NOTING THE HILLTOPPERS

- WKU is in its 99th season of football and first under head coach Mike Sanford, who became the school's 20th head coach on Dec. 14, 2016.
- When he was hired, Sanford became the youngest head coach in the FBS at 34 years old. Oklahoma's Lincoln Riley is currently the youngest, making Sanford the nation's second-youngest head coach.
- WKU began the FBS transition in 2007 before becoming a full member in 2009. The 2017 season is WKU's ninth as a full FBS member.
- Since 2010, the Hilltoppers have had remarkable consistency at the quarterback position with just three opening day starters over those seven seasons - Kawaun Jakes (2010-12), Brandon Doughty (2013-15), and Mike White (2016-17). More on Page 12
- After going 4-32 from 2008-10, WKU has boasted winning seasons each of the last six years - the longest string of consecutive winning seasons in Conference USA and the sixth-longest active streak among all Group of Five programs.
- Entering 2017, WKU has reached bowl eligibility in seven consecutive seasons. It is the longest streak of bowl eligibility in Conference USA.
- WKU graduated three All-Conference USA performers on the offensive line, including second round pick Forrest Lamp at left tackle. However, WKU's offensive front returns a combined total of 144 games of experience across the expected starting five. More on Page 13
- Offensively, the Hilltoppers are one of two teams in the nation to have at least eight receivers catch a pass in every game this season. Washington State is the other.
- On the year, 22 players have seen their first career start on The Hill, a mark which ranks fourth nationally, behind Illinois (27), Baylor (25), Ball State (23) and Utah State (23). More on Page 12
- WKU's move to a 4-2-5 defense has paid off so far in 2017. Removing a pick-six allowed by the offense at Illinois, the Hilltopper defense has allowed just 175 points through eight games, the fewest through eight since 2007 (169 points). The 2,952 total yards allowed are the fewest since 2013. Clayton White's crew also averages 4.63 three-and-outs per game, the 20th best mark nationally or 37 percent of drives.

NOTING THE GAME

- The Hilltoppers step out of conference play for the final time in 2017, looking to go better than .500 against non-conference foes in the regular season for the first time since 2014 when the Hilltoppers posted a 3-1 regular season mark vs. non-conference opponents (2-2 in 2015 and 2016).
- Saturday's game concludes a three-game series with the Commodores and serves as the rubber game in the series as the visitor has won the match-up the previous two times.
- Head coaches Mike Sanford and Derek Mason are no strangers after they each worked under David Shaw at Stanford from 2011-13. The two were also neighbors during their time together in Palo Alto.
- Legendary Vanderbilt head coach Dan McGugin - namesake of Vanderbilt's athletic administration building - would ride the train from Nashville to Bowling Green three days a week to coach the very first football squad at Southern Normal School, now WKU, in 1905.
- Since 2012, the Hilltoppers are 19-9 against non-conference opponents including a 16-1 mark against opponents from outside the Power 5 conferences.

Taylor's TD grab was the 33rd of his career, tied for fifth all time in Conference-USA history.

5-3/First Year 5-3 Overall/First Year

Mike Sanford, one of college football's brightest offensive minds and a former Hilltopper assistant, was named the 20th head football coach at Western Kentucky University on December 14.

Sanford, a 12-year college coaching veteran who coached quarterbacks on The Hill in 2010, returned to WKU following six seasons of success and achievement at Stanford, Boise State and, most recently, Notre Dame.

Since taking over the reins of the program in December 2016, Sanford's mark on the program both internally and externally has been evident from the beginning. Pushed by a program he calls "The Pursuit," Hilltopper student-athletes and coaches are actively pursuing his five chief program initiatives on a day-to-day basis from the moment they wake up to the minute they go to sleep, including the pursuit of academic success and community involvement.

The Pursuit's 5 Goals

- Graduate every player.
- Serve our community relentlessly
- Win the C-USA Championship
- Defeat a Power 5 team annually
- Win a New Year's 6 bowl game

In his first spring on The Hill, Sanford's Hilltoppers increased their community service commitment by more than 500 percent over the previous semester with weekly opportunities for WKU football players to go out into the Bowling Green and greater Warren County community.

Academic achievement was also sustained as 75 Hilltoppers saw their grade point average rise in the spring and 39 players posted a 3.0 semester GPA or higher, nearly half of the available roster this past spring.

A former quarterback at Boise State (2000-04), Sanford holds coaching experience from three Fiesta Bowls and two Rose Bowls, along with playing experience in the Humanitarian, Fort Worth and Liberty Bowls.

With accomplishments at every level, Sanford spent the previous two seasons as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Notre Dame where he tutored Fighting Irish quarterback Deshaun Kizer to stellar performances while in South Bend.

The Fighting Irish averaged 466.4 yards of total offense per game in 2015, the third-most in program history and the most since 2005, to go along with a near-record 34.2 points per game that season - three points shy of the program record. The year was capped by Sanford's fifth-consecutive appearance in a New Year's Six or BCS Bowl Game, the 2016 BattleFrog Fiesta Bowl against Ohio State.

Prior to Notre Dame, Sanford spent one season at his alma mater, Boise State, in 2014, where he guided a Broncos offense that was one of just five FBS schools to rank among the top 30 nationally in all four major offensive statistical categories (scoring, total offense, passing offense and rushing offense). The Broncos went 12-2 that year, won a Mountain West Conference championship and defeated Pac-12 South champion Arizona in the Vizio Fiesta Bowl.

Everywhere Sanford has been, great players have followed. He helped bring in top 15 recruiting classes each of his two seasons at Notre Dame, the top-rated class in the Mountain West during his season at Boise State, and back-to-back top 20 national recruiting classes - including a top-five class in 2012 - each of his final two seasons at Stanford while serving as the program's recruiting coordinator.

During his second stop in Palo Alto, Sanford helped the Cardinal capture Pac-12 Championships and Rose Bowl appearances in both 2012 and 2013, as well as a Fiesta Bowl trip to cap the 2011 season.

Sanford spent the 2010 season at WKU on Willie Taggart's first coaching staff as the passing game coordinator/quarterbacks coach after one year at Yale - his first full-time coaching position - where he coached the tight ends, fullbacks and served as recruiting coordinator in 2009.

A father of three, Peyton, Gunnar, and Griffin, Sanford is married to the former Anne-Marie Mitchell. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Boise State in 2005.

THE MIKE SANFORD ERA BEGINS

The Mike Sanford era of WKU Football began in 2017. The nation's second-youngest head coach, Sanford's youth is deceptive. When he was hired on December 14, Sanford was in fact more experienced at that point in his coaching career than either of WKU's previous two "first-timers" in Jeff Brohm and Willie Taggart, now active head coaches at Purdue and Oregon, respectively.

SANFORD'S COACHING TREE

Coached by Chris Petersen at Boise State under head coach Dirk Koetter, Mike Sanford's first head coaching job comes after the mentorship of some of the nation's top football minds.

As a player at Boise State: Dirk Koetter, Chris Petersen, Dan Hawkins, Mark Helfrich

As a coach: Pep Hamilton (Stanford), Jim Harbaugh (Stanford), Bryan Harsin (Boise State), Brian Kelly (Notre Dame), Derek Mason (Stanford), Brian Polian (Stanford), Scott Shafer (Stanford), David Shaw (Stanford), Willie Taggart (Stanford/WKU),

RAISING THE W

Each week during the 2017 season, Coach Sanford has encouraged Hilltopper fans to "Raise the W" to signify the start of game week. WKU has brought back the varsity "W" which first appeared on the lettermen jacket as early as 1929. The coaching staff will select a member of the team each week after a victory to hoist the "W" flag to start that week of game preparation, known affectionately as the "Towel Raiser" as that game's MVP.

2017 NOTEBOOK

TOP OF HIS CLASS

Mike Sanford is one of 24 new head coaches at their respective schools this fall, including two interim head coaches (Coastal Carolina, Ole Miss). Of those 24, Sanford was one of only 12 to win his program debut and one of only four rookie head coaches overall (out of 10) to come away from Week 1 undefeated as a head coach.

ROOKIE HEAD COACHES FOR 2017

Coch	School	Week 1 Result
Justin Wilcox	California	W, 35-30 vs. North Carolina
Shawn Elliott	Georgia State	L, 10-17 vs. Tennessee State
Major Applewhite	Houston	DNP
Tom Allen	Indiana	L, 21-49 vs. Ohio State
Jay Norvell	Nevada	L, 20-31 vs. Northwestern
Lincoln Riley	Oklahoma	W, 56-7 vs. UTEP
Matt Luke (interim)	Ole Miss	W, 47-27 vs. South Alabama
Brent Brennan	San Jose State	L, 22-42 vs. South Florida
Geoff Collins	Temple	L, 16-49 vs. Notre Dame
Mike Sanford	WKU	W, 31-17 vs. Eastern Kentucky

Through eight games, Sanford's 5-3 mark is surpassed by only Charlie Strong (7-1, USF) and Lincoln Riley (7-1, Oklahoma) among first-year head coaches. In the group of rookie head coaches, only Riley's mark is better.

SEASON-LONG HELMET STICKERS

WKU will wear a pair of helmet stickers this season, honoring two former Hilltoppers who passed away during the offseason: former assistant coach Butch Gilbert and former tight end Mitchell Henry.

On coach Butch Gilbert who passed away at 87 in February:

After an outstanding career in the area high school coaching ranks, Butch Gilbert returned to his alma mater as an assistant on head coach Jimmy Feix' staff in 1969. He spent 15 seasons with Feix, a former teammate of his on The Hill, coaching the WKU offensive line. In 1973, he was promoted to assistant head coach and offensive coordinator, a position he held through 1983. He was a fixture on the Hilltopper football scene for large parts of eight decades -- as a player in the late 1940s and early 1950s; a coach in the late 1960s, the 1970s, the 1980s and the early 1990s; and as a treasured asset the rest of his life.

Gilbert regularly passed out butterscotch candies to players and coaches during his visits to practice, which WKU commemorates with a wrapped candy as a helmet sticker.

On Mitchell Henry who passed away at 24 in June:

Mitchell Henry, a star at Elizabethtown High School during his prep days, was a standout tight end for the Hilltoppers from 2011-14 and was an integral part of WKU's rise up the FBS ranks. During Henry's time on The Hill, the Hilltoppers secured their first winning season at the FBS level (2011), first FBS bowl appearance (2012) and first FBS bowl wins (2014). Following his career on The Hill, Henry signed free agent deals with the Green Bay Packers, the Denver Broncos, and the Baltimore Ravens. He lost his courageous battle with acute myeloid leukemia in June.

To commemorate Henry, WKU has an "MH" sticker on the helmet.

2017 RULE CHANGES

The NCAA football rules committee recommended a very small number of changes for the 2017 season, and these were approved earlier this year by the Playing Rules Oversight Panel (PROP). Because 2017 is the "off year" for changes, the committee was limited to making rules that directly impact the safety of the players. Here are the 2017 major rule changes as summarized by Rogers Redding:

Horse Collar Tackle

The nameplate area of the jersey is added to the inside collar of the shoulder pad and jersey as places where it is illegal for a tackler to grab a ball carrier and immediately pull him to the ground. The committee recognizes that on occasion a tackler grabs the nameplate area and jerks the ball carrier down, with the same effect as if his grip was on the collar.

Leaping and Hurdling

No defensive player who runs forward from beyond the neutral zone may leap or hurdle in an obvious attempt to block a field goal or try. Before this change, a player committed a foul only if he landed on another player. This year, the committee took note of some players being injured in making these moves when trying to block a place kick, so the change is an attempt to take this leaping and hurdling action out of the game.

2018 Rule Change - Knee Pads

Beginning in 2018, players' pants must have knee pads such that the pants and the pads cover the knees. Previously, the rules recommended that the knees be covered, but this was not required. The committee is delaying implementation of the mandate until 2018 because a number of schools have already bought equipment for the year. There is great concern throughout the football world about the tendency for some players to wear "biker's shorts" that only come to within several inches of the knee. This is a safety issue as well as one that does not present a good look for the game.

2017 TEAM CAPTAINS

WKU's season-long team captains were voted on at the end of fall camp, entirely by the players. Under head coach Mike Sanford, the team has one offensive captain, one defensive captain, one "trenches" captain (from either offensive or defensive line) and a rotating special teams captain.

Offensive Captain: QB Mike White | Defensive Captain: LB Joel Iyiegboniwe | Trenches Captain: DL Derik Overstreet

1,000 YARD FACTORY

Since Bobby Rainey first roamed the Hilltopper backfield, WKU has been a factory for 1,000-yard rushers, and in 2016, Anthony Wales tallied his second-straight 1,000-yard rushing season en route to shattering WKU's single-season record for rushing touchdowns. From 2010-2014, WKU had a running back hit the 1,500-yard barrier, becoming just the second program in FBS history to have such a streak (Northern Illinois, 2002-06).

Between Rainey (2010) and Wales (2017), WKU has boasted a 1,000-yard back each season, the second-longest active streak in the nation behind only Auburn and Boise State. Head coach Mike Sanford contributed to the Broncos' active streak in 2014 with Jay Ajayi tallying 1,800 yards on the ground.

AGAINST SEC OPPONENTS

Since their first full season in the FBS (2009), the Hilltoppers have played at an SEC foe nine times and 12 times overall. The Hilltoppers are 3-9 overall against the SEC with two victories coming in SEC stadiums (at Kentucky, 2012; at Vanderbilt, 2015) and one at a neutral site (Nissan Stadium vs. Kentucky, 2013).

TOUGH OUT OF CONFERENCE

After going 0-12 against non-conference foes in their first three years as an FBS team (2009-11), WKU has turned it around and has been on a hot streak against teams from outside their conference.

Since 2012, the Hilltoppers are 19-9 against non-conference opponents with their only losses coming at Illinois (2017), at No. 1 Alabama and vs. Vanderbilt (2016), at Indiana and No. 5 LSU (2015), at Illinois (2014), at Tennessee (2013), at No. 1 Alabama (2012) and vs. Central Michigan in the 2012 Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl. WKU is 16-1 over that same span against teams from outside the Power 5 conferences.

A COMPLETE PERFORMANCE AGAINST CHARLOTTE

WKU founds its offensive rhythm in a big way against Charlotte as the Hilltoppers churned out 627 yards of total offense, including 506 yards through the air, both season-highs by far. It was arguably the most complete performance this season by the team, just six games in to the installation of new offensive and defensive schemes.

Other marks of note included:

- Mike White's monster day (398 passing yards, 5 TDs, 1 rush TD) can stand by itself, but he's the only quarterback in the FBS this season to hit those marks while also completing 70-percent of his passes in a victory.
- The 398 yards are the second-most by a Conference USA passer this season and the most by a C-USA quarterback in a conference game.
- As a team, WKU's 506 yards passing were the fifth-most in a single game in school history.
- WKU ran 92 plays in the game, the eighth-most in a single game in school history.
- The 22 first downs via the pass tied for the second-most in a game in school history while the 34 first downs overall tied for fourth-most in a game in school history.

THE GROUP OF FIVE...GROUP OF FIVE

WKU is one of five "Group of Five" programs to win seven or more games in six consecutive seasons - the longest active streak in Conference USA. Over that span, no one in C-USA has won more games than WKU.

TEAM	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017

Arkansas St.	10-3	10-3	8-5	7-6	9-4	8-5	5-2

QUARTERBACK CONSISTENCY

WKU has had remarkable consistency at the starting quarterback position, boasting just three different starters in the opener since 2010. Kawaun Jakes (2010-12), Brandon Doughty (2013-15), and Mike White (2016-17) have provided WKU will a guiding voice at the games most important position at a rate nearly unseen in modern college football.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

For the year, 22 players have earned their first career start as Hilltoppers on offense or defense, the fourth-most nationally, and nine true freshman have seen game action. WKU trails Illinois (27), Baylor (25), Ball State (23) and Utah State (23) for the most first-time starters while Connecticut (21), East Carolina (21), and LSU (21) are the only others with 20 or more first-time starters.

Of that group, only WKU and LSU currently have winning records.

Additionally, nine true freshman have seen game action: Kyle Bailey, Roger Cray, Antwon Kincade, DeAngelo Malone, Jakairi Moses, Ben Reeder, Dionte Ruffin, Jacquez Sloan, and Steven Witchoskey.

ALL-PURPOSE UNIVERSITY

Since WKU's transition to full membership as an FBS team, the Hilltoppers have always found electric playmakers to get the ball to. In the 107 games played since 2009 as full FBS members, the Hilltoppers have had an individual record 100-or-more all purpose yards in 101 games including a stretch of 49 straight from 2010-14.

WKU is one of just nine programs with five or more 2,000 yard all-purpose players in their school's history.

Six: Utah State || Five: LSU, Oregon, Toledo, Tulsa, Northern Illinois, San Jose State, Stanford, WKU

#PROTOPS AT ALL-TIME HIGH

It has become an annual ritual each spring for Hilltoppers to get the opportunity to pursue their NFL dreams. WKU has 10 former Hilltoppers currently in NFL programs on active rosters, injured reserve, or practice squads.

OFFENSIVE FRONT GAME READY

WKU lost three All-Conference USA performers along the offensive front last season, including All-American left tackle and second round NFL Draft pick Forrest Lamp. Cumulatively, Lamp, Max Halpin, and Darrell Williams started 130 games over their four years together on The Hill.

In 2017, WKU will call on a trio of talented, game-tested players to replace them in Jimmie Sims, Miles Pate and Matt Nord. While they may not have the starts, only Pate has appeared in fewer than 28 games over his career. In fact, the projected 2017 starting five has MORE combined games played but far fewer starts, cumulatively, than the vaunted 2016 group at the beginning of the year.

4-2-5 SHIFT COMES AT THE RIGHT TIME

Under new defensive coordinator Clayton White, the Hilltoppers shifted from a 4-3 base defense to a 4-2-5 scheme, utilizing an extra defensive back to help combat some of the high-octane passing offenses found in Conference USA.

That shift came at an ideal time for White and the personnel he has on the roster as WKU returned seven defensive backs with starting experience this season, led by safety Marcus Ward (31 starts) and cornerback Joe Brown (14 starts).

Across the defense, WKU returned 26 lettermen, including starters in Ward, Brown, linebacker Joel Iyiegbuniwe, and defensive linemen Chris Johnson and Derik Overstreet.

THE COMEBACK THAT ALMOST WAS

Trailing Louisiana Tech 49-24 with 8:01 remaining in the third quarter in Week 6 of the 2016 season, the Hilltoppers mounted a furious rally that was a drive away from potentially being the largest comeback in school history before ultimately falling 55-52. WKU's largest rally in program history is 17 points and 14 points in the FBS era, both coming in the final two games of the 2015 season.

Sept. 9, 2017 • Memorial Stadium • Champaign, Ill. • 41,923

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) -- Illinois' young defense held Western Kentucky's high-powered attack in check Saturday and freshman running back Mike Epstein rushed for 111 yards on the way to a 20-7 win.

The Illini (2-0) scored their first touchdown of the night on an interception return, and held the Hilltoppers (1-1) to 244 yards of offense. Western Kentucky didn't score until the fourth quarter. Hilltopper quarterback Mike White averaged 311.6 yards a game last season, but Saturday heavy Illini pressure limited him to 28 of 43 pasing for 238 yards and an interception. He also ran for a score.

Illinois' defense opened the gap on Western Kentucky late in the second quarter with an interception returned for a touchdown. White, trying to throw from his own end zone, was hit hard by defense end Bobby Roundtree. The ball floated to the 10-yard line where linebacker Julian Jones pulled it down and ran to the end zone untouched. What had been a fragile six-point Illinois edge was suddenly 13-0 just before the half.

Illinois followed that up with a crushing 84-yard drive to open the second half. Quarterback Chayce Crouch capped it with a nine-yard run, finishing with a leap into the end zone for a 20-0 lead.

Oct. 7, 2017 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas • 20,418

EL PASO, Texas (AP) -- Mike White threw for 208 yards and ran for two scores to help Western Kentucky edge UTEP 15-14 on Saturday night.

It was the first game back for interim coach Mike Price, who returned to UTEP after Sean Kugler resigned on Sunday in the middle of his fifth season.

The 71-year-old Price went 48-61 at UTEP from 2004-12. He led the Miners to three bowl games, one of only two coaches in program history to achieve the feat.

White scored from the 5-yard line and Western Kentucky (3-2, 1-1 Conference USA) connected on the 2-point conversion. Zack Greenlee threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Kavika Johnson, and ran for a 5-yard score to help UTEP (0-6, 0-2) build a 14-8 halftime lead.

White capped an 80-yard drive with a 1-yard TD run to open the third quarter.

Brady Viles missed three field goals for the Miners, including a 39-yard attempt with about three minutes left.
