend, traveling to Tallahassee, Florida to take on the nationally-ranked Seminoles.

Facing the Bulldogs: The Hokies have not faced Bryant since the 2011 season - a four-game series that featured a pair of doubleheaders on March 4 and March 5. Tech lost the opener, 3-2, won back-to-back shutouts, 4-0 and 15-0, then lost the final game by a 5-2 count.

Overall, the two sides have faced each other just seven times with Bryant holding the edge at 4-3 despite all seven games being played in Blacksburg. The other three games were played March 9, 2009 (lost 7-5); March 9, 2010 (won 5-4) and March 10, 2010 (lost 5-3).

While Tech head coach John Szefc was at Maryland, his team actually faced Bryant three times and held an 8-1 overall mark against the Bulldogs under his direction (2017 - 3-0; 2016 - 2-1; 2014 - 3-0).

Home Sweet Home in February: The calendar turned to March 1 for the opening of this series with Bryant and unfortunately for the Hokies, they must say goodbye to the month of February. Overall in program history in the month, Tech holds a 111-56 record (.665 winning percentage), but when it comes to playing in Blacksburg during February, the team is much better.

The Hokies have posted a 27-3 record (.900 winning percentage) in home games played in the month and have won 13 straight dating back to their 2013 home opener against Temple (Feb. 23 a 7-3 defeat) and includes a program tying best four this season - the team also won four at home in February 2009.

Starting 5-0 and beyond: Tech has started the 2019 season with seven straight wins for the first time since 1987 and just the fourth time in program history, however, even a 5-0 start to the season is rare at the school. Only 13 times in 126 seasons of baseball has the team been 5-0, and only six of those teams won their sixth game of the year to get to 6-0.

Looking beyond, the 1987 team started the year 8-0 before its first loss, while both the 1920 and 1915 squads raced out to 10-0 marks. Only the 1915 team, which finished a perfect 21-0, won its first 11 games of the year. Throwing a monkey wrench into the equation, the 1992 season, the Hokies were 5-0, tied their sixth game and were unbeaten after 11 games holding a 10-0-1 mark before their first loss.

It's early, but of the 13 teams that started the season 5-0 and played at least 20 games, all except one (2017) finished 10 or more games above .500 and the last five (minus 2017) won at least 32 games.

#14 John Szefc
Virginia Tech Head Coach - Second Season

Virginia Tech Director of Athletics Whit Babcock announced the hiring of Tech's 25th head baseball coach on June 9 and formally introduced John Szefc as the head coach of the baseball program on June 15. The 2019 season will mark his second as the Hokies' head coach.

Szefc (pronounced SHEFF) accepted the position after leading Maryland to three NCAA appearances and a 180-122 (.596) overall record as the Terrapins' head coach. He owned a 392-259-3 (.602) career record in 12 seasons as an NCAA head coach, producing 10 campaigns with 30 or more wins before arriving in Blacksburg.

In addition to ending a 43-year NCAA tournament drought and becoming the fastest coach to 100 career wins at Maryland, Szefc spent seven seasons (1996-2002) at the helm of the Marist College baseball program, where he led the team to four conference championships, four NCAA Regional appearances and a 212-137-3 (.607) overall mark. Szefc earned Northeastern Conference Coach of the Year honors in 1997 and was the American Baseball Coaches Associate Northeast Region Coach of the Year in 2001.

The first coach in Maryland history to ever take the Terrapins to an NCAA Super Regional, Szefc accomplished the feat twice in 2014 and 2015 as he guided the program to the first two 40-win seasons in school history and claimed Maryland's first two NCAA Regional crowns. Maryland achieved a final No. 14 ranking both seasons, the highest finishes in school history.

He guided the Terrapins to the ACC Tournament final for the first time in 38 years in 2014 and then took Maryland to the Big Ten tournament final in the school's initial season in that conference, winning a program-best 42 games in 2015.

Szefc has coached 102 players that have been drafted or signed professional contracts since 1997, including six selected in the 2017 MLB draft and four in 2018 (including Tech pitchers Connor Coward and Andrew McDonald). Over the last six drafts, 29 of his players have been selected, including the 45th pick of the 2014 draft Jake Stinnett, the highest pick of a Maryland player in almost a decade. He has also helped develop 23 All-Americans, including 10 of the 20 players in Maryland history to earn that distinction.

The Middletown, N.Y. native arrived at Maryland after a two-year stint as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas State (2011-12) and a two-season stay as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator at Kansas (2009-10). He also enjoyed a six-season tenure as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette (2003-08). Szefc began his coaching career as an assistant at Sacred Heart (1995) and at Drexel (1990-93).

Szefc managed the New York Generals in the Atlantic College Baseball League during the summers of 1995 and 1996. He led the club to a 47-28 record, earned two consecutive division titles and the ACBL title game in 1996.

Collegiately, he played two years at Connecticut before transferring in 1987 to Drexel. During his senior campaign for the Dragons, he was tabbed an All-East Coast Conference outfielder.

He graduated from Drexel University with a degree in corporate communications in 1989. He also holds a master's degree in sports administration from Temple University.

Szefc and his wife, Barbara, have a daughter, Anna, and two sons, John Michael and Sam.

WHAT IS A HOKIE?

Probably the most frequently asked question regarding Virginia Tech athletics and the answer dates back to 1896 when Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College changed its name to Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

With it came a contest held by the student body for writing a new cheer and senior O.M. Stull won first prize for his "Old Hokie" yell. Later, when asked if "Hokie" had any special meaning, Stull said the words had no hidden or symbolic meaning, but had been thought up in an effort to get attention. "Hokie" soon became a nickname for all Tech teams and for those people loyal to Tech athletics. Below is the "Old Hokie" yell:

Hoki, Hoki, Hoki Hy!
Tech! Tech! V.P.I.!
Sola-Rex Sola-Rah
Polytech-Vir-gin-i-a!!
Rae, Ri, V.P.I.

JUST VIRGINIA TECH, PLEASE!

While the full name of the school is Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, the school is commonly referred to as "Virginia Tech."

Founded in 1872, as Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, the university changed its named to Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1896.

Fans of the athletic department, as well as media covering the Hokies, shortened the name to VPI, but it eventually became Virginia Tech.

The "State University" was added in 1970 to bring the official title to what it is today.

Those covering Hokie athletics are asked to refer to the university as simply "Virginia Tech."

Virginia Tech University, VPI and SU, VPI&SU, VT or VA Tech are not recognized names and should not be used.

ENGLISH FIELD AT UNION PARK

On March 21, 2016, Virginia Tech renamed its baseball stadium to English Field at Union Park in recognition of a generous commitment of support to the athletics department from Union Bank & Trust. The stadium received substantial upgrading with help from the $3.5 million committed by the Richmond-based bank. On the date, Tech's Board of Visitors approved extending naming rights to the stadium to Union Bank for 10 years in recognition of the company's financial support.

Located at the intersection of Southgate Drive and Duck Pond Drive, English Field at Union Park is an incredible new home for Virginia Tech baseball. Designed by Cannon Design and built by Whiting-Turner, the $20 million renovation project added a new grandstand area – with new press-level premium suites – 1,132 permanent chair-back seats in concrete stands and a club level above the first-base dugout, along with a social picnic area down the right-field line. The terracing along the third-base line remains.

English Field was officially dedicated during a special ceremony on April 8, 1989 and is named for the late E.R. 'Red' English and his wife, Ruth, who provided financial support for its initial construction.

English, a native of Altavista, Va., played as an offensive and defensive guard on Tech's football team from 1930-33 and graduated in 1934. He contributed to Tech athletics for more than 50 years and was one of the founders of The Student Aid Association in 1949. He served as president of that organization two of its first three years. English received the most outstanding alumni award at Tech in 1984.

Through a generous gift from alumnus George Sampson, the home team dugout was named for long-time Tech baseball coach G.F. 'Red' Laird during a ceremony on April 12, 1991. Laird recruited and coached Sampson at Tech.

The team's year-by-year overall mark in its 30 seasons at English Field at Union Park can be seen on the right. Before it, the Hokies played their home baseball games at Tech Park, where it compiled a 431-122-1 (.779 winning percentage) record over 34 seasons. All-time, Tech is 1,263-572-12 (.687) in games played in Blacksburg.

Facing ranked opponents: The chart on the left shows how the Hokies have fared against any ranked opponent in their history as a member of the ACC (since 2005). Currently, there are five ACC opponents who are ranked this week in one of the major polls.

Last season, Tech played 14 games versus ranked opponents and were 2-12. The Hokies first test against a ranked opponent will be next weekend, when they travel to Tallahassee to take on the Seminoles, ranked in the top 10 in three of the polls.

Tech in season openers: The Hokies have posted a 64-60-2 record in their 126 season openers, which includes a 5-0 decision at Stetson to open the 2019 season. The last time a Tech season opener was played at home was in 1995, and in the 24 openers since, the Hokies have gone 13-11 - with 11 of those games being played in South Carolina, seven in North Carolina, three in Georgia, two in Florida and one in Virginia.

In the school's 126-year history, Tech has opened the season in the state of Florida just once before, back in the 2004 season. The Hokies took part in a season-opening tournament in DeLand that year as well, and suffered a 15-2 loss in the opener to the host Stetson Hatters on Friday, Feb. 27. Tech split its final two games, beating South Florida, 4-3, before dropping a 2-0 contest to Oklahoma State.

More on the 2019 season opener: The 5-0 shutout victory over Stetson on Feb. 15 to open the season was just the sixth season-opening shutout recorded by a Tech pitching staff and the first since 1997 - Feb. 21 at NC A&T, a 10-0 victory. It was also just the 14th shutout during the month of February and the earliest by date - Feb. 16, 2013 at UNC Wilmington (the third game of the season).

The other years Tech had a shutout on Opening Day - 1909, 1945, 1950, 1978 (Game 2 of a doubleheader) and 1996.

The team, which features 20 new players on the roster, had seven different Hokies in the starting lineup compared to the 2018 season opener.

The Hokies in the Sunshine State: This year's season opening weekend marked the first of three trips for Tech to the state of Florida - as the Hokies will return to face Florida State in March and Miami in April. Their nine games in the Sunshine State will be the most since the 1996 season, when Tech played nine times there as well - three at South Florida and six in Winter Park, but managed to go just 1-8 record in that span. They opened this nine-game stretch 3-0 in the RyCass Classic in DeLand, with wins over Stetson, Manhattan and Sam Houston State.

The Hokies have played 10 or more games in a single season in the state of Florida on three occasions, playing 11 in both 1994 - eight in DeLand, three in Tampa and the team went 6-5; and 1980 - seven in DeLand, four in Tallahassee (Metro Tourney) and the team went 7-4. In 1986, Tech played 10 games, going 3-7, in eight games in DeLand and two in the Metro Tourney in Tallahassee.

Overall, Tech has compiled a 54-99 record in 153 games in the Sunshine State - which included a 3-2 record last year in DeLand. The Hokies are now 15-65 on the road, but hold a 39-34 edge in neutral site contests, which includes six straight wins in the Sunshine State.

Pitching notes from the opening weekend: Tech jumped out early and never trailed in its three-game tournament in DeLand, Florida and turned in some solid pitching performances as a staff.

The Hokies held their opposition scoreless through the first 17.0 innings pitched, the longest stretch ever in program history to start a season. They also allowed just three runs through the first two games, the fewest since 1991, when the team surrendered just two.

The following day, they allowed two runs to Sam Houston State, making it five overall, the fewest to start a season through the first three games since the 1987 season, when that staff allowed single runs in each of its first three victories. Starters combined to throw 15.0 innings and allow one run.

Szefc at English Field at Union Park: All-time, head coach John Szefc is 15-14 at the home of the Hokies, which includes a 14-12 mark as the head coach of Tech, including 4-0 in 2019.

As the head coach at Maryland, Szefc won his first game at English Field at Union Park on April 12, 2014 as the Terrapins beat Tech, a 4-2 decision. However, his Terps lost that ACC series to the Hokies two games to one (April 11-13).

For the second straight year, Szefc and the Hokies won their home opener, this time defeating ETSU by a count of 9-3. The team is 8-2 in its last 10 home openers and includes winning four straight.

Jumping out early: In its home opener on Feb. 19 versus ETSU, Tech scored seven first-inning runs en route to a 12-4 victory. So far during the 2019 season, the Hokies have outscored its opponents 19-1 in the first inning - 4 vs. Manhattan and UNC Greensboro (Feb. 24) and 2 at Stetson and vs. Sam Houston State. The Spartans were the first and only team to score a first-inning run against the Hokies in that Feb. 24 contest.

Expand that early run advantage through the first three innings and the Hokies hold a 31-6 edge.

Winning the close ones: It's early in the season, but Tech has already posted three wins in games decided by one run, including its last two - vs. UNCG (Feb. 25) and Radford (Feb. 26). In one-run contests during the 2018 season, the Hokies were 5-11.

By keeping it close: Again, it's still early, but Tech has only trailed, after a full inning is complete, five times - three vs. UNCG (Feb. 25) and after two frames vs. Radford. And the Hokies have never trailed by more than one run at any point this season (again, after a full completed inning).

Winning seven straight at any point: For the first time since the 2015 season, the Hokies have put together a winning streak of at least seven straight when they also won seven from April 26 through May 5. The team also had a seven-game win streak from Feb. 26 through March 9, 2012.

Looking forward, the last time Tech won eight straight games was May 8 through May 24, 2013, which included three wins during the 2013 ACC Baseball Championship tournament. The team's last eight-game win streak in the regular season was April 5 through April 18, 2009.

At his previous stop, head coach John Szefc's best start at Maryland was 4-0 to open the 2015 season and after 10 games, his best record was 8-2 which opened the 2014 campaign. Also, at Maryland, Szefc coached his teams to six winning streaks of seven games or more, with a long of 11 straight games in 2014 (May 2 through May 23).

Pitching notes through seven games: A lot of credit for the early success for the Hokies this season must be given to the pitching staff. After the opening weekend, Tech returned home and played four straight at English Field at Union Park, sometimes known at a hitter friendly park.

After the team's sixth game, the pitching staff had allowed just 13 runs, the fifth fewest ever at that point in a season - led by that 1987 staff (6) and followed by 1915 (9), 1917 (11), and 1969 (12).

The Radford game did see a bit of an offensive outburst, as the team allowed a season-high seven runs pushing the total to 20 through seven games. In its 126-year history, Tech pitching staffs have allowed 20 runs or fewet through the first seven games just 10 times, the fewest by the 1987 staff (7), followed by just two under 16 - 1915 (10) and 1917 (12).

Taylor sets a Tech and ACC record: In just his second collegiate game, freshman Carson Taylor tied both a Virginia Tech school record and an ACC record when four of his five hits against Manhattan (Feb. 16) that day went for doubles.

It had been done just two other times at the school. Bryan Thomas first set the mark with four versus Savannah State on Feb. 21, 2005 and it was matched by Chad Pinder versus Bradley on Feb. 18, 2012.

Only eight ACC players (listed on the right) have ever accomplished the feat and Pinder was the last.

DOUBLES..4
Chad Pinder, Virginia Tech vs. Bradley 3/28/12

Todd Wilkinson, North Carolina vs. VCU 3/11/84
Greg Schuler, North Carolina vs. UMass......3/18/80

Horanski with the walk-off home run: With his team trailing by a run and looking to stay perfect on the season, senior Luke Horanski blasted his third home run of the season, a two-run shot in the bottom of the ninth inning, to lift the Hokies to an 8-7 victory over Radford.

For Horanski, it was his second walk-off hit as a Hokie, as he also had a bases-loaded RBI single in the 10th frame against Old Dominion on April 18, 2018 as Tech beat the Monarchs 6-5.

Since 2009, a Hokie has hit a walk-off home run seven times, but this was just the second when the team was trailing in the home half. The other time was Senior Day at English Field at Union Park when Brendon Hayden hit a two-run home run to walk off Boston College 2-1 on May 3, 2015. That was also the last walk-off home run hit by a Hokie.

Tech's walk-off wins: In his first home game as Tech head coach and his eighth game overall, Szefc saw his team win in walk-off fashion in extra innings against Radford, 3-2 in 12 frames (Feb. 27, 2018). It took just seven games in 2019 to see his team register its first walk-off of the year, again against Radford, as Luke Horanski hit a two-run walk off in the bottom of the ninth.

Over the past 11 seasons, the Hokies have had 30 walk-off wins - with the most occurring during the 2012 season, when they had seven.

The earliest walk-off in that span (by date) was Feb. 25, 2012 - Chad Morgan sac fly in the bottom of the ninth gave Tech a 4-3 win over Iowa in Conway, South Carolina.

In the last five seasons, the Hokies have 14 walk-off wins, eight against ACC opponents. Below is a list of Tech's walk-off victories the last four seasons.
