BULLDOGS EARN NABC TEAM ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AWARD: The UNC Asheville men's basketball team was noted for its performance in the classroom during the 2016-17 athletic year by earning the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Team Academic Excellence Award. The fifth annual Team Academic Excellence Awards, created by the NABC Committee on Academics, recognize outstanding academic achievement by teams with cumulative grade-point averages (GPA) of 3.0 or better for the 2016-17 season. In order to earn a NABC Team Academic Excellence Award, institutions in the NCAA, NAIA and NJCAA must count the grade-point averages of all men's basketball student-athletes who competed during the 2016-17 season. "This honor means a great deal to our program," UNC Asheville men's basketball head coach Nick McDevitt said. "Our program truly takes a great deal of pride in taking care of things in the classroom, and this honor further emphasizes that our student-athletes care about winning on and off the court."

POSTSEASON PLAY: Last year's appearance in the CIT marked UNC Asheville's sixth appearance in a postseason tournament. The Bulldogs have advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times before (2003, 2011, 2012 and 2016) and the NIT (2008) once.

BULLDOGS LISTED AMONG BEST IN NATION IN 2016-17

Kevin Vannatta at NCAA National Office in Indianapolis as part of his duties as National SAAC Representative.

The 2016-17 UNC Asheville men's basketball team was featured among the best in the nation in the final NCAA Division I men's basketball statistics.

The Bulldogs finished with the second-best turnover margin in the entire country at 4.9. UNC Asheville as a team forced its opponents into 547 turnovers (10th-best in Division I) while only turning the basketball over 384 times.

The stingy Asheville defense also ended the 2016-17 season in the top-10 in the country in steals per game at 9.3 (seventh). The 306 steals this past year as a team by the Bulldogs was tied for sixth-best in NCAA Division I.

These top-10 honors are on top of the numerous categories the Bulldogs led in the Big South as a team, including three-point field goal percentage (.394 – 19th in Division I), steals, turnover margin and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.3 – 28th in Division I).

Individually, Big South Conference Defensive Player of the Year Ahmad Thomas finished fourth in the country in total steals with 99 and fifth in steals per game at 3.00.

The junior do-it-all Thomas led the Big South Conference in field goal percentage at 54.4 percent shooting (243-of-447).

Asheville junior guard Kevin Vannatta led the Big South Conference in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.9.

Big South Conference Freshman of the Year MaCio Teague ended his freshman All-America campaign second in the Big South Conference and 22nd in NCAA Division I in free throw percentage at 88.6 (101-of-114). At one point during Big South play this past season, Teague connected on 29 consecutive free throws.

UNC Asheville head coach Nick McDevitt and his staff guided the Bulldogs to their sixth Big South Conference regular-season title in the 2016-17 season (1996-97, 1997-98, 2001-02, 2007-08, 2011-12 and 2016-17).

The Bulldogs will commence the 2017-18 season having now collected back-to-back 20-win seasons and having made two straight postseason appearances with the Bulldogs playing in the 2016 NCAA Tournament and the 2017 CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

The 2016-17 Bulldogs collected the second-most wins in program history in a season with 23. Asheville reached 20 wins faster than any other team in program history in 27 games.
