Commodores Retain No. 1 National Ranking

With the series sweep over Tennessee last weekend, Vanderbilt remained the No. 1 team in the country in three of the five major polls.

The Commodores have been ranked No. 1 in at least one of the polls in nine of the last 10 weeks.

The Commodores at 36-8 are off to the best start in school history and the team's 20-0 start was the best start of any sport at Vanderbilt. It bested the 17-0 start of the 1993 women's basketball team.

The No. 1 baseball ranking joins women's basketball and women's golf as the only NCAA sports to achieve a No. 1 ranking at Vanderbilt. The 1993 women's hoops squad was ranked No. 1 by the AP for six weeks, including the final regular season poll prior to postseason play. The women's golf team was ranked No. 1 for a time in 2004.

Price Adds To New School Career Strikeout Record

With 14 strikeouts last Friday against Tennessee, David Price now has 369 in his career with at least four regular season starts remaining. With nine strikeouts against Kentucky on April 13, the junior lefthander broke a 35-year old school record with 355 career strikeouts. With his fifth strikeout against the Wildcats, he broke Mike Willis' school record of 350 set from 1969-72. Of note, Willis achieved the mark in four years at Vanderbilt, compared to Price in three. The fellow southpaw went on to a five year career in the major leagues with the Toronto Blue Jays (1977-81) and finished with a 7-21 record and 15 saves with a 4.59 ERA.

Casey Weathers Named To Both Roger Clemens Award and Stopper of the Year Watch List

Last week senior closer Casey Weathers was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Stopper of the Year Watch List. This week he was added to the Roger Clemens Award Watch List, an award that recognizes the top pitcher in college baseball. Last week Baseball America tabbed him as the top senior pitching prospect in college baseball and the No. 21 prospect overall.

He had a stellar weekend against Tennessee, picking up two clutch saves in the first two games, and a win in the series finale. In Friday's game he came on in the ninth with no outs and the tying runs on base and retired the side. In Saturday's game he came on with with outs in the eighth and the tying run at second base. He struck out a batter to end that threat and then retired the side in order in the ninth to pick up his second save of the weekend. He then came on in relief in the ninth on Sunday with the go ahead run on first and induced a groundout and struck out two to end the threat.

He struck out five with two walks in 3.1 innings shutout innings on the week and now leads the team in wins with an 8-2 record and also leads the team in saves with five.

At the end the regular season, the Division I leader in saves and four other relief pitching stand-outs will be selected as the Stopper of the Year Award's finalists. These finalists will be released on Wednesday, May 30, just prior to the beginning of NCAA regional play.

Shea Robin Named To Johnny Bench Watch List

The Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission named junior catcher Shea Robin to the initial Johnny Bench Award Watch List.

Twenty-seven catchers from seventeen conferences were nominated for the award by their coaches. Because the award is given annually to the top division one collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 7, 2007.

Robin is one of four catchers from the Southeastern Conference to be on the list, joining Tennessee's J.P. Arencibia, Mississippi State's Edward Easley and LSU's Robert Lara. The Woodlands, Texas, native is hitting .295 on the season with a homer and 22 RBI. The watch list will be narrowed down to ten semi-finalists, whom will be announced May 17, 2007.

Commodores Outlast Tennessee Tech 12-10

Vanderbilt blasted three homers in a four run fifth inning and withstood a late rally by Tennessee Tech to win 12-10 Wednesday evening at Hawkins Field.

The Commodores trailed 4-3 going into the bottom of the fifth when Dominic de la Osa led off with a homer to left-center, his 11th of the year. Pedro Alvarez followed with a homer to right-center, his 13th of the year to make it 5-4. Ryan Flaherty tripled to left and scored on an infield single by Shea Robin and Jonathan White then capped it off with a solo shot over the scoreboard in right-center to put VU ahead 7-4.

Flaherty added a two-run double in the sixth to extend the lead to 9-4. Parker Hanks hit a pinch-hit two-run homer in the seventh to extend the lead to 11-4.

Tech plated six runs on six hits in the eighth inning to cut the lead to just one at 11-10. Scott Dunham and Michael Roeder had RBI singles, Cory Wright added a two-run double and Thomas Nelson chipped in with a RBI double to lead the way.

VU added an insurance run in the bottom of the eighth on a RBI groundout by Brian Harris to close out the scoring at 12-10.

Pedro Alvarez, Ryan Flaherty, Jonathan White and Ryan Davis each had three hits to lead the Vanderbilt 18 hit attack.

Tyler Rhoden (3-0) allowed a run on five hits in three innings of relief in the win, while Cody Crowell pitched a 1-2-3 ninth to record his second save of the season.

The Golden Eagles jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first off of VU starter Brett Jacobson.

The Commodores got a run back in the bottom half on a RBI single by Dominic de la Osa.

Tech got the run back in the second on a solo homer by Michael Roeder in the second to make it 3-1. Vandy cut it to 3-2 in the bottom half on a RBI single by Andrew Giobbi that scored Shea Robin who walked and stole second.

They tied it in the third on a RBI single by Pedro Alvarez that scored Dominic de la Osa who was hit by a pitch and stole second.

Commodores Picked To Finish Second in SEC East By Coaches

Southeastern Conference coaches predicted Vanderbilt to finish second in the Eastern Division in a vote done prior to the season.

Two of the 12 league coaches voted the Commodores as their pick to win the regular season championship. South Carolina received seven of the 12 championship votes in the poll and Arkansas received three votes.

The Gamecocks received 63 of a possible 66 points to win the Eastern Division, while the Commodores were second with 54 points.

Head Coach Tim Corbin

In four seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has raised expectations of the baseball program into one that is expected to be among the nations best on an annual basis.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

This past summer he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba in August. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee in September.

Those results were probably to be expected, as Corbin has taken Vanderbilt to heights it has rarely seen in its long baseball history.

His overall record of 144-95 (.602) is the fourth best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

Last year he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

With virtually the entire team back, Corbin knows the expectations are there to build upon that success and take the Commodores to their first College World Series in school history. It is a goal that he and his coaching staff are determined to achieve in the near future.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 29 players have been drafted over the last three years including 13 in 2005.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up a school-record 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) — all of which were bettered in 2004. Three different players earned conference Player of the Week honors (the most for VU in a single season), and the team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.

Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort instead of the product of one dominant player on the mound. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky University.

Corbin came to Vanderbilt following nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson.

During his time there (1994-2002) the Tigers had more victories than all but four programs. Clemson won more than 71 percent (434 wins, 172 losses) of its games, captured two Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles, made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament and reached the College World Series four times (1995, 1996, 2000, and 2002). The Tigers ended the 2002 season with their ninth consecutive top 25 finish and their sixth top 10 finish since 1994.

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin was head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. There he restarted a baseball program that laid dormant for several years. He directed Presbyterian College from NAIA to NCAA Division II status and had a 106-138 overall record. Along the way, the Blue Hose made three consecutive appearances in the South Atlantic playoffs (1991-93), and Corbin earned South Atlantic Coach of the Year honors in 1990.
