STORYLINES

• Tigers return home to face Vanderbilt as they play 4-of-the-next-5 at the Maravich Center and the next six on the main ESPN family of networks, with this and Tuesday's game on ESPNU.

• The Ole Miss loss, much closer than the final indicated, put LSU at 2-2 on the road this year but so very close to 4-0 on the road ... Sandwiched around the wins at Tech Tech (12/18) and South Carolina (1/11) were losses at UMass (11/12) and at Ole Miss in overtime (1/15) ... The Tigers lost to UMass by two points, 92-90, and in regulation against Ole Miss had a four-point lead in the final minutes and had a shot in the air at the regulation buzzer that could have won the game ... LSU has had four road wins on opponent's courts each of the last 2 years.

• Coach Johnny Jones has 5 wins over coaches since the time that coach had taken a team to the Final Four -- Nolan Richardson, Lou Henson, Billy Tubbs, John Brady, Tubby Smith ... Jones also has wins over coaches that would later take teams to the Final Four -- Tom Crean, Gregg Marshall.

• LSU has the 1-2 players in the league in assist-to-turnover ratio in guards Anthony Hickey and Andre Stringer ... Hickey has 52 assists and 155 turnovers for a 3.5 league leading ratio and Stringer has 47 assists and 19 turnovers for a 2.5 ratio which is second.

• Stringer, after five makes at Ole Miss, has 199 career three-pointers and with his next trey will become just the third player in team history to have 200 career threes ... Stringer, with 1,146 career points, is the second leading active scorer in the SEC behind only Trevor Relford of Alabama.

• LSU is now 20-9 when scoring 70 or more points in the Johnny Jones tenure, including 9-2 when scoring 80 or more points.

• Jordan Mickey was voted on the 5-player team for best in SEC non-conference play by CollegeHoopsDaily.com.

• Anthony Hickey's seven assists at Ole Miss (1/15) was the sixth time in his career he had that number in a game at LSU.

• ESPNU will feature the Maravich Center on its "My Home Court" segment that has been featured on its games this week.

Johnny Jones

Head Coach • 2nd year at LSU (14th year as head coach)

On April 13, 2012, the dream became a reality.

By the end of the 2012-13 season, the dream's reality was a successful first season with some old-time magical moments for the LSU team that made the foundation season of Coach Johnny Jones just the first stepping stone on the road to future success.

For Jones, just the fifth alum of LSU to hold the top position in the men's basketball program, his beliefs about reaching out to fans and giving them an exciting style of basketball to watch in the Maravich Center was getting people interesting in the program again and looking forward to the future of the program.

Jones, a player on an LSU NCAA Final Four team and an assistant coach on another LSU NCAA Final Four team, returned to Baton Rouge after serving 11 years as the head men's basketball coach at the University of North Texas.

The 2012-13 season showed the ability of Jones and his coaching staff to make adjustment on the fly; to keep players involved and willing to sacrifice until the bitter end; and, to play a style of basketball that makes players want to showcase their talent in a team concept to the fans.

In his opening statement after being hired, Jones brought back the "HIT" philosophy of LSU Basketball that Coach Dale Brown used when Jones played and coached. The "HIT" philosophy stands for "Hard, Intelligent and Together."

More than anything, Jones has gone out of his way in his first 18 months to embrace all aspects of the community, traveling throughout the state on the LSU Tiger Tour, speaking to civic groups and youth organizations while expressing how much he wants people to embrace LSU Basketball. People are responding in kind and high school coaches are excited to have LSU coaches visiting with them on a regular basis.

LSU has reorganized its booster club group and each month during the season Coach Jones hosts an open to the public luncheon that features guest speakers and has drawn standing room only crowds at a local resort hotel.

The Tigers in his first year at the helm won 19 games and became one of the league's toughest teams by winning 10 of their last 16 games against SEC competition. LSU's ability to press at strategic times and make a school record 234 three-pointers while posting five players scoring in double figures made LSU very much like Coach Dale Brown's first team in the 1970s that was known as "The Hustlers."

Jones played four years at LSU and was a member as a freshman of the 1981 NCAA Final Four team under Coach Brown. He served 13 years on Brown's coaching staff at LSU, and was on the staff when the Tigers became at that time the first 11-seed to advance to the NCAA Final Four in 1986.

This is Jones' third career head coaching position as he served as the interim head coach at the University of Memphis during the 1999-2000 season and began his run as the head coach at the University of North Texas prior to the 2001-02 season. The Mean Green advanced to four of the last six Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship games during his tenure, including each of his last three seasons.

North Texas averaged just five wins per season in the four years prior to his arrival. Under Jones, the Mean Green averaged 21 wins per year over his last six seasons, including a school record 24 wins in 2010 and a pair of Sun Belt Conference titles and NCAA Tournament trips.

In 11 seasons in Denton, Jones recorded a 190-146 record, making him the second winningest coach in school history.

When Johnny Jones suited up for his first game as an LSU Tiger against Colgate in the Great Alaskan Shootout in Nov. 28, 1980, it would mark the first of 121 games that he would play for LSU. Then, the player would turn coach and be on the bench assisting Coach Dale Brown for another 407 contests.

Jones served as an assistant coach in 1986 and 1987 and administrative assistant in 1988 before returning to the assistant coach position beginning with the 1988-89 season. Prior to the 1994-95 season, Jones was promoted to Associate Coach of the Tigers. Jones is the only person in LSU history to both play and coach in an NCAA Final Four.

After Coach Brown's retirement following the 1996-97 season, Jones moved to another set of Tigers in Memphis, serving as Associate Head Coach for the program in 1998 and 1999. Jones was named the interim head coach at Memphis just prior to the 1999-2000 season. The Tigers won six of their final seven games and finished just one game below .500 with a team that had just one starter back from the previous year.

Jones would then spend one season as an assistant coach in the SEC, as an assistant with the Alabama Crimson Tide (2000-01) before being named the head coach at North Texas on April 16, 2001.

Jones and his wife, Kelli, have two children, John, and Jillian.

10-0 -- Under Johnny Jones when allowing fewer than 60 points (3-0 this year).

Last Time Out -- Ole Miss 88, LSU 74 (Oxford, Miss., 1/15/14)

The LSU Tigers looked to have a third straight road win and back-to-back league wins almost on the verge of controlling the game in the final minutes in Oxford, before Ole Miss scored the final four points of regulation to force overtime and then the first 11 points in the extra session to win the game by a margin that was not indicative of the 40 minutes that preceded it.

Down three at the half, LSU opened a five-point, 67-62 advantage with 2:33 to play and had a 69-65 lead with 1:25 to play. That's when the Rebels made their run, getting the tying bucket with 32 seconds to play. LSU had one shot to end regulation and Anthony Hickey got a good look from about 15 feet, but the ball wouldn't go down.

In overtime, Ole Miss used a five-point trip down court to help spark an 11-0 run that put the game away.

But in the contest, Andre Stringer, the senior from Jackson, playing probably his last game in the state of Mississippi, had a career night hitting 7-of-10 field goals, including 5 treys to go with three assists and two steals in scoring 23 points. Stringer played 34 minutes off the bench. Shavon Coleman had 15 points and seven rebounds on the night while Jarell Martin put together another double figure scoring night with 14 points and seven boards. Anthony Hickey had seven assists, matching his career best, three steals and 11 points in 31 minutes.

LSU made just 2-of-10 in the overtime period compared to 5-of-6 from the field and 8-of-10 free throws for the Rebels. The Tigers shot 36.9 percent for the game (36-65), with eight treys and 18-of-30 at the line. Ole Miss hit 43.1 percent from the arc (28-65), but had 10 treys and 22-of-27 at the stripe. LSU was outrebounded for the sixth time this season, 49-41.

QUICK NOTES -- LSU made up for the free throw difference with a 22-13 margin in points off turnovers ... LSU is now 1-5 when the opposition shoots 43.1 percent or better for the year ... The Tigers had a season high of nine blocks, with Jordan Mickey a season best seven ... It was the sixth straight game with more steals than the opponents (10-7) ... When Johnny O'Bryant III fouled out in overtime it marked the first foul out of the season for LSU.

Overtime Notes

LSU is now 1-1 this year in overtime (W, vs. Butler in Old Spice Classic (Dec. 1); L at Ole Miss (Jan. 15) ... That makes LSU 2-2 in Coach Johnny Jones' tenure at LSU ... LSU is 5-5 in its last 10 overtime games dating back to the 2009 season ... LSU is now 10-21 in road overtime games and 35-50 in overtime since 1941 ... The 19 points is the second most scored in a single overtime game by an LSU opponent, topped only by the 21 by Louisiana Tech in December 1988, while LSU's five points is tied for the seventh lowest scoring overtime for the school.

Jones A Rare LSU Alum To Head The Program; Win At Carolina Made Him Top Alumni Winner

Johnny Jones is just the fifth alum of LSU to take the basketball helm of the Tigers ... He is part of this list of LSU alums that became head coach:

R. E. Edmonds – head coach 1918-19 (1 season, 1-0 record)

Dale Morey – head coach 1942-44 (2 seasons, 28-19 record)

Jessee Fatheree – head coach 1944-45 (1 season, 11-7 record)

A.L. Swanson – head coach 1944-45 (1 season, 4-2 record)

Johnny Jones – head coach 2012–(2 seasons, 29-17 record)

Only Morey, Fatheree and Jones played for LSU and were later named the head coach of the Tigers. The win Saturday at South Carolina gave him 29 career wins, passing Dale Morey as the winning alum as head coach record for the Tigers.

Jones played on the 1981 NCAA Final Four team as a freshman and then was an assistant coach under Dale Brown on the 1986 NCAA Final Four team. Jones played in 121 games at LSU and then was on the LSU bench for another 407 contests before leaving LSU when Coach Brown retired following the 1997 season.

Tigers Have Shot Ball Better This Season

LSU has shot over 50 percent in four games and after the South Carolina game (1/11) fell below 45 percent from the field ... LSU has outshot 10-of-15 teams and has only been below 40 percent in five games.

LSU's present 44.3 percent compares with these recent season shooting percentages:

LSU's defensive field goal percentage of 38.6 percent has the Tigers second in the league and 10th in the country.

However, in the last four games, no team has shot less than 41.7 percent overall. In the five games prior to the URI game (12/28), no team had shot higher than 36.4%.

When LSU shot 52 percent against Texas Tech (5/18) and won, it marked the 19th game in the last 20 that the Tigers won when it shoots better than 50 percent from the floor dating back to the start of the 2008-09 season.

According to Kenpom.com, LSU gets 56.4 percent of its 1,131 points scored this year inside the arc (50th in the country) and 25.5 percent (190th) from the three-point line.

Still telling is that LSU gets just 18.1 percent of its point total from the charity stripe. That ranks 327 out of 351 D-1 teams.

Hitting over 50 percent from the field among LSU regulars are Jordan Mickey at 57.3 percent (82-of-143) and Johnny O'Bryant III at 50.9 percent (82-of-161%).

From The Arc

Late in the month of December LSU was making threes from all over with 9 at Texas Tech, 10 versus UAB and 8 against McNeese. LSU was 27-of-61 from the arc in those games or 44.3 percent which upped LSU's season percentage at the end of December from 31.0% to 34.5%.

The Tigers were unable to sustain that against Rhode Island as a season low four treys went in the bucket in 14 attempts. Then LSU couldn't make shots in the Tennessee game, making just two (2-14).

LSU didn't shoot well against Carolina (1/11), shooting just 27.8 percent, but LSU upped the three count to five (5-of-18).

Andre Stringer made 5-of-8 three-point attempts of his own against Ole Miss (1/15) and it marked the sixth time that a player has made at least 5 threes in a game during Coach Jones' tenure. LSU made eight for the game and presently has made 96-of-295 attempts or 32.5 percent.

Last year, the Tigers made the most of the three-point line, setting school records for most three-point field goals made (234) and attempted (658). The previous mark for field goal makes was 215 (set in the 2002-03 season) and attempts (624) set in 2007-08.

When the Tigers made 10 treys against UAB (12/21), it marked the sixth time in the Johnny Jones era at LSU that the Tigers had double figure three-pointers (5 last season).

Helping LSU's run of 9 makes at Texas Tech (12/18) and 10 against UAB (12/21), Anthony Hickey became the first player in the Jones era to have a perfect night at the arc, making 4-of-4 at Texas Tech and hit his first two attempts at UAB.

Freshman Jordan Mickey Honored For Non-Conference Play

Collegehoopsdaily.com announced its five-member All-SEC squad for non-conference play and LSU freshman Jordan Mickey was named to that team. Here are the five players chosen by the web site:

G	Jordan Clarkson	Missouri
G	Chris Denson	Auburn
F	Julius Randle	Kentucky
F	Jordan Mickey	LSU
C	Patric Young	Florida

Through non-conference play, Mickey was second on the team in scoring at 13.9 points per game, 7.8 rebounds a game, 3.6 blocks a game, while shooting 57.6 percent from the field (68-118) and 31-of-40 (77.5 percent) from the free throw line.

Mickey also in non-conference play earned the SEC's FOW honor twice. Mickey earned his first after opening his career with double doubles in the first two games ... It was the first time an LSU player had earned FOW since November 2008 ... On Dec. 16, Mickey was named the SEC FOW for the second time after having 25 points on 9-of-13 (.692) shooting to go with nine rebounds and five blocks against Louisiana-Monroe (12/14). Mickey is the fourth LSU freshman to win the honor since the league restored the award in the 2005-06 seasons. Tyrus Thomas won it four times in 2006, Anthony Randolph four times in 2007-08 and Storm Warren was the last LSU player to win the honor prior to Mickey at the start of the 2008-09 season.

Mickey has scored in double figures in all but two games.

Mickey had double doubles in his first three games as a Tigers - 14 pts-10 reb at UMass

(11/12); 10 pts-13 rebs vs. Northwestern State (11/16); and, 16 pts-11 reb vs. UNO (11/19) ... His fourth double double came vs. Saint Joseph's getting 14 pts-10 reb (11/28).

ESPN.com Put Mickey Seventh In Sunday Rankings

Sunday, Jeff Goodman had Mickey at seventh in his weekly Freshman Tracker. Here's what he had to write:

"Mickey has been solid all season. This past week, he had 13 points and four rebounds against South Carolina and finished with 14 points and four boards in a loss to Tennessee. He's been effective both with his offensive production and also his ability to alter and block shots."

Mickey's Updated Totals

Mickey has done well overall from the field, making 82-of-143 shots for a percentage of 57.3%, second in the league ... Mickey is 20th in the league in scoring at 13.1 points per game and tied for 10th in rebounding at 7.1 points per game ... Mickey has 31.7 minutes a game and that is sixth best in the league.

Mickey In Freshman League Stats

The SEC is now also beginning to put out league stats for freshman and Jordan Mickey is right there near the top of several categories in Monday's stats:

Scoring - 4th

Rebounding - 2nd

Blocks - 1st

Mickey Making The Block Look Easy

All season long, freshman Jordan Mickey has made the art of blocking shots look easy for the LSU Tigers and Wednesday against Ole Miss he had the topper of his first 15 games with seven blocks.

Last year, Andrew Del Piero led the Tigers with 34 blocks as the team blocked 119 in 31 games (an average of 3.8 a game).

That total was topped in 10 games by Jordan Mickey and with his seven blocks earlier in the week, he now has 56 blocks. His 3.7 average has now moved him back into the league lead in block average.

LSU is well on pace to top last year's total with 98 blocks in 15 games ... LSU is third in the league in average at 6.5 a game ... LSU has an outside chance to block 200 shots as a team, something only four previous LSU teams has done ... The Tigers team total of 98 is +48 on the opposition ... LSU has blocked 22 shots in three SEC games, an average of 7.3 a game, including 9 against both UT and Ole Miss.

Mickey is on pace to become the first LSU player other than Shaquille O'Neal to block more than 100 shots in a season (Shaq did it all three seasons at LSU). O'Neal had a rather low first year total as a freshman of 115 blocks in 1990 ... Tyrus Thomas in his freshman and only season at LSU in 2006, blocked 99 shots, fourth best in a single season at LSU ... He needs just five blocks to crack the top 10 for a season at LSU.

Frontcourt Getting National Recognition

Miles Simon of ESPN.com in a listing right before Christmas ranked LSU No. 7 in his list of top frontcourts. Here's what he wrote about LSU:

"Coach Johnny Jones, in his second season at LSU, has done a tremendous job of bringing high-level talent to the Bayou. The Tigers' front line is headlined by Johnny O'Bryant III, a big-bodied, true back-to-the-basket player. He's got a soft touch on his jump hook and is a powerful finisher around the rim. Jones has brought in two excellent forwards to play alongside O'Bryant. One is Jordan Mickey, who is not being talked about enough on the national stage as one of the best freshmen in the country. Mickey is super athletic and was known early on more for his defense (3.6 blocks a game). But his contributions on offense (13.5 points per game) have helped the Tigers get off to a great start. Jarell Martin is another freshman who is very talented and has a tremendous skill set. Martin can play either forward spot and has range to the 3-point line. With these guys up front, LSU will be in the upper half of the SEC and compete for a berth in the NCAA tournament."

New Lineups Last Two Games

After using one particular lineup in every game from Nov. 22 to Jan. 7 with one exception, along came the road games at South Carolina (1/11) and Ole Miss (1/15) ... Two shifts were made with Shavon Coleman moving in at one of the three forward positions and Malik Morgan took one of the guard spots. It was just the second lineup that did not start at least two freshmen.

The lineup has Jarell Martin and Andre Stringer coming off the bench and both have responded well over the course of the two games. Stringer has come up with 32 points total in the two games, including his career-high of 23 against the Rebels, while Martin has been in double figures in both games. Martin had a best of 18 against South Carolina and followed with 14 versus the Rebels for his 32 combined as well. Coleman also had good numbers, especially his 15 points at Ole Miss.

In all, there have been six different lineups and the lineup of Johnny O'Bryant III, Jarell Martin and Jordan Mickey at forwards, and Anthony Hickey and Andre Stringer at guards have been posted in the scorebook on nine occasions with LSU posting a 6-3 record (loss at Memphis, 11/29; vs. URI, 1/4; vs. UT, 1/7).

LSU was looking to start three freshmen in the opener at UMass (11/12) with Tim Quarterman in at guard, but that lineup lasted 33 seconds before Martin had to be subbed for an ankle injury that he sustained on LSU's first possession.

Starting three freshmen for LSU in the season opener at UMass (11/12) – Mickey, Quarterman and Martin -- marked the first time since the NCAA National Semifinal against UCLA in 2006 that LSU started three freshmen in a contest ... That night it was Garrett Temple, Tasmin Mitchell and Tyrus Thomas.

Inside the Lineups

LSU, in 15 games, has put 98 different five-player combinations on the court so far this year. A total of 12 those combinations have been on the floor for at least 10 minutes (it should be noted that 68 of the combinations have been on the floor less than four minutes):

JOB III, Stringer, Mickey, Hickey, Hammink – 10:53 (combination DNP last 11 games)

Quarterman, Hammink, Eddlestone, Malone, Shortess – 10:50 (late in game won situations)

In those 132 minutes of the lineup that has played the most, that quintet has scored 237 points, while allowing 229. The lineup that has played the second most minutes has scored 148 points while allowing 100 points in their time together.

Individually, Andre Stringer is at +95 when it comes to points scored versus points allowed while on the court (804 PF vs. 709 PA), with Johnny O'Bryant III +86 (813 PF-727 PA); Jordan Mickey (886 PF-811 PA) at +75 and Anthony Hickey +73 (807 PF-734 PA).

JOB III A Preseason First-Team All-SEC; Naismith Early 50

The media picked junior Johnny O'Bryant III as a member of the preseason first-team as selected prior to the SEC media days ... O'Bryant III, who was a first-team Coaches selection a year ago, led the team in scoring and rebounding at 13.8 points per game and 8.8 rebounds and even better in the 18 league games with 14.7 points per game and 9.4 rebounds ... O'Bryant III tied for the regular season league lead in double doubles with 15 (12 of which came in SEC play).

The coaches' voted as well and JOBIII was named to the eight-player first team on their SEC pre-season list, while Anthony Hickey was part of the eight-player second team.

JOB III was one of 50 players named Nov. 21 to the Men's top 50 for the 2014 Naismith Trophy Early Season Watch List. O'Bryant III was one of seven SEC players on the list. The Naismith Award is presented annually by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

The Season So Far For JOB III

After 15 games so far this season, O'Bryant III is averaging 13.8 points per game and 7.3 rebounds. He is 16th in the league in scoring and 9th in the SEC in rebounds. His shooting percentage of 50.9% (82-161) is ranked ninth in the SEC.

In the Old Spice Classic, Johnny O'Bryant III became the 38th LSU player to grab 500 career rebounds. He now has a total of 549 and is 29th all-time at LSU. O'Bryant III is starting to inch into talking range of possibly being the 40th player to go over 1,000 career points before the season is over, needing 161 in a minimum of 16 games to play.

O'Bryant III has had three double doubles this season, giving him 20 for his career at LSU. He is second among active SEC players in double doubles.

O'Bryant has seen his rebound numbers decrease because of Mickey's presence, but he has not had a double double since the fourth game of the season and he is averaging 5.4 rebounds and 11.4 points over the last five games.

Freshman Lead Well-Spread Offensive Percentages

So far this season, the points scored have been divided this way:

Freshmen – 401 points, 35.4 percent of the team's points

Sophomores – 81 points, 7.2 percent of the team's points

Juniors – 338 points, 29.9 percent of the team's points

Seniors – 311 points, 27.4 percent of the team's points

Small Steps

Coach Jones is helping LSU take the small steps back to respectability and those include receiving votes again in the preseason major basketball polls; plus, seeing a respectable rise in season tickets sold. As of the first game, season ticket sales were up some 700 since he first took the job prior to the 2012-13 season to 5,650. Over 90 percent of that gain came heading into this season.

Through eight home games (many without students in town), total tickets sold are at 66,217, already 8,739 ahead of last year's total for a similar number of games. The average per game increase is +1,092 with eight home conference games to go.

Hickey Has Another Big Assist Night

Hickey equaled his career high for the second time this season and for the sixth time in career against Ole Miss (1/15) ... He earlier had 7 assists in the season opener against UMass (11/12) ... Here are the 7 assists game Hickey has registered in his career:

1/7/12 -- Ole Miss -- 7

2/18/12 -- At South Carolina -- 7

3/8/12 -- Arkansas (SECT) -- 7

2/23/13 -- Alabama - 7

11/12/13 - UMass - 7

1/15/14 - Ole Miss -- 7

The junior scored only one bucket against Butler in the third-place game of the Old Spice Classic (12/1), but it was the most important of the LSU season to date as he made a three-point-er from up top with 4.4 seconds left in regulation to tie the game and force overtime in which LSU eventually won, 70-68.

Hickey came up big in LSU's win at Texas Tech (12/18) with 16 points, 4 assists, 2 steals and most importantly, NO turnovers. He made 6-of-8 shots, including the first perfect (with 4 made) night at the three-point line under Coach Jones at LSU hitting all four trey attempts.

Hickey is averaging 8.7 points per game, 3.5 assists per game (7th in the SEC) and 2.5 steals per game (3rd in the SEC). The junior had no turnovers in 33 minutes at Texas Tech (12/18), 18 versus UAB (12/21) and 22 minutes against McNeese (12/24) ... He posted just one turnover in 35 minutes against Rhode Island and had two in the SEC opener against UT (1/7) with no turnovers in 30 minutes in the South Carolina game (1/11) and one to go with the seven assists at Ole Miss (1/15).

Hickey's big game was the 20-points he totaled against Memphis (11/29), his fifth game of 20 points or more in his career. He had 7 steals against Southeastern (11/22), one off his career high.

Hickey in three years has 191 steals and is tied for seventh all-time at LSU in career steals ... He will need three to get into a tie for sixth (see page 11 for complete chart).

Hickey Passed His Coach on All-Time Assist List At LSU

The McNeese game on Dec. 28 was the game the student, Anthony Hickey, passed his teacher, LSU Coach Johnny Jones, on the school's all-time assist chart.

Hickey was tied with Jones for 11th spot on LSU's all-time assist list with 271 entering the game, but right before the first half, Hickey moved ahead in his 73rd career game ... Jones had 271 over his 1980-84 career in Baton Rouge ... Jones played in 121 games.

Hickey is now at 286 career assists, still holding 11th place.

Now Stringer Has Passed Coach Jones

Senior Andre Stringer in 106 games moved past Coach Jones as well in career assists. At Ole Miss, Stringer had three assists and now has 273, right behind Hickey in 12th place.

Hickey And Stringer Are 1-2 In League Assist-To-Turnover Ratio

Over his career Anthony Hickey has been known for his ability to have a positive assist-to-turnover ratio:

LSU SIGNING CLASS

LSU men's basketball Coach Johnny Jones and his coaching staff again showed their ability to land top-notch talent adding four players to the LSU basketball family for the 2014-15 season.

Three came on the first day that NLI papers could be signed in the November early signing period on Nov. 13 and the fourth just hours before the end of the period on Nov. 20.

Signing on Nov. 13 were top center Elbert Robinson III of Garland, Texas, who attends Lakeview Centennial High School; guard Jalyn Patterson, of Alpharetta, Ga., who attends Montverde Academy in Montverde, Fla., and, from Louisiana, forward Aaron Epps of Tioga High School who is from Ball. Signing on Nov. 20 was Odessa College guard Josh Gray

Information on the recruits:

ELBERT ROBINSON III -- Four-star recruit Robinson stands at 7-0, 322 pounds. Rivals and ESPN both have Robinson ranked as the fifth best center in the country and he is also ranked around 50 in the country overall. The center averaged 12.0 points and 10.0 rebounds per game as a sophomore and upped those averages to 14.0 points and 12.5 rebounds as a junior. He spent the summer playing for the Dallas Seawolves Elite AAU team. He also attended the NBA Top 100 camp in June and the LeBron James Skills Academy in July.

JALYN PATTERSON -- Patterson, at 5-11, hit the game-winning 3-pointer last April when Montverde beat Tyler Ennis and St. Benedict's Prep in the ESPN National High School Invitational Final. He also over the summer played point guard with the Atlanta Celtics. Patterson is also listed as a 3-star recruit by the web sites.

AARON EPPS -- Epps, 6-9, was an honorable mention selection for the Class 4A All-State team after averaging 18 points and 12 rebounds last season for Tioga. He also played for the Jackson Tigers, an elite AAU program on the NIKE Elite Youth Basketball League circuit and was rated by at least two of the recruiting web sites as a 3-star prospect. Epps is also a standout track athlete, finishing second at the state track meet in the high jump by clearing 6-6.

JOSH GRAY -- The 6-1 point guard is from Lake Charles, La., and prepped at Washington-Marion in Lake Charles before finishing his high school career in Houston. Gray transferred to Odessa for the 2013-14 season from Texas Tech where he played his freshman season, averaging 9.6 points a game, 3.3 assists, 2.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals a contest. He was selected to the Big 12 All-Freshman team.

Freshman season (2012) – 125 assists, 63 turnovers
Sophomore season (2013) – 109 assists, 51 turnovers
Junior season (2014) – 52 assists, 15 turnovers

Hickey has some competition when it comes to assists and turnovers and it's his own teammate, senior Andre Stringer. Stringer has also had positive assist-turnover numbers each year of his career but nowhere near Hickey until this season:

Freshman season (2011) – 85 assists, 82 turnovers
Sophomore season (2012) – 76 assists, 49 turnovers
Junior season (2013) – 65 assists, 54 turnovers
Senior season (2014) – 47 assists, 19 turnovers

That puts them 1-2 in the SEC in Assist-To-Turnover Ratio ... Hickey is at 3.5 ratio in first; Stringer is in second at 2.5 ... Stringer has had 17 assists and six turnovers in the last five games combined, while Hickey posted 15 assists and four turnovers in those same five games.

Stringer Makes Going Over 1,000 Career Points Look Easy; After Big Ole Miss Game, One Shy Of 200 Career Treys

The senior needed 36 points at the beginning of the season to get 1,000 career points, but Andre Stringer took care of it fairly easily against Northwestern State (11/16), as a layup with just over seven minutes left in the second half put him at 1,001 points.

Against Ole Miss, Stringer was one off his career high for treys, hitting five in a career high 23 point night, his third 20 point game of the season and the seventh of his career. Stringer is now 7-of-13 from the arc in the three league games:

UT – 0-for-1
USC – 2-for-4
OM – 5-for-8

For the season, Stringer is 31-of-79 or 39.2 percent. With his five treys, Stringer is now one 3-pointer away from the elusive 200 makes club at LSU:

1. Darrel Mitchell	2002-06	258
2. Torris Bright	2000-03	237
3. Andre Stringer	active	199

He was the first player since Tasmin Mitchell (who completed his career in 2010) to post 1,000 points and the 39th player in LSU history to reach four figures. Among other things, Stringer is trying to be the first player since Mitchell to average double figures in all four full seasons of play.

Stringer now is at 1,146 points, 30th on LSU's all-time scoring list (who's ahead in box on page 11 of notes).

Coleman Continues To Work Hard

Whether starting or playing as the sixth man as he was for the majority of his LSU career, Shavon Coleman has had important moments that helped the Tigers. This year one of those came in the Old Spice Classic when he came off the bench to score 12 points in LSU's overtime win over Butler.

Coleman had his sixth double figure game of the season at Ole Miss (1/15) when he made two treys and had a team co-high 7 rebounds en route to 15 points, the ninth highest scoring game of his career.

Coleman is averaging 20.1 minutes per game, 8.6 points per game and 3.7 rebounds. He has made 16 treys and has helped at the line, hitting 23-of-32.

His best game was 16 points versus McNeese State (12/28) in 13 minutes.

Morgan Also A Player

Malik Morgan, following his mother, former LSU volleyball player Detra Brown, on the court of the Maravich Center, also was a big factor in the Butler win with 12 points off the bench for the Dec. 1 overtime win.

Morgan has 17 career starts and is averaging 16.9 minutes per game this year, posting 4.8 points per game and 3.4 rebounds. He has four career games scoring in double figures ... In his start against South Carolina; he posted 8 points, 6 rebounds, 4 assists, 2 blocks and 2 steals in 33 minutes.

Jarell Martin

The decision to make a change in the starting lineup has worked well for the freshman as LSU continues to work him in to both the three and four positions ... But coming off the bench when needed at South Carolina (1/11) was a relaxed, confident Martin who made 5-of-6 field goals, including a trey, and 7-of-8 free throws to score his career high of 18 points in 21 minutes. Martin also had six rebounds, one block and five steals.

Martin then followed off the bench in the Ole Miss game (1/15) to play 28 minutes scoring 14 points with 7 rebounds. It marked the second time this season Martin has posted back-to-back double figure games.

Martin has returned from the sprained ankle in the opening half-minute of the first game and he has started 10 games ... In all, he missed the remainder of the first game and the next two before getting back on the court. Through it all with each game you can see the McDonald's All-America get his feet back and begin to make the moves that earned him national prep accolades.

Against McNeese (12/28), Martin recorded his first collegiate double double with 14 points and 14 rebounds. Martin played 26 minutes, hitting 4-of-10 field goals with two three-pointers and a perfect 4-of-4 at the stripe. With his 12 against UAB (12/21), it marked the first time this season he scored in double figures in back-to-back games.

Martin had 15 against Saint Joseph's in the Old Spice Classic (11/28), hitting 4-of-5 field goals, including 2 treys and 5-of-5 at the free throw line. Versus Butler (12/1), Martin had 12 points and 7 boards.

Over the last five games, Martin is averaging 11.8 points per game (second on the team) and 24 minutes with 5.6 rebounds and 9 steals.

John Odo

The junior college transfer played 21 valuable minutes for LSU in the Texas Tech win (12/18), scoring 4 points with six rebounds and just one turnover. Odo is averaging 7.4 minutes per game, 1.3 points and 2.3 rebounds.

Tim Quarterman

Freshman Tim Quarterman came up big in the UAB (12/21) with a nine-point, nine-assist, no turnover game in the Tigers big win ... Quarterman started the first three games of the season and is averaging 12.8 minutes per game, 2.8 ppg, 1.7 rpg and 2.0 apg ... His 9 assists is tied for the second most in the Johnny Jones era and is also the second best since the start of the 2006-07 season.

Quarterman is following the LSU tradition with a good assist-to-turnover number of 30 assists and 18 turnovers for the season.

Close Wins And Comebacks Galore

The Butler, Texas Tech, South Carolina, Rhode Island, UMass games go under the category of the close win or loss -- a 2-point overtime decision to close out the OSC versus Butler, the 2-point win against Texas Tech, a 3-point decision over South Carolina, the 4-point loss to Rhode Island and the opening 2 point loss at UMass.

Two of the hallmarks of the 2012-13 season, the first under Johnny Jones, were the comebacks, and the close wins.

LSU had eight wins in 2012-13 by five points or less, including wins against SEC teams by 5 (twice), 4, 3 (twice) and twice by 1 ... Overall, including the two-point wins over Butler and Texas Tech, and the latest 3-point SEC win at South Carolina, LSU is 11-6 in the Jones era decided by 5 points or less (3-2 this year).

LSU had three games in the 2013 season in which it overcame a double digit lead to get the win:

Vs. Seton Hall (11/29), down 16, LSU wins 72-67 -- The comeback from 16 down, 48-32, with 16:39 to play actually started innocently when Coach Jones in a time out diagrammed a press that would allow LSU to play helter skelter in the back court ... With the score 52-39, LSU would score 13 straight points to tie the game at 52-52 with 8:55 left ... Seton Hall would take the lead twice more, 57-52 and 64-63 (3:43 to play), but a Shavon Coleman jumper and 5-of-6 at the FT line gave LSU a six-point lead in the final 19 seconds.

Vs. Texas A&M (1/23), down 14, LSU wins 54-50 - LSU was down 19-5 and 21-7 (9:48) to go in the half before LSU rallied to within one, 28-27, on a 20-7 run at the half.

At Mississippi State (2/16), down 17, LSU wins, 69-68 - LSU was down 17 with 3:20 in the first half before LSU rallied to win by one. LSU was behind, 36-19, with 3:20 to go in the first half (It should be noted LSU was still down 16 with 59 seconds to go in the half.) ... Anthony Hickey would score LSU's final seven points - a three with 49 seconds left to cut State's lead to 66-65; a jumper with 20 seconds left that gave LSU a brief 67-66 lead and then the final floater in the lane that would be the game winner at 69-68.

This season, the biggest deficit LSU has overcome to get the win was eight points, against Butler on Dec. 1 when LSU trailed by eight with 14:19 left in the first half.

Season 43 At The PMAC

It was the 1971-72 season that the first game was played in the then LSU Assembly Center, opening the building on Jan. 3, 1972 against Vanderbilt, an 80-73 loss. The Tigers got their first win in the building on Jan. 6, 1972 against Georgetown, 90-71.

LSU into its 43rd year of play is 492-173 (74.0%) ... The Rhode Island loss was the first in a non-conference home game under Jones, stopping a 13-game win streak.

In SEC play, LSU is 226-134 (62.9%) in the history of the Maravich Center. LSU has won six games each of the last two years (6-2 in 2012) and 6-3 in 2013).

Johnny Jones as a player was 47-10 in the building and in his 13 years on the LSU bench, the Tigers won 153 games at the PMAC.

LSU finished 14-3 last year in the building ... The Tigers are 6-1 this year.

The Home Court Tradition

This week the ESPN family of networks as it travels the country is saluting "My Home Courts" and some of the things that make each city and each venue interesting.

The Pete Maravich Assembly Center, which opened originally in January 1972 is in its 43rd year as the home of the Tigers. It also is the home venue for the Lady Tiger basketball team, the LSU women's gymnastics team and the LSU Volleyball team.

It has hosted a total of seven NCAA basketball events (men's and women's), including a memorable first and second round that changed the course of college basketball in 1986. The Tigers were allowed to play on their home floor, despite being an 11 seed, and defeated Purdue in double overtime and then Anthony Wilson came out of a scrum just before the buzzer to drop a short jumper to knock off Memphis. That would eventually send LSU to the regional round and the NCAA Final Four as at that time the lowest seed to make the Final Four.

The rule was changed shortly there after that teams could not play in a first and second round on their official home court.

Rudy Macklin, whose number is retired played in the building as part of the 1981 NCAA Final Four team.

LSU's three main venues of college basketball remain standing on the campus. At the top of the hill from the Maravich Center is the Huey Long Field House where the 1935 mythical national champions led by Sparky Wade held court. That is now the Cox Communications Center For Student-Athletes and the gym area is now a 1,000-seat auditorium-class room.

The John Parker Agricultural Coliseum was more known by LSU and SEC fans as the "Cow Palace" who packed the place to watch Bob Pettit and 1953 Tigers win the Southeastern Conference on the way to what would later in time be called the Final Four and of course, packed the building to the rafters when Coach Press Maravich brought his son Pete to play in Baton Rouge. That would lead finally to the construction of a new multi-purpose facility on campus. No longer would LSU have to automatically finish seasons on the road because of the February-March rodeo schedule.

The Maravich Center earned another distinction after Hurricane Katrina as the floor of the PMAC was turned into a giant triage unit that serviced the critically injured from the Gulf Coast in 2005. Many basketball players and other student-athletes volunteered for hours at a time to help with supplies, laundry and just being there to help as needed.

On The Road

The Tigers are now 2-2 at opponent's venues this season after the win at South Carolina to go with a December win at Texas Tech ... LSU's losses were a narrow 92-90 decision at UMass to open the season (11/12) and the Ole Miss defeat (1/15) ... LSU was 4-8 on the road last year, winning at UC-Irvine, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Texas A&M ... LSU has four road wins each of the last two seasons ... LSU's all-time road record is 413-617 (40.1%).

LSU Almost Even On The Neutral Court

All-time, LSU is 128-130 in games played on neutral courts after going 2-1 in the Old Spice Classic ... Last year, the Tigers were 1-1 on neutral courts in the first year of the Johnny Jones era, but 3-2 in 2011-12 ... One of LSU's best years was the Final Four year of 2006 when LSU was 6-3.
