VANDERBILT QUICK HITS

- A chance to make the SEC Tournament for the first time in five years is on the line for the Commodores as they wrap up the regular season at No. 12 Ole Miss on Thursday. Vanderbilt currently sits in a four-way tie for eighth place. A win would clinch a berth and give Vanderbilt eight overall wins (most since 2011) and four conference wins (most since 2010).
- Thursday's matchup marks the fifth ranked opponent VU has played this season. The 'Dores are 1-2-1 against ranked foes and unbeaten in their last two matchups vs. ranked teams, tying No. 20 Kentucky and knocking off No. 8 South Carolina in overtime.
- Junior Simone Charley scored her first goal in an exactly a month on Sunday. The All-SEC forward leads the team with five goals, four assists and 14 points. The three-time All-American in the triple jump is the team's active leader in career goals with 19.
- Sophomore Lydia Simmons, SEC All-Freshman in 2014, has scored the first four goals of her career this year to tie for the team high.
- In June, redshirt junior Lina Granados represented Colombia in the Women's World Cup in Canada, making the 23-player roster.
- Senior center back and three-year captain Erin Myers has started all 76 games of her career.

COACH DARREN AMBROSE

Darren Ambrose enters his first season at Vanderbilt after a successful run at the University of Pennsylvania.

Ambrose spent the last 15 years as the head coach at Penn, and was the program's all-time winningest coach. He is the sixth head coach in the history of the program.

In 15 years at Penn, Ambrose compiled an impressive record of 148-71-35, including a 54-34-17 mark in the Ivy League. His teams reached the NCAA Tournament three times and won three Ivy League championships. His teams finished in the top three of the Ivy League in 10 of his 15 seasons, including seven of the past eight years.

Ambrose never had a losing season at Penn as the Quakers averaged nearly 10 wins a year under his watch. He coached the team's first two All-Americans as well as its first NSCAA Scholar All-America, CoSIDA Academic All-America of the Year, Ivy League Player of the Year, Ivy League Defensive Player of the Year and Ivy League Rookies of the Year. In addition, Ambrose was at the helm for all of Penn's Ivy League championships (2001, 2007, 2010), three of its four NCAA Championship berths (2001, 2007, 2010), and an ECAC title in 2000.

Under Ambrose, more than 80 percent of the Penn women's soccer players have graduated with GPAs above 3.0, and Penn is the only Ivy League program to have earned the NSCAA Team Academic Award each of the last 14 years.

Prior to Penn, Ambrose served as an assistant coach at Florida State, Rhodes College (in Memphis) and Connecticut. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in management accounting from USC-Spartanburg, where he played goalie and was the Division II National Player of the Year in 1992-93. He received his master's degree in sports administration from Memphis in 1995.

Ambrose, who was born in Sheffield, England, lives with his wife, Sherry, and their two daughters, Madison and Ainsley.

EYING SEC TOURNAMENT

Vanderbilt can clinch an SEC Tournament berth with a win over Ole Miss on Thursday.

The Commodores (7-7-4, 3-4-3) are in a four-way tie for eighth place with Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee heading into the last game. If the tournament was to start today, VU would be the eight seed.

VU is trying to make the 10-team SEC Tournament for the first time since 2010.

SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

Vanderbilt wraps up the regular season on Thursday at No. 12 Ole Miss. The Commodores are trying to snap a two-game losing streak and win its regular season finale for the first time since 2009.

The Rebels (13-3-2, 7-3) have won five straight and eight of nine. They are led by freshman CeCe Kizer, who has 14 goals. Junior Addie Forbus has 11 goals and six assists and junior Gretchen Harknett leads the team with seven assists. The Rebels rank third in the SEC with 40 goals.

Ole Miss leads the all-time series 6-5-5, with five wins coming in the last five years. Vanderbilt last won in 2009.

WEEKLY REPORT

Vanderbilt dropped a pair of games at home to conclude its home schedule.

Georgia handed a 3-1 loss on Friday and Missouri won 1-0 on Sunday.

Against the Bulldogs, VU allowed three goals in the first half, including the first in the second minute. The Commodores scored in the 74th minute when Kelsey Tillman finished a second-chance opportunity after Simone Charley's shot bounced off the crossbar. The loss snapped a five-game unbeaten streak, which was the team's longest since 2009.

Vanderbilt held Missouri scoreless for the first half. But Reagan Russell scored the game winner in the 49th minute off a cross into the box. The Commodores were outshot 12-10 with five shots on goal. Goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami made all six of her saves in the second half to keep it a one-goal game.

VU dropped back-to-back games for the first time since starting the season 0-2.

OGUNSAMI, ELLIOTT HONORED

Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami and forward Taylor Elliott were honored by the SEC in successive weeks.

On Oct. 12, Ogunsami was named the SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week. The sophomore from Cherry Hill, N.J., made 10 saves and posted two shutouts in a tie over No. 20 Kentucky and a win over Arkansas.

Elliott was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 19. The fifth-year senior from Armonk, N.Y., had the game-tying goal and a game-winning assist in a win over No. 8 South Carolina in overtime.

BIG WIN

Vanderbilt's win over No. 8 South Carolina on Oct. 16 was an historic victory.

It marked the highest ranked opponent the program had ever beaten since the NSCAA started compiling rankings in 1996. It was also only the second time VU has beaten a Top 10 team (No. 10 Virginia, Oct. 4, 1998).

STINGY DEFENSE

Despite allowing four goals in the last two games, Vanderbilt's defense has played exceptionally well this season.

With one game remaining, 20 goals allowed is the fewest surrendered in the regular season since 2006.

The Commodores went 401 minutes, spanning five games, without allowing a goal for their longest scoreless stretch since 2005. They have posted five shutouts, including three in the SEC for their most in five years.

On top of that, Christiana Ogunsami has played better in goal as the season as progressed. She has allowed just nine goals in the last eight games. The sophomore is second in the SEC in saves (79), third in save percentage (.806), third in saves per game (4.39), sixth in shutouts (five) and ninth in goals against average (1.06).

SIM CITY

Simone Charley continues to build on what has already been an impressive career. The 5-foot-8 junior forward from Hoover, Ala., leads active VU players with 19 career goals, including a team-high nine last year.

Her five goals this season (four game winners) are the most on the team. Against South Carolina she scored for the second time in as many games when she scored the game winner in the 97th minute. She also has a team-high four assists to lead the squad with 14 points.

In 2014, she accounted for seven of the team's nine goals in SEC play and scored six goals in her last six games. She was named First Team All-SEC and All-South Region Second Team last year.

Charley also is a standout on the track as a three-time All-American. She placed fourth at the NCAA Indoor Championships and then reached the podium at the NCAA Outdoor Championships with a third-place finish in June. In the process, she leapt 44-3.25, breaking her own school record.

SIMMONS EMERGES

Midfielder Lydia Simmons earned SEC

All-Freshman honors last year for her work as a field general and as the team's top distributor with three assists. But this year she has also emerged as a scoring threat.

Simmons ranks second on the team with four goals and nine points. Before this season, she hadn't scored a goal.

CAPTAIN CONSISTENCY

Since the start of the 2012 season, there has been one constant in the Commodores' lineup — Erin Myers.

The senior, who has played midfield and now center back, has started every game of her career. The three-year captain has started 76 straight games.

Coach Darren Ambrose calls Myers, a native of Armonk, N.Y., the "heart and soul" of the team, and she is one of the squad's most vocal leaders.

TASTING THE WORLD CUP

Redshirt junior Lina Granados made the 23-player roster for Colombia at the Women's World Cup in June in Canada and traveled with the team during its four games. Colombia advanced out of pool play for the first time and fell to the United States, the eventual champ.

Granados hails from Ashburn, Va., but has dual citizenship as she was born in Bogota, Colombia. She has played for the Colombia Football Federation since she was 15, and has played in international tournaments three times. She has made her first five career starts in the last five games.

MORRISH BEGINS NURSING SCHOOL

Senior goalkeeper Shannon Morrish will be juggling not only soccer and her final year of undergraduate studies this fall but also nursing school. Morrish, a native of Bradenton, Fla., entered Vanderbilt University's School of Nursing on Aug. 17. She is pursuing a master's degree in adult/gerontology acute care. She'll be a registered nurse after the first year and complete the requirements to be certified as a nurse practitioner by May 2017.

NEW FACES MAKE DEBUTS

Transfers Danae O'Halloran (North Carolina) and Kacy Scarpa (Florida State) have started 18 and 17 games, respectively.

Freshman Kelsey Carrier has played in all 18 games, and started four games. Freshman Brook Colangelo has played in five games.

Fellow freshmen Maggie Clemmons, Megan Henry and Hannah Menard have made their VU debuts but are currently sidelined due to injury. Sophomore walk-on Carley Bogan, a transfer from William & Mary, has played in six games.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Vanderbilt dominated possession and the stat sheet, but the Commodores fell short in their season opener and coach Darren Ambrose's debut.

Miami-Ohio scored in the 80th minute to hand Vanderbilt a 1-0 loss on Friday night at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The Commodores outshot the Redhawks 22-8, with 13 shots on goal, but none found the back of the net.

Haley Walter scored the lone goal in with 10 minutes left in the game on an assist from Courtney Evans. Walter nudged a shot off the feet of Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami, who tried to cut down Walter's angle, and the ball bounced up into the goal.

It was a tough loss for Vanderbilt (0-1) and Ambrose, who was coaching his first game as Commodores head coach after spending the previous 15 years at Penn. VU outshot Miami 16-4 in the first half and a couple of solid looks that were snuffed out.

Simone Charley, who led the team with 12 shots and seven on goal, nearly put the Commodores in front in the 19th minute. On a breakaway, Charley aimed a shot toward the right corner. But Miami goalkeeper Vic Maniaci got enough of her mitt on the ball that it deflected off the near post. It was one of Maniaci's 11 saves.

Twice Vanderbilt had empty nets in the first half, but Miami defenders knocked the ball away. Off a corner kick, Charley headed the ball toward the goal. Vanderbilt defender got a foot on it and steered it toward the net but Redhawks defender was right there on the goal line to keep the shot from going in. Lina Granados also had a chance as she beat Maniaci to her left just inside the five yard-mark, but the ball was cleared by a defender at the goal line.

CINCINNATI – Allowing a second-half goal and failing to score doomed the Vanderbilt soccer team for the second straight game.

The Commodores surrendered a goal in the 67th minute that proved to be the difference in a 1-0 loss to Cincinnati on Sunday afternoon at Gettler Stadium. Vanderbilt (0-2) mustered just three shots for the game. The Bearcats (1-1) started off slow, too, with just two shots in the first half. But they become more aggressive in the second half, firing off 12 shots.

"I don't think we showed enough heart and I don't think we showed enough fight," Vanderbilt coach Darren Ambrose said. "If that is the defining character of this team, we've got a long way to go. We have to be better in certain aspects of the game. But the bottom line is you've got to want to win more than the other team. Today, Cincinnati, to their credit, wanted to win more than we did."

Vanderbilt gave up a goal on a ball that was sent into Jaycie Brown, who got ahead of the defense and slotted it past Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami – who had five saves.

Senior Taylor Elliott had the team's best look in the first half. She settled the ball after heading it and tried to slip a shot past Cincinnati goalkeeper Sam Pavlika but a defender was there at the line to knock it away. Later in the half, redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons fired in a free kick from 25 yards out that Pavlika had to jump and swat away. Vanderbilt's lone shot attempt in the second half by Simone Charley's was immediately blocked.

SPOKANE, Wash. – After just missing a chance to put the game away in regulation, Simone Charley made sure to quickly end it in overtime.

Charley scored her second of two goals on the night in the 94th minute off an assist from Keegan Thimons to lift Vanderbilt to a 3-2 victory over Gonzaga in overtime on Friday. The Commodores scored their first three goals of the year en route to picking up their first win of the season and first victory under first-year coach Darren Ambrose.

Up 2-1, Charley nearly iced the game in the 88th minute, but her breakaway attempt bounced off the far post. In the 90th minute, with less than 30 seconds remaining, Gonzaga tied the game to force overtime.

But the Commodores (1-2) regrouped to pick up a huge road win. Less than four minutes into overtime, Thimons sent a long pass down the sideline and over the defense toward Charley. The junior All-SEC forward raced to the ball, redirected toward the net and laced a shot into the left corner past Gonzaga goalkeeper Christie Tombari.

Charley notched the second multi-goal game of her career and Thimons, a senior, recorded her first career assist. Sophomore Cristina De Zeeuw also scored and redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons and junior Sasha Gray added assists.

SEATTLE – Vanderbilt's trip to the Pacific Northwest ended with a damper.

The Commodores suffered a 3-1 loss to Seattle University on Sunday afternoon at Championship Field. The Redhawks scored all three goals in the first half as Vanderbilt (1-3) lost the second leg of a two-game trip in Washington.

After a thrilling overtime victory over Gonzaga on Friday night, the Commodores couldn't find the back of the net until late in the second half against the Redhawks, who reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament last year.

Seattle (2-2) jumped in front in the 17th minute. Summer Mason's initial shot was blocked by Kelsey Tillman, but Mason followed up with a cross that bounced off a Vanderbilt defender and past goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami.

About four minutes later the lead increased as Karli White raced into the box and tapped in a cross from the right side into the middle of the net. Seattle capped off the scoring in the 38th minute when Julia Moravec headed in a goal off a cross from the left side into the bottom left corner, past an outstretched Ogunsami.

The Commodores' lone goal came in the 87th minute on an own goal by Seattle. Senior Jamie Kator sent a corner kick into the box and a leaping Redhawk defender headed into the net.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Fittingly, Vanderbilt head coach Darren Ambrose's 150th career victory came against a foe from the league where he accumulated a huge chunk of those wins.

Sophomore midfielder Lydia Simmons scored her first career goal in the 41st minute to lift Vanderbilt to a 1-0 victory over Dartmouth on Friday night at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. It was win No. 150 for Ambrose, who compiled 148 wins when he was at Penn the last 15 years and competing against Dartmouth and the rest of the Ivy League. More than a third of his victories (55) have come against Ivy League foes.

Though he was the all-time winningest coach at Penn, Ambrose picked up just his second win as Vanderbilt's head coach and first at home with Friday night's win over Dartmouth (1-1). On Thursday night after practice, Ambrose told his team it would mean a lot to beat Dartmouth because of his time in the Ivy League. The Commodores (2-3) responded with arguably their most complete effort of the season to boost their coach to the milestone victory.

Simmons booted her first career goal in the 41st minute after a corner kick from Jamie Kator bounced off the head of Simone Charley and ricocheted off the foot of a Dartmouth defender. The ball rolled just outside of the box and toward Simmons, who drove into the shot and smashed the ball into the top right corner.

It was enough for the Commodores, who outshot Dartmouth 17-8. Only three of the Big Green's shots were on goal, though. Led by strong defensive performances from Cristina De Zeeuw and Danae O'Halloran, Dartmouth never mounted a serious threat.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Before Sunday's game, Lipscomb hadn't allowed a goal or suffered a loss.

Vanderbilt changed that.

Sasha Gray and Claire Anderson each scored their first goals of the season to lift the Commodores to a 2-0 victory over the Bisons on a balmy Sunday afternoon at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The Commodores (3-3) picked up their second straight victory and posted their second consecutive shutout to reach .500 for the first time this season. Gray's fifth career goal in the 27th minute proved to be all the Commodores needed against a previously stingy Lipscomb defense.

For 605 minutes this season, the Bisons (4-1-2) had held opponents scoreless. Their six straight shutouts to open the season are an Atlantic Sun record. Vanderbilt outshot Lipscomb 20-9 and controlled the pace of the game. Gray grabbed a pass from Lydia Simmons down the sideline in the near corner and race toward the box. Gray, a junior, turned the corner and sailed in a shot about eight yards out just inside the near post.

Anderson gave the Commodores more than an enough insurance with her first career goal in the 75th minute. The Commodores were stout again, allowing just two shots on goal. Sophomore Christiana Ogunsami had two saves and notched her second shutout of the season. Vanderbilt last allowed a goal against Seattle University a week ago in the 37th minute. The Commodores haven't surrendered a goal in 233 minutes.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — A slight delay couldn't slow down the Vanderbilt soccer team's winning streak.

Thanks to an early second-half goal by Simone Charley the Commodores picked up a 2-1 victory over Mississippi State on Friday night for their third straight win and fourth in five games. Vanderbilt also won its SEC opener for the first time since 2005.

The start of the game was delayed by 20 minutes due to a bank of lights at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex that malfunctioned after heavy storms swept through the area earlier in the afternoon. But Vanderbilt (4-3, 1-0 SEC) shook off the delay to match its longest winning streak in four years.

Sophomore midfielder Lydia Simmons scored her second goal of the season just four minutes in. Simmons smashed a shot from the top right wing just outside of the box over goalkeeper Tanya de Souza and into the top center of the net. Mississippi State (1-5-1, 0-1) responded just four minutes later when Kiley Martens followed up on shot that Vanderbilt goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami initially saved. Martens knocked the ball away from Ogunsami and tapped in the rebound to tie the game 1-1 in the eighth minute.

The Commodores had chances to pull ahead with 12 shots in the first half, including nine on goal. But de Souza was spectacular in goal for the Bulldogs, posting eight of her 10 saves before halftime.

In the 47th minute, though, shortly after halftime, Charley scored her team-leading third goal of the season that would stand up as the game-winner. Jamie Kator, who just a minute before had two cracks at the goal on a penalty kick, sent in a cross to Charley just inside the box. Charley then scored her 17th career goal.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Vanderbilt and High Point traded goals in the first half, but that would be the end of the scoring for the day.

The Commodores tied the Panthers 1-1 after 90 minutes and two 10-minute overtimes on Sunday at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. The draw kept Vanderbilt from extending its season-high three-game winning streak as a four-game homestand came to an end.

Lydia Simmons scored the lone goal for the Commodores (4-3-1) in the 10th minute. The redshirt sophomore hooked in a corner kick from the right side that tapped off High Point goalkeeper Alex Persiani's glove and right under the crossbar and into the net. It was Simmons' third goal of the season, tying her with Simone Charley for most on the team.

High Point (4-1-3), which won the Big South Tournament last year and made the NCAA Tournament, tied the game in the 32nd minute, also scoring off a corner kick. After a deflection into the box, Bailey Beattie headed the ball toward the goal and Michele Micciche came sliding in and knocked in a goal just inside the far post.

Vanderbilt had numerous chances to pull ahead before and after High Point's goal as they fired off 21 shots, including 10 on goal. High Point mustered just seven shots, with only one shot on goal - Micciche's equalizer. It was High Point's second tie this season against an SEC foe, also drawing even with Georgia.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – Against one of the best teams in the country, in a hostile environment and on a nationally televised stage, the Vanderbilt soccer team sent a warning to the rest of the Southeastern Conference.

The Commodores put together arguably one of their best performances of the season, falling just short in a 1-0 loss to No. 5 Texas A&M on Friday night in front of 2,851 fans at Ellis Field and many more watching around the nation on the SEC Network.

The Aggies, a Final Four team a year ago, scored in the 70th minute to hold off the upset-minded Commodores and snap their four-game unbeaten streak.

Vanderbilt outshot the Aggies 12-9 (with seven shots on goal) and won the corner kick battle 8-2. The Commodores created seven corner kick opportunities before A&M registered its first. Redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons led the way with four shots, while Lina Granados, Jamie Kator and Kacy Scarpa each had two shots.

From the start, Vanderbilt (4-4-1, 1-1 SEC) controlled possession and snuffed out opportunities by the Aggies, who made the Final Four a year ago and swept the SEC regular-season and tournament titles. The league's second highest scoring offense had just four shots at halftime.

Texas A&M (8-1, 2-0 SEC) scored with 20 minutes left. Haley Pounds sent in a cross from the right side, 25 yards out and into the box. The ball bounced into the box and past Texas A&M's Ally Watt, who tried to deflect the shot. The run by Watt threw off the Commodores as the ball slipped into the bottom left corner. It was the team's first loss since falling to Seattle University on Aug. 30.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Facing a quick turnaround after a road match at No. 5 Texas A&M on Friday, Vanderbilt's soccer team started slowly against Evansville Sunday at the VU Soccer Complex before scoring the game's final two goals for a 2-1 victory.

Vanderbilt (5-4-1) controlled the pace of play for much of the game and maintained possession on Evansville's side of the pitch majority of the time as the Purple Aces played back to negate Vanderbilt's speed advantage.

But it was Evansville (2-7-1) that seized momentum early on with a goal just 6:40 into the match. The goal came off the foot of Caitie Dierkes, who drilled a shot past starting goalkeeper Shannon Morrish. Dierkes was assisted by Jordin Campbell's center from the right side of the box.

The score would remain the same until the 38th minute when Simone Charley set up a pretty goal by Taylor Elliott. Working on the left side of the box, Charley held off a defender long enough to center the ball to a streaking Elliott, who buried the ball past Simone Busby for the equalizer.

Vanderbilt's decisive goal came at the 69:35 mark of the second half when Lina Granados made a quick move with the ball at the top of the box and blasted a shot to the left side of the net, which Busby made a diving save on. However, Busby didn't hold onto the ball and Jamie Kator was there to punch it into the back of the net.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – For the second straight Friday, the Vanderbilt soccer team threw a scare into a Top 10 foe.

The Commodores hung with No. 9 Florida, even taking the lead in the first half before falling short in a 3-2 loss at the VU Soccer Complex on a rain-drenched Friday night.

Similar to a 1-0 loss to No. 5 Texas A&M last week, Vanderbilt showed it belonged on the same field as the Gators, who were the preseason pick to win the SEC. Last year, the Commodores lost to A&M and Florida – both Top 10 teams then as well – by a combined score of 12-3, conceding six goals to both. That margin closed to 4-2 this season, with a pair of one-goal losses and, in both games, Vanderbilt went into halftime tied with its opponent.

Florida (8-2, 2-1 SEC) scored first with a goal by Sarah Troccoli that went off VU goalkeeper Christiana Ogunnsami's glove, deflected off the inside of the right post and in.

But the Commodores (5-5-1, 1-2) didn't back down. Two goals within less than two minutes of each other put Vanderbilt in front. Both were set up All-SEC forward Simone Charley. Both passes that ended in goals went in the direction of Taylor Elliott. In the 25th minute, Elliott settled in Charley's assist and struck the ball with her right foot, slipping a shot just inside the near post for her second goal in as many games.

Less than two minutes later, in the 27th minute, Charley again centered a pass toward Elliott. This time the ball went off the back of a Florida defender and right to Lydia Simmons, who one-timed the ball out of the air and into the net for her fourth goal.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — An early second-half goal by Tennessee might have caught the Vanderbilt soccer team off guard, but it didn't sink the Commodores.

Senior midfielder Jamie Kator scored in the 74th minute as Vanderbilt battled back to tie the Vols 1-1 after two overtimes on Sunday at the VU Soccer/Lacrosse Complex. Kator's goal on a free kick helped Vanderbilt salvage a point after UT scored just 35 seconds into the second half.

The Commodores (5-5-2, 1-2-1 SEC) knotted the game up after Simone Charley drew several defenders and a foul just outside the box. This set up Kator, who took the free kick after misdirection from midfielder Lydia Simmons. Kator stepped up and drove the ball with her right foot. The shot soared through a Tennessee wall, which Vanderbilt's Kacy Scarpa helped disrupt, and off the glove of Vols goalkeeper Julie Eckel and into the bottom right corner of the net.

It was only the fifth goal Tennessee (5-1-5, 1-1-2) has allowed all year, and the second goal of the season for Kator. The Vols had taken a 1-0 lead in the 46th minute when Katie Cousins won a loose ball and booted a shot from 20 yards out off the far post and in.

Only three players came off the bench for the Commodores, who have had eight players miss games this year due to injury. Nine players logged more than 100 minutes for Vanderbilt.

BATON ROUGE, La. — The Vanderbilt soccer team picked up its first shutout in SEC play this season.

But the Commodores could not scratch across a goal either in a scoreless tie to LSU on the road on Friday night. Sophomore goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami made six saves for her third shutout of the season as Vanderbilt picked up its second straight tie.

Still, the Commodores salvaged an all important point. Through five league games the 'Dores (5-5-3, 1-2-2 SEC) have five points for 10th place in the SEC standings.

"It was a fairly uneventful game overall," Vanderbilt coach Darren Ambrose said. "I thought we clearly had the better of the game in the first half. They had the better of the second. Though we defended very well we lacked any kind of punch in the final third. They sat a lot of players behind the ball and we struggled to break them down, which was disappointing.

"It's good to see a shutout, but I think the team overall is disappointed to not walk away with three points."

Vanderbilt controlled the tempo in the first half with three shots and seven corner kicks.

LSU (7-3-3, 1-3-1) didn't muster a corner kick until the second half and was outgained in that category 12-5. The Tigers, however, had eight shots after halftime and won the shooting battle 11-7.

Only one Vanderbilt shot — by redshirt sophomore Lydia Simmons — was on goal. The Tigers put six shots on goal but Ogunsami stopped all six.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — In another sign of a growing program under first-year coach Darren Ambrose, the Vanderbilt soccer team once again showed a nationally ranked team it was more than up to the challenge.

The defense and goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami withstood 25 shots from No. 20 Kentucky and made sure none found the back of the net in a scoreless tie after two overtimes on Friday night.

The Commodores, who are trying to make the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2010, now have six points in SEC play. With five league games remaining, VU is tied for 10th place with Georgia. The top 10 teams make the SEC Tournament, which will be held from Nov. 2-8 in Orange Beach, Ala.

Vanderbilt (5-5-4, 1-2-3 SEC) recorded its third straight tie for a 4-2-4 record in its last 10 games. The only two losses during the stretch were to Top 10 foes Texas A&M and Florida — both one-goal losses. The Commodores were outshot 25-7 by Kentucky (9-2-3, 3-1-2). But the Wildcats only managed nine shots on goal. Vanderbilt's defense, led by the steady play of three-year captain Erin Myers, Cristina De Zeeuw, Kelsey Tillman and Danae O'Halloran, bothered UK all night and forced wayward shots.

When the chances did loom near goal, Ogunsami was there. The sophomore posted her fourth shutout of the year with eight saves. She closed out the game with two big saves in the final minutes of the second overtime, including a great stop diving to her left. She also had some help near the end of regulation when Tillman and the defense cleared a shot near the goal line for a team save.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- Simone Charley found the back of the net and the Vanderbilt defense continued its stingy string of shutout soccer.

The Commodores capped off a pivotal four-point weekend with a 1-0 victory over Arkansas on Sunday afternoon at the VU Soccer Complex. Charley scored in the 12th minute and the defense posted its third straight shutout. Vanderbilt last strung together three straight shutouts in 2009. The Commodores haven't allowed a goal in more than two weeks, spanning four games and 375 minutes.

Charley provided all the offense the team would need in the 12th minute. Redshirt sophomore transfer Danae O'Halloran picked up her first assist as a Vanderbilt Commodore as she raced down the sideline and sent a cross into the box. Her pass bounced off an Arkansas defender and right to Charley. The All-SEC forward settled the ball down with her right foot and finished a shot through an Arkansas defender's legs, past goalkeeper Jordan Harris and just inside the near post. It was Charley's fourth goal of the season, but first in exactly a month.

The Razorbacks threatened a little bit more in the second half, but the defense and goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami thwarted their chances. Several crosses into the box resulted in headers by Charley and the back line as Arkansas had just three shots in the second half. The Commodores outshot Arkansas 12-7 and won the corner kick battle 12-4.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — The Vanderbilt soccer team had been knocking on the door all season against ranked opponents.

On Friday night, the Commodores broke through in dramatic fashion.

Simone Charley scored in the 97th minute as Vanderbilt rallied to beat No. 8 South Carolina 2-1 in overtime to stun the Gamecocks and 1,848 at Stone Field. The win extends the team's unbeaten streak to five games — its longest stretch since 2009 — and is the first win over a ranked opponent since defeating No. 23 Wisconsin on Sept. 6, 2013.

Vanderbilt defeated South Carolina (11-3-1, 5-2-1), which entered the game in first place in the SEC, for the first time since 2008. It was also the team's first road win at South Carolina since 2007, and the first SEC road win for Ambrose. The Commodores had come close against ranked opponents this season, tying No. 20 Kentucky last Friday and suffering one-goal losses to Top 10 opponents Texas A&M and Florida.

Against South Carolina, Charley scored 6:39 into overtime for her fifth goal of the season and fourth game winner. She was assisted by fifth-year senior Taylor Elliott, who scored the game-tying goal in the second half. Around midfield in the 97th minute, Elliott headed a lob toward Charley. The All-SEC forward settled the ball and sprinted past two South Carolina defenders. She then rocketed a shot from 16 yards out that went past Gamecocks goalkeeper Caroline Kelly to end the game.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Less than two minutes in, Vanderbilt found itself in an uphill battle.

The Commodores never recovered, suffering a 3-1 loss to Georgia on Friday night at the VU Soccer Complex. A goal in the second minute from the Bulldogs proved to be a telling sign as Vanderbilt trailed by three goals at halftime. Kelsey Tillman's goal in the 74th minute wasn't enough to spark a rally as the 'Dores suffered their first loss since Sept. 25, snapping a five-game unbeaten streak.

The Bulldogs (4-10-1, 3-6) came out of the gate aggressive. Becca Rasmussen dribbled on the end line and served a pass across the box to Bella Hartley, who booted a shot with her left foot that. Goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami dove to stop the shot but the ball bounced off her hands, banged off the near post and in to give Georgia a 1-0 lead just 1:56 into the game.

In the 17th minute, Marion Crowder scored what would be the game winner to give the Bulldogs a 2-0 lead. Sydney Shultis headed the ball into the box, where Rasmussen headed on her pass to Marion Crowder, who got behind the defense and tapped in a goal with her left foot. Cara Smith ended the scoring for Georgia in the 41st minute for a 3-0 halftime lead. Smith was there to pick up the rebound and score off Maddie Burdick's initial shot, which was saved by Ogunsami.

Tillman prevented a shutout with her first goal of the season in the 74th minute.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — With one team battling for a spot in the SEC Tournament and the other vying for an SEC crown, Vanderbilt and Missouri slugged it out on a rainy, windy Sunday afternoon.

Unfortunately for the Commodores, Missouri's goal in the 49th minute stood up in a 1-0 loss at the VU Soccer Complex on Senior Day in the final home game of the season. Vanderbilt (7-7-4, 3-4-3 SEC) will now have to wait until Thursday at No. 13 Ole Miss to try to clinch a spot in the 10-team SEC Tournament. The Commodores played even all game with Missouri (9-7-4, 7-2-1), which can clinch at least a share of the SEC regular-season championship on Thursday. But Reagan Russell's goal less than four minutes out of halftime proved to be the difference.

Vanderbilt kept Missouri at bay for most of the game, especially the first half. The Tigers had just three shots before halftime and none on goal. On the flip side, Vanderbilt had five shots at the break, putting the pressure on with shots on goal from Erin Myers and Lina Granados.

But Missouri grabbed momentum early in the second half. The Tigers' Kaitlyn Clark kept the ball in play near the end line and sent a pass into the box. Russell got a foot on it despite pressure from the Vanderbilt defense and laced a shot over goalkeeper Christiana Ogunsami and into the bottom left corner.

Lydia Simmons nearly tied it up in the 55th minute but her long-distance shot clanged off the crossbar. Teammate Taylor Elliott was there for the second-chance shot, but her header was stopped by Missouri goalkeeper Kristen Rivers.
