[11] WICHITA STATE (24-8, 16-2 MVC) vs. [11] VANDERBILT (19-13, 11-7 SEC)
Tuesday, March 15, 2016 • 9:10 pm ET / 8:10 pm CT • Dayton, Ohio • UD Arena (13,435)
NCAA South Regional • Play-In Game • Winner to Providence, R.I. to face [6] Arizona on Thursday

OPENING TIPS

► Scene Setter // 11-seeds Wichita State (24-8, 16-2 Missouri Valley Conference) and Vanderbilt (19-13, 11-7 SEC) slug it out Tuesday night in Dayton for the right to join the field of 64. Tip is set for 9:10 p.m. ET on TruTV.

The winner of Tuesday night's game travels to Providence, R.I. for a Thursday matchup with No. 6 Arizona at approximately 9:20 p.m. ET. on TNT.

► Back for More // Wichita State is making its fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and its 13th overall. Head coach Gregg Marshall is dancing for the 12th time (5 at WSU, 7 at Winthrop) and is one of just 11 coaches in history to lead two different schools to 5+ NCAA bids. The Shockers have won at least one game in three-consecutive trips and are 7-3 over that span.

► Rest vs. Rust // The Shockers ended the regular season with a grind of six games in 15 days, then played back-to-back in the MVC Tournament. Since falling in the semifinal to Northern Iowa (also an 11-seed in the NCAA bracket), the Shockers will have had 10 days in between action.

► Tripling Up on Trophies // WSU won its third-consecutive Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship and fourth in the last five years, finishing 4.0 games ahead of second-place Illinois State and Evansville.

► About the Shockers // Led by All-American guards Ron Baker (14.2 points) and Fred VanVleet (12.0 points, 5.7 assists), the Shockers returned three starters and nine lettermen from last year's 30-5 team that earned a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Indiana and Kansas to reach the Sweet 16. Helped by three-straight 30-win seasons, WSU earned its first preseason top-10 ranking since the 1981-82 season and was an overwhelming favorite in the MVC preseason poll... A rash of November injuries slowed their momentum, with four of the top six players missing a combined 24 games in the first two months, including VanVleet, who battled a hamstring strain through much of the non-conference.... After starting 5-5, the Shockers reeled off 12-straight wins on their way to the Valley title.

► Drive for 25 // A Shocker win would boost them to 25 victories for the seventh-consecutive year, breaking Cincinnati's half-century record of six-straight 25-win seasons from 1957-63.

► Honor Roll // WSU was well-represented on the all-conference teams. Fred VanVleet became the second Shocker and ninth player in MVC history to win two MVC Player of the Year awards. He and Ron Baker landed on the First Team for the third-consecutive year, and both were named to the All-Defensive squad... VanVleet is just the second player in MVC history to double up on first-team and all-defensive honors in three different years. The All-Defensive Team is in its 28th year.

Anton Grady (All-Newcomer Team & All-Bench Team Captain), Markis McDuffie (MVC Freshman of the Year, All-Newcomer Team & All-Bench Team) and Evan Wessel (1st Team Scholar-Athlete) were also honored.

► vs. Vanderbilt // This is just the second meeting between the two programs. In 2005, WSU lost an NIT heartbreaker in Nashville on a buzzer beater shot.

► Crunching Numbers // Tuesday's game features two top defenses. WSU and Vandy rank 6th and 7th nationally in field goal percentage defense. The Commodores rely on a pair of seven-footers to deny the basket. WSU - by contrast - relies on its veteran guards do much of the heavy lifting by forcing turnovers.

► 20-20 Vision // 20 of WSU's 22 wins are by double-digits and 15 have come by 20+. The lineup of VanVleet-Baker-Wessel-Brown-Morris is 22-4.

2015 NCAA Tournament: 3 GP... 10.0 min... 2.0 pts, 1.3 reb... 2 blk, 2 stl... 4 pts, 2 reb in Sweet 16 vs. Notre Dame

Notes: Athletic rebounder who has gained confidence on the offensive end over the last 2 months... Struggled to finish around the rim early in the year (less than 40% from the field) but is 27-of-47 over the last 13 games (57.4%) and is averaging 5.1 pts, 4.2 reb. in that stretch... Has progressed as a defender this year by learning how to better position himself.

2015 NCAA Tournament: One of the X-factors in WSU's 2015 run as a true freshman when he came out of nowhere to score 18 points in first weekend wins over Indiana (11 pts, 8 reb) and Kansas (7 pts, 3 reb).

Notes: Built on last year's tournament breakout by grabbing a starting spot in late November... Has been up and down offensively but has embraced the role of defensive stopper once occupied by Tekele Cotton.

NCAA Tournament: 5th trip (DNP in 2012, took a medical redshirt in '13, key reserve in '14 and starter in '15.)

Notes: 1st Team MVC Scholar-Athlete... Winningest senior in D-I, by pct. (107-13, 892) ... 3rd on WSU wins list (107)... A veteran of Marshall's system who does the little things... Relentless offensive rebounder who will crash through a brick wall... Dad (Todd) was starting linebacker on the last WSU football team in 1986... Grandpa (Everett) played basketball for WSU

NCAA Tournament: 4th trip (redshirt in 2012, DNP in '13, saw times vs. Cal Poly in '14, DNP in '15)

Notes: Fourth-year walk on who has totaled 5 points in 37 minutes this year... Has appeared in 16 games this season... Matched his career-best with a 3-trillion statline on Feb. 21... Also had one Jan. 13 at Missouri State... A redshirt on the 2013 Final Four team, he'll be the last remaining link next year after Baker, VanVleet and Wessel depart.

NCAA Tournament: 1st Trip

Notes: An athletic scoring point guard who can make plays for himself and others... Studying under senior point guard Fred VanVleet... Saw extended duty earlier this year in Orlando with VanVleet sitting out... Played a season-high 30 minutes in the loss to Alabama and averaged 5.3 pts in 16.0 minutes over the three games...

NCAA Tournament: 3rd Trip (hit two free throws in 2014 win over Cal Poly, DNP in 2015)

Notes: Third-year walk-on point guard who has played well in limited action... Saw 16 minutes in the Dec. 5 win at Saint Louis and dished out a career-high four assists... 18:7 assist-to-turnover ratio for the year...

NCAA Tournament: Transferred to WSU in hopes of winning first conference title and playing in NCAA's... Appeared in 1 NIT, 2 CITs at Cleveland State. Notes: MVC All-Bench & All-Newcomer Teams... 4 points shy of 1,400 for his career... Missed 3 weeks with spinal concussion in November/December and has gradually picked up steam... Coming off best 4-game stretch as a Shocker at 13.3 pts, 5.5 reb. in last 4 GP... Has developed an array of post moves after multiple knee surgeries throughout his career. Teammates liken his "old man game" to Tim Duncan's.

NCAA Tournament: 2nd trip, DNP in 2015 as a true freshman

Notes: Scrapped redshirt plans with Grady's November injury... Has seen fewer minutes lately with the Morris-Grady platoon playing well and avoiding foul trouble... Season-high 6 points at Saint Louis on Dec. 5... Logged 8 minutes in two MVC Tournament contests.

NCAA Tournament: 2nd trip... Appeared in all 3 games in 2015... Provided a big defensive lift in 14 minutes vs. Kansas

Notes: A raw prospect with a limited basketball background but a tremendous set of tools... Scored a season-high 6 points vs. Emporia State on Nov. 21... Saw extensive duty early in the season as Marshall sifted through front-court options but has not played more than 8 minutes in any game since Grady's Dec. 19 return from injury.

NCAA Tournament: 4th trip, 10 GP, 5 GS... Avg. 23.0 pts, 4.3 assists in 3 GP in 2015 (27 pts vs. Indiana, 25 vs. Notre Dame)

Notes: MVC Player of the Year (2nd time)... MVC All-Defensive Team (3rd-straight year)... 118 career wins is 3rd-highest active total in college hoops... Moved into MVC's career top-5 (619 coming into Saturday) in assists... 3x MVC Player of the Week... 9 steals shy of school record... 3 points shy of 1,400 for his career.

NCAA Tournament: 2nd Trip... 3 GP in 2015... 3.3 pts, 1.0 reb in 7.7 minutes... Scored 8 pts in Round of 64 win over Indiana

Notes: 8 double-figure games during MVC play... Had 6 blocks in MVC quarterfinal win over Loyola - tied for the third-highest total in MVC Tournament history... Had 8 total blocks in 2 MVC Tourney games... Forms an effective platoon with Grady at the center position... Averaging 1.5 blocks over last 2 months

NCAA Tournament: 1st Trip

Notes: Physically skilled big man with a high motor who continues to adapt to college basketball... Has two double-figure games this year of the bench... Scored 14 points in an AdvoCare Invitational contest against Iowa in late November... Did not see time in the MVC Tournament.

NCAA Tournament: In line for 11th NCAA start (school record)

Notes: Move into top-10 on WSU scoring list last week (has 1,586 heading into Saturday)... 4th on WSU steals list (159), 2nd in treys (237, 11 shy of WSU record)... 11th in assists (2 shy of top-10)... 13th in blocks (75)... 3x 1st team All-MVC selection... MVC All-Defensive Team... Sporting News Preseason 1st Team All-American.

NCAA Tournament: 1st Trip

Notes: MVC Freshman of the Year, MVC All-Newcomer Team, MVC All-Bench Team... Points-per-40 is tops among MVC freshman... youngest player in the Valley at 18 yrs, 6 months and coaches considered redshirting him this year before wisely reconsidering... 9 double-figure games... Forms an excellent defensive platoon with Zach Brown at small forward.

NCAA Tournament: 2nd trip... Breakout star for Kansas in '14 tourney w/10 pts vs. Eastern Ky., 12 vs. Stanford (4/7 3pt)

Notes: Ranks 3rd on team w/ 31 three-pointers (34.1%)... Capable of getting hot at key moments (as he did in the 2014 tourney)... Hit 8 over a 2-game stretch in early Jan. but has not hit more than 2 in a game since... Became eligible at semester after transferring from Kansas... Broke Perry Ellis' career scoring record during his high school days at Wichita North High

WSU TOURNEY TIDBITS

▶ WSU makes its school-record fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Prior to 2012, the Shockers had managed back-to-back appearances on just two other occasions (1964 & 65, 1987 & 88).

▶ This is the 13th overall NCAA Tournament trip for the Shockers, who are 15-13 all-time with six Regional Semifinal appearances (1964, 1965, 1981, 2006, 2013, 2015), four Regional Finals (1964, 1965, 1981, 2013) and two Final Fours (1965, 2013).

▶ Prior to its current run, the Shockers had only even appeared in back-to-back NCAA tourneys on two other occasions (1964/65 and 1987/88).

▶ This is the 26th overall postseason bid for WSU (13 NAAs, 12 NITs, 1 CBI), which won the 2011 NIT to kick off its current run of postseason success.

▶ WSU is prepping for its 29th NCAA Tournament contest, with 12 of those having come in the past five years.

▶ WSU is one of just nine teams to win a game in each of the last three NCAA Tournaments and ranks 6th in wins over that span.

NCAA TOURNAMENT WINS, LAST THREE YEARS (2013-15)

School	W-L	r32	s16	e8	f4	nc
Louisville	11-2	1	1	1	1	1
Duke	9-2			1		1
Michiga St.	9-3		1	1	1
Wisconsin	9-3				2
Arizona	8-3		1	2
Wichita St.	7-3	1	1		1

11 SEEDS

▶ WSU is a No. 11 seed for the third time in its history. The previous two go-arounds didn't go so well. Despite boasting the NCAA's leading scorer and rebounder in Xavier McDaniel, the 1985 Shockers lost to No. 6 Georgia in Atlanta, 67-59. Two years later they fell to No. 6 St. John's in Chicago.

▶ WSU is a double-digit seed for the first time under Gregg Marshall after previously being a 1, 5, 7 and 9 seed. Being an 11-seed was cause for celebration in 2007 when Marshall led Winthrop to that line. It remains the highest-ever seed for a Big South school, and Winthrop took full advantage with a Round of 64 win over 6th-seeded Notre Dame.

ALL THE COOL KIDS ARE DOING IT

▶ Being sent to the First Four is hardly a death sentence. In fact, a handful of teams have used the momentum from the extra game as a springboard into deep tournament runs. Since the First Four reformatted in 2011, at-large teams that advance from Dayton are 5-5 against their Round of 64 opponents.

FIRST FOUR SUCCESS STORIES (SINCE 2011)

Year	School	Finish
2011	VCU	Final Four
2012	South Florida	Round of 32
2013	LaSalle	Sweet 16
2014	Tennessee	Sweet 16
2015	Dayton	Round of 32

WICHITA STATE NCAA TOURNAMENT NOTES

WSU-OHIO CONNECTIONS:

▶ WSU has never gone through a play-in game in the NCAA's, but its head coach has. Gregg Marshall led Winthrop against fellow No. 16-seed Northwestern State in the very first NCAA Tournament play-in game. Winthrop fell 71-67.

▶ WSU's last journey to Dayton came long before UD Arena was constructed. On Dec. 17, 1941, the Shockers absorbed a 42-19 loss to the host Flyers during a December tour through Kentucky and Ohio.

▶ The Shockers will see NCAA Tournament action in Ohio for the second-straight year. Last March, they advanced to the Midwest Regional semifinals in Cleveland.

SERIES WITH VANDERBILT:

▶ WSU and Vanderbilt have only met once, but the result was epic. In a Round of 16 clash in the 2005 NIT, WSU scored on a putback with 0.7 seconds to play to tie and - seemingly - send the game to overtime. Instead, the host Commodores caught the Shocker defense napping. Corey Smith slipped behind the defense, caught an 80-foot pass mid-lane and scored ahead ahead of the buzzer.

▶ Vandy coach Kevin Stallings is a familiar WSU foil from the 1990s when he coached Missouri Valley Conference rival Illinois State. Under Stallings, the Redbirds made back-to-back NCAA Tournament trips in 1997 and '98 and won a pair of Valley titles... WSU won its very first meeting with Stallings in double overtime in 1993 and won the final encounter in 1999. In between, Stallings won 11-straight. Including his NIT win at Vandy, he is 12-2 all-time against the Shockers.

▶ WSU assistant Isaac Brown and Vanderbilt assistant Derrick Jones worked for three seasons at Louisiana Tech.

▶ Longtime Stallings disciple Tom Richardson took over at Illinois State in 1999 when Stallings moved on to Vanderbilt. In Richardson's four seasons as head coach, he was 4-4 against WSU. He reunited with Stallings at Vanderbilt in 2003-04.

▶ Current Illinois State head coach Dan Muller spent 12 seasons as an assistant at Vanderbilt before taking the ISU job.

▶ Eddie Fogler led WSU to a pair of NCAA Tournaments in 1987 and 88 and an NIT appearance 1989 before leaving to become head coach at Vanderbilt from 1989-93. WSU would go another 14 years without a postseason bid and didn't resurface in the NCAA's until 2006. Fogler took Vandy to a pair of NCAA Tournaments and also won the 1990 NIT.

In addition to Marshall, John Calipari, Fran Dunphy, Bob Huggins and Roy Williams are in the tournament field. MARSHALL IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT:

▶ Marshall's five-straight trips are a personal best. He guided Winthrop to four-in-a-row to kick off his head coaching career (1998-02) and finished out his time there with another run of three (2005-07).

▶ This is Marshall's 12th NCAA bid overall. He's 8-11 with one Final Four in 2013 and two Sweet 16s (2013, 15).

▶ Marshall has now appeared in postseason play in 15 of his 18 seasons as a head coach (14-13 record), with a pair of NIT bids (2010, 11) and one CBI invite (2009) early in his WSU tenure. Over that three-year stretch, the Shockers went 6-2 and won the 2011 NIT Championship.

MARSHALL GAME-BY-GAME IN NCAA'S

▶ (As an Assistant) Marshall reached the NCAA Tournament once in 1994 as an assistant at College of Charleston under John Kresse. That Cougar team became the first-ever NAIA-to-NCAA Division I transitional to earn an NCAA Tournament at-large bid in its first year of postseason eligibility.

Marshall is one of only two coaches in school history with multiple NCAA trips, joining Gene Smithson (1981, 85)... The Shockers' first three NCAA losses under Marshall came by a combined nine points. In two of them, WSU had a chance at the buzzer to either win or force overtime.

RECENT NCAA TRIPS

Round of 32 - Omaha, Neb. --- (7) Wichita St. 78, (2) Kansas 65

Fred VanVleet (22.0 pts, 5.0 assists, 4.0 rebounds, 3.0 steals) did just about everything in wins over Indiana (81-76) and Kansas (78-65). VanVleet scored a career-high 27 points against the Hoosiers and added 17 against the Jayhawks two days later... WSU piled up 19 steals in the two wins, while only committing 19 turnovers... The Shockers got the foul line often and took advantage of nearly every one of those opportunities, shooting over 80 percent from the stripe in both games (47-of-58, .810)... Contributions from some of the Shocker supporting cast made a big difference. Evan Wessel took just three shots in 36 scoreless minutes against Indiana but was one of the heroes against the Hawks, draining a career-high four threes on his way to 12 points, while also collecting nine rebounds... Zach Brown set career-highs across the board against Indiana with 11 points and 8 rebounds, and Bush Wamukota played a season-high 13 minutes against KU, providing some valuable interior defense... Ice cold from three against Indiana (2-of-13), WSU found its stroke against KU, going 10-for-20 from deep.

Sweet 16 - Cleveland --- (3) Notre Dame 81, (7) Wichita St. 70

VanVleet led all scorers with 25 points on 9-of-20 shooting from the floor, to go with six rebounds, three assists, two steals and zero turnovers. It marked his sixth 20-plus point game of the season... Darius Carter, playing near his hometown of Akron, Ohio, registered 22 points on 9-of-15 shooting and eight rebounds in his final game as a Shocker... Wichita State's other senior Tekele Cotton finished with six points, two rebounds, two assists and two steals.

Four Irish players finished in double-figures led by Demetrius Jackson's 20 points. Jackson also added four rebounds and three assists. Pat Connaughton collected a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds, while Zach Auguste and Steve Vasturia scored 15 points each. Jerian Grant dished 11 of the team's 18 assists to go with nine points.

Notre Dame started the second half much like the first by knocking down shots from everywhere. The Irish made 17 of their first 21 attempts (81 percent) to open play after halftime. For the game Notre Dame shot 55.6 percent (30-for-54) from the field and 47.4 percent (9-for-19) from behind the 3-point line.

WSU finished 26-of-65 (40 percent) from the field, but connected on just 3-of-18 (16.7 percent) 3-point attempts. The Shockers won the battle of the boards, 36-32.

The Shockers took their first lead at the 16:40 mark of the second half on a hook shot from Carter, forcing a Notre Dame timeout. Carter and VanVleet combined to score the first eight points of the second half after the Irish led by five.

WSU's lead would be short-lived, as the Irish would answer with a trio of 3-pointers to take a 48-42 lead with 14:26 to go. ND then extended its lead back to double-digits with 12:30 remaining and would lead the remainder of the game.

Rashard Kelly provided two big baskets inside to bring WSU within six, before Notre Dame went right back up by 11 with less than seven minutes in the game. The lead would grow to 17 at the 5:17 mark after Vasturia's second 3-pointer of the game, and as many as 19 in the game.

WSU became the first team in NCAA history to start 35-0 and posted its largest margin of victory in an NCAA Tournament game (27 points)... Cleanthony Early led all scorers with 23 points on 9-of-15 shooting. Ron Baker pulled down a career high nine rebounds and Fred VanVleet dished out eight assists.... The WSU defense blanked Cal Poly over a stretch of 11 minutes, forcing 13 consecutive misses. The Shockers built a 21-5 lead and cruised the rest of the way.

Dropped from the rankings: Wichita State (23)

Round of 32 - St. Louis -- (8) Kentucky 78, (1) Wichita State 76

In a game that Sports Illustrated would later bill as its "Game of the Year" for 2014, eventual National Runner-Up Kentucky spoiled WSU's undefeated season... Down two points with the ball and only 3.2 seconds remaining, VanVleet's buzzer-beating three-point attempt bounced off the rim.

Round of 64 - Salt Lake City -- (9) WSU 73, (8) Pittsburgh 55

Malcom Armstead (22 points) and Early (21) shouldered the offensive load, and sophomore Tekele Cotton drew rave reviews for a lockdown defensive performance on Pitt star Tray Woodall, who finished 1-of-12 with five turnovers.

Round of 32 - Salt Lake City -- (9) WSU 76, (1) Gonzaga 70

The Shockers played six minutes of nearly perfect basketball to take out No. 1 overall seed Gonzaga. After making just 2-of-20 threes against Pitt, WSU connected on a season-high 14 threes against the Bulldogs, including five-in-a-row to finish out the game. That late flurry helped the Shockers overcome a seven-point Bulldog lead with six minutes remaining to win 76-70. Baker and Early scored 16 points each to lead the charge.

Sweet 16 - Los Angeles -- (9) Wichita State 72, (13) LaSalle 58

The Shockers rolled to a 14-2 lead out of the gate and were never threatened. LaSalle's four-guard lineup was a matchup nightmare for Kansas State and Ole Miss in the two previous rounds, but the taller Shockers used it to their advantage, outrebounding LaSalle 47-29 with help from 17 offensive boards. Carl Hall had three of the Shockers' eight blocks. Armstead (18), Hall (16) and Baker (13) led the scoring.

Elite 8 - Los Angeles -- (9) Wichita State 70, (2) Ohio State 66

In the West Regional Final, WSU continued to play the role of the aggressor, piling on for a 53-33 lead with just over 12 minutes to play in the second half. Ohio State trimmed the deficit all the way down to 62-59 with 2:49 to go, but Cotton drilled a clutch three, then snagged a crucial offensive rebound on the Shockers' next possession. VanVleet - only a freshman reserve at the time - knocked down a jumper moments later to help put the game on ice... Armstead earned NCAA All-West Region Most Outstanding Player honors and averaged 12.8 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.4 assists during WSU's five-game NCAA run. He joined Hall on the all-regional team.

Final 4 - Atlanta -- (1) Louisville 72, (9) Wichita State 68

The Shockers first trip to the Final Four since 1965 ignited the fan base and made WSU a national darling. Yet, come game time, WSU played like it was more than just happy to be in Atlanta, building a 12-point lead with 13:35 to play in the game against a heavily-favored Louisville team... Despite 24 points and 10 rebounds from Early, WSU couldn't hold off a late charge from the Cardinals, who escaped with a 72-68 win and went on to claim the national title.

Round of 64 - Portland -- (12) VCU 62, (5) Wichita State 59

The MVC Champion Shockers - 27-5 coming into the tournament and ranked 18th nationally - had the firepower to make a deep NCAA run but instead joined a long list of No. 5 seeds victimized by No. 12 in the opening round... WSU trailed a VCU team that 12 months earlier had played in the Final Four by as many as 13 points in the second half. The Shockers cut the margin to two at the 2:30 mark on a three-pointer from Toure' Murry (now with the NBA's Washington Wizards), but VCU answered with five-straight. Senior center Garrett Stutz

ROAD WARRIORS

► WSU has 9 true road wins this year – all by double-figures – and leads the nation in road scoring margin (+14.8). The only other Division I team in the last 11 years to finish over 14.0 for a season was 2008 Memphis.

► 5 of the Shockers' road victories came by 20+ points. During MVC regular season play, WSU held all 9 home teams to less than 40% from the field (combined 32.5%).

► WSU is 31-5 (.838) overall in true road games since the start of the 2013-14 season and 57-13 (.814) going back to 2010-11. Both marks lead the nation.

JUST 3 LOSSES IN THE LAST 3 MONTHS

► Since Dec. 20, WSU has lost just three times (19-3).

► Two of those defeats came against a Northern Iowa team that beat Iowa State and North Carolina earlier this year before going into a three-week funk. UNI is currently receiving votes in both polls and earned the Missouri Valley Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

1st Team MVC Scholar-Athlete

► The Shockers won their other 8 MVC road games by double-digits. At 4 of those stops, they posted their most lopsided road win in series history.

► WSU jumped to an 11-0 start to conference play, sweeping home-and-homes from each of its two closest competitors in the standings to gain a four-game lead.

► MVC foes made adjustments the second time through, pinning their hopes on zone defenses and other high-risk, high-reward strategies.

► In three losses to MVC teams (two regular season and one postseason), WSU shot a combined 18.3% (15-of-82) from three-point range. Yet, the Shockers were still in position to win all three games in the final minute.

► In the conference semifinal loss to UNI, WSU missed its first 19 three-point attempts and finished 2-for-24.

CLOSE CULLS

► The ball has rarely bounced the Shockers' way in close games, resulting in a 1-6 record in contests decided by 5 points or less (five of those six closes losses have come against RPI top-100 teams).

WSU IN GAMES DECIDED BY 5 POINTS OR LESS (1-6)

Date	Opponent	RPI	Result
Nov. 26	vs USC	47	L 69-72
Nov. 27	vs Alabama	92	L 60-64
Dec. 19	at Seton Hall	33	L 76-80 ot
Jan. 6	EVANSVILLE	92	W 67-64

Feb. 13	NO. IOWA	69	L 50-53
Mar. 5	at No. Iowa	69	L 52-57 ot

► Those "coin-flip" games tend to even out over a long period of time, but for whatever reason WSU hasn't gotten the breaks this year. That doesn't take away from the quality of the team itself, and metrics like KenPom take that into account.

► KenPom rates WSU among the 20 "unluckiest" teams in the nation and calculates that the Shockers should have at least another 2.5 wins, based on their efficiency numbers.

BENCH

► WSU reserves are averaging 29.7 points per game heading into the tournament, good for 11th nationally. Since Jan. 1, the Shockers have been even better, getting an average of 31.4 points out of the non-starters (sixth in the nation).

ALL-A-BOARD

► WSU didn't rank a single player inside the conference's top-15 in rebounding. None averaged more than 5.0-per-game. Yet, the Shockers were once again the Missouri Valley Conference's best rebounding team. Eight players averaged between 3.0 and 5.0 boards per game, and WSU had outrebounded 15 of its last 18 foes... Having two of college basketball's best rebounding guards doesn't hurt. Ron Baker and Fred VanVleet have combined for 959 rebounds in their careers.

1,400-POINT TRIO

► WSU already boasts the nation's only 1,300-point trio, and will likely have a 1,400-point trio by the end of the night on Tuesday. Fred VanVleet (1,397) and Anton Grady (1,396) are joined by Ron Baker (1,598).

VALLEY THREE-PEAT

- 2016.... 16-2 (1st)
- 2015.... 17-1 (1st)
- 2014.... 18-0 (1st)

51-3

► WSU put the finishing touches on its first Missouri Valley Conference three-peat. The Shockers had previously won back-to-back titles only once in their history (1964/65).

► WSU is just the second MVC team in the last 46 years to three-peat, joining Southern Illinois (four-in-a-row from 2001-02 to 2004-05). Incidentally, the Shockers ended SIU's run with their 2005-06 championship.

► Winning outright championships has been even more rare. WSU is just the fourth school in MVC history to finish alone atop the standings in three-or-more consecutive years, joining SIU (2003, '04, '05), Cincinnati (1958, '59, '60, '61) and Kansas (1923, '24, '25, '26, '27).

TITLE TOWN

- 10 MVC regular season titles won by WSU – tops among active schools ahead of SIU (8) & Drake (7).
- 4..... MVC crowns won by Gregg Marshall - more than any other coach in Shocker history.
- 8..... D-I schools, including WSU, that have won at least 4 outright conference titles in the last 5 years.

BEST BY A WIDE MARGIN

► Wichita State (16-2 in MVC play) outscored opponents by an average of 19.1 points in league play. It was the best by an MVC team in the last 20 seasons and now gives WSU five of the top six marks over that period of time.

20-APLENTY

► WSU has never been more dominant in MVC play. 11 of the Shockers' 16 wins were by 20+ points matching their total from the two previous years combined.

► WICHITA STATE 20+ POINT WINS, BY SEASON

Season	All Games		MVC Games

SETTING THE BAR HIGH

► The MVC's 18-game, double-round-robin format is a grind, even for strong teams. For outsiders, WSU's undefeated 2013-14 season and subsequent 17-1 run through the MVC in 2014-15 made a monumentally difficult task appear easy:

► WSU's 51 conference wins since 2013-14 (51-3, .944) is the most-ever by one Valley team in a three-year span.

► The 2013-14 Shockers (18-0) were just third Valley team since 1950 to finish unbeaten, joining Larry Bird's national runner-up Indiana State team (16-0 in 1978-79) and Hersey Hawkins' 1985-86 Bradley Braves (16-0).

► WSU has finished 16-2 or better in conference play in four of the last five years.

► Since 1991-92, when the Valley expanded its schedule to 18 games, the rest of the conference has combined for just four other 16+ win finishes. Illinois State (16-2 in 1998), Southern Illinois (16-2 in 2003 and 17-1 in 2004) and Northern Iowa (16-2 in 2015). All four went on to play in the NCAA Tournament, and ISU and UNI advanced to the Round of 32.

W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W--W

► WSU ran off 12-straight victories between Dec. 22 and Feb. 3, marking the second-longest winning streak in nine seasons under Gregg Marshall. It was also tied for the fourth-longest run in school history.

► 11 of the 12 wins came against conference foes, as WSU jumped out to an 11-0 start to MVC play for the second time in three years.

TRENDY

► The Shockers have several lengthy winning streaks in place against conference foes, including a school record-tying run of 13-in-a-row against Bradley and 12-straight vs. Missouri State that that rank among the longest-ever by one active Valley team over another. WSU has won seven or more consecutive games against seven of its nine MVC rivals.

#23 Fred VanVleet

2-TIME MVC PLAYER OF THE YEAR
3-TIME ALL-VALLEY 1st TEAM
3-TIME MVC ALL-DEFENSIVE TEAM

TWO BIRDS IN HAND

► Wichita State's Fred VanVleet was named Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year for the second time, giving the program its sixth Larry Bird Trophy.

► Now a three-time All-Valley first team selection, VanVleet previously won Bird Trophy as a sophomore when he led WSU to college basketball's first-ever 35-0 start on his way to third team All-America honors.

► VanVleet is just the ninth player in MVC history to win multiple Larry Bird Trophies, joining an elite group of players that also includes Bird, himself. Xavier McDaniel is the only other Shocker to do it (1984 & '85).

► WICHITA STATE MVC PLAYER OF THE YEAR WINNERS

LONG END, SHORT-LIST

► WSU's senior trio of VanVleet, Wessel and Baker are on a list of just 10 MVC players in the last two decades to reach 100 career wins. VanVleet ranks second in MVC history behind former teammate Tekele Cotton. If WSU can make it to the Round of 32, he would match Cotton at 120 wins. A senior day victory on Feb. 27 was VanVleet's 63rd career MVC win, setting the Valley's modern record.

FRED-D-D

► In the 28 years since the MVC All-Defensive Team was established, VanVleet is just the second player to be named to both the All-Valley First Team and All-Defensive Team in three different years, joining former Southern Illinois standout Ashraf Amaya (1991, 92, 93).

CAREER DAY

► Fred VanVleet won the MVC's Player of the Week Award for the third time this year and fifth time in his career on Feb. 1 after scoring a career-high 32 points at Evansville. It was just the fifth 30-point game of the Marshall Era (Joe Ragland and Cleanthony Early each did it twice). In that game, VanVleet tied a school accuracy record by going 15-of-15 at the foul line (matching Dave Stallworth's mark, set in 1963)... VanVleet's 24 second-half points was the most productive half by a Shocker in nine seasons under Gregg Marshall (Early had 23 in a half during the 2012-13 season).

► 109.....Number of career games in which Baker has hit at least one triple - a new Shocker record, topping Burns' old mark of 104.

► Baker has knocked down a trey in 29 of 32 games this year and in 95-of-103 dating back to the start of his sophomore season.

► Baker owns the two longest three-point streaks in school history, hitting at least one trey in 27-straight games last year. He also had a 25-gamer as a sophomore. No other Shocker in history has had a string longer than 16...

GOOD POINTS

► 1,598.....Career points for Baker entering the NCAA Tournament. He needs 2 more to pass Randy Burns on WSU's all-time list and become the eighth player in WSU history to reach the 1,600-mark.

PAN-AM GLAM

► Over the summer, Ron Baker was part of a bronze-medal effort at the Pan American Games in Toronto. Baker started all five games for the United States and was one of most impressive collegiate players in a competition that featured a mix of college, NBA D-League and overseas pros. He saw the most court time of the seven American collegians and tallied a team-high eight steals while averaging just over 8.0 points per contest. Baker played the entire second half in the bronze medal game and helped the U.S. come back from 21 points down in the third quarter to defeat the Dominican Republic.

► Baker was the first WSU player to ever appear on a Pan Am Games men's basketball roster. He's also the first active Shocker in over three decades to represent the U.S. in international competition.

► The 12-man roster, led by Gonzaga head coach Mark Few, included seven collegians and five professionals - four from overseas and one who played last season in the NBA.

► Virginia's Malcom Brogdon, Michigan State's Denzel Valentine, Baylor's Taurean Prince, Arizona's Kaleb Tarczewski, Maryland's Melo Trimble also competed for the U.S.

"The guy is Rambo... He plays fearlessly. He went toe-to-toe with some physical, grown men who know how to play the game and he really helped Team USA. He, arguably, was the best collegian. Most of them got better as the week went on, but he showed the most growth."

THRICE IS NICE

► Ron Baker and Fred became the first Shockers in over three decades – and the first WSU teammates – to make the Valley's top team three years in a row. Xavier McDaniel (1983, 84, 85) was the last.

► In Gregg Marshall's nine seasons in Wichita, WSU has claimed All-MVC honors 19 times. That includes 12 first-teamers since 2010, equaling the program's total from the previous 28 years.

ALL-DEFENSIVE DUO

► VanVleet and Baker both landed on the All-Defensive Team.

► VanVleet was named to the All-Defensive team for the third time in his career, joining Jamar Howard (4x, 2002, '03, '04, '05) and P.J. Cousinard (3x: 2006, '07, '08) on the list of Shockers with three-or-more appearances.

► WSU landed multiple players on the All-Defensive team for the third-straight year and have had a league-best eight selections over the last five years.

2 ALL-AMERICANS ARE BETTER THAN 1

► Ron Baker and Fred VanVleet combined for 20 points and 10 rebounds in the MVC semifinals, marking their 28th shared point-rebound double-double in 117 games together. In a Jan. 17 win over Indiana State, the duo combined for 45 points – their highest shared total – and 10 rebounds. Four days prior, at Missouri State, they tallied another combined-high with 15 assists.

Anton Grady

MVC ALL-NEWCOMER TEAM
MVC ALL-BENCH TEAM (Captain)

GRADY LOADS UP

► Anton Grady earned All-Newcomer and All-Bench Team honors.

► As the top vote-getter on the All-Bench ballot, he was named Team Captain. Grady is the fourth Shocker in the award's 22-year history to earn that distinction.

Markis McDuffie

MVC ALL-BENCH / ALL-NEWCOMER TEAM
MVC FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

TOP MARKIS

► Markis McDuffie's selection as Freshman of the Year ends a long WSU drought. He's the first Shocker since Randy Burns (2002) and the fourth overall to win the award, joining Jason Perez (1997) and Joe Griffin (1987). The league began honoring its top freshman in 1986. That's good company. Perez (1,839 career points) and Burns (1,599) rank sixth and eighth respectively on WSU's all-time scoring list.

► The 6-8, McDuffie is by far the league's youngest freshman (just shy of 18 years, 6 months) but is already one of its most athletic players.

► When he's on the floor, Markis McDuffie has been the MVC's most productive freshman scorer at just over 16 points per 40 minutes.

► MVC FRESHMAN LEADERS, POINTS PER 40 MINUTES - REGULAR SEASON

Player	School	Min.	Pts.	Pts/40
Markis McDuffie	Wichita State	516	215	16.1
Dominik Olejniczak	Drake	491	196	16.0
Armon Fletcher	So. Illinois	462	163	14.1
Jarred Dixon	Missouri State	725	240	13.2
Ryan Krecklow	Missouri State	527	187	12.6

► Statistics guru Ken Pomeroy ranks McDuffie as the MVC's fourth-most efficient offensive player (among those utilized on at least 20-percent of possessions), trailing only MVC first-teamers VanVleet, Baker and Egidijus Mockevicius.

► KEN POM OFFENSIVE EFFICIENCY LEADERS (MISSOURI VALLEY CONF.)

Player	School	Ht	CI	ORTg
Egidijus Mockevicius	Evansville	6-10	Sr.	117.7
Fred VanVleet	Wichita State	6-0	Sr.	114.4
Ron Baker	Wichita State	6-4	Sr.	114.1
Reed Timmer	Drake	6-1	So.	107.0
Markis McDuffie	Wichita State	6-8	Fr.	106.5

► While WSU's talented JUCO pipeline has given it plenty of representation over the years on the All-Newcomer teams, McDuffie is one of only two Shocker freshman in the last two decades to be included on the list (Toure' Murry did it in 2009).

► McDuffie is also just eighth Shocker to make the All-Freshman team (now in its 18th year). Shaquille Morris was a member of last year's team. Five of the six previous WSU players to make the All-Freshman squad went on to win all-conference honors during their careers and four of them were first-teamers (Jamar Howard, 2002; Paul Miller, 2003; J.T. Durlay, 2008; and Murry, 2009).

Evan Wessel
1st TEAM MVC SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

QUIET CONTRIBUTOR

► Redshirt senior Evan Wessel's numbers don't jump off the page, but he's been a valuable contributor in other, more subtle ways. Wessel is frequently on stage (he's played 2,143 career minute over parts of five seasons) but rarely in the spotlight (360 career points). His knowledge of the system, constant hustle, and knack for making key plays at key moments have made him a fan favorite, while also endearing him to his head coach.

► Wessel's style in many ways parallels Gregg Marshall's own playing career. The 6-foot-3 Marshall played 102 games at Randolph Macon, and was known for both his toughness and intensity. While he scored just 433 career points (an average of just over 4.0 ppg) Marshall molded himself into a shutdown defender and helped lead his team to three 20-wins seasons in four years.

► Wessel is the nation's most successful senior (minimum 100 games played), entering the tournament with an .892 career winning percentage in games participated. He's 107-13 over parts of five seasons (after taking a medical hardship in 2012-13)...

► Wessel is the only player in Wichita State history to log playing time on four different conference championship squads... Baker (104-17, .860) and Fred VanVleet (118-20, .855) also rank in the top-10 on the active list.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

► The Shockers lead the nation in scoring defense (59.3 points) and are sixth in field goal percentage defense (.385). They've taken it up a notch in the last two months. Since Jan. 1, they lead the nation in both categories (56.5 points allowed, .358 opponent shooting percentage).

► In 18 MVC games, WSU led the league in FG% Defense for the fifth-straight year by posting its fourth sub-.400 mark in that span. This year's .358 clip was the best in nine seasons under Gregg Marshall.

GOOD AT GREEDY

► WSU also enters March Madness with the nation's second-best turnover margin (+5.5). The Shockers finished with a double-digit margin for the seventh time this year in their senior day win over Illinois State, forcing 17 Redbird giveaways while turning it over just six times themselves... They also did it in a Feb. 21 win at Indiana State (4 TO, 14 takeaways).

THAT 70s NO-SHOW

► No Shocker opponent has topped 70 points in regulation since Nov. 29 when Iowa scored 84... Northern Iowa is the last MVC team to reach 70, hitting that number on the nose in its Jan. 31, 2015 win in Cedar Falls (70-54)... The last MVC team to go north of 70 was Loyola, which fell 88-74 to the Shockers at Gentile Arena on Feb. 19, 2014... The last road team to reach 70 at Charles Koch Arena was Davidson (Dec. 29, 2014, 81-70 WSU)... No MVC road teams has scored 70 in Wichita since Evansville dropped an 86-74 decision to the Shockers on Jan. 25, 2012.

HOOP THERE IT ISN'T

► Wichita State entered the NCAA Tournament leading the nation in fewest field goals allowed per game (18.8). Opponents have a hard time just getting shots up against an opportunistic Shocker defense that ranks 14th nationally in takeaways (15.4 per game). When they do, they're apt to miss. Foes are shooting just 38.5 percent from the field through 30 games - sixth nationally.

Not surprisingly, each of the top-5 schools on the list of fewest buckets allowed have already reached 20-wins.

► 54.9 Opponent scoring average in MVC games since the start of the 2014-15 season. The Shockers have held 34 of the 36 foes to 65 points or less during that stretch and are 33-3 as a result.

• Factoring in all games, the 2014-15 Shockers ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense at 57.4 points, and were the first WSU team to allow less than 60-a-game in 65 years.

REBOUND DETERMINED

► 11 consecutive seasons that Gregg Marshall teams have led their conference in rebounding margin (his last three seasons with Winthrop in the Big South, 2004-07, plus each of his first eight in the MVC). His teams have led the category in 13 of his 17 seasons overall.

BENCH IMPRESSIVE

► Markis McDuffie (7.4), Anton Grady (7.5) and Conner Frankamp (6.3) all add a scoring lift off the bench for WSU. The Shocker trio was part of a group of just seven MVC reserves (players that have started no more than a quarter of their team's games) who are averaged over 6.0 points per game during the regular season.

► 184 Bench points scored by WSU in its five-game winning streak (36.8 per game) to end the regular season.

► 16 Number of times in 30 games that WSU has gotten 30 or more points from its reserves this year.

► 29.7 Bench points averaged by the Shockers coming into the NCAA tournament - 11th nationally.

11 X 10

► With an 11-point effort against Loyola on Jan. 27, Rashard Kelly became the 11th-different Shocker to score in double-figures this year. That total could climb even higher by the end of the season, with Evan Wessel, Bush Wamukota and Rauno Nurger still chasing their first 10-point games. Wessel has reached nine points once and eight on three other occasions.

► Eight Shockers have reached double-digits on two-or-more occasions this year.

25-ALIVE

► The Shockers need one more victory to reach 25-wins for the seventh-consecutive year. They'd be the first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to do it. Cincinnati - a member of the MVC for 13 seasons - put together six-straight 25-win campaigns from 1957-58 to 1962-63. Along the way, the Bearcats reached the Final Four in five straight years and won national titles in 1961 and 62.

► 15 WSU wins by 20+ points this year - a new program record, besting previous mark of 12 shared by Ralph Miller's 1953-54 team (led by junior Cleo Littleton) and the 1980-81 Elite Eight Shockers (led by Antoine Carr and Cliff Levingston).

► 11 20+ point wins by the Shockers in MVC play - also a program best. In fact, it's more than WSU has had in any two seasons combined. The 2014-15 team won six by 20+ to set the old standard.

2013-14	10	35-1	5	18-0

► 5 Number of times in school history that it's happened (others came in 2013-14, 2009-10, 1981-82 and 1953-54). Only the 2013-14 undefeated Shockers were able to extend the run to five. They beat Drake (+29), Bradley (+20), Missouri State (+23), Evansville (+22) and Missouri State (+25) consecutively near the end of the year, with the last two coming in the MVC Tournament.

30-FOR-30-FOR-30

► WSU bounced back from its worst conference stretch since 2013 (two losses in three games) with one of the most dominant weeks in program history, defeating New Mexico State (+30), Missouri State (+31) and Indiana State (+33) in a space of seven days. It marked just the third time in school history that a Shocker team has won three-straight by 30-or-more and the first time that they've won back-to-back MVC games by 30+.

► In its 71 Valley seasons, WSU has won 22 MVC games (plus one MVC Tournament contest) by 30 or more. Eight of those have come in the last five seasons. That includes three in 2015-16, an achievement matched by only the 1961-62 Shockers.

► WSU TEAMS WITH MULTIPLE 30+ POINT MVC WINS IN SAME YEAR:

3 — 1961-62	(Drake +30, at N. Texas +30, N. Texas +41)
3 — 2015-16	(Loyola +34, Mo. St. +31, at Ind. St. +33)

BUILDING A RESUME

► 39 Number of top-100 RPI victories in the past four seasons. The Shockers have won two-thirds of their games against top-100 teams (39-21) and are 14-9 vs. the top-50.

► .836 Winning percentage vs. non-conference regular season opponents from 2011-16. The Shockers are a combined 51-10 over that four-year span.

► 24th WSU NCAA non-conference strength of schedule rank (out of 351 teams) heading into Selection Sunday.

VALLEY ROAD WARRIORS

► The Shockers' 46-8 conference road mark (.852) over the last six seasons is better than any other MVC team's conference home record during that span. (UNI's 43-11, .796 home mark is the closest).

► WSU has taken it up a notch in 2015-16 with seven double-digit road wins. Four of those set new program records for the Shockers largest margin of victory at a particular road site. Last Tuesday's 74-48 win at Drake was WSU's most lopsided in 71 visits to Des Moines, dating back to 1937. Likewise, the Shockers' 74-55 (+19) triumph at Northern Iowa was their biggest in Cedar Falls, and their 83-58 victory at Southern Illinois was their best effort in Carbondale.

7-YEAR HITCH

► The Shockers dropped under the .500 mark on Nov. 27 for the first time since February of 2009 (a span of 2,473 days, or just over six years and nine months). A stretch of three-straight losses was their worst stretch since January of 2009 when they opened MVC play at 0-6... Immediately after, the 2008-09 Shockers rallied to win 9 of their next 12, finishing 8-10 in conference, 17-17 overall, and advancing to the CBI quarterfinals... That 0-6 MVC start was a decided turning point in the Gregg Marshall Era. They've won at nearly a .800-clip since that moment in time. WSU has bounced back in similar fashion this time around, going 21-3 on the heels of a 2-4 start.

HEAVY DUTY DUO

► The Shockers' big-man platoon of Anton Grady and Shaquille Morris rarely share the court. Individually they've put up modest numbers, but their combined production has given WSU some all-conference caliber performances. In 18 MVC games, the duo combined to average 15.4 points, 7.8 rebounds and 1.8 blocks per game in 31.4 minutes.

Grady (18.2 points per 40 minutes) is WSU's most productive offensive regular on a per-minute basis, ahead of Ron Baker (18.0). Morris isn't far behind (17.9).

	Min.	Pts	Reb	Blk
Anton Grady (6-8, 230, R-Sr.)	15.2	7.6	4.0	0.8
Shaquille Morris (6-8, 260, R-So.)	16.2	7.8	3.8	1.0
COMBINED PRODUCTION	31.4	15.4	7.8	1.8

SHAQ ATTACK

► Shaquille Morris' recent surge has helped make the Shockers a much more balanced team with a physical, inside presence to compliment a veteran backcourt. The redshirt sophomore has increased both his stamina and motor, leading to more minutes. He's scored in double-figures 11 times this season.

He's shooting 56.7 percent for the year. If it holds, it would be one of the highest single-season percentages ever by a Shocker underclassmen, in the company of first round draft picks and NBA standouts Xavier McDaniel and Antoine Carr.

► HIGHEST SEASON FIELD GOAL % (WSU Underclassmen)

.593	Xavier McDaniel	So.	1982-83	189-346
.592	Bret Wise	So.	2002-03	61-103
.586	Antoine Carr	So.	1980-81	211-360
.577	Karl Papke	So.	1982-83	86-149
.576	Shaquille Morris	So.	2015-16	83-144

MAKE NO MISTAKE

► Sophomore reserve Conner Frankamp - a Kansas transfer who has seen time at the point guard and shooting guard spots since becoming eligible at semester - went nearly two months without committing a turnover (Dec. 31 to Feb. 24). He's committed just four in 440 minutes this year. While he hasn't banked enough assists to appear on any national lists, Frankamp sports an excellent 6.25 assist-to-turnover ratio. He was even better in MVC play (9.00-to-1), turning it over just two times in 18 contests.

TIMELINE

► Oct. 29 — Senior point guard Fred VanVleet experiences hamstring soreness during a preseason practice on the same day that Sports Illustrated arrives to shoot photos for a feature spread on the WSU All-American.

► Oct. 31 — VanVleet feels no lingering effects and opts to participate in WSU's closed door scrimmage against Oklahoma State. Shortly after tipoff, he aggravates the hamstring injury.

► Nov. 13 — VanVleet attempts to play in the season opener against Charleston Southern but lasts just three minutes before tweaking his ankle. WSU wins 88-63.

FRED VANVLEET • 4 GAMES • HAMSTRING

The All-American point guard missed four November games and was hobbled in two others by a strained hamstring. The injury came during a crucial stretch of four games against RPI top-100 teams. VanVleet returned to the Shocker lineup for good on Dec. 5 and gradually returned to form in the weeks that followed. He put up 14.8 pts, 6.0 assists and 2.1 steals in 9 January contests.

► Nov. 17 @ Tulsa (L, 66-77)

Limited: VanVleet plays at Tulsa (RPI 49) but reinjures the hamstring eight minutes into the game. He plays another 22 minutes, but at half speed. He hits three treys in the final 90 seconds of the first half to send WSU into the break with a one-point lead but is unable to do much more than jog and shoot jumpers down the stretch. Tulsa takes advantage on the opposite end with 77 points on its way to a 10-point victory... Freshman combo guard Shamet is limited to 10 minutes with foul trouble, forcing VanVleet into extended action... Ron Baker plays 39 of the 40 minutes and takes almost a third of the team's shots.

DNP: MVC Freshman of the Year, Markis McDuffie does not play. The forward has been slow to grasp the system in practice, and coaches do not feel that he is ready for to play in a close game in a hostile road environment... Guard transfer Frankamp is not eligible until the end of the semester.

Deep reserve* minutes: 19 / 200 (9.5%)

Deep reserve shots: 5 / 55 (9.9%)

* - Players who did not finish the season in the core rotation

► Nov. 18 — Marshall makes the decision to shut down VanVleet indefinitely in order to give his starting point guard time to properly heal.

► Nov. 21 — Shamet makes his first career start in place of VanVleet and finishes with nine points and three assists in a win against Emporia State, but he also experiences pain in his left foot. Hours later, he is diagnosed with a stress fracture.

► Nov. 25 — Shamet undergoes surgery to repair a fifth metatarsal stress fracture, robbing WSU of another point guard option for what would turn out to be the remainder of the season.

WICHITA STATE

Non-Conference Timeline: Shorthanded Shocks Endured an Injury-Plagued Start

LANDRY SHAMET • 29+ GAMES • STRESS FRACTURE

Marshall's highest-rated recruit in nine years at WSU, Shamet (a top-100 prospect) had drawn favorable comparisons to the freshman version of Ron Baker but took those comps a little too far, suffering the very same stress fracture injury that cost Baker 20 games during his own debut season. Shamet appeared in just three games and will likely pursue a medical redshirt.

► November 26 vs. USC at AdvoCare Inv. (L, 69-72)

DNP: VanVleet (hamstring), Frankamp (transfer rules), Shamet (stress fracture)

Replacements: Players who would end the year as deep reserves account for over 20 percent of the team's shots and minutes... Ty Taylor (18 minutes) and walk-on John Robert Simon (5 minutes) combine for 23 minutes at point guard in place of VanVleet... Taylor is 1-for-10 from the field... Bush Wamukota (17 minutes) and Eric Hamilton (3 minutes) combine for 20 minutes in the low post. The entire quartet would see a total of 15 seconds in two MVC Tournament games in early March but factor prominently in the AdvoCare Invitational.

Deep reserve minutes: 43 / 200 (21.5%)

Deep reserve shots: 16 / 74 (21.6%)

► November 27 vs. Alabama at AdvoCare Inv. (L, 60-64)

DNP: VanVleet (hamstring), Frankamp (transfer rules), Morris (coach's decision), Shamet (stress fracture)

Limited: Anton Grady is injured in the final minutes of the game after colliding with an opposing player. Though he is responsive and has feeling in his extremities, Grady has little or no use of his arms and legs and is transported to an Orlando trauma center for evaluation.

Replacements: Taylor and Simon play 32 of the 40 minutes at point guard... Taylor hits 4-of-15 from the field... Wamukota (23 minutes) and Hamilton (9 minutes) combine for 32 minutes in the low post...

Deep reserve minutes: 64 / 200 (32.0%)

Deep reserve shots: 20 / 61 (32.8%)

ANTON GRADY • 3 WEEKS/4 GAMES • SPINAL CONCUSSION

Senior big man Anton Grady missed four games in three weeks with a spinal concussion, but it was more than just a physical setback; it also came at a time when the 6-foot-8 Cleveland State transfer was still trying to adjust to new teammates and a new system. A 1,000-point scorer and two-time all-Horizon selection at CSU, Grady appears to finally be hitting his stride heading into March.

► Nov. 28 — Grady's condition (diagnosed as a spinal concussion) gradually improves. After having little-or-no movement in his extremities following the collision, he slowly regains motor function.

► Nov. 29 vs. Iowa at AdvoCare Inv. (L, 61-84)

Iowa (RPI 24) keys on Ron Baker, and WSU's supporting cast offers little help in an 84-61 loss... Grady is released from the hospital in a wheelchair. By the following day, he is able to walk with the help of crutches.

DNP: VanVleet (hamstring), Frankamp (transfer rules), Grady (spinal concussion), Shamet (stress fracture)

Replacements: With Grady hospitalized, sophomore Rauno Nurger removes his redshirt and contributes nine minutes. He combines with Wamukota (9 minutes) and Eric Hamilton (17) for 35 front court minutes. Simon (11) and Taylor (12) play 23 of the 40 point guard minutes...

Deep reserve minutes: 58 / 200 (29.0%)

Deep reserve shots: 20 / 59 (33.9%)

CONNER FRANKAMP • 7 GAMES • NCAA TRANSFER RULES

Gregg Marshall calls sophomore Kansas transfer Conner Frankamp the best shooter he's ever coached, but the sophomore wasn't eligible for game action until Dec. 9 due to the NCAA transfer rules. He's averaging 18 minutes off the bench in relief of Baker and VanVleet.

► Dec. 5 — VanVleet returns to the lineup at Saint Louis, still less than 100%. After picking up two quick fouls in the first half, he makes his presence felt with 11 points, five assists and two steals in the second-half of a 15-point win... Grady continues his progression and begins light shooting drills... Morris, who played three minutes in the Alabama and USC games, has practiced and played well in the days since, earning a promotion into the starting lineup.

► Dec. 9 — Sharp shooting Kansas transfer Conner Frankamp is declared eligible to compete after sitting out the fall semester, per NCAA rules. His addition gives WSU another healthy guard option. Frankamp knocks down a pair of key free throws in the final minute to help WSU knock off a red-hot UNLV team, fresh off wins over Indiana and Oregon.

► Dec. 12 — WSU routes No. 25 Utah (RPI 8), 67-50.

► Dec. 14 — Grady is cleared to practice.

► Dec. 19 — Grady returns to the Shocker lineup late in the first half at Seton Hall and plays a handful of minutes. WSU leads by 13 in the first half and for 35 of the 45 minutes but falls in OT.

► Dec. 22 — Grady rounds into form with nine points and seven rebounds, and VanVleet adds 13 points and six assists in a 29-point rout of Nevada that kicks off a 12-game winning streak. VanVleet benefits from a nine-day gap between games with a big January.

MARSHALL WSU'S ALL-TIME WINS LEADER

► The Feb. 3 win over Southern Illinois was Gregg Marshall's 221st in nine seasons at Wichita State, moving him past Hall of Famer Ralph Miller for the school's career record.

TWO FOR NO. 1 SPECIAL

► Few coaches have the honor of being a school's all-time winningest coach. Even fewer have earned that distinction at multiple stops. Marshall is already Winthrop's career victories leader (194 from 1998-2007) and now has a similar claim at WSU. He's one of just seven coaches who are the Division I victories leader for two-or-more programs.

Other notable coaches who have done the same include Jim Calhoun (Northeastern (248), UConn (625)), Lou Henson (Illinois (423), New Mexico State (289)) and Johnny Orr (Michigan

RALPH MILLER'S SHOCKER LEGACY

► Ralph Miller coached over 1,000 games and retired as one of the winningest coaches in college basketball, with a 674-370 (.646) career mark at Wichita State (then Wichita University, 1951-64), Iowa (1964-70) and Oregon State (1970-89).

A two-time national coach of the year (1981 and 1982) and seven-time conference coach of the year (including twice in the Missouri Valley Conference in 1954 and 1964). He's a member of the Pizza Hut Shocker Sports Hall of Fame, Kansas Sports Hall of Fame, and the James Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, among many others.

A successful collegiate basketball player at Kansas and a state championship coach during a three-year run at Wichita's East High School, Miller was given his first opportunity at the collegiate level on April 21, 1951 when he was announced as head coach at Wichita University. The Shocker had joined the MVC six years prior but were struggling to make the leap from small college hoops to the "big time."

Miller's star player at East High, Cleo Littleton, followed him to WU and became the school's first modern era All-American and the first player west of the Mississippi River to reach 2,000 career points. He remains the Shockers' all-time leading scorer.

Littleton and a talented cast of Miller recruits energized the city, with an exciting mix of fast-breaks and full court pressure, helping pave the way for funding and construction of the Roundhouse - now known as Charles Koch Arena - in the mid-1950s.

In 1953-54, Miller's team earned a bid to the National Invitational Tournament - the first postseason trip for the team since reaching major-college status. An upset win at Oklahoma A&M is still one of the biggest in school history.

Miller landed another program-changing recruit in the early 1960s named Dave Stallworth, who helped propel the Shockers to NIT bids in 1962 and 63. In 1964, Stallworth - a two time consensus All-American - and a talented supporting cast, booked a trip to the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Midwest Regional Final.

Miller left at the end of the year for Iowa, but the nucleus that he recruited went on to reach the Final Four in 1965.

In his 13 years at WU, Miller won 220 games - the most of any Shocker coach - despite coaching in what was arguably the era's toughest college basketball conference (ruled by national powers such as Cincinnati, Saint Louis and Bradley, earning it the nickname "the Valley of Death").

Littleton and Stallworth's numbers are both retired (an honor bestowed to just three other Shockers), and a banner saluting Miller's achievements hangs from the rafters. Most importantly, his tradition of basketball excellence endures.

TRADITIONS (NEW AND OLD)

•What is a "Shocker"?

WSU athletics nickname traces back to the early 1900s when the University's teams were unofficially referred to as the "Wheatshockers." At the time, many of the football players earned tuition and board by harvesting or "shocking" wheat. The name was later shortened to "Shockers." WSU's mascot, WuShock - a walking shock of wheat - was born in 1948.

• War, What is it Good For?

During the 2012-13 season, the WSU student section helped popularize a now familiar victory song. When the Shockers are putting the finishing touches on home victories, the lyrics "You don't want to go to war... with the Shockers... Don't start no stuff... Won't be no stuff..." echo throughout the Roundhouse.

• Play Angry

Head coach Gregg Marshall has developed a unique appreciation for WSU basketball history, even as he continues to write new chapters. Since his arrival, the eighth year Shocker coach has made it a point to reach out to WSU basketball alums, such as NBA stars Xavier McDaniel, Antoine Carr and Cliff Levingston, who helped form the backbone of some of WSU's greatest teams in the early 1980s. While addressing the team midway through the 2012-13 season, Carr challenged Marshall's Shockers to "Play Angry." That message sank in, and the slogan gained national attention during the team's run to the Final Four later in the year.

•Stand for Defense:

Shocker fans at Koch Arena have a long-standing tradition of... standing. Until their opponent scores its first field goal, the WSU faithful remain on their feet clapping in unison.

GREGG MARSHALL ON...

...Baker's background, and its effect on him and the team

"I think having both parents be coaches is a huge strength for him. He's very coachable, yet tough-minded. He's been told the truth before... his parents told him the truth, corrected him, pushed him... he's got a streak to him: he doesn't want to lose.

From day one, he was very [coachable]. Not too high, not too low.

Beyond the coaching, I've never been to [Scott City]. He's strong; I call him 'country strong.' He has big shoulders, big hips, big hands that aren't soft; they've got callouses. It doesn't surprise me that he's our leading rebounder at 6'4. He's tremendous defensively. I think he might be the best defensive player in the league."

...The difference between this senior class and others

"They're icons. They're bigger than south-central Kansas. They're college basketball icons. They've helped put this program on the map and remained relevant for quite a long while. We owe them a debt of gratitude not just because of what they've done, but how they've done it. They've done it in a tremendous, first-class way. They've been nothing but a joy to coach and be around. I think we have all benefitted from their decision to come to school here."

RON BAKER, FRED VANVLEET & EVAN WESSEL ON...

...Which athletes they looked up to when they were kids

Evan: "Growing up, old tapes of Larry Bird and Michael Jordan when I was little... I remember watching the Duke-North Carolina rivalry; the passion between the schools, the rivalry, showing stuff like that. The atmosphere here and growing up in a sports family also led to [me wanting to play sports]."

Fred: "Kobe Bryant. We didn't have any [broadcasts] locally where I was from. Basketball is all I ever watched, and one of my first memories of watching basketball were those 2000-2001 Lakers teams with him and Shaq and those guys. It's always been Kobe for me."

Ron: "My two favorite athletes growing up were Terrell Davis for the [Denver] Broncos and Kirk Heinrich from Kansas... I went to a couple barnstorming events that [Heinrich] was at, got his and Nick Collison's autograph... To me, it was like once-in-a-lifetime to meet two college basketball stars. And now I'm in the shoes of them, and that's why I try to treat young kids with respect when they're in awe and seeing me in person."

...Recalling special moments/memories from playing together

Fred: "A lot of wins obviously. For me, the coolest moment was watching these two last year against Kansas. Obviously I'm not from here, but from the outside looking in, the joy and the fun and the passion that went into that game. I tried to visualize it as if it were myself, playing against Illinois in the tournament. That was a lot of fun to go through that with them and share that moment with them."

Evan: "The Final Four year, watching these two break out in the tournament. For me as a teammate, you want to see a couple of your best friends do well. They definitely stepped up and shined. Also, any championships we've won, like the Cancun tournament or when we won the Valley tournament. Any NCAA [tournament] game you win feels like a championship of its own. Any time you're winning is a special moment."

Ron: "All the wins, all the special moments you had together, those are things I'll remember the most. Just being with these two in the locker room, people don't understand the relationships we have with one another. Tightly bonded, loyal to one another, trustworthy, those types of things go a long way when you see each other 10 hours a day for 500 days in a row."

...What they tell the younger players now that the pressure of the postseason has arrived

Fred: "I haven't told them anything yet to be honest... they know, nobody's young at this point in the year. That excuse is out the window. You get to say that in November or December, once you get to this point in time, there are no young guys and old guys. If they don't get the sense of urgency now, we're [in trouble] anyways."

Ron: "I guess what I would tell them is to have fun. The first time being in the MVC Tournament, the atmosphere is going to probably be a little overwhelming for them. It was for me at that age. If you slow down and enjoy the moment; enjoy all those 10 colors of the crowd and the environment. Play hard and have fun, and just enjoy the teammates you have and the opportunity you have."

...The one impression they want to leave at Wichita State

Ron: "For me, I feel like I want to be the start of a legacy. Hopefully us three leave something, like wisdom and confidence behind with these younger guys that they can carry on with the success and with all the good things that we brought coming up. Hopefully they can continue to do that."

Fred: "I just want to be remembered for playing as hard as I can, obviously winning, and the interactions and relationships with the fans and community. That has the most meaning in terms of things I'll remember, and I feel like the fans will too. I think we'll leave a pretty good mark."

I hope that next year, expectations are realistic for these younger guys. Not that the team will drop off, but individually, don't try to make them the next Evan, Ron, or Fred. Let them be their own their own players. The talent is still coming in, so they'll be just fine."

Evan: "I just wanted to leave Wichita State better than I found it. Be hard working, give my best everyday, and obviously win. That's always been my ultimate goal, to win. We've been fortunate to leave a great legacy and bring light to the city of Wichita and Shocker nation... it's not going to stop here, we have a great team and it'll keep going."

...What "March" means

Ron: "This month, you can't even put words to it. It's really special, especially if you're lucky enough like us to be a part of it... the whole nation's focus is on college basketball this time of the year. As a player, that excites you and makes you want to work hard each and every day, and do your best so that you can be noticed and have fun with this month."

Fred: "Everybody that's a basketball fan knows that it's the best time of the year. Obviously, the regular season is very important, but there's no comparison to the stage of the Valley Tournament and especially the NCAA Tournament... I think the fact that if you lose then you're done plays into it a lot too. Staying on edge and understanding the stakes has a lot to do with it."

WICHITA STATE

SELECTION SUNDAY PRESS CONFERENCE QUOTES

GREGG MARSHALL ON...

► ... The team's reaction upon being selected

"I couldn't really tell. I couldn't read their reaction; they didn't really react. I thought we were a little under-seeded. I thought we'd be a 10 [seed] - maybe eight or nine - that was my guess. But we're in. ... I was confident that we'd be in. We're glad to be in the tournament. We're glad to have a chance to win."

► ... Fred VanVleet, who will look to bounce back from the Valley tournament

"If he doesn't correct it. ... we probably will have a short stay. If Fred doesn't play well, we usually don't play well. He's been a big part of what we do for a long time. But if he does, and plays like he's capable like he has for the great majority of the time that he's been here, then it gives us a big boost... I've had a lot of faith in him for a long time. He's made us all look smart and good for three-and-a-half years, so my money would be on him performing the way he can perform."

► ... Practice this week

"Mostly mental stuff. We didn't know who our opponent would be, so we're just trying to get better mentally, trying to execute our stuff better. Once again, our margin for error is small, and if you have mental or physical mistakes it obviously lessens our chances for success. We've had some pretty good practices."

► ... The last opportunity with this group of experience seniors

"If it weren't for them, we wouldn't be here. Their next loss will be the last one they have as college players, so hopefully we can prolong that as much as possible."

► ... Being selected for a play-in game in Dayton

"It's the first time as an at-large that I've been sent to Dayton. Obviously that means that we're one of the last four in, in [the committee's] estimation. ... I'm kind of used to that by now. We've got to use that [chip on our shoulder] to our advantage if we can."

RON BAKER ON...

► ... Being back in the tournament

"I'm excited to be in, there's a road to every journey in the tournament, everyone is going to have a tough game to start out with and we just have to take it one game and one possession at a time and enjoy our last opportunity here."

► ... The quick turnaround

"It will be interesting, I think it kind of gives us a head start though. Get a game under our belt, hopefully get a win and hop on a jet and go to the next location. It will be like an NBA schedule."

► ... Being in a play-in game

"A play-in game is a pretty serious game, I don't think it is any different than any other matchup going on a couple days after ours. Tennessee had a decent run a couple years ago. I think these games are not taken lightly and everybody's opportunity to make a run is the same as anyone else's."

► ... The benefits of a week of rest coming into the tournament

"Coming off a day off yesterday, had a solid practice today, real competitive. Tomorrow will be a lighter day I'm sure, again I think we will have a lot of energy and focus come Tuesday."

FRED VANVLEET ON...

► ... Any doubts he may have had coming into Selection Sunday

"I mean there is always doubt, because you don't know. You don't even know who is in the room. You got all these experts trying to sell their TV shows all week so you have to listen to that. It has been a long seven or eight days of people who don't get to make decisions giving their opinions. As a group, we felt pretty confident and we're ready to play anybody."

"I don't know. We will never know, thank God. Obviously everyone would have been sick and disappointed, and that has just been our feeling all week. Anytime you lose but especially the way we lost and didn't have guys play well, so it has been a bad taste in our mouth but we have been practicing, trying to get better and we have made good progress this week and now we have to get ready for a game on Tuesday."

► ... The mood in the room

"Everybody knows it has been a long week. You know, we all felt good about it but you never know. We didn't care where, when or how, just tell us we are in and we will show up and play anybody."

EVAN WESSEL ON...

► ... The mood in the room

"We are happy to be in, you know? We're excited, we have a quick turnaround so just have to get focused and get ready to play on Tuesday."

► ... The quick turnaround to play on Tuesday

"They have the same amount of time to prepare for us that we do for them, it kind of comes down to us playing. We have had this week to practice and get better so I think it plays to our favor to have a quick turnaround."

► ... Preparing mentally

"Right now, I think our guys are just ready to play. We have been practicing for a week now with a bad taste in our mouth and we are just ready to go play someone else."

ANTON GRADY ON...

► ... Whether or not the team is disappointed to be in the First Four and not the main draw

"We saw our name [on the bracket]. That's all we needed to see."

► ... Fresh legs coming into the tournament

"I think we are in a good rhythm as a team by the way we have been practicing. We have really been going at it and feel like we are ready to play."

HOME STREAK SNAPPED AT 43

- A 53-50 loss to Northern Iowa on Feb. 13 snapped a 43-game home winning streak. For nine days, it was the nation's longest active run. Prior to the UNI setback, it had been nearly three years since WSU's last home loss (Feb. 27, 2013 to Evansville). The school-record streak nearly doubled the old mark (22), set by the 1981-82 and 1982-83 Shockers, and was the fourth-longest in MVC history.
- WSU's 24-game conference home streak also tied for the sixth longest in Valley history and fell one win short of the school record (25, set between 1982-85).
- The Shockers lost at Charles Koch Arena for only the 34th time since its 2003 renovation. UNI's six wins are the most of any visiting opponent during that span (6-7, .462).

WSU FALL SIGNEES

Prep school combo guard, C.J. Keyser, junior college point guard Daishon Smith (pronounced "DAY-shawn"), and JUCO power forward Darryln Willis (goes by "Darral") signed National Letters of Intent with WSU during the Fall Signing Period... The trio join with Texas A&M transfer in residence Peyton Allen as newcomers in 2016-17. The Shockers have five current seniors in Ron Baker (G), Anton Grady (F), Fred VanVleet (G), Bush Wamukota (C) and Evan Wessel (F).

C.J. Keyser

6-3 | 185 | G
 Baltimore, Md. | Sunrise Christian Academy (Kan.) | Brewster Academy (N.H.)

Last name rhymes with "riser," which is an apt description... An elite athlete who prides himself on his defense... Game and physical stature are reminiscent of former Shocker guard Tekele Cotton, a two-time conference defensive player of the year... Played for WSU assistant Kyle Lindsted at Sunrise Christian Academy near Wichita... Earned three stars from both ESPN and Rivals and was considered a top-20 shooting guard by ESPN prior to reclassifying to the class of 2016... Elected to play a prep year at Brewster Academy in New Hampshire in order to better prepare himself for Division I basketball... He also drew interest from Utah, Nebraska and Long Beach State... A standout performer for a Sunrise program that has cranked out more than two-dozen Division I signees over the last two years... Named MVP of four-different tournaments as a senior, including the prestigious Marshall County Hoopfest and the Kentucky Blue Grass National Championship (which Sunrise won).

Gregg Marshall: "He's explosive, can play a multitude of positions on the perimeter and profiles as a lockdown defender. We had an opportunity to watch him quite a bit last year at Sunrise, and he had a chance to see how this program operates."

Daishon Smith

(Pronunciation: first name pronounced "DAY-shawn")

6-1 | 170 | PG
 Jacksonville, Fla. | Ribault HS | Tallahassee (Fla.) CC

Junior college point guard who has the size and athleticism to score, distribute and defend at a high level... Gives WSU another experienced point guard to help replace All-American Fred VanVleet next year... Played his freshman season at Eastern Florida State College and was a key reserve and honorable mention all-conference selection for a team that finished 29-5, won its conference title and qualified for the NJCAA National Tournament... Averaged 8.0 points and 3.2 assists in just over 20 minutes per game... Nearly finished with more steals (46) than personal fouls (49)... Scored in double-figures 11 times and had a season-best of 9 assists... Earned NJCAA Region 8 Player of the Week honors on Dec. 16, 2014... As a senior at Ribault High School in Jacksonville, helped his team to a 4A State Semifinal appearance...

Gregg Marshall: "Daishon is the type of point guard who has been successful in our system. He has good size, is explosive with the ball and is extremely athletic. He's a guy who can score and also be a playmaker for others, depending on the situation, and he affects the game with his defense, too. He plays for a tremendous junior college coach in Mark White, who holds him accountable every day."

Darryln "Darral" Willis

6-8 | 215 | PF
 Madison, Wisc. | Memorial HS | Pearl River (Miss.) CC

A versatile scorer and post defender who becomes the latest in a long line of talented junior college forwards to join the Shocker program... Averaged 13.8 points and 7.1 rebounds as a freshman to help lead Pearl River to a 25-5 finish and the MACJC state title... An All-Region 23 and All-MCJC South Division selection... Was efficient scorer for the Wildcats from both the field (.626) and at the foul line (.755), where he knocked down a team-high 111 free throws... Enjoyed a breakout season as a high school senior at Madison Memorial, where he was a Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I All-State selection and conference player of the year in 2014... Was a fourth-team All-State (all classes) selection by the Wisconsin Associated Press... Averaged 17.3 points and led Memorial High to a conference title.

Gregg Marshall: "We think he's a guy who can come in play big minutes at the four. He does everything well. He can shoot, he can drive, and he can score facing or with his back to the basket. He runs, rebounds, defends and comes from a winning program."

Gregg Marshall has built Wichita State into a monster of the Midwest and, in the process, ascended as one of college basketball's elite coaches.

Now in his ninth season at WSU and his 18th overall, Marshall (422-167 career record) is the only coach in Division I who has posted 30 or more wins in each of the past three seasons, and his .825 winning percentage (175-37) over the last six years ranks as the nations best.

Under Marshall's guidance, WSU has been on a steady rise, topping 24 wins in each of the past seven seasons.

His Shockers followed up a 2011 NIT Championship with four-straight NCAA Tournament trips, including runs to the 2013 Final Four and the 2015 Sweet 16. The 2014 squad ran the table in the regular season, becoming the first team in 23 years to enter the Big Dance with an unbeaten record. That historic 35-0 start also earned him consensus National Coach of the Year honors.

Despite the presence of eight new scholarship players, Marshall led the 2014-15 Shockers to a 27-3 regular season record and a second-straight Missouri Valley Conference title. The 2015-16 team shook off an injury-plagued November to claim another conference crown, giving WSU its first-ever "three-peat."

In his 18 seasons as a head coach, Marshall's teams have captured 10 regular season conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament 12 times. He's won seven conference coach-of-the-year honors, including a run of three-in-a-row from 2012-14.

Marshall (228-84 in nine seasons at WSU) surpassed Hall of Famer Ralph Miller as the winningest coach in school history on Feb. 3, 2016 with his 221st victory.

Marshall has proven adept at spotting talented prospects and developing them into high-level college basketball players, with many moving on to play professionally. During the 2014-15 season, three former Shockers saw action – Gal Mekel (New Orleans Pelicans), Toure Murry (Jazz/Wizards) and Cleanthony Early (Knicks).

In Marshall's nine seasons in Wichita, a total of 19 Shockers have earned postseason All-MVC honors, including 12 First-Teamers since 2010 (equaling WSU's total from the previous 28 years combined). WSU's depth and tenacious team defense has been a source of strength, throughout. Over the past six years, eight Shockers have landed on the MVC's All-Bench Team and nine more have earned MVC All-Defensive Team nods.

Under Marshall, the Shockers have become a top destination for some of the nation's premier junior college talent. Nine NJCAA All-Americans have worn the black and yellow since Marshall's arrival, including the NBA-bound Early – a two-time national player of the year prior to his arrival at WSU.

Marshall has also had big success developing coaching talent, with a rapidly expanding tree of seven former assistants who have gone on to accept Division I head coaching positions.

The latest is Steve Forbes, a Shocker assistant from 2013-15, who took the reigns at East Tennessee State in March of 2015. Other active head coaches include Earl Grant, College of Charleston; Dana Ford, Tennessee State; Barclay Radebaugh, Charleston Southern; and Zach Spiker, Army.

Prior to WSU, Marshall led Winthrop to a 204-76 record in nine seasons, piling up six Big South regular season titles, seven conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Tournament appearances.

Marshall spent the first 13 years of his coaching career as an assistant with stops at Randolph-Macon (1985-87), Belmont-Abbey (1987-88), College of Charleston (1988-96) and Marshall (1996-98), helping those programs to a combined 255-115 record, good for a .689 winning percentage.

PERSONAL:

Marshall received a B.A. degree in economics/business in 1985 from Randolph-Macon and earned the Master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Richmond in 1987.

He is married to the former Lynn Munday of Bellingham, Wash., who earned her master's degree from the College of Charleston. They are the parents of a son, Kellen, and a daughter, Maggie.

Parents owned and operated a restaurant in his hometown of Dubuque, Iowa, which he credits for teaching him about hard work and discipline... Arrived in the summer of 2011 after two seasons at Southern Miss (2009-11) and has been a part of all five NCAA trips and the most-successful five-year run in WSU history (146-29 entering the tournament)... Reached the D-I ranks following a wildly successful run as head coach at Chipola (Fla.) JC where he was a five-time Panhandle Conference Coach of the Year and led the Indians to a 164-15 record... In his final season, Chipola finished 35-2, won its fifth-consecutive conference title and placed third at the NJCAA National Tournament... As a player, earned second-team all-region honors at Kirkwood Community College, after leading his team to the National Tournament for the first time... In the last four years has won conference championships in three different leagues. As an assistant, he helped Louisiana Tech win the 2013 WAC title. The school then transitioned to Conference USA, where it made an immediate splash by winning a share of the C-USA regular season crown. Now, in his first season at WSU, the Shockers are Missouri Valley Conference champs... Has been a part of six total conference championship teams... Has also served as associate head coach at Arkansas State (2010-11), Arkansas (2007-10) and South Alabama (2002-07), following a successful coaching run in the junior college ranks... Earned his bachelor's in health and physical education from ULM in 1995... Played two years at Mississippi Gulf Coast CC (1989-90), spent one season at Texas A&M (1991), transferred to ULM and sat out the 1992 season before helping his team win the 1993 Southland Conference title at 17-1, finishing 27-4 overall and earning an NCAA Tournament bid... Lindsted has already made an impact on the Shocker program. Four players on the 2015-16 WSU roster (Rauno Nurger, Zach Brown, Eric Hamilton and Brett Barney) played for Sunrise's post-graduate team... A Wichita native, Lindsted grew up following the Shockers. He earned his undergraduate degree at Central Christian College in McPherson, Kan. He and his wife, Anita, have six children... Fun Fact: As a child, Lindsted's family had a pet buffalo. OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Sophomore)

One of the Shockers' most improved shooters... Dedicated himself in the weight room and in the practice gym, where he hoisted 500 shots per day in effort to extend his range on offense... An exceptional athlete and tenacious rebounder who will compete for time in a deep frontcourt rotation.

2014-15 (Freshman)

The only Shocker reserve to see time in all 35 games... Averaged 2.9 points and 2.9 rebounds at power forward... 13.8 minutes per game was the most for any WSU bench player... Made four starts in place of an injured Evan Wessel – three of which came at the Diamond Head Classic, Dec. 22, 23, 25... Was the hero of an overtime win over host Hawaii in the semifinals, scoring a season-high 12 points to go with six boards. His offensive rebound and putback with just three seconds to go in OT gave the Shockers a one-point win... Came through with two clutch baskets in the final minutes of a comeback win over Alabama on Dec. 16... Grabbed a season-high seven rebounds in a Dec. 6 victory over Saint Louis at INTRUST Bank Arena... Was one of six Shockers to finish with 100+ rebounds and ranked third on the team with 45 offensive boards... Named one of 20 Under-the-Radar Freshmen to watch by CBSSports.com during the preseason.

Prep School

Played the 2013-14 season with the post graduate team at Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, Va... Was voted Team MVP after averaging 22.3 points, 8 rebounds, 4 assists, 2.1 steals... OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Sophomore)

2014-15 (Freshman)

Earned the team's Most Improved Player Award at WSU's end of season banquet... Averaged 3.3 points and 1.4 rebounds in 10.5 minutes per contest while shooting 42.3 percent from three and 51.8 percent overall from the field... After playing sparingly through the non-conference schedule, worked his way into the rotation as a key reserve during MVC and postseason play... Played two of his best games during the NCAA Tournament, tallying season-highs for scoring (11), rebounding (8) and minutes (23) in an opening round win over Indiana. Followed with seven points in the Round of 32 victory against Kansas... Provided a memorable hustle play to spark the win over KU when he forced a steal, scrambled for the loose ball and out-sprinted everyone to the other end for a transition slam... Averaged 6.7 points in 16.0 minutes over the three NCAA games... Saw time in each of the last eight contests after missing four games with a concussion (Feb. 7 to Feb. 17)... Tallied just 31 minutes and saw time in just five of the first nine games of the regular season before bursting onto the scene during the Diamond Head Classic. After scoring just three points all season against D-I competition up to that point, he went for 10 vs. Loyola Marymount, nine in an overtime win over Hawaii and had seven more in the championship vs. GW. Went 5-of-6 from three and 7-of-9 at the foul line over the three games... The DHC performance kicked off a stretch that saw him play double-figure minutes in 8 of the next 11 games... Scored his first collegiate points against Newman on Nov. 23 with a nine-point, six-rebound day...

Prep School

Played the 2013-14 season for the post-graduate team at Sunrise Christian Academy in nearby Bel Aire, Kan... Saw extensive time at the point guard spot for the first time in his career... Averaged 16 points per game.

Averaged 13.0 points and 7.0 rebounds for the Cardinals during the 2012-13 season... Ranked as a three-star prospect by Rivals.com and a four-star by Future150... Played summer basketball for Texas Pro... Recruited by Texas, Washington and Providence, among others... Was the first member of the Class of 2014 to verbally commit to WSU, back in May of 2013

2nd Team Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete

OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Senior)

A five-year veteran in Coach Gregg Marshall's system who can be called on to contribute in a variety of ways.

2014-15 (Junior)

A member of the MVC's Most Improved Team after a junior season that saw big increases in playing time and production... Also a Second Team MVC Scholar Athlete... Appeared in 32 games with 31 starts and averaged 23.6 minutes... Put up 4.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and turned the ball over just 14 times in 756 minutes... Switched positions in the off-season from small forward to power forward due to the team's lack of returning post depth and thrived, despite a significant size disadvantage... A crowd favorite with a penchant for being in the right place at the right time for rebounds and loose balls...

Regained his shooting touch after a rough 2013-14 season, hitting 36.0 percent from deep (31-of-86)... Got hot at some opportune times... After taking just three shots in 36 minutes in the Round of 64 against Indiana, was one of the offensive stars in the Round of 32 win over Kansas on March 22... Connected on a season-high four treys vs. the Jayhawks in a 12-point, nine rebound effort that earned him a postgame interview with the CBS crew... On Feb. 28, helped WSU fend off a hard-charging Northern Iowa in a winner-take-all battle for the MVC regular season title, draining three triples on his way to 11 points... Had Five total double-figure scoring performances, topped by a 15-point outburst against Saint Louis on Dec. 6... Was nearly the hero in overtime loss at nationally-ranked Utah, scratching out six points and nine rebounds... Missed three games at the Diamond Head Classic (Dec. 22, 23, 25) with an ankle injury, suffered late in the first half of the Alabama game on Dec. 16... Returned for a three-second cameo at Drake on Dec. 31, then rejoined the lineup for good on Jan. 4... Recorded steals in bunches with three-or-more thefts in five different games... Named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll for both the Fall and Spring semesters.

Missouri Valley Conference All-Freshman Team

2015-16 (Sophomore)

Will compete for time in a loaded Shocker front court... Talented scorer in the low post, capable of dominant stretches... Applied himself to two-a-day workouts in the off-season in an effort to increase his stamina.

2014-15 (RS Freshman)

A member of the Missouri Valley Conference All-Bench team after averaging 4.7 points and 2.6 rebounds... Recorded the second-highest field goal percentage ever by a Shocker freshman, connecting on 54.5 percent of his attempts (61-of-112)... Reached double-figures in scoring on three occasions, topped by a 17-point effort at Southern Illinois on Feb. 17 in which he hit 7-of-8 shots... Also matched his season rebounding high in the win at SIU, snagging seven caroms... Was left behind when the team traveled to Des Moines on Dec. 31 because of poor practice habits but used it as motivation in the days ahead... Scored nine points and blocked three shots in his first game back on Jan. 4 and followed it up with a 10-point, seven-rebound effort against Bradley, signaling the beginning of a second half surge... Led the team with 20 blocks in 17 MVC appearances... Ranked seventh in the MVC in total blocks (all games) with 26 – the fourth-highest total ever by a Shocker freshman – and was eighth in blocks per game (0.8) despite playing just 12.7 minutes per contest...

2013-14 (Redshirt)

Spent a redshirt year sculpting his body with strength coach Kerry Rosenboom to better prepare for Division I basketball... Made big strides with his conditioning, allowing him to sprint more in transition and contribute on both ends of the floor.

CAREER LISTS

1,000-POINT CLUB

WSU has had 45 1,000-point scorers in its history, most recently the trio of Ron Baker, Tekele Cotton and Fred VanVleet, who all joined over a two-month span in February and March of 2015... In 2013-14, Cleanthony Early - a junior college transfer who tallied 1,135 points - become the 42nd member of the club. Early is the first JUCO player in school history to reach 1,000 and is one of only 10 WSU players to tally 1,000 or more over a two-year stretch.

MVC All-Sports Championships

Winners of back-to-back-to-back All-Sports Championships, WSU has claimed the trophy nine times in the last 12 years. In 2014-15, Shocker teams finished first or second place in nine of the 15 varsity sports that WSU sponsors with six championships (men's and women's basketball, men's and women's golf, women's outdoor track & field, and women's tennis).

Since 1993, when the MVC and Gateway men's and women's conferences merged, WSU has won six or more titles in four different school years. No other MVC school has won more than five titles in a year during that span.
