KEY STORYLINES

THE SERIES

- Virginia Tech is 3-0 against Pitt since the program was revitalized in the 2022 season.
- When the two sides met for the first time in 2022, the Hokies defeated the Panthers, 12-11, in 3OT for Kristen Skiera's first ACC win with Tech.
- That meeting was the lone matchup in Pittsburgh, Pa. between the two teams.
- The Hokies dominated Pitt twice last season in Blacksburg with 19-6 and 18-6 victories.
- Tech's 19-6 win over Pitt was the program's largest margin of victory in an ACC game.
- When the teams met later in the first round of the ACC tournament, the Hokies picked up their second win in the conference tournament since joining the league in 2004-05. Ella Rishko tied the ACC tournament's single-game scoring record with seven goals.

A WIN WOULD..

- Be Virginia Tech's second ACC road victory this season, a first in program history.
- Be Virginia Tech's second straight road win.
- Give Virginia Tech four road wins for the third consecutive season, an accomplishment it hasn't had since joining the ACC.
- Give the Hokies back-to-back wins for the third time this season.

LAST TIME OUT

- Virginia Tech bounced back from its narrow defeat to Duke with a resounding 17-4 win over Longwood on Wednesday.
- The Hokies had six players score multiple goals, however Isa Torres' five goal contributions (4 goals, 1 assist) alone out-scored Longwood.
- Tech held its opponent to single-digit scoring for the third game in a row, although goalies Jocelyn Torres and Lilly Kannapell were only forced into five saves.
- Olivia Vergano, Grace New and Marie Cacciabaudo had hat tricks for the Hokies to accompany Isa Torres' scoring efforts.
- Paige Tyson, who had two goals and an assist, reached 100 career points with her assist at the end of the first quarter.
- Mackenzie Beam picked up a ground ball early in the game to surpass 100 for her career.

THE BEST HELPING HAND

- Kayla Downey is approaching the Virginia Tech single-season assist record in impressive time.
- With 32 this season, Downey is four shy of tying Natasha Fuchs record of 36 that she set in 2005.
- The fifth-year senior sits tied for fourth in the country and third in the ACC in total assists.
- Against Furman, Downey had seven assists, which was tied for the second-most in a single game in program history.

MORE STORYLINES

ONE-TWO PUNCH ON THE DRAW

- Virginia Tech is the only Division I women's program with two players nationally in the top-20 of draw controls.
- Gresham (68) ranks 11th, while Vergano (67) is 12th.
- Both Sarah Gresham (111) and Olivia Vergano (106) broke the program's previous single-season draw control record in 2023, which was held by Tristan McGinley (96) in the 2018 season.

ELITE COMPANY

- As of March 16, Vergano's career numbers (117 goals) paired with Downey's (135 goals, 125 assists), the Hokies are one of nine programs with at least two players at 100+ goals and at least one player with 100+ career assists.
- Joining the Hokies in that category: Notre Dame, Denver, Virginia, Northwestern, Lehigh, Maryland, Boston College and Loyola (Md.).
- In the draw circle, Virginia Tech is the only program with two players at 60+ draw controls this season.
- Vergano is one of two players with 65+ draw controls and 25+ goals this season, joining Loyola (Md.)'s Chase Boyle.

CLAIRE SCHOTTA BIG BREAK

- Senior Claire Schotta's goal against Syracuse put her at 17 for the season, which surpasses her previous single-season career high (16) that she set in 2023.
- With goals in the first nine games of the season, Schotta had a 10-game scoring streak that dated back to Virginia Tech's game against Syracuse in the ACC Tournament last year.
- The Charlottesville, Va. native was averaging 2.56 points per game through the first nine games (19G, 4A), but has been empty-handed in Tech's last two outings.

VERGANO SETS THE PACE

- Twice named an honorable mention All-American (Inside Lacrosse, 2022; USA Lacrosse Magazine, 2023), Olivia Vergano enters her third season with the Hokies on Saturday.
- Vergano's league honors have gradually increased in her first two seasons with Tech, as well. She was on the ACC's All-Freshman team in 2022 before being named second team All-ACC in 2023.
- In 2023, she was one of five players nationally (and the only in the

NEW FACES IN THE FOLD

- Ten Hokies have made their debuts for Virginia Tech this season.
- Transfers Mackenzie Beam, Molly Dunphey and Kayla Downey made contributions in their first Tech appearances, while freshmen Marie Cacciabauda, Mia Pozzi and Zoe Stencil have represented the freshmen corp.
- Cacciabauda and Pozzi scored their first career goals at Mercer, while Stencil has earned reps off the bench with the defense.
- Lauren Kelly scored her first career goal for Tech against Queens.
- Ainsley Malamala recorded minutes in the Hokies' game against Furman.

WEST BABYLON, STAND UP!

- Virginia Tech's offense has been led by a pair of West Babylon High School teammates in Kayla Downey and Olivia Vergano. The two were not only lacrosse high school teammates, but also played basketball and soccer throughout their childhoods together.
- Vergano is leading the way in goalscoring with 27 goals, while Downey has set the bar high with 32 assists through eleven games.

GLAD TO HAVE YA HERE

- Virginia Tech is itching closer to getting its full rotation of players, as Lauren Render made her season debut against Boston College.
- The March 3 outing marked Render's first game since getting injured 11 games into her freshman season, in which she had seven goals and four assists at the time.
- Against Queens (N.C.) on February 21, freshman Isa Torres made her first career appearance for Tech.

SHUTOUT QUARTERS

- With a pair of shutout quarters against Longwood, the Hokies have held five opponents scoreless in a quarter this season.

TORRES MAKING HER MARK

- Isa Torres has utilized the non-conference slate to get up to speed after missing portions of the early season to injury.
- The highly-touted freshman, who's transitioned from midfield to attack, has four goals in Virginia Tech's last two non-conference games.

WATCHLIST HOKIES

- Virginia Tech's Isa Torres and Zoe Stencil were represented on ILWomen's Power 100 Rankings for the Class of 2023.
- Torres was No. 28 on the list, while Stencil appeared on the Watchlist portion of the rankings.

YOU CAN COUNT ON GOLINI

- Coach Skiera often cites Sydney Golini as one of Tech's most under-appreciated players.
- The unsuspecting 5-4 defender typically picks up the opponent's toughest matchup on the attacking end and holds her own.
- A native of East Setauket, N.Y., Golini has an endless motor, which is often showcased in the Hokies' conditioning drills.

RECORD WATCH

- Kayla Downey's 32 assists this season puts her tied for third all-time in a single-season, with Natasha Fuchs holding the crown with 36 in 2005.

NAME	SCHOOL	DC	G
Jillian Wilson	Loyola (Md.)	198	61
Ellie Masera	Stony Brook	120	71
Annabel Frist	Stanford	138	50
Arden Tierney	Richmond	120	50
Olivia Vergano	Virginia Tech	106	50

ALL ON THE DRAW

- Tech had three players (Sarah Gresham, Olivia Vergano and Sydney Golini) record 5+ draw controls against Furman, a mark that the Hokies haven't met since 2007.

DOWNEY'S BIG DAY

- Kayla Downey's seven assists against Furman are tied for the second-most in a single-game in program history, falling just short of Kayla Frank's mark of eight against Radford in 2020.
- Her 10 points are tied for fourth-most in a single game and the most since Frank's 11 against Radford in 2020.

MORE STORYLINES

IT'S A SISTER THING

- The pair of Isa and Jocelyn Torres join Keelin and MC Byrne as sisters within the lacrosse program this season.
- Next year, Ella Rishko will be joined by her sister Lulu, who signed with the Hokies in November as part of their 2024 recruiting class.

MARY GRIFFIN RECOGNIZED

- Senior Mary Griffin has one of the most inspirational stories in college athletics.
- During the fall of 2020, Griffin was diagnosed with a neuroendocrine tumor on her pancreas. It was discovered after Virginia Tech medical personnel ordered a biopsy following Griffin experiencing pain in her side while conditioning.
- She had an operation in November 2020 to remove the tumor, her spleen and 40% of her pancreas.
- Just four months following her diagnosis, Griffin was back on the field competing for Virginia Tech in the spring of 2021.
- In June 2022, Griffin was honored with the 2022 Wilma Rudolph Student-Athlete Achievement Award by the N4A.

GRACIE FROM TEAM IMPACT

- Last spring, the team was paired up with Grace Fladhammer via Team Impact and welcomed her as part of their team.
- Team Impact is an organization that pairs children facing serious illness and disability with college sports team.
- "Gracie" is a big lacrosse fan, who participates in the local New River lacrosse league.
- In the fall, the Hokies had a "Signing Day" ceremony for Gracie, where she was able to have a photoshoot and sign her letter of commitment with the team after practice.

MS. DOWNEY

- While the other three transfers joined the Hokies in the fall, Kayla Downey remained in New York while she completed her student teaching requirements, as she aspires to be an educator one day.

THERE'S STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

- It seems obvious to state that the more goalscorers a team has, the more likely it is to win. However, it rings especially true for Virginia Tech and is a point of emphasis for the Hokies.
- Under Kristen Skiera, the Hokies are 22-5 when four or more players score multiple goals in a game and 11-2 when five players reach the same mark.
- Tech hasn't lost a game in which four or more players scored multiple goals since April 21, 2022. There have been 16 games in which that has occurred since that loss.

SPIDEY SENSES

- Sarah Gresham picked up the nickname "Spidey" during her freshman season and that has certainly stuck around.
- Grace New attributed to Gresham's ability to wrangle in so many draws as "spidey senses," and since then, her name has been forever changed within the Hokies locker room.

FIFTH-YEAR PRESENCE

- The Hokies' roster consists of seven fifth-year players, including three that have been with Virginia Tech throughout the entirety of their careers in Mary Griffin, Grace New and Paige Tyson.
- The trio of graduate student Hokies have a combined 115 appearances for Tech entering 2024.
- Joining those three is a quartet of transfers: Kayla Downey, Mackenzie Beam, Ainsley Malamala and Molly Dunphey.
- The four transfers have 218 combined starts in their career entering the 2024 season.
- Notably, four of the seven are defenders, while the other three are attackers.

ALL GOOD THINGS MUST COME TO AN END

- Fifth-year transfer Kayla Downey held a 22-game scoring streak heading into Tech's game vs. No. 1 BC.
- When the Hokies faced Downey's previous school Coastal Carolina in 2022, she scored once.

LONG ISLAND CONNECTIONS

- With the help of Northport, N.Y. native Shannon Jacobitti on staff, the Hokies have been able to build up a contingent of Long Island, N.Y. players.
- The Hokies expect big things of all four Long Island natives on the team: Olivia Vergano (West Babylon), Kayla Downey (Babylon), Marie Cacciabauda (Garden City) and Sydney Golini (East Setauket).

WE'VE GOT HISTORY

- Two of Virginia Tech's transfers, Kayla Downey and Ainsley Malamala, have faced the Hokies in their careers.
- In 2022, Downey scored a goal and recorded an assist in Coastal Carolina's 17-6 loss to Tech.
- In 2023, Malamala started for Mercer in its 11-8 win Blacksburg.

MORE STORYLINES

A SPECIAL BOND WITH A SPECIAL TEAM

- Head coach Kristen Skiera met with Virginia Tech women's basketball coach Kenny Brooks during her interview in Blacksburg and since then, has had a special bond with Brooks and members of his team.
- The women's basketball team made the Final Four in 2023, which served as inspiration for the lacrosse program which started a rebuild similar to the one that Brooks inherited when he came to Blacksburg in 2016.
- Furthermore, when Skiera was in the process of moving to the area, she temporarily lived next to star players and All-Americans Elizabeth Kitley and Georgia Amooore. The two created a bond with Skiera's family, including her daughter Cazlen. Both Kitley and Amooore can be seen often at Tech lacrosse games due to their close friendship with several players.
- In the fall, Brooks invited the lacrosse team to watch them practice.

SOUTHERN DRAW

- In order to have the nation's best one-two punch on the draw last season, the Hokies utilized an invention by Kristen Skiera's father, Steve Waagbo, who graduated from Virginia Tech with a degree in Civil Engineering.
- The "Southern Draw" is a contraption that allows the draw specialists to practice their draws without another individual matching up with them.
- Last year's initial prototype was made out of wood, but this year's version is composed of steel to last through outdoor conditions.

SOMETHING IS BREWING

- After Virginia Tech took No. 2 Syracuse to the wire in the ACC Championships quarterfinal last April, falling a few goals of the biggest upset college lacrosse would have seen that season, there was a special energy in the locker room. The result capped off a fourth loss by four goals or less to a top-12 ranked team in 2023 – in a sport which goals often come aplenty.

Skiera often speaks of the positive energy in the locker room after the Syracuse game - knowing that something special was brewing on a larger scale within the program.

HOKIES IN RED, WHITE AND BLUE

- Following their stellar freshman campaigns, Ella Rishko, Sarah Gresham and Jocelyn Torres were all selected to participate in the United States U20 team tryouts ahead of the World Lacrosse 2024 Women's U20 Championship in Hong Kong, China in August.
- Torres progressed passed tryouts and has been part of the country's training team roster, which will be cut down ahead of the summer competition.
- Virginia Tech's athletic trainer, Anne Bryan, was chosen to serve as the team's athletic trainer. She has attended tryouts and training camps along with the three players, and will travel with the team to Hong Kong.
- Head coach Kristen Skiera (2003) and associate head coach Shannon Jacobitti (2011) were members of past United States world championship teams when the competition fielded U19 teams.

▶ THE SKIERA FILE

Virginia Tech, Head Coach | 2021 - Present
Army, Head Coach | 2015-2021
Duke, Assistant Coach | 2012-2015
Navy, Assistant Coach | 2011-2012
UC-Davis, Assistant Coach | 2010
Navy, Volunteer Assistant Coach | 2008-2009

Since being named head coach of Virginia Tech lacrosse on June 11, 2021, Kristen Skiera has conducted one of the more impressive turnarounds of a collegiate lacrosse program in recent time. Skiera, or “Waags” as she’s nicknamed in the lacrosse community, has improved Tech’s total and ACC win totals in both of her first two seasons.

Skiera was inspired to get into coaching after a successful two-time All-American, Tewaaraton semifinalist career at Duke, where she played had four Final Four appearances. She had the privilege of playing and working under two of lacrosse’s greatest ever coaches, Kerstin Kimel and Cindy Timchal, respectively.

The 2018 U.S. Lacrosse Greater Baltimore Chapter Hall of Fame inductee specializes in working with Virginia Tech’s attacking group, which has produced a pair of All-Americans in Sarah Lubnow and Olivia Vergano since Skiera arrived ahead of the 2022 season.

An Ellicott City, Md. native, Skiera oversaw Army women’s lacrosse’s transition from club to varsity sport, where she compiled a 46-40 record and developed 12 All-Patriot league players for the Black Knights.

Skiera resides in Christiansburg, Va. with her husband, Kyle, and their two daughters, Caslen and Lane.

▶ THE ASSISTANTS

Virginia Tech, Assoc. Head Coach | 2021 - Present
Army, Assoc. Head Coach | 2016-2021
Vanderbilt, Assistant Coach | 2015-2016

Shannon Jacobitti is in her third season with Virginia Tech lacrosse after following Skiera from Army, where she held the same position on staff. In her role with the Hokies, Jacobitti directs the midfield and oversees the draw control training.

It was under Jacobitti’s watch in 2023 that two Tech players, Sarah Gresham (111) and Olivia Vergano (106) broke the program’s single-season draw control record.

An accomplished player in her own right, Jacobitti was a two-time Tewaaraton finalist and finished tied eighth all-time in NCAA history for goals.

Virginia Tech, Assistant Coach | 2021 - Present
ECU, Assistant Coach | 2019-2021

MC Byrne joined Skiera’s initial staff at Virginia Tech in 2021, returning to the program that she played at from 2015 to 2019. In her role with the Hokies, Byrne oversees the defensive unit and worked with goalie prior to the arrival of assistant coach Taylor Paige.

Under her watch, four defenders have earned career highs in caused turnovers. As a player for Virginia Tech, she finished her career ranked third all-time in caused turnovers and sixth all-time in ground balls.

Virginia Tech, Assistant Coach | 2023 - Present
Virginia, Operations Assistant | 2021 - 2023
Shenandoah, Assistant Coach | 2019-2021
Bridgewater College, Assistant Coach | 2017-2018

Taylor Paige is the newest member of Virginia Tech’s staff, having joined in the summer of 2023 to oversee goalies and handle day-to-day operations for the program.

At her previous stop, Paige handled operations within the Virginia program that made two NCAA Tournaments during her tenure. Prior to her time in Charlottesville, she served as an assistant at Shenandoah and Bridgewater College.

An accomplished goalie in her own right, Paige was a four-year contributor at Mary Washington.

PRESEASON

MARY GRIFFIN ON KRISTEN SKIERA'S IMPACT ON THE TEAM (VIA SONS OF SATURDAY PODCAST)

"[Skiera] is just always likes bringing the energy. I always say I'm so impressed [because] she could be so mad at us, then like 10 minutes later be like, "Okay, guys! What are we doing," like [a] super fun change of energy. [She's] Someone that I really look up to in so many ways and I think we really vibe well together with our energy; Just like our goals and like the mindset that we have. She definitely pushes you to be your best self, but does so in a way that you do it, not just for yourself, but do it for her, too. She's just absolutely incredible and hires the right people. I love our staff so much. They're so much fun and I just can't stress enough like how much they made us love lacrosse again, like I can't thank them enough for that."

KRISTEN SKIERA ON LOSING THE UNDERDOG MENTALITY THIS SEASON (VIA TECH SIDELINE PODCAST)

"There's something to be said about having an underdog mentality, but I don't think we have that underdog mentality. I'd like to think that we have the underdog edge, and the grit, you know, and that hunger is a part of us. The underdog mentality kind of means to that you go into the games thinking in some way you're inferior and that's what we've shed from last year to this year."

VCU GAME

KRISTEN SKIERA ON OVERALL PERFORMANCE

"For starters, VCU gave us all we could handle today. Their goalie got hot and played exceptional. [She] made it so hard for us. Their zone defense was nice and they made the correct adjustments. They gave us a really tough time on the draw. It was great! I think to start the season, your weaknesses get exposed and you have to learn from it quick. We certainly have to learn from it quick because we head into next week and get a crack at two NCAA Tournament teams. It definitely wasn't perfect, [but] I'm happy we're 1-0 and we certainly have a lot of work to do."

KRISTEN SKIERA ON NINE ASSISTS ON 10 GOALS

"I guess that's a great takeaway; I didn't even know that! We were playing against a zone defense, so you're mainly going to assume that we're probably going to have more assisted looks than unassisted looks. This should be a good, fun offense to watch. We've got to grow and learn from this. Moving forward it should be a fun offense to watch because we have a lot of dangerous threats out there and everybody has become more of a feeder in the off-season. Hopefully, we can continue that trend and really keep working to set each other up."

QUEENS (N.C.) GAME

KRISTEN SKIERA ON KAYLA DOWNEY'S INTEGRATION INTO THE TEAM

"We brought her here for a reason. She's unbelievable at her craft, she sees the game so well from X, she's just an unbelievable feeder and I think even it just our first four games, you can see the impact that she's made. [She's] that missing piece of the puzzle for us and filled that [hole]. Really, really happy she got a lot of pressure behind the cage tonight and had a big matchup back there, and she did a great job. I think that was very valuable experience for her tonight."

ELLA RISHKO ON

"After bouncing back from the first two more difficult games for our offense, we've been working super hard on and off the field working through our kinks and working with our teammates. Today, our team just put everything total [like] our draw team, our defense and our offense, especially, we just worked together really well and gave each other a lot of opportunities to score."

ELON GAME

KRISTEN SKIERA ON KAYLA DOWNEY'S INTEGRATION INTO THE TEAM

"We can't wait to get back there on the field on Saturday. Obviously, [we have] kind of a bad taste in our mouths following our last ACC game. It's just another great opportunity to keep raising the bar for us and play to our potential. [There's] just a lot excitement right now since it's spring break, we're all professional lacrosse players and there's not a lot going on, [just] wake up, eat, play lacrosse, go to bed, get some sleep and dream about it. We're excited."

MIA POZZI ON HER ROLE AS A FRESHMAN

"[Starting] has been surreal, I wasn't expecting it at first, but now I kind of just listen to the upperclassmen and have grown into this spot and learning every step of the way of what I can do more to contribute."

MIA POZZI ON HER PLAY STYLE

"I'm definitely an in between the lines player. It's how I kinda grew up: just being gritty, running my heart out there and try to come up with every ground ball possible. If I'm not doing as much on the offensive end, I'm going to work my butt off to do it on the defensive end."
