Bryce Cotton - bry-ICE (rhymes with ice); Lee Goldsbrough -- golds-BRO

Friars vs. Vanderbilt: The Friars have posted a 0-1 mark all-time versus Vanderbilt. In the only meeting ever between the two teams, the Commodores defeated the Friars, 72-66, on November 9, 1998 in Providence at the CoSida Classic.

Friars vs. SEC: The Friars have recorded a 12-16 mark all-time versus teams from SEC. In the Friars' last game against an opponent from SEC, Providence defeated Mississippi State, 73-63, on December 1, 2012 at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Friday's game with Vanderbilt will be the first of two games for the Friars versus SEC opponents during the regular season. The Friars will face Kentucky on Sunday, December 1 at the Barclay's Center in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Scouting The Commodores: Vanderbilt entered Tuesday's game at Butler with a 2-0 mark. The Commodores were picked to finish 10th of 14 teams in the SEC Preseason Poll. Vanderbilt opened the season with an 86-80 win over Georgia State. The team also won its second game of the season at home versus Lipscomb (80-69) on November 15. Senior forward Rod Odom entered Tuesday's game leading the team in scoring (19.5 ppg). Junior forward James Siakam leads the team in rebounding (7.5 rpg) and ranks third in scoring (12.0 ppg).

Friars In In-Season Tournaments: The Friars are participating in the Paradise Jam in St. Thomas, U.S.V.I. this season. Overall, the Friars are 79-58 (.577) while playing in in-season tournaments. They have won 14 in-season tournament championships and finished as a runner-up on 11 occasions. Last season, Providence participated in the Puerto Rico Tip Off and posted a 1-2 mark.

On Deck: The Friars will return to action in the Paradise Jam on Saturday, November 23 or Sunday, November 24. If the Friars defeat Vanderbilt, they will play the winner of the Morgan State/LaSalle game on Sunday, November 24 at 10:30 p.m. Atlantic Standard Time on on CBS Sports Network. If the Friars are defeated by Vanderbilt, the team will play the loser from the Morgan State/LaSalle game on Saturday, November 23 at 6:00 p.m. Atlantic Standard Time. The game will be streamed live on paradisejam.com.

Friars Defeat Vermont: The Friars rolled past Vermont on November 18 at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Senior Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) and junior LaDontae Henton (Lansing, Mich.) led all scorers with 18 points each. The Friars extended their non-conference, regular-season home win streak to 30 games, dating back to Dec. 21, 2009. Providence is 4-0 for the second time in three years under the direction of Head Coach Ed Cooley. Senior Kadeem Batts (Boston, Mass.) recorded his third double-double of the year with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Sophomore Kris Dunn (New London, Conn.) played in his first game of this season and logged eight assists in 21 minutes. He also had three points and three steals. Providence used an 18-1 run midway through the first half and entered the half with a 30-14 lead. The Friars held the Catamounts without a field goal for 16-minutes and limited Vermont to just 4-of-25 shooting in the opening stanza. It was Vermont's fewest amount of points in a half since 1996. Vermont opened the second half with a 10-1 run to pull within seven of Providence, 31-24. The Friars forced four straight turnovers and sophomore Josh Fortune (Hampton, Va.) hit two 3-pointers (43-26) to get Providence back on track en route to a 21-point victory. With the win, the Friars improved to 7-0 all-time against Vermont. It is the first time since 1982-83 that Providence has held its opponent to 50 points or less in consecutive games. Senior Clancy Rugg had a double-double for Vermont with 10 points and 14 rebounds. Senior Luke Apfeld added 14 points for the Catamounts.

Dunn Returns From Injured Shoulder: Sophomore guard Kris Dunn (New London, Conn.) returned to the lineup and played his first game of the season versus Vermont on November 18 after missing three games due to a shoulder injury. Dunn recorded eight assists and three points in the win over Vermont. Dunn injured his shoulder in the Friars' exhibition game win over Rhode Island College on November 2. He missed the first nine games last season due to an injury on his shoulder.

Friars Hold Two Opponents Under 50: The Friars have held their last two opponents under 50 points. The Friars defeated Marist, 93-48, on November 16 and Vermont, 70-49, on November 18. It marked the first time Providence held two consecutive opponents under 50 points since the 1982-83 season.

Friars Looking To Improve To 5-0: On Friday, the Friars will be looking to earn their fifth consecutive victory of the season to improve to 5-0. It would mark the first time the team opened with five consecutive wins since Rick Barnes' Friars opened the 1990-91 season with five wins.

Friars Hit The Boards: The Friars have outrebounded all four opponents this season and hold a 165-109 advantage in rebounds. Providence is averaging 41.2 rebounds per game while its opponents are averaging 27.3 boards per contest (+14.0).

Batts Registers His Third Double-Double: Senior forward Kadeem Batts (Boston, Mass.) registered his third double-double of the season in the Friars' 70-49 win over Vermont. For Batts it was his 11th career double-double. Last season, he posted five double-doubles. Batts is third on the team in scoring (15.3 ppg) and second in rebounding (8.5 rpg).

Friars Lead The BIG EAST In Free Throw Shooting: The Friars have made 75 of 91 attempts from the free-throw line and lead the BIG EAST in free-throw shooting at 82.4 percent. Last season, the Friars shot 70.1 percent from the line.

Henton And Batts Closing In On 1,000 Points: Junior LaDontae Henton (Lansing, Mich.) and senior Kadeem Batts (Boston, Mass.) are closing in on 1,000 points scored in their careers. Henton has scored 969 points in 70 games (13.8 ppg) and Batts has registered 921 points in 91 games (10.1 ppg). Forty five players have scored 1,000 or more career points in the history of Friar basketball.

Friars Score 93 Points: The Friars scored 93 points in the team's win over Marist on November 16. It marked the first time since January 10, 2012 that the Friars scored 90 or more points in a game. The 93 points also is the highest point total the Friars have recorded since Ed Cooley became the Head Coach of the Friars.

Cotton And Batts Post A Double-Double: Senior guard Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) and senior forward Kadeem Batts (Boston, Mass.) each registered a double-double in the Friars' 93-48 win over Marist on November 16. Cotton recorded 28 points and a career-high 11 assists. Batts posted his second double-double of the season with 22 points and 10 rebounds.

Harris Scores 21: Sophomore forward Tyler Harris (Did Hills, N.Y.) had a game and career-high 21 points and seven rebounds in the team's win over Brown on November 13. Harris was 6-13 from the field and 8-8 from the free throw line. Harris did not see any game action last year after transferring to Providence from NC State. In his freshman year with the Wolfpack in 2011-12, Harris saw action in 19 games.

Austin and Bullock Suspended: It was announced on November 6 that Providence College freshmen basketball players Brandon Austin (Philadelphia, Pa.) and Rodney Bullock (Hampton, Va.) have been suspended from game action indefinitely for not upholding their responsibilities as student-athletes.

Home Non-Conference Winning Streak: Since the BIG EAST was founded in 1979-80, Providence's longest regular season, non-conference winning streak was 28 games. Rick Barnes' Friars won those games from November 25, 1988 to November 22, 1991. With the Friars' 70-49 win over Vermont on November 18, the team earned its 30th consecutive regular season, non-conference victory at home. Providence has posted a 4-0 mark at home this season. The Friars were 7-0 at home last season versus regular season, non-conference foes. The team has won all its non-conference home games in each of the last three seasons. The streak started with an 87-78 win over Yale on December 21, 2009. In 2010-11, the Friars won all 10 of their home non-conference games. In 2011-12, the team defeated eight non-conference teams at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. The Friars' longest non-conference home winning streak is 56 games which went from February 13, 1971 to December 27, 1974. The Friars' last non-conference home loss was an 82-73 defeat to Iona on December 12, 2009.

Big Crowd At The Opener: In the Friars' season opening win over Boston College on November 8, 11,102 fans attended the game. It marked the second largest crowd to attend a Friars' season opener. The largest crowd ever was 11,856 fans at the team's opener against Fordham in the Fleet Classic on November 27, 1987.

Henton Registers A Double-Double: Junior forward LaDontae Henton (Lansing, Mich.) registered a double-double with 15 points and 13 rebounds in the Friars' win over Boston College on November 8. Last season, Henton recorded 11 double-doubles. As a freshman, he posted nine double-doubles.

Friars Win In Overtime: On November 8, the Friars defeated Boston College, 82-78, in overtime. It marked the Friars' first overtime win since the team defeated Seton Hall, 98-93, on January 22, 2009. The Friars have registered a 54-58 mark all-time in overtime games.

Cotton Ranks 23rd All-Time In Scoring: Senior guard Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) has recorded 1,292 career points in 99 games at Providence College. He reached 1,000 points on February 3, 2013 in the Friars' win at Villanova. Cotton ranks 23rd all-time in scoring at Providence. Cotton scored just 125 points (4.0 ppg) as a freshman. As a sophomore, he registered 457 points (14.3 ppg). In 2012-13, Cotton has scored 630 points (19.7 ppg). The Providence College record for points in a career is 2,138, which was set by Ryan Gomes in 2005.

Cotton Named College Sports Madness BIG EAST Player Of The Week: It was announced on Monday, November 11 that senior guard Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) was named College Sports Madness BIG EAST Men's Basketball Player Of The Week. Cotton earned the award as he scored a game-high 28 points and went 9-of-10 from the free throw line in the Friars' 82-78 overtime win against Boston College on Nov. 8. Cotton played the entire 45 minutes, grabbed six rebounds and had four assists. Last year, Cotton led the BIG EAST in scoring at 18.3 ppg. College Sports Madness identifies players who have made the greatest impact to their team from each conference and on a national basis and is announced every Monday.

Three Recruits For 2014-15: Head Coach Ed Cooley announced on November 13, 2013 that student-athletes Ben Bentil (Middletown, Del.), Paschal Chukwu (Westport, Conn.) and Jalen Lindsey (Murfreesboro, Tenn.), each have signed a National Letter of Intent to attend Providence College beginning in September 2014. These three players make up one of the top recruiting classes in the nation. CBSSports.com (247sports.com) rated Cooley's recruiting class as the 16th best in the nation, while Scout.com has the class ranked 18th, Rivals.com has it ranked 19th and ESPN.com ranked the class as the 20th best in the country. Bentil, a 6-foot-8-inch, 225-pound combo forward attends the Saint Andrew's School in Middletown, Del. and plays for Head Coach Terrell Myers. He is ranked as the No. 83 top recruit in the nation, according to Scout.com and No. 92 by CBSSports.com (247sports.com). Chukwu, a 7-foot-2-inch, 235-pound center attends Fairfield Prep in Fairfield, Conn. and plays for Head Coach Leo Redgate. He is ranked as the No. 6 center in the class of 2014, according to ESPN.com. He also has been ranked as the No. 8 center in his class by Scout.com and CBSSports.com (247sports.com). ESPN.com has Chukwu rated as the No. 56 player overall, while Rivals.com has him ranked No. 60 overall. Scout.com ranked him at No. 63 and CBSSports.com (247sports.com) has him at No. 70. Lindsey, a 6-foot-7-inch, 185-pound guard/wing attends Huntington Prep in Huntington, W.Va. and plays for Head Coach Rob Fulford. He is ranked as 67th best recruit in the nation by CBSSports.com (247sports.com). Rivals.com ranks Lindsey No. 68, ESPN.com rated him as the 73rd ranked recruit and Scout.com has him rated No. 82 in the nation.

Newcomers: Freshmen Brandon Austin (Philadelphia, Pa.), Rodney Bullock (Hampton, Va.), and Casey Woodring (Darien, Conn.) and sophomore Junior Lomomba (Montreal, Quebec) each are in their first season with the Friars. Austin had an impressive high school career at Imhotep High School. The 6-foot-6-inch guard was ranked in the top 60 in all major recruiting rankings. Bullock, a 6-foot-7-inch forward, averaged 21 points and 11 rebounds per game as a senior at Koughtan High School. Lomomba joined the Friars after playing for Cleveland State last season. Lomomba will practice with the team but will not compete in games due to NCAA transfer rules. Woodring, a walk on, played at Cushing Academy last year and helped the team capture the 2013 Class AA New England Championship.

Friars in Season Openers: With their 82-78 overtime win over Boston College on November 8, the Friars have posted a 76-11 (.874) mark all-time in regular-season season openers. In addition, the Friars hold a 79-8 (.908) record in home openers. The Friars opened the 2013-14 season at home for the 13th time in 14 years. The only time in the past 14 seasons the Friars did not open at home was the 2007-08 season, when they played Temple in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Providence has won 12 of the last 13 openers, with the lone defeat coming in the 2008-09 game against Northeastern.

Dunn Named To The Bob Cousy Award Watch List: It was announced on October 22 that sophomore guard Kris Dunn (New London, Conn.) was one of 45 players named to the watch list for the 2014 Bob Cousy Collegiate Point Guard of the Year Award. The annual honor, named for Hall of Famer and former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy, recognizes the top point guards in men's college basketball. The list was created by a committee of well-respected media members and influential people within college basketball from around the country. The watch list of candidates will be narrowed down to a final 20 in early February, then a final five by early March. The Cousy Award winner will be presented the award on Championship Monday in Dallas at the Hall of Fame's Class of 2014 Announcement and Press Conference. Dunn, who missed the first nine games of the Friars' 2012-13 season with a shoulder injury, started 18 of the 25 games he played. He averaged 5.7 points, 4.8 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game. Dunn recorded season highs of 14 points versus Charlotte (March 20), 12 rebounds versus St. John's (March 2) and 13 assists against Colgate (December 18). The former McDonald's High School All-American played an average of 27.2 minutes per game last season and was named the Friars' 2013 Promising Prospect. In June, he was one of 24 players invited to the 2013 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Championship Team training camp that was held at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. For Dunn it marked his second training camp with USA Basketball as he participated in the U18 National Team training camp in 2012.

College To Honor Stacom, Hassett And Lis: On Saturday, January 25, Providence College will honor three of its all-time greatest basketball players. Former Friar men's basketball players Kevin Stacom '74 and Joe Hassett '77 and women's basketball player Tracy Lis '92 will be honored at the men's and women's home games that day as banners will be unveiled with their names and numbers (Stacom #25, Hassett #10 and Lis #22). The banners will be presented at a halftime ceremony of each game. All three former Friars will join the Friar Legends Forever Tradition. On January 25, the Friar men's team will play Xavier at the Dunkin' Donuts Center at noon and the Friar women's basketball team will play Seton Hall in Mullaney Gymnasium at 2:30 p.m. Also on January 25, the Providence College Athletic Department will hold a dinner to honor Stacom, Hassett and Lis. The event will begin at 6 p.m. and will be held at the Omni Hotel in Downtown Providence. Fans wishing to purchase tickets to the basketball games to see the halftime ceremonies should visit Friars.com or call 401-865-GOPC. Fans that would like to purchase tickets to the dinner to honor Stacom, Hassett and Lis on Saturday, January 25 should call Alex Vescera at 401-865-1756. The Friar Legends Forever Tradition began in 1996. To earn the honor, the player or coach must have made a significant impact on Friar basketball and he/she must have received national recognition during his/her career at Providence. Stacom and Hassett will become the 10th and 11th members of the Friar men's basketball family to be honored as part of the Friar Legends Forever Tradition. Lenny Wilkens '60 was the first PC player to have his number retired in 1996. In 2007, the College honored former coaches Joe Mullaney and Dave Gavitt. In 2008, Jimmy Walker '67, Marvin Barnes '74 and Ernie DiGregorio '73 had their numbers retired. In 2009, the College honored John Egan '61 as his number was retired. The most recent Friars to earn the honor were Ray Flynn '63 and Vinnie Ernst '63 in 2011.

Fox Sports 1 Is The New Home Of The BIG EAST: At 6:00 a.m. on August 17, FOX Sports 1 - the official home of the BIG EAST Conference - launched in approximately 90 million homes throughout the United States. FOX Sports 1 is the nation's newest and most innovative 24-hour multi-sport channel, and represents the largest sports network launch in history. In March, members of the BIG EAST gathered in FOX's studios in New York City to announce an unprecedented multi-media partnership between the network and the BIG EAST conference. From the first practices through the regular season and culminating with the nation's most compelling conference basketball tournament, held each March in Madison Square Garden, FOX Sports 1 will showcase the high level of competition and the intense rivalries that have long defined BIG EAST basketball. Led by the legendary announcing team of Gus Johnson and Bill Raftery, who has been calling BIG EAST games for over thirty years, FOX Sports 1 is slated to televise more than 100 BIG EAST men's regular season games this coming season, beginning with non-conference play on Friday, November 8.

Butler, Creighton And Xavier Join The BIG EAST: It was announced on March 20, 2013, that the BIG EAST would add three new members - Butler, Creighton and Xavier. The three schools joined DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, Seton Hall, St. John's and Villanova as members of the new Big East conference.

Cotton Named First Team All-BIG EAST; Batts Most Improved: It was announced on March 11, 2013 that Friar guard Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) was named All-BIG EAST First Team. His teammate, Kadeem Batts (Boston, Mass.), was recognized as a co-winner of the league's Most Improved Award and earned All-BIG East Honorable Mention accolades. Cotton had an impressive season for the Friars. He finished the BIG EAST season as the scoring leader, averaging 18.3 points per game. He is the fifth Friar all-time to lead the league in scoring, and the first since Marshon Brooks (26.0 ppg) in 2011. Cotton became the 10th Friar all-time to earn All-BIG EAST First Team honors and the first since Brooks earned the accolade in 2011. It also was the 11th time a PC player had received All-BIG EAST First Team honors. Cotton had scored 20 or more points in 18 of the 31 games he had played in 2012-13, including a season-high 33 points versus Boston College on December 22. He also led the team and the BIG EAST in scoring in overall action, averaging 19.7 ppg. Cotton led the BIG EAST in three-point field goals made per game. The junior guard averaged 3.1 three pointers per game. Batts shared the Most Improved Award with Michael Carter-Williams of Syracuse. Batts became just the second Friar all-time to earn the league's Most Improved Award and the first since Herbert Hill received the accolade in 2007. Batts had a breakout season for the Friars. He averaged 14.8 points and 7.2 rebounds per game. He recorded five double-doubles in 2012-13. He ranked 13th in the league in scoring, sixth in rebounding and 12th in field goal percentage (47.8 percent, 188-393).

Cotton Is The Fifth Friar All-Time To Lead BIG EAST In Scoring: Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) finished as the leading scorer in the BIG EAST in 2012-13 after averaging 18.3 points per game in league action. He is the fifth Friar all-time to lead the league in scoring, and the first since Marshon Brooks (26.0 ppg) in 2011. He also joined former Friars Herbert Hill (2007, 19.9 ppg), Ryan Gomes (2005, 23.2 ppg), and Eric Murdock (1991, 27.2 ppg) as BIG EAST scoring leaders.

Friars Reach 19 Wins: On March 25, 2013, the Friars defeated Robert Morris, 77-68, in the second round of the NIT. It was the team's 19th win of the season. The Friars also posted a 9-9 mark in BIG EAST play this season. It is the most overall and league wins for the team since the 2008-09 season when the Friars posted a 19-14 record overall and a 10-8 record in league play.

Friars Make Historic BIG EAST Season Turnaround: The Friars made one of the greatest single-season "turnarounds" in league history finishing with a 9-9 league mark. Halfway through the conference season the Friars had posted a 2-7 mark (.222), the Friars then won seven of their last nine BIG EAST games to post a 7-2 record (.778) over the second half of the season. The best single-season conference turnaround was posted by Georgetown in 1996-97 when they started the season 3-6 (.333) and finished with an 11-7 record (.611) in conference play.

Cotton Led The Friars And The BIG EAST Overall In Scoring: Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) scored 20 or more points in 18 of the 31 games he played in 2012-13, including 30 points in the Friars' win over UNC Asheville on November 18, 2012 and a season-high 33 points versus Boston College on December 22, 2012. Cotton scored 20 or more points in 11 of the last 20 games. He led the team and the BIG EAST in scoring, averaging 19.7 ppg.

Cotton Hits For Three: Senior guard Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) led the BIG EAST in three-point field goals made per game in 2012-13. The guard averaged 3.1 three pointers per game. He led the team in three-point field goal shooting at 36.4 percent (98-269).

Henton Led Friars In Rebounding: Junior forward LaDontae Henton (Lansing, Mich.) led the Friars in rebounding last season, averaged 8.3 rebounds per game. Henton also ranked third in the BIG EAST in rebounding. He recorded a career-high 17 rebounds in the team's 72-57 win over Rhode Island on Dec. 6, 2012.

Henton Steady On Offense: Forward LaDontae Henton (Lansing, Mich.) scored 37 points in the Friars' loss to Brown on December 28, 2012. He scored 15 or more points in 14 of the team's 33 games in 2012-13. He led the team in double-doubles (11) and he ranked third on the team in scoring (13.0 ppg) and first in rebounding (8.3 rpg).

Ricky Ledo Drafted: Former Providence College guard Ricky Ledo (Providence, R.I.) was selected in the second round (43rd overall) of the 2013 NBA Draft by the Milwaukee Bucks on Thursday, June 27. Ledo, a 6-foot-7-inch, 195 pound shooting guard is the second Friar selected in the NBA Draft in the last three years. Former Friar Marshon Brooks was selected in the first round (25th overall) of the 2011 NBA Draft by the Boston Celtics. Providence, which has a rich history in the draft, including the distinct honor of having the only No. 1 pick ever from a New England school (Jimmy Walker, 1967), now has had 41 players selected in the NBA Draft. Ledo did not play in any games during his 2012-13 freshman season for the Friars. In September 2012, the NCAA ruled that Ledo could not compete in games for the Friars in 2012-13. Ledo did practice and workout with the squad.

Friars Versus New England Opponents: The Friars have posted a 2-0 mark this season against New England opponents with a victory over Boston College on November 8 and Vermont on November 18. Last season, the squad recorded a 4-5 mark against New England opponents with wins over Bryant, Fairfield, Holy Cross and Rhode Island and losses to UMass, Boston College, Brown and Connecticut (twice). The Friars have registered a 653-296 (.689) mark all-time against New England opponents.

Providence College Basketball: The 2013-14 campaign marks the 87th season of basketball at Providence College. Since the program started in 1926-27, Providence has posted a 1,339-906 mark, good for a .596 winning percentage. During their previous 86 seasons, the Friars have made the NCAA Tournament 15 times and the National Invitation Tournament on 19 occasions.

In eight seasons as a head coach, Ed Cooley has posted an impressive 130-101 mark (.563).

On March 22, 2011 Cooley became the 15th head coach at Providence College. He came to Providence College after spending five seasons as the head coach at Fairfield University.

"When Bob and I sat down with Mike Tranchese and we talked about what we were looking for in our next coach, we quickly agreed that the No. 1 candidate for Providence College is Ed Cooley," Providence College President Fr. Brian Shanley, O.P. said. "I wanted a coach that could teach our players about the game of life. I also wanted a relationship builder and Ed is a relationship builder. He will connect with our players, our fans and the entire state of Rhode Island. I could not be more thrilled to have Ed Cooley as our basketball coach."

It did not take long for Cooley to turn the Friar fortunes around. In just his second season, he led the Friars to a 19-15 record overall and a 9-9 mark in league play. Included in the 9-9 BIG EAST record in 2012-13 was a 7-2 mark over the last nine games of the conference season. That impressive record marked the second best turnaround over second half of the season in BIG EAST history. He then guided the Friars to the NIT where the squad posted a 2-0 record before losing in the quarterfinals to eventual NIT Champion Baylor.

Leading the way for the Friars in the 2012-13 season were junior guard Bryce Cotton (Tucson, Ariz.) and junior forward Kadeem Batts (Boston, Mass.). Cotton was named All-BIG EAST First Team after he led the league in scoring. His teammate, Batts was recognized as a co-winner of the league's Most Improved Award and earned All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention accolades.

In his first season at Providence, Cooley led the Friars to a 15-17 mark overall. The team posted an impressive 11-3 mark in non-conference action, which included an 8-0 record at home. Cooley guided the Friars to three true non-conference road wins. It marked the first time the squad had accomplished that feat since BIG EAST was founded in 1979-80. In league action, the Friars defeated No. 14/15 Louisville, 90-59. The 31-point win marked the Friars' largest margin of victory ever over a ranked team. The squad also posted a 72-70 win over defending national champion Connecticut.

Two of Cooley's players earned BIG EAST honors in his first season. Point guard Vincent Council was named All-BIG EAST Third Team and one of his first recruits, forward LaDontae Henton earned BIG EAST All-Rookie Team accolades.

Prior to coming to Providence, Cooley guided Fairfield to a school-record 25 wins and a Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular season title in 2010-11. He was named the 2011 MAAC Coach of the Year. He also earned United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District I Coach of the Year honors. His 2011 squad finished the season with a 25-8 mark (15-3 MAAC) and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

In five seasons at Fairfield, Cooley's teams posted a 92-69 mark, including a 58-32 record in MAAC action. Cooley became the first Fairfield head coach to guide the team to a .500 or better mark in MAAC action in each of his first five seasons. In 2009-10, he led the Stags to a 23-11 mark and the team's first post-season berth since 2003. In that win, Fairfield set a NCAA Division I post-season record as the team overcame a 27-point, second-half deficit to defeat George Mason in overtime. For his efforts in 2010, Cooley was the first recipient of the Ben Jobe Award, presented annually to the top minority men's basketball coach in the nation. Prior to taking the Fairfield position, Cooley spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach for Al Skinner. He coached for one season at Rhode Island under Skinner (1996-97) and nine seasons as an assistant at Boston College (1997-06), where the Eagles posted a 175-108 mark and advanced to five NCAA Tournaments and one NIT. Cooley also helped lead the Eagles to the 2001 BIG EAST Tournament title and three BIG EAST regular season titles (2001, 2003 and 2005). In 2004-05, Boston College started the season with a school-record 20 consecutive wins. In 2005-06, the Eagles advanced to the Atlantic Coast Conference championship game against Duke. At BC, Cooley was instrumental in the recruitment of Troy Bell, a two-time BIG EAST Player of the Year. Bell also went on to play professional basketball after leaving Boston College, which included a stint in the NBA with the Memphis Grizzlies.

A 1994 graduate of Stonehill College, where he was a three-time captain for the basketball team, Cooley began his coaching career at UMass-Dartmouth. He helped lead UMass-Dartmouth to a 25-4 mark and a No. 3 national ranking (1994-95). He returned to his alma mater, Stonehill, and served as an assistant coach for one season (1995-96) before joining Skinner's staff at URI. Cooley, a native of Providence, attended Central High School and earned two Rhode Island High School Player of the Year honors. He also did a post-graduate year (1988-89) at New Hampton Prep. before attending Stonehill. He and his wife, Nurys, have one daughter, Olivia, and one son, Isaiah.

What They Are Saying About Ed Cooley

"I love him. He was so classy when he was going to leave Fairfield. He called my wife and me and wanted to explain. I told him there was no explanation needed. This is a great place for him. He did a home visit with us and he's just a good guy. That's going to be a strong suit for him. I think he'll do a terrific job. He's going to be able to recruit, which is so important, and he knows the type of player he needs to win."

--- Doc Rivers, Los Angeles Clippers Head Coach

"Ed Cooley has an infectious personality, a driving spirit to work hard and win, and is one of the warmest people you'll meet. You can scour the country and find plenty of hometown success stories of coaches coming back to their alma maters or places where they grew up. But there will be few that can match the authenticity of Cooley and Providence."

--- Andy Katz, ESPN.com Senior College Basketball Writer

"There's a difference between working hard and being good at your job. Ed Cooley is good at his job and that's what sets him apart. He is considered to be an outstanding coach by his peers. He knows what it means to go out and evaluate student-athletes."

--- Dave Telep, ESPN.com Senior Basketball Recruiting Analyst

"Ed Cooley has invigorated an entire city with his enthusiasm and his infectious personality has paid immediate dividends. There is a palpable buzz throughout the Northeast surrounding the Providence program and it started the day Cooley had his inaugural press conference. A Providence native, the boisterous head coach is constantly juggling recruiting calls, speaking engagements, and anything else it will take to make his hometown school one of the elite programs in the BIG EAST. It's all part of a daily grind that Cooley wouldn't trade for anything."

--- Jon Rothstein, CBS Sports Network

"Some coaches just take jobs in college basketball, while some are made for their jobs. Ed Cooley is made for Friartown. He knows the state, he loves the city and he's succeeded in New England recruiting his entire career. This is his dream job and he's never thought about another one. When you talk to other head coaches in the BIG EAST, the underlying theme about him remains the same -- the guy was born to coach at Providence."

--- Vin Parise, NBC Sports Network & Cox Sports Television
