On the Road at Vanderbilt

The University of Arkansas basketball team heads out on the road this Saturday, Feb. 9, to take on the Vanderbilt Commodores at Memorial Gymnasium in Nashville, Tenn., in a 12:47 p.m., game televised by the SEC Network.

Arkansas (14-8, 5-4 SEC) picked up its biggest win in several years on Tuesday night when it took down the No. 2 Florida Gators at Bud Walton Arena. The game ended a tough stretch of three games in six days and the Razorback defense was stifling as it upset Florida, 80-69. Keys to the win included Arkansas' ability to force turnovers and score points off the miscues, but perhaps more importantly it was the ability to make shots that allowed the Razorbacks to pull away. Arkansas knocked down 7-of-13 three-point attempts in the opening half which allowed it to take an early lead that it would never surrender.

The Razorbacks are led by junior Marshawn Powell who is averaging 15.1 points and 5.6 rebounds per game. Powell is joined by BJ Young in double figures (16.5) and the duo make up one of the most prolific scoring tandems in the Southeastern Conference as both are ranked among the top 10 for conference games. The Arkansas starting lineup was given a shake up prior to the game with Tennessee and freshman Michael Qualls has delivered, averaging nine points and seven rebounds over the last three games.

Vanderbilt (8-13, 2-7 SEC) has struggled of late, losing their last four games including a one-point heartbreaker at LSU on Wednesday. The Commodores continue to be led on the court by Kedren Johnson (14.5 ppg, 3.9 rpg) and have great three-point shooting from multiple sources as they hit 35.3 percent as a team.

Arkansas and Vanderbilt are meeting for the second time this season and the Razorbacks are 1-0 against the Commodores this season and 18-9 all-time. The Razorbacks have won the last three meetings between the two programs and eight of the last 10. Arkansas' last trip to Nashville saw former Razorbacks Michael Sanchez and Rotnei Clarke have huge games in an upset of the then No. 19 Commodores.

The Razorback game against Vanderbilt will be broadcast on the radio across the Razorback Sports Network from IMG College with Chuck Barrett and Rick Schaeffer giving the call. The game will also be carried live on the SEC Network with Clay Matvick and Joe Dean on air.

Following the game with Vanderbilt, Arkansas remains on the road to face the Auburn Tigers on Wednesday, Feb. 13.

Scouting the Commodores

Vanderbilt lost nearly its entire roster a year ago to graduation and the NBA draft and as it transitions from a veteran team to one of untested newcomers, the Commodores have had their ups and downs. At 8-13 on the year, Vanderbilt has wins against Xavier, UTEP, Auburn and South Carolina and losses to Kentucky, Oregon, Villanova and Arkansas. Kedren Johnson is the Commodores leading scorer at 14.5 points per game and also leads the team in assists and steals. Kyle Fuller and Rod Odom are just shy of double-digit points (9.7) and Kevin Bright cleans the glass with 5.4 rebounds per game. As a team, Vanderbilt averages just 59.2 points, but give up just 61.2 as they like to slow the pace of play. They are struggling to take care of the basketball with 13.6 turnovers per game. Vanderbilt shoots 40.8 percent from the field and an impressive 35.3 percent from three.

Series Record

With just 27 games played between them, Arkansas and Vanderbilt do not have a storied history of Southeastern Conference play, but can trace the history back to the 1963-64 season when they first met on the hardwood in Nashville, Tenn. The Commodores would get the first win, 101-77, but have never led in the series since. The Razorbacks won the second and third meetings in 1991 and 1992, have winning streaks of five, three, and three and has won each of the last three meetings matching the second longest streak by either team in the series. Arkansas holds the all-time mark at 18-9, including an impressive 11-2 mark at home, but are 4-7 in Nashville. The Razorbacks have taken eight of the last 10 and 11 of the last 14 meetings between the two programs.

Last Time They Met

Vanderbilt came to Fayetteville on mid-January and were shocked by the Razorbacks to the tune of a 56-33 loss. While neither team was able to get into a real rhythm, the Razorbacks were paced by Marshawn Powell who scored 17 points with BJ Young netting 14. The Razorbacks were able to force 26 Vanderbilt turnovers and turned those miscues into 23 points and held the Commodores, one of the best three-point shooting teams in the conference, to just 2-of-15 (.133) from range. Arkansas was also able to out rebound the Commodores 32-29 in the game and shot a respectable 42.3 percent from the field.

Just the Fourth

The game between Arkansas and Vanderbilt on Saturday is significant as it is just the fourth time in the history of the series that the teams have played multiple times in the same year and the first time that they have done in during the regular season. The last time that Arkansas and Vandy tipped it off twice in the same year was 2007-08 when the Razorbacks defeated the Commodores during the regular season and again at the SEC Tournament.

A School Record

The Razorbacks set a school record against Vanderbilt when they held the Commodores to just 33 points. The total was the lowest by an SEC opponent against the Razorbacks since Arkansas joined the SEC for the 1991-92 season. The previous low was 42 points by Auburn on Feb. 11, 1997.

Big Numbers Against Mississippi State

The Razorbacks put up some stellar numbers in the game against Mississippi State, both offensively and defensively. Arkansas was credited with 27 assists on 33 made shots, sank 21-of-26 free throws, forced 29 turnovers, made 14 steals and blocked 11 shots. The Razorbacks' 26-point victory is tied for the eighth largest winning margin in school history for an SEC game, the 11 blocks is the second most in conference action for a single game, the 27 assists rank tied for second for an SEC game and the 29 forced turnovers rank tied for fourth for an SEC game.

SEC Standings

The Razorbacks are currently tied for sixth in the SEC standings with their 5-4 conference record. Florida suffered its first loss of the year to Arkansas this week and is trailed closely in the league standings by Kentucky and Ole Miss who each have two league losses. As a whole, 11 of the 14 teams in the conference have at least 10 wins and each has a .500 record or better.

Welcome to the Club

With his 20-point effort against Alabama A&M Marshawn Powell became the 35th member of the 1,000 point club at Arkansas. With 16:52 on the clock in the second half, Powell came down the baseline for a slam to get his 1,000 and 1,001st career points. It took Powell 73 games to reach the milestone. Considering that Powell has been injured for the better part of two seasons makes his accomplishment most satisfying.

Who's Next

Marshawn Powell's 11 points against Florida moved him into 25th on Arkansas' all-time scoring list (1,152 pts). He passed Charles Thomas (1,149) on Arkansas' scoring list against the Gators and has Mario Credit (24th-1,162), Derek Hood (23rd-1,247) and U.S. Reed (22nd-1,260) in his sights.

18th/6th/5th Razorback

Junior Marshawn Powell eclipsed the 450-rebound plateau against Ole Miss and combined with his 1,000 career points is the 18th Razorback in school history to score at least 1,000 points and grab 450 rebounds in a career. Adding in his 86 blocked shots and he is just the seventh Arkansas player to have 1,000 points, 450 rebounds and 80 blocked shots. Powell became just the fifth Arkansas player to claim 1,000 points, 450 rebounds, 100 assists and 75 blocks against Vanderbilt joining Todd Day, Corliss Williamson, Scott Hastings and Ron Huery in that exclusive club.

Powell Nets 33

Junior Marshawn Powell was on fire against Oklahoma as he scored a career high 33 points in the Razorback victory. Powell went 11-of-17 from the floor including a career high 4-of-6 from long range and hit 7-of-8 free throws. He also led Arkansas in rebounding with six and dished five assists in 32 minutes. The 33 points eclipsed his previous best of 29 which he set on Nov. 20, 2009, his freshman year, against Appalachian State.

30-Point Game Notes

Marshawn Powell became the 42nd player in Arkansas history to score 30-points in a game when he went for 33 against Oklahoma. It was the first 30-point effort by a Razorback since BJ Young scored 31 against Florida on Feb. 18, 2012 and the most points by any Arkansas player since Rotnei Clarke scored 36 against Vanderbilt on Jan. 29, 2011.

2-1 During a Tough Stretch

The Razorbacks played three games in six days at the end of last week and beginning of this week and came through the tough stretch at 2-1. After losing to Alabama by three on the road, Arkansas returned to Bud Walton Arena to defeat Tennessee, 73-60, after just 43 hours between tipoffs and came back on Tuesday to upset No. 2 Florida, 80-69.

Defeating the No. 2 Gators

Arkansas stunned many of the national pundits and fans on Feb. 5, when it upset the No. 2 Florida Gators, 80-69, at Bud Walton Arena. The Razorbacks came out hot and hit multiple three-point baskets to open the game and had Florida down by more than 20 in the first half. The Gators had not trailed an opponent by more than 11 all season and the Razorbacks finished the game with 80 points, more than the Gators had surrendered all season to any opponent. The victory for Arkansas was its first over a team ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll since Feb. 24, 1999 when it defeated Auburn, 104-88.

No. 2 Florida was the Fourth

Arkansas' victory over No. 2 Florida was the Razorbacks' fourth win against a ranked opponent since Mike Anderson became head coach before the 2011-12 season. The Razorbacks defeated No. 15 Mississippi State (98-88), No. 20 Michigan (66-64) and No. 25 Vanderbilt (82-74) during the 2011-12 season and the win over No. 2 Florida (80-69) in 2012-13.

Winning Basketball at Bud Walton

Mike Anderson has won 30 of the 34 games his teams have played at Bud Walton Arena which is the second highest percentage (.882) by a head coach in Arkansas history. Eddie Sutton's teams went 199-8 (.937) over his 11-year tenure and Nolan Richardson's teams were 199-37 (.843) during his 17-year stint as the head coach.

No. 2 Nationally

Arkansas' 6.8 turnover margin is ranked second in the country according to the last national statistics release on Feb. 3. The Razorbacks have forced 387 opponent turnovers while committing just 245 of their own. The turnover margin ranks behind only Virginia Commonwealth (8.0) and ahead of Louisville (6.5) and Detroit (5.5) among others.

Top 25 Statistical Rankings

The Razorbacks rank No. 2 nationally in turnover margin according to the latest NCAA statistics, but it should also be pointed out that Arkansas ranks among the top 25 in the nation in five other categories and top 50 in another one. Arkansas' national rankings are as follows turnover margin (2), steals per game (11), blocked shots per game (13), assist-turnover ratio (15), scoring offense (22), assists per game (23) and turnovers per game (38).

Anderson Teams Ranked Nationally

Mike Anderson coached teams have a knack for being among the nation's best teams in several categories including assists, steals and turnover margin. Since taking over at UAB for the 2002-03 season his squads have ranked among the top 25 teams in the nation in assists per game four times, steals per game eight times and turnover margin each of the last four years (the only years the NCAA has kept the stat). Anderson's teams have been among the top two in the nation in those categories a combined 10 times.

Young With Seven 20-Point Games

Sophomore BJ Young opened his second season at Arkansas with a bang as he netted 23 points in 20 minutes on 10-of-16 shooting while also dishing five assists with no turnovers. Since then he has produced four more 20-plus point games to give him 11 in his short Arkansas career. His other 20-plus point efforts include 29 in 33 minutes against Arizona State, 25 in 34 minutes against No. 6/5 Syracuse, 23 in 34 minutes against Robert Morris, 26 in 31 minutes versus Northwestern State, 22 in 47 minutes against Auburn and 25 in 27 minutes versus Tennessee.

SEC Player of the Week

For his near triple-double in the Northwestern State game, sophomore BJ Young was named the SEC Player of the Week by the league office and also by College Sports Madness and NetScouts. Young is just the second player in school history to earn an SEC Freshman of the Week honor (last season) and a Player of the Week award during his Arkansas career (Courtney Fortson). He scored 26 points, grabbed 13 rebounds, dished seven assists and made two steals during one game that week.

Five Players With 20 in a Game

Coty Clarke's 20-point game against Sam Houston State made him the fifth player on the 2012-13 Razorback roster to score 20 points in a game. Razorbacks with 20-point games in their career include Clarke (1), Mardracus Wade (1), Rickey Scott (2), BJ Young (13) and Marshawn Powell (15).

Arkansas' Ranked Opposition

Four of Arkansas' 2012-13 opponents are currently ranked in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches' polls and three of those are unanimously among the top 10 in the nation. Florida (2/2) is the highest ranked team in both polls and is followed by Michigan (3/3), Syracuse (9/9) and Missouri (21/20). Ole Miss (RV/23) is ranked in the USA Today/Coaches poll and Wisconsin, and Kentucky are both receiving votes in both polls.

Turnovers and Points Off Turnovers

Arkansas is forcing 18.3 turnovers per game so far this season and have turned those miscues into points at a modest rate. Razorback opponents have turned the ball over 403 times this season which has led to 499 points or 22.7 points per game. By comparison, Arkansas has 254 turnovers this season which have led to 267 opponent points or 12.1 per game.

Winning on the Road in the SEC

Winning on the road in the Southeastern Conference is hard for any team and the numbers back that up. Since Arkansas joined the league for the 1991-92 season, SEC teams have an overall winning percentage of just 34.1 percent on the road. Those numbers were backed up last year as SEC road teams went 29-67 (.302), the lowest percentage since the 2006-07 season when SEC road teams won just 25 percent of their games and matching the third lowest percentage over the last 21 years. The 2012-13 season has been an anomaly with SEC road teams going 22-39 (.361), the seventh highest percentage over the last 21 years.

Qualls Steps Up

One of the bright spots for Arkansas over the last three games has been the play of 6-5 guard Michael Qualls. The 6-5, Shreveport, La., native came off the bench for the Razorbacks against Alabama to play 18 minutes and score nine points on 4-of-5 shooting including his first three-point basket and grab a team leading six rebounds. He earned his first start against Tennessee and grabbed a career high 11 rebounds and score seven points while adding an assists and two steals. Over the last three games, Qualls is averaging 9.0 points, a team high 7.0 rebounds, and hit 60 percent from the field.

Team Captains

Head coach Mike Anderson named team captains on Monday, Jan. 21, and picked juniors Marshawn Powell and Kikko Haydar. Powell is in his fourth year with the program after a redshirt year in 2011-12 while Haydar is a walk-on. Anderson chose the captains based on what he has seen from the players both on and off the court and how they interact with their teammates.

Haydar's Emergence

Kikko Haydar walked on to the Razorback basketball team for the 2010-11 season, spurning offers from several schools including Ivy League institutions. In two-plus years, Haydar had modest numbers for a walk on, but got his chance to shine in the game against No. 3/3 Michigan and has been a mainstay in the Arkansas rotation since.

Razorbacks Ink a Pair of Big Men

During the fall signing period, the Razorbacks received commitments from a pair of highly touted big men in Bobby Portis and Moses Kingsley. The 6-9 forwards are each rated as top 60 prospects by all the recruiting services. The signing of Portis and Kingsley has Arkansas with the No. 15 class by ESPN and No. 17 class by Rivals.

Moses Kingsley	6-9	New Albany, Miss.	49	52	62	29

The Streak Continues

Arkansas' streak of three-point baskets made continues and increased to 794 after the Florida game. The Razorbacks currently have the sixth longest active streak in the nation. Arkansas made at least one three in every game it played in the decade of the '90s and '00s. The last time that Arkansas failed to hit a three-point basket was Jan. 7, 1989, when Arkansas defeated Texas in Austin, 99-92. The Razorbacks attempted just two three pointers in the contest. The Razorbacks have played 867 games since the three-pointer was added to college basketball and failed to make a three only six times. The Razorbacks won each of those contests.

9th in Blocks

Hunter Mickelson has 32 blocks this season which gives him 104 in his career. He set the Arkansas record for blocked shots by a freshman last year when he swatted away 72 would-be baskets and currently ranks ninth on Arkansas' all-time blocked shots list. He passed Derek Hood against Tennessee and is three blocks from moving up to seventh on the list (107) to match the efforts of former Razorbacks Mike Washington and Delvon Johnson.

Seven In Two-Plus Years

Razorback student-athletes are getting work done on the floor and in the classroom as seven student-athletes earned their undergraduate degrees from the University over the past two-and-a-half years. Razorbacks who have earned their degrees in that span include Marcus Britt, Jemal Farmer, Delvon Johnson, Jeff Peterson, Michael Sanchez, and Marvell Waithe. Darrell Walker became the seventh on Dec. 15, 2012, when he participated in mid-year graduation. Walker played for the Razorbacks from 1981-83 and returned to school to get his diploma 33 years after first enrolling at the University.

The Razorback Nation welcomed home one of its own on March 23, 2011, when Mike Anderson was named the 12th head men's basketball coach in Arkansas history. A longtime assistant and associate head coach at Arkansas, Anderson spent nine years as a head coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham and Missouri before returning to the Razorbacks. He is now charged with bringing back the winning tradition that was synonymous with the Razorback program throughout the '80s and '90s.

"It is a tremendous honor to be named the head men's basketball coach at the University of Arkansas," Anderson said upon being hired. "I am extremely excited to once again be a part of this special University and Razorback Athletics. With the continued passionate support of all Razorback fans, I am confident that we will have the opportunity to succeed on and off the court and continue to build on the University of Arkansas' championship tradition."

Anderson didn't waste any time delivering on his message as his first Razorback team won a school record 17 home games, posted the 10th longest home winning streak in school history, excelled in the classroom and knocked off three ranked teams. The success on and off the court translated into fan support, as Arkansas returned to the top 25 in national attendance. The Razorback fans also packed the house on a pair of occasions, recording a pair of sell outs at Bud Walton Arena, the first since the 2008-09 season.

Anderson's ability to change the direction of programs is nothing new. He inherited a program at Missouri that had been sub-.500 for two consecutive years and had the Tigers dancing to the Sweet 16 three years later. He guided Missouri to an overall record of 111-56 (.665) in five years with 13 wins over ranked opponents, four NCAA Tournament victories and a 75-13 mark at home.

Adapting his style of play from his mentor and Hall of Fame coach, Nolan Richardson, Anderson's teams are known for playing "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball." His up-tempo style and tough defense allowed Missouri to make the biggest turnaround in college basketball during the 2008-09 season when the Tigers went from 16-16 in Anderson's second season to 31-7 a year later. The turnaround of the Missouri program was not lost on the national analysts as he was named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) National Coach of the Year and the Clair Bee Coach of the Year in 2009 after he led the Tigers to the Big 12 Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament Elite 8.

Anderson's teams are regulars among the nation's elite in several statistical categories and his up-tempo game plan keeps opponents and fans alike on their toes. The 2010-11 Missouri Tigers ranked No. 2 in the nation in steals per game (9.7) and turnover margin (5.4), 10th in the country in scoring offense (80.8) and among the top 30 in four other categories (scoring margin, assists per game, assist-turnover ratio, blocked shots per game).

While his first season at Arkansas didn't produce the lofty numbers that he ended with at Missouri, the Razorbacks did finish the year 19th in the nation in turnover margin (3.3) and 27th in steals per game (8.3). Under Anderson's watchful eye, the Razorbacks' turnover margin in 2011-12 increased 200 percent from the previous season going from 101st in the nation to 19th.

Anderson led Missouri to the NCAA Tournament in each of his final three years with the program. His 2008-09 squad marched all the way to the Elite 8, defeating nationally ranked Marquette and Memphis, before falling to Connecticut. He returned the Tigers to the post season in 2009-10, leading Mizzou to the second round of the tournament and completed the trifecta with a second round exit in 2010-11.

Missouri's success was due in large part to Anderson and his coaching staff who searched for the best talent available to fill the needs of "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball." That search led to back-to-back Big 12 Newcomers of the Year, Missouri's first Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Sixth Man of the Year and multiple All-Big 12 honors. Missouri's 2010 recruiting class was the best in the Big 12 and ranked in the top 10 in the nation by every recruiting service.

Anderson's first head coaching stop was at UAB where in four years he amassed an 89-41 (.685) record with the Blazers. His teams made four consecutive post-season appearances including three NCAA Tournament runs and his 2003-04 squad went all the way to the Sweet 16 as it defeated No. 2 Kentucky in the second round.

He was named the Ray Meyer Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2004 after leading the Blazers to an overall record of 22-10 and a share of the league's regular season championship. UAB's first round NCAA Tournament victory over Washington was the Blazer's first since the 1986 season and the Sweet 16 run was a first since the 1981 UAB season.

While many believed that UAB would be rebuilding following its run to the Sweet 16, Anderson and his coaches went back to work developing talent and recruiting and produced a 22-11 record the following year. The Blazers advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and defeated Southeastern Conference Western Division Champion, LSU, in the first round of the Big Dance.

Anderson's success at both UAB and Missouri made him the ideal candidate to fill Arkansas' coaching vacancy when it opened. A 10-day search ended when Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Jeff Long made his hiring official on the evening of March 23.

"We are extremely excited to welcome home Mike Anderson to the University of Arkansas as our new head men's basketball coach," Long said. "Mike is one of the outstanding head coaches in college basketball. His teams play an exciting brand of basketball that has already proven successful at both UAB and Missouri.

"Under Mike's leadership, I am confident the Razorbacks will be successful in the future on and off the court. The decision to hire Mike Anderson as head coach is based on my firm belief that he is the right person to lead the Razorback program today and in the years to come."

A part of the history and tradition that is Arkansas basketball, Anderson was a volunteer assistant, assistant, recruiting coordinator and assistant head coach over 17 seasons with the Arkansas basketball program with Richardson. During that run, the Razorbacks made 15 post season appearances, five Sweet 16s, four Elite 8s, three Final Fours, finished as national runner-up in 1995 and won the NCAA Tournament in 1994.

Anderson was a part of perhaps the greatest run of basketball in Arkansas history as it matched many of the biggest names in the sport in total wins, NCAA Tournament appearances and Final Fours. The Razorbacks won five outright conference championships in his 17 years on the bench, an SEC Western Division title and Arkansas' only SEC Tournament Championship in 2000.

Anderson's coaching career began as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, Tulsa, where he worked with Richardson for three years before moving to Arkansas. His teams were 69-22 (.758) in those three seasons and earned two NCAA Tournament berths.

He played two seasons for Tulsa after transferring to the Golden Hurricane program from Jefferson (Ala.) Junior College. A two-year starter, Anderson averaged 12 points per game. His hard-nosed play helped Tulsa win the NIT Championship in 1981 and make the NCAA Tournament in 1982. He earned his degree in Education in the spring of '82 from Tulsa.

Born in Birmingham, Ala., Anderson was an all-state and all-city guard at Jackson Olin High School. He averaged 19 points as a senior and took his team to the state semifinals as a junior.

Anderson and his wife Marcheita have three children; Darcheita (husband Keith), Michael Jr., and Yvonne and four grandchildren, Aiyanna, Mikayla, Laila and Anderson Keith. Michael Jr., played for his father at Missouri and Yvonne was the Missouri High School Player of the Year in 2008.

Television/Radio Notes

Important things to know regarding the 2012-13 Arkansas Razorback Basketball Team

- Mike Anderson's coaching strategy is called "The Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball." It is derived from his mentor and former Razorback Coach Nolan Richardson's "40 Minutes of Hell."

- There are eight players on Arkansas' roster that could see action in today's game that had never donned a Razorback uniform before Nov. 9.

- Marshawn Powell became the 35th person in Arkansas history to score 1,000 points in his career against Alabama A&M on Dec. 22, and now ranks 27th on Arkansas' all-time scoring list. He is one of just five Razorback players in school history to score at least 1,000 points, grab at least 450 rebounds, dish 100 assists and block 75 or more shots. Other former players to accomplish that task are Todd Day, Scott Hastings, Ron Huery, and Corliss Williamson.

- Arkansas upset No. 2 Florida, 80-69, at Bud Walton Arena on Feb. 5, using solid defense and timely shooting to upend the Gators who had not lost in over a month. The win was Arkansas' fourth against a ranked team since Mike Anderson became the head coach before the 2011-12 season.

- The Razorbacks concluded their non-conference schedule at 9-4 which included a brutal stretch of games against the nation's top teams. Arkansas won its last five non-conference contests and played the likes of Arizona State, No. 24 Wisconsin, No. 6/5 Syracuse, Oklahoma and No. 3/3 Michigan.

- The Razorbacks signed two players during the early signing period. Moses Kingsley, a 6-9 forward from New Albany, Miss., who is now playing at Huntington Prep, was the first to ink his letter of intent. Bobby Portis, a consensus top 25 player nationally was the second and is another 6-9 player. The signing of the two players has Arkansas' recruiting class ranked in the top 15 in the nation.

- Mike Anderson is in his second year as the head coach of the Razorbacks after taking over the program before the 2011-12 season. Anderson was an assistant at Arkansas for 17 years before taking the head coaching job at UAB and eventually Missouri. During his first stint with the program, Anderson was a part of the 1994 National Championship team, 1995 NCAA runner-up squad, three Final Fours, six Sweet 16s, 13 NCAA Tournament bids and six conference championships.

HUNTER MICKELSON #21

Forward • 6-10 • 245 • Sophomore • 1L
Jonesboro, Ark. (Westside HS)

2012-13 Notes: Scored a career high 16 points against Robert Morris, going 7-of-9 from the floor ... grabbed a career best 13 rebounds, 10 on the defensive glass against Northwestern State ... has five double-digit scoring efforts this season and just five in 32 games as a freshman ... started every game this season ... ranks 12th on Arkansas' all-time blocked shots list ... No. 9 shot blocker by ESPN ... CBS New York named him a breakout player ... a Lindy's honor candidate.
