THE STORYLINE

- After the Florida football team dropped its first game of the season last weekend at Tennessee, the Gators will look to bounce back this Saturday in Nashville as UF travels to Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Vanderbilt in Week 4.
- The series between Florida and Vanderbilt dates back to 1945 and the Gators hold a 37-10-2 all-time advantage. In addition, the Gators are 17-7-1 on the road in Nashville with their last loss coming in 1988.
- Saturday's game will be broadcast on SEC Network and will kickoff at 12 p.m. ET in Nashville.
- UF's loss to UT last weekend was particularly surprising, as Florida's defense surrendered five touchdowns in six second half possessions to the Vols after Florida had grabbed a 21-0 lead in the second quarter.
- Saturday marked the biggest blown lead by a Florida team since losing a 23-point edge at home in a 38-33 defeat against Miami in 2003.
- Despite that second half performance, Florida still leads the SEC in sacks (4.25), passing defense (145.3), total defense (221.8), scoring defense (13.0) and the Gators ranked second in the league in rush defense (76.5).
- With Quincy Wilson and Jalen Tabor's interceptions against Tennessee last weekend, Florida recorded its 24th multi-interception game against an FBS team since 2010 which ranks second in the conference during that span.
- After forcing zero turnovers in week one of the season against UMass, UF has recorded six interceptions in its last three games, which ranks 10th in the country.

LAST TIME OUT - TENNESSEE

The Gators' offense and defense dominated the first half Saturday, then collectively fell apart in the second half of the Volunteers' 38-28 comeback win before 102,455 down-right giddy fans at sold-out Neyland Stadium who celebrated a victory in the series for the first time since 2004. UT quarterback Josh Dobbs passed for 319 yards and four touchdowns, plus rushed for another in shredding the nation's top-ranked defense for 38 unanswered points. Of those numbers, 235 yards and all five TDs came after in-termission — and after the Gators jumped ahead 21-0 so matter-of-factly early on.

- UF's converted 53% (35-of-66) of its third downs in 2016, which ranks 11th in the country and first in the SEC. On the flipside, Florida's defense has held its opponents to a 26% conversion rate, which ranks second in the league and 13th in the nation.
- After losing Luke Del Rio to injury last weekend, graduate transfer Austin Appleby recorded his first start as a Gator against Tennessee and went 23-for-39 with 296 yards and three touchdowns. The North Canton, Ohio native ranks third behind only Shane Matthews (332) and Tim Tebow (300) for passing yards in their UF debut.
- In addition, Appleby became the first graduate transfer to start at quarterback for the Gators in program history.
- Antonio Callaway, who caught four passes for 134 yards against Tennessee, is one of five receivers in the country and the only SEC receiver with two games of 125-plus receiving yards against FBS opponents this year. Of those five, Callaway and Indiana sophomore Nick Westbrook are the only underclassmen with two such games this year.
- Callaway's 111.7 receiving yards per game leads all SEC players and ranks 13th nationally. Among underclassmen, Callaway's average ranks third in the FBS, trailing only Texas Tech's Jonathan Giles (115.3) and SMU's Courtland Sutton (112.3). Meanwhile, his 19.7 yards per reception ranks sixth nationally among players with at least 15 receptions this season.
- Florida is one of six FBS teams featuring three running backs with at least 160 rushing yards and one rushing touchdown. In addition, UF's committee of tailbacks is averaging 4.7 yards per carry in the fourth quarter.

Florida's defense held Tennessee and quarterback Josh Dobbs (11) in check for two-plus quarters, then everything -- on both sides of the ball -- fell apart. And Dobbs took over the game. Florida led 21-3 at halftime, with backup quarterback Austin Appleby playing a superb first two periods. And then? UF's next six offensive possessions: 16 plays, minus-9 yards, one first down, one turnover. UT's next six: 26 plays, 287 yards, five touchdowns. Just like that, an 18-point Florida lead flipped to a 17-point deficit, at 38-21.

YOUNG GATORS

- Through four games, UF has played 13 true freshmen and 22 newcomers. In the season opener against UMass, 17 of the 51 players (33.3%) that saw action were making their Florida debut. In 2016, true freshmen have 23 tackles thus far.
- In 18 total games under head coach Jim McElwain, true freshmen have accomplished the following...
- 142 total games played | 36 starts on offense/defense | 15 total touchdowns | 112 rushes for 523 yards | 59 receptions for 1,053 yards | 58 tackles, 11.5 tackles-for-loss, 5.5 sacks
- In 2016, Florida returned 50 letterwinners and 16 starters. UF has the third-fewest seniors in the country with 15.

QUICK HITS

- Florida entered the season ranked in the preseason AP Poll for the first time since 2013. However, UF was the lowest ranked defending SEC East champion since the conference created a championship game in 1992.
- Florida has the same offensive coordinator for the second year in a row, as Doug Nussmeier enters year two with the Gators. UF has had a different offensive coordinator for the past three years (2015-Nussmeier, 2014-Roper, 2013-Pease).
- Florida's last four head coaches have posted a combined 42-10 (.808) mark in their second season at the helm. Last season, Jim McElwain became the only coach in UF history to lead the Gators to the SEC Championship game in his debut season. In addition, he became Florida's first coach to win 10 games in his inaugural season.
- UF's 12-game 2016 schedule features five teams that played in a bowl last season, five that won at least 8 games (including two that had 10-plus victories) and three that were in the final AP rankings. In addition, Florida plays four teams ranked in the preseason AP Top 25 poll.
- UF has scored in 350 consecutive games, a streak that ranks third on the NCAA's all-time list, trailing only Michigan (365, 1984-04) and BYU (361, 1975-03). In addition, it's the longest active streak in the country.
- The Gators return six offensive linemen this season who have started at least one game at UF: David Sharpe (13), Cam Dillard (11), Martez Ivey (8), Antonio Riles (6) Tyler Jordan (2) and Fred Johnson (2). Last season, Florida only had one.

CROSSING PATHS

- VU has 10 players on their roster from the state of Florida, but UF has zero student-athletes on its roster from Tennessee.
- Chris Rumph and Vanderbilt's first-year defensive line coach C.J. Ah You were on opposite sidelines for the 2014 Red River Showdown. Rumph was the assistant head coach for defense at Texas, while Ah You was a quality control assistant for Oklahoma. Ah You also played the 2007 NFL season with the St. Louis Rams, which was the second and final year of offensive coordinator Doug Nussmeier's two-season stint as a quarterbacks coach there.
- Mike Summers and Vanderbilt's first-year senior defensive assistant/outside linebackers coach Osia Lewis were both on Oregon State's coaching staff from 1991 through 1995. Summers was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator from 1991-95, while Lewis coached special teams and linebackers from 1991 through 1996.
- Greg Nord and Vanderbilt second-year graduate assistant Kevin Abrams were both members of Illinois' 2010 coaching staff. Nord was the tight ends coach, and Abrams assisted the Illini special teams coaches.
- Vanderbilt second-year graduate assistant Tate Benton worked as a secondary aide with then-Mississippi State defensive coordinator Geoff Collins for the 2014 season in Starkville.

SERIES HISTORY & LAST MATCHUP

- Series History | Florida 37, Vanderbilt 10 -- UF holds the series edge over Vandy, 37-10-2, and has lost to the Commodores just once since 1989. In addition, the Gators are 17-7-1 on the road in Nashville with their last loss coming 1988.
- 2015 | Florida 9, Vanderbilt 7 (Gainesville) -- Austin Hardin, a struggling kicker replaced by a student body walk-on in midseason, piped a career-long 43-yard field goal with 2:22 remaining to give the No. 11 Florida Gators a numbing 9-7 homecoming victory Saturday that wrapped the program's first Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title since 2009 in front of 90,000 fans at The Swamp. The Commodores had a chance to win the game, but the Florida defense, which was outstanding on the day except for one play, halted Vandy quarterback Johnny McCrary on downs with 36 seconds left after a fourth-down completion fell short of the mark at his own 45.

HONORS

WEEK 2 | MANNING AWARD STAR OF THE WEEK

Luke Del Rio, QB

- After his 320-yard, four touchdown performance to help Florida defeat SEC opponent Kentucky, Luke Del Rio was named as one of eight Manning Award Stars of the Week.
- Against UK, Luke Del Rio became the first UF quarterback since Rex Grossman against LSU in 2001 to hit 300 yards and four TDs passing against a league opponent. Del Rio also became the first UF quarterback since Tim Tebow (2007) to throw for 250-plus yards and complete 55 percent of his passes in consecutive games.

• Florida is tied for second among SEC teams with a plus-3 turnover margin. When winning or tying the turnover battle since 2011, the Gators are 37-10. When losing the turnover battle since 2011, UF is 4-16.

Florida 10 Margin (from 1996-2016)

In 191 Wins +155; In 69 Losses -66

• Florida is one of two SEC teams and one of 16 FBS to post 225-plus rushing yards and 300-plus passing yards against an FBS opponent this season.

• Of the aforementioned 16 teams, Florida is one of six to have such a game against a Power Five opponent.

• The Gators racked up 564 total yards against Kentucky, their highest total against an SEC opponent since amassing 571 yards against Vanderbilt on Nov. 3, 2001.

• UF's 324 total yards in the first half against Kentucky was its highest total in any half against an SEC opponent since the Gators totaled 379 in the second half at Tennessee on Sep. 15, 2012. In addition, it was most in an opening half against an SEC opponent since UF totaled 330 yards at Vanderbilt on Nov. 8, 2008.

• Putting that number in perspective, from 2010 to 2015, Florida averaged 325.8 yards per game in their 49 games against SEC opponents.

• Florida's 45 points in its 45-7 victory over Kentucky marked its highest point total against an SEC team since its 48-10 win over Kentucky on Sep. 24, 2011.

• Florida converted 14 of its 20 third downs against Kentucky, marking just the 18th time since 1996 an FBS team converted at least 70 percent of its third downs when it faced at least 20 of them in a game. The Gators are the only SEC team to do it during that span.

• Florida's 14 third down conversions are the most by any FBS team this year and the third-most by an SEC team since 1996.

• Florida converted at least nine third downs in its first two games this year, marking the first time since 2009 (Nov. 21 & 28) and fourth time since 1996 it converted nine third downs in consecutive games.

OFFENSIVE LINE

• UF's offensive line enters its third season under MIKE SUMMERS, the only holdover from Will Muschamp's staff.

• The Gators rank second in the SEC tied for 14th among FBS schools in total sacks allowed this season, having only surrendered three through its first four games.

RUSHING

• Florida logged 225-plus rushing yards against both

Kentucky and North Texas, marking only the second time since 2010 the Gators accomplished that feat, with the only other occurrence coming on Sep. 6 & 13, 2014 against Eastern Michigan and Kentucky.

• Florida also had four different running backs score a touchdown against North Texas, which was the first time the Gators did that since Sep. 13, 2003 versus Florida A&M.

• LAMICAL PERINE is one of 14 FBS true freshmen to post a 100-yard rushing game this season. Of those 14, he's one of 10 players to do it against an FBS team.

• Perine is also the only FBS true freshman to rush for 100 yards and catch touchdown pass in a game this year.

• Perine totaled 105 yards on 17 carries against Kentucky, becoming the 16th UF true freshman since 1955 to post a 100-yard rushing game and the first UF true freshman since Jeff Demps (Oct. 11, 2008 vs. LSU) to post a 100-yard rushing game against an SEC opponent.

• Perine joined Ciatrick Fason (2004), DeShawn Wynn (2005), Percy Harvin (2006 & 2007), and Chris Rainey (2011) as the only Gators since 1996 to rush for 100-plus yards and catch a touchdown pass in the same game.

PASSING

• AUSTIN APPLEBY posted just the ninth road game of 20+ completions, 290+ passing yards, and at least three passing touchdowns by a UF quarterback since 1996. and the first such game since Chris Leak did it at Kentucky on Sep. 24, 2005.

• The UF quarterbacks who account for the other eight games during that stretch are Rex Grossman (four times), Danny Wuerffel (twice), Doug Johnson, and Chris Leak.

• LUKE DEL RIO is one of six quarterbacks (Patrick Mahomes II, Texas Tech; Cooper Rush, Central Michigan; Davis Webb, Cal; Seth Russell, Baylor; Mitch Trubisky, UNC) to throw for 320-plus yards and four touchdowns against a Power Five opponent this year.

• Against Kentucky, Del Rio became the first UF quarterback since Rex Grossman (2001 against LSU) to throw for 320-plus yards and four touchdowns in an SEC game.

• Del Rio's 29 completions against UMass were the most ever by a UF quarterback in a debut start, while his 44 attempts were two shy of cracking UF's single-game all-time top 10--none of which came in a debut start.

• Del Rio's performance against UMass also joined him with Rex Grossman (2002) and Chris Leak (2006) as the only other Gators since 1996 to complete 65 percent of his passes (minimum 25 completions and 40 attempts), throw two touchdowns and no interceptions.

FLORIDA'S SPECIAL TEAMS

PUNTING

- Redshirt junior JOHNNY TOWNSEND is averaging 49.5 yards per punt, which is the sixth-best among all FBS punters.
- Townsend has placed four punts inside the 20 and has 10 boots of over 50 yards, including a season-high tying long of 59 yards against Tennessee.
- His 49.5 average would set the all-time in program record, passing Kyle Christy's mark of 45.8 yards per punt in 2012.

RETURN GAME

- ANTONIO CALLAWAY returned 28 punts for the Gators in 2015 and averaged 15.5 yards per return with two TDs. Callaway was just the third true freshman since 2008 to total 400-plus punt return yards, average 15.54 yards per punt return, and tally two punt return touchdowns in a season. The other two were Nebraska's De'Mornay Pierson-El (2014) and North Carolina's Ryan Switzer (2013).
- Callaway's 435 punt return yards last year are the second-most ever recorded by a Gator in a single season, second only to Jacquez Green, who had 510 yards on 37 returns.
- Callaway finished the 2015 season ranked third in the FBS in punt return yards (435) and is one of 12 players in the country with at least two return TDs.

- Pineiro made his first career field goal attempt, a 41-yarder, to put the Gators ahead 10-7 against UMass, with eight seconds remaining in the second quarter. Pineiro also made 48- and 49-yarders in the fourth quarter, which were the longest made field goals by a Gator since Austin Hardin's 52-yarder at Florida State in 2014.

- Those were just the third and fourth made field goal of 40-plus yards in Florida's last 16 games, with the other coming last season's game-winning 43-yarder against Vanderbilt (Nov. 7, 2015).
- Pineiro's 54-yard field goal against Kentucky in the second quarter was the longest by a Gator since Caleb Sturgis made a 55-yarder in 2011, and tied the sixth-longest field goal in UF history.
- That 54-yard field goal is tied for the second-longest field goal this season with Arizona State's Zane Gonzalez.
- In addition to his work in the kicking game, Pineiro ranks sixth in kickoff average (64.88) and 14th in touchback percentage (70.83%) nationally.

Athletics director Jeremy Foley announced Jim McElwain as the 25th head coach of the Florida football program on December 4, 2014. Following a successful debut season in 2015, McElwain was voted the SEC Coach of the Year by his peers and the media, becoming the only coach in school history to garner both awards in his debut season at UF.

McElwain led the Gators to a 10-4 overall record last season, making him the first coach in Florida football history to win 10 games in his inaugural campaign. In addition, McElwain became the 10th coach in SEC history to win 10 games in his first season as head coach, and one of only six to do it after inheriting a team that won less than nine games the year prior to his arrival.

Florida appeared in the SEC Championship game in Atlanta after going 7-1 in SEC play and winning the Eastern Division for the 11th time in school history and the first time since 2008. With that, McElwain became the only coach in UF history to lead the Gators to the title game in his debut season – an accomplishment shared by only two other coaches in the history of the Southeastern Conference.

During the regular season, Florida improved from a 6-5 mark in 2014 to a 10-2 regular season in 2015. The four-game turnaround tied the third-biggest one-year leap, in terms of wins, for the program in 32 years (0-10-1 in 1979, 7-4 regular season in 1980 and 6-6 in 2011, 11-1 regular season in 2012).

The Gators' defense carried the torch in 2015 as they ranked eighth nationally (third in the SEC) in total defense, allowing just 310.2 yards per game. Florida was the only team in the country to hold four FBS opponents to a third-down conversion rate of less than 17 percent. Additionally, the Gators were one of three teams to hold two FBS opponents under 10 percent in that category.

McElwain ushered in a passing attack that became only the fifth Gator squad since 1996 to throw at least 20 touchdown passes and fewer than 11 interceptions. In addition, UF's 405 attempts in 2015 were the most by any of the other Gator teams (2005, 2007, 2008, 2009) that accomplished that feat.

For the first time since 2008, six different Gators collected multiple receiving touchdowns.

In 2015, UF led the state with an average attendance of 90,065 for its seven home games – up almost 5,000 fans per game from the previous season.

Off the field, 22 student-athletes from his 2015 team were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and 119 players totaled more than 465 community service hours since he was hired in December 2014.

After being named the 2014 Mountain West Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year following his third season at Colorado State, McElwain accepted the head coaching job at Florida.

RECORD AS A HEAD COACH

Year	School	Record	Conference Record	Conference Finish	Postseason
2012	Colorado State	4-8	3-5	7th Overall
2013	Colorado State	8-6	5-3	3rd in Division	Won New Mexico Bowl vs. Washington State, 48-45
2014	Colorado State	10-2	6-2	2nd in Division	Team reached Las Vegas Bowl, McElwain did not coach bowl game
2015	Florida	10-4	7-1	1st in Division	Lost Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl vs. UM, 41-7

McElwain took over a struggling CSU program in 2012 and turned it around in just three seasons. The Rams had not had back-to-back winning seasons since 2002-03 and had won just three games each of the three years prior to McElwain's arrival. After going 4-8 in his first season in Fort Collins, CSU won eight games in 2013, its most wins in 12 seasons, including a victory in the New Mexico Bowl over Washington State.

McElwain spent the 2006 season in the NFL as quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders and served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Fresno State in 2007. He made an immediate impact, helping lead the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record, including a 40-28 triumph over Georgia Tech in the Humanitarian Bowl.

In his lone season directing the offense at Fresno State, he improved the Bulldogs' offensive output from 338.2 total yards per game the year before his arrival to 419.5 (No. 38 in the nation), and from 23.0 points per contest to 32.9 (No. 32).

McElwain served as the assistant head coach, receivers coach and special teams coach at Michigan State from 2003-05. The 2003 team reached the Alamo Bowl behind a receiving corps that set school records for receptions (312) and yards (3,510). He coached 2004 All-America punter Brandon Fields and kicker Dave Rayner, who led the Big Ten Conference in scoring. In 2005, five Spartan receivers had at least 28 receptions and the group combined to a set another school record with 24 touchdown catches.

Prior to his stint at Michigan State, McElwain spent three seasons (2000-02) at Louisville as the receivers coach and special teams coach as the Cardinals earned bowl bids in each of those three seasons. He coached four first-team All-Conference USA selections at Louisville and also tutored three of the Cardinals' all-time leading receivers, including Deion Branch and Arnold Jackson.

From 1995-99, McElwain was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and receivers coach at Montana State. Under his direction, quarterback Rob Compson threw for nearly 7,000 career yards and a school-record 54 touchdowns. McElwain also coached the Bobcats' all-time leading receiver Chip Hobbs, who caught 144 career passes for 2,060 yards and 18 TDs. Montana State led the Big Sky Conference in scoring in 1998, averaging 31.6 points per game.

McElwain was at Eastern Washington from 1985-94 in a variety of capacities, starting as a graduate assistant and working his way up to quarterbacks and receivers coach. The Eagles made two NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances (1985 and 1992) and earned a share of the Big Sky Championship in 1992. McElwain coached EWU's all-time leading receiver, Tony Brooks (2,969 career yards), who earned third team AP All-America honors in 1993.

An all-state quarterback at Missoula (Montana) Sentinel High School, McElwain played quarterback at Eastern Washington from 1980-83 and earned his degree in Education from EWU in 1984.

He and his wife, Karen, have three children, JoHanna, Elizabeth and Jerret.
