- Saturday's game at Hard Rock Stadium represents Miami's annual Senior Day, where 23 Hurricanes will take part in honorary pregame festivities.

THE SERIES

- Saturday's game vs. Virginia Tech is the 39th matchup in the history of the series; UM leads the series 23-15, including a 13-7 lead in games in Miami.
- The longtime foes have met every year since 1992, and UM has won three of the last four meetings; the Hurricanes won, 25-24, on the road in 2020.
- In the most recent matchup at Hard Rock Stadium in 2019, Miami erased a 28-0 deficit to tie the game 35-35, but ultimately fell, 42-35, to the Hokies.

THE HURRICANES

- The Miami Hurricanes returned 19 of 22 starters from a 2020 team that finished 8-3 overall and 7-2 in Atlantic Coast Conference play. The Canes, who ended the year in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl, became the third Miami team to win seven games in ACC play since joining the conference in 2004.
- On Oct. 11, head coach Manny Diaz announced starting QB D'Eriq King would miss the rest of the season due to shoulder surgery resulting from an injury versus Michigan State. In his first season as starting quarterback at UM, King had with 2,686 passing yards, 538 rushing yards and 27 total TDs.
- Last time out at Florida State (Nov. 13), Miami erased an early 17-0 deficit to take a 28-20 lead, but ultimately fell to the Seminoles, 31-28, in Tallahassee.
- QB Tyler Van Dyke has been sensational since taking over for King, throwing for 2,193 yards, 16 touchdowns and just six interceptions in seven starts. Van Dyke won three straight ACC Rookie of the Week honors, becoming the first player to do so since QB Jameis Winston of Florida State in 2013.
- WR Charleston Rambo became just the fourth wide receiver in Miami history to record 200 receiving yards in Miami's win over Georgia Tech on Nov. 6. Rambo currently ranks third in Miami history in single-season receptions (64) and fifth in single-season receiving yards (955) with two games left.
- For head coach Manny Diaz, 2021 marks a return to his roots as the program's defensive signal caller and defensive coordinator. Diaz was hired by Mark Richt in 2016 as the program's defensive coordinator, a role he served in for three seasons before being named head coach in January of 2019.
- In addition to re-assuming his role as defensive coordinator, Diaz hired Travaris Robinson - former defensive coordinator at South Carolina - to coach defensive backs, added Ishmael Aristide from Texas A&M to coach strikers and promoted DeMarcus Van Dyke from recruiting operations to coach corners. Diaz also brought back defensive line coach Jess Simpson, who spent the previous two years as d-line coach of the Atlanta Falcons.
- Several Miami Hurricanes were selected as preseason candidates for major college football awards; in addition to King, who was named a candidate for nearly every offensive award, Miami had Bubba Bolden named to the Thorpe Award watch list, Will Mallory to the Mackey Award, Lou Hedley to the Ray Guy Award, Mike Harley to the Biletnikoff Award, both Zion Nelson and Jarrid Williams to the Outland Trophy watch list, and others.
- Miami had more production returning than all but three Power 5 programs in America (Arizona State, UCLA, Rutgers) at 91%; the national average of returning production from 2020 into 2021 was 76.7% across FBS. UM was the only team in the ACC to rank in the top 25 of FBS returning production.

THREE AND OUT

UM WILL HONOR SENIORS, HOST HOKIES

- The Miami Hurricanes will look to rebound from a heartbreaking loss to Florida State last time out when they host Virginia Tech at Hard Rock Stadium on Nov. 20.
- Miami will honor 23 players in its annual Senior Day festivities, which will take place prior to Saturday's 7:30 p.m. kickoff.
- The Hurricanes and Hokies have met every year since 1992, and Miami carries a 23-15 in the all-time series. Miami has won three of the last four meetings overall (2017, 2018 and 2020).
- Miami topped Virginia Tech, 25-24, in last year's matchup at Lane Stadium. The Hurricanes are 13-7 all-time in games played against the Hokies

VAN DYKE ON FIRE IN LAST FOUR STARTS

- QB Tyler Van Dyke will be making his eighth straight start under center when the Hurricanes take on Virginia Tech Saturday at Hard Rock Stadium.
- Van Dyke, who has compiled a 4-3 record in his seven starts this season, threw for the ninth-most yards in a single game in Miami history and the second most ever by a Hurricanes freshman when he threw for 426 yards against #17/#19 Pitt on Oct. 30.
- Van Dyke, who has totaled 1,556 yards and 14 touchdowns over his last four games, became the first Miami quarterback to throw for more than 325 yards in three straight starts since Miami legend Bernie Kosar did it in 1984.

RAMBO NEARING TOP OF RECORD BOOKS

- After spending the first four seasons of his career at Oklahoma, WR Charleston Rambo joined the Hurricanes in January 2021 as one of the top-regarded wide receivers in the transfer portal.
- Rambo has delivered a dominant first season at The U, and now ranks third in Miami's history in single-season receptions (64) and fifth in single-season yards (955).
- With just 45 more receiving yards this year, Rambo would become just the fifth wide receiver in Miami Football history to compile a 1,000-yard season and first since Allen Hurns did it in 2013 (1,162).

- Miami's offense had just five scoring drives of 70-plus yards over its first three games vs. Alabama, App State and Michigan State combined. ONE OF NATION'S TOP WRs, RAMBO CLIMBING UP UM'S RECORD BOOKS

- One of Miami's top playmakers this year has been WR Charleston Rambo, who arrived after spending the first four seasons of his career at Oklahoma, where had had 1,180 receiving yards and 76 career catches.
- Rambo delivered a scintillating performance in UM's win against Georgia Tech (Nov. 6), finishing with 210 receiving yards - only the fourth time a Miami player has ever eclipsed 200 receiving yards in one game.
- Rambo's 210 yards were the most by any ACC receiver in a game this season and only the 19th 200-yard game by any receiver in FBS in 2021 through Week 11. It was the 13th-best single game total so far in 2021.
- On Nov. 3, Rambo was one of six players added to the midseason watch list for the Biletnikoff Award.
- Rambo currently ranks No. 3 in single-season catches (64) and No. 5 in single-season yards (955) at UM.
- When Rambo put together a dominant performance against Michigan State on Sept. 18, he managed a feat that had been done only twice in University of Miami history: 12 receptions in a single game.
- Rambo became the first Hurricane to haul in 12 catches since Phillip Dorsett did it versus USF in 2012, and only the third Hurricane ever. Rambo's 12 catches were the most he ever had in any college game, and his 156 receiving yards bested his previous high of 122, set in 2019 versus Texas Tech at Oklahoma.
- Rambo has started all nine games at wide receiver and leads Miami with 58 catches and 860 yards.
- The Cedar Hills, Texas native is one of just seven receivers in the ACC to have recorded 50 catches through Week 10. Rambo's average of 6.44 receptions per game ranks as the fourth-best mark in the conference.

- RB Cam'Ron Harris cracked the annual "Freaks" list from college football writer Bruce Feldman of The Athletic, who named Harris No. 50 in his list of the top 100 freaky athletes in the sport entering 2021. Harris ran for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns in his first three seasons with the Hurricanes.
- Harris suffered a season-ending injury in Miami's loss at North Carolina and underwent surgery.
- Harris had posted back-to-back 100-yard games in two outings prior to the injury, marking the second time he has posted back-to-back performances and first time since doing it last year in the first two games.
- In a loss against Virginia (Sept. 30), Harris posted 111 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns. Harris now has 22 career rushing touchdowns, which ranks 10th all-time at Miami. He surpassed Clinton Portis, who was previously 10th with 21 touchdowns, with his pair against the Cavaliers.

#50 Cam'Ron Harris, Miami, running back

"In three seasons Harris has run for 1,385 yards and 17 touchdowns. At 5-10, 214 pounds, he hit 23.07 MPH, which is one of the fastest speeds registered by anyone, college or pro, in game action. His 75-yard touchdown run against Louisville is a good example of that burst. His 3-cone time of 6.88 would've topped any running back at the 2020 combine. Harris also squats 525 pounds and benches 365."

FOUR PROCANES, TWO FIRST ROUNDERS SELECTED IN 2021 NFL DRAFT

- Four Hurricanes were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft: Jaelan Phillips (first round, Miami), Gregory Rousseau (first round, Buffalo), Brevin Jordan (fifth round, Houston) and Quincy Roche (sixth round, Pittsburgh.). For 47 consecutive years, Miami has had at least one player selected in the NFL Draft. With Phillips off the board at No. 18 and Rousseau at No. 30, UM had two first-round selections for the first time since 2015. UM had at least one DE drafted for the fifth straight year.
- The University of Miami leads all programs in the ACC in draft picks since 2000 (123). No program in the ACC had more alumni on NFL 53-man rosters than the Hurricanes did entering Week 1 of the 2020 NFL season, when Miami boasted 31 former players and more who were on practice squads. Miami had 25 players on active 53-man rosters as of the roster cutting deadline entering 2021.

HURRICANES HAVE FEATURED NEW FACES, FIRST-TIME STARTERS IN 2021

- In addition to several key returners, the Miami Hurricanes have seen several newcomers and first-year starters feature through the first eight games of 2021. S Kam Kinchens made his first career start last time out.
- Miami's offense featured three new starters in the early going: WR Key'Shawn Smith, who saw limited action as a backup last year, WR Charleston Rambo, who transferred from Oklahoma and is in his first year at UM, and OL Jalen Rivers, who started at left guard but is out for the season to injury.
- In addition to those three players, OL Justice Oluwaseun - a UNLV transfer - has started, as has QB Tyler Van Dyke, who took over for QB D'Eriq King and has started the last seven games under center. On defense, LB Corey Flagg has started all 10 games while LB Keontra Smith started through the first two games before an injury versus App State. DE Zach McCloud and DE Jahfari Harvey are in their first full seasons as starters.
- S James Williams made the first start of his career in a win over Central Connecticut State (Sept. 25) and has started multiple straight games, as has S Kam Kinchens. CB Tyrique Stevenson is also in his first year with the Hurricanes in 2021.

D'ERIQ KING'S SEASON OVER DUE TO SURGERY FOR SHOULDER INJURY, WAS POISED FOR BIG SEASON

- QB D'Eriq King spent the first four seasons of his career at the University of Houston; 2021 marked the first time since high school he has had the same coordinator in back-to-back years (Rhett Lashlee). The veteran entered 2021 as one of just 11 quarterbacks in FBS with more than 30 career starts at QB.
- King was named a preseason watch list for several major awards, including the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback) and the Maxwell Award (player of the year). The Manvel, Texas native is responsible for more than 11,000 yards during his illustrious career - 8,378 passing yards, 2,055 rushing yards, 520 receiving yards, 29 punt return yards and 260 kick return yards - a total of 11,242. He totaled 3,224 yards (2,686 passing, 538 rushing) in 2020.
- King set an FBS record with at least one rushing touchdown and one passing touchdown in 16 straight games, a streak that ended at Louisville in 2020; he bested Florida QB Tim Tebow's FBS record (15). King became the first Miami QB in history to rush for 100 yards in a game in a win at NC State in 2020.

MANNY DIAZ

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON AT MIAMI (THIRD OVERALL) | 19-15

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes in 2020, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team - one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition. Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016. At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers, and the Hurricanes' trio of Zach McCloud, Michael Pinckney and Shaquille Quarterman helped anchor the unit. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors - senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.
