★ The Commodores will close the regular season on Sunday when they host Arkansas on Senior Day at Memorial Gym. The Commodores and Razorbacks will square off at 2 PM CT with the game available on SEC Network+. Vanderbilt is coming off an 83-68 road loss on Thursday at No. 11 Missouri and is looking to snap its current five-game losing streak with a win against the Razorbacks.

★ Vanderbilt enters Sunday's finale after an 83-68 setback at No. 11 Missouri on Thursday. Cierra Walker and Rachel Bell led the offense with 17 and 16 points, respectively. Walker, who shot herself out of a shooting slump, was in double figures for the first time since scoring 13 points at Ole Miss on Feb. 1. Bell, who has been coming off the bench, was in double figures for the second consecutive game. Kayla Overbeck led the way on the glass with five rebounds.

★ Sunday's meeting will be the 33rd meeting between the Razorbacks and Commodores and the first meeting this season. Vanderbilt has the upper hand in the series, with a 24-8 series advantage with wins in seven of the last 10 meetings, including a dramatic finish in Nashville last season. The teams have played several close meetings with the last five meetings decided by a combined 14 points and the last four meetings being decided by a single possession.

★ The Commodores will celebrate its 2018 senior class with a postgame ceremony on Sunday honoring seniors Rachel Bell, Myka Dancy and Christa Reed. This year's senior class features two 1,000-point scorers in Rachel Bell and Christa Reed who both reached the mark this season, while Myka is a three-year walk-on. This season when Bell and Reed reached the 1,000-point mark, they became the first pair of teammates to reach the mark since 2015-16.

★ Entering Sunday's game the Commodores are the No. 13 seed for next week's SEC Tournament in Nashville. Vanderbilt enters Sunday's game with a 2-13 SEC record and a game behind Arkansas. Should Vanderbilt win Sunday, they will hold a tiebreaker with Arkansas and could move up to the No. 12 seed. If the Commodores are the No. 12 or No. 13 seed they will open tournament action on Wednesday at 11 am, likely against the Razorbacks.

MEDIA SERVICES

CREDENTIALS

The Vanderbilt Athletic Communications office issues season media credentials to authorized full-time or specified representatives of media outlets who cover Vanderbilt basketball on a regular basis. Single-game credentials also will be available for media who cover the team less frequently, should space allow. Please e-mail credential requests to the attention of women's basketball contact, Jessica Poole. Vanderbilt Communications reserves the right to confirm employment by a media outlet. Season credentials are issued jointly for men's and women's basketball.

Credentials are available for pick-up at Media Will Call located near the playing floor at Memorial Gymnasium. Those media wishing to access Media Will Call should enter the service tunnel located at the end of Lot 71 behind the outfield wall of Vanderbilt's Hawkins Field baseball stadium. Proceed through the tunnel until you arrive at the Media Will Call table. If enough advance notice is given, credentials can be mailed or sent via next-day carrier at the expense of the media organization making the request.

INTERVIEW POLICY

All interview requests — coaches and players — MUST be coordinated through the Vanderbilt Communications office. During the week, head coach Stephanie White will generally be available for interview after practice Monday-Friday unless arranged otherwise. Please email or text your player requests to Jessica Poole by 5 p.m. of the day prior to interviews. There will be no gameday player interviews until after the game. Head coach Stephanie White will be available on gameday (if requested) after the teams shootaround.

PRACTICE POLICY

Vanderbilt student-athletes and coaches are available for interviews prior to or after practices on designated days. Contact Jessica Poole if you wish to set up interviews or attend practice.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEPHANIE WHITE:

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

Stephanie White
Vanderbilt Head Coach

"Above all else, academics, research, scholarship, and service define the Vanderbilt experience, yet we also compete at the highest levels in athletics. Coach White's values align perfectly with those in our university community. I welcome Stephanie to Vanderbilt and look forward to working with her as she leads our women's basketball program to fulfill our goals and highest potential."

Nicholas S. Zeppos
Vanderbilt Chancellor

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career. She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

David Williams
Vanderbilt Athletics Director

"Even though this is Stephanie's first collegiate head coaching job, her experience in the professional ranks are enormously valuable. I expect great success from her as she establishes her culture and her system."

Lin Dunn
Former Indiana Fever Head Coach
Kentucky Assistant

Stephanie White enters her second season at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in 2017-18. White was named the head coach of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in May of 2016, becoming just the fifth all-time head coach in the history of the Vanderbilt program.

When she arrived in Nashville, White inherited a young Vanderbilt team that featured only two seniors and relied heavily on five freshmen. White guided the Commodores to a 14-16 overall record in her first season with the team, including a 4-12 mark in the SEC during the 2016-17 campaign.

White's inaugural season on West End featured plenty of highlights, and was capped by a late-season surge that saw the Commodores win three of their final five games of the regular season. Other highlights included:

* The Commodores were ranked among the nation's top-5 in 3-point percentage throughout the season, and finished the season ranked No. 6 after shooting 38.6 for the year. Vanderbilt also led the SEC in 3-pointers per game (7.1).

* White guided Vanderbilt to 10 wins in its first 11 games during the first six weeks of the season. The hot start included a nine-game winning streak that spanned from Nov. 16 to Dec. 18. The winning streak was highlighted by an impressive victory over Duke on Nov. 20, along with quality wins over Robert Morris, Drexel and Tulane.

* At season's end, a pair of Vanderbilt freshmen -- Kayla Overbeck and Erin Whalen -- were named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team, as voted upon by the conference's coaches.

Having enjoyed success at virtually every level of basketball as a player and coach, White arrived at Vanderbilt after spending two seasons as the head coach of the WNBA's Indiana Fever. She took the Fever to the playoffs in each of her two seasons, including a trip to the WNBA finals in 2015.

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said at her introductory press conference. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

White -- who played five seasons in the WNBA after a decorated playing career at Purdue -- was named head coach of the Fever in September 2014. In 2015, she guided the Fever to the WNBA finals, becoming the first rookie coach in league history to lead a team to the finals. As a collegiate player, White enjoyed a highly successful career at Purdue, where she earned national Player of the Year honors after helping lead the Boilermakers to the 1999 NCAA championship as a senior. That season, she also received the Wade Trophy (given to the nation's top female player) and was named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year.

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career," Vanderbilt athletic director David Williams said. "She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

White averaged double-figure scoring in all four seasons of her college career, including 20.2 points per game as a senior, and amassed 2,182 points for her career. White was inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame on April 21, 2006.

She was also a star in the classroom at Purdue. She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was an Academic All-American.

White was an assistant coach with the Chicago Sky from 2007-2010, then joined the Fever staff as an assistant in 2011. She was promoted to associate head coach in 2014 before being named head coach after Lin Dunn's retirement. While coaching in the WNBA, White served as a college basketball analyst for ESPN and the Big Ten Network. She also covered the NBA's Indiana Pacers for FOX Sports Indiana.

Prior to coaching in the WNBA, White coached in the college ranks, serving as an assistant at Toledo (2005-07), Kansas State (2004-05) and Ball State (2003-04).

Before beginning her coaching career, White enjoyed a productive five-year WNBA career, spending one season with the Charlotte Sting and four with the Indiana Fever, before retiring in 2004.

At the completion of her four seasons with the Fever, she ranked third in games played (112) and 3-pointers (92), and fourth in scoring (684). She was named to the Fever's All-Decade Team that was announced in 2009.

White and her wife, Michelle, have three young boys: Landon, and twins, Aiden & Avery.

Setting the Scene

-Vanderbilt dropped an 83-68 road contest at Missouri on Thursday. Cierra Walker led the way with a team-best 17 points and was 5-of-8 from long range. Rachel Bell and Chelsie Hall were also in double figures with 16 and 10 points, respectively. Scouting Report

-Arkansas enters Sunday's game with a 10-16, 3-12 SEC record after falling to No. 17 Texas A&M, 104-60 on Thursday for its fifth consecutive loss. Malica Monk leads the Razorback offense with 15.9 points per game and is joined in double figures by teammates, Devin Cosper and Jailyn Mason, who are averaging 14.2 and 10.9 points per game, respectively. Kiara Williams leads the way on the glass with 6.9 rebounds per game.

With A Win

-Vanderbilt will pick up its third SEC win
-Vanderbilt will move to 25-8 in the all-time series and record its fifth win in the last seven meetings.

Walker Puts Up Numbers vs. Tigers

Sophomore Cierra Walker found her shot against Missouri on Thursday night. Walker entered the Missouri game averaging just 5.2 points per game over the last five games and with just five three-pointers in that span. Flash forward to the Missouri game, Walker drained five triples, one shy of her career high and scored 17 points for her first game in double figures since scoring 13 in a road win at Ole Miss on Feb. 1.

Bell Shows up BIG off the Bench at Missouri

Senior Rachel Bell led the Commodore bench against the No. 11 Tigers. Bell had 16 points in 29 minutes for her second consecutive game in double figures. Bell is averaging 10.9 points per game and has 15 games in double figure this season.

Overbeck Efficient Down the Stretch

Kayla Overbeck has proven to be a master of efficiency and over the last 10 games is shooting .614 (43-of-70) from the field and averaging 10.8 points per game. Overbeck has reached double figures in six of the last eight games and is averaging 9.1 points per game on the year. She is shooting .591 (97-of-164) from the floor on the year to rank No. 5 in the SEC. The California native averaged just 7.8 points per game in non-conference action.

-In addition to shooting at a blistering pace, Overbeck is putting up numbers. She's reached double figures in six of the last seven games, including six consecutive games, which matched the longest stretch for a Commodore this season. In the six game stretch, she recorded a new career-high with 21 points which was the first 20-point outing of her career.

Reed Closing Strong

Christa Reed has turned things up offensively over the last 10 contests. Over the last 10 games, Reed is averaging a team-best 12.7 points per game and is shooting .479 (44-of-89) from the field. She is also perfect from the free throw line (20-of-20) in that span. Reed's shooting .929 from the free throw line on the year but is just shy of the minimum attempts per game to be ranked (two attempts/game) in the SEC and nationally, but if she were ranked she would lead the SEC and be the only player shooting better than 90 percent from the charity stripe.

Reed Lethal from the Stripe

Reed has been extremely impressive from the charity stripe this season. She is shooting .929 from the line, a number that leads the SEC and makes her the only SEC player shooting better than 90 percent from the foul line but Reed doesn't show up in the SEC rankings because she is just shy of the SEC minimum in attempts (two attempts/game). Reed has made each of her last 20 foul shots, although she hasn't been to the line in each of the last three games.

Chelsie Hall Doing Chelsie Hall Things ...

-Freshman Chelsie Hall has put together an impressive freshman campaign thus far. The rookie from Boca Raton, Fla. is leading the Commodores in scoring with 12.5 points per game and has started every game this season.

Hall's 12.5 points per game make her the No. 2 SEC freshman scorer, trailing just Texas A&M's Chennedy Carter, and ranks her No. 23 overall in the SEC. In Vanderbilt's six wins, Hall has reached double figures in five of those contests and is averaging 13.3 points in Commodore victories.

Overbeck and Reed, the X-Factors in Wins

Sophomore Kayla Overbeck is shooting .618 (21-of-34) in Vanderbilt wins and averages 10.8 points per game in Commodore victories. Overbeck has 14 games in double figures this season and in Vanderbilt's six wins, Overbeck has been in double figures in four of them. Christa Reed is also key in Vanderbilt victories. Reed is averaging 12.7 points per game in Vanderbilt wins and is shooting .550 (11-of-20) from long range in victories.

Charity Stripe Is Money for the Commodores

Vanderbilt has six players shooting at least 70 percent or better from the stripe led by Erin Whalen who is a perfect 19-of-19 from the line this year while Christa Reed who is shooting .929 percent and hasn't missed a free throw in the last eight games. Reed is the only SEC player shooting over 90 percent from the charity stripe despite not meeting attempts per game minimums to be ranked.

Vanderbilt's Sharpshooters

Cierra Walker has been lethal from long range since the start of SEC play. Walker is shooting .486 percent (36-of-74) from long range against SEC foes and is averaging 1.8 3-PT field goals over the last 10 contests. Erin Whalen has also got a hot hand from long range, she's shooting .351 on the season from deep and the number increases to .386 percent in SEC play. As a team, the Commodores are shooting .385 percent from long range on the season and .383 in SEC play. The Dores .385 percentage No. 3 in the SEC. The Commodores have been ranked in the top 10 of the nation in 3-pt FG percentage in three of the last five seasons including finishing the year No. 3 in 2013-14.

Strong Start Against Cardinals

Vanderbilt had one of its best starts of the season against Louisville. The Commodores led 24-20 after one period of play. The Dores 24 points are the most scored in the first period this season and marked the first time Vanderbilt has led after one period of play this season. The Dores are averaging 16.2 points per quarter.

Dores are "Youthful"

Of the 14 players on the Vanderbilt roster 10 are underclassmen meaning that the Commodore roster is 71.4 percent underclassmen. The Dores added four true freshmen this season and had a five-member freshman class last year while welcoming BC transfer and redshirt sophomore Mariella Fasoula.

Bell Tough Against Syracuse In Paradise Jam

Senior Rachel Bell was on fire against Syracuse in the second game of the Paradise Jam. The Tennessee native tied her career best with 31 points against the Cuse and went 7-of-10 from long range to set a new career best and tie the Paradise Jam single-game three-point record. Bell's 31 points are the most points and individual scored in a single game over the three-day tournament. Bell averaged 18.0 points per game at the Paradise Jam.

Bell Shoots Her Way into Vandy Record Books

Bell's seven triples against Syracuse will earn her a spot in the Vanderbilt record books as her seven long-range bombs tie her for the second-most triples in a single-game. She joins Christina Foggie, Caroline Williams, Jillian Danker and Julie Powell as Dores to hit seven in a game. For her career, Bell is shooting .369 percent from long range.

Dores Were Road Strong in November

In the first month of the season, Vanderbilt has played six of its eight games on the road in a true or neutral site fashion. Vanderbilt sports a 2-4 road record to date. Through the first month of the season the Commodores traveled 2,115.3 miles for six road games. Vanderbilt is looking to right its road woes this season. Last season, the Commodores posted a 3-10 record away from Nashville and were 0-8 on the road in the SEC. Vanderbilt already has two road wins in the bag this season with wins at George Washington and at Saint Louis.

Counting up the November Miles ...

game. The group also accounted for 48 percent of the Commodores scoring. This group gained valuable experience as freshman which will be beneficial in 2017-18.

Shooters Touch

Last year, the Commodores were ranked among the nation's best in three-point field goal percentage. Vanderbilt closed the season ranked No. 6 nationally, shooting at a .386 clip from long range while leading the SEC in triples per game with 7.1 per game. The team returns it's top two three-point threats in Kaleigh Clemons-Green (.449) and Christa Reed (.446).

Hitting the Glass

The Commodores will have the tall task of replacing Marqu'e's Webb's 9.1 rebounds per game but they won't be short on help. Vanderbilt returns the SEC's top freshman rebounder from last year in sophomore Kayla Overbeck who averaged 7.2 rebounds per game as a rookie. Additionally, the rebounding will be helped by Purdue graduate transfer Bree Horrocks who checks in at 6-5 as well as freshman Paige Warren who is 6-4.

Plenty of TV Time on Deck for Commodores

Vanderbilt's Big 12/SEC Challenge matchup with Iowa State on Dec. 2 will be televised on SEC Network and is the first of eight games set to air on the SEC's flagship. The Commodores will have four home games televised on the SEC Network: Iowa State (Dec. 2). Kentucky (Jan. 15), Texas A&M (Jan. 28) and Mississippi State (Feb. 15). Road games televised on the SEC Network include: at LSU (Dec. 31), at Tennessee (Jan. 7), at Auburn (Feb. 12), at Florida (Feb. 18). The home game with Tennessee on Feb. 4 will air on ESPNU.

Summer International Experience

This summer Kayla Overbeck spent some time with USA Basketball's Women's U19 team that competed for World Cup in July, winning a silver medal while Mariella Fasoula played on the Greek national team that advanced to the semifinals of the FIBA European Championships and played on Greece's U20 FIBAS team at the FIBA Under 20 European Championships.

25th Anniversary of 1993 Final Four Team

This season marks the 25th Anniversary of the 1993 Vanderbilt team that went to the NCAA Final Four. Vanderbilt, under the direction of Jim Foster, reached the Final Four for the first and only time in program history and were a No. 1 seed out of the SEC. Vanderbilt defeated Cal, Stephen F. Austin and Louisiana Tech en route to the Final Four in Atlanta. They were defeated by eventual national champion, Texas Tech. The Commodores will commemorate this team throughout the season. The Commodores will celebrate that team the weekend of Feb. 3-4 when they take on Tennessee in Memorial Gym.

What People Are Saying About VanderbiltOn the development of the program ...

"They are building. They are what we were 10 years ago. In the next year or two they will be hard to deal with because they will be seasoned in the league."

-Dawn Staley

South Carolina Head Coach

On the Commodores Youth ...

The players that she has right now, they're getting it — they're just really young. It's hard to win basketball games with a young team. We're experiencing that a little bit now, because we have to play a lot of young players. But they grow up. They grow up. This team, this Vanderbilt team, in the next year or two, they're going to be hard to deal with, because they'll be seasoned in this league. And the schedule that they play is going to help them in the long run. It's just hard to see it right now."

-Dawn Staley

South Carolina Head Coach

On Chelsie Hall ...

"I'll be honest, she burned us in Knoxville and she's gotten better. She's been a great leader for (Vandy), too. That's what you want, regardless if she's a freshman or not. She's put this team on her shoulders and she's handled it really well."

-Holly Warlick

Tennessee Head Coach

On Vanderbilt ...

"I truly believe their talent is as good as five other teams in this league. What they need to do is get the chemistry piece together because they have the talent. Freshman Chelsie Hall is one of the best freshman in this league and if Chennedy Carter isn't here, she may be SEC Freshman of the Year. She's pretty special."

-Gary Blair

Texas A&M Head Coach
