MEETING MR. DAVIES

- While this is Virginia Tech's first meeting with North Florida, the Hokies are no strangers to gaffer Jamie Davies.
- Davies, who served on staff at UCF from 2018 to 2023, faced the Hokies in fixtures during the 2018 and 2021 season.
- In 2018, Tech led UCF by two goals at the break, courtesy of a David Sanz penalty kick and Kristo Strickler strike. However, goals in the 64th and 65th minute by the Knights proved enough for a 2-2 draw.
- In 2021, the Hokies rallied from a 1-0 halftime deficit to pick up a 2-1 win over UCF in Raleigh, N.C. at an event hosted by NC State. Landon Ameres and Jacob Labovitz scored a pair of goals within 18 seconds of each other (59:27 and 59:45) to spur Tech on to victory.

UWI-MAMA, THERE GOES THAT MAN

- Noe Uwimana took the ACC by storm in his freshman season, finishing third in Tech's lineup in points (7) with two goals and three assists.
- The defender with ties to Richmond United earned ACC All-Freshman Team honors, becoming the Virginia Tech player in three seasons to be named to the league's rookie team: Danny Flores (2021) and Misei Yoshizawa (2022).
- As a dynamic weapon often utilized as a left wingback, the Philadelphia Union product has scored two remarkable goals with his right foot this season, including the winner against Boston College.
- Before kicking off his goal-scoring streak against Boston College and High Point, Uwimana had three assists in games against Loyola (Md.), Davidson and No. 5 Louisville.

GOALS CHANGE GAMES

- Head coach Mike Brizendine is on the record saying "goals change games."
- Over the last two seasons, the Hokies have struggled to get consistent goal-scoring in comparison to the success they had in their six-season NCAA Tournament run from 2016-2021.
- Tech bolstered its attacking options in the offseason with the additions of CJ Coppola and Malick Thiaw, along with Marcos Escoc, Oliver Roche and Andy Sullins entering their second seasons with the team, and Declan Quill approaching his senior campaign.

WATCH OUT FOR WILLIE

- Senior defender Willie Cardona was named to the 2024 ACC Preseason Watch List on August 14.
- Joining the Hokies in 2022 after an impressive rookie season at Winthrop, Cardona has made 24 appearances, including 11 starts for Tech in two seasons.
- Originally a midfielder, Cardona re-invented himself as a right back in the 2023 campaign and has shown steady improvement in Tech's system.
- In 2021, Cardona was named Big South All-Conference honorable mention for Winthrop.

SEASON-OPENING TRENDS

- The Hokies are opening up at home for the first time since 2015 when they faced UNCG at Thompson Field, falling 1-0 in double overtime.
- This is only Virginia Tech's fourth time starting its season in Blacksburg since joining the ACC in the 2004 season.
- August 22 is the earliest start date for a regular season in Tech's history, beating out August 24 start dates in 2012, 2018 and 2023.

PHILLY BOYS

- Virginia Tech has built a strong connection with the Philadelphia Union academy.
- Since 2019, the Hokies have rostered five players from the Philly youth system: Nick Blacklock, Ben Martino, Danny Flores, Noe Uwimana and Alex Perez.
- With Perez yet to make his Tech debut, the other four have a combined 153 appearances for Tech.
- Both Flores and Uwimana were named to the ACC All-Freshman Team in their rookie seasons.
- Martino and Flores left Blacksburg following the 2022 seasons to sign professional contracts with MLS sides Nashville SC and Sporting KC, respectively.

YEAR 16 ON THE TOUCHLINE

- Head coach Mike Brizendine and associate head coach Patrick McSorley enter their sixteenth season together on Virginia Tech's coaching staff.
- The ties run deeper than Blacksburg, however, as both played soccer at James Madison.
- The two Virginia natives shared the pitch in 1995, as the Dukes reached the NCAA quarterfinals.
- McSorley left Harrisonburg as James Madison's all-time leading goalscorer (42).

OH CAPTAINS, MY CAPTAINS

- In the spring, Carter Hensley was named team captain heading into his senior season.
- Ahead of the fall preseason camp, Willie Cardona was named co-captain for the Hokies, as well.
- The two have ties that pre-date their time at Virginia Tech, as they played at Charlotte Soccer Academy in their youth days and late in high school.

NEXT LEVEL TALENT

- Across the pitch, the Hokies have several players that have made appearances in the USL Championship and MLS Next level.
- Players with next-level credentials in the American system include: Mark Hyan (Orange County SC), Tino Vasquez (Forward Madison), Andy Sullins (Atlanta United 2), Mathias Yohannes (Loudoun United), Noe Uwimana and Alex Perez (Philadelphia Union II).

CALI KEEPERS

- Two of Virginia Tech's stronger weapons in its goalkeeper union hold roots in California.
- Freshman Mark Hyan, a Los Angeles native, joined Tech in the spring and adapted quickly to the collegiate level of play.
- Along with his prowess in goal, Hyan was a highly-touted placekicking prospect for his high school football team (Loyola HS).
- Super-senior Cooper Wenzel, a Fresno native, arrived in Blacksburg in August after four years with CSUN, including an All-Big West second team campaign in 2022.

DJ FLOKI

- Olafur Floki Stephensen, who goes primarily by Floki, is not just a promising young defender, but also an experienced DJ in his native Iceland.
- The defender has his own mixing board that he puts together music sets on, however, he left the equipment in Iceland ahead of the fall in order to focus on the soccer season.

STEADY TREY

- In his four-year career at Davidson, senior Trey Gardiner started all 58 games that he played in for the Wildcats, including three games against the Hokies in 2021, 2022 and 2023.
- In all three career fixtures, Gardiner logged 90 minutes.

OLLIE'S FRESHMAN CAMPAIGN

- Freshman Oliver Roche's four goals last season were tied for the most on the Hokies' squad.
- The Danish striker made waves early in the season when he scored a late winner against No. 5 Louisville on the road.
- His four goals were the most by a Tech freshman since Dani Pereira had five in his 2019 campaign.
