2012 Rebel Baseball Media Notes • Games 54-56 • vs. Vanderbilt

GAMES ON REBELVISION:

Fans of Ole Miss baseball who can't make it to Swayze Field can catch all the action live on the subscription based RebelVision or listen to the games online. Both features can be found at www.OleMissSports.com on any home game not carried live on television as a part of the Southeastern Conference's 2012 television package. Certain road games will be carried where an agreement has been reached with the host institution for a video share. Vandy is not allowing a stream share this weekend.

LISTEN TO THE GAMES ONLINE:

Rebel fans who can't make it to the game at Swayze Field have options for catching all the action with Rebel Baseball. In addition to the RebelVision option for video and audio, fans can also download the Ole Miss App for their phone and receive live stats and streaming audio right in the palm of their hand.

HIT STREAKS ON THE LINE:

One Rebel holds a hit streak of more than two games heading into the Thursday night contest against Vanderbilt. Alex Yarbrough holds a six-game hit streak heading into the game against VU.

THEY KEEP REACHING BASE:

Matt Snyder has reached base safely in 11 straight games heading into the Thursday night contest, while Auston Bousfield and Tanner Mathis have reached in eight straight games. Alex Yarbrough (6) and Austin Anderson (3) round out the group who have reached in more than two straight games.

22-GAME HIT STREAK:

Alex Yarbrough held a career long 22-game hit streak this season that was snapped in the series finale against Mississippi State on Sunday. The junior began his hit streak at Alabama on March 23 and it continued until April 29. It was the fourth-longest hit streak in school history and third longest in a single season.

NATIONAL PITCHER OF THE YEAR WATCH:

Sophomore right-hander Bobby Wahl was one of 51 pitchers named to the watch list for National Pitcher of the Year by the College Baseball Hall of Fame earlier this week. Wahl is one of nine Southeastern Conference pitchers named to the list that will be narrowed to a list of finalists in June.

USA BASEBALL NATIONAL TEAM SELECTION:

Wahl also gained recognition from USA Baseball this week when he was selected to compete with the USA Baseball National Collegiate Team. Wahl is one of seven players currently selected to the 22-man roster and is the seventh player selected to compete with the international squad under Mike Bianco. He joins Stephen Head, Seth Smith, Zack Cozart, Lance Lynn, Cody Satterwhite and Drew Pomeranz.

BEST WHEN SCORING FIRST:

Ole Miss has a stark contrast in its record when it comes to which team wins when scoring first. The Rebels are 26-4 this season when scoring first in a game, while Ole Miss is 8-15 this year when the opponent scores first.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME:

The home field has been kind to the Rebels during Bianco's tenure as Ole Miss has posted a 308-116-1 record within the friendly confines of O-U Stadium/Swayze Field for a .726 winning percentage at home.

OLE MISS VS. NON-CONFERENCE FOES UNDER BIANCO:

Ole Miss has posted an impressive non-conference record over the course of the past nine seasons under head coach Mike Bianco. Since Bianco's arrival in Oxford in 2001, the Rebels have posted a 246-89-1 (.734 win percentage) mark in non-conference games. Just a year ago, the Rebels were 17-8 in non-conference games, posting a .654 win percentage. This season, Ole Miss is 20-6 in non-conference games.

121 GAMES:

Junior 2B Alex Yarbrough saw a streak of 121 consecutive stats snapped on Tuesday, March 20, when the infielder did not start against Southern Miss. The Allen, Texas, native has also put together an extensive streak of games played, appearing in 164-of-167 games played by the Rebels in the three-year career of the second baseman.

SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

Senior 1B Matt Snyder became the second Rebel to earn weekly honors from the Southeastern Conference when he was named the Player of the Week on March 12. Snyder hit .692 in week four, leading the Rebels to a perfect week with a win over UT-Martin and a sweep of Houston.

SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK, PART II:

Junior second baseman Alex Yarbrough was named the SEC Co-Player of the Week on April 23, after helping the Rebels post a non-conference win over Mississippi State and a series win over No. 15 Arkansas. Yarbrough hit .615 for the series and .529 for the week to pace the Rebel offense. He also extended his hitting streak to 19 straight games, the sixth longest in school history, and came up with the game-winning hit in a 1-0 win to clinch the series in game two.

SEC PITCHER OF THE WEEK:

Sophomore RHP Bobby Wahl was named the Co-Pitcher of the Week on February 27, after combining for a two-hit shutout of UNC-Wilmington. Wahl worked a career-long 7.0 innings and struck out a career-high nine batters while allowing one hit.

SEC PITCHER OF THE WEEK, AGAIN:

Bobby Wahl earned his second Pitcher of the Week honors from the Southeastern Conference on April 2 after helping the Rebels take the weekend series from No. 1 Florida. Wahl pitched a career-long 8.0 innings and held the Gators scoreless on two hits in the Friday night win. He then returned to action on Sunday, this time as a pinch runner, scoring the game-winning run in the bottom of the ninth. Wahl entered at first for catcher Will Allen and went 1st to 3rd on a single up the middle from Overbey before scoring on a grounder to first from Senquez Golson with the bases loaded.

NCBWA NATIONAL PITCHER OF THE WEEK:

Wahl also earned national recognition for his performance against the top-ranked Florida Gators. The right-hander was named the National Pitcher of the Week by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association on Tuesday, April 3.

GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD WATCH LIST:

A pair of Rebels made the 60-man watch list for the Golden Spikes Award at the midseason. Bobby Wahl and Alex Yarbrough were both named to the list on Tuesday by USA Baseball for their performances this season.

WAHL NAMED TO USA BASEBALL NATIONAL TEAM:

Sophomore right-hander continued an Ole Miss tradition of Mike Bianco players being selected to compete internationally with USA Baseball when he was named to the USA Baseball National Team earlier this season. Wahl is the seventh player in 12 seasons under Mike Bianco to be selected for the team, joining former Rebels Seth Smith, Stephen Head, Zack Cozart, Lance Lynn and Cody Satterwhite in competing with USA Baseball in international play.

REBELS VS. THE SEC:

Ole Miss experienced some success in Southeastern Conference play over the years as Ole Miss is 838-923-11 all time against conference foes. The Rebels hold the lead or are tied against four teams in the league all-time with series leads over Kentucky, Tennessee and Vanderbilt.

SNYDER'S GRAND SLAM TREND:

Senior 1B Matt Snyder has hit four grand slams in his career, Alabama (3/22/09), LSU (4/24/10), vs. St. John's (6/6/10) and at #1 Kentucky (4/7/12). In 3-of-4 games with a grand slam, Snyder has also hit a solo home run in the same game. In his career, Snyder has turned in multiple-home run games six times.

KIRKSEY PRODUCES IN BUNCHES:

Senior OF/DH Zach Kirksey has proven to be a hitter who can produce runs in bunches for the Rebels. Kirksey had his most prolific day at the plate against UT-Martin (3/6) when he drove in seven runs as a part of a two home run night that included a grand slam. The left-handed hitter also drove in five runs for the Rebels earlier this year against Jackson State (2/29) as a part of his 45 RBI to date. So far this season, Kirksey has posted 11 multiple-RBI games and three games driving in five or more runs.

AIN'T IT GRAND?:

Zach Kirksey hit the first grand slam of the season for Ole Miss with his second home run of the night against UT-Martin (3/6) as part of a seven-RBI game. It was the first grand slam for the Rebels since Miles Hamblin hit one at Arkansas State on May 4, 2011. It marked the first grand slam at Swayze Field since Matt Snyder hit one against LSU in game one of a doubleheader on April 24, 2010. So far this season, Kirksey has hit two grand slams, with his second coming at #22 Louisville on March 14.

2012 Rebel Baseball Media Notes • Games 54-56 • vs. Vanderbilt

A RARE FEAT BY GOLSON:

Freshman OF Senquez Golson accomplished a rare feat against UT-Martin (3/6) that won't often be duplicated by many people. The speedy freshman went 0-for-7 at the plate, but scored four runs for the Rebels in the game. The seven at bats was one shy of the school record for at bats in a single game, but Golson reached base on a pair of fielding errors and a pair of fielder's choices before coming around to score on all four times on base.

MATHIS IS DISCIPLINED AT THE PLATE:

Junior OF Tanner Mathis has continued his trend of being disciplined at the plate this season. Through 52 games, the junior has struck out only 15 times and has drawn 33 walks and been hit by a pitch. As a sophomore, Mathis struck out 10 times through 216 at bats and drew 15 walks and five HBP on the season.

TAKE A HIKE:

Ole Miss put together a disciplined performance at the plate against Jackson State in the first meeting between the two teams. The Rebels drew 13 walks, three off the school record of 16, and were paced by a three walk night from freshman Sikes Orvis.

DOUBLE DIGIT STRIKEOUT GAMES:

The Ole Miss pitching staff displayed its ability on the mound in Sunday's game against the 10th-ranked Horned Frogs. Ole Miss pitchers combined to fan 12 batters in that game for the first double-digit strikeout performance of the season. Ole Miss now has 17 double strikeout performances.

BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS:

Ole Miss posted back-to-back shutouts in 2012 with a pair of wins over Houston in the first two games of the weekend series. The Rebels shutout Houston 8-0 on Friday night before blanking the Cougars 9-0 on Saturday. It marked the first back-to-back shutouts for Ole Miss since a pair of shutouts against Jackson State and Alabama on March 15 and 18 of 2011. It was the first time the Rebels had shutout a team in back-to-back games in a weekend series since shutting out Lipscomb on Friday and Saturday of the 2011 series.

TWO-HIT GAME:

In that series opener against the Seahawks, the Rebel pitching staff combined to hold UNC-Wilmington to two hits for the game. It marked the first time the Rebel pitching staff had held a team to two hits since holding Kentucky to two hits on March 19, 2010. The last time the Rebels held a team to one hit was Memphis on March 5, 2002 when five pitchers combined for the feat. Russ Johnson threw the last no-hitter for Ole Miss in 1966 against Mississippi State.

Ole Miss posted its second two-hit performance of the season against Arkansas in a 1-0 win over the Razorbacks to clinch the weekend series in game two on Saturday, April 21.

SERIES SWEEP:

Ole Miss posted its first series sweep of 2012 against the Seahawks of UNC-Wilmington. The Rebels posted wins of 2-0, 6-4 and 10-5 to accomplish the sweep. The last time the Rebels swept an opponent prior to that was a sweep of Kentucky the weekend of April 15-17, 2011.

The Rebels have posted three series sweeps so far this season, sweeping UNC-Wilmington, Houston and Tennessee.

HUBER CHASING SAVES RECORD:

Junior RHP Brett Huber has seven saves this season and is chasing the career saves record at Ole Miss. Currently, the closer holds 25 career saves and sits at second all-time on the career list. He is one off the all-time leader Stephen Head.

Career Saves List:

Player	Saves

TOP-RANKED TERROR:

Oxford-University Stadium hasn't been a kind place to the nation's top-ranked team under head coach Mike Bianco in recent years. The Rebels have faced the nation's top team three times in the last four seasons and walked away with the series win all three times - vs. #1 Georgia in 2009, vs. #1 South Carolina last season and vs. #1 Florida this year.

In fact, it's been a tough place for top 10 teams to play over the last 10 seasons. Dating back to 2003, the Rebels have hosted a top 10 team in a regular season series 15 times, walking away with the series win 11 of those 15 times.

REBELS ON THE ROAD:

Ole Miss posted a close to .500 record on the road in 12 years under head coach Mike Bianco. The Rebels are 120-122 in road contests under Bianco for a .496 winning percentage in games played on an opponent's field.

GROWING INTO ROLES:

While all three members of the starting rotation saw action last year in critical moments, the trio will have some growing to do for the 2012 season - at least when looked at on paper. The trio combined for three starts a year ago as all of them served primarily in relief roles in 2011. Together, the weekend starters worked 78.1 innings last year, but only saw 12.0 innings in a starting capacity.

NEWCOMERS ABOUND:

The Rebels welcomed an extensive group of newcomers to the squad for the 2012 season with 18 new players on the Ole Miss squad. That crop of newcomers includes 12 freshmen and six junior college transfers.

RECRUITING CLASS AMONG NATION'S BEST:

The incoming recruiting class for the Rebels was among the nation's best, having been ranked in the top five by both Collegiate Baseball (3rd) and Baseball America (5th). It's the highest ranked recruiting class for head coach Mike Bianco at Ole Miss.

2012 Rebel Baseball Media Notes • Games 54-56 • vs. Vanderbilt

EARLY DEBUTS:

Many of the new faces on the Rebel baseball squad have made their debuts early in the season. Through three contests, Ole Miss has seen 13 newcomers take the field. Five Rebels made their debut in the season opener at #10 TCU on February 17. Eight more Rebels made their first appearance for the Red and Blue against Arkansas State on February 21.

THROUGH 49 GAMES IN 2011:

Through 49 games a year ago, the Rebels held a record of 27-17. Through those games, the Rebels held a batting average of .281 and had tallied 41 home runs with 247 RBI. Ole Miss was 42-of-56 in steal attempts and fielding at a .968 clip. The Rebel pitching staff held 4.27 ERA with five shutouts and had posted 354 strikeouts to only 156 walks.

SURGING ATTENDANCE:

Rebel baseball continues to be one of the top draws for the sport on the collegiate level as the Rebels ranked second nationally in average attendance a year ago. It marked the fifth straight season for Ole Miss to finish in the top 5 nationally for attendance and the seventh consecutive season in the top 10 for the Rebels.

Currently, the Rebels are third in the nation in total attendance with 289,099 fans at O-U Stadium through 33 home games. The Rebels are third in average attendance with 7,471 fans per game at the park. All of the top five attendance leaders are in the Southeastern Conference and four are in the West.

Top 10 Crowds:

Opponent (Date)	Attendance

REBELS IN SEASON OPENERS UNDER BIANCO:

Ole Miss has been successful in season openers under head coach Mike Bianco, posting a 11-1 record in his 12 seasons.

REBELS IN OPENING SERIES UNDER BIANCO:

Likewise, the Rebels have been successful in season opening series under Mike Bianco. Ole Miss has won the season-opening series nine times under Bianco. In 2005, Ole Miss opened the season with a single mid-week game, while the Rebels opened the 2009 season in a tournament at South Alabama. This season, Ole Miss split a rain shortened series at

No. 10 TCU to open the season. The Rebels won the first game 7-4, but dropped the Sunday game 5-3.

CONTINUED RENOVATIONS:

As Ole Miss baseball continues to rise in popularity, the renovations that occur at O-U Stadium continue as well. Following the 2009 season, the Rebels expanded the right field terrace where the students sit for home games to accommodate more fans. Added to the area were additional terraces, grills and seating areas for fans to enjoy Rebel Baseball. Following the 2010 season, the Rebels installed a new HD video board to enhance the game day experience for fans at Swayze Field.

REBELS IN THE 2011 MLB DRAFT:

Ole Miss saw six players selected over the three days of the Major League Baseball Draft in 2011, including three pitchers, two position players and a two-way player in Matt Tracy who pitched and played in the outfield.

Player	Rnd	Organization
D. Goforth	7th	Milwaukee
A. Wright	8th	Philadelphia
M. Hamblin	12th	Houston

#22 Ole Miss 7, #10 TCU 4
Feb. 27, 2012 • Ft. Worth, Texas

Lupton Stadium

Yarbrough

FORT WORTH, Texas — Alex Yarbrough went 2-or-5 with a home run and three RBI to help the Rebel offense to a big win on Friday night as No. 22 Ole Miss (1-0) defeated No. 10 TCU (0-1) in the first game of a three-game series.

Bobby Wahl (1-0) picked up the win in his first start as a part of the weekend rotation, allowing two runs — both earned — on five hits with two walks and two strikeouts in 5.0 innings of work.

Brett Huber picked up his first save of the season, closing out the ninth with a walk and two strikeouts while holding the Horned Frogs hitless.

Andrew Mitchell (0-1) suffered the loss for TCU, allowing four runs — three earned — on six hits in 6.0 innings of work. He struck out four and did not allow a walk on the night.

Ole Miss struck first, scoring a single run in the third when Austin Bousfield grounded out to second with the bases loaded scored Blake Newalu. The Rebels loaded the bases with back-to-back singles from Preston Overbey and Newalu before a Will Jamison bunt single put three men on base. The Horned Frogs got the first out before the Newalu score on the Bousfield grounder.

TCU pushed two runs across in the bottom half of the inning to take the lead for the first time on the night. With two men on base and one out following a lead-off walk and a hit batter, Kyle Von Tungeln singled to score Dave Wright and leave men at the corners. A sac fly to center from Jason Coats brought in the second run as the Horned Frogs went up 2-1. A grounder to third with men at second and third a batter later got the Rebels out of the inning trailing by one run.

The Rebels evened things up at two in the fourth when Will Allen scored on a throwing error from the second baseman as he tried to turn a double play. Allen, who had reached with a single and moved to second when Mistone was hit by a pitch, moved to third on the grounder to short from Overbey, and scored when the throw to first from the second baseman was in the dirt and got away from the Horned Frog first baseman.

The Rebels then moved back in front in the fifth inning when Yarbrough got the first home run of the season for Ole Miss, scoring Jamison on the shot to right. Jamison reached on a lead-off single before moving to third on back-to-back groundouts. The home run from Yarbrough gave Ole Miss a 4-2 lead.

Ole Miss extended the lead in the seventh with back-to-back RBI singles with two out. With Bousfield at first, Yarbrough hit a shallow shot to left center that fell in between three converging outfielders, allowing the freshman to score. Yarbrough moved to second on the throw home as TCU attempted to throw out Bousfield. Matt Snyder singled to right in the next at bat to drive in Yarbrough and give the Rebels the 6-2 lead.

TCU cut into the lead in the home half of the seventh, using a lead-off double and a wild pitch to put Wright at third base. A double off the wall in right from Keaton Jones brought home Wright and cut the lead to three.

With two outs on the board and a man on third, Coats took a full count pitch back up the middle to drive in a second run in the inning and trim the Rebel lead to two at 6-4. Ole Miss then turned to the bullpen for the second time, sending freshman Sam Smith to the mound to replace reliever Dylan Chavez.

Mistone pushed the lead back out to three runs for the Rebels in the eighth inning, belting a home run down the left field line to make it 7-4 in favor of Ole Miss.

Mathis

FORT WORTH, Texas — Tanner Mathis went 3-for-4 with an RBI and the Rebels strung together a fifth-inning rally to tie the game, but couldn't grab the lead as No. 22 Ole Miss (1-1) fell to No. 10 TCU (1-1) by a score of 5-3 on Sunday.

The two teams split the weekend series after Ole Miss won the opening game 7-4 on Friday night and Saturday's game was cancelled due to inclement weather in the area.

Mike Mayers (0-1) suffered the loss in relief despite striking out eight batters in 4.0 innings of work. Mayers allowed two runs on one hit with two walks after entering the game to start off the bottom of the fifth in relief of starter R.J. Hively.

Preston Morrison (1-0) picked up the win in relief, working 3.1 innings of relief with two strikeouts while holding the Rebels hitless in his time on the mound.

"It was almost a mirror image of Friday night's game," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "They got the clutch double and we didn't make the plays we needed to make in the first inning. The first inning just got away from us. Both teams pitched well today. We competed really well against a very good baseball team this weekend."

TCU got things started in the first, using a liner to right center and back-to-back bunt singles to load the bases with no outs. Ole Miss got a strikeout on the next at bat, before TCU would plate two runs on a ground out and a throwing error in an attempt to turn a double play. Hively then coaxed a grounder out of Brett Johnson to end the inning down 2-0.

The Rebels escaped a jam in the third inning when Hively struck out Johnson looking to end a bases loaded scenario for the Horned Frogs.

TCU pushed the lead out to three in the fourth inning when a double and a triple from Rivera and Von Tungeln pushed a run home. The Rebels got out of the inning a batter later when Jason Coats flew out to the wall in center, leaving TCU on top 3-0.

Ole Miss mounted a rally in the third, putting two men on with two outs before Yarbrough ripped a single down the first base line to drive in Zach Kirksey. TCU went to its bullpen or Brandon Finnegan, who then gave up back-to-back singles to Matt Snyder and Tanner Mathis as the Rebels tied the score at three.

The back-to-back RBI singles sent the Horned Frogs to the bullpen again for right-hander Preston Morrison. Morrison then won a hard-fought at bat with Will Allen who saw nine pitches before TCU would get out of the inning.

TCU got two of the runs back in the home half of the fifth, using a double off the wall in right with two outs to drive in two runs. Mike Mayers, who had come in to relieve Hively to start the fifth, got two quick outs before putting two men on base to set up the two-RBI hit from Michael Resnick. TCU led 5-3 after five complete.

The Rebels could not mount another rally from there as the home standing Horned Frogs closed out the game to split the weekend series.

Kirksey

OXFORD, Miss. — The Rebels opened play at home in style on Tuesday, using a Zach Kirksey home run and a solid combined outing from the pitching staff to push No. 20 Ole Miss (2-1) to an 8-1 win over Arkansas State (0-3) at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Kirksey led a prolific offense at the plate against the Red Wolves as the senior went belted out a three-run home run, drew a walk and was hit by a pitch on his way to driving in three runs and scoring twice as part of an unusual 1-for-1 day at the plate.

Eight Rebels made their debut on Tuesday afternoon, including a 2-for-4 performance from freshman outfielder Senquez Golsen.

Freshman right-hander Sam Smith (1-0) picked up the win in his first start, working 4.0 innings and allowing one run on three hits with a walk and a strikeout. Three other freshmen saw their first action of the season as Josh Laxer, Chris Ellis and Casey Mulholland all combined with junior Blair Wright to shut out Arkansas State down the stretch.

Senior right-hander Cory Kyle (0-1) suffered the loss for Arkansas State, allowing four runs on seven hits with two walks and two strikeouts in 3.1 innings of work.

Arkansas State got on the board first, pushing a single run across the plate in the first inning. Kaleb Brown doubled with one out on the board, before coming home to score a batter later when Zach George hit a single to center. The Rebels' Smith settled in from there, getting a strikeout and a ground out in the next two batters to get out of the inning with Ole Miss only trailing by one.

Smith allowed only one hit and two base runners over the course of the next 13 batters faced following the RBI single in the first. The freshman left the game after four innings of work due to a predetermined start by the coaching staff.

Ole Miss answered the Red Wolves in the third inning, using a groundout to second from Alex Yarbrough to score Tanner Mathis. Mathis reached on a double before moving to third on a wild pitch to set up the score on the Yarbrough grounder and get Ole Miss on the board.

The Rebels took the lead for good in the fourth when Kirksey came up with his three-run shot to right field that put Ole Miss on top 4-1. Following a lead-off single from Will Allen and a double from Preston Overbey, Kirksey crushed a ball that sailed into the student section in right field that drove in three runs and put the Rebels in control of the game.

Ole Miss continued to build on the lead in the fifth inning, loading the bases with one out before Blake Newalu laced a double down the left field line that scored Matt Snyder and Allen and left men at second and third. Kirksey, who was on third, scored on a wild pitch in the next at bat as Newalu moved to third give the Rebels a six run lead. Golsen then came up with a double down the left field line to score Newalu and give Ole Miss the 8-1 advantage.

Ole Miss held to that margin the rest of the way, limiting the Red Wolves to two hits and only three base runners over the final four innings on the way to the win.

Wahl

OXFORD, Miss. — Bobby Wahl turned in a career day as he worked 7.0 innings of scoreless ball, holding the Seahawks to one hit and striking out nine batters as No. 20 Ole Miss (3-1) defeated UNC-Wilmington (2-3) by a score of 2-0 on Friday.

Wahl (2-0) picked up the win in the series opener tuning in a career-high in both innings pitched and strikeouts. He walked only two and allowed only one hit in his time on the mound. Brett Huber picked up his second save of the season and moved into a tie with Scott Bittle on the career save list with 18 saves in his time as a Rebel.

Mat Batts (0-1) suffered the loss for the Seahawks, allowing two runs on seven hits with two walks and seven strikeouts in 7.0 innings of work. Only one of the two runs was earned.

"Bobby (Wahl) was tremendous and pitched much more like we think he is capable of pitching week in and week out," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "He was aggressive in the zone. He felt comfortable out there and really settled in."

"You have to credit UNC-Wilmington because while the only had two hits there were times where they did things with base running that gave them the chance to score," Bianco said. "Offensively, numbers-wise it wasn't a great day for us. We didn't have timely hits with runners in scoring position. Their pitcher did a great job like he did last week for them. He is a tough left-hander who located balls very well. I thought we had some good at bats."

It looked like it might be a day with lots of offense early as both teams threatened in early innings only to have the pitching staffs for both squads settle in and limit the chances for each offense.

Ole Miss struck first, pushing a single run across the plate in the third inning when Alex Yarbrough came up with a single to shallow center that scored Tanner Mathis from second. Mathis reached on a single up the middle two batters earlier and stole second to set up the score on the Yarbrough hit.

The one run would have gotten the job done for the Rebels, who rode solid pitching performances from Wahl, Dylan Chavez and Huber all day. The trio of hurlers allowed only two hits on the afternoon and combined for 11 strikeouts and only two walks as Ole Miss limited thwarted the Seahawks with pitching and solid defense.

The Rebels got an insurance run in the seventh inning, pushing the lead to the final margin of victory of 2-0 on a single to right from Auston Bousfield. Tanner Mathis scored on the play for his second run of the day. Mathis reached on an error at second that went through the legs of the fielder and into right field. The Rebel lead-off hitter kept running on the play, advancing to second and sliding in safely ahead of the throw from right to set up the score on the Bousfield single.

Chavez and Huber then worked a scoreless eighth and ninth to give the Rebels the win in the series opener.

Huber

OXFORD, Miss. — An early offensive outburst and solid pitching down the stretch from the bullpen proved to be the difference on Saturday as No. 20 Ole Miss (4-1) claimed the weekend series with a 6-4 win over UNC-Wilmington (2-4) at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

With the lead cut to one at 5-4 in the sixth inning, Casey Mulholland got a groundout to keep the Rebels in front of the visiting Seahawks and send things to the home half of the inning. Auston Bousfield then sent a full count pitch to the wall in left center to score Senquez Golson and extend the Rebel lead back out to two.

Mulholland, Dylan Chavez and Brett Huber then closed out the final 3.0 innings of the game to give the Rebels the series with the 6-4 win over UNC-Wilmington. It was the third save of the season for Huber and second of the weekend, moving the junior right-hander into sole possession of third place on the career save list at Ole Miss with 19 and passing Scott Bittle.

Starter R.J. Hively (1-0) picked up his first win of the season as he worked 5.2 innings and allowed four runs, three earned, on six hits. Hively walked only one batter, while posting a career-high nine strikeouts in the outing.

Bousfield was one of three Rebels to post multiple hits on the afternoon, going 3-for-4 with an RBI and a run scored. Matt Snyder also posted a 3-for-4 performance with three RBI, while freshman Golson went 2-for-2 with two runs scored and was hit by a pitch to reach base safely three times on the afternoon.

Ole Miss struck first, pushing three runs across the plate in the first inning when Snyder came up with a bases loaded double to score Tanner Mathis, Bousfield an Alex Yarbrough. A walk, a single and a walk put all three batters on base to open the game before the Snyder hit.

Yarbrough added to the Rebel lead in the second inning with a two-RBI single to right field that scored Golson and Mathis. Golson was hit by a pitch to reach before a walk of Mathis put two men on. A double steal moved both runners into scoring position for the Yarbrough hit that gave the Rebels the 5-0 lead.

UNC-Wilmington responded in the fifth inning, when Matt Campbell scored from second on a single to right from Jake Koenig. Campbell reached on a single to left and took second on an errant throw that sailed wide of the second baseman on the relay back to the infield. Campbell then scored two batters later when Koenig came up with the single through the right side to make the score 5-1.

The Seahawks cut into the lead more in the sixth inning, plating three runs to trim the score to one run in favor of the Rebels. Following back-to-back strikeouts to open the inning, Wilmington got a single from Hunter Ridge and a triple from Thomas Pope to push the first run home. Pope then scored on a wild pitch before Campbell reached on a walk and Ole Miss went to the bullpen for Mulholland.

Mulholland gave up a double to center from Corey Dick that scored Campbell from third before the freshman right hander would get the Rebels out of the inning on a grounder to short from Koenig with the Rebels up 5-4.

Bousfield then came up with his RBI double in the sixth to push the lead back out to two runs and the Rebel pitching staff closed things out from there for the series win.

Ellis

OXFORD, Miss. — Freshman right-hander Chris Ellis came on in relief and posted 3.0 hitless innings of shutout baseball to help No. 20 Ole Miss (5-1) rally as the Rebels defeated UNC-Wilmington (2-5) by a score of 10-5 on Sunday to sweep the weekend series.

Ellis (1-0) entered the game in the sixth inning with the score tied at five and a man on first with no outs. The right hander retired the next three batters to get the Rebels out of the inning on the way to 3.0 innings of scoreless baseball, allowing Ole Miss the chance to rally for the win to give the Rebels the sweep.

It was the first win of the season for Ellis, who was making his second appearance of the season.

Tyler McSwain (0-2) took the loss for the Seahawks as he allowed two runs on three hits in 1.0 inning of work. McSwain entered the game in the sixth with the score tied at five before giving up RBI hits to Matt Snyder and Will Allen to put Ole Miss on top for good.

Ole Miss got off to a quick start for the second straight game, pushing four runs across the plate in the first inning. Tanner Mathis and Auston Bousfield opened things up with a walk and a hit by pitch before Matt Snyder came up with a single to left center to score Mathis and leave men at the corners. Bousfield scored on a single to right from Andrew Mistone before Zach Kirksey came up with a two-RBI double to left to center and Ole Miss grabbed the 4-0 lead.

The Rebels cruised through the first four innings with starter Mike Mayers retiring the first 11 batters faced and 12 of the first 13 batters to come to the plate. UNC-Wilmington put together a big rally in the fifth inning, though, pushing five runs across the plate to take the lead for the first time all weekend.

Back-to-back singles and a walk loaded the bases to start things off in the Seahawk half of the fifth. Drew Farber then hit a two-RBI single to right to get Wilmington on the board and cut the lead in half. A single from Jake Koenig in the next at bat trimmed the lead to one. One out later, pinch hitter Sean Buchanan hit a two-RBI double to left to put the Seahawks on top 5-4.

Mayers would retire the next two batters to get the Rebels out of the inning.

Ole Miss tied things up in the bottom half of the fifth when Allen came up with an RBI single up the middle to score Snyder.

The Rebels then snatched the lead back in the sixth inning with a two-out rally. Tanner Mathis reached to open the inning before moving to third on back-to-back groundouts by the next two batters. Snyder then belted out a double to the wall in left center to score Mathis and put Ole Miss on top. Mistone reached in the next at bat when he was hit by a pitch before Allen came up with his second RBI hit of the day to score Snyder and give the Rebels the 7-5 lead.

Ole Miss would add a single run in the seventh off a sac fly from Senquez Golson before plating two more runs in the eighth off an Alex Yarbrough home run and an RBI double from Kirksey.

Hively

OXFORD, Miss. - R.J. Hively worked 6.0 innings of two-hit baseball and held the Redhaws scoreless in his time on the mound as No. 16 Ole Miss (8-2) pounded out 18 hits on the way to an 11-3 win over Miami (OH) (4-4) on Saturday.

The win evened the weekend series with the Redhaws and sets up a rubber match game on Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Hively (2-0) picked up his second straight win, working 6.0 innings and holding Miami to two hits with a walk and seven strikeouts. Blair Wright and Jon Andy Scott closed out the final 3.0 innings for the Rebels on the way to the win.

Brooks Fiala (1-2) suffered the loss for the Redhaws as he allowed six runs on seven hits in 1.2 innings of work.

Ten Rebels recorded hits on the afternoon, with eight of them notching multiple hits in the outing. Alex Yarbrough (3-for-5) and Zach Kirksey (2-for-3) led the way offensively. Kirksey notched three RBI, including his third home run of the season with a solo shot in the second, while Yarbrough added two RBI on the afternoon.

Ole Miss got off to a quick start, scoring three runs in the first inning. Tanner Mathis was hit by a pitch and Senquez Golson singled to left before Yarbrough came up with a two-RBI double to get the scoring started for the Rebels. Yarbrough then scored on a wild pitch two batters later for the 3-0 lead.

The Rebels added three more runs in the second with a rally that was started by a lead-off home run from Kirksey. Austin Anderson reached on a single and scored on a single to center from Knight that included a fielding error on the play that saw Anderson score from first base. Knight came home two batters later on a single from Austin Bousfield and Ole Miss held a 6-0 lead.

Ole Miss added a single run in the fifth inning on a single from Kirksey, before adding a sac fly from Kirksey and a single to right from Knight to push two more runs home and make the score 9-1.

Miami got on the board in the eighth inning, using a two-out double from Kevin Bower to score Bryce Redeker. Redeker had singled in the previous at bat.

John Gatlin then notched his first career hit for the Rebels in the home half of the eighth, sending a two-RBI double to the wall in right center to drive in Yarbrough and Preston Overbey to take the lead out to 11-1.

The Redhaws closed out the scoring with a pair of unearned runs in the ninth, capitalizing on a fielding error and a two-out single from Ryan Brenner to cut the lead to the final score of 11-3.

Mayers

OXFORD, Miss. - Mike Mayers worked 7.0 scoreless innings as the Rebel pitching staff and defense helped win the day for the Rebels with No. 16 Ole Miss (9-2) taking the weekend series from Miami (OH) (4-5) with a 2-1 win on Sunday.

Mayers (1-1) picked up the win as he allowed four hits with a walk and five strikeouts in a career-long 7.0 innings of work. The sophomore right-hander did not have a single Redhawk base runner advance past first base in his time on the mound as the Rebels caught three men stealing on the afternoon.

Dylan Chavez worked a scoreless eighth before Brett Huber picked up his fourth save of the season in the ninth. Huber allowed one run on three hits in the ninth on the way to the Rebel victory.

Ole Miss got on the board in the second inning when Jake Overbey came up with a single through the left side to drive in his brother, Preston, from second. The elder Overbey reached on a walk and moved to third on a single to left from Austin Bousfield. He then scored on the single from the younger Overbey, who was making his first start of the season.

The Rebel pitching staff controlled things from there until Ole Miss was able to get an insurance run in the sixth inning.

Alex Yarbrough opened the inning reaching base when he was hit by a pitch. The junior then stole second and advanced to third with heads up base running on a groundout to third from Matt Snyder. Yarbrough then scored on a sacrifice fly to left field from Mistone to put Ole Miss on top 2-0.

The run proved to be big after Miami pushed a single run home in the ninth inning.

Ryan Brenner opened things up with a single back up the middle that kicked off the foot of Rebel reliever Brett Huber. The ball bounced toward first base and was grabbed by a hustling Huber who tossed the ball to first as Brenner narrowly beat the ball to the bag to reach safely.

Back-to-back singles from Matt Honchel and Bryce Redeker brought Brenner home and left men at first and second before the Rebel defense came through again. A grounder to first gave Ole Miss the first out as both runners moved into scoring decision, but a diving snag by Mistone at third on a line drive gave the Rebels the second out of the inning. The Rebels then grabbed the win when Huber was able to get John Crummy to ground out to second to end the game.

Kirksey

OXFORD, Miss. - The Rebels pounded out 15 hits, including three home runs, and senior Zach Kirksey drove in seven runs to help No. 14 Ole Miss (10-2) power past UT-Martin (3-10) by a score of 20-4 on Tuesday night at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Kirksey paced a torrid Rebel offense on the night, going 2-for-4 with a pair of home runs, seven RBI and three runs scored. Austin Anderson (3-for-5), Auston Bousfield (2-for-3) and Alex Yarbrough (3-for-4) tallied multiple hits along with Kirksey as nine Rebels recorded a hit in the outing.

Matt Snyder also hit a three-run home run in the first inning to get the offense started for the Rebels.

Laxer (2-0) picked up the win for the Rebels, entering the game in the fourth inning to relieve starter Sam Smith. Laxer allowed one run on two hits in 2.1 innings of work. Smith worked 3.2 innings in the start, allowing two runs on four hits with two walks and six strikeouts.

Dalton Potts (0-1) took the loss for the Skyhawks, working 1.1 innings and allowing five runs on two hits with three walks. He gave up a three-run shot to Snyder in the first inning before putting two men on base in the second inning that went on to score off a single to right from Yarbrough after Potts left the game.

With the 5-0 lead after two innings, the Rebels continued to add to the run total, scoring in every inning of play except the fourth. Ole Miss got two runs in the third inning on a home run to right field from Kirksey before failing to score in the fourth inning.

The Rebels scored a single run in the fifth inning on a hit down the right field line from Anderson, and pushed two more runs home in the sixth inning on a fielder's choice from Andrew Mistone and a sac fly from Kirksey.

Sikes Orvis added another run in the seventh inning on a groundout to short that scored Senquez Golson. Golson scored four runs on the night, tying for the team lead with Bousfield, despite not recording a hit in seven at bats. The freshman reached base four times and came around to score each time.

The eighth inning proved to be the most productive offensively for the Rebels, who sent 15 men to the plate on the way to a nine-run inning.

Tennessee-Martin scored single runs in the third, fourth and fifth frames before a solo home run from Jordan Owen in the eighth inning capped the scoring for the Skyhawks. It was the first home run surrendered by the Rebels this season.

Wahl

OXFORD, Miss. — Bobby Wahl turned in 6.0 innings of one hit baseball and the Rebels used a six-run first inning to pick up a series opening win as No. 14 Ole Miss (11-2) shut out Houston (6-7) by a score of 8-0 on Friday night at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Wahl (3-0) picked up the win as he worked 6.0 innings and held the Cougars to one hit with three walks and a career-high 10 strikeouts. He combined with right-handers Aaron Greenwood and Hawtin Buchanan for the shutout. The two freshmen worked the final 3.0 innings of the game, holding Houston to three hits and two strikeouts.

Jared Ray (1-1) suffered the loss for the Cougars as he allowed six runs on 10 hits in 1.0 inning of work. He left the game after the first two batters reached base safely to open the second inning.

Alex Yarbrough led the Rebels at the plate, going 3-for-5 with two RBI and a run scored as eight Rebels recorded hits on the night.

"It was a really good game by us," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "I thought we played really well in all three phases. We pitched really well, played good defense, and came out and really swung it in the first inning. Anytime you give your ace six runs in the first inning it is a good thing. There were some good at-bats."

"It was a clean night for us," Bianco said. "Bobby Wahl had great stuff and everybody could tell with his ten strikeouts in six innings that he had dominant stuff. I thought Aaron Greenwood came in and did a good job with the six-eight run lead. He threw a lot of strikes, mixed in his breaking ball and worked ahead in the count."

The Rebels got off to the quick start with a six-run first inning, sending 11 men to the plate and using eight singles to drive in the six runs. It started with singles from Tanner Mathis and Yarbrough before a single from Matt Snyder would drive in the first run. Ole Miss would then use five singles from the next six batters to take the 6-0 lead before Houston would get out of the inning.

The Rebel pitching staff continued to put up zeros from there while the Houston staff settled in following a pitching change in the second inning.

Ole Miss put together its second rally of the night in the fifth inning, driving in two more runs when Yarbrough came up with a two-RBI double down the left field line that scored Mathis and Will Jamison. Both base runners reached on walks in consecutive at bats with two outs before Yarbrough came up with the double to make the lead 8-0 for the Rebels.

The Ole Miss pitching staff and defense held strong down the stretch, including a big strikeout and fly out with two men in scoring position in the night to preserve the shutout win in the series opener.

OXFORD, Miss. — For the second straight game, the Rebel pitching staff pitched a shutout and the offense went to work early as No. 14 Ole Miss (12-2) clinched the weekend series with Houston (6-8) with a 9-0 victory on Saturday.

The Rebels defeated Houston 8-0 on Friday night to open the weekend series.

R.J. Hively (3-0) picked up the win for the Rebels as he worked 6.0 innings and tied his career high for strikeouts with nine. He allowed two walks and four hits in his time on the mound. Blair Wright and Jon Andy Scott closed out the final 3.0 innings of the game, holding the Cougars to two hits down the stretch.

Jordan Lewis (2-2) suffered the loss for Houston, allowing seven runs — six of them earned — on eight hits in 2.1 innings of work. The left-hander walked two and struck out one in his time on the mound.

"We played really well again today" said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "R.J. (Hively) had to work and compete the first three innings. They got a couple base-hits and had runners in scoring position, but he did what we have talked about since the beginning of the season. Sometimes as the pitcher you have to take things into your own hands and make pitches to get out of innings and he did that the first three innings. Then he got a lot sharper and started to strike some people out."

"It was nice to score in the first," Bianco said. "The offense always seems like they are ready coming out of the gates. It was another cleanly played defensive game by us. The team is playing with confidence and they deserve this. We have played well."

Ole Miss got off to a quick start, scoring in the first inning for the third straight game. The Rebels got two runs in the first game thanks to a triple from Alex Yarbrough that scored Auston Bousfield and a single from Matt Snyder that brought Yarbrough home.

The Rebels continued to build on the lead in the third inning, batting around and sending 10 men to the plate on the way to a five-run inning. The first eight batters reached base as a part of the rally with the Rebels scoring on Snyder, Preston Overbey, Blake Newalu and a sac fly from Bousfield on the way to the 7-0 lead.

Ole Miss capped its scoring in the sixth inning with two more runs on the way to the final 9-0 margin of victory. Back-to-back singles from Snyder and Andrew Mistone got the inning started before the two upperclassmen would score. Snyder came home on a single to left from Senquez Golson, before Mistone scored two batters later on a ground ball to short from Blake Newalu.

The Rebels tallied 15 hits on the afternoon with nine batters tallying hits in the outing. Snyder led the way for Ole Miss with a 4-for-4 performance at the plate, driving in two runs and scoring two runs.

Mayers

OXFORD, Miss. — The offense was hot again and used a quick start before breaking away late as No. 14 Ole Miss (13-2) picked up a series sweep of Houston (6-9) with an 11-3 win over the Cougars on Sunday afternoon at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Austin Anderson went 3-for-5 with a triple and a double, while Zach Kirksey and Alex Yarbrough both hit home runs to help the Rebels power their way to the sweep clinching win.

Mike Mayers (2-1) picked up the win for the second consecutive week, working 5.0 innings and allowing one run on four hits with three walks and a strikeout. Chris Ellis, Dylan Chavez and Brett Huber closed things out down the stretch, allowing only two runs and three hits over the final 4.0 innings.

Aaron Garza (1-2) took the loss for Houston after giving up two runs on three hits in 1.0 inning of work. Houston never led in the game or on the weekend as Ole Miss outscored the Cougars 28-3 over the course of the three-game set.

The Rebels scored in the first inning in all three games against the Cougars, pushing two runs across the plate in Sunday's series finale to get things started. Back-to-back doubles from Anderson and Yarbrough got the first run home, before a single up the middle from Mistone scored Yarbrough and gave Ole Miss the 2-0 lead.

Anderson delivered a lead-off triple in the third before coming home two batters later on a sac fly to center field from Mistone to put Ole Miss on top 3-0.

Cory Kay got the first run of the weekend for Houston when he belted out a solo home run with two outs in the fifth inning to cut the lead to 3-1.

Ole Miss answered back with a pair of runs in the bottom of the inning, when Anderson and Yarbrough both scored for the second time on the afternoon. Both reached on back-to-back singles and Anderson before moving to third on a single from Matt Snyder. Anderson scored on a ground ball, fielder's choice to short from Mistone that moved Yarbrough to third and left men at the corners. Yarbrough stole home in the next at bat as he and Mistone executed a double steal to put Ole Miss back in front 5-1.

Houston got the two runs back in the sixth inning when John Cannon and Price Jacobs came home on a single down the third base line from Jonathan Davis and a sac fly from Kendall Stacks. The 5-3 score was as close as the Cougars would get, though, as the Rebel pitching staff would hold them off the board down the stretch.

Ole Miss extended the lead to the final 11-3 margin of victory with an RBI single from Will Jamison in the bottom of the sixth, followed by a three-run home run from Kirksey in the seventh and a two-run shot from Alex Yarbrough in the eighth.

Hively

Following the rough first inning that saw the Rebels commit five errors on the way to surrendering five runs, Hively retired 18 of the next 20 batters across the next six innings of play to give the Rebels a chance to rally.

Ole Miss cut the lead to one in the sixth inning, but a Tiger grand slam in the eighth inning as a part of another five-run frame, put the game out of reach and ended the weekend series.

Will Kendall (3-0) picked up the win for Auburn, allowing four runs on four hits with two walks and a strikeout across 5.0 innings of work. Slade Smith then picked up his second save of the season, working the final 4.0 innings and limiting the Rebels to four hits with two strikeouts.

"It was obviously a tough inning for us and is something we are not accustomed to," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We made four or five errors in the first. We just couldn't get out of the inning. It's unfortunate for R.J. (Hively). I thought he had some good stuff, I thought he dominated and was great. He got us out of the inning and held them after the five run first."

"We weren't able to do much offensively today and that was disappointing," Bianco said. "We also weren't able to execute different things. If you are not going to do that, you have to be clean on the field and pitch well. We weren't clean on the field today. I have to give credit to Auburn they felt the pressure in the eighth inning and were able to put a big inning together."

The Tigers used the five-run first inning to take the 5-0 lead on the Rebels right out of the gates, mixing in three hits on the way to the early lead.

Ole Miss chipped away at the lead across the next five innings to cut the lead to one at 5-4.

The Rebels got a single run in the second inning when Will Allen scored on a single from Preston Overbey, before Overbey would come up with a two-run home run in the fourth inning to cut the lead to two runs at 5-3. Ole Miss pulled within a run of the Tigers in the sixth inning, using an RBI double from Matt Snyder to drive in Alex Yarbrough and put the Rebels in striking distance at 5-4.

Auburn responded with its second five-run inning of the day in the eighth, getting a grand slam out of Zach Alvord to cap the big inning and put the score at its final margin of 10-4.

Mayers

sent the Rebels to the bullpen for closer Brett Huber. Huber then gave up a single to Garrett Cooper that drove in what proved to be the game-winning run.

Mayers (2-2) finished the day allowing three runs on six hits with no walks and five strikeouts through 8.2 innings of work.

Cory Luckie (1-0) picked up the relief win, working 2.0 innings with a walk and a strikeout while holding the Rebels hitless. Justin Bryant picked up his second save of the season, entering the game with a man on first following a lead-off walk by the Rebels in the bottom of the ninth and held onto the win for Auburn.

"What a tough way to end the weekend for us," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "You have to credit Auburn. They played extremely hard and found a way to win. They got hits when they needed them. Mike (Mayers) pitched a great game and up until 26 outs and 2 strikes on a hitter you really thought it was going to be a great day for us. We have Southern Miss here at home Tuesday and that is going to be a huge in-state game for us."

Auburn got on the board first, pushing home a single run in the third inning when Blake Bowen scored from third on a sac fly to left from Jay Gonzalez. Bowen doubled to open the inning and moved to third on a sac bunt from Zach Alvord.

The Rebels answered in the bottom of the inning when Blake Newalu notched his first home run of the season to start the inning, sending the ball over the bullpen in left field. A triple to right field in the next at bat from Tanner Mathis and an RBI grounder to second from Alex Yarbrough got Ole Miss its second run, and the Rebels were on top 2-1 after three innings of play.

Mayers then retired 18 of the next 20 batters faced, allowing only two singles in that time until Auburn's Ryan Tella came up with his two-out double on a 2-2 count in the ninth to spark the Tigers' come-from-behind win.

Auburn tied things with the back-to-back doubles from Tella and Cullen Wacker, before taking the lead when Wacker crossed home on a single up the middle from Cooper. The Rebels got out of the inning with a strikeout of Bryant - who was serving as the designated hitter for the Tigers - before the bottom of the ninth.

Ole Miss got a lead-off walk from Andrew Mistone and sent in Senquez Golson as a pinch runner to start things off in the home half of the final frame. Golson took second on a sac bunt from pinch hitter Austin Anderson, but Auburn was able to get a strikeout and a pop out in the next two batters to claim the win.

"We have to get tougher," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We have to have better at-bats, hit more balls, be more on time with the fastball, and hit when we have opportunities and guys in scoring positions. I wish I could say it is one thing but it isn't. We have to be able to execute and get better at-bats."

Sam Smith (1-2) suffered the loss for the Rebels as he allowed four runs - but only one earned - on eight hits through 4.0 innings of work. Smith struck out four and did not walk a batter.

Paxton King (1-0) picked up the win, facing one batter on the night, but entering the game with the bases loaded and two outs in the fifth inning. King got Matt Snyder to fly out to end the inning and kept Ole Miss off the board.

Southern Miss scored first, using a two-out triple and a single to get the first run home before an error in left field on a fly ball kept the inning alive for the Golden Eagles instead of giving the Rebels two outs. The misplayed ball in left allowed two men to get into scoring position before a sac fly from Travis Creel, which should have been the third out of the inning, pushed the first run home in the frame. Two more singles brought two more runs home and Southern Miss held a 4-0 lead in the fourth.

Ole Miss got its best shot at getting on the scoreboard in the fifth inning, loading the bases with two outs before Southern Miss' King was able to get a fly out from Snyder to end the scoring threat.

A three-run home run from Blake Brown in the seventh inning pushed the lead to 7-0 before Southern Miss would use four singles in and a groundout from the first five batters to push three more runs home in the eighth and give the Golden Eagles the final margin of victory.

Chavez

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — An offensive outburst that included two rallies and a seven run seventh inning helped propel No. 17 Ole Miss (16-6, 2-2 SEC) back into the win column with an 11-7 win over Alabama (8-14, 0-4 SEC) on Friday night.

Ole Miss had five players post multiple-hit nights as part of a 16 hit performance on the way to the win. Andrew Mistone and Alex Yarbrough helped set the tone for the offense, combining for seven RBI as Mistone went 2-for-5 with four RBI and Yarbrough went 2-for-4 with three RBI in the outing.

Reliever Dylan Chavez (2-0) picked up the win as he entered the game with one out in the sixth inning, the game tied at four and a runner on second base with one out. He then got a pop up and a grounder to second with the bases loaded to get the Rebels out of the inning without relinquishing the lead.

Chavez allowed one unearned run on three hits with two strikeouts in 1.2 innings of relief work. His unearned run allowed came in the seventh inning following a seven-run top of the seventh for the Rebel offense.

Ian Gardeck (1-2) suffered the loss for the Crimson Tide, allowing two runs on two hits in 0.1 inning of work after entering the game to start the seventh.

Alabama scored in the first inning when Jared Reaves came up with a double down the left field line to drive in Taylor Dugas. Dugas opened the game with a single before moving to second on a sac bunt. A balk moved Reaves to third before he scored on a passed ball to give the Crimson Tide a 2-0 lead after one inning of play.

Ole Miss answered in the second, using a double from Will Allen, a single from Zach Kirksey and a wild pitch to set up a two run inning. Allen scored on a groundout to second from Andrew Mistone that moved Kirksey to third. A groundout to second from Preston Overbey in the next at bat brought Kirksey home and knotted the score at two.

The Rebels took the lead for the first time in the third inning on an RBI single fro Yarbrough before moving out to a 4-2 lead in the sixth inning thanks to an RBI triple from Mistone.

Alabama responded in the bottom half of the inning with a single from Ben Moore that scored Josh Rosecrans who opened the frame with a triple. Moore stole second and then scored on a double from Brett Booth to even the score at four.

Ole Miss broke things open in the seventh, getting the first two men on base before Yarbrough came up with his single through the right side to drive in two runs and spark a seven run inning. The Rebels scored seven runs on seven hits in the seventh to claim an 11-4 lead on the Crimson Tide and put the game out of reach.

Alabama came up with a single run in the seventh and two more runs in the eighth — one off a solo home run from Dugas — but could get no more as the Rebels closed things out for the 11-7 win to open the weekend series.

Hively

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — On a day that featured stellar pitching and defense, it was late inning heroics that decided things as the Crimson Tide got a two-run walk-off home run in the ninth inning and No. 17 Ole Miss (16-7, 2-3 SEC) fell to Alabama (9-14, 1-4 SEC) by a score of 3-2 on Saturday.

With hits and runs at a premium, Ole Miss put together a seventh inning rally to grab a 2-1 lead and held things in check until Alabama's Brett Booth fought off several pitches and came up with the game-winning hit in the ninth with two outs on the board and a man on third.

Brett Huber (0-1) suffered his first loss of the season as he allowed the two runs on two hits in 0.2 innings of work.

Taylor Guilbeau (2-2) picked up the win after allowing one hit with two walks and two runs in 1.0 inning of work.

Both starters pitched well on the afternoon with Rebel senior R.J. Hively allowing one unearned run on four hits with eight strikeouts in 8.0 innings of work. Alabama starter Justin Kamplain allowed two runs on three hits with a pair of walks and six strikeouts in his 7.0 innings of work.

"We were just a pitch away from being on their side of things right now," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco following the game. "It was a well played and well pitched game, we were just a pitch away."

Alabama got on the board first, pushing a single run home in the third inning playing station to station baseball. Lead-off hitter A.J. Cole reached on a fielding error at short before taking second on a sac bunt and third on a fly out from Taylor Dugas. An infield single from Ben Moore brought him home and gave the Crimson Tide the 1-0 lead.

Ole Miss responded with its own rally in the seventh, taking the lead with a pair of runs off the Crimson Tide starter. Alex Yarbrough broke up the no-hitter with a leadoff single and took second on a groundout from Matt Snyder. He then tied the game on an RBI single from Will Allen.

The Rebels continued the rally when Allen stole second and moved to third on a groundout from Andrew Mistone. Allen came home on a single to right from Preston Overbey and gave Ole Miss the 2-1 lead on the Crimson Tide.

The Crimson Tide had one more rally in the tank, coming up with a two-out and two-strike home run from Brett Booth in the bottom of the ninth to give Alabama the 3-2 win over the Rebels.

Kirksey

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — Down one run with the bases loaded and one out in the eighth inning, Zach Kirksey came up with a sac fly to the wall in center field that drove in two runs as part of a four-run rally to help No. 17 Ole Miss (17-7, 3-3 SEC) defeat Alabama (9-15, 1-5 SEC) on Sunday by a score of 8-4.

The win gave the Rebels the series, marking the first series win for Ole Miss in Tuscaloosa since the 2004 season when the Rebels also picked up a victory on Sunday to claim the series over the Crimson Tide.

Kirksey's two RBI fly out to the wall in straight away center put Ole Miss on top 5-4 and the Rebels would not relinquish the lead. It was the second rally of the day for the Rebels who had already fought back from a 2-0 deficit to tie the game before falling behind by two runs again in the fifth inning.

Dylan Chavez (3-0) picked up the win in relief, working the final 2.1 innings and holding the Crimson Tide hitless while striking out two batters. He retired all seven batters faced down the stretch.

Spencer Turnbull (0-2) took the loss for Alabama, allowing four runs on four hits with a strikeout in 0.2 innings of work. Turnbull entered the game to relieve starter Jon Keller with two outs in the seventh inning. He got the Crimson Tide out of the inning, but left the game in the eighth with one out on the board and the bases loaded after having already surrendered one run to cut the lead to 4-3.

Alabama got on the board in the third inning, capitalizing on a throwing error to third on a bunt to the third base side of the mound. The ball sailed over the head of Andrew Mistone, allowing Austen Smith to score on the play while A.J. Cole reached base safely and move to second on the play. Cole took third on a sac bunt from Hunter Gregory before scoring on a groundout to second from Taylor Dugas to give Alabama the early 2-0 lead.

The Rebels answered in the fifth inning with a two-run home run off the score-board in left field from Preston Overbey. Auston Bousfield scored on the play after reaching on a single to left field in the previous at bat.

The Crimson Tide weren't done, using a wild bottom of the fifth that included a ground-rule double to set up a two-RBI single from Jared Reaves that scored both Dugas and Ben Moore. Ole Miss got out of the inning without any more damage, but Alabama held the 4-2 lead.

Ole Miss went to work in the eighth inning, putting together its second rally with one out after a strikeout started things off for the Rebels. Matt Snyder doubled down the right field line and moved to third on a single to right from Will Allen. Ole Miss then sent Will Jamison in to run for Allen with men at the corners.

Bousfield then delivered on a hit-and-run play with a single deep in the hole at second base, beating the throw to first as Jamison reached second and Snyder scored with no outs on the play. Another single to shallow right from Overbey loaded the bases before Kirksey delivered his two-RBI fly out to center field to put Ole Miss on top 5-4.

Jamison scored from third easily on the play while Bousfield never slowed down after tagging at second, rounded third and slid in safely ahead of the tag at the plate on the play. Overbey continued the theme of aggressive base running, moving from first to third on the fly out. He scored on the next at bat when Blake Newalu delivered a single to center to give Ole Miss the 6-4 lead.

The Rebels put things out of reach for good in the ninth when Snyder delivered his third home run of the season, this time coming up with a two-run shot down the right field line that scored Yarbrough and gave Ole Miss the 8-4 lead that would hold as Chavez retired the side in order in the bottom of the ninth.

#16 Ole Miss 12, Jackson State 0 March 27, 2012 • Oxford, Miss. Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field

Ellis

OXFORD, Miss. — Chris Ellis was solid in his first career start and the Rebel bullpen took advantage of an early offensive showing to help No. 16 Ole Miss (18-7) post a 12-0 shutout over Jackson State (16-8) on Tuesday night at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Chris Ellis (2-0) picked up the win in a predetermined start, working 4.0 scoreless innings and allowing only one hit with six strikeouts. Ole Miss' bullpen kept things in check from there as five more pitchers combined for the shutout over the Tigers.

Desmond Russell (4-2) took the loss for Jackson State, allowing seven runs on nine hits with three walks and a strikeout in 5.0 innings of work.

The Rebels jumped out of the gates with a four-run first inning, sparked by a three-run home run from Zach Kirksey, and never looked back on the way to the 12-0 win. It was Kirksey's ninth home run of the season.

"We played really well tonight," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We got off to a really good start with (Zach) Kirksey's home run, and Chris Ellis was good in his first collegiate start. He was aggressive and able to fight through the first two innings. I was proud of the way we kept it clean and played well defensively."

"There were a lot of good nights on offense," Bianco said. "Will Jamison had a terrific night. A lot of guys played well for us tonight. It doesn't happen often that you get that many innings out of your relievers, and the best thing was that they all pitched well."

An Alex Yarbrough double with two outs got things started in the first inning before Yarbrough came home on a single to right from Matt Snyder. Will Allen walked in the next at bat before Kirksey delivered his three-run shot to make it 4-0 in favor of the home team.

The Rebels added a fifth run in the second inning when Will Jamison scored on a single up the middle from Tanner Mathis.

Ole Miss pushed two more runs across in the fourth inning to stake a claim to a 7-0 lead. Preston Overbey singled and Jamison walked to get things started before both runners came home on back-to-back singles from Mathis and Anderson.

The lead continued to grow for the Rebels from there with two more runs in the sixth inning before Ole Miss would cap the scoring with a three-run eighth inning on an RBI-single from John Gatlin and a two-RBI single from Overbey.

#16 Ole Miss 3, #1 Florida 0 March 30, 2012 • Oxford, Miss. Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field

Wahl

OXFORD, Miss. — Sophomore right-hander Bobby Wahl worked a career-long eight innings and held the top-ranked Gators scoreless as No. 16 Ole Miss (19-7, 4-3 SEC) shut out No. 1 Florida (23-3, 5-2 SEC) with a 3-0 victory on Friday night.

Wahl (5-0) limited the Gator offense to two hits on the way to the series opening win, walking three batters and striking out six while keeping Florida off the board. Only one Gator advanced past first base in Wahl's time on the mound.

Junior right-hander Brett Huber then picked up his sixth save of the season and 22nd of his career, working the ninth inning. After a lead-off triple from Daniel Pigott, Huber retired the next three Gator batters on a strikeout, fly out and a groundout to preserve the shutout for the Rebels.

Hudson Randall (5-1) suffered his first loss of the season, allowing three runs on eight hits with a walk and four strikeouts in 6.0 innings of work.

It was the second straight shutout for the Rebels who blanked Jackson State on Tuesday night and was the fifth shutout of the season for the Rebels.

"I thought we played really well," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "Bobby (Wahl) was tremendous. He continued to make pitches even when it seemed like he fell behind. He was able to battle back and get into the strike zone. He just pitched a terrific game. We're proud of the way Brett (Huber) came in, and he knew it wouldn't be easy after the last two weeks. He did what he was supposed to do. He threw the ball in the strike zone and he got ahead of all of the hitters."

"We played a very clean game defensively and of course we were able to put the first inning together," Bianco said. "Thankfully we were able to put the first inning together and we pitched really well."

The Rebels scored three runs in the first inning and it proved to be all Ole Miss would need as Wahl kept the Florida hitters in check and held Florida off the board through eighth before turning things over to Huber in the ninth.

Tanner Mathis opened the Rebel first with a single and moved to second on a sac bunt from Austin Anderson. He then stole third before scoring on a single to right from Alex Yarbrough to get Ole Miss on the board. Matt Snyder then took an O-2 pitch over the fence in right field to give the Rebels the 3-0 lead.

It was the fourth home run of the season for Snyder and proved to be all of the runs Ole Miss needed in the Friday night pitcher's duel.

#1 Florida 9, #16 Ole Miss 4 March 31, 2012 • Oxford, Miss. Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field

Allen

OXFORD, Miss. — It was a back-and-forth battle through seven innings, but a six-run rally in the eighth inning proved to be too much for the Rebels to overcome as No. 16 Ole Miss (19-8, 4-4 SEC) fell to No. 1 Florida (24-3, 6-2 SEC) by a score of 9-4 on Saturday.

Ole Miss held a 3-2 lead after seven innings, but Florida pushed home six runs in the eighth inning to put the game out of reach and even the weekend series at a game each. The Rebels picked up the Friday night win 3-0 over the Gators.

The two teams will face each other at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday with the weekend series on the line at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

"You have to play all nine and we played pretty well through the seventh," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "The truth of the matter is that we left a lot of opportunities out there. We had chances if we had just got another hit here or there we could have extended the lead. They made us pay for that in the eighth. They were able to put together an amazing inning to put us away and win the game."

Reliever Dylan Chavez (3-1) took the loss for the Rebels, allowing four runs on five hits in the eighth inning. Chavez had entered the game to relieve Hively in the sixth inning and got the Rebels out of a jam with two outs on two pitches, but Florida got the better of the left-hander in the eighth inning.

Hively worked 5.1 innings, allowing two runs on eight hits with two walks and eight strikeouts.

Johnny Magliozzi (4-0) picked up the win for the Gators, facing two batters and recording an out before Florida would rally in the eighth. Magliozzi came into the game with the bases loaded and two outs in the seventh and got a fly out to end the Rebel scoring threat with Ole Miss holding a 3-2 lead.

The Gators scored first, pushing a run home in the first inning when Mike Zunino scored on a single to right from Brian Johnson. Zunino doubled in the previous at bat to set up the score on the Johnson hit.

Ole Miss answered in the fourth, getting a two-run home run from Will Allen that scored Matt Snyder. Snyder reached on a fielding error on a grounder to second to set up the go-ahead shot from Allen.

Florida pushed a single run home in the top of the fifth to tie the score at two, but once again the Rebels answered. Ole Miss moved back in front 3-2 when Zach Kirksey — who drew a lead-off walk — scored on a single through the right side from Alex Yarbrough.

The 3-2 lead held for the Rebels until the eighth when Florida got four straight hits, including a three-run home run from Vickash Ramjit, to push back into the lead for good with a six-run inning. The Gators led 8-3 after eight innings of play.

Florida pushed a final run home in the ninth before Ole Miss would get a solo home run from Snyder for the final score of 9-4.

#16 Ole Miss 7, #1 Florida 6

April 1, 2012 • Oxford, Miss.

Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field

Yarborough

OXFORD, Miss. — With the game tied and the bases loaded in the ninth, the Rebels kept the pressure on the nation's top-ranked team and pulled off the second rally of the afternoon as No. 16 Ole Miss (20-8, 5-4 SEC) defeated No. 1 Florida (24-4, 6-3 SEC) by a score of 7-6.

With the bases loaded and one out, freshman Senquez Golson delivered a grounder down the first base line to Florida right fielder Preston Tucker, who was playing in as part of a six-man infield defensively for the Gators. Tucker scooped the ball up and threw home in an attempt to get the force out of pinch-running Bobby Wahl, but the throw was off the mark and Wahl slid in safely at home to score the game-winning run.

A total of 27,991 fans packed Swayze Field over the weekend to watch the Rebels take on the top-ranked Gators. It was the largest weekend attendance in a regular-series weekend for the Rebels at O-U Stadium, and second largest attendance for a three-game series ever behind the 2009 Super Regional against Virginia that drew 29,646 over three days.

Brett Huber (1-1) picked up the win as he worked the final 2.0 innings and held the Gators hitless with a strikeout to allow the Rebels to set up the game-winning rally.

Austin Maddox (2-1) suffered the loss for Florida, allowing the one run on two hits with three walks and two strikeouts in his 2.1 innings of work. Maddox entered the game with the score tied at six and no outs following a game-tying double in the seventh, but got the Gators out of the jam to keep the score knotted at six before Ole Miss would make its move in the ninth inning.

The Rebels struck first, jumping out to a five-run lead after two innings of play.

Ole Miss got two runs in the first off an RBI triple from Yarborough that was followed by a single to left from Snyder. The Rebels extended the lead in the second inning with a solo home run from Zach Kirksey to open the frame and a two-RBI double from Yarborough to give the home team the 5-0 advantage.

Florida made a big cut into the lead in the fourth inning, putting together a four-run rally that was sparked by a lead-off home run from Daniel Piggot and put the score at 5-4.

The Gators tied the game in the sixth with a solo home run from Nolan Fontana and took the lead 6-5 on a solo shot from Tucker in the seventh.

Ole Miss responded in the bottom of the seventh, tying the game at six when Yarborough scored on another RBI single from Snyder. Yarborough reached on a single and moved to third on a throwing error to first by Bobby Poyner on a pickoff attempt. He tied things up on the single from Snyder.

The Rebels then put together the game-winning rally in the ninth.

Will Allen got things started with a single to right field before Ole Miss sent Friday night's starting pitcher, Wahl, in to run for the Rebel catcher. Wahl then moved first to third on a single up the middle from Preston Overbey that saw Overbey take second on the throw to third in an attempt to get out Wahl.

Florida then intentionally walked Kirksey to load the bases and get to Golson. With the defensive alignment shifted for an extra infielder and only two outfielders, Golson delivered the grounder to first that brought Wahl home for the game-winning run to clinch the series.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — It was a quirky game with missed opportunities on both sides, but the final bounce of the ball went the way of the home team on Friday night as No. 10 Ole Miss (20-9, 5-5 SEC) fell to No. 1 Kentucky (29-2, 8-2 SEC) by a score of 3-2 at Cliff Hagan Stadium.

Ole Miss out-hit the Wildcats handily, pounding out 14 hits to Kentucky's seven. But the Rebels couldn't get the timely hit and left 10 men stranded in the one-run loss. Ole Miss also had three men thrown out at the plate.

Dylan Chavez (3-2) took the loss in relief for the Rebels, allowing one run on three hits with two strikeouts in 1.2

innings of work. Alex Phillips (5-1) picked up the win in relief, holding Ole Miss scoreless over 3.1 innings and allowing three hits with a walk and three strikeouts. Trevor Gott picked up his seventh save of the season, working the final two outs with a walk and a strikeout.

"Kentucky threw out three men at the plate, and I don't know that ever seen that happen," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "You have to tip your hat. They maxed it out when they got an opportunity. We have to do a better job of getting the timely hit and the big hit when we have runners in scoring position."

Kentucky scored first, getting a run home when J.T. Riddle scored from third on a grounder to short. Riddle walked with one out before moving to third on a double to left field from Michael Williams. Riddle then scored on the ground ball to short from Matt Reid to put the Wildcats up 1-0.

Ole Miss answered in the third inning, using three straight singles to bring a run home. Austin Bousfield singled before moving to third on a single to left center from Alex Yarborough. Bousfield then scored on a single to center field from Matt Snyder to tie the game at one.

The Rebels took the lead in the fourth, again pushing a single run across the plate to go up 2-1. Preston Overbey singled through the right side before scoring from first on a double to the wall in front of Andrew Mistone.

It looked like Kentucky had tied things up in the fourth with a sac fly to right field, but Will Allen threw the ball to third on appeal and the umpire ruled the Wildcat base runner had left early giving Ole Miss the final out of the inning keeping the 2-1 lead.

Kentucky tied things up in the sixth inning on a sac fly to right field that scored Luke Maile from third. Maile doubled to right field to open the inning and took third on a passed ball. He then scored on the fly out to right field from Zac Zellers to tie the game at two.

In the seventh inning it appeared that Ole Miss was going to move back on top with a sac fly to center field from Matt Snyder with one out. It was ruled that Tanner Mathis was out at the plate on the play, however, and the score remained knotted at two at the stretch.

Kentucky took the lead for good in the eighth, getting a double to left center from Maile to lead things off. He then scored on a single up the middle from Cameron Flynn to put the home team up 3-2.

Ole Miss got a man to second with one out in the top of the ninth, but couldn't get him home as Kentucky notched a strikeout and a groundout to claim the win in the series opener.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Two-out hitting proved to be the difference for the Rebels on Saturday as No. 10 Ole Miss (21-9, 6-5 SEC) scored eight runs with two outs on the afternoon to defeat No. 1 Kentucky (29-3, 8-3 SEC) by a score of 9-3.

The loss snapped a 21-game home win streak for the Wildcats and ended the weekend series at a game each after Kentucky claimed the series opener 3-2 with an eighth-inning rally on Friday.

Mike Mayers (3-2) picked up the win in his first Saturday start, working 7.1 innings and allowing only three runs on eight hits with a walk and a strikeout. Mayers was originally slated to start on Sunday but moved into the starting role when the team got to the ballpark.

Senior right-hander R.J. Hively, who was slated to start Saturday's game, is expected to start the Sunday contest.

"We had a lot of two-out hits and clutch hits today that we didn't get last night," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "What broke the ice for us was (Andrew) Mistone came up with the double to open the fifth. Then we got the single from Blake and things just started going. Matt Snyder really broke things open for us."

"I was impressed with Mike (Mayers) today," Bianco said. "He never flinched when we told him he was going to get the start today and as a coach, you have to feel good about that."

Ole Miss scored first on Saturday when Mistone came home from third on a wild pitch. Mistone opened the fifth inning with a double laced down the third base line. He then moved to third on a sac bunt from Zach Kirksey before scoring on the wild pitch on the first pitch to Blake Newalu.

The Rebels kept things going with a single from Newalu and a Mathis walk before Kentucky would notch its second out with a strikeout of Bousfield. A double steal put both runners in scoring position and the Wildcats elected to intentionally walk Alex Yarborough and bring Matt Snyder to the plate. The left-handed hitter then hit a 2-2 count over the wall in right field to clear the bases and put Ole Miss on top 5-0.

Back-to-back singles from Will Allen and Preston Overbey put two more men on base, and both scored a batter later when Mistone came up for the second time in the inning and doubled off the wall in right field. The Rebels led 8-0 after the fifth.

Snyder extended the lead in the sixth inning, hitting his second home run of the day with a solo shot to left center that put Ole Miss on top 9-0.

Kentucky answered in the bottom of the sixth when Thomas McCarthy hit a solo shot over the wall in left center with two outs. The Wildcats couldn't get any more runs as the Rebels led 9-1 after six innings of play.

The Wildcats cut into the lead again in the eighth inning when A.J. Reed hit a two-run shot to right field to make it 9-3 in favor of the Rebels. McCarthy scored on the play after notching a one-out double in the previous at bat. Ole Miss then turned to the bullpen for right-hander Chris Ellis.

Ellis was able to keep the Wildcats off the board in the ninth as the Rebels got a pair of nice snags on fly balls to left field, including a sliding one that saw Mathis glide under the ball, before a strikeout ended things to give Ole Miss the 9-3 win.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — For the second game on the weekend, it was the team that got the big hit and not the most hits that won the contest as No. 10 Ole Miss (21-10, 6-6 SEC) fell to No. 1 Kentucky (30-3, 9-3 SEC) by a score of 8-3 on Sunday.

The Rebels out-hit the Wildcats 11-to-8 in the game, but left eight men stranded on the afternoon while Kentucky got the big hit in the sixth to take the lead for good on a grand slam from Cameron Flynn. Ole Miss led 2-1 heading into the bottom of the sixth.

R.J. Hively (3-2) suffered the loss for Ole Miss, allowing six runs on five hits with two walks and eight strikeouts in 5.0 innings of work.

Corey Littrell (5-0) picked up the win, holding the Rebels to two runs on nine hits with two walks and four strikeouts in 6.0 innings of work. Alex Phillips picked up his second save of the season, working the final 3.0 innings for the Wildcats and taking the mound with Ole Miss on top 2-1 to start the sixth inning.

"Today was similar to Friday in that we were unable to get the big hit," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "Kentucky did that this weekend, that's why they're so good."

"Kentucky pitched well all weekend with the exception of the fifth inning on Friday," Bianco continued. "We did as well, except for in the sixth inning today. There were just two really good teams going at it this weekend."

Ole Miss got on the board in the first inning when Tanner Mathis scored on a single to right field from Matt Snyder. Mathis reached on a single up the middle and took second on a single through the left side from Auston Bousfield. Mathis then took third on a fly out from Yarbrough before scoring on the Snyder hit to put the Rebels up 1-0.

Kentucky answered in the second inning with a solo home run from Luke Maile to open the home half of the inning.

Ole Miss moved back in front in the sixth inning, using a double to left from Will Allen to start things off. Allen then moved to third on a sac bunt from Preston Overbey before scoring on a single to left from Andrew Mistone. The Rebels didn't get another run in the inning, but held a 2-1 lead heading to the bottom of the inning.

Kentucky moved back into the lead in the sixth inning, loading the bases with no outs before Maile came up with a liner to third. A diving snag stopped the ball from getting through the infield, but Maile was safe at first as Snyder came off the bag to field the throw and a run scored to tie the game.

The bases remained loaded and Cameron Flynn hit a grand slam to right field to put the Wildcats on top of the Rebels 6-2.

Ole Miss got a run back in the seventh when Mathis scored on a groundout from Snyder. Mathis singled before moving to third on a double to the left field wall from Yarbrough to set up the score on the Snyder ball that cut the lead to 6-3.

Kentucky responded with a single run in the seventh and the eighth to push the score out to the final margin of victory of 8-3.

Smith

OXFORD, Miss. — The Rebels turned in a solid pitching and defensive performance on Tuesday, sweeping both games of a doubleheader as No. 18 Ole Miss (23-10) defeated Central Arkansas (13-17) by scores of 2-1 and 4-0.

The starters claimed the win in both games with Sam Smith (2-2) taking the win in game one, while Josh Laxer (3-0) picked up the win in game two in a predetermined start. Brett Huber picked up his seventh save of the season, working the final inning in game one.

"I thought we played well today in both games," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We were very clean and had great defense all day long. There were so many great plays and diving catches. We put some at-bats together and were able to throw a lot of our guys."

"I thought we were really clean on the mound and had some good pitches," Bianco said. "It was good to get Dylan Chavez and (Brett) Huber in the game. The rest of the guys looked great. (Josh) Laxer, Casey Mulholland, Jon Andy Scott and Chris Ellis were all very good."

GAME 1 - NO. 18 OLE MISS 2, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 1

The Rebels got off to a quick start in the first game, scoring a run in the first inning when Tanner Mathis came home from second on a single to left center from Matt Snyder. Smith opened the game with a single up the middle and took second on a groundout to first from Alex Yarbrough to set up the score on the Snyder hit.

Central Arkansas tied the game at one in the fourth when Jonathan Davis scored from third on a passed ball. Davis doubled to left field before taking third on a sac bunt from Ethan Harris to set up the score with two outs on the passed ball.

Ole Miss moved in front for good with a single run in the fifth. Auston Bousfield singled through the left side to start things off and moved to second on a sac bunt from Austin Knight. He then advanced to third on a throwing error on a ground ball to third. A second sac bunt in the inning, this one laid perfectly down the first base line by Austin Anderson, brought Bousfield home and put the Rebels on top 2-1.

Chavez worked a scoreless sixth and Huber closed things out with a scoreless seventh inning to give Ole Miss the win in game one of the twin bill.

Smith (2-2) picked up the win, working 5.0 innings and allowing the one unearned run on two hits with a walk and two strikeouts.

OXFORD, Miss. — The Rebels turned in a solid pitching and defensive performance on Tuesday, sweeping both games of a doubleheader as No. 18 Ole Miss (23-10) defeated Central Arkansas (13-17) by scores of 2-1 and 4-0.

The starters claimed the win in both games with Sam Smith (2-2) taking the win in game one, while Josh Laxer (3-0) picked up the win in game two in a predetermined start. Brett Huber picked up his seventh save of the season, working the final inning in game one.

"I thought we played well today in both games," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We were very clean and had great defense all day long. There were so many great plays and diving catches. We put some at-bats together and were able to throw a lot of our guys."

"I thought we were really clean on the mound and had some good pitches," Bianco said. "It was good to get Dylan Chavez and (Brett) Huber in the game. The rest of the guys looked great. (Josh) Laxer, Casey Mulholland, Jon Andy Scott and Chris Ellis were all very good."

GAME 2 - NO. 18 OLE MISS 4, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 0

Ole Miss again got off to a quick start in the second game of the day, pushing a second run across the plate in the first inning. For the second straight game, Mathis opened things up with a single, this time an infield hit to short, and scored on a single through the right side from Snyder three batters later.

This time, Central Arkansas wouldn't put together an answering rally while the Rebels continued to build on the lead.

Ole Miss added a pair of runs in the third inning to take the lead out to 3-0. Three straight first-pitch singles loaded the bases for Ole Miss before Mathis scored his second run of the day on a double play ball to second from Snyder. Will Allen then singled to right center with two outs to bring Will Jamison home and the Rebels were up 3-0 before Central Arkansas would get out of the inning.

A fourth run came across the plate in the fifth inning when Snyder scored from third on a wild pitch. The Rebel first baseman doubled with one out before moving to third on a throwing error by the Central Arkansas third baseman off a ground ball from Allen. He then came home on the errant pitch to make it 4-0 Rebels.

The score held as Ole Miss kept the Bears off the board the rest of the way to sweep the doubleheader.

Laxer (3-0) picked up the win in a predetermined start, working 2.0 innings while allowing only one hit with a walk and a strikeout.

ATHENS, Ga. — The Rebels led for most of the game, but a six-run eighth inning from the Bulldogs put things out of reach as No. 18 Ole Miss (23-11, 6-7 SEC) fell to Georgia (21-13, 6-7 SEC) by a score of 8-4 in the series opener on Thursday.

Ole Miss held a 4-2 lead heading into the eighth inning, but the Bulldogs put together a big rally to move into the lead for the first time on the night with the six-run inning on the way to the win.

Brett Huber (1-2) suffered the loss in relief, entering the game with two men on and no outs in the eighth inning. Both runners belonged to Aaron Greenwood. Huber allowed four runs on four hits with a walk and a strikeout in 1.0 inning of relief work.

Michael Palazzone (1-4) picked up the win, working a complete game as he allowed four runs — only two of them earned — on nine hits with eight strikeouts in the outing.

Ole Miss got on the board in the third inning, pushing two runs across the plate to break the stalemate. Singles from Andrew Mistone and Auston Bousfield put men at the corners with one out before Tanner Mathis singled through the right side to bring Mistone home. Bousfield then scored two batters later on a double from Alex Yarbrough and the Rebels held a 2-0 lead.

Georgia cut into the lead in the fifth inning, using three straight singles with one out to bring the first run home. The Bulldogs then got a fourth consecutive single to tie the game at two and Ole Miss turned to its bullpen for the sophomore right-hander Greenwood.

He then retired the next two batters to get Ole Miss out of the inning.

A wild sixth inning saw the Rebels regain the lead sparked by a pair of errors in left field on the same play. Yarbrough singled up the middle with one out before Snyder would hit a shallow fly ball to left. The Georgia left fielder dropped the ball, allowing Snyder to reach and then threw the ball wide of the bag at second and into right field on the play trying to erase Yarbrough from the base path. It allowed Yarbrough to score and moved Snyder to third base on the play with Ole Miss on top 3-2.

The Rebels added a second run in the frame when Will Allen singled up the middle to score Snyder and give Ole Miss the two-run lead back.

Georgia got things going again in the eighth, using a single and a walk to put two men on before a wild pitch advanced both runners to scoring position. With the count sitting at 1-2 to Peter Verdin, the Rebels turned to the bullpen for closer Brett Huber.

Huber loaded the bases with a walk before a ground ball to short got the Rebels the first out of the inning but brought a run home. With men at the corners, Georgia got a single through the left side from pinch hitter Nelson Ward to tie the game at four.

Georgia then loaded the bases for a second time on an infield single before the Rebels would get the second out of the inning with a strikeout. Kyle Farmer then put the Bulldogs on top for the first time in the game with a three-RBI triple to right center to give Georgia the 7-4 lead.

A sixth run came across the plate a batter later when Farmer crossed the plate on a single to right before the Rebels could throw out Hunter Cole at second trying to leg out a double making it 8-4 for the home team.

Ole Miss couldn't put together a rally in the ninth as Palazzone closed things out

ATHENS, Ga. — On a night where the hits were even, it was the timing of the hits that proved to be the difference as No. 18 Ole Miss (23-12, 6-8 SEC) fell to Georgia (22-13, 7-7 SEC) by a score of 6-3 on Friday night at Foley Field.

The two teams matched hit production with nine hits each, but the Bulldogs came up with the big hit early to push out to an insurmountable lead on the Rebels.

R.J. Hively (3-3) took the loss for the Rebels, allowing five runs on seven hits with a walk and five strikeouts. Ole Miss would use four pitchers on the night as Tanner Bailey, Josh Laxer and Hawtin Buchanan closed things out down the stretch, combining to limit the Bulldogs to one run on two hits with three walks and six strikeouts in the final 5.0 innings.

Alex Wood (5-1) picked up the win for the Bulldogs, working 7.1 innings and allowing three runs on eight hits with two walks and seven strikeouts. Bryan Benzor pitched his first save, working the final 1.2 innings and holding the Rebels to one hit. Benzor entered the game with two men in scoring position and one out in the eighth inning and Georgia up 5-1.

"Alex Wood was tremendous tonight and just wouldn't give in," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We had scoring opportunities early and we didn't get them in. We have to maximize opportunities. Georgia was able to get the timely hit the past two days and really get the clutch hit."

Georgia got on the board in the second inning when Curt Powell hit a two-RBI double to the wall in right field with two outs. The two-run hit was set up by a shot up the middle from Connor Welton that deflected off the glove of Hively and into the outfield, allowing the lead runner to move to third on a ball that would have gotten the Rebels out of the inning.

The Bulldogs built on the lead in the fourth inning when Jared Walsh took the first pitch he saw over the wall in right field to make it 3-0 in favor of Georgia.

The lead continued to grow from there with the Bulldogs pushing two more runs across the plate. One man on, Connor Welton reached on a fielder's choice on a ground ball to short for the first out before a single through the right side put men at the corners. Georgia then executed a double steal to bring home a run and move Powell to second.

Powell took third on a wild pitch and scored a batter later on a sac fly to center before Ole Miss would get out of the inning down 5-0.

Ole Miss cut into the lead in the fifth inning when John Gatlin delivered and RBI-double down the third base line that scored Preston Overbey. Overbey doubled to the wall in right center in the previous at bat to open the fifth for the Rebels. The run put Ole Miss on the board with the score at 5-1.

The Rebels continued to chip away at the lead in the eighth, getting two runs home to cut the lead in half. A Bousfield single and Yarbrough double opened the inning before a Will Allen ground out brought Bousfield home. Yarbrough advanced to third on the play and then scored on an infield single from pinch hitting Austin Anderson to make it 5-3.

Georgia got a run back in the bottom of the inning when Peter Verdin scored from second on a single to center from Welton. Bousfield made a nice throw to the plate from center, but Verdin evaded the tag to score and Welton advanced to second on the play.

The three-run lead would hold as Ole Miss could manage nothing in the ninth and Georgia clinched the weekend series.

Ellis

ATHENS, Ga. — The offense roared to life on Saturday with the Rebels pounding out 20 hits on the afternoon as No. 18 Ole Miss (24-12 7-8 SEC) defeated Georgia (22-14, 7-8 SEC) by a score of 8-3 in the final of the weekend series.

Six Rebels notched multiple hits on the afternoon, paced by a 4-for-6 performance from Tanner Mathis and four of the top five hitters in the lineup recorded multiple-hits in the outing to help grab the win.

Chris Ellis (3-0) picked up the win in relief of starter Mike Mayers, working 0.2 innings with one hit. Ellis entered in the fifth inning with two outs and two men on base and the score at 5-3 with Georgia in the middle of a rally that had plated two runs.

Ellis got the next batter faced to ground out to end the inning and squash the Bulldog comeback bid.

Blake Dieterich (3-2) took the loss for the Bulldogs in his first start of the season after moving from the closer role. The left-hander allowed five runs on nine hits with a walk in 3.1 innings of work. He was the first of seven Georgia pitchers to take the mound on Saturday.

Ole Miss got on the board in the first, using three straight hits from Alex Yarbrough, Matt Snyder and Will Allen to take the 2-0 lead out of the gates. Yarbrough and Snyder delivered back-to-back singles with two outs before Allen hit a triple to right center to drive in both men. Georgia would get out of the inning a batter later with a groundout to short, but Ole Miss was on the board.

Georgia got on the board in the second inning, putting the first three men on base thanks to a single, a walk and a single. Connor Welton then delivered a bloop single to shallow left to bring the first run home and keep the bases loaded with no outs for the Bulldogs. Mayers then struck out the next three batters to end the rally and keep the Rebels on top 2-1.

Ole Miss moved the lead back out to two runs in the fourth inning when John Gatlin hit a double to the wall in left center that scored Andrew Mistone from second. Mistone opened the inning with a walk and moved to second on a ground out to third from Preston Overbey to set up the RBI hit from Gatlin.

A single from Newalu put men at the corners and Georgia had seen enough, going to the bullpen for left-hander Chase Hawkins. Mathis then singled through the right side to bring in Gatlin, before a throwing error to second on a double steal allowed Mathis to move to third and Newalu to score. Ole Miss held a 5-1 lead after the fourth.

The Bulldogs bit back in the fifth, pushing two runs across the board with a two-out rally. Kyle Farmer doubled down the first base line to reach with one out before Mayers would strike out Hunter Cole. With two outs on the board, the Bulldogs got an RBI single from Brett DeLoach to bring Farmer home. A walk and another single in the next two batters pushed home the second run and Ole Miss turned to the bullpen for Chris Ellis.

Ellis then got a groundout to short from Jonathan Hester to end the inning with the Rebels still up 5-3.

Ole Miss loaded the bases in the sixth, but came up empty as Georgia was able to get out of the jam. The Rebels capitalized on a bases loaded situation in the seventh when Austin Anderson drew a one-out walk to score Mistone and send Georgia to the bullpen for its sixth pitcher of the day.

Tanner Mathis then chopped an infield single to short to score a second run in the inning and keep the bases loaded with Rebels. Georgia would get a line out and a fly out to end things, however Ole Miss lead 7-3 at the stretch.

Ole Miss added to the lead in the eighth when Will Jamison followed up a single from Mistone with a triple down the first base line to give the Rebels the 8-3 advantage.

Brett Huber then held the Bulldogs off the board in the ninth to seal the win for the Rebels.

Buchanan

PEARL, Miss. - Freshman right-hander Hawtin Buchanan led the Rebel bullpen in holding the Bulldogs scoreless over the final 5.1 innings of play as No. 22 Ole Miss (25-12) defeated Mississippi State (21-16) by a score of 6-3 in the annual Governor's Cup game played at Trustmark Park.

Matt Snyder went 3-for-4 with two RBI and a run scored to pace the Ole Miss offense, while Buchanan was the first man out of the bullpen to hold the Bulldogs down after a two-run rally in the fourth had cut into the lead.

Buchanan (1-0) picked up the relief win, and was named the MVP of the game, after taking the mound with two outs in the fourth and a man on base. He struck out the first batter faced on his way to 2.2 hitless innings of baseball with five strikeouts and retired all eight batters faced. Dylan Chavez picked up his first save of the season, working the final 1.2 innings with a walk and four strikeouts.

Ole Miss struck out a season-high 16 batters on the night on the way to the win as four pitchers combined in the outing.

Brandon Woodruff (0-1) suffered the loss, allowing five runs on seven hits with a walk and three strikeouts in 3.2 innings of work.

Ole Miss got on the board in the first inning when Matt Snyder came up with an RBI single to right field to score Tanner Mathis from third. Mathis singled to left to open the game before taking second on a sac bunt and third on a groundout to second to set up the score on the Snyder hit. Ole Miss led 1-0 after the first inning of play following a ground ball to short in the next at bat.

Mississippi State answered with a rally of its own in the third inning, loading the bases with two outs before a wild pitch brought a run home to tie the game. With two men on and two outs, a walk loaded the bases before the errant pitch brought the lead runner home to tie the game at one before Ole Miss would get out of the inning.

The Rebels broke things open in the fourth inning, pushing four runs home to take a 5-1 lead after three and a half innings of play.

It started with back-to-back singles with one out from Matt Snyder and Will Allen before a wild pitch moved both men into scoring position. Following a strikeout for the second out, the Rebels put together a rally that was sparked by an infield single down the third base line from Bousfield that scored Snyder to put Ole Miss back on top 2-1.

Allen scored on the next at bat when Zach Kirksey singled through the right side and Bousfield moved from first to third. The speedy centerfielder scored on a throwing error from the Mississippi State catcher on a pickoff attempt that sailed into left field as Kirksey stole second. A single to center from Mistone brought Kirksey home and gave the Rebels the 5-1 lead before the Bulldogs would end the inning.

Mississippi State answered in the bottom of the inning with two runs of its own. A walk, a single and a wild pitch put two men in scoring position with one out before a sac fly to right field would bring the first run home and put a man on third. A ground ball to short looked to have ended the inning, but the batter was ruled safe at first on a bang-bang play and a second run scored to make it 5-3 in favor of the Rebels. Ole Miss then turned to the bullpen for freshman Hawtin Buchanan with one man on and two outs in the inning.

Buchanan struck out the next batter to end the inning with the Rebels holding to a two-run lead.

The Rebels added to the lead in the eighth with a single run to take the advantage back out to three runs. Yarbrough opened the inning with a double to left before scoring on a single to right field from Snyder that put the score at 6-3 in favor of Ole Miss.

The Rebels shut things down the rest of the way with Buchanan and Chavez holding Mississippi State off the board in the eighth and ninth to preserve the 6-3 win.

Yarbrough

OXFORD, Miss. - The Rebel offense carried things in the first game before the pitching staff held things down in the second as No. 22 Ole Miss (27-12, 9-8 SEC) took a pair of games from No. 15 Arkansas (27-12, 8-9 SEC) on Saturday to clinch the weekend series.

After having game one suspended in the fourth inning on Friday night due to inclement weather, the two teams came out and finished off game one before playing the regularly scheduled Saturday game at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Ole Miss took the first game 8-2 behind the solid hitting of Alex Yarbrough (4-for-5, three RBI) and Matt Snyder (2-for-4, three RBI, two home runs) as the Rebels pounded out 14 hits. Ole Miss then had Mike Mayers and R.J. Hively combine for a two-hit shutout of Arkansas in game two to clinch the series.

The 1-0 victory in game two was the first for Ole Miss since a 1-0 shutout of Mississippi State on April 11, 2006 in the Mayor's Trophy game in Jackson. It also marked the first 1-0 loss for Arkansas since May 7, 2004 when Ole Miss accomplished the feat in the series opener in Oxford.

GAME 1: Ole Miss 8, Arkansas 2

Ole Miss got off to a quick start in Friday night's game, using a two-run home run from Matt Snyder in the first inning to get on the board. Alex Yarbrough scored on the play after reaching on a sharply hit single to third before scoring on the Snyder hit.

Arkansas cut into the lead with a lead-off home run from Sam Bates in the second inning, but Rebel starter Bobby Wahl struck out the next three batters to end the inning.

Ole Miss added three more runs in the bottom half of the second. A walk of Auston Bousfield and a single from Andrew Mistone put men at the corners before Tanner Mathis singled up the middle to bring the first run home. Yarbrough then came up with a two-out double to drive in both Mistone and Mathis and the Rebels held a 5-1 lead after two innings.

An RBI single from Zach Kirksey in the third inning put Ole Miss on top 6-1 before the rain would come in the fourth inning and force the suspension of the game.

The Rebels sent Aaron Greenwood to the mound at the start of the day on Saturday to resume the first game of the series. The right-hander took the mound with two outs and a man on first and a 3-1 count on Arkansas' Jake Wise. He struck out the batter to end the inning and kept momentum on the side of the home team.

Greenwood (1-0) picked up the win, working 2.2 innings and allowing one run on three hits with four strikeouts. He was one of four pitchers the Rebels would use to close out the first game of the day.

Brandon Moore (3-1) suffered the loss for Arkansas, allowing six runs on seven hits with a walk and a strikeout in 2.1 innings of work. Randall Fant closed out the game for the Razorbacks after entering the game in the third inning on Friday night and taking the mound again on Saturday.

OXFORD, Miss. - The Rebel offense carried things in the first game before the pitching staff held things down in the second as No. 22 Ole Miss (27-12, 9-8 SEC) took a pair of games from No. 15 Arkansas (27-12, 8-9 SEC) on Saturday to clinch the weekend series.

After having game one suspended in the fourth inning on Friday night due to inclement weather, the two teams came out and finished off game one before playing the regularly scheduled Saturday game at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

Ole Miss took the first game 8-2 behind the solid hitting of Alex Yarbrough (4-for-5, three RBI) and Matt Snyder (2-for-4, three RBI, two home runs) as the Rebels pounded out 14 hits. Ole Miss then had Mike Mayers and R.J. Hively combine for a two-hit shutout of Arkansas in game two to clinch the series.

The 1-0 victory in game two was the first for Ole Miss since a 1-0 shutout of Mississippi State on April 11, 2006 in the Mayor's Trophy game in Jackson. It also marked the first 1-0 loss for Arkansas since May 7, 2004 when Ole Miss accomplished the feat in the series opener in Oxford.

"In general it was just a great day," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "It was a great job by us coming out to finish the first game. Ryne Stanek was so good, but I thought Mayers matched him pitch-for-pitch. It could not have worked out any better putting RJ Hively in the bullpen and him performing the way he did. He came in that tough situation and pitched well. He used the fans to his advantage. We have what has to be one of the best atmospheres in the country and that was to his advantage in the last couple innings."

GAME TWO: Ole Miss 1, Arkansas 0

In a contrast of styles, it was a pitcher's duel in game two after the offensive output and big hits from both teams in game one.

Mayers (4-2) picked up the win as he worked 6.1 innings and allowed only two hits with two walks and four strikeouts in his time on the mound. Hively then picked up his first save, closing out the final 2.2 innings without allowing a hit as he tallied three strikeouts to only one walk.

Ryne Stanek (6-2) suffered the loss for Arkansas, allowing the game's only run on five hits with two strikeouts in 6.1 innings of work.

Ole Miss pushed its only run across in the sixth inning when Andrew Mistone scored on a Yarbrough single to left with two outs. Mistone opened the inning with a single before the Rebels would use back-to-back sac bunts to push him to third base to set up the score on the Yarbrough hit.

It would prove to be all the Rebels would need as Hively and the Rebels defense held Arkansas off the board the rest of the way. Ole Miss turned a pair of double plays in the third and seventh innings and came up with a big groundout to short with a man on third in the eighth inning to preserve the shutout win.

April 22, 2012 • Oxford, Miss.

Yarbrough

OXFORD, Miss. — After taking the first two games of the weekend series, the Rebels missed out on the sweep as No. 22 Ole Miss (27-13, 9-9 SEC) fell to No. 15 Arkansas (28-12, 9-9 SEC) by a score of 11-3 on Sunday in the series finale.

The series win, however, jumped the Rebels up into second place in the Southeastern Conference Western Division and put the team two games behind No. 1 LSU in the divisional race after the weekend.

Ole Miss won the first two games of the weekend 8-2 and 1-0 before the Sunday loss.

Sam Smith (2-3) suffered the loss in the finale, allowing five runs on six hits in 1.0 inning of work.

Cade Lynch (2-1) picked up the win in relief, working 3.0 innings and allowed one run on three hits with walk and four strikeouts. He came on to relieve the starter, D.J. Baxendale, who worked 3.2 innings and allowed one run on six hits with two walks and four strikeouts.

"It was a tough day for us and a good day for them," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We swung it all right, but we didn't get that key base hit to score a lot of runs to get back into the game. They swung it well throughout the game."

"It was a tough day to pitch," Bianco said. "Sometimes that is just baseball and it was just one of those days. It's hard to understand, but that's baseball. Arkansas got two hits yesterday afternoon and got 18 today and seemed so locked in. They were very impressive at the plate."

Arkansas got off to the quick start on Sunday, pushing home four runs in the first inning and three runs in the second inning to take the seven-run lead on the Rebels out of the gates.

Ole Miss got on the board in the third inning when Austin Anderson scored on a Matt Snyder single to left center. Anderson opened the inning with a walk and moved to third in a single from Yarbrough to set up the score on the Snyder hit that made it 7-1.

Arkansas got a run back in the fourth inning with a sac fly from Dominic Ficociello to extend the lead back to seven runs. The Razorbacks would build on the lead from there, adding a single run in the sixth and two more in the seventh before Ole Miss would score again.

The Rebels plated a second run in the bottom of the seventh when Tanner Mathis came home on a double play ball to third from Snyder with the bases loaded. Mathis walked to open the inning before back-to-back singles from Blake Newalu and Yarbrough loaded the bases.

Arkansas would get out of the inning with no further damage, posting a strikeout following the Snyder ground ball still up 11-2.

Ole Miss plated its final run of the day in the ninth when Snyder came home on a single from Sikes Orvis to put the score at 11-3.

Bailey

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Junior right-hander Tanner Bailey worked a perfect four innings in a predetermined start on Tuesday night, but a late Tiger rally was trouble as No. 18 Ole Miss (27-14) fell to Memphis (18-23) by a score of 4-2 at AutoZone Park.

Bailey retired all 12 batters faced, including four strikeouts, and Ole Miss held a 2-0 lead through 6.5 innings. But, Memphis pushed two runs across in the seventh and two in the eighth to claim the win.

The Rebels had a chance to rally in the ninth, putting men at the corners with one out, but Memphis was able to turn a double play on a ball up the middle that ended the threat of an Ole Miss comeback.

Dylan Chavez (3-3) suffered the loss for Ole Miss in relief, working 1.1 inning and allowing two runs on four hits with two strikeouts as Jacob Wilson hit a two-run home run to left off Chavez in the eighth to give Memphis the lead for the first time in the game.

Michael Wills (3-1) picked up the win as he worked 8.1 innings and allowed two runs, one earned, on nine hits with a walk and three strikeouts.

"You have to play all nine innings and they played better than we did in the last couple of innings," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We have to figure out a way to finish things off. Tanner Bailey was terrific tonight in the start for us. He did what we needed him to do and that was throw strikes, fill up the zone and he did that."

Neither team could manage anything early in the game, with the Rebels notching a pair of hits in the first inning before Memphis would get out of the inning and then hold Ole Miss off the bases through the next three innings.

Ole Miss scored in the fifth inning when Tanner Mathis came up with an infield single with two outs and the bases loaded to bring home John Gatlin. The ground ball to the left side was saved by the Memphis third baseman, but he threw the ball into the outfield trying to get Austin Bousfield out at second, allowing the Rebels to plate a second run as Blake Newalu went home on the throwing error. The score sat at 2-0 in favor of the Rebels after the top of the fifth.

Memphis got its first hit of the game in the seventh inning as the Tigers put together the first rally of the night. Back-to-back singles opened the frame before Ole Miss would go to the bullpen for left-hander Dylan Chavez in relief of right-hander Aaron Greenwood. Another Tiger single loaded the bases before Chavez would strike out the next two batters.

T.J. Rich then came up with a single up the middle on a full count pitch to drive in two runs and tie the game at two in the seventh. Chavez got the next batter to fly out to end the inning, but the lead was gone with the score tied after seven complete.

The Tigers took the lead in the eighth when Wilson hit his two-run shot to left field. Tucker Tubbs scored on the play after reaching in the previous at bat with a double down the third base line. The Rebels then went to the bullpen for Chris Ellis to replace Chavez.

Yarbrough

STARKVILLE, Miss. — Alex Yarbrough led the offense on the night, going 3-for-4 at the plate and extending his active hitting streak to 21 games, but the Rebels couldn't get a run home as No. 18 Ole Miss (27-15, 9-10 SEC) fell to Mississippi State (26-16, 9-10 SEC) by a score of 4-0 on Friday night.

Ole Miss and Mississippi State matched each other for hits, both tallying five, but the Bulldogs took advantage of a pair of Rebel fielding errors to plate three unearned runs on the way to the win.

Bobby Wahl (5-1) suffered his first loss of the season, allowing three runs — one earned — on four hits with two walks and seven strikeouts in 6.0 innings of work.

Chris Stratton (8-0) picked up the win, pitching a complete game and allowing five hits with one walk and seven strikeouts on the night.

"Stratton was tremendous for them tonight," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "He gave us very little opportunity tonight outside of the first inning and the ninth inning. He pitched great. But, I think Bobby Wahl pitched pretty well himself. Mississippi State was able to get a couple of hits with runners in scoring position and took advantage of their opportunities created by a couple of fielding errors."

Mississippi State scored first, plating an unearned run on a fielding error at short with two outs in the third. Adam Frazier reached on a single to left field before moving to third on a wild pitch. Mitch Slauter then hit a ground ball to short that was bobbled, allowing the run to score instead of ending the inning. Back-to-back singles from the next two batters pushed a second run home before the Rebels would get out of the inning down 2-0.

The Bulldogs built on the lead in the fifth, using a single to right from Slauter to score Sam Frost from second. Frazier reached on a walk before moving to second on a sac bunt from Frazier. At the end of five, Mississippi State led the Rebels 3-0.

Another unearned run in the seventh inning pushed the Mississippi State lead out to 4-0, as Hunter Renfroe scored on a double to left center from Brent Brownlee. Renfroe reached on a fielding error at third before advancing to second on a balk to set up the score on the Brownlee hit.

Ole Miss would threaten in the ninth, getting two men on with one out, but a grounder to short that resulted in a double play ended the potential Rebel rally and the game.

Hively

STARKVILLE, Miss. — After a first game where the Bulldogs proved to be the opportunistic team, the Rebels returned the favor on Saturday as No. 18 Ole Miss (28-15, 10-10 SEC) defeated Mississippi State (26-17, 9-11 SEC) by a score of 6-2 to even the weekend series.

The Rebels took advantage of a pair of errors in the seventh inning to push home two runs and claim the lead before using a third error at third base in the ninth to claim the 6-2 win.

R.J. Hively (4-3) picked up the win in relief, entering the game in the ninth with the score tied at two following a Mississippi State home run and allowed one hit with a walk and two strikeouts over the final 4.0 innings to pick up the win.

Kendall Graveman (3-3) suffered the loss, allowing four runs — three earned — on six hits with a walk and four strikeouts in 6.1 innings of work.

Ole Miss got on the board first in the second game of the series when Matt Snyder hit a two-run shot to right field to give the Rebels the 2-0 lead in the first inning. Andrew Mistone scored on the play after reaching on a single up the middle before the two-out hit by Snyder got Ole Miss in the scoring column.

Mississippi State responded in the sixth, using a two-run home run from Mitch Slauter to tie the game at two. Adam Frazier scored on the play after reaching base on a full count walk in the previous at bat. Ole Miss then went to the bullpen for Hively, who retired the next three batters to end the inning.

The Rebels moved back into the lead in the seventh when Austin Anderson came up with an RBI single to right with two outs and men at first and second. Ole Miss took advantage of a fielding error on the play to bring a second run home and take a 4-2 lead on the Bulldogs as the Mississippi State.

With Blake Newalu pinch running at second, Anderson delivered a single through the right side to score Newalu and advance Orvis to third. A fielding error by the third baseman on the throw to the bag from right field allowed Orvis to score as the ball got away from the fielder and went to the fence down the third base line.

The Rebels added to the lead in the ninth inning when Tanner Mathis was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded and two outs to push home a fifth run on the afternoon. Mississippi State then turned to its bullpen for right-hander Jonathan Holder with the bases still loaded and two outs.

Mistone then struck out on a wild pitch, but the ball rolled up the third base line, allowing Mistone to reach and all runners to advance as Ole Miss took a 6-2 lead on the Bulldogs. Holder then got a fly out to center to end the inning with the Rebels holding to a four-run lead.

Hively shut the Bulldogs down in the ninth, retiring three straight batters to pick up the win for the Rebels and even the series.

Kirksey

STARKVILLE, Miss. — An uncharacteristic first inning that featured two walks and three hit batters proved to be too much to overcome for the Rebels on Sunday as No. 18 Ole Miss (28-16, 10-11 SEC) fell to Mississippi State (27-17, 10-11 SEC) by a score of 4-2 in the series finale.

In what was an odd game all-around, the Rebels out-hit the Bulldogs 8-2 but didn't score until the eighth inning, while Mississippi State scored all four runs in the first inning with only one hit.

The Bulldogs finished the day with only two hits for the game.

"It's disappointing and a game we really gave away in the first inning," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We hit many people with pitches in the first as we have hit in a month (combined)."

"We weren't able to do much at the plate," Bianco said. "We got some lead-off doubles and then weren't able to get them home. There aren't many games where you only give up two hits, commit no errors and lose."

Tanner Bailey (1-1) suffered the loss in his first Southeastern Conference start, allowing four runs on one hit with two walks. He did not record an out before leaving the game just days after working a perfect 4.0 innings in a start at Memphis.

Luis Pollorena (3-0) picked up the win as he held the Rebels scoreless, but allowed four hits with two walks and seven strikeouts in 5.1 innings of work. Caleb Reed then picked up his eighth save of the season, allowing two runs on four hits with a strikeout over the final 3.2 innings.

Ole Miss' bullpen was solid the rest of the way as Dylan Chavez, Hawtin Buchanan and Brett Huber held the Bulldogs to one hit the rest of the way to give the Rebels the chance to rally.

Mississippi State struck first, loading the bases with no outs on a walk, a single and a hit batter. A second walk pushed the first run home and Ole Miss turned to its bullpen for left-hander Dylan Chavez. Chavez got a strikeout in his first batter faced, but hit the second batter to push home a second run and kept the bases loaded. A third hit batter in the next at bat made it 3-0 in favor of Mississippi State.

The Bulldogs then got a sac fly from Wes Rea to make it 4-0 for the home team before the Rebels would get out of the inning with a groundout to second.

Ole Miss got on the board in the eighth inning when Matt Snyder delivered an RBI double off the batters eye in straightaway center field to score Jake Overbey from first. Orvis opened the inning as a pinch hitter, coming up with a single through the right side before Overbey was inserted as a pinch-runner. Snyder's hit pushed him home to cut the lead to 4-1, but the Rebels couldn't continue the rally in that half inning.

Zack Kirksey then hit a solo shot to right field to open the ninth and trim the lead to 4-2, but Ole Miss couldn't get anything more going from there as the Bulldogs claimed the win by two runs.

Laxer

PEARL, Miss. - Freshman right-hander Josh Laxer turned in a career night and the Rebel offense took advantage of limited opportunities as No. 24 Ole Miss (29-16) shut out Southern Miss (25-19) by a score of 3-0 on Tuesday night at Trustmark Park.

Laxer (4-0) worked a career-long 7.0 innings and handcuffed the Golden Eagle batters for most of that time, allowing four hits with a walk and five strikeouts. R.J. Hively picked up his second save of the season, working the final inning with two strikeouts and retired the side in order.

Dillon Day (0-1) suffered the loss for Southern Miss in his first pitching appearance of the season, allowing three runs - two earned - on six hits with a walk and three strikeouts in 5.0 innings of work.

"We played well tonight," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "Josh (Laxer) was tremendous. We played great defense. We normally play well defensively, but tonight we had a couple of web gems and in this type of game, those plays can be game changers."

"I'm proud of Josh," Bianco said. "I thought he was special tonight. We haven't seen that type of performance out of him yet this season, and it was good to see that tonight."

Ole Miss struck first, pushing two runs home in the second inning to get off to the quick start. Matt Snyder doubled down the right field line to start things off before taking third on a wild pitch. He then scored on a single up the middle from Will Allen for the first run. A throwing error on a pickoff move allowed Allen to move from first to third before an infield single from John Gatlin brought Allen home and gave Ole Miss the two-run lead.

The Rebels built on the lead in the fourth inning when Auston Bousfield delivered a sac fly to left field that scored Allen from third. Allen reached on a single through the left side before taking second on a wild pitch. The sophomore catcher then stole third to set up the score on the Bousfield fly out to make it 3-0.

Allen and Gatlin led the Rebel offense of the night with each player going 2-for-4 at the plate with an RBI. Allen also scored two of Ole Miss' three runs on the night.

OXFORD, Miss. — The Rebel offense put together a nine-run fourth inning and got solid relief pitching to hold the Thoroughbreds in check as No. 24 Ole Miss (30-16) defeated Murray State (21-25) by a score of 11-5 on Wednesday night at Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

After falling behind early when Murray State put four runs across the plate in the first inning, the Ole Miss offense came alive — paced by three multiple-hit performances — and rallied to claim the win heading into the Chris Ellis (4-0) picked up the win in relief, entering the game in the first inning with the bases loaded and the Rebels down four runs. He struck out the first batter faced on his way to 4.1 scoreless innings of work and allowed three hits with five strikeouts.

Kyle Cornett (3-3) suffered the loss, allowing eight runs — five earned — on seven hits with three walks and a strikeout in 3.1 innings of work.

Murray State jumped out to the early lead, loading the bases with a pair of singles and a walk for the first three batters. An RBI single brought home the first two runs before a sac fly would make it 3-0 for the Thoroughbreds. A fielding error at short loaded the bases for a second time in the inning before a two-out single brought home the fourth run.

A hit batter loaded the bases for the third time in the inning and the Rebels called in Ellis out of the bullpen who struck out the lead-off hitter to end the inning.

The Rebels got a first run across in the third inning when Austin Anderson scored on a sac fly to left field from Alex Yarbrough to make it 4-1.

Ole Miss then used the big fourth inning to move in front for good, plating nine runs and sending 13 men to the plate.

It started with a lead-off double from Will Allen before a John Gatlin single up the middle brought Allen home. A walk of Austin Bousfield put two men on and brought Preston Overbey to the plate. Overbey laid down a sac bunt, but a throwing error by the Murray State third baseman allowed Overbey to reach safely. Gatlin to score and Bousfield to move to third on the play. Anderson then lay down a sac bunt to advance Overbey and score Bousfield and the game was tied at four.

Ole Miss would go on to get an RBI double and an RBI single from Tanner Mathis and Andrew Mistone in back-to-back at bats to put the Rebels on top 6-4. Yarbrough then walked before Allen came up with his second hit in the inning, an RBI single through the left side to continue the scoring and put the score at 7-4.

Zach Kirksey then delivered a two-RBI double to left that hit the top of the wall and bounced back into the field of play. A Bousfield RBI single capped the scoring in the inning and left the score at 10-4.

Murray State cut the lead back to five runs with a sac fly in the seventh inning, but Ole Miss pushed it back out to a six-run lead with a single run in the eighth inning when Austin Knight came up with an RBI single to left to make it 11-5.

Wahl

OXFORD, Miss. — In a pitcher's duel between two of the Southeastern Conference's top pitchers, neither factored into the ultimate outcome as No. 24 Ole Miss (30-17, 10-12 SEC) fell to No. 4 LSU (37-10, 15-7 SEC) in 13 innings by a score of 4-3.

With the score tied in the top of the 13th, Grant Dozar delivered a single deep to short that scored Raph Rhymes from third to put LSU on top 4-3. Ole Miss couldn't answer in the bottom of the inning despite getting a man on base with a walk and one out and the Tigers grabbed the win in the series opener.

Rhymes reached on a one-out walk before moving to third on a single through the right side from Tyler Moore to set up the score on the Dozar hit.

R.J. Hively (4-4) took the loss for Ole Miss in relief, working 6.0 innings and allowing two runs on four hits with two walks and six strikeouts. Bobby Wahl worked 7.0 innings in the start, allowing two runs on seven hits with two walks and six strikeouts. He left the game with the Rebels holding a 3-2 lead after seven complete.

Joey Bourgeois (3-2) picked up the win, allowing one hit with two walks and a strikeout in 1.0 inning of relief work. Nick Goody then picked up his ninth save of the season as he closed out the game with a walk and a strikeout in 1.0 inning of work.

LSU used six pitchers on the night, including 7.2 innings of work from starter Kevin Gausman. Gausman allowed three runs on six hits with four strikeouts in his time on the mound.

LSU struck first, using a solo home run from Moore in the second inning to get on the board. The Tigers then added a second run in the third when Rhymes delivered an RBI single up the middle to score Austin Nola from second. Nola had reached on a single down the third base line before taking second on a groundout from Mason Katz and LSU led 2-0.

Ole Miss got on the board in the sixth when Austin Bousfield scored from second on a single through the right side from Tanner Mathis. Bousfield singled to open the inning and took second on a sac bunt from Will Jamison to set up the score on the Mathis hit.

The Rebels moved into the lead in the seventh when Matt Snyder opened the inning with a solo shot to right field to tie the game. Back-to-back singles from Will Allen and John Gatlin put two men on following the Snyder home run and a sac bunt from Austin Anderson moved them into scoring position. Senquez Golson then pinch ran for Allen at third before Bousfield delivered a sac fly to center to bring Golson home and put Ole Miss on top.

Dozar then came up with his first big hit of the night in the eighth, delivering a two-out home run to left field to tie the game at three and set up extra innings after neither team could score from there.

Ole Miss had opportunities with runners in scoring position in the 10th, 11th and 12th, that included a bases loaded situation in the 12th inning, but couldn't get a man home to claim the win.

Huber

OXFORD, Miss. — Zach Kirksey hit a solo home run in the fourth inning to spark a three-run rally before Austin Bousfield added a two-run home run in the seventh to put the game out of reach as No. 24 Ole Miss (31-17, 11-12 SEC) downed No. 4 LSU (37-11, 15-8 SEC) by a score of 7-4 on Saturday to even the weekend series.

The bullpen was solid for the Rebels as three pitchers combined to hold LSU off the board over the last 5.0 innings of play and give Ole Miss the opportunity to grab the win. Tanner Bailey (2-1) picked up the relief win, working 2.0 innings of two-hit ball with two strikeouts. Chris Ellis then worked an inning before Ole Miss called on Brett Hively to close things out in the eighth.

Huber picked up his eighth save of the season, allowing one hit with a walk and a strikeout in his 2.0 innings of work. He is now tied with Justin Huisman for second all-time in saves at Ole Miss with 24 for his career.

Kurt McCune (2-4) suffered the loss for LSU, allowing a run on three hits with a walk in 1.2 innings of relief work. He entered the game in the fifth and allowed the go-ahead run in the sixth before coming out of the game.

The Rebels scored first on Saturday coming up with a single run in the first inning when Tanner Mathis scored from third on a groundout to short from Alex Yarbrough. Mathis reached on a lead-off single before moving to second on a wild pitch. A sac bunt from Andrew Mistone pushed him to third and set up the score on the Yarbrough ball.

LSU responded in the fourth, plating four runs with a big inning that was sparked by a walk and a hit batter in back-to-back pitches with one out. Tyler Moore then drove in the first run with a single to right center that put men at the corners before a sac bunt from Grant Dozar scored Raph Rhymes from third. Will Allen fielded the ball off the bunt and dove for Rhymes who was sliding in at home, but was unable to make the tag in time as Rhymes crossed the plate for the second run of the inning.

With two outs on the board, a walk of Tyler Hanover put two men on base for the Tigers before Jacoby Jones hit a two-RBI double to center field to give LSU the 4-1 lead.

Ole Miss answered the LSU rally with one of its own in the bottom of the frame, starting things off with a solo shot from Kirksey to cut the lead in half. A walk of Austin Bousfield and a single from Austin Anderson put two men on before back-to-back RBI-singles from Mathis and Mistone would tie the score at four.

A double from Will Jamison and an RBI single from Mathis put Ole Miss on top 5-4 in the sixth inning as the Rebels moved in front for good.

Ole Miss extended the lead in the seventh inning when Bousfield delivered his first career home run, a two-run shot down the left field line that hit the foul pole to give the Rebels the 7-4 lead. Senquez Golson scored on the hit after entering the game to pinch run for Will Allen who reached base with a lead-off walk.

OXFORD, Miss. — The Rebels rallied once to tie things up in the third inning, but LSU used a four home run day to pull away in the series finale as No. 24 Ole Miss (31-18, 11-13 SEC) fell to No. 4 LSU (38-11, 16-8 SEC) by a score of 12-3 on Sunday.

Matt Snyder added to his RBI total for the season with a two-RBI hit in the third inning to tie things up in the third-inning rally and Austin Bousfield hit his second home run in as many days with a solo shot in the seventh, but it was all the runs the Rebels would muster on the afternoon.

Dylan Chavez (3-4) took the loss for the Rebels, allowing three runs on four hits with a walk and a strikeout in 3.0 innings of work.

Aaron Nola (6-2) picked up the win for the Tigers as he allowed three runs on seven hits with two walks and two strikeouts in 7.0 innings of work.

"It was not a very good day for us on the mound and it was a very good day for them offensively," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We fell behind in counts, hit guys and walked guys. They made us pay for it. Aaron Nola was so good for them on the mound. He placed his pitches and you can see why he is going to be a great one for them. We did not get a ton of good swings or hit a lot of balls hard on a day where it seemed like the ball was really flying out."

LSU struck first on Sunday with a two-RBI double with two outs from Jacob Jones with the bases loaded in the second inning. The Tigers used a single, a hit batter and a walk to load the bags before Jones would come up with the two-out hit.

Ole Miss answered in the bottom of the third with a two-RBI single off the wall in right field from Snyder that scored Andrew Mistone and Alex Yarbrough. A walk of Mistone and a single from Yarbrough put the two men on before Snyder drove them both in with the ball driven to the wall in right field to tie the game at two.

LSU got a solo shot from Tyler Ross to open the third and move back into the lead. It sparked a five-run inning for the Tigers and was the first of a pair of two-home run innings for LSU on the afternoon. Austin Nola also hit a three-run shot in the fourth as a part of the Tigers first five-run frame.

A second two-home run inning in the sixth effectively put the game out of reach as LSU again pushed five runs home to take the lead out to 12-2. Mason Katz opened the inning with a solo shot before Ross would deliver a sac fly and Jacob Jones added on a three-run shot.

Bousfield came up with his second home run of the series in the seventh inning when opened the frame with a ball driven over the wall in left to make it 12-3. The score would sit there the rest of the way as Ole Miss would manage four more hits, but hit into a pair of inning ending double plays over the final three frames.

Wahl

OXFORD, Miss. — Tanner Mathis went 2-for-4 with two RBI while Bobby Wahl and R.J. Hively combined to hold the Volunteers' bats in check as No. 24 Ole Miss (32-18, 12-13 SEC) defeated Tennessee (24-25, 8-17 SEC) by a score of 4-2 on Friday night in the series opener.

Wahl (6-1) picked up the win with 7.0 innings of work and allowed two runs on five hits with two walks and six strikeouts. Hively then picked up his third save of the season with 2.0 scoreless and hitless innings, retiring all six batters faced and posting four strikeouts.

Dalton Sabheragen (5-2) pitched a complete game for Tennessee, allowing four runs on 11 hits with two walks and two strikeouts in the outing.

"It's nice to win on Friday," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We haven't done that in a while. Bobby (Wahl) was terrific. Offensively, Coach Godwin really had the guys locked in. Even though we only scored four runs, we looked good offensively all night long. We got some good swings. Blake Newalu got big hit run early. Preston Overbey was only in for two at-bats, but he swung the bat well. Austin Bousfield continues to swing well for us. We had another clean night defensively. We were able to answer their score and that's big momentum wise."

Tennessee struck first, pushing home a run in the second inning when Chris Fritts scored from third on a sac bunt from Parker Wormsley. Fritts reached on a lead-off walk and moved first to third on a single up the middle from Chris Pierce. Wahl then got a groundout and a strikeout of the next two batters after the sac bunt to limit the damage in the inning.

Ole Miss responded in the home half of the inning, driving in three runs on four straight hits to open the inning. Bousfield led things off with a double to left center before scoring on a single to right field from Overbey. Newalu then doubled to put two men in scoring position before Mathis delivered a single up the middle to drive in both Overbey and Newalu and put the Rebels on top 3-1.

The Vols cut the lead to one run in the sixth inning when Zach Osborne scored from third on an infield single to third base from Pierce with two outs on the board. Osborne singled to right before taking second on a groundout to first from Davis Morgan. Drew Steckenrider walked before a double steal with Osborne and Steckenrider would put two men in scoring position. The Rebels struck out the next batter before Osborne would score on the Fritts single to make it 3-2.

Tennessee would try another delayed steal with runners at first and third, but the Rebels caught the lead runner, Steckenrider, in a rundown between third and home and got the out to end the inning.

For the second time on the night, Ole Miss answered a Tennessee score with one of its own in the bottom half of the inning. Newalu delivered a sac fly to center field to score Bousfield and Ole Miss reclaimed a two-run lead at 4-2 that would hold down the stretch.

Snyder

OXFORD, Miss. — Senior first baseman Matt Snyder saved the best for last, belting out a three-run home run in the bottom of the 11th on senior day to give No. 24 Ole Miss (32-18, 13-13 SEC) a 7-4 win over Tennessee (24-26, 8-18 SEC) and clinched the weekend series.

It was the first walk-off home run for Snyder in his career and marked his 12th of the season - the 10th in Southeastern Conference play this year for the left-handed hitter.

It took a big hit from a freshman to set up the game-winning hit for the senior, as Sikes Orvis came up with a two-run home run as a pinch hitter in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game and set up the extra-inning win for the Rebels.

With the win, the Rebels have clinched a berth in the Southeastern Conference Tournament.

Brett Huber (2-2) picked up the win in relief, working the final two innings of play and allowing one hit with a walk and a strikeout. Huber entered the game in relief of Tanner Bailey who worked 5.0 innings in relief himself and allowed one run on one hit with a walk and eight strikeouts.

Drew Steckenrider (4-6) suffered the loss in relief, allowing five runs on three hits with five walks and three strikeouts over the final 4.1 innings.

Tennessee struck first, turning a Zach Osborne walk into a run with a single that moved Osborne from first to third and a sac fly from Steckenrider to go up 1-0 in the first inning.

The Vols added single runs in the third and fourth inning to move out to a 3-0 lead on the Rebels as Tennessee starter Nick Williams held Ole Miss off the board through six innings

Hively

OXFORD, Miss. — R.J. Hively led a solid pitching performance from the Rebels as No. 24 Ole Miss (34-18, 14-13 SEC) defeated Tennessee (24-27, 8-19 SEC) by a score of 4-2 on Sunday to sweep the weekend series with the Volunteers.

The sweep was the first of the season for the Rebels in Southeastern Conference play and closed out the home portion of the regular season for Ole Miss. The Rebels will close out the regular season on the road this week with four games, including a Tuesday night contest at Arkansas State and a three-game series at Vanderbilt starting on Thursday night.

Hively (5-4) picked up the win for the Rebels, allowing two unearned runs on four hits with a walk and five strikeouts in 5.0 innings of work. Aaron Greenwood then worked 3.2 hitless with a walk and four strikeouts to hold Tennessee in check before Brett Huber would pick up his ninth save of the season with the final out of the game.

Hively factored into two of the three wins on the weekend, picking up a save on Friday night before taking the win in a start on Sunday. Huber moved into sole possession of second all-time in saves at Ole Miss with the save on the Sunday and now has 25 for his career. He needs one more save to tie three-time All-American Stephen Head atop the saves list at Ole Miss.

Tennessee capitalized on a pair of Rebel errors in the first inning to push a run home, but Ole Miss limited the damage to one run with a strikeout following an RBI double from Chris Fritts that put Tennessee on the board.

The Rebels used a pair of Tennessee errors in the bottom half of the inning to get a run across and tie the game after the first Ole Miss two batters reached on errors. A sac fly to center field from Will Allen with the bases loaded scored Tanner Mathis from third and the score was tied at one.

Ole Miss added two more runs in the second inning to grab the lead. Auston Bousfield opened the inning with a triple to right field before coming home a single from Preston Overbey. A sac bunt from Austin Anderson moved Overbey to second and he took third on a groundout to second from Mathis. Andrew Mistone then singled up the middle to score Overbey and Ole Miss held the 3-1 lead.

Tennessee cut the lead to one in the fifth when a third Rebel error allowed Zach Luther to score from third. Luther reached on a walk and moved to second on a single from Will Maddox. A double steal put both runners in scoring position before a throwing error with two outs allowed him to score and cut the lead to 3-2.

Ole Miss would get out of the inning, catching Maddox in a rundown as he attempted to steal home.

A single run in the seventh pushed the lead back out to two runs as Mistone scored on a second sac fly from Allen to make it 4-2. That score would hold until the end as the Rebel bullpen held Tennessee at bay the rest of the way.

Kirksey

JONESBORO, Ark. — Zach Kirksey hit his 13th home run of the season, a two-run shot to give the Rebels the early lead, but a big fifth inning from the Red Wolves proved to be too much to overcome as No. 22 Ole Miss (34-19) fell to Arkansas State (29-21) by a score of .

Casey Mulholland (0-2) took the loss for the Rebels in relief, allowing two runs on three hits in 1.0 inning of work. Mulholland entered the game in the fourth inning to relieve starter Josh Laxer with a man on first base and no outs.

Chandler Hawkins (2-2) picked up the relief win for the Red Wolves, working 1.2 scoreless innings with a hit and a strikeout. He entered the game in the fifth to relieve starter Cody Woodhouse.

"We gave ourselves no shot tonight on the mound," said Ole Miss head coach Mike Bianco. "We gave up a couple of big innings which is the kiss of death. We don't usually give up a ton of hits, and we added two errors on top of that to boot. It's tough when you don't put zeros up on the board when you're on the mound."

Ole Miss got on the board first when Zach Kirksey cranked a two-run shot to right field to give the Rebels the 2-0 lead in the second inning.

Arkansas State answered with a single run in the bottom of the inning when Claude Johnson came home on a wild pitch to cut the lead in half. Johnson walked to open the inning before a second walk and a sac bunt would move him to third and set up the score on the wild pitch to make it 2-1.

The Red Wolves took the lead in the fourth with two more runs to make it 3-2. Johnson again led things off, this time with a single, before moving to third on a double from Ryan Emery. He scored on a groundout to second that put Emery at third. Another wild pitch brought Emery home and gave Arkansas State the lead.

The Red Wolves then broke things open in the fifth inning, using five hits and a pair of errors to plate five runs and take the lead out to 8-2 on the Rebels.

Ole Miss cut the lead in half in the seventh inning when Auston Bousfield came up with a two-RBI double to right with two outs to make it 8-4. Austin Anderson and Tanner Mathis scored on the play after reaching on a walk and a single before the Bousfield hit. Alex Yarbrough then hit a double down the right field line to drive in Bousfield and cut the lead to 8-5.

Arkansas State responded in the bottom of the frame, getting a two-out double down the left field line that was just out of reach of a diving Tanner Mathis to take the lead back out to four at 9-5. Dustin Jones scored on the play after reaching on a single through the left side in the previous at bat before Michael Jones doubled to score him from first.

The Rebels would load the bases with two outs in the eighth, but Arkansas State got a groundout to end the inning and held on to the 9-5 lead.

Arkansas State would add a 10th run in the eighth inning to take the lead out to five runs and the final margin of victory of 10-5 as Ole Miss could not answer in the ninth.
