BUCS PICKED FOURTH IN PRESEASON SOCON POLL

This season the Buccaneers were picked to finish fourth in the preseason coaches' and media poll.

YOUNG BUT EXPERIENCED

Heading into the 2016-17 campaign, the ETSU coaching staff is one of the youngest in the NCAA. With an average age of 36 years old, the Bucs currently rank top 20 in the nation. Last season, ETSU had the second youngest coaching staff in the NCAA.

TWIN-WINNING

ETSU is one of only a few programs in the country to have twins on the 2016 roster. The Bucs have two local products in freshman Kayla Marosites and Kelci Marosites.

DOUBLE DUTY

Junior forward Mallore Schurr takes after her head coach by making the most of her time in college playing two sports (Basketball and Softball). As a sophomore Schurr played in 30 games, starting 10 and averaged 3.3 points and 4.8 rebounds. On the softball diamond, Schurr hit .257 with one home run and eight RBI's in 25 games played.

HARD WORK IN THE CLASSROOM

Not only does the ETSU women's basketball team work hard on the court but in the classroom as well. Last season the Bucs posted a cumulative GPA of 3.179, which is 0.59 points higher than non ETSU athletes. The blue and gold boasted two perfect 4.0 GPA's while 8 players made the SoCon Academic Honor Roll.

NOT SO FREE-THROW

ETSU has struggled so far this season from the free-throw line shooting .643 from the line.

DEAN MAKING HER OWN LEGACY

Sophomore Raven Dean is the daughter of former NFL Wide Receiver Muhsin Muhammed. Muhammed played 14 seasons in the NFL for the Carolina Panthers and Chicago Bears, appearing in two Super Bowls.

BRITTNEY EZELL became the eighth head coach in the 48-year history of East Tennessee State University women's basketball on May 8, 2013.

The 2016 season features a rigorous non-conference schedule for ETSU including home contests against Vanderbilt, Old Dominion and the University of Tennessee. Ezell has constructed difficult non-conference schedules year in and year out since being hired in 2013, playing a total of 13 teams from power five conferences.

During the 2015-16 season, Ezell guided the Bucs to their third straight winning season including a perfect 6-0 record at home against non-conference opponents. Ezell and the ETSU Women's Basketball program captured a signature victory early in the season when the Bucs defeated Old Dominion on the road. ODU is the third winnigest program in NCAA Division I women's basketball history.

In 2014-15, ETSU experienced an unbelievable turnaround under Ezell with a 16-game win progression from 2013-14 where the Bucs went 9-21. The total win improvement was the second best in the country. The 2014-15 win total of 21 marked the first time since the 2009-10 season that ETSU reached 20 wins. Led by Ezell, the Bucs made it to the Southern Conference Tournament championship game falling to No. 1 seed Chattanooga in overtime, 61-56. ETSU appeared in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT) for the third time in school history falling short to NC State, 73-59.

In three years at Belmont University, Ezell navigated the Bruins through their final two seasons as a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference (2011-12) and inaugural season in the Ohio Valley Conference (2013).

In 2012-13, Ezell directed the Bruins to 11 conference victories and a league tournament No. 3 seed in the program's final Atlantic Sun Conference campaign. Senior Haley Nelson ranked among the NCAA leaders in double-doubles, field goal percentage, blocked shots and rebounds en route to First Team All-Atlantic Sun honors.

Ezell took the helm of the Belmont program after spending the previous two seasons as head coach at the University of Montevallo. Inheriting a Falcon program that recorded one winning season in its previous 12 years, Ezell directed Montevallo to a 14-13 record in 2009-10. The Falcons also ranked second in the Peach Belt Conference in scoring defense.

Prior to Montevallo, Ezell spent three seasons as head coach at Okaloosa-Walton Junior College (now Northwest Florida State College) in Niceville, Fla. The Lady Raiders went 57-28 under Ezell's watch, including an appearance in the 2006 NJCAA Regional Tournament. During her tenure, Ezell developed 14 All-Panhandle Conference performers, 12 of whom would go on to sign national letters of intent with NCAA Division I schools. The Lady Raiders also had 12 Academic All-Conference honorees.

Ezell's coaching career began at the University of Alabama, where she spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. She was credited with delivering back-to-back top 15 ranked recruiting classes for the Tide, with four guards developing into All-SEC players.

Ezell was a four-year starting point guard for the Tide, helping lead the team to a 95-34 record and four consecutive NCAA Division I "Sweet Sixteen" appearances from 1995-98. She ranks in the top 20 in career scoring with 1,022 points and is second all-time in career assists (620) and games started (114). She was a Second Team All-SEC selection in 1998 and was named to the SEC All-Tournament Team in 1996. In 1998, Ezell was a candidate for the Francis Pomeroy Naismith Award, given to the top point guard in the country and was named to the inaugural WBCA/Honda All-Star game for the nation's top 20 players. She was also invited to the WNBA Rooke Combine in Chicago.

Additionally, Ezell became the first female two-sport athlete at Alabama in over a decade when she joined the Tide softball team. A two-time Golden Glove recipient and two-year starter at third base and shortstop, Ezell started at third base for UA's first SEC Tournament Championship team in 1998.

Ezell earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Alabama in 1999 and a master's degree in education administration from the University of Nebraska in 2005. A native of Franklin, Tenn., Ezell was a prep standout at Franklin High School. She was a three-time District MVP, tallying over 2,000 points and 600 assists in her career.
