* - SEC Game

All Times Local to Game Site

What's On Tap

No. 1 Vanderbilt closes out its regular season this week with a three game SEC series against LSU starting on Thursday at 7 p.m. The teams will play again on Friday at 7 p.m. and on Saturday at Noon. The final two games will be televised regionally by Jumbo Sports/CSS. The series starts a day earlier to give teams an extra day off prior to the SEC tournament next week. The Commodores will honor their seniors at approximately 11:40 a.m. on Saturday.

Chasing A Championship

With last Saturday's win over Auburn, Vanderbilt captured its first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title since 1974. This week the Commodores are in search of their first ever SEC regular season crown. VU captured titles in 1973, 1974 and 1980 when they were decided by a three-game series between division winners (73-74) or in a tournament (80) with the top two seeds from each division playing each other.

The Commodores hold a two-game lead over SEC West leader Arkansas heading into the weekend. VU's magic number is two to win the championship outright. If the teams finish with identical conference records, they will be named co-champions with Arkansas gaining the No. 1 seed in the SEC tourney based on its head-to-head series win earlier this year.

Conference Tournament Info

By virtue of winning the SEC East last weekend, the Commodores are guaranteed to be either the No. 1 or No. 2 seed in the conference tournament next weekend in Birmingham. The two division winners are guaranteed the top two seeds regardless of conference record. If Vanderbilt is the No. 1 seed, the team will face the No. 8 seed on Wednesday at 5 p.m. If VU is the No. 2 seed, the Doers would take on the No. 7 seed at 10 a.m. that day.

The rest of the tournament field is yet to be decided with just Auburn eliminated from contention heading into the weekend.

Scouting LSU

LSU is 29-23-1 overall and 12-14-1 in SEC play after dropping two of three to Florida in Baton Rouge over the weekend.

Head coach Paul Mainieri is in his first year as head coach of the Tigers after leading Notre Dame to eight NCAA appearances and nine conference titles in 12 seasons in South Bend.

LSU has struggled offensively hitting .259 as a team with 39 homers and 273 runs scored in 53 games (5.1 runs per game). Outfielder/outfielder Blake Dean leads the team with a .328 batting average to go along with seven homers and 44 RBI.

The pitching staff sports a 5.11 team ERA with 403 strikeouts and 162 walks in 468.2 innings this season.

Junior southpaw Charlie Furbush (3-8, 5.27 ERA) is slated to take the hill on Thursday with sophomore lefty Ryan Byrd (6-1, 4.57 ERA) set to go on Friday. Sunday's starter is yet to be determined.

Junior righthander Jared Bradford is the team's relief ace, sporting a 10-3 record to go with a 4.35 ERA. He has five saves as well in 22 appearances and has also made 10 starts on the year. He has 75 strikeouts and just 15 walks in 89.0 innings on the year.

Commodores Remain No. 1 In National Ranking For Seventh Straight Week

With the series win over Auburn last weekend, Vanderbilt remained the No. 1 team in the country in the five polls this week.

Baseball America, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and the ESPN/Sports Weekly Coaches Poll all had the Commodores ranked No. 1 for the seventh straight week, while Collegiate Baseball put VU on top in its poll for the third straight week. Rivals.com joined the party this week, putting the Doers on top for the first time in four weeks

The Commodores have been ranked No. 1 in at least one of the polls in 12 of the last 13 weeks. The Commodores at 43-10 are having the best year in school history and the team's 20-0 start was the best start of any sport at Vanderbilt. It bested the 17-0 start of the 1993 women's basketball team.

The 43 wins (39 in 2004) are the most ever for a VU squad in the regular season and the 19 wins in SEC play is also a school record, besting the 16 win years in 2004 and 2006. The team needs two more wins to tie the school record of 45 wins in a season set in 2004.

The No. 1 baseball ranking joins women's basketball and women's golf as the only NCAA sports to achieve a No. 1 ranking at Vanderbilt. The 1993 women's hoops squad was ranked No. 1 by the AP for six weeks, including the final regular season poll prior to postseason play. The women's golf team was ranked No. 1 for a time in 2004.

Dominic de la Osa In Select Company

With his 15th homer of the year last weekend, Dominic de la Osa joined a select number of players in Division I baseball this season with 15 or more homers and 15 or more stolen bases. The junior is one of six players nationally to achieve the feat and is currently in line for All-American and SEC Player of the Year consideration. The Florida product leads the team with a .383 batting average to go with 15 homers, 19 doubles and 50 RBI. He leads the team with 16 stolen bases in 21 attempts and is also hitting .380 in 26 SEC games with eight homers, 13 doubles and 29 RBI. The other members of the 15-15 club are below:

Brian Rike, Louisiana Tech	20 HR, 15SB
Corey Brown, OK. State	19 HR, 17SB
Todd Frazier, Rutgers	19 HR, 21 SB
Joe Mahoney, Richmond	16 HR, 16 SB

premier amateur baseball player.

Alvarez, the 2006 consensus National Freshman of the Year, is among the offensive leaders for the Commodores with a .380 batting average to go along with 15 homers and 55 RBI.

Price, one of five finalists for the award a year ago, is in the midst of his best season at Vanderbilt. The junior from Murfreesboro is 9-0 with a 2.91 ERA and has 149 strikeouts and 26 walks in 105.1 innings this season. He has tallied double-digit strikeouts in nine of his 14 starts this year and is currently second the nation in strikeouts per nine innings.

Weathers leads the team in wins with a 10-2 record to go with a 2.31 ERA. He leads the team with five saves in 25 relief appearances and has 58 strikeouts in 39.0 innings. The California native was recently named the top senior pitching prospect by Baseball America and is projected to be a first round pick in the amateur draft in June.

All three players were on the 2006 USA Baseball National Team that won a gold medal at the World University Championships last August.

The names of the 50 semi-finalists will now be forwarded to a voting body of 125 who will select the five finalists and the eventual 2007 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Winner.

This year will mark the 30th consecutive year that the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award has been presented to the nation's premier amateur baseball player. The winner's name will be announced on June 29, 2007, during the 2007 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Show presented by Major League Baseball.

Price Adds To New School Career Strikeout Record

The beat continues for David Price who notched six strikeouts against Auburn last Friday to add to his school career strikeout record. He now has 396 in his career with one more regular season start remaining tomorrow. With nine strikeouts against Kentucky on April 13, the junior left-hander broke a 35-year old school record with 355 career strikeouts. With his fifth strikeout against the Wildcats, he broke Mike Willis' school record of 350 set from 1969-72. Of note, Willis achieved the mark in four years at Vanderbilt, compared to Price in three. The fellow southpaw went on to a five-year career in the major leagues with the Toronto Blue Jays (1977-81) and finished with a 7-21 record and 15 saves with a 4.59 ERA.

In addition Price now has 149 strikeouts this season, just six shy of the school record he set a year ago.

The USA Baseball National Team will also host the 36th Annual USA vs. Japan Collegiate Championship Series and an Inaugural Friendship Series versus the Chinese National Team.

Head Coach Tim Corbin

In four seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has raised expectations of the baseball program into one that is expected to be among the nations best on an annual basis.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

This past summer he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba in August. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee in September.

Those results were probably to be expected, as Corbin has taken Vanderbilt to heights it has rarely seen in its long baseball history.

His overall record of 144-95 (.602) is the fourth best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

Last year he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

With virtually the entire team back, Corbin knows the expectations are there to build upon that success and take the Commodores to their first College World Series in school history. It is a goal that he and his coaching staff are determined to achieve in the near future.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 29 players have been drafted over the last three years including 13 in 2005.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up a school-record 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) — all of which were bettered in 2004. Three different players earned conference Player of the Week honors (the most for VU in a single season), and the team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.

Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort instead of the product of one dominant player on the mound. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky University.

Corbin came to Vanderbilt following nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson.

During his time there (1994-2002) the Tigers had more victories than all but four programs. Clemson won more than 71 percent (434 wins, 172 losses) of its games, captured two Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles, made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament and reached the College World Series four times (1995, 1996, 2000, and 2002). The Tigers ended the 2002 season with their ninth consecutive top 25 finish and their sixth top 10 finish since 1994.

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin was head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. There he restarted a baseball program that laid dormant for several years. He directed Presbyterian College from NAIA to NCAA Division II status and had a 106-138 overall record. Along the way, the Blue Hose made three consecutive appearances in the South Atlantic playoffs (1991-93), and Corbin earned South Atlantic Coach of the Year honors in 1990.
