ON DECK: The University of San Diego Baseball team kicks off the 2017 season by hosting nationally ranked Vanderbilt. The season opener is Thursday at 6:00 p.m. The remaining two games dates and times will fluctuate due to rain in the forecast. Check USDToreros.com for any schedule changes.

SCOUTING THE COMMODORES: Vanderbilt is ranked No. 6 (USA Today Coaches Poll), No. 7 (D1Baseball.com) and No. 11 (Baseball America)

in preseason polls across the nation. They were picked to finished third in the highly competitive SEC East and placed four players on the preseason All-SEC Team. Jeren Kendall and Kyle Wright were named to the first team and Jason Delay and Matt Ruppenthal made the second team. Kendall and Wright were named preseason All-Americans by Baseball America. Vanderbilt was 43-19 last season; they have made the postseason every year since 2006 and won the national championship in 2014. Their Head Coach Tim Corbin (15th season) is 610-290 at Vanderbilt. The Toreros are 1-6 all-time against the Commodores and were swept last year to begin the season. They were outscored 38-11.

BASEBALL STREAM THIS WEEK: All of this weekend's games against Vanderbilt will be streamed live on TheW.tv. A link to stream the games can be found on the USD Baseball schedule page on USDToreros.com. Jack Murray will handle the play-by-play duties.

ADAMS TABBED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN: Junior catcher Riley Adams was named a preseason first-team All-America by Baseball America. Adams, a 6-4 catcher from Encinitas, Calif., finished last season as a semi-finalist for the Johnny Bench Award, and was named second-team All-WCC after he hit .327 with 67 hits, 18 doubles, one triple, six hits, and 37 RBI. Adams recorded 17 multi-hit games and had 10 multi-RBI games in 2016. In WCC play, Adams hit .283 with 30 hits, seven doubles, three home runs and had 16 RBI. This past summer, Adams played for the Orleans Firebirds of the prestigious Cape Cod League and was named a Cape Cod All-Star and was ranked the No. 29 prospect in the Cape Cod league by D1Baseball.com. Adams hit .333 with 36 hits, six doubles, one home run and had nine RBI in 29 games with 108 at bats for the Orleans Firebirds.

TWO TOREROS NAMED TO PRESEASON ALL-WCC TEAM: C Riley Adams and LHP Nick Sprengel represented the Toreros on the All-WCC team preseason team. Adams was named second-team All-WCC in 2016 after he hit .327 overall with 67 hits, 18 doubles, one triple, six hits, and 37 RBI. Sprengel, a 6-1 lefty out of Placentia, Calif. was 5-7 as a sophomore with a 5.92 ERA.

TOREROS PICKED TO WIN THE WCC: For the ninth time in the past ten years, the University of San Diego was picked to win the 2017 West Coast Conference Championship in the 2017 preseason poll of the WCC's 10 head coaches. The Toreros earned five of nine possible first-place votes and 77 overall points in the poll. Gonzaga University, which shared a portion of the 2016 regular season title en route to the first at-large NCAA Regional berth in program history was tabbed second with 73 points, including three first-place votes. Winners of two of the last three WCC Tournament Championships, Pepperdine University, earned 63 points and picked up two first place votes to sit in third place. Brigham Young University shared the 2016 regular season title and tallied 59 points in preseason balloting, good for fourth place overall. Saint Mary's College made history last season, winning a share of the first regular season WCC title in program history and won the WCC Tournament for the first time en route to the program's inaugural NCAA Regional appearance. The Gaels were tabbed fifth with 49 points, followed by Bay Area rival University of San Francisco in sixth place with 40 points. Loyola Marymount University (37), University of the Pacific (21), Santa Clara University (20) and University of Portland (13) rounded out the poll.

FROM FOWLER PARK TO MVP: Former USD Baseball standout Kris Bryant's rise to stardom continued in the 2016 MLB season. Not only did the slugging 3B help lead the Chicago Cubs to their first World Series title since 1908, he was named the National League MVP after hitting .292 with 39 home runs, 102 RBI and a league-best 121 runs scored. Bryant received all but one first place MVP vote and became the first player to win the Golden Spikes Award (2013), Minor League Player of the Year Award (2014), NL Rookie of the Year Award (2015) and NL MVP Award (2016) in consecutive years.

TORERO SKIPPER RICH HILL: Rich Hill has built the USD Toreros into one of the most successful Division I baseball programs on the West Coast. The 2017 spring season will be Hill's 30th year as a head coach at the collegiate level, and 19th at USD, having enjoyed 25 winning seasons in 29 years. Since taking over at USD in 1999, Hill has been remarkable in re-writing the school record book en route to claiming back-to-back West Coast Conference Championship titles in 2002 and 2003 and also claiming the WCC crown in 2007, 2008 and 2010. Under his leadership, USD produced three consecutive first round picks in Kris Bryant, Conner Joe and Kyle Holder (2013-15). USD has had 44 players sign a pro contract in the last eight years, the Toreros have been ranked at some point during the season for 11 consecutive years, and USD has been tabbed the WCC preseason favorite for nine of the past ten years.
