BIG DEFENSIVE TEST AHEAD

For the fifth time this year, the Commodores will face a highly ranked offensive attack with the Houston Cougars.

Houston, 7-0 under first-year head coach Tom Herman, ranks among the NCAA Top Ten in scoring offense (47.6 pts.), rush offense (291.6 ypg) and total offense (561.1 ypg).

Earlier this year, the Commodores have encountered four other nationally ranked offenses in Western Kentucky, Georgia, Ole Miss and Middle Tennessee.

PULLEY WINS SEC HONOR

Spencer Pulley (Sr., center) was recognized as the Southeastern Conference's Offensive Lineman of the Week this week for his blocking performance in Vanderbilt's 10-3 victory over Missouri Saturday.

Pulley helped the Commodores rush for 168 yards – the most allowed this year by Missouri's highly regarded defense. More on page 2

DEFENSE PLAYING AT HIGH LEVEL; UNIT LEADS SEC IN TWO CATEGORIES

The Vanderbilt defense leads the SEC in third-down conversions and red-zone scoring.

The 'Dores have allowed opponents to convert just 22 percent of their third downs.

Vanderbilt ranks third nationally in the category, trailing only Michigan (19.6%) and Clemson (20.4%).

The defensive performance on third downs last week against Missouri was superb. The Tigers did not convert a third down, going 0-14 on opportunities in Vanderbilt's 10-3 victory.

It marked the first time Vanderbilt held an opponent to zero conversions since Kentucky was 0-12 on third downs in a 38-8 Vanderbilt win on Nov. 12, 2011.

The unit also tops all SEC teams in limiting opponent possessions inside the Vanderbilt 20-yard line. Teams are scoring at a 69.6% rate on red-zone possessions (16-of-23). Vanderbilt's success in keeping opponents out of the end zone on those possessions – only eight drives have resulted in touchdowns – is a key factor why the Commodores are ranked No. 2 in the SEC in scoring defense (16.3 pts).

Nationally, Vanderbilt trails only Appalachian State, Toledo, Florida International and Wisconsin in red-zone defense.

VANDERBILT SEEKING FIRST VICTORY OVER RANKED OPPONENT SINCE 2013

The Commodores will be looking for their first win over a Associated Press Top 25 squad in nearly two years when they travel to Houston and play the undefeated Cougars.

The team's last win over a team ranked by the AP came on Oct. 5, 2013 – a 31-27 victory over Georgia. Since then, Vanderbilt has fallen to six straight ranked teams, including No. 3 Ole Miss and No. 10 Georgia earlier this year.

SEVEN COMMODORES RESIDE IN TEXAS

Seven Vanderbilt student-athletes hail from Texas, including probable defensive starters Adam Butler (R-Jr., DT, Duncanville) and Andrew Williamson (Sr., safety, San Antonio).

Other Texans on the Commodore roster are Sekou Clark (R-Fr., DL, Denton), Winston Guillory (Fr., WR, Dallas), Ronald Monroe (R-Fr., WR, Houston), Dare Odeyingbo (R-Jr., DE, Irving) and John Webb (Fr., QB, Dallas).

PULLEY NAMED SEC OFFENSIVE LINEMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

Spencer Pulley (R-Sr., center) has been named Southeastern Conference Offensive Lineman of the Week for his blocking performance in the Commodores' 10-7 slugfest victory over Missouri Oct. 24, the league office announced Monday.

Pulley, a redshirt senior from Memphis, was recognized after the Commodores produced 168 rushing yards, the most allowed this season by Missouri's top-ranked defense.

Pulley also becomes the first Commodore recipient of SEC weekly honors since Johnny McCrary (R-So., QB) earned Freshman of the Week recognition last year after throwing for five touchdowns in a victory over Old Dominion.

Pulley's blocking effort, which earned a winning grade of 99 percent from coaches, helped Vanderbilt hold a huge advantage in time of possession in the win. The Commodore offense controlled the football for 38:25, nearly 17 minutes more than Missouri.

Pulley earned a 99 percent "winning" grade from coaches and registered four pancake blocks, including one on the game-deciding 1-yard touchdown plunge by Ralph Webb (R-So., RB). Webb finished with 99 yards on 26 carries, matching the highest individual rushing total against Missouri this season.

Pulley's 36 career starts on the offensive line shares the team high with fellow lineman Jake Bernstein (R-Sr., OG). A former two-year starter at guard, Pulley is in his first season at center.

Pulley also has been one of the unit's top leaders, serving as a game captain against Western Kentucky, Georgia and Missouri.

The hard-fought win over Missouri also marked the first SEC victory of the Derek Mason Era.

Spencer Pulley earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors Oct. 26 for his play in the win over Missouri.

VANDERBILT VS. TEXAS UNIVERSITIES

The Commodores are 17-12-2 all-time against teams from the Lone Star State.

Two of Vanderbilt's seven bowl opponents have been from Texas – Houston (2014 BBVA Compass Bowl) and Texas Tech (6-6, 1974 Peach Bowl).

Early in its gridiron history, Vanderbilt enjoyed an important series with Texas. From 1899 to 1928, the 'Dores were 8-3-1 against the Longhorns, with seven of the games being played at the Cotton Bowl.

THE HOUSTON SERIES

THE VANDERBILT-HOUSTON SERIES

The only previous meeting between the Commodores and Cougars came in a postseason bowl following the 2013 regular season. Vanderbilt earned a 41-24 victory in the BBVA Compass Bowl, played on Jan. 4, 2014 in Birmingham, Ala.

In the bowl, Vanderbilt jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead only to see Houston rally to tie the game by the end of the third quarter. The Commodores sealed the win with a 17-point fourth quarter.

VANDERBILT VS. AAC MEMBERS

The Commodores are 38-46-6 all-time against current members of the American Athletic Conference. Houston shares the AAC lead with Memphis and Temple, two other undefeated members of the league.

Vanderbilt's most recent game against an AAC team came in the 2014 opener - a disappointing home loss to Temple.

Vanderbilt has played AAC member Tulane more than any other opponent outside the SEC. The two teams have faced off on 48 occasions, most coming when Tulane was a member of the league.

VANDERBILT RESULTS IN NON-SEC PLAY

Vanderbilt enters the Houston game having captured 14 of its last 17 encounters against non-Southeastern Conference opponents.

Houston is Vanderbilt's final non-conference opponent of the season. The Commodores are 2-1 this year in non-league play, having defeated Middle Tennessee (17-13, Oct. 3) and Austin Peay (47-7, Sept. 19). The 'Dores lost a narrow decision to Western Kentucky in the season opener.

Since the 2011 opener, Vanderbilt is 18-4 overall against non-SEC foes including postseason bowl appearances against Cincinnati (2011), N.C. State (2012) and Houston (2013).

Besides the Austin Peay and Middle Tennessee wins this season, Vanderbilt has registered non-conference victories over UMass, Charleston Southern and Old Dominion in 2014, Austin Peay, UMass, UAB and Wake Forest in 2013, and Presbyterian, UMass and Wake Forest in 2012.

LAST TIME VS. HOUSTON

'DORES WITHSTAND HOUSTON RALLY WITH 17 FOURTH QUARTER POINTS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Patton Robinette threw two 50-yard touchdown passes to MVP Jordan Matthews, leading Vanderbilt to a 41-24 victory over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

BBVA COMPASS BOWL

JAN. 4, 2014

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

Robinette, starting after senior Austyn Carta-Samuels had season-ending surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, also had an 8-yard scoring run as Vanderbilt built a 24-0 lead in the first half.

After Houston pulled even by scoring 24 points in the third quarter, Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead on Brian Kimbrow's 21-yard touchdown run. It was the start of 17 fourth-quarter points for the Commodores.

Vanderbilt (9-4) closed the season with five straight wins. The 'Dores played in three straight bowl games – a first for the program – and completed their first back-to-back nine-win seasons.

VANDERBILT SHOWS IMPROVEMENT IN NEARLY EVERY AREA FROM YEAR AGO

A review of early-season statistics continue to reveal the 2015 Commodores to be much improved over the 2014 squad.

The 2015 Commodores, 3-4 overall, have improved in nearly every key stat category from last year, when Vanderbilt owned a 2-5 record.

The 2015 defense, directed by Head Coach Derek Mason, continues to experience vast improvement. The unit has allowed 18.0 points per game, 17.6 points less than in 2014. It has allowed 316.6 yards of total offense, 99.3 yards less than a year ago; and kept opponents to just 16.3 first downs, 6.1 less than in 2014. The defense also has experienced big reductions in rushing yards allowed (from 178.4 to 109.9) and passing yards (from 237.4 to 206.7). The impacts of better Commodore defenses have resulted in 17 fewer opponent touchdowns, a 17% drop in third-down conversions by opponents, and a drop in red-zone efficiency from 91% in 2014 to 71% this year.

On offense, the Commodores under first-year coordinator Andy Ludwig has averaged 385.4 yards of total offense - 115 yards more than a year ago. The 2015 Commodores have experienced substantial increases in both rushing yards (47.7 yards more this year) and passing yards (67.2 yards more than in 2014). First downs are up more than 63 percent, from 13.0 in 2014 to 20.6 this year. The added production has resulted in a 65% increase in third down conversions and a 5:40 improvement in time of possession.

Though a lack of execution in the red zone and poor turnover margin has kept the offensive point production down, the team's 18.0 points per game still marks an improvement over last year.

SCHEU UP FOR WUERFFEL, CAMPBELL TROPHIES, SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Steven Scheu (R-Sr., TE) has been added as a candidate for the Wuerffel Trophy.

Scheu, a product of Reitz Memorial H.S. in Evansville, Ind., is now a candidate for three prestigious postseason awards: the Wuerffel Trophy, the William V. Campbell Trophy, and the Senior CLASS Award.

Scheu has 21 catches for 202 yards this season. He ranks as the team's active career leader with 77 receptions, 895 receiving yards and six TDs.

Scheu becomes the fourth Commodore in the last five years to garner attention for the Wuerffel Trophy, which recognizes accomplishment on and off the field. Other Vanderbilt student-athletes strongly considered for the award were snapper Andrew East (2014), kicker Carey Spear (2013) and Chris Marve (2011).

Scheu was named a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy, as by The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame on Sept. 24. Known as the "Academic Heisman," the Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Scheu is one of 56 FBS players selected as a semifinalist for the honor that requires a candidate to be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2, be a significant contributor on the field and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship.

The NFF will announce 15 finalists on Oct. 26, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. Finalists will travel to New York City for the 58th NFF Annual Awards Dinner in December, where the winner will receive a postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000.

Earlier in September, Scheu was selected as one of 30 Football Bowl Subdivision student-athletes to be tabbed as a candidate for the 2015 Senior CLASS Award. The recognition honors student-athletes who have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

Scheu, a 2014 Second Team All-SEC selection, led all SEC tight ends in catches and ranked second in yards last season. His 525 receiving yards were the most by a Vanderbilt tight end since 1983.

Scheu will graduate in December with a degree in medicine, health and society. He is a three-time selection to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and two-time member of the team's leadership council.

DOZEN TRUE FRESHMEN HAVE PLAYED FOR COMMODORES THIS YEAR

Kyle Shurmur and Donovan Sheffield became the 11th and 12th Commodore true freshmen to play this season during the Missouri game. Shurmur started at quarterback in the win while Sheffield played key minutes in the defensive secondary.

Shurmur and Sheffield join Sam Dobbs (TE) as true freshmen to recently see their first action. Dobbs played at South Carolina Oct. 17.

The full list of true freshmen participants follows:

COMMODORE NOTES

EARL BENNETT NAMED TEAM'S 2015 SEC LEGEND

Earl Bennett, one of the most productive wide receivers in Southeastern Conference history during a three-year Vanderbilt career from 2005-07, will be celebrated as Vanderbilt's Legend as part of Southeastern Conference Championship activities this December in Atlanta.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Bennett was a three-year All-SEC receiver. He set numerous conference receiving marks, including five touchdown catches in a game and 236 career receptions which was later bettered by Vanderbilt's Jordan Matthews.

Bennett established himself as a true freshman in 2005, combining with senior QB and SEC Offensive Player of the Year Jay Cutler for 79 receptions, 876 yards and nine TDs. He registered 82 catches as a sophomore and 75 as a senior, becoming the only player in SEC history to post three consecutive seasons of at least 75 receptions.

Bennett played five years with the Chicago Bears and recently returned to Vanderbilt to complete his undergraduate degree.

SHERFIELD NAMED TO BILETNIKOFF AWARD LIST

Trent Sherfield (So., WR) ranked among the SEC receiving leaders, was added as a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award Sept. 29.

Sherfield, a product of Danville (Ill.) H.S., joins 70 other receivers in contention for the prestigious Biletnikoff Award, which is annually presented to the nation's outstanding receiver. The award is open to all receivers, including tight ends, wide receivers, slot receivers and even running backs.

Sherfield's 5.9 receptions per game is tied for second in the SEC. He also is tied for fourth in the conference in receiving yards, averaging 74.0 yards.

Sherfield is the first Vanderbilt receiver to earn Biletnikoff Award attention since All-America Jordan Matthews was named as a semi-finalist for the award in 2013.

Sherfield produced one of the program's most impressive performances ever in the win over Austin Peay Sept. 19, setting a new 'Dore single-game standard with 240 receiving yards. The yardage total came on 16 receptions, which ties the third highest total in team history.

Sherfield had five receptions for 35 yards in the Commodores' win over Missouri Oct. 24.

Sherfield, who posted just one catch in seven games in 2014, gives Vanderbilt its most potent receiver since Jordan Matthews graduated after the 2013 season. In 2014, C.J. Duncan topped the team's wideouts with 441 receiving yards.

PENALTIES, PENALTY YARDS KEY STATS FOR 'DORES

For the most part, Vanderbilt has kept their own penalties in check early in the 2015 season.

Through seven games, the Commodores rank sixth in the SEC in fewest penalty yards (43.6 ypg). The team is averaging 5.9 infractions.

The 'Dores struggled with penalties in 2014, averaging 6.7 flags and 56.4 penalty yards through seven games.

NOTES FROM THE VICTORY OVER MISSOURI

FIRST SEC WIN OF MASON ERA ... The victory marked the first Southeastern Conference win for Derek Mason since he took over the Commodore program. It also was Vanderbilt's first league win since a 14-10 triumph at Tennessee on Nov. 23, 2013.

HOMECOMING VICTORY ... The win is the fourth in the Commodores' last five homecoming outlets. It also broke a 9-game homecoming losing streak to SEC opponents dating back to a victory over South Carolina in 1998.

SUPERB TEAM DEFENSIVE EFFORT ... The Commodore defense was sensational, limiting Missouri to three points, 10 first downs, 80 rushing yards and 188 total yards - all season lows against FBS opponents.

Additional signature notes from the Vanderbilt defensive effort:

- It marked the fewest points allowed by the Commodores since a 40-0 win over Kentucky (Nov. 12, 2012). The three points also is the fewest allowed under a Mason defense.
- It marked the lowest total offense production by an SEC opponent since the Commodores limited Ole Miss to 179 yards (Oct. 7, 2006).
- Missouri's rushing total are the fewest allowed by a Mason-led team against an SEC team.
- The defensive performance allowed Vanderbilt's 10 points on offense to be the fewest in a Commodore win since beating Chattanooga 7-0 in 1985 and the fewest in an SEC win since defeating Kentucky 6-0 in 1968.

SHURMUR EARNS WIN IN FRESHMAN DEBUT ... Kyle Shurmur (Fr., QB) became the first Vanderbilt true freshman signal caller to win his initial collegiate start. Shurmur was 10-of-20 for 89 yards against Missouri, regarded among the SEC's top defensive units.

Shurmur is just the seventh true freshman to start at quarterback at Vanderbilt, joining Wade Freebeck (2014), David Wallace (1998), Kenny Simon (1993), John Gromos (1985), Tim Richardson (1985) and Mike Wright (1975).

Shurmur shared snaps during the game with Johnny McCrary (R-So). Collectively, they were 17-of-28 for 136 yards.

STELLAR OPENSHAW PUNTING ... Tommy Openshaw (R-So., P/PK) averaged 45.6 yards on seven punts. One of his first-half efforts went for 78 yards, the longest effort this season in the SEC and the longest by a Commodore since Abtin Iranmanesh boomed a 80-yard punt against Georgia in 2003.

WEBB RUSHES INTO SOPHOMORE RECORD BOOKS ... Ralph Webb (R-So., RB) rushed for a team-high 99 yards on 26 carries against the physical Missouri defense. It matched the highest single-game rushing total against the Tigers this year.

Webb, who scored the game-deciding touchdown on a 1-yard plunge, also moved into the squad's all-time sophomore rushing charts. Already Vanderbilt's freshman record holder, Webb moved to No. 9 all-time among sophomores with 594 yards. He needs 35 rushing yards to move up the sophomore list.

MCGASTER, HERRING LEAD DEFENSE ... Torren McGaster (R-Jr., CB) and Darreon Herring (Sr., ILB) were among the top individual defensive performers in the superb team effort.

McGaster topped the defensive with five total tackles while adding a defended pass. Herring was superb from his linebacker position, registering two tackles for loss, a quarterback sack and defended pass.

Adam Butler (R-Jr., DT), Landon Stokes (R-So., OLB) and Stephen Weatherly (R-Jr., OLB) also contributed QB sacks for the defense.

EFFECTIVE PUNT RETURNS ... Ryan White (R-So.) enjoyed his best game on special teams, totalling 71 yards on seven punt returns.

THROWING TO MULTIPLE RECEIVERS ... Seven different Commodore receivers caught passes in the game. At least seven targets have caught passes in every game this year.

The receiving corps were topped by Trent Sherfield (So., WR) with five catches for 35 yards.

RUSHING TOTAL VS. MIZZOU ... Vanderbilt's 168 yards rushing is the most allowed this season by the Missouri defense.

SIMS' CATCH ... The 24-yard reception by Darrius Sims (Jr.) was the longest of his career.

SENIOR LINEMEN PULLEY, BERNSTEIN ACTIVE LEADERS IN CAREER STARTS

Senior offensive linemen Jake Bernstein and Spencer Pulley share the team lead for active career starts.

Bernstein and Pulley enter their final season with 36 career starts on the O-line – all from the guard position.

Steven Scheu (Sr., TE) and Darreon Herring (Sr., LB) are the closest to Bernstein and Pulley with 32 and 30 starts, respectively.

Six other Commodores have at least 18 career starts: Adam Butler (Jr., DL), Will Holden (R-Jr., OL), Andrew Jelks (Jr., OT), Torren McGaster (Jr., CB), Tommy Openshaw (R-So., P/PK) and Ralph Webb (So., RB).

FORMER LINEBACKER CHRIS MARVE JOINS STAFF AS DEFENSIVE GRAD ASSISTANT

Chris Marve, a two-time Commodore defensive captain and the No. 8 tackler in Vanderbilt history, has joined the Vanderbilt staff as a defensive graduate assistant. He works with Vanderbilt linebackers.

Marve earned SEC Freshman honors in 2008, then became a three-time All-SEC from 2009-11. He produced 393 total tackles as a four-year starter, helping the Commodores to postseason bowls in 2008 and 2011.

MCCRARY RANKS 4TH AMONG SOPH QBs

Quarterback Johnny McCrary has thrown for 1,475 yards this year, the fourth highest total by a Vanderbilt sophomore signal caller.

McCrary threw for 47 yards in the win over Missouri, moving past Fred Fisher (1,450 yards, 1973) into fourth for passing yards by sophomore. He needs nearly 600 yards to jump Greg Zolman (2,059 yards, 1999).

Earlier this year, McCrary set a new Vanderbilt completion percentage mark in a stellar performance vs. Austin Peay on Sept. 19. His 84.9% completion rate (28-of-33) vs. the Gobs erased the accuracy record of 81.8% set by Hank Lesesne against Georgia in 1961. He passed for 368 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

The effort included two single-game career highs in passing yards, and completions. McCrary's 368 passing yards ranks No. 7 all-time in the team record books, and is the most by a Commodore since Chris Nickson threw for 446 yards at Kentucky in 2006. McCrary also compiled a career highs of 409 total yards accounted for in the effort against Austin Peay.

1955 COMMODORES RECOGNIZED

Members of the 1955 Vanderbilt squad that captured a 25-13 victory over Auburn in the Gator Bowl were recognized during the Missouri game.

The team, celebrating a 60th anniversary this year, will always be remembered by fans as the first Commodore squad to make a bowl appearance. The unit, led by running back Charley Horton, receiver Joe Stephenson and quarterback Don Orr among others, started the season 1-2 before going on a six-game win streak. Finishing the regular season at 7-3 under Art Guepe the team defeated No. 8 Auburn by forcing five fumbles and scoring 12 unanswered points in the second half.

MASON IN 2ND YEAR AT VANDERBILT HELM

Derek Mason is on pace to win more games as a second-year head coach at Vanderbilt than most of his recent Commodore predecessors.

Only three of the last eight Vanderbilt head coaches registered at least three wins in their second seasons:

Watson Brown, Gerry DiNardo and James Franklin.

DEFENSIVE UNIT EXPERIENCING SUCCESS UNDER MASON'S GUIDANCE

The Vanderbilt defense ranks among SEC and NCAA leaders in several areas despite facing some of the nation's most potent offenses.

The unit tops the SEC in third down efficiency and red-zone defense. Vanderbilt is limiting opposing offenses to just 22 percent success on third downs, and holding foes to a 70% scoring rate inside the 'Dore 20-yard line.

Vanderbilt ranks in the top half of SEC in numerous stats: second in scoring defense (16.3 pts.) and first downs allowed (16.3 pg), third in rush defense (109.9 ypg) and defensive pass efficiency (110.2), and sixth in total defense (316.6.0 ypg.).

The defense also has faced four top offenses in Western Kentucky, Georgia, Ole Miss, and Middle Tennessee.

LUDWIG BRINGS HISTORY OF SUCCESS TO VANDERBILT OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR ROLE

Andy Ludwig joins Vanderbilt as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach with a proven history of creating productive offensive attacks and winning football games.

Ludwig has worked more than two decades as an offensive coordinator at the collegiate level, including at the FCS level every year since 2001. In that 14-year span, Ludwig has been involved with 10 teams that have won 8+ games, six teams that have won 9+ games and three teams with 10+ win seasons. His offenses have averaged 31 points since 2001.

In 2013-14, Ludwig directed the Wisconsin offenses to record-book production. While helping the Badgers to the program's fifth 11-win season in 2014 and a 20-7 overall record, Ludwig's offense was regarded among the most powerful in Big Ten and team history. In 2014, Wisconsin's 4,482 rushing yards established a new Big Ten record and the unit's 320.1 rushing yards per game as the conference's highest average since 1976.

Ludwig's Wisconsin offense also featured Melvin Gordon, who ended his career as one of the most productive runners in NCAA history. As a senior in 2014, Gordon finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting, won the Doak Walker Award and consensus All-America recognition, and was a finalist for the Maxwell and Walter Camp Player of the Year awards after rushing for 2,587 yards, the second highest single season total in FBS history, and 29 touchdowns. Gordon briefly held the FBS record for single-game rushing yards after amassing 408 yards in three quarters of action vs. Nebraska. Gordon also posted a remarkable average of 206.0 rushing yards in Big Ten Conference action, and ended his career with an amazing 251-yard performance against Auburn in the Outback Bowl.

DOBSON, FORMER NEB. STRENGTH COORDINATOR LEADING VANDERBILT CONDITIONING

James Dobson, long-time conditioning coordinator at the University of Nebraska, has been guiding the Commodores' strength program since January.

Dobson spent the last seven years guiding Nebraska's conditioning programs under former Cornhusker head coach Bo Pelini. In Dobson's tenure, Nebraska joined Alabama and Oregon as the only three teams nationally to post at least nine wins every year.

In Dobson's last game with Nebraska, the Cornhuskers faced Southern California in the Holiday Bowl – the Huskers seventh straight postseason appearance.

Under Dobson, the Huskers were regarded among the nation's most outstanding fourth quarter teams. In 2014, the Huskers outscored opponents by a remarkable 119-62 margin. Nebraska also scored more fourth-quarter points than its foes in 2008 (155-52), 2009 (96-32), 2010 (64-53) and 2012 (101-82).

Dobson's conditioning program helped the 2014 Nebraska offense average 37.4 points, 248.2 rushing yards and 446.2 total yards. Dobson's efforts also produced a tenacious Nebraska squad. The Huskers were known for producing remarkable comeback victories in recent years, including four such wins during the 2012 season and a thrilling 37-34 overtime victory over Iowa in the 2014 regular season finale.

Prior to Nebraska, Dobson spent nine years with the University of Iowa program, helping the Hawkeyes to one of the most successful periods in school history.

Dobson also brought his top two Nebraska assistants – Tyler Clarke and Ben Schumacher – to Vanderbilt.

DOBSON PUPILS

- Ndamukong Suh, DT, Neb.
- Prince Amukamara, CB, Neb.
- Ameer Abdullah, RB, Neb.
- Lavonte David, LB, Neb.
- Robert Gallery, OT, Iowa
- Chad Greenway, LB, Iowa
- Bob Sanders, Safety, Iowa

'DORE DEFENSE: KEEPING OFFENSES BELOW SEASON AVERAGES

The Vanderbilt defense has successfully held all seven opposing offenses below their season average in points this year.

The unit's accomplishment also has come against four of the nation's top offensive attacks – Ole Miss, Western Kentucky, Georgia and Middle Tennessee rank among the NCAA's Top 30 offenses.

CUNNINGHAM CONTRIBUTING TACKLES

Since moving into the starting lineup early in late September, Zach Cunningham (R-So., ILB) has been one of the SEC's top tacklers.

Cunningham registered double-digit tackle totals in three straight games – 11 at Ole Miss, 15 at Middle Tennessee and 12 at South Carolina, the first Commodore defender to accomplish the feat since safety Sean Richardson did so in the 2010 season.

Cunningham played well in the Commodores' win over Missouri, though being credited with three solo tackles.

Of Cunningham's 38 total stops against Ole Miss, MTSU and South Carolina, eight have been tackles for loss, including four against South Carolina.

Cunningham is the team's season leader in solo tackles (32), total tackles (50) and tackles for loss (8).

CUNNINGHAM'S TOTALS

COMMODORE NOTES

WEBB REMAINS VANDERBILT'S LEADING RUSHER

Ralph Webb (R-So., RB) continues to be the workhorse out of Vanderbilt's offensive backfield.

One year after setting team rushing records for a freshman, Webb ranks as the team's top rusher through five early-season games. A sophomore from Gainesville (Fla.) H.S., Webb has 594 rushing yards and four rushing touchdowns on 150 carries.

Webb rushed for 99 yards and a touchdown on 26 attempts, including a career-long carry of 46 yards, in the win over Missouri Oct. 24.

In recent weeks, he has 58 rushing yards at South Carolina, 155 yards at Middle Tennessee, and 90 yards at Ole Miss.

Webb is bringing more versatility to the Commodore attack as a sophomore. He ranks second on the team with 20 receptions, good for 172 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

Webb's career statistics include 1,501 rushing yards and eight rushing TDs.

In 2014, Webb produced 907 rushing yards, surpassing the former 'Dore freshman record of 798 yards set by Kwane Doster in 2002. He established four freshman rushing marks for the Commodores: single-season rushing yards (907), single-season rush attempts (212), rushing yards in a game (166, vs. Old Dominion). Webb's 2014 rushing total ranks seventh on Vanderbilt's all-time Top Ten single-season charts. Webb has also been a workhorse in the Commodore backfield. His 212 rush attempts in 2014 ranks as the third highest single-season total by a Commodore, topped only by Jermaine Johnson (267, 1995) and Corey Harris (229, 1991).

WEATHERLY, AZUBIKE TOP AT APPLYING PRESSURE ON QB'S

Vanderbilt's leading quarterback sack specialists are among the leading defensive returnees in 2015.

After moving to a new position before the 2014 season, Stephen Weatherly (R-Jr., OLB) has become arguably the unit's most productive player. In his career, Weatherly has contributed nine quarterback sacks and 19.5 tackles for loss. He contributed a sack in the win over Missouri.

Caleb Azubike (Sr., DE) was another defender facing the transition of playing a new role last year. After starting at outside linebacker, Azubike moved to defensive end, concluding the year with four sacks.

VANDERBILT ATHLETICS, COMMUNITY STAGE RELIEF DRIVE FOR SC FLOOD VICTIMS

South Carolina needed the support in early October, and the Nashville community responded in a big, big way.

With the Palmetto State faced with historic flooding, Vanderbilt Athletics asked Nashville-area residents to band together and help fill its football equipment truck with bottled water and generators.

The response

it received was more than it could have asked for.

By 12:30 p.m. on Oct. 8, the first (yes, the first) semi-trailer was already filled. The decision to bring in another truck was soon made by Director of Athletics David Williams as carloads of water continued to be dropped off. By 4:30 p.m., the second trailer was filled. The remaining donations were collected to be given to the Nashville Red Cross.

Each trailer was filled with 1,500 cases of water. Four new generators were also donated, as were 400 pairs of shoes by Nashville international non-profit organization Soles4Souls.

From children to grandparents and everyone in between, it was a collective effort by Nashvillians that inspired all those involved. Even a former Gamecock standout, current Tennessee Titans' kicker Ryan Succop, participated in the Nashville drive, bringing a truckload of waters.

All water collected Thursday, Oct. 8, and delivered to South Carolina's campus Oct. 9 in front of Russell House on Green Street.

Those still looking to make monetary contributions to those in South Carolina can do so through the Red Cross by donating online at www.redcross.org/southcarolina, or by texting REDCROSS to 90999.

South Carolina student and alumni gather Oct. 9 to off-load two semi-trailers filled with bottled waters and other relief collected by Vanderbilt on Oct. 8.

Commodore starting running back Ralph Webb shown boating off the Gold Coast of Australia. He studied biodiversity Down Under along with a dozen other Vanderbilt students.

RALPH WEBB'S MAY 2015 SCHEDULE: STUDYING ABROAD IN AUSTRALIA

It was quite an interesting summer for Ralph Webb. Vanderbilt's leading RB spent much of May studying in Australia.

Webb and teammate Chris Martin (Sr., FB) joined a dozen other Vanderbilt students to study biodiversity along Australia's Gold Coast. Among the class activities over a two-week span included snorkeling in the Great Barrier Reef, kayaking through mangroves, night-hiking in dense rainforests, taking a helicopter ride along the Australian coast, and zip-lining in tropical rainforests on Fraser Island.

It also marked Webb's first trip off the United States mainland, made more interesting by the cancellation of an initial flight on the journey to Australia.

The trip left quite an impression on the sociology major, who described the Down Under class as an "life-saving opportunity."

Webb's Maymester in Australia also was featured in "Beyond the Field: Stories of The SEC" during SEC Media Days in late July.

LEGACY 'DORES: SCOTT, SHEFFIELD FOLLOWING DADS TO VANDERBILT

Caleb Scott (So., WR) and Donovan Sheffield (Fr., CB) are second-generation Commodores. Both are following their dad's collegiate path.

Scott is the son of former Commodore TE Chuck Scott (1981-84). Scott's dad was a 1983 All-America and two-time All-SEC pick who still ranks T-3rd all-time among Commodores with 20 TD catches, sixth in receiving yards (2,219), and seventh in receptions (145).

Sheffield is the son of DB Robert Sheffield (1993-95). Sheffield's dad was a three-year letterwinner at cornerback from 1993-95.

FATHERS OF FIVE COMMODORES ENJOYED CAREERS IN THE NFL

Five Vanderbilt student-athletes possess NFL bloodlines as the sons of former pro players.

- Johnny McCrary (R-So., QB) is the son of the late Greg McCrary, who played tight end for seven years with the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins and San Diego Chargers.

- Caleb Scott (So., WR) is the son of former Vanderbilt All-America tight end Chuck Scott, who played one season with both the Los Angeles Rams and Dallas Cowboys.

- Torey Agee (R-Jr., DT) is the son of former fullback Tommie Agee, who enjoyed a seven-year career with the Seattle Seahawks, Kansas City Chiefs and Dallas Cowboys.

- Landon Stokes (R-So., OLB) is the son of Fred Stokes, a 10-year defensive end with the Los Angeles and St. Louis Rams, Washington Redskins and New Orleans Saints.

- Jaire George (Fr., RB) is the son of 1995 Heisman Trophy winner and Houston Oilers-Tennessee Titan running back Eddie George.

MASON'S CAREER AT A GLANCE

VANDERBILT – 2014-15 (Head Coach)

Introduced Jan. 17, 2014 as the 28th head coach in Commodore history... Notched first career victory as head coach in dramatic style, guiding team to 34-31 win over UMass on Sept. 13... Directing one of nation's youngest teams, with 31 true or redshirt freshmen seeing action... At conclusion of 2014 season, took over Vanderbilt defensive coordinator responsibilities... Earned first road win at MTSU in October 2015... Earned first SEC victory Oct. 24, 2015 with 10-3 win over Missouri.

STANFORD – 2013 (Willie Shaw Director of Defense)

Promoted to position of Willie Shaw Director of Defense, Mason guides one of the nation's top defenses as The Cardinal goes 10-3 overall, wins Pac-12 crown and plays in second straight Rose Bowl... Stanford finishes year ranked No. 10 on strength of four victories over ranked opponents... The defense ranks third in NCAA in rushing defense, 10th in scoring defense and 16th in total defense... Unit again ranks among Pac-12's best in numerous defensive categories... For second straight year, Mason's defense limits powerful Oregon spread offense, holding Ducks scoreless for first three quarters in eventual 26-20 Stanford victory... Three of Mason's standouts – LB Trent Murphy, LB Shayne Shov and DB Ed Reynolds – garner postseason All-America recognition.

STANFORD – 2011-12 (associate head coach/defensive coordinator)

Finalist for 2012 Broyles Award as nation's outstanding assistant coach... Stanford goes 23-4 overall in Mason's first two years as coordinator, wins 2012 Pac-12 title, captures 2012 Rose Bowl over Wisconsin, and plays in the 2011 BCS Fiesta Bowl... Mason's 3-4 attacking defense ranked among the NCAA leaders in both seasons... In 2012, the Cardinal defense topped the nation with 57 quarterback sacks, ranked second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense... Stanford also paced the Pac-12 in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and sacks... The 2012 defense also held eight opponents under 100 rushing yards and limited high-powered Oregon to just 14 points in an overtime win... In 2011 the Cardinal was third in the NCAA in rushing defense, sixth in 3rd-down efficiency and 11th in quarterback sacks, and finished among the Pac-12 leaders in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense, sacks and opponent first downs.

STANFORD – 2010 (defensive backs coach)

Hired by Cardinal Head Coach Jim Harbaugh... Helped change Stanford into a tough-minded, attacking defense... Unit was key to arguably Stanford's best year of modern era – a 12-1 overall record capped by 40-12 victory over Virginia Tech in the Orange Bowl... The 2010 Cardinal secondary was one of the great turnaround stories in college football as Stanford ranked high nationally in interceptions and pass defense... That unit included three eventual NFL players, including All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman from the World Champion Seahawks.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS/NFL – 2007-09 (assistant defensive backs coach)

Served as an assistant defensive backs coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2007 to 2009, playing a vital role in the team ranking sixth in total defense in 2008 and 2009 as the Vikings won NFC North titles each season.

OHIO UNIVERSITY – 2005-06 (wide receivers)

Hired by former Nebraska Head Coach Frank Solich, Mason coached Ohio U. receivers for two years, helping the Bobcats improve from 4-7 in 2005 to a 9-5 campaign in 2006 that ended with a GMAC Bowl appearance.

NEW MEXICO STATE – 2004 (wide receivers)

In lone season at New Mexico State, the Aggie offense with Mason mentoring wide receivers corps topped the Sun Belt Conference in numerous passing categories.

SAINT MARY'S – 2003 (co-defensive coordinator/assistant head coach)

First coordinator responsibilities came in only season at St. Mary's, member of NCAA I-AA Independent League.

UTAH – 2002 (wide receivers/special teams assistant coach)

Hired by Ron McBride, Mason tutored WR Paris Warren, an eventual 7th round draft pick, in his only year at Utah. The 2002 Utes offense featured young QB Alex Smith, the eventual 2005 No. 1 NFL draft pick.

BUCKNELL – 1999-2001 (defensive backs)

Secondary coach for three straight winning Bison squads... Coached two Bucknell defensive backs to All-Patriot League recognition... Bison defensive staff was directed by current Vanderbilt coordinator David Kotulski.

IDAHO STATE – 1997-98 (running backs)

Mason coached Idaho State running backs for two years under Head Coach Tom Walsh.

WEBER STATE – 1995-96 (wide receivers)

Mason worked with Weber State receivers, including Pokey Eckford, who earned All-America honors in 1995 after catching 77 passes for 1,074 yards and six TDs.

MESA (ARIZ.) COMMUNITY COLLEGE – 1994 (wide receivers)

Mason entered collegiate coaching as a receivers coach with community college located in San Diego.

NFL MINORITY COACHING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Mason spent time with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, New York Giants and Oakland Raiders through the Minority Coaching Fellowship Program. Philadelphia in 1999 and Minnesota in 2008.

HANKTON, MATTIOLI NEW ADDITIONS TO COMMODORE COACHING STAFF

Besides attracting Andy Ludwig as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the offseason, Head Coach Derek Mason attracted a pair of talented young coaches to the Commodore staff in Cortez Hankton and Marc Mattioli.

Mason hired Hankton as wide receivers coach and picked Mattioli to mentor Commodore safeties.

Hankton, a former six-year NFL receiver, joined the staff just before National Signing Day. He did a superb job at Dartmouth University during the last three years, helping the Big Green witness a reversal of their gridiron fortunes. Dartmouth went 20-10 overall, and 8-2 in 2014, during Hankton's tenure.

Mattioli, a former coach at LaGrange (Ga.) College, worked with Mason for two years as a defensive graduate assistant at Stanford.

TWENTY-THREE FIRST-TIME PLAYERS FOR COMMODORES THIS SEASON

Twenty-three Commodores have enjoyed their first collegiate action this season.

Kyle Shurmur (Fr., QB) and Donovan Sheffield (Fr., CB) became the newest first-time contributors in the Commodores' win over Missouri. Shurmur started at quarterback, completing 10 of 20 passes for 89 yards. Shurmur also became the first Commodore true freshman to win his first collegiate start. Sheffield played critical snaps at nickelback in the second half, and registered one solo tackle.

Other first-time contributors on offense besides Shurmur this season include Kyle Anderton (Fr., FB), Ladarius Banks (Jr., FB), Josh Crawford (Fr., RB), Sam Dobbs (So., TE), Brian Doney (So., WR), Bailey Granier (R-Fr., OL), Cole Hardin (R-Fr., OL), Ronald Monroe (R-Fr., WR), Jared Pinkney (Fr., TE), Bruno Reagan (R-Fr., OL) and Justin Skule (Fr., OL).

Other first-time defensive contributors besides Sheffield include Khari Blasingame (R-Fr., ILB), Jay Hockaday (Fr., LB), Bryce Lewis (R-Fr., ILB), Nehemiah Mitchell (Jr.), Andrew Rector (Fr., safety), Josh Smith (Fr., OLB), Dare Odeyingbo (Fr., DE) and Charles Wright (R-Fr., ILB).

Two snap specialists – Wilson Johnson (Jr.) and Jacob Schultz (Jr.) – also are first-time contributors.

ROSTER INCLUDES SMALL SENIOR CLASS; TEAM HAS EIGHT SCHOLARSHIP SENIORS

The Commodores feature one of the smallest senior classes in the nation for the second straight year.

The 2015 Vanderbilt senior class includes nine players, including eight on athletic scholarship. Only Wake Forest (6) and Wyoming (8) has fewer players in their final year of eligibility.

The class includes Caleb Azubike (DE), Jake Bernstein (OL), Darreon Herring (ILB), Kris Kentera (WR), Chris Martin (FB), Jahmel McIntosh (safety), Spencer Pulley (OL), Steven Scheu (TE) and Andrew Williamson (safety).

VANDERBILT-GEORGIA GAME MARKED COMMODORES' 9TH CBS APPEARANCE

The Commodores are now 3-6 all-time on CBS after the team's 31-14 loss Sept. 12 to nationally ranked Georgia.

The Georgia game was marked Vanderbilt's first appearance on CBS since the Commodores defeated the Bulldogs 31-27 on Oct. 19, 2013.

Five of Vanderbilt's last six CBS encounters also have featured SEC opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top Ten.

Vanderbilt and CBS Sports hold historical ties in football. The first college football game ever aired coast-to-coast was CBS's broadcast of the 1955 Gator Bowl involved unranked Vanderbilt and No. 8 Auburn. It also marked the first bowl appearance for Vanderbilt, who upset the Tigers 25-13. The famed announcer Russ Hodges, who called Bobby Thomson's "Shot Heard 'Round the World" when the Giants defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers for the National League pennant one year earlier, had play-by-play duties at the Gator Bowl.

ALL-TIME RESULTS ON CBS

VANDERBILT, SEC JOIN SEPT. 3 IN EFFORT TO RAISE PROSTATE CANCER AWARENESS

The Vanderbilt football program, in conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, kicked off a campaign to highlight prostate cancer prevention and awareness on Sept. 3 vs. Western Kentucky.

Commodore player helmets worn featured a commemorative sticker when Vanderbilt faced WKU in the opener.

Shirts worn by the entire Vanderbilt coaching staff also featured a similar prostate cancer awareness patch.

The SEC launched the campaign to honor former commissioner Mike Slive, who coped with the disease during his administrative career. The league's 14 athletics directors voted unanimously in May to recognize Slive by dedicating games in his honor.

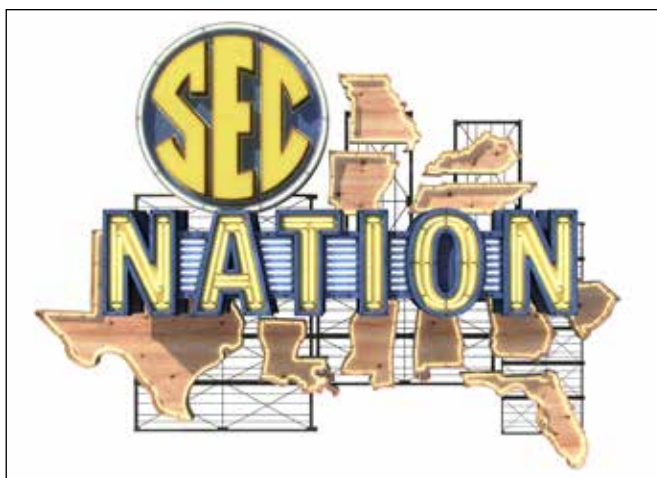

Slive and his family were honored by Vanderbilt during the WKU game.

Prostate cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death among American men. Although the disease is serious, most men diagnosed with prostate cancer can successfully fight the disease with early detection. Men over the age of 50 are encouraged to talk with their physicians about their risk for the disease and their options for screening.

Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center experts are also onboard for this important awareness and prevention campaign. VICC provides multi-disciplinary care for men seeking information, screening options and leading-edge treatment for prostate cancer. Men who want to know more about their risks for prostate cancer or who are seeking care may schedule an appointment at VICC by calling toll free 1-877-936-8422.

Player helmets displayed this decal Sept. 3 to raise prostate cancer prevention awareness.

SEC NETWORK'S 'SEC NATION' AIRED FROM VANDERBILT CAMPUS SEPT. 12

SEC Nation, the SEC Network's traveling pregame show, aired Sept. 12 from the Vanderbilt campus, prior to the Dores' game versus Georgia.

SEC Nation aired live from The Commons, home to Vanderbilt's entire first-year student population and site of the ESPN's ESPN College GameDay Show on Oct. 4, 2008.

SEC Nation, which airs every Saturday during the season from a campus site, is expected to host Joe Tessitore, analysts Tim Tebow, Greg McElroy and Marcus Spears, media personality Paul Finebaum and reporter Kaylee Hartung with the morning headlines, along with matchup previews and an inside look at each school's tailgating scene. Special guests also are featured on the show.

Last year, SEC Nation visited Vanderbilt for its Ole Miss game at LP Field, now known as Nissan Stadium.

'SEC INSIDE' SHOW ON SEC NETWORK FEATURES COMMODORES IN OPENER

The Vanderbilt football program was featured in early September in the premiere of 'SEC Inside,' the SEC Network's newest series.

The in-depth look at Vanderbilt's preparations for the Western Kentucky opener aired Sept. 8.

A 10-person film crew spent two days on the Vanderbilt campus prior to the game gathering material for the show. The crew chronicled team and position meetings, two practices, team travel, and pregame activities.

PREP TEAMMATES NOW VU TEAMMATES

Ten Commodores are playing college football with prep teammates.

- Brothers Emmanuel Smith (So., safety) and Josh Smith (Fr., OLB) were elite performers on powerful Oakland H.S. in Murfreesboro, Tenn.
- Darreon Herring (Sr., ILB) and Jonathan Wynn (R-So., DE) were teammates for one year at Stephenson H.S. just east of Atlanta.
- Nathan Marcus (R-So., TE) and Hayden Lekacz (So., PK) were teammates at Glenbard West H.S. near Chicago.
- Kevin McCoy (R-Jr., OL) and Jordan Griffin (Fr., ILB) were teammates for one season at Armwood H.S. near Tampa.
- Blake Fromang (R-Jr., OT) and Landon Stokes (R-So., OLB) were teammates at Orlando's Lake Highland Prep.

'DORES WEAR 'DEEP WATER' GRAYS VS. UGA; 4TH DESIGN FEATURES NEW HELMET LOOK

The Commodores worn their Deep Water gray uniforms – the team's fourth option for NIKE apparel – against Georgia on Sept. 12.

The "Deep Water" unveiling uniform came in August at Dore Jam, the team's annual fan event to kick off the season.

The gray alternate supplements Vanderbilt's three primary options of black, gold and white uniforms.

The uniform design, which features black lettering and gold-trimmed jersey numbers, also comes with a black chromed finish helmet that features textured water and a large anchor decal on the side matching the "Deep Water" theme.

The gray design also features "Anchor Down" in black lettering on the right pants.

Curing Kids Cancer founders Grainne and Clay Owen join Gibson Guitar officials and Vanderbilt Football Director of Player Development Al Smith to present a $25,000 check to the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt.

VANDERBILT BRINGING AWARENESS TO 'CURING KIDS CANCER' EFFORT

Vanderbilt coaches and players helped kick off the Curing Kids Cancer annual awareness campaign when the Commodores took the field against Austin Peay Sept. 19.

Vanderbilt's players wore Curing Kids Cancer helmet stickers with a gold ribbon while their coaches wear gold whistles and Curing Kids Cancer lanyards. Players and coaches will both wear Curing Kids Cancer glow-in-the-dark wristbands.

Vanderbilt was one of nine SEC teams participating in the campaign, joining Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi State, Alabama, Ole Miss, Tennessee, Texas A&M and LSU.

In honor of the support from Vanderbilt, Curing Kids Cancer recently made a $25,000 donation to fund pediatric cancer research at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital Cancer Center at Vanderbilt.

The campaign supports National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month in September. Cancer is the leading cause of disease-related death for children killing more children each year than AIDS, Asthma, Cystic Fibrosis, Diabetes and Muscular Dystrophy combined. Gold is the official color for childhood cancer awareness.

"As Chairman of Curing Kids Cancer, I'm very happy to see so many of these college football coaches and players stepping up to raise awareness about childhood cancer," said ESPN GameDay commentator Lee Corso. "It's fantastic that so many teams are supporting this great cause. We all want to tackle kids' cancer and kick it into the end zone, making it a thing of the past."

"These teams and coaches are under a tremendous amount of pressure to perform at the highest levels," said the charity spokesman for the campaign 'Mr. College Football' and SEC Network commentator Tony Barnhart. Tony is also a member of the Curing Kids Cancer executive advisory board. "What a wonderful testament to their desire to help eradicate these horrible diseases that they would not only join the cause, but do so in ever-increasing numbers. It's another example of how the college football community can be such a great example and a formidable force for good."

In 2014 Curing Kids Cancer provided more than $1 million in funding for cutting-edge research projects that may eventually make traditional chemotherapy obsolete. Over the past ten years, the organization has raised more than $7 million for pediatric cancer research.

NORMAN JORDAN RE-JOINS FISHER, LIGHT ON VANDERBILT RADIO NETWORK

Veteran play-by-play announcer Joe Fisher and sideline reporter Mitch Light are joined by former Commodore running back Norman Jordan this season on the Vanderbilt Radio Network.

Jordan, a 1983 Vanderbilt graduate who helped the Commodores to the 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., rejoins the network as color analyst, replacing former Vanderbilt quarterback John Gromos. Jordan served as the network as its sideline reporter during the late 1990s to early 2000s.

Fisher is working his 18th season as the team's play-by-play announcer. He handles similar duties for Vanderbilt men's basketball and baseball. Fisher also serves as Vanderbilt Athletics' Director of Broadcasting.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Fisher was a television sports anchor in the Nashville market from 1987-96, with stints at WSMV-4 and WKRN-2. He also worked in public relations.

Light, entering his third season providing sideline commentary, is a Vanderbilt graduate and editor of Athlon sports publications.

MORE ON THE COMMODORE RADIO NETWORK

Vanderbilt football games are carried on NewsRadio WLAC AM-1510, the Nashville station that owns one of the nation's strongest signals.

The Vanderbilt Radio Network also includes two other Nashville stations: WSNR AM-560 and WSNR 95.9-FM.

The Vanderbilt Radio Network will also provide a live broadcast. In past years, a slight delay in the broadcast impacted the ability to merge play-by-play announcer Joe Fisher's call to the TV broadcast.

COMMODORES' LATE RALLY FALLS SHORT IN OPENER VS. WKU

NASHVILLE – Perhaps it's only fitting that Vanderbilt's comeback hopes Thursday died with a failed two-point conversion attempt.

All night long, the Commodores stumbled whenever they got near the end zone.

Joe Brown stopped Nathan Marcus a yard shy of the goal line on a two-point conversion attempt with 33 seconds left to preserve Western Kentucky's 14-12 victory over Vanderbilt on

GAME 1 SEPT. 3, 2015 NASHVILLE

Thursday night. Earlier in the game, Vanderbilt had failed to score on three separate trips inside Western Kentucky's 10-yard line.

"I thought all the way to the end we were going to win this game," Vanderbilt coach

Derek Mason said. "I came into this game that way, and I felt that way all the way through. I'm confident about what this football team can accomplish."

Vanderbilt's comeback hopes instead fell a yard short.

The Commodores had cut the lead to 14-12 when Johnny McCrary threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Trent Sherfield on 4th-and-goal. Brown made an open-field tackle after Marcus caught Johnny McCrary's pass on a potential game-tying conversion attempt.

MISTAKES DOOM COMMODORES IN LOSS TO NO. 10 GEORGIA

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason says his quarterback Johnny McCrary is trying hard to make plays. The Commodores need to help him figure out how to protect the ball better with chances to score.

McCrary threw for 295 yards and a touchdown Saturday. But the red-shirt sophomore also was intercepted three times, once in the end zone with the Commodores trying to rally late before losing 31-14 to No. 10 Georgia in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

GAME 2 SEPT. 12, 2015 NASHVILLE

In two games, McCrary now has been intercepted five times with three of those in the end zone, and the Commodores now are 0-2 to start Mason's second season.

"If we can fix our red zone problems, it will be good for us," Mason said. "We're racking up yards, but not points."

Vanderbilt was trying to beat Georgia in back-to-back games in Nashville for the first time since the 1950s. The Commodores held the ball for nearly 33 minutes overall and rolled up 231 of their 400 yards in the fourth quarter.

2015 GAME RECAPS

COMMODORES ROLL TO FIRST WIN; SHERFIELD STARS VS. AUSTIN PEAY

NASHVILLE – Trent Sherfield may not have known he was on the brink of a record-setting performance Saturday, but his coach did.

Sherfield's 17-yard reception in the fourth quarter of Vanderbilt's 47-7 win over Austin Peay gave the sophomore 16 catches for 240 yards - the latter of which is the most by a Commodore in a single game.

"I knew," second-year Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "I wanted him to have the record. I wanted him to have the catch. He's worked hard. You reward guys for the work they do. That's what I believe. I talked to (receivers coach) Cortez Hankton, I said, 'keep him in, let's play, let's keep doing what we're doing.' He got the catch, we got him out of the game."

By then, the game was long decided - due in large part to a 16-point outburst in the late moments of the second quarter, when Vanderbilt rallied from a 7-3 deficit to take a 19-7 advantage into the locker room at halftime.

COMMODORES DROP HARD-FOUGHT BATTLE AGAINST NO. 3 OLE MISS

OXFORD, Miss. – Vanderbilt stayed in the game against No. 3 Mississippi much longer than just about anyone expected.

But the Commodores could never find the big offensive play to pull off an upset over the Rebels.

Ole Miss beat Vanderbilt 27-16 on Saturday night, pushing past a feisty Commodores defense that slowed down the Rebels for the first time all season.

GAME 4 SEPT. 26, 2015 OXFORD, MISS.

"We are going to continue to get better," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "Teams are not going to want to see us in October and November, I can tell you that."

Vanderbilt (1-3, 0-2 Southeastern Conference) lost its third straight against the Rebels, who came into the game averaging 64 points per game. Johnny McCrary threw for 194 yards and Ralph Webb ran for 90.

Vanderbilt stayed within striking distance all night thanks to a defense that didn't give up big plays and generally played mistake-free football.

COMMODORES RALLY LATE IN FOURTH FOR ROAD WIN AT MIDDLE TENNESSEE

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — Ralph Webb ran for a 39-yard touchdown late in the fourth quarter to lift Vanderbilt past Middle Tennessee 17-13 on Saturday night.

The Commodores overcame a 10-point deficit with two touchdowns in the final 6:14. Quarterback Johnny McCrary scored on a 29-yard run before Webb scored with 1:12 left to play. It was Vanderbilt's (2-3) first win against an FBS opponent this season.

GAME 5

OCT. 3, 2015

MURFREESBORO, TENN.

"Once I broke through the second wave of the defense, all I saw was the end zone," Webb said. "I was trying to get there as fast as I could."

Webb ran for 155 yards on 25 carries for his first 100-yard rushing game of the season and third of his career.

"Bout time," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "I'll be honest with you. I've been waiting for him to hit one for a while."

"Sometimes you run out of time," said Mason. "Today we almost ran out of time. It was our first road win since I've been here, and that's huge for this young, growing football team."

TURNOVERS DOOM COMMODORES; FALL ON ROAD TO SOUTH CAROLINA

COLUMBIA, S.C. — Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason is ready for his football team to grow up and stop making mistakes.

The second-year coach was frustrated after the Commodores (2-4, 0-3 Southeastern) lost 19-10 to South Carolina on Saturday, turning the ball over five times and committing key penalties in what might have been their best chance at an SEC win this season.

GAME 6

OCT. 17, 2015

COLUMBIA, S.C.

"Our football team continues to shoot itself in the foot," Mason said. "We've got to be better all around."

Vanderbilt appeared to have the momentum, turning a 6-0 deficit into a 10-6 lead with a touchdown on a 14-play drive late in the second quarter and a field goal on a 10-play drive early in the second half. But then came the turning point of the game. Gamecocks quarterback Perry Orth hit Pharoh Cooper as he came across the field and the junior outran the defense for the 78-yard touchdown.

The rest of the game turned sloppy. Vanderbilt would turn the ball over four times and South Carolina (3-4, 1-4) twice after Cooper's touchdown.

COMMODORES WIN SLUGFEST TO GIVE MASON FIRST CONFERENCE VICTORY

NASHVILLE – A low-scoring game felt just right for Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason as he earned his first Southeastern Conference win in 12 tries.

Vanderbilt held Missouri to 188 total yards and 10 first downs in route to a 10-3 win Saturday. It was the fewest yards allowed by Vanderbilt against an SEC opponent since a 2006 loss to Mississippi.

GAME 7 OCT. 24, 2015 NASHVILLE

"Love it - I'll sleep well tonight," said Mason, who doubles as the Commodores' defensive coordinator. "Some people may want to see higher scores and what it looks like, but let me tell you, two weeks from now it'll still be 10-3 and it'll still be in the win column. So let's go."

One stat in particular stood out for Mason - Missouri's 0 for 14 mark on third down conversions.

"0 for 14 on third downs - who would have thunk it? Really," said Mason, who was awarded the game ball by Vanderbilt Athletics Director David Williams. "Just an unbelievable effort by those guys (on defense)."

The Tigers' struggling offense fell to 3 for 41 on third down conversions during the last three games.
