Leading Off - Notables About the Tigers

- Through 41 games, Mizzou has found itself tied atop the SEC East and ranked in all of the major polls. At 26-15, Mizzou is off to its best 40-game start since opening 2008 (29-12 that year). Mizzou's 12-6 mark in SEC play also marks the Tigers' best conference start since 2007 when it also opened 12-6.
- The Tigers are coming off of their fifth SEC series win of 2015 last weekend against Alabama. Mizzou won just five SEC series in its first two seasons in the SEC combined. This weekend's series pits two of three SEC East leaders against one another in Vanderbilt and Mizzou. All three games will air live on SEC Network+ from Hawkins Field in Nashville.

RECAPPING MIDWEEK

No. 14 Mizzou baseball (26-15, 12-6) tallied seven runs in the first four frames of a 9-8 loss to No. 15 Missouri State (28-9, 7-2) on Tuesday night (April 21) in front of 1,128 fans, the largest midweek crowd of the season. The contest was the first meeting between the two teams as ranked opponents. The in-state rival series is now notched at 25-25 a piece. Mizzou led 7-3 after scoring seven runs over the first four innings, but Missouri State rallied to take an 8-7 lead after a five-run sixth inning. Trey Harris then homered to tie the game in the seventh, but a pair of errors in the ninth inning allowed Missouri State to score the winning run.

BEST CONFERENCE START SINCE 2008

At 12-6 in SEC play, the Tigers are tied atop the SEC East with defending national champion Vanderbilt and defending SEC Champion Florida. The 12-6 start for Mizzou in SEC play is the program's best 18-game stretch to begin league play since 2007 (also opened 12-6).

BEASTS OF THE EAST

Mizzou is also an incredible 9-3 against SEC East teams this season, going a perfect 4-for-4 in series against East Division foes. The Tigers own tie-breakers over the four SEC East teams ranked below them in the East Division standings. Mizzou's five SEC series wins this season match the team's total from the first two seasons in the SEC combined.

BEST START SINCE 2008

At 26-15, Mizzou is off to its best start to a season through 41 games since 2008 when the team opened 29-12 overall. Mizzou advanced to an NCAA Regional that season. The 26 wins are already the most by a Tiger team since winning 33 in 2012, the Tigers' final season in the Big 12.

TIGERS ONE OF TOP TURNAROUNDS

Heading into the week at 26-15, Mizzou is one of the top turnaround stories in college baseball this season. With seven more wins at this point of the season than they had a year ago, that is the nation's fourth-largest turnaround among schools from power-five conferences. Only Texas A&M (+12 wins), Notre Dame (+10) and USC (+8 wins) rank ahead of the Tigers. Mizzou has already surpassed its win total from a season ago, both overall and in SEC play.

SATURDAY'S ARE ALRIGHT

So far this season, Mizzou is a remarkable 12-2 on Saturdays with the only losses coming to Milwaukee back in March and Alabama in game one of a doubleheader last Saturday.

CHICKS DIG THE LONG BALL

Mizzou has homered 14 times over the last 10 games, including four in the series-clinching win over Alabama Saturday. That 14-homer mark over the last 10 games is four more than Mizzou hit all of last season as the Tigers have 25 homers in 2015, their most since slugging 29 in 2012 (the last year Mizzou made an NCAA Regional). 15 of Mizzou's 25 homers have come in SEC games and the Tigers are 13-3 when homering in a game this season. Mizzou has had 10 different players homer this season, the most since the change of the bats prior to the 2011 season.

OFFENSIVE NUMBERS ARE BETTER

Mizzou has scored 198 runs this season, averaging 4.83 per game. The 198 runs in quite impressive considering Mizzou scored just 196 in 53 games a season ago (3.7 per game).

CATALYSTS AT THE TOP

It has been no secret that the catalysts of the Tiger offense have been the top two spots in the order in Brett Peel and Jake Ring. A stat that proves that Mizzou goes as they go is the team's success in games in which they get hits. Mizzou is 20-9 in games when Peel gets a hit and 9-3 in SEC games when Peel gets a hit. That is a marked improvement from 6-6 when he doesn't get a hit (3-3 in SEC games). Ring's numbers look similar as the Tigers are 19-9 when he gets a hit and 9-3 in SEC games. In games where both Ring and Peel get hits, Mizzou is 17-8 and batting .275, averaging 5.0 runs per game. In the other games, Mizzou is 9-7 and batting just .234 as a team.

SOPHOMORES ON FIRE

The sophomore duo of Jake Ring and Ryan Howard has been the catalyst for the Mizzou offense over the last 14 games – Ring is hitting .364/.426/.600 in that span with 10 RBIs and eight extra-base hits and Howard is hitting .333/.356/.509 in that span with 14 RBIs and six extra-base hits. Howard and Ring rank 1-2, respectively, on the team in multi-hit games with 14 and 13.

INNING EATERS

A big key to Mizzou's success this season has been a rested bullpen due to starters going deep into games. In fact, Mizzou's top two starters – Reggie McClain and Tanner Houck – rank 1-2 in the SEC innings pitched this season. Houck has tossed 6.0 innings or more in nine of 10 starts and 7.0 innings in five of 10 starts. McClain has a pair of complete games and is coming off of an 8.2 inning performance against Alabama. He has gone at least 7.0 innings in seven of 10 starts this season. The weekend rotation for Mizzou is averaging 7.1 innings pitched per start this season.

SLOWING DOWN THE BEST

One way to look at how effective Mizzou's pitching has been is to look at one of the teams Mizzou has defeated and what they have done since. Mizzou opened April by taking two of three games from then No. 4 Florida. The Tigers limited the Gators to 20 hits and just nine runs over the three-game series. Since Mizzou's pitching shut down the Gators, they have gone 9-1 while averaging 10.6 runs per game on 12.6 hits per game. Mizzou on the other hand, limited the Gators to three runs per game and 6.7 hits per contest. The Tigers are in a three-way tie atop the SEC East with Florida and Vanderbilt.

ANOTHER CRAZY PITCHING STAT

We can go on and on about where Mizzou ranks nationally and in the SEC in the major pitching categories, but to dumb it down, there is one really easy statistic to look at. The Tigers have allowed six or more runs in just seven of 41 games this season. Mizzou had 18 such games a season ago.

TRIBBY LEADS SEC IN APPEARANCES

Junior lefty Austin Tribby leads the Tigers and the SEC with 24 appearances this season. That mark also ranks 10th nationally. He pitched in 31 games last season and has 55 over the last two seasons. He is once again on pace for 31 appearances through the regular season in 2015. Phil McCormick holds the school record for appearances in a season (36 in both 2010, 2011).

CAME IN LIKE A BRECKIN BALL

Junior closer Breckin Williams picked up a pair of saves in the Alabama series as he now has 10 on the season, the second-best total in the SEC and 14th nationally. He is now tied for the second most ever in a single season at Mizzou with Mark Alexander (2004). He is just two back of the record (Ryan Stegall in 2000). Williams also has 13 career saves, the sixth-most in program history. He is six back of the school record holder in that category (Scott Black, 19 from 1987-1990). He was named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award Midseason Watch List on Tuesday. He has a win or save in all nine of Mizzou's one-run wins this season.

TEAM NOTES

SHANE BENES MAKES DEBUT

Freshman and highly-touted recruit Shane Benes missed the first 38 games of the season with a torn ACL in his right knee, but he made his debut last weekend against Alabama. His first at-bat, he drilled a triple off the '400' sign on the wall in center field and added a pair of singles. The son of former St. Louis Cardinal and No. 1 overall draft pick Andy Benes, he was a top-50 recruit coming out of high school. He should figure to see plenty of time down the stretch as the Tigers' designated hitter. He is hitting .500 in his first three games with two extra-base hits, a run and an RBI.

PITCHING, DEFENSE STILL THE KEY

As good as the Tigers offense has been over the last several games, the story of the year continues to be pitching and defense. Below are a few notable SEC ranks:

- 1st - Doubles allowed
- 1st - WHIP (6th nationally)
- 1st - Walks allowed (17th nationally)
- 2nd - ERA (15th nationally)
- 2nd - OPP BA
- 2nd - Runs allowed
- 2nd - K/BB ratio (13th nationally)
- 3rd - Hits allowed (10th nationally)
- 3rd - Fielding % (15th nationally)

Additionally, if the season ended today, Mizzou's staff ERA of 2.98 would be the program's top mark since 1980, a span of 35 years.

PITCHING TO CONTACT

Mizzou is averaging 10.87 ground-ball outs by the pitching staff per game. That mark is the second-most in the SEC this season, trailing only Mississippi State (11.87). Mizzou is also averaging 37.54 batters faced per game, the second-lowest mark in the SEC, meaning Mizzou gets a ground ball out every 3.5 batters.

HOUCK ON GOLDEN SPIKES WATCH LIST

Freshman righty Tanner Houck was named to the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List last week. The list is comprised of 60 players from across the nation and Houck is one of just four freshmen on the list. He is the first Tiger to land on the list since Kyle Gibson in 2009. He is one of 15 SEC players on the list as well.

HOUCK DRAWING COMPARISONS

Freshman righty Tanner Houck is drawing comparisons to former Tiger greats Max Scherzer, Aaron Crow and Kyle Gibson, all of whom were first round draft picks. But it's Houck who has better numbers than all three at this point of his career.

MCCLAIN PITCHER OF THE WEEK, THRICE

After tossing 8.1 innings of five-hit baseball in a 3-2 win over No. 6 South Carolina on March 20, junior righty Reggie McClain was named Co-SEC Pitcher of the Week.. It is the third time this season that McClain has been named SEC Pitcher of the Week. McClain is the only SEC pitcher this season to earn SEC Pitcher of the Week three times. McClain is the first SEC pitcher to earn the honor three times in a single season since both LSU's Aaron Nola and Mississippi State's Ross Mitchell did so in 2014.

WINNING CLOSE GAMES

Mizzou has also won its fair share of close games, winning nine one-run games already this season. Mizzou won five of those variety all year in 2014. Mizzou is also 5-1 when tied after eight innings this season after going 1-7 in such games a season ago.

BECAUSE THREE IS BETTER THAN ONE

Mizzou did something that may have never been done in school history on Feb. 22 against Purdue. With the bases loaded and no outs in the bottom of the sixth and with the Tigers trying to preserve a 1-0 lead, Andrew Schwaab got a ground ball to third to start a 5-2-3-2 triple play. While it may have been done before at Mizzou, it is the first documented triple play in the record books. It turned out to be the play of the game as Mizzou held on to win, 1-0, behind a one-hitter from the pitching.

RECRUITING CLASS IS GOOD

The 2014 Mizzou baseball freshman class earned a pair of top-25 national rankings as Baseball America tabbed the class 12th nationally while Perfect Game slotted the Tigers at No. 22. Mizzou now ranks in the top 31 in all of the major recruiting rankings after being ranked No. 31 by Collegiate Baseball with an average rank of No. 22 nationally. The No. 12 ranking in Baseball America is the best for the Tigers since 2007, when the team checked in at No. 11.

In the Baseball America rankings, the Tigers check in at 12th nationally and fifth in the Southeastern Conference. The 14-player class has two players - Bryce Montes De Oca (72) and Shane Benes (400) - that ranked among the top 400 recruits according to the publication. Montes De Oca was the third-highest ranked prospect to enter Division I this season. Baseball America described the class as 'a frontline SEC-caliber class' and the publication goes on to tout the the pitchers in the 2014 class as all very projectable at the next level. In the Perfect Game rankings, Mizzou checks in at No. 22 nationally and ninth in the SEC.

NEW COACHES

Mizzou head baseball coach Tim Jamieson announced that Mizzou graduate and former Tiger All-American Hunter Mense has been promoted and will serve as the program's full time hitting coach. Mense, one of the brightest young minds in college baseball, had a very successful playing career both collegiately and at the next level. He has served as an undergraduate and graduate assistant over the last four seasons while completing his undergraduate degree and working towards his Master's degree in counseling psychology with an emphasis in sport psychology at Mizzou.

During his last four years with Mizzou baseball, Mense established a great rapport with the Tiger hitters and also used his schooling in the field of sport psychology to work as a positive coach, assisting in the mental side of the Tigers' approach. With a pair of degrees and an All-America honor, Mense is truly a Mizzou Made addition to the Tiger coaching staff.

Coach Jamieson will now handle the pitchers - a role that has been a specialty for the Tiger skipper - who has mentored the likes of American League Cy Young winner Max Scherzer and other current Major Leaguers Aaron Crow (Royals), Kyle Gibson (Twins), Nick Tepesch (Rangers) and Matt Stites (Diamondbacks). Scherzer, Crow and Gibson were all first-round draft picks under Jamieson's tutelage. Crow was an All-Star pick for the Royals and Gibson was one of the best pitchers for the Twins last season.

Additionally, former Tiger catcher Trevor Coleman has returned to Mizzou to serve as a graduate assistant manager. He was a freshman All-American and Big 12 Freshman of the Year during his playing days with the Tigers and will work with the Tiger hitters and catchers.

K's FOR K9s

The Mizzou baseball team has partnered with the Puppies With Purpose program for the 2015 season in an effort to help raise money for Columbia service dogs. The initiative, dubbed "K's for K9's," will allow fans to pledge a donation amount to be paid per strikeout during the 2015 season.

LLWS CONNECTION

For most little league players, the Little League World Series is the pinnacle. No Mizzou player knows that better than junior Josh Lester. Lester's team won the Little League World Series in 2006. He was even interviewed by Erin Andrews after winning the whole thing. His team kept that core group of players intact and went on to win three Georgia State Championships in high school.

FRANCIS HOWELL CONNECTION

This year, the Mizzou baseball roster features three players that have played together for quite sometime. Case Munson, Jake Ivory and Brett Peel all played high school ball for Francis Howell in St. Charles, Mo., winning a state championship together during their senior season.

NEW FACILITY FOR TIGERS

As the Mizzou baseball program continues its transition into the SEC, the Mizzou Department of Athletics made a major commitment to the program by spending $4 million on a new facility, including a new locker room, coaches' offices and improved seating at Taylor Stadium. The new facility is one of the best baseball facilities in the nation and will give players all they need to succeed on site. A state-of-the-art locker room, modeled after many big league locker rooms, along with a team room, an auditorium and training room have been added on site at Taylor Stadium. Also, increased bleachers have been added down the LF line and the old bucket seats have been replaced with new seat-back stadium seats in order to help with the comfort of fans.

UP NEXT

Mizzou will close its home-and-home series with Missouri State next Tuesday at Hammons Field in Springfield. For all the latest on Mizzou baseball, stay tuned to MUTigers.com and follow the team on twitter @MizzouBaseball.
