KEY STORYLINES

A WIN WOULD...

- Be Virginia Tech's first win over the Florida State Seminoles.
- Take the Hokies to 6-4 overall and 2-3 in ACC matchups.
- Be the squad's first win away on the road since their season opener at Mercer on Feb. 6.

THE BEGINNING OF A NEW SERIES

- The Hokies and Seminoles will face off for the first time ever, as Florida State enters their first season as a Division 1 program.
- Tech has not played a game in the state of Florida since 2001, when they lost to the Georgetown Hoyas, 21-7.

LAST TIME OUT

- Virginia Tech secured their fourth home victory of the season over the Queens Royals on Tuesday, 20-10. It was the Hokies' third straight victory over the Royals by 10 or more goals.
- Cassy Montgomery led the way with four goals.
- Sarah Murrell, Mia Pozzi, Lauren Render, and Reese Wallich all tallied hat tricks. Sophia Trahan scored twice, with Kamryn Henson and Zoe Stencil each finding the back of the net once, as well.

- Pozzi also matched her career-high in draw controls, with 15.
- In goal, Malie Follet had 10 saves, her fourth game of the season with 10 or more saves.

HARNESSING THE HATTIES

- The Hokies have had four games in which multiple players have scored hat tricks. The squad is 3-1 when multiple players score three or more goals.
- Mia Pozzi and Lauren Render have both tallied three hat tricks, with sophomores Sarah Murrell and Reese Wallich each having two. Cassy Montgomery and Maggie Flanagan have had one apiece.
- In the first nine games of the 2025 season, the Tech squad had five games where two or more players scored hat tricks, in which the Hokies' record was 4-1.
- Of those four opponents that Tech won against in 2025 with hat tricks, three of them were also defeated in the 2026 season with two or more hatties (Elon, Louisville, and Queens).

BALANCED ATTACK

- Under Kristen Skiera, the Hokies are 17-3 when four players score multiple goals in a game and 17-3 when five or more players reach the same mark.

MARYLAND MAGIC

- The Hokie squad boasts 16 players from the Old Line State.
- Of those 16, four duos attended the same high school: Jess Doreen and Maggie Flanagan (Glenelg Country), Kamryn Henson and Reilly Kelleher (Glenelg), Jane Brewer and Caroline Little (Century), and Kate Wilking and Paige Kawa (Notre Dame Prep).

NOTABLE PERFORMERS

- The Hokies' offense was dominated by Lauren Render in 2025, and 2026 looks to be no different. The senior captain has 18 goals and four assists thus far.
- Also shaping up to have another impressive season is attacker Mia Pozzi, who has 16 goals and 13 assists.
- Backing up #13 and #32 are Cassy Montgomery and Sarah Murrell. Montgomery has tallied 12 goals and nine assists, while Murrell has 12 goals and two assists.
- On the defensive end, Zoe Stencil leads the team with 15 ground balls and 16 caused turnovers. Stencil scored her first career goal against Queens on March 10. Goalie Malie Follet has also tallied 21 ground balls and 70 saves.

STRONG STATISTICS

- The squad is returning 98% (229 of 334) of its draw controls and 82% of its goals (161 of 197) from the 2025 season.
- Nationally, the squad ranks 13th in clearing percentage, at 94.7%.
- In the ACC, Mia Pozzi is tied for first for points in a single game (10 vs. Elon), while also tying for second for assists in a single game (six vs. Elon) and draw controls in a single game (15 vs. Elon, Queens).
- Also in the ACC, Caroline Little is tied for fifth for ground balls in a single game (five vs. VCU).

O CAPTAIN! MY CAPTAIN!

- The 2026 Virginia Tech lacrosse squad is captained by four seniors: Lauren Render, Caroline Little, Molly Re, and Emma Rowland.
- Last season, the captains combined for 66 goals, 34 caused turnovers, 59 ground balls, and 54 draw controls.

RENOWNED RENDER

- Senior attacker Lauren Render had a historic 2025 season.
- She scored eight goals at Queens, which is tied for the third-highest for a single game in Virginia Tech lacrosse history.
- After a standout performance with seven goals in Virginia Tech's upset over then-No. 11 Syracuse, the attacker was named ACC Offensive Player of the Week.
- Scoring five goals against Commonwealth rival and then-No. 7 Virginia on April 16, Render became just the tenth player in program history to record 50 or more goals in a single season.
- The Powder Springs, Ga. native was named Second Team All-ACC 2025 and IWLCA Second Team All-Region 2025.
- USA Lacrosse noted the attacker as a 2026 Preseason All-American Honorable Mention.
- With her two goals against Elon on Feb. 27, 2026, Render reached 100 career goals.

NEW FACES IN BLACKSBURG

- Grace Weigand joins the Virginia Tech program as an assistant coach after a standout career at the University of Notre Dame. A captain for her senior season with the Fighting Irish, she was also a Tewaaron Award Watch List member in the preseason. The defender earned second team All-ACC honors and was named as a USA Lacrosse All-American honorable mention.
- Three of Virginia Tech's transfers have faced off against the Hokies at their previous stops: Paige Kawa (Pitt), Caroline Doffermyre (Mercer) and Malie Follet (Notre Dame).

YEAR 5 OF THE SKIERA ERA

- The Hokies had their fourth consecutive season at .500 or better under Coach Skiera in 2025. In the three seasons prior to her arrival, Tech had just one season above .500 (2020).
- Virginia Tech has four ranked wins under Coach Skiera: at JMU (2022), Notre Dame (2022), at Duke (2023), and Syracuse (2025).

▶ THE SKIERA FILE

Since being named head coach of Virginia Tech lacrosse on June 11, 2021, Kristen Skiera has conducted one of the more impressive turnarounds of a collegiate lacrosse program in recent time. Skiera, or “Waags” as she’s nicknamed in the lacrosse community, improved Tech’s total and ACC win totals in both of her first two seasons.

Skiera was inspired to get into coaching after a successful two-time All-American, Tewaaraton semifinalist career at Duke, where she had four Final Four appearances. She had the privilege of playing and working under two of lacrosse’s greatest ever coaches, Kerstin Kimel and Cindy Timchal, respectively.

The 2018 U.S. Lacrosse Greater Baltimore Chapter Hall of Fame inductee specializes in working with Virginia Tech’s attacking group, which has produced a pair of All-Americans in Sarah Lubnow and Olivia Vergano since Skiera arrived ahead of the 2022 season.

▶ THE ASSISTANTS

Shannon Jacobitti is in her fifth season with Virginia Tech lacrosse after following Skiera from Army, where she held the same position on staff. In her role with the Hokies, Jacobitti directs the midfield and oversees the draw control training.

It was under Jacobitti’s watch in 2023 that two Tech players, Sarah Gresham (111) and Olivia Vergano (106) broke the program’s single-season draw control record.

Molly Dunphey enters her second season as an assistant coach with Virginia Tech after finishing her illustrious lacrosse career with the Hokies as a graduate transfer in 2024.

Dunphey, a native of Ridgewood, N.J., was a crucial part of Tech’s 2024 lacrosse squad, ranking second on the team in ground balls (27) and third in caused turnovers (16).

Grace Weigand is the newest member of Virginia Tech’s staff, having joined the team after a standout athletic career at the University of Notre Dame.

A captain in her senior season, Weigand was also a Tewaaraton Award Watch List member in the preseason, and was awarded second team All-ACC honors and earned a USA Lacrosse All-American honorable mention.
