- The 2011-12 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year, Young became the third Gator to win the award. Young currently holds a 3.38 GPA in telecommunications.

WILL YEGUETE

- The Gators' hustle guy who does the little things -- chasing down rebounds, playing at the top of the Florida press, defending any position -- returned vs. Alabama after missing the previous six games with a knee injury and leaving the Feb. 5 game at Arkansas after just one minute.
- The Gators are 19-2 with Yeguete and, including that Arkansas game, 4-3 without him.

- Had a memorable defensive week for the Gators at Texas A&M and at home vs. Missouri. First spearheaded the Gators' efforts in holding Texas A&M's Elston Turner to four points the game after Turner netted a 40-point performance. Wilbekin followed that up by helping limit preseason SEC Player of the Year Phil Pressey to two points and 10 turnovers.
- In addition to his outstanding defensive effort, Wilbekin also earned his first career double-double against Missouri with 13 points and 10 assists.
- Scored a team-best 17 points in the win at Georgia, including 10 points in the first nine minutes of the game, helping the Gators weather a spirited first half from the Bulldogs.

CASEY PRATHER

- Scored a season-high 12 points in back-to-back games (Mississippi State, Kentucky), marking the first consecutive games with double figures in his career. He then repeated the feat scoring 10 in consecutive games at Tennessee and vs. Alabama.
- Set and then tied a career high with nine rebounds Feb. 23 vs. Arkansas and March 2 vs. Alabama.

"Scottie Wilbekin plays like a 6-foot-2 Doberman who's convinced his opponent has a T-bone under his jersey." -David Whitley, The Sporting News

- Prather took advantage of the opportunity to start a pair of games earlier this season, scoring 10 points and leading the team with seven boards and three steals vs. Georgia. He then tallied six points and two rebounds at LSU before leaving the game late in the first half.
- Has 11 games with at least eight points so far this season. Entering the season, Prather had three such games in his career.

20 WINS AGAIN

- This season marks the 15th straight in which Florida has won 20 or more games, the longest such streak in the SEC and the fifth-longest in the nation (Kansas, 24; Duke, 17; Syracuse, Gonzaga, 16).
- Florida's streak of 20-win seasons under Donovan puts the Gator coach in elite company. According to ESPN Stats & Information, only eight coaches have compiled a 20-win streak reaching 14 years or more (Jim Boeheim has two such streaks), and only six coaches have done so at a single school.

Coach	School(s)	Streak (Years)
Dean Smith	North Carolina	27 (1971-97)
Lute Olson	Arizona	20 (1988-2007)
Mike Krzyzewski	Duke	17 (1997-present)
Tubby Smith	Tulsa, UGA, UK, Minnesota	17 (1994-2010)

Jim Boeheim	Syracuse	14 (1983-96)
Roy Williams	Kansas	14 (1990-2003)

SEC ELITE

- Billy Donovan is one of three coaches to win 400 games heading up an SEC bench and the fourth to win 300 at one school. He moved into third all-time in wins at an SEC school, picking up win No. 341 at Xavier on Dec. 31, 2010.

Coach	School(s)	Wins

Dale Brown	LSU	448
Billy Donovan	Florida	409
Harry Rabenhorst	LSU	340
C.M. Newton	Alabama/Vanderbilt	340
Tubby Smith	Georgia/Kentucky	308

DONOVAN THE DEAN OF SEC COACHES

- Donovan is in his 17th season as head coach at Florida and has the longest tenure of any head coach in the SEC.
- There have been 28 head coaching changes in the league since Donovan's arrival prior to the 1996-97 season. With all that he has accomplished, Donovan is still younger than five other SEC head coaches.

DONVAN COACHING TREE

- Six former assistant coaches under Billy Donovan currently hold Division I head coaching jobs: Anthony Grant (Alabama), Donnie Jones (UCF), Richard Pitino (FIU), Lewis Preston (Kennesaw State), Larry Shyatt (Wyoming) and Shaka Smart (VCU). In addition, former staff assistant Matt Brown is head coach at UMKC.
- Only three active coaches in the nation have larger coaching trees than Donovan: Herb Sendek, Arizona State (eight); Rick Pitino, Louisville (eight, including Donovan); and Mike Montgomery, California (seven).

THE GATORS AT HOME

- The Gators are 14-0 at the O'Connell Center in 2012-13. For Florida's SEC-opening win over Georgia, 3,200 students cheered on the Gators, the largest student crowd in seven years (Alabama, 2006). Against Arkansas, the Gators tied their sixth-largest crowd all-time with 12,609.
- Florida finished 14-2 at home in 2011-12, winning its first 13 games of 2011-12. UF won its final six home games in 2010-11 for 19 consecutive wins overall at the O'Connell Center, tied for the third-longest streak in school history.
- Florida is 107-6 vs. non-conference opponents in the O'Dome over the last 12 seasons and did not lose a home non-conference game over a stretch of five consecutive seasons (1999-2003).
- UF has won 13 or more home games in 13 of the last 14 seasons, including an 18-2 mark in 2008-09, a 13-4 mark in 2009-10 and a 14-3 record last season.
- UF has home win streaks of 24, 20, 19, 17 (twice), 14, 13, 12, and 11 under Billy Donovan.
- The two largest crowds in UF history came during the 2010-11 season (12,633 in a win over Kentucky, then 12,630 a week later in a win over Tennessee).
- A record 226,815 fans passed through the turnstiles in 2007-08. ESPN Gameday also made its second visit to the O'Dome in 2007-08 to witness the Gators' thrilling overtime win over Kentucky.
- The Gators averaged a school record 11,826 fans in 2006-07 (a record by nearly 800 fans per game).
- Daktronics installed four 12' x 16', video boards (10 mm resolution) in the O'Connell Center for the 2006-07 basketball regular-season, at a cost of $2.5 million. The project was unveiled on Dec. 20, 2006.
- A $10 million state-of-the-art private basketball practice facility opened in October 2001. The two-story 47,505 square foot facility includes multiple practice gyms, a training room, weight room, locker room, coaches' offices, conference rooms, equipment room, team lounge area and film/video rooms with theatre style seating.
- During the summer of 2011, the Stephen C. O'Connell Center underwent a reconfiguration of the lower-level bleachers, a move that replaced the original, 31-year-old support structure and undercarriage and the 13-year-old countoured blue seats. The project improves patron flow and safety, while reducing maintenance costs and preserving the O'Dome's unique environment.

HEAD COACH BILLY DONOVAN

For those who have followed Billy Donovan's career it should come as no surprise that he has made Florida basketball a winner.

Now in his 17th year at Florida, Donovan has set a school record with 15 consecutive post-season appearances, including 12 NCAA Tournament bids in those 15 years. UF made the school's first-ever appearance in the National Championship game in 2000 before winning back-to-back national titles in 2006 and 2007.

Donovan is already the winningest NCAA Tournament coach in UF history, and his 25 NCAA Tournament wins more than triple the total of seven in school history before his arrival. He has guided the Gators to three Final Fours and two in a row in 2006 and 2007, a first in Gator history.

After the school had just one Southeastern Conference Championship in 77 seasons prior to his arrival, Donovan has tallied four SEC titles (2000, 2001, 2007 and 2011). Florida and Kentucky are the only two SEC schools to capture consecutive league crowns in the past 31 years. He led the Gators to their first SEC Tournament title in 2005 and then again in 2006 and in 2007.

Florida's 261 wins during the 10 seasons from 2000-09 was the best decade in school history and the fifth-highest total in the nation in that time. After only being ranked in the national polls 42 times prior to Donovan's arrival, UF had been ranked a school-record 94 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press poll and 99 weeks by the ESPN/USA Today poll before falling out on Feb. 16, 2004.

His winning percentage at UF (see below) is the best among all Gator coaches who spent more than one season at UF and he reached the 100 and 200 victory marks at UF quicker than any coach in school history, needing just 154 games to reach the century plateau and 292 games to reach 200 wins.

Donovan became the school's all-time leader in wins on Dec. 20, 2006. He ranks third in SEC history in wins as an SEC coach. He picked up his 400th career win (including two years at Marshall) with Florida's defeat of Stetson in Orlando on Nov. 28, 2011.

Donovan's teams have knocked off 59 ranked opponents during his tenure. Donovan's squads have led the SEC in a statistical category 51 times, including 38 offensive categories. Twenty different players have captured All-SEC honors and 16 players have earned SEC All-Freshman recognition.

Eight of Donovan's players have been first round draft picks in the NBA Draft, after the school boasted only two before his arrival. In the 2007 NBA Draft, Florida became the first school to ever have three players drafted in the Top 10, as Al Horford went third, Corey Brewer seventh and Joakim Noah ninth.

He has inked 16 McDonald's All-Americans after UF had just three prior to his arrival. Florida fans are taking notice, as attendance is up over 5,000 since Donovan's arrival.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT BILLY DONOVAN

"Billy Donovan is not a good coach. Rather, he is a Naismith Hall of Famer. He does a tremendous job."
-Jay Bilas via twitter (@JayBilas)

"Florida won national championships in 2006 and 2007, lost three NBA lottery picks, tumbled into the NIT the following two seasons, then returned to college basketball's elite. Most coaches dream of building an NCAA title contender just once during their careers. Donovan's done it twice, from scratch, in less than a decade."

-Jason King, ESPN.com
