What's On Tap

Vanderbilt hosts Southeastern Conference Western Division foe Arkansas in a three-game series this weekend at Hawkins Field. It will be a rematch between the schools that played in the SEC Tournament Championship game last year in Hoover, Ala. Friday's first pitch is set for 6 p.m. with a 3 p.m. start on Saturday and a 1 p.m. start on Sunday. Saturday's game will be televised regionally by Fox Sports Net in their first SEC Game of the Week this year.

Scouting Arkansas

Arkansas enters the weekend having lost six of its last nine games, including two of three to LSU in Baton Rouge last weekend. The Razorbacks split a pair of games with Centenary in midweek action and are 15-9 overall and 2-4 in league play.

Centerfielder Brett Eibner leads the team with a .333 batting average to go with three doubles and 23 RBI. Infielder/designated hitter Aaron Murphree is the top power source with 13 homers and 33 RBI to go with a .325 batting average. That success has yet to translate into SEC play as he is hitting .130 with a homer and five RBI in six contests. As a team, Arkansas is hitting .295 with 41 homers and 191 runs scored (7.95 per game).

Junior left-hander Cliff Springston (4-0, 2.73 ERA) will start for the Razorbacks on Friday with freshman right-hander Kendall Korbal (0-3, 3.20 ERA) scheduled to go on Saturday. Sunday's starter is to be determined. As a team UA has a 4.48 ERA with 178 strikeouts and 99 walks in 213.0 innings

Freshmen Relievers Shine On Mound

This season Vanderbilt is relying on several redshirt and true freshman on the mound, with Russell Brewer and Chase Reid excelling out of the bullpen.

Brewer, a redshirt freshman, has been a consistent strike thrower out of the bullpen with 19 strikeouts and four walks in 16.0 innings. He threw three scoreless innings of relief against Middle Tennessee on Wednesday and tied a career high with five strikeouts. He is 2-0 with a 1.12 ERA entering the weekend.

True freshman Chase Reid has not allowed an earned run in six relief outings on the year and enters the weekend with a 2-0 record. The Southlake, Texas native has 17 strikeouts and eight walks in 14.2 innings and forms a solid duo with Brewer out of the pen.

Minor Takes To Ace Role

Sophomore left-hander Mike Minor has made a nice transition into the Friday night starter role that was inhabited by 2007 Player of the Year David Price a year ago.

Minor heads into Friday's game with a 3-1 record and a 1.60 ERA. He has 43 strikeouts and just eight walks in 39.1 innings pitched (Leads SEC) on the year. Last Friday against Alabama, Minor struck out a career high 12 batters in a complete game 2-1 win over the Crimson Tide. He has recorded a quality start in all five starts on the year and is just an out from recording three straight complete games. He was an out away from pitching a complete game shutout against Illinois-Chicago on March 6. Minor allowed a two-run double and completed the game in a 2-1 loss. He threw 8.2 innings against South Carolina and struck out 10 with a walk in a no-decision on March 14.

The Chapel Hill, Tenn., native went 9-1 with a 3.09 ERA with 88 strikeouts and 19 walks in 90.1 innings en route to Freshman All-American honors in 2007. He was named the SEC Freshman of the Year by sebaseball.com and also played on Team USA, finishing with a team best five wins and 1.64 ERA.

He is on the initial Roger Clemens Award Watch List, an award that David Price won in 2007.

Casali's Walk-Off Homer In 12th Leads Dores Past Middle Tennessee

Freshman Curt Casali's two-out two-run homer in the 12th inning lifted Vanderbilt to a 12-10 win over Middle Tennessee Wednesday night at Hawkins Field.

Ryan Flaherty walked with two outs in the 12th and Curt Casali stretched MTSU's Chad Coley out to a 3-1 count before belting a two-run homer to left-center to end the game.

The Commodores trailed 10-8 in the bottom of the eighth when Dominic de la Osa tied the game with a two-run homer to left-center. It was his fourth homer of the season, tying him with Flaherty and David Macias for the team lead.

The teams had scoring opportunities in the latter stages and in extra innings but could not convert until Casali's homer in the 12th.

The Blue Raiders best opportunity to regain the lead came in the 10th when Doug Birkofer was hit by a pitch and advanced to third on a single by Nathan Hines. Commodore reliever Russell Brewer got out of his own jam, striking out the next three batters to end the inning.

MTSU got on the board in the first inning on a sacrifice fly RBI by Rawley Bishop.

Vanderbilt put up three runs in the bottom of the first to take a 3-1 lead. Aaron Westlake and Alex Feinberg had RBI singles and Steven Liddle added a sacrifice fly RBI.

The Blue Raiders took advantage of two Vanderbilt errors to plate two unearned runs in the second to tie the game.

Middle Tennessee tallied five runs in the fifth to take an 8-3 lead. Bishop and Grant Box had RBI singles and Blake McDade added a two-run single to lead the charge.

VU cut into the lead with three runs in the bottom half to make it 8-6. Liddle had a RBI single, Westlake scored on a balk with the bases loaded and Jonathan White added a RBI groundout for the third run.

The Commodores scored another run on a balk in the sixth to cut the lead to one, but the Blue Raiders responded with two runs in the seventh to push it back up to 10-7.

Liddle doubled in the seventh, his third hit of the night, advanced to third on a passed ball and scored on a RBI groundout by Brad French to make it 10-8.

Taylor Hill pitched a scoreless 12th to pick up the win to move to 2-1 on the year, while Chad Coley took the loss to drop to 0-1.

Brian Harris had three hits to join Liddle as the night's leader, with David Macias and Aaron Westlake added two hits each.

Commodore Tidbits

Vanderbilt is 3-2 in its last five games and are 16-6 overall and 3-3 in league play ... The Commodores string of nine straight Southeastern Conference series wins was snapped against Alabama over the weekend. VU's last SEC series loss was at Arkansas a year ago this weekend (March 23-25) ... The losses on Saturday and Sunday to the Crimson Tide marked just the second time VU has lost back-to-back games over the last two seasons ... Offensively, Vanderbilt is hitting .239 with eight homers and 25 RBI in the last five games ... In the three game series against UA, Vanderbilt hit just .202 as a team with 26 strikeouts and just seven walks ... Outfielder David Macias, who came in with two career homers in his four-year career, hit three of the four homers on the week. He was 4-for-11 (.364) against the Crimson Tide with three homers and five RBI. He had an 18 game hitting streak snapped against Belmont on Tuesday ... Shortstop Ryan Flaherty was 6-for-15 (.400) on the week with a double, homer and three RBI ... The pitching staff had a 4.76 ERA with 41 strikeouts and 13 walks in four games last week ... Mike Minor struck out a career high 12 batters in a nine-inning complete game effort in leading Vanderbilt to a 2-1 win over Alabama Friday night in Tuscaloosa. Minor threw the lone complete game win in the SEC over the weekend and limited the Crimson Tide to just one unearned run on eight hits with just one walk to move to 3-1 on the year. He leads the conference in innings pitched (39.1) and complete games (2) while also sporting a 1.60 ERA ... Richie Goodenow made his first ever Commodore appearance against Lipscomb in relief last Wednesday and pitched an inning of scoreless relief. He walked two, had a wild pitch and struck out the side to pick up the win ... Chase Reid pitched 0.2 innings of scoreless relief against Alabama and 1.2 against Middle Tennessee. He has not given up an earned run in 14.2 innings this season

The 200-Hit Club

Coming into the season Dominic de la Osa was the lone active Commodore in the 200 hit club. Alex Feinberg and Ryan Flaherty have joined him on the exclusive list with David Macias and Pedro Alvarez not far behind. De la Osa now has 246 hits in his four-year career, good for seventh on the all-time list. Feinberg has 228 in his four years and is currently 10th, while Flaherty has 211 in just his third year tying him for 17th best in school history. Macias is just six hits away from joining them with 194, while the injured Alvarez is 16 short with 184.

Pedro Alvarez Out

Junior third baseman Pedro Alvarez will be sidelined indefinitely with a hand injury. The National Player of the Year candidate and two-time first-team All-American has a broken bone in his hand that will force him out of action for a minimum of six weeks. He had successful surgery on Feb. 28.

Alvarez suffered the injury in his first at-bat against Oregon State in the season opener and was held out of the following two games against Arizona State and Miami (Ohio).

The New York City native is considered the top junior professional prospect by Baseball America and is on the initial Golden Spikes and Brooks Wallace Award Watch Lists. He has led the USA Baseball National Team in hitting over the last two summers.

Alvarez entered the year with a career .359 batting average to go with 40 homers, 36 doubles and 132 RBI. His 40 homers is sixth all-time in school history and nine away from tying Scotti Madison's mark of 49 set in four seasons from 1977-80.

Alvarez is expected to be ready for action sometime in the first two weeks of April.

Players Pick Up Preseason Recognition

The preseason honors roll in for Vanderbilt baseball as three players were named to Baseball America's and Rivals.com All-American teams.

Junior third baseman Pedro Alvarez headlined the group as Rivals.com Preseason Player of the Year. Joining Alvarez in the publication's first-team All-America list is senior outfielder Dominic de la Osa and junior shortstop Ryan Flaherty.

Baseball America had Alvarez on its first-team, de la Osa on the second-team and Flaherty on its third-team.

Alvarez led the Commodores with a .386 batting average to go along with 18 homers and 68 RBI en route to unanimous All-American honors a year ago. He led the USA Baseball National Team in hitting for the second straight summer and is listed by Baseball America as the No. 1 college prospect entering the 2008 season.

De la Osa led the Commodores with 20 homers in the 2007 season and also batted .378 with 20 stolen bases and 62 RBIs. He was one of only three players in the country to have 20 homers and 20 stolen bases and was also a unanimous All-American selection. The Florida native was drafted in the 10th round by the Detroit Tigers, but returned to Vanderbilt for his senior year after playing the Cape Cod League over the summer.

Flaherty finished the spring with a .381 batting average to go with four homers, 23 doubles (tied for team high) and 57 RBI. He carries a school record 35-game hitting streak into the 2008 campaign. The Maine native was a second-team All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Rivals.com and started at second base for the USA Baseball National Team over the summer.

In five seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has turned Vanderbilt into one of the national powers of college baseball. In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

His overall record of 198-108 (.647) is third best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

In 2006 he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 20 VU players have been drafted over the last three years including eight in 2007.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set then school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) -- all of which were bettered in 2004. The team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.
