ELEVATED DINING - HISTORIC SETTING - TRUE CORNISH FLAVOUR

Welcome to the Chapel Restaurant, a unique dining experience in the heart of Bodmin Jail Hotel

Set within the atmospheric former chapel of the historic Bodmin Jail, The Chapel Restaurant is delighted to unveil its new seasonal menu, a celebration of Cornwall's finest produce, crafted with flair and precision by Executive Head Chef Dane Watkins and his talented brigade.

Inspired by Cornwall's rugged coast, mysterious moors and bountiful farmland, the new menu reimagines classic dishes with a contemporary edge. From freshly landed seafood to hand-reared meats and artisan cheeses, every plate reflects the county's rich culinary heritage.

"Cornwall offers some of the finest produce in the world," says Dane Watkins. "Our ambition with our upscale brasserie menu is to champion those ingredients in a way that is both tasty and memorable."

Whether it's a romantic dinner, a special celebration, or simply an evening to savour, The Chapel offers a dining setting like no other. Guests enjoy exceptional food beneath soaring vaulted ceilings, surrounded by centuries of history.

More than a meal... an immersive stay

The Chapel forms part of the Bodmin Jail Hotel, one of Cornwall's (and in fact the South West's) most remarkable destinations. Once a notorious prison, this historic landmark has been transformed into a luxurious hotel, blending dramatic original architecture with contemporary design. Guests can extend their evening into an unforgettable escape...dining at The Chapel, exploring the jail's history, and staying the night in beautifully reimagined former cells.

Reservations & media enquiries

Bookings are now open, and with demand expected to be high, early reservations are strongly recommended.
