ASUN Championship Notes

- Liberty is the first team to win the ASUN Championship in its debut tournament since the 1997-98 season.

- Liberty had four players score in double figures in the championship game led by Scottie James' 17 points to go along with eight rebounds.

- Having never earned any all-conference season honors, Lovell Cabbil Jr. was named All-Tournament for the second straight year. Last season, Scottie James and Cabbil were both named Big South All-Tournament.

- The No. 2 seed has now won its last five appearances in the Championship Final, all of which have come against the No. 1 seed.

- Liberty has claimed its fourth ever conference championship, having won the Big South Tournament in 1994, 2004 and 2013.

- Liberty's win over Lipscomb extended the Flames' school-record of 11 true road wins, the most in a single season.

- The last two games Liberty has played on March 10, Liberty has punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament. Back in 2013, Liberty won the Big South Championship and the Flames defeated Lipscomb for the ASUN title on March 10.

MCKAY'S JOURNEY BACK TO LIBERTY

After spending two years as the head coach at Liberty from 2007-09, Ritchie McKay left to be the associate head coach at Virginia, when Tony Bennett was named head coach. Considering himself an "offensive coach" throughout most of his coaching career, McKay earned what he called "a master's degree" in the "Pack Line Defense." McKay was able to come back to Liberty when he was hired in April of 2015 and then implemented Virginia's defense in Lynchburg. McKay and the Bennett family are very close as McKay has considered Tony's father, Dick Bennett, a mentor throughout his entire life.

LIBERTY'S ALL-CONFERENCE HONOREES

After claiming a share of the ASUN regular season title, Liberty's Caleb Homesley and Scottie James earned ASUN First Team All-Conference honors. The Liberty duo are the first players to make a first team in a conference since Jesse Sanders earned First Team All-Big South honors in the 2011-12 season. They are also the first pair of Flames to earn first team honors in the same season since 2004-05, when David Dees and Larry Blair made First Team All-Big South.

SCOTTIE JAMES' JOURNEY TO LIBERTY

In what Coach McKay calls "A gift from up above", Scottie James' journey to Liberty is quite unique. After starting his collegiate career at Bradley, James was looking to transfer. During that time, his mother was working at a school back in their hometown in Florida and the school shutdown. Looking to teach somewhere, she applied and accepted a teaching position at Liberty University. His mother reached out to McKay and former assistant coach, Kyle Getter, who is now at Virginia, explaining that her son is looking to transfer and she sent the coaching staff highlight tapes of James. Once granted his release, McKay reached out and brought him in for a visit and was able to get a commitment from the big man.

MCGHEE - FRESHMAN SENSATION

Despite not making the ASUN All-Freshman team, Liberty's freshman sensation, Darius McGhee, proved to be one of the best young players in the conference as he earned ASUN Newcomer of the Week four times, the most of any player this season. Despite being 5'9, the freshman is easy to spot on the court as he displays a 48" inch vertical.

MCKAY RECOGNIZED IN POSTSEASON HONORS

Liberty men's basketball head coach Ritchie McKay has been named a finalist for the 2019 Ben Jobe Award, Jim Phelan Award and the Hugh Durham Awards. The Ben Jobe award recognizes the top minority coach in Division I basketball. The Jim Phelan award recognizes the top coach in Division I basketball, while the Hugh Durham award recognizes the top mid-major coach in the country.

POSTSEASON EXPERIENCE

The Flames are prepping for their third straight postseason tournament, having participated in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) in the past two seasons. In 2016, Liberty made it to the CIT Quarterfinals, losing on the road to UMBC and last season the Flames made it to the semifinals where they eventually fell to UIC.

ONLY DIVISION I OFFERS

Despite shining in a Liberty uniform, it was a tough road for a few of Liberty's key players as Lovell Cabbil Jr. and Georgie Pacheco-Ortiz were not sought after coming out of high school. Known for being able to recognize talent, Coach McKay was able to find diamonds in the rough as he was the only Division I head coach to offer Cabbil and Pacheco-Ortiz. The starting backcourt has now started 91 games together and has won 71 games during that span.

SUCCESS ON THE ROAD

Battle tested this year, the Flames have been tested on the road facing teams like Alabama, Georgetown, Kent State, UCLA and Vanderbilt. Liberty has responded with a school record 11 true road wins. Liberty's win over UCLA was the school's first win over a Pac-12 school. The Flames proved they could compete with anyone on their schedule as their biggest losing deficit during non-conference was 10 points (78-88) at Georgetown. Liberty was the ninth fastest team in the country to reach 10 road wins this season.

THE MCDOWELL FAMILY

Good genes are in the McDowell family as sophomore Keegan McDowell is one of two student-athletes competing at Liberty. Keegan's sister, Delaney, is on the track & field team at Liberty. Delaney has earned all-conference honors in both the Big South and now the ASUN.

FUN IN THE SUN - FIRST YEAR IN THE ASUN

On May 17, 2018, Liberty announced a new direction for its athletics department, as conference membership for 17 of its programs will move to the ASUN Conference. The Flames became the first team to win the ASUN Men's Basketball Championship in their debut tournament since the 1997-98 season.

CREATING A WINNING CULTURE

Ritchie McKay inherited a program that endured 84 losses in four previous seasons. After suffering 13 losses during his first 13 Division I games, McKay changed the culture at Liberty that has now posted three straight 20-win seasons, which has never been done before in school history. Throughout its history, Liberty has had eight 20-win seasons and McKay is responsible for four of those seasons. During its Division I era, McKay owns four of the six 20-win seasons.

CAPTAIN CABBIL

Lovell Cabbil Jr. was Ritchie McKay's first recruit he ever signed once he returned to Liberty in 2015. Cabbil had not received any Division I offers being told that he was too small to play Division I. Weighing in at just under 150 pounds, McKay saw something in Cabbil and offered him a scholarship. Four years later, Cabbil is now Liberty's most winningest player, leading the Flames to a school record 84 wins the past four seasons.

THE PIERRE FAMILY

It will be a family battle between Liberty and Mississippi State as Liberty's director of player development, Joe Pierre III has a twin brother, Josh Pierre who is the video coordinator at Mississippi State.

LIBERTY-VIRGINIA TECH HURRICANE RELIEF GAME

Liberty and Virginia Tech raised over 36,000 dollars on Nov. 4 at the Vines Center as the two basketball programs came together for a Hurricane Relief Exhibition Game in front of a crowd of 4,210. After leading at halftime, Liberty fell to the Hokies 86-70 for its final exhibition game before starting the season. This is the second straight year that men's basketball participated in a hurricane relief exhibition as the Flames traveled to VCU last year to raise money for the hurricane relief efforts in Puerto Rico. The Flames were able to pull off the 85-69 win over the Rams.

BAXTER-BELL AND CUFFEE VISIT ASIA

Myo Baxter-Bell and Elijah Cuffee spent some time in Asia last summer playing basketball with different organizations. Cuffee went with Asa Watson and travelled with Urban Discovery Ministries and FCA where he was the only American on his team. The sophomore played a handful of games over the course of two weeks, winning every contest. Baxter-Bell traveled with Athletes in Action where the team was made up of players from over 15 different universities and they played against pro/club teams in East Asia. In addition to playing 10 games, Baxter-Bell and his team also visited areas throughout Asia providing assistance to towns and served as a mentor to the youth.

GUMBS: RISE FROM DIVISION III TO DIVISION I

Liberty's fourth and final member to its Class of 2018 was graduate transfer, Keenan Gumbs from Schreiner University. Gumbs spent four years at Schreiner University, a Division III school, playing for head coach Connor Kuykendall. Gumbs proved to be one of the best players in the country at the Division III level, averaging 21 points, seven rebounds and three assists per game in his final season. In 2018 Gumbs was the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) Player of the Year and Tournament MVP. Gumbs was recognized as one of the best players in Division III last season as he was selected as an NABC Third Team All-American and a NABC First Team All-South Region selection. As a three-year captain and two-year starter, Gumbs was a two-time First Team All-SCAC honoree in his final two seasons at Schreiner.

MCGHEE PLAYS IN THE PHILIPPINES

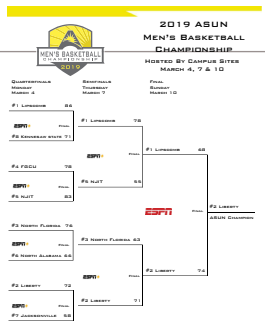

After graduating from Blue Ridge School, Darius McGhee traveled to the Philippines where he played for an organization called Global Squad. McGhee was interviewed on CNN after McGhee and his team went 4-0 against four colleges from the Philippines. Against Anteno de Manila University, McGhee hit a game-winning three-pointer.

1998-00 Colorado State (Head Coach)
1996-98 Portland State (Head Coach)

After spending six seasons working under Tony Bennett as associate head coach at Virginia, McKay returned to Liberty as the men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2015. McKay previously served as the program's head coach during the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons.

During his four years since returning to Liberty, McKay has compiled 56 wins, a .611 winning percentage in the Big South and was the 2015-16 Big South Coach of the Year. After the team's 20-win season in 2016-17, McKay was a Ben Jobe National Coach of the Year finalist and a Skip Prosser Man of the Year nominee. McKay is coming off a season where he led Liberty to the postseason, making it to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament for the first time in school history.

Before returning to Liberty, McKay helped the Cavaliers post a 136-64 record, including back-to-back 30-win seasons in 2013-14 and 2014-15.

Virginia advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament three out of McKay's last four years with the program. Following an ACC Championship in 2014, the Cavaliers were the No. 1 seed in the East Region and advanced to the Sweet 16.

The Cavaliers spent seven weeks ranked as the No. 2 team in the country in 2014-15, finishing the year with a 30-4 overall record and a 16-2 mark in ACC play. Virginia advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament before losing to Final Four team Michigan State.

Prior to his days in Charlottesville, McKay served two seasons as Liberty's men's basketball coach, posting a 39-28 overall record and a 19-13 mark in Big South play. He was named the seventh head coach in program history on March 26, 2007.

Following a 16-16 record during his first year at Liberty, McKay led the Flames to a 23-12 record in 2008-09. The win total matched the program's NCAA Division I record for most wins in a season (Liberty finished the 1996-97 season with a 23-9 overall record).

Liberty finished the 2008-09 season third in the Big South standings, the Flames' third double-digit win total in league play in the last 10 seasons (Liberty was 10-8 in 2009-10 and 13-5 in 2010-11).

The Flames were invited to play in the inaugural CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT), advancing to the second round following a win over Rider.

Under McKay's leadership, forward Anthony Smith (2006-09) finished his career ranked sixth in program history with 1,754 career points scored. Smith was named All-Big South first team in 2009, one of two first-team all-conference student-athletes coached by McKay (Alex McLean in 2008).

McKay brought Seth Curry to Liberty and the rookie made an immediate impact on the program. He finished the year averaging 20.2 points per game and was named 2009 Big South Freshman of the Year (second player in program history to receive the honor). Curry spotlighted McKay's Top 50 recruiting class in 2008, which was ranked No. 48 in the country by Basketball Times.

McKay has compiled a 204-186 career coaching record in 13 seasons as a head coach. McKay has the winningest career coaching record in program history with a .582 winning percentage. Prior to his first stint as head coach at Liberty, McKay served as head coach at Portland State (1996-98), Colorado State (1998-00), Oregon State (2000-02) and New Mexico (2002-07).

Overall at New Mexico, McKay sported an 82-69 coaching record over five seasons. He finished the 2005 campaign with a 26-7 record, winning the Mountain West Conference championship and advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

McKay posted a 37-23 record at Colorado State, which included a 1999 National Invitational Tournament (NIT) berth. The Rams defeated Mississippi State and in-state rival Colorado at the event, before losing to eventual NIT Tournament champion California in the quarterfinals.

The 1999-2000 season featured the first year of play for CSU in the Mountain West, and the Rams logged an 18-12 record and a fourth-place conference finish.

A pair of victories over nationally ranked opponents, the first time the program had accomplished the feat at Colorado State in a decade, and capturing the title at the second annual Pearl Harbor Classic in Hawaii were some of the highlights during the season. College Hoops Insider magazine noticed the success of the 2000 Rams and tabbed McKay as its MWC Coach of the Year.

Before arriving on the Colorado State campus, McKay began his head coaching career when he was named the head coach at Portland State. McKay started at Portland State in 1995, helping revive a program which had been dormant for 15 years. McKay led the program to nine victories in the school's first season of competition (1996-97) since the early 1980s.

After the initial season at Portland State, McKay was named one of six finalists for the Clair Bee Award, given annually to the coach with the most influence and innovation in the game of basketball. Two other finalists for the honor that year were Dean Smith of North Carolina and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke. The 1997-98 Portland State team followed with a 15-12 mark and a third-place finish in the Big Sky Conference.

McKay started his basketball coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant at the University of Washington. After his start with the Huskies, he spent time as an assistant at Queens College in North Carolina (1989-90), Seattle Pacific (1990-91), and Bradley (1991-93) before returning back to Washington (1993-95). McKay also served as an assistant under Jim Molinari at the 1997 World University Games in Italy, where the USA captured the gold medal.

McKay earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in athletic administration from Seattle Pacific in 1988.
