KENTUCKY RETURNS TO ACTION AT VANDERBILT

Coming off back-to-back losses and an open date, the Kentucky football team hopes to bounce back on Saturday when it travels to Nashville to face Vanderbilt.

The Wildcats are vying to notch their fourth consecutive win against the Commodores, including their second consecutive in Nashville. Kentucky is the Southeastern Conference's leader in pass offense, averaging 273.9 yards per game through the air behind senior signal-caller André Woodson, who is averaging a league-best 270.1 yards per game.

The Wildcats are seeking to post their seventh win of the season in back-to-back years for the first time since 1976-77. Kentucky is bowl-eligible in consecutive years for the first time since the 1998-99 campaigns.

Vanderbilt is coming off a 49-22 loss at Florida last Saturday in Gainesville, Fla., but has won two of its last three games, including an upset victory on the road against South Carolina on Oct. 20. The Commodores need one win to become bowl-eligible for the first time since 1982.

QUICK NOTES

- Kentucky ranks 11th in the nation and is third in the SEC in scoring offense, averaging 38.9 points per game. UK has scored at least 40 points in six of nine games this season.
- Kentucky leads the SEC in passing offense (273.9) and ranks second in the SEC in total offense (450.1). Kentucky has charted at least 300 yards of total offense in 14 consecutive games and twice this season have gone over the 500-yard total-offense mark (vs. Florida and Florida Atlantic).
- Kentucky has passed for 200 yards or more in 15 straight games.
- Kentucky is No. 25 in the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) standings. This is the first season in school history that UK has been in the BCS standings.
- Kentucky is one of seven Southeastern Conference teams that are ranked in all four polls (AP, USA Today/Coaches, Harris Interactive, and BCS) joining LSU, Georgia, Florida, Auburn, Alabama, and Tennessee.
- Linebacker Wesley Woodyard leads the SEC and currently ranks 26th nationally in tackles, averaging 10.2 per game. He is the only SEC player to average double-figure tackles this season. He has recorded at least four tackles in 33 consecutive games, every game since the start of the 2005 season.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY

Senior tailback Rafael Little has made the most out of his opportunities to run with the football. His 5.36-yard career rushing average is UK's third-best number in school history. He also leads UK in career punt return average (16.0), ranks second in career all-purpose yardage (4,584) and fifth in career rushing yards (2,530). He has charted at least 100 yards rushing 11 times in his career, including four of the last six games.

LAST TIME VS. VANDERBILT

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson threw for 450 yards with four touchdowns, Keenan Burton had 171 receiving yards and two TDs, and tailback Rafael Little went over the 100-yard mark in both rushing and receiving as the Wildcats won their third consecutive Southeastern Conference game with a 38-26 win over Vanderbilt at Commonwealth Stadium.

Little, playing for the first time in more than a month after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery, proved to be a dual threat for the Wildcats finishing with 20 carries for 132 yards and catching eight passes for 114 yards. He gave the Cats the lead for good midway through the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run.

UK took a 10-7 advantage into the locker room at halftime after a 28-yard field goal by Lones Seiber got the Cats on the board and Burton caught a six-yard pass from Woodson late in the half. After intermission, UK went up 17-7 after wide receiver Steve Johnson caught his first career touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Woodson.

Vanderbilt, however, came back with two quick scores on the ground to close the third quarter with a 20-17 Commodore advantage. UK stormed back with three consecutive touchdowns to open the fourth quarter, including a pair from Woodson to receivers DeMoreo Ford and Burton, to seal the win. It was the second straight game that the Wildcats came from behind in the fourth quarter to win.

Kentucky compiled 597 yards of total offense - its most since racking up 620 against Georgia in 2000. Meanwhile, VU quarterback Chris Nickson accounted for 517 yards total offense and three touchdowns. Wide receiver Earl Bennett caught 11 passes for 220 yards and Marlon White caught six for 121.

The Kentucky defense came up with four turnovers, two fumbles and two interceptions.

It was UK's first three-game SEC win streak since 1999 and also made the Wildcats bowl eligible for the first time since '99.

BIG GAMES AGAINST VANDERBILT

1947- Quarterback/placekicker George Blanda led Kentucky to a 14-0 upset of 10th-ranked, undefeated Vanderbilt in Nashville. Blanda scored on a one-yard run in the first quarter, threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to George "Chink" Sengel in the second quarter, and completed the scoring with a pair of extra points.

1971 - With UK and Vanderbilt knotted at 7-7 and less than 50 seconds to play, Kentucky elected to punt facing a 4th-and-8 situation from its own 44. Walter Overton made a fair catch at the Commodore 30, giving Vandy a first down. After QB Steve Burger lost four yards on the first play, the Commodores elected not to use a timeout.

Then as time expired, Burger lofted a pass toward receiver Gary Chesley. The ball never got to Chesley as UK's Darryl Bishop picked off the aerial and raced 43 yards for the winning score, giving UK a 14-7 victory on the game's final play.

1999 - Kentucky clinched bowl eligibility for the second straight season with a 19-17 win over the Commodores in Nashville. Tied at the half, UK got the lead for good on a safety when the 'Dores were called for intentional grounding in the end zone. UK stretched the advan-

Commonwealth Stadium

On game day, Commonwealth Stadium usually becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- ☛ The Cats are in their 35th season at Commonwealth Stadium.
- ☛ UK is 5-2 at home this season. Earlier this season, UK completed a stadium-record streak of eight consecutive wins.
- ☛ The Cats went 6-1 at home last season, tying the 1976 team for the most wins at Commonwealth Stadium in a single season.
- ☛ Rich Brooks is 18-15 (.545) overall in five seasons (33 games) at Commonwealth Stadium.
- ☛ Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 220 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. And indeed, a 118-98-4 record and a .545 winning percentage is evidence that Commonwealth is a home field advantage for the Wildcats.
- ☛ Kentucky has ranked in the nation's top 25 in attendance every year but one since Commonwealth Stadium was expanded in 1999. This season, UK ranks 24th nationally with an average of 68,682.
- ☛ The crowd of 71,024 vs. Florida on Oct. 20 was the largest crowd in the 35-year history of Commonwealth Stadium. The previous stadium record was 71,022 for the 1999 Tennessee game.
- ☛ The playing surface is named C. M. Newton Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.
- ☛ Three of the top six attendances in school history have come this season, including the Florida game (1st, 71,024), LSU game (4th, 70,902), and Louisville game (6th, 70,857).

Facts and Figures on Commonwealth Stadium:

Seating Capacity: 67,606, including the Commonwealth Suites. With game workers, media, etc., total attendance can exceed 70,000.

Video Boards: Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, 19 x 34 feet on the west end zone (University Drive) and 16 x 28.5 feet on the east end zone (Nutter Field House).

Sound System: Coordinated by Mitsubishi as part of the video board project.

Scoreboards: Two, one in each end zone, constructed by Fairtron Scoreboards.

Game Day Experiences

The "Cat Walk": Fans are encouraged to greet the team when the Wildcats arrive for the "Cat Walk." The team buses will arrive at the Nutter Field House approximately two hours and 15 minutes before the game and the players will make the "Cat Walk" to their stadium entry point at Gate 1. Fans are encouraged to line up on the sidewalk and cheer the players as they enter the stadium.

A siren will be sounded while the team buses are on their way to the stadium. That's the fans' cue to proceed to the Cat Walk area to greet the team.

Wildcat Refuge: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the Wildcat Refuge, located outside of the southwest corner (outside Gate 9) of Commonwealth Stadium. There are five giant inflatable games that are available two hours before kickoff.

UK Marching Band Will Parade Around Stadium: The UK Marching Band will parade around the stadium, beginning approximately one hour prior to kickoff. The band parade will begin at and return to Gate 4.

2007 TEAM CAPTAINS

Permanent team captains for the 2007 Kentucky football team are quarterback André Woodson and linebacker Wesley Woodyard.

Two game captains will join the permanent captains each week. The game captains are usually chosen based on performance from the previous week's game.

2007 TEAM COUNCIL

The leadership council for the 2007 Kentucky football team has been elected by the Wildcats.

The council is usually comprised of seven players, each elected by his own position group. The first action of the new council was to ask that an eighth "at-large" member be added for the 2007 season, a request that Coach Brooks approved.

The role of the council is to represent the team on issues that need player input and to bring team concerns to the attention of the coaching staff if needed. This season marks the first year under Coach Brooks that every member is a senior. This year's council includes:

Defensive Line.....	J. D. Craigman
Linebackers.....	Wesley Woodyard
Defensive Backs.....	Roger Williams
Offensive Line	Jason Leger
Tight Ends, Specialists.....	Jacob Tamme
Wide Receivers	Keenan Burton
Quarterbacks/RBs	André Woodson
At-Large	Rafael Little

VANDERBILT/KENTUCKY TIES

Kentucky has nine players on the 2007 roster from the state of Tennessee, Stephen Ball (Brentwood), Trey Bowland (Knoxville), Daryl Faulkner (Memphis), J.J. Helton (Franklin), Jeremy Jarmon (Collierville), Kyrus Lanxter (Alcoa), Ricky Lumpkin (Clarksville), A.J. Nance (Knoxville), and Lones Seiber (Knoxville). Vanderbilt does not have any players on its 2007 roster from the state of Kentucky.

Historically, two of Kentucky's early coaches, John J. Tigert and S. A. Boles, were Vanderbilt graduates. Tigert coached UK to a 10-2-3 mark in 1915-16 and Boles had a 3-5-1 record in 1917.

2007 CAT TALES

KENTUCKY FOOTBALL STAYS IN TOP 25

After a bye-week and a 31-14 loss to Mississippi State on Oct. 27, Kentucky remains in the top 25 in the national polls. This is Kentucky's eighth consecutive week in at least one of the national polls, the longest streak in 30 years. Here is UK's standing in the various polls:

No. 24 in The Associated Press poll (receiving votes last week)

No. 22 in the USA Today/Coaches poll (No. 23 last week)

No. 23 in the Harris Interactive poll (No. 24 last week)

No. 25 in the BCS poll (unranked last week)

UK IN BCS POLL

The first Bowl Championship Series Poll of the season was released on Oct. 14 and Kentucky made its all-time BCS debut at No. 7. This week, the Cats are ranked 25th after a tough loss to Mississippi State and an open date.

The BCS poll is a mathematical formula that uses three components – the Harris Interactive poll, the USA Today Coaches poll, and an average of six computer rankings (Anderson & Hester, Richard Billingsley, Colley Matrix, Kenneth Massey, Jeff Sagarin, and Peter Wolfe).

The BCS poll is used to determine the two teams that play in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game, along with the Rose Bowl presented by Citi, Allstate Sugar Bowl, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and FedEx Orange Bowl.

WOODSON A SEMIFINALIST FOR O'BRIEN AWARD

André Woodson has been named a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award. Woodson is one of 15 semifinalists for the honor, which is sponsored by the Davey O'Brien Foundation of Fort Worth, Texas.

Woodson has completed 63.8 percent of his passes for 2,431 yards, 28 touchdowns, and only seven interceptions this year. He leads the Southeastern Conference with 270.1 passing yards per game. Earlier this season, he set an NCAA record with 325 consecutive passes without an interception. He has won three National Player of the Week honors this year, following victories over Louisville, Florida Atlantic, and LSU.

Woodson has led Kentucky to a 6-3 record. The Wildcats' win over Louisville was the first victory over a top-10 ranked opponent in 30 years and the triumph over LSU was the first over a No. 1-ranked opponent since 1964. During the season, UK has been ranked in the nation's top 10 for the first time since 1977.

BROOKS INDUCTED INTO UNIVERSITY OF OREGON ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

Kentucky Coach Rich Brooks, who rebuilt the University of Oregon football program, was inducted into the University's Athletics Hall of Fame during ceremonies this past weekend in Eugene, Ore.

Brooks took over a struggling program at Oregon in 1977 eventually built the team into a Pacific-10 Conference power. In 1989, the Ducks won the Independence Bowl, the school's first bowl trip in 26 years. In 1994, his final season at Oregon, Brooks guided his team to its first undisputed Pac 10 championship in 46 years and its first Rose Bowl appearance in 37 years.

Brooks was the first Oregon coach to take a team to four bowl games and also the first to go to post-season play in back-to-back seasons. He was named the National Coach of the Year for the '94 season and was Pac 10 Coach of the Year twice during his term there. He also laid the foundation for continued success. His successor, former Brooks assistant Mike Bellotti, has had a winning season in 11 of 12 years since Brooks' departure.

In addition to Brooks' term as head football coach, he also was the school's director of athletics from 1992-94. In honor of his many accomplishments at Oregon, the football stadium's playing surface was named Brooks Field in 1995.

Brooks was formally inducted to the Hall of Fame during a banquet Friday night and introduced at halftime of Saturday's Oregon-Arizona State game.

PHILLIPS, WOODSON GET NATIONAL HONORS

Offensive coordinator Joker Phillips and quarterback André Woodson received national honors following Kentucky's 43-37 triple-overtime win over then-No. 1 ranked LSU.

Phillips was named National Coordinator of the Week by Rivals.com and National Offensive Coordinator of the Week by the Master Coaches Survey. Kentucky scored 27 points and had 333 yards total offense in regulation play – at that time, the most given up this season by the stout LSU defense, and most points the Tigers had allowed in regulation since the 2005 SEC Championship Game. This is the second time that Phillips has won the honor from the Master Coaches Survey, also winning following the 2006 win over Georgia.

Woodson was named National Player of the Week by Rivals.com. He completed 21 of 38 passes for 250 yards and three touchdowns, including the game-winning seven-yard TD to wide receiver Steve Johnson in the third overtime. He also rushed three times for 16 yards, including a 12-yard TD run. This marks the fourth time in his career, and third time this season, that

KENTUCKY WINS PONTIAC GAME CHANGING PERFORMANCE

André Woodson's game-winning seven-yard touchdown pass to Steve Johnson in the third overtime of Kentucky's 43-37 win over LSU received the "Pontiac Game Changing Performance" award for week seven of the college football season.

UK will receive a $5,000 contribution from Pontiac to its general scholarship fund. In addition, the winning play will be nominated for the "Pontiac Game Changing Performance of the Year" and the chance to win a $100,000 scholarship from Pontiac.

BIG-TIME PLAYERS IN BIG-TIME GAMES

Kentucky coach Rich Brooks has often said that big-time players play their best in big-time games and the Wildcats have a pair of standouts who exemplify that statement. Wide receiver Steve Johnson, Jr., and cornerback Trevard Lindley have each made big plays in Kentucky's signature wins against Georgia and Clemson (last season), then-No. 9 Louisville and No. 1 LSU.

Lindley has snatched critical interceptions in each of those games.

- He was named SEC Freshman of the Week last season for picking off a Georgia pass with less than a minute left that clinched the Cats' 24-20 victory.
- Lindley made an amazing one-handed pick-off in the end zone in the Music City Bowl win over Clemson. He was later named to the "All-Bowl Team" for his performance in that game.
- Against Louisville this year, Lindley was challenged by a Brian Brohm bomb on the first play of the game and responded with an interception, providing a spark in UK's eventual victory.
- With the Wildcats down 27-24 and a little over seven minutes remaining against LSU, Lindley picked off a Matt Flynn pass to help set up the game-tying field goal that sent the game to overtime.

Johnson played his best game of the 2006 season with three catches for 67 yards in the Music City Bowl.

This year, Johnson caught the game-winning score on a 57-yard pass from quarterback André Woodson with 28 seconds to go against Louisville

SEIBER NAMED "STAR OF THE WEEK" BY LOU GROZA AWARD

Sophomore kicker Lones Seiber was named a "Star of the Week" by the Lou Groza Collegiate Placekicker Award after the LSU game.

Seiber made all three of his field goal attempts and all four extra points in Kentucky's 43-37 triple-overtime win vs. LSU on Oct. 13. In the fourth quarter, he made field goals of 33 and 27 yards to send the game to overtime. In the second extra period, he connected on a 43-yard attempt that sent the game to the decisive third overtime.

Seiber has now made 11-of-15 field goals this season. He has converted 37 extra points and is the team's leading scorer with 70 points.

WOODSON NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Quarterback André Woodson was named the Southeastern Conference Offensive Player of the Week for his performance vs. LSU.

A senior from Radcliff, Ky., Woodson completed 21 of 38 passes for 250 yards and three touchdowns in Kentucky's 43-37 triple-overtime win over the then-No. 1 ranked Tigers. He also rushed three times for 16 yards, including a 12-yard TD run. Woodson directed a UK offense that scored 27 points and had 333 yards in regulation – the most given up this season by the stout LSU defense.

It was the second time this season, and the fourth time in his career, that Woodson received the honor. He also was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week earlier this season for the Louisville game and also in 2006 for the Ole Miss and Vanderbilt games.

WOODSON WINS SECOND AT&T NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Quarterback André Woodson was selected as the AT&T All-America Player of the Week for his performance in UK's win over Florida Atlantic. It was the second time this season he garnered the national honor.

Against the Owls, Woodson completed 26-of-33 passes for 301 yards and a career-high five touchdown passes. He also extended his NCAA record streak of consecutive passes without interception to 325.

Woodson also won the AT&T All-America Player of the Week award earlier this season following UK's 40-34 win over Louisville.

WOODSON JOINS ELITE COMPANY

Quarterback André Woodson has thrown for 8,082 yards in his Kentucky career, joining former Wildcat quarterbacks Jared Lorenzen and Tim Couch as the only quarterbacks in Kentucky history to throw for 8,000 yards in a career. He also joins Lorenzen and Couch as the only players in UK history to chart over 7,000 offensive yards in a career (7,662).

Woodson has thrown for at least 200 yards in 15 consecutive games.

OFF TO A GREAT START

Kentucky is 6-3 for the first time since the 1984 squad began the campaign 7-2.

UK's best start in school history came in the 1950 season when the Wildcats went 10-0 into the final regular season game.

WILDCATS BOWL ELIGIBLE

With six wins, Kentucky became bowl eligible for the second consecutive season.

It marks the first time since 1998 (Outback Bowl) and 1999 (Music City Bowl) that Kentucky has been bowl-eligible in back-to-back seasons.

The Wildcats defeated Clemson in the Music

WOODSON SETS NCAA RECORD

Quarterback André Woodson's NCAA record streak of 325 pass attempts without an interception was snapped vs. Florida Atlantic. FAU cornerback Tavious Polo picked him off on the first drive of the second half at the FAU two-yard line.

Woodson, who broke the NCAA record for consecutive passes without interception during the Arkansas game, surpassing the previous mark of 271 by Trent Dilfer of Fresno State, went on to complete 79 percent of his passes vs. Florida Atlantic, a career-best single-game effort. He finished the game connecting on 26-of-33 attempts for 301 yards and a career-high five touchdowns. It was his fifth-career 300-yard game and first of the season.

Woodson's 78.7 completion percentage in the game was the highest for the Wildcats since Dusty Bonner completed 85.0 percent (34-of-40) vs. Connecticut in 1999.

WOODSON POSTS CAREER HIGHS VS. FLORIDA

Quarterback André Woodson finished 35-of-50 for 415 yards and a career-high tying five touchdown passes vs. No. 14 Florida. Both his 35 completions and 50 attempts set career highs and he tallied five touchdown passes for the second time in his career, accomplishing the feat against Florida Atlantic earlier in the season.

IT'S THE CATS IN CLOSE ONES

Much of Kentucky's success last season came in finishing close games. In fact, the Wildcats have won six of their last eight games that have been decided by 10 or fewer points.

Below is a look at Kentucky's recent success in close games:

Oct. 28, 2006	at Mississippi State	W	34-31 (+3)
Nov. 4, 2006	Georgia	W	24-20 (+4)
Nov. 18, 2006	Louisiana-Monroe	W	42-40 (+2)
Nov. 25, 2006	at Tennessee	L	12-17 (-5)
Dec. 29, 2006	Clemson	W	28-20 (+8)
Sept. 15, 2007	Louisville	W	40-34 (+6)
Oct. 13, 2007	LSU	W	43-37 (3OT) (+6)
Oct. 20, 2007	Florida	L	37-45 (-8)

COMEBACK CATS

Kentucky has won 11 of its last 15 games, with six of those wins coming as fourth-quarter comebacks.

Last season, the Cats set a school record by completing three consecutive fourth-quarter comebacks to defeat Georgia, Vanderbilt and Louisiana-Monroe in succession. Already this year, Kentucky has come from behind in the final period to knock off No. 1 LSU, then-No. 9 Louisville and Arkansas. In fact, UK has outscored its opponents 72-22 in the fourth quarter this season.

A breakdown of the Wildcats' late-game heroics over the past two seasons is below.

Date	Time Left	Trailing	Final Score
11/4/06	4:37	20-17	Kentucky 24, Georgia 20
11/11/06	14:37	20-17	Kentucky 38, Vanderbilt 26

10/13/07	7:57	27-21	Kentucky 43, LSU 37 (3 OTs)

CATS DEFEAT A NO. 1 FOR THIRD TIME IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Kentucky's upset over top-ranked LSU marked the third time in school history the Wildcats have defeated a No. 1-ranked team.

UK upset No. 1 Oklahoma on Jan. 1, 1951 in the Sugar Bowl, 13-7, and defeated No. 1 Ole Miss 27-21 in Jackson, Miss., in 1964.

Senior linebacker Wesley Woodyard, a semifinalist for the Butkus Award for the nation's best linebacker, has recorded at least four tackles in 32 consecutive games. Woodyard currently leads the SEC in tackles per game with 10.2. He is the only player in the SEC averaging double-figure tackles this season.

MORE VICTORY MILESTONES

Including last season, Kentucky has won 11 of its last 15 games and eight of its last 10 in Commonwealth Stadium.

UK also has won eight consecutive non-conference games, the most since a 17-game non-conference win stretch from 1954-60.

Kentucky is 11-4 spanning the last two seasons since falling to LSU last year in Baton Rouge.

CATS IN OVERTIME

Speaking of close ones, the Wildcats are now 2-2 all-time in overtime games after their thrilling 43-37 win over LSU in triple overtime.

- UK has played two multi-overtime games in school history (Arkansas - 7 OT and LSU - 3 OT)
- UK is 2-1 all-time in OT games played in Commonwealth Stadium
- Rich Brooks is 1-1 all-time in OT games at Kentucky.

TAMME BECOMES 1,000-YARD RECEIVER

Tight end Jacob Tammé caught two passes for 35 yards vs. South Carolina, becoming the 18th player in Kentucky history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in a career. With 46 receiving yards vs. Mississippi State, Tammé moved up to No. 16 on the career list with 1,148 yards. He needs 62 more to move up to No. 15 with Steve Meilinger (1,210).

With six catches in the Florida game, he also became the 10th player in Kentucky history to catch 100 passes in a career. He ranks eighth on the career list with 111 and needs one more to tie Quentin McCord (112) at No. 7.

UK IN THE BLUE ZONE (20-AND-IN)

Kentucky has converted 38-of-43 opportunities (88.4 percent) in the "Blue Zone" (20-yard-line and in) for 231 points (30 touchdowns, eight field goals, two interceptions). It ranks fifth in the SEC.

Opponents have converted 29-of-34 opportunity (85.3 percent) for 174 points (22 touchdowns, seven field goals, two loss on downs, one fumble, one end of half, one other).

BLUE-ZONE SPECIAL

Kentucky's offense has shown a special proficiency at finding the end zone when it counts the most this season. The Wildcats are 38-for-43 from inside the "Blue Zone" (20-yard line and in) this season with 30 touchdowns and eight field goals in those Blue Zone scoring chances.

Of 43 chances in the Blue Zone, UK has scored a touchdown 30 times for 69.77 percent. That percentage ranks fourth in the SEC in TD rankings.

BURTON ON SEC GOOD WORKS TEAM

Senior wide receiver Keenan Burton will be featured this week as the SEC Community Service Team Player of the Week.

The Louisville, Ky. native has been very active in the "Cats That Care" service program during his four years as a Wildcat. Burton, who returned to Kentucky for his senior season after considering the National Football League draft, has been a frequent visitor to Kentucky Children's Hospital at the University of Kentucky, participated in the Cats Cultivating Character program and has been a guest reader at Picadome Elementary School.

He has also volunteered at Northside Library's Summer Reading Kick-Off, been a guest speaker at 100 Black Men Convention, where he addressed over 3,000 middle school students on the importance of working hard in school and has been a visitor at various other schools, hospitals and other events.

Student-athletes earn SEC Good Works Team recognition for their community service and campus activities.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

UK leads the SEC in pass offense, averaging 273.9 passing yards per game and the Wildcat wide receivers are enjoying the down-field attack. Through nine games, quarterbacks André Woodson and Mike Hartline have completed at least one pass to 14 different receivers, including five who are averaging at least two receptions per game.

100-YARD RECEIVERS

Two different players (Steve Johnson - 128, Dicky Lyons Jr. - 124) tallied over 100-yards receiving vs. Florida, marking the first time that happened this season and the first time since Keenan Burton and Rafael Little combined to accomplish the feat in UK's 2006 win over Vanderbilt. UK has had three different players go over 100-yards receiving seven times this season (Burton vs. Kent State and FAU; Lyons vs. ECU and UF; Johnson vs. Arkansas, LSU and UF).

INJURY UPDATE

- Out for the season because of injuries are WR Terrence Jones, DE Charles Mustafaa, DE Greg Meisner, QB Will Fidler, and DE Nii Adjei Oninku. Oninku was a projected starter at his spot.
- Out indefinitely while recovering from injuries incurred during spring practice are LB Brandon Thurmond, LB Chris Cessna, and DE Josh Minton.
- TB Rafael Little has a deep thigh bruise and is out at least until the Vanderbilt game.
- CB Paul Warford sustained a fractured collarbone vs. LSU and is out at least until VU.
- LB Micah Johnson is out indefinitely with arthroscopic knee surgery.

NATIONAL TEAM OF THE WEEK

Kentucky was named the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week, as selected by the Football Writers Association of America, following the Wildcats' 42-29 victory at Arkansas.

Trailing 29-21 in the fourth quarter, Kentucky rallied with three consecutive touchdowns to win the game.

THE WOODYARD WALL

Senior linebacker Wesley Woodyard is making the most of his final campaign. The LaGrange, Ga., native is the Southeastern Conference's leading tackler with 93 stops. He ranks tied for 26th nationally in tackles per game with 10.2 per game.

Woodyard, who already this season has been nominated for four national awards that recognize the nation's top defensive player or linebacker, has recorded double-figure tackles in 15 career games, including four of the last six. Woodyard has an active streak of 33 consecutive games with at least two tackles and now has 349 tackles in his career, becoming the first Wildcat since Marty Moore (1990-93) to reach 300 stops.

Woodyard has been Kentucky's leading tackler in 17 of his last 22 games.

The 2006 first-team All-SEC performer has led the Wildcats in tackles each of the past two seasons and has reached the 100-tackle mark in both of those campaigns.

WOODYARD SEMIFINALIST FOR BUTKUS AWARD

Senior Wesley Woodyard has been named one of 10 semifinalists for the Butkus Award for the nation's best linebacker.

Woodyard leads the Wildcats this season with 93 tackles, with eight tackles for loss, two quarterback sacks, five pass breakups, and one caused fumble. He tied a career high with 18 tackles in the win at Arkansas, along with causing a fumble that Trevard Lindley returned for a touchdown, and was named Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Week

HEAD COACH RICH BROOKS

- Named the 35th head coach of the Kentucky football program on Dec. 30, 2002.
- Prior to Kentucky, Brooks spent six seasons in the National Football League, where he served as an assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons from 1997-2000 and was head coach of the St. Louis Rams in 1995-96.

- Served as the head coach at Oregon from 1977-94 where he won more games than any coach in school history. He was named

"National Coach of the Year" in 1994 after guiding the Ducks to the Rose Bowl. Because of his numerous contributions to the school in those 18 years, Oregon named its football field "Brooks Field" in his honor in 1995.

- Played collegiate football at Oregon State from 1959-62 under Coach Tommy Prothro. Brooks was a single-wing tailback on the freshman team, then played defensive back for three years on varsity. He was also a reserve quarterback in addition to playing in the secondary.

- Received bachelor's degree in physical education (1963) and master's in education (1964)

The Butkus Award is presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando (Fla.). In addition to Woodyard, the semifinalist list includes Dan Connor of Penn State, Shawn Crable of Michigan, Jordon Dizon of Colorado, Erin Henderson of Maryland, Ali Highsmith of LSU, James Laurinaitis of Ohio State, J Leman of Illinois, Ben Moffitt of South Florida, and Keith Rivers of Southern California.

WOODYARD A LOTT TROPHY QUARTERFINALIST

Senior linebacker Wesley Woodyard has been named a quarterfinalist for the Lott Trophy by the Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation.

The Lott Trophy is named after former defensive back Ronnie Lott and goes to the outstanding college defensive player of the year who also has the greatest IMPACT on his team, both on and off the field. IMPACT stands for Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community, and Tenacity. Woodyard is one of 17 quarterfinalists for the award, which honors personal character in addition to athletic performance.

So far this season, Woodyard leads the Southeastern Conference with 93 tackles, including eight tackles for loss, two quarterback sacks, and five pass breakups. He was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for the Arkansas game when he tied a career high with 18 tackles and caused a fumble that Trevard Lindley returned for a touchdown. He is the first Wildcat in 14 years to reach 300 tackles in a career.

Off the field, Woodyard is on track to graduate in only three and one-half years with a degree in social work. He has been very involved with the UK Athletics community service program and was named to the UK Athletics Society of Character.

Woodyard also is a semifinalist for the Butkus Award (nation's best linebacker) and on the watch lists for the Nagurski Award (national defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (national defensive player of the year).

RUN GAME SHOWS DRASTIC IMPROVEMENT

After ranking next to last in the SEC last season in rushing offense (98.6 yards per game), the Wildcats' rushing offense appears to be making drastic improvements. After nine games this season, the Wildcats rank fourth in the SEC and 36th nationally, averaging 176.22 yards per game on the ground. UK already has 16 rushing touchdowns this season after rushing for only 12 in all of 2006.

Team	Att.	Yds.	Avg.	TD	YPG
Arkansas	441	2842	6.4	26	315.8
LSU	388	1881	4.8	24	209.0
Florida	338	1705	5.0	25	189.4
Kentucky	335	1586	4.7	16	176.2

TAKE YOUR PICK

One of the main reasons for the drastic improvement in UK's running game is because of the wealth of talent in the backfield. Tailbacks Tony Dixon, Rafael Little, Derrick Locke, and Alfonso Smith have combined for 1,615 yards in nine games and scored 11 of Kentucky's 16 rushing touchdowns this season.

Each of the tailbacks has scored at least two TDs and each is averaging at least 5.6 yards per rushing attempt.

The tailback crew is dealing with injury problems, however. Little has been out the last three games with a deep thigh bruise while Dixon has been battling ankle, hip, and shoulder injuries.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY

Rafael Little has established himself as a threat every time he touches the ball. Little has totaled 12 games with over 100 yards rushing, including five of the six games in which he has played this season. His three straight 100-yard rushing games (EKU, Kent State and Louisville) marked the first time since the 2005 campaign (three straight) that he yards and 1,000 receiving yards, with only Rhett and Hilliard able to match those benchmarks.

TOUCHDOWN MAKER

Sophomore fullback John Conner has proven himself as a touchdown maker. Conner has touched the ball 12 times this season and four have gone for touchdowns.

Conner has rushed five times for 33 yards with two scores on the ground, while catching seven passes for 37 yards with two TDs.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

From 1966-68, Dicky Lyons Sr. was one of the most exciting players in Southeastern Conference history as a running back, wide receiver, and kick returner at Kentucky.

His son, junior Dicky Lyons Jr., has shown the same ability in his UK career. He ranks second on the team in receiving yards with 43 catches for 509 yards and six touchdowns. With 33 yards receiving vs. Louisville, Lyons Jr., became the 17th Wildcat to reach 1,000 receiving yards in a career. He tied his career high with eight catches against Florida Atlantic and had two touchdowns in the game.

Against Florida, Lyons finished with 124 yards on eight receptions and a career-best three touchdowns. It was his fifth career multi-touchdown game and his second of the season.

In 2006, Lyons Jr. caught an 80-yard touchdown pass vs. Louisville. Lyons Sr. and Jr. are believed to be the only father-son duo in NCAA history that has caught passes for 80 yards more. The elder Lyons had a 92-yard touchdown reception vs. Georgia in 1968.

GOOD LOCKE

Kentucky freshman running back Derrick Locke proved in UK's comeback wins against Arkansas and LSU that he has the ability to jump in when needed and help the Wildcats.

When Kentucky's tailback trio of Rafael Little, Tony Dixon and Alfonso Smith went down with injuries, Locke was thrown into the mix and has produced. He currently is UK's No. 2 rusher, having carried the ball 71 times for 411 yards (5.8 yards per carry) and three touchdowns. He earned his first career start vs. Mississippi State and rushed for 46 yards on 11 carries.

And why not? After all, the Hugo, Okla., native knows a thing or two about jumping into a situation. Locke – a sprinter and long jumper – was recruited to Kentucky for track and field and, last season, recorded the top-ranked high school long jump performance in the USA at 25-4.75. His leaping ability and speed – Locke was the 2007 Oklahoma state high school 100-meter champion – helped him give the Wildcats key late-game performances against the Razorbacks and Tigers.

That success on the gridiron isn't anything new to Locke, however, who rushed for 3,275 yards averaging 252 yards per game with 51 touchdowns scored during his prep career.

BIG FOOT

Junior punter/kicker Tim Masthay has significantly helped the Wildcats in the battle for field position this season. He is averaging a career-best 41.9 yards per punt and UK ranks sixth in the SEC in net punting, averaging 36.2 net yards per punt. With Masthay's excellent punting height and placement, along with good coverage, UK has allowed only 33 punt return yards this season, the second-lowest in the SEC (Florida has allowed only 22 yards).

Masthay also handles kickoffs for the Masthay's best punting games have been against Louisville and LSU, averaging 47.3 yards in each game.

OFFENSIVE NUMBERS HAVE GONE UP

Kentucky has made notable progress on offense the last two seasons, improving points and yards per game each year. The advancements coincided with the maturing of a young group of players along with the appointment of Joker Phillips as offensive coordinator in 2005.

Year	PPG	Total Offense Per Game
2004*	15.7	275.5 yards
(*under previous offensive coordinator)
2005	21.7	297.5
2006	26.7	375.3
2007	41.1	450.1

TAKEAWAY PARTY

Last season, Kentucky claimed 32 opponent turnovers, helping the Wildcats finish second in the nation in the crucial category of turnover margin.

This year the Wildcats have gotten 17 opponent turnovers, 10 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries.

QUARTER-BY-QUARTER

The Wildcats have outscored opponents 82-58 in the first quarter and lead 93-57 in the third. UK has outscored its opponent 95-57 in the fourth quarter. UK is being outscored 79-64 in the second quarter.

JARMON IS UK'S SACK LEADER

Kentucky sophomore defensive end Jeremy Jarmon is a political science major and is considering a career in public service. So it's no surprise that before he dives into being an active member of the government, he is politicking to lead the SEC in sacks this season. Jarmon currently ranks tied for fourth in the SEC in sacks and ranks tied for 28th nationally with 6.5 total. He has had at least one sack in seven of the last 11 games, dating back to last season, including a career-high 2.5 sacks vs. South Carolina last week.

Led by Jarmon, Kentucky's defense ranks tied for seventh with Alabama in the SEC in sacks with 17 for 97 yards.

JARMON ON HENDRICKS WATCH LIST

Kentucky defensive end Jeremy Jarmon has been placed on the mid-season watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's best defensive end.

Jarmon has 44 tackles this season, including eight tackles for loss, 6.5 quarterback sacks, two pass breakups and two fumbles caused.

The sophomore from Collierville, Tenn., ranks third in the Southeastern Conference in sacks. He leads the Wildcats in sacks and is tied for the team best in tackles for loss and fumbles caused. Jarmon is one of 37 players on the mid-season watch list.

The Ted Hendricks Foundation is based in Buffalo Grove, Ill. Hendricks was a three-time All-American defensive end at Miami (Fla.) and went on to an NFL Hall of Fame career with the Baltimore Colts, Green Bay Packers, and Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders.

UK SETS SCHOOL RECORD FOR BALANCED OFFENSE

Kentucky set a school record for balanced offense in the win over Eastern Kentucky. The Wildcats had 288 rushing yards and 280 passing yards. The previous record was at least 241 in each category when UK recorded 303 rushing yards and 241 passing yards vs. North Dakota in 1950.

UK has rushed for at least 150 yards and thrown for at least 200 in seven of nine games this season.

Here are offensive highlights from the first nine games:

- Kentucky has scored at least 40 points in six of nine games this season.
- UK has scored over 20 points in eight of nine games this season.
- UK has gone over the 300-yard total-offense mark in 14 straight games.
- UK has charted over 200 yards passing in 15 straight games.
- UK scored 50 or more points in back-to-back games (EKU and Kent State) for the first time since the 1998 season when they scored 68 vs. Louisville and 52 against Eastern Kentucky to open the season.
- UK's 56 points vs. Kent State were the most since tallying 63 points vs. Arkansas in seven overtimes in 2003 and the most in a regulation game since recording 77 against Texas El-Paso in 2002.
- The Wildcats' 288 rushing yards vs. EKU were their most since gaining 355 on the ground against Indiana in 2004.
- UK had 30 first downs vs. EKU for the first time since 2001 vs. Georgia (30).
- Against Florida Atlantic, UK racked up over 400 yards of offense for the ninth-straight game, finishing with 514 yards. It also marked the first time since the 2002 season that the Wildcats have had two games in the same season with more than 500 yards of total offense. UK had 568 vs. EKU earlier this season.
- The Wildcats' 43 points and 375 total yards against LSU were the most accumulated by an opponent against the Tigers this season.

CLAYTON A FINALIST FOR FWAA COURAGE AWARD; NOMINATED FOR DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

Kentucky linebacker Terry Clayton is a finalist for the Courage Award given by the FedEx Orange Bowl and the Football Writers Association of America. He's also a nominee for the Disney Wide World of Sports Spirit Award.

A senior from Olmstead, Ky., Clayton went deaf at the age of five because of a severe case of chicken pox. Despite the limitation, he went on to earn All-Sky Conference honors at Logan County High School and joined the UK football team in 2003 and has seen action as a reserve linebacker and on special teams.

Since he has been at UK, advances in technology have enabled Clayton to use a device that gives him a limited amount of hearing. He cannot wear the hearing aid during practice or games, however.

"Never once has he used his disability as an excuse not to do something," said Chuck Smith, UK linebackers coach. "On the field he is a strong, explosive player. He really pays attention and picks things up by watching."

Clayton has excelled in the classroom and is a two-year member of the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll. He received UK's Carol Adelstein Outstanding Student Award for overcoming disabilities in 2006.

"Battling school and football is tough, so I keep going," Clayton said. "I want to be successful and a role model to people who are like me."

REBUILDING THE O-LINE

Following the graduation of a senior-laden offensive line, the Wildcat forward wall has had to be re-worked for the 2007 season.

And while the line is solid in talent, it has room to grow in experience. Prior to the start of the season, Duncan, Scott, Leger, and Jeffries have seen limited or no action as offensive linemen. Scott and Leger moved to the O-Line last year from other positions. Duncan switched from tight end during spring practice, so prior to the season opener he had not taken a game snap as an offensive lineman.

Currently the line has been doing a good job of clearing the way for UK's rushing attack as the Wildcats rank fourth in the SEC, averaging 176.2 yards per game. The line also did not allow a sack vs. LSU's then top-ranked defense on Oct. 13.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR U(K)?

Coach Rich Brooks promoted Wildcat assistant Steve Brown to defensive coordinator in January.

Brown is in his first season as a defensive coordinator. He is staying with the 4-3 playing scheme used by the Wildcats, with a goal of putting players in position to attack and play as aggressively as possible.

Brown's coaching experience includes six years with the St. Louis Rams (including a Super Bowl championship) and the last four seasons as defensive backs coach at Kentucky. He also played eight years at cornerback for the NFL's Houston Oilers.

With Brown as defensive coordinator and Joker Phillips as offensive coordinator, Kentucky is the first school in Southeastern Conference history to have African-Americans in those roles in the same time.

RETURN GAME HAS BEEN THE NATION'S BEST

For the last two seasons, Kentucky has had the best overall kick return game in the nation.

As a team, UK averaged 20.4 yards per punt return and 24 yards on kickoff returns in 2006.

Senior wide receiver Steve Johnson leads Kentucky in touchdown receptions this season with eight. He has charted two two-touchdown games in his career, both this year vs. Louisville and Mississippi State.

UK broke the school record for punt returns for the second-consecutive season. The Wildcats also led the nation in punt returns and were 10th in kickoff returns – the only team in the country to rank in the top 10 in both categories.

In the 2005 season, UK was the only team that ranked in the nation's top five in both categories.

Prospects are bright for continued success in 2007. Rafael Little, the team's primary punt returner, had a school-record 22.6-yard average last season. He would have led the nation in that category, but because of injury, did not play in enough games to officially qualify. All four of the team's kickoff returners from last season, Keenan Burton, Dicky Lyons, Alfonso Smith, and Rafael Little, are back for the coming campaign. Burton ranks second in school history with a career average of 26.2 yards per return.

COACHING CHANGES

Coaching changes from last season include:

- Steve Brown moved from defensive backs coach to defensive coordinator
- QBs coach Randy Sanders added the duties of recruiting coordinator
- David Lockwood, who helped guide Minnesota to five consecutive bowl games in 2002-06, is the new defensive backs coach
- Larry Brinson, longtime running backs coach under Ken Hatfield at Rice, Clemson, Arkansas, and Air Force, joined the UK staff at that position

CATSCELLANEOUS

- With Joker Phillips and Steve Brown as offensive and defensive coordinator, Kentucky is the first school in Southeastern Conference history to have African-Americans in those roles at the same time.
- Kentucky has had a freshman All-American all four years under Coach Rich Brooks, including cornerback Trevard Lindley in 2006 and line-backer Braxton Kelley in 2005.
- The Kentucky cheerleaders have won an unprecedented 15 national championships, including 11 of the last 13, at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association competition.
- Wildcat superfan Jim Brown has an attendance streak of 401 consecutive home games entering the 2007 season. He has seen every home game since 1938, with the exception of 1944 (military service, World War II). For more on Brown, see the feature story on page 137 of the UK football media guide.
- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.

IT'S A WILDCAT STATE

Kentucky is often referred to as a "basketball state," given the fact that UK arguably is the greatest men's basketball program in collegiate history.

However, we like to think of Kentucky as a "Wildcat state" because of the tremendous overall support for UK athletics. In 2006-07, Kentucky was one of only six schools to rank in the nation's top 35 in attendance for football, men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball.

In addition, Kentucky has ranked in the nation's top 25 in football attendance every year but one since Commonwealth Stadium was expanded in 1999. On game day, Commonwealth Stadium usually becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

And, over the years, one would be hard-pressed to find a school with the ups-and-downs of Kentucky football, yet has the solid bedrock of support enjoyed by the Wildcat gridders. For example, contrast Kentucky with other institutions from so-called "basketball states." Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas, Duke, and Indiana rank 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 9th (respectively) in all-time college basketball victories. Here is the average attendance for those schools in the 2006 football season:

School	2006 attendance
Kentucky	57,330
North Carolina	48,857
Kansas	44,137
Indiana	33,063
Duke	19,580

Kentucky a basketball state? We say it's a Wildcat state.

FAMILY TIES AT KENTUCKY

- WR DeMoreo Ford is the nephew of Quentin McCord, a Wildcat wide receiver in 1996 and 1998-2000.
- WR Dicky Lyons Jr. is the son of Dicky Lyons, Wildcat halfback in 1966-68.
- WR Sean Murphy is the son of Patrick Murphy, a Wildcat in the early 1970s.
- C Eric Scott and CB E. J. Adams are cousins ... DT Shane McCord and LB Sam Maxwell are cousins ... Christian and Micah Johnson are brothers.

•First-team All-SEC performer in 2006

(Coaches, AP)

•Mackey Award Watch List

•Nominee for Wuerffel Award, Bobby Bowden Award, and NCAA Top VIII Award

Came to UK as a wide receiver, now a three-year starter at tight end ... Ranks second in UK history for pass receptions by a tight end (111) and receiving yards (1,148) ... Eighth overall in career receptions ... His improved blocking has helped UK's significant increase in rushing yardage this season ... Strong student who needed only three years to complete his bachelor's degree in integrated strategic communications; currently in his final year of work toward his master's in business administration ... Has been named a 2007 National Scholar-Athlete by the National Football Foundation, winning an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship ... That makes him a finalist for the NFF's Draddy Award, which goes to the nation's top scholar-athlete ... Dedicated to community service, named to the National Good Works Team last season ... Also a nominee for the Danny Wuerffel Award (football/academics/community service); the Bobby Bowden Award from the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and the NCAA Top VIII Award for overall excellence on and off the playing field ... Got married in the spring to his high school sweetheart, Allison ... Has played in 44 games, starting 33.

2007: Has set career-highs in receptions (34) and touchdowns (4), and is on pace to set a new career-high in reception yards ... Hauled in a touchdown grab which started a UK comeback in the upset win over then-No. 1 ranked LSU ... Played a key role in the upset of Louisville, making a spectacular touchdown catch in the fourth quarter ... Another catch converted a must-have fourth down on UK's game-winning drive vs. the Cardinals ... Has a streak of at least one catch in a game dating back 11 games to the UL-Monroe game in 2006 ... Needs just nine more catches to become the school's all-time tight end leader in career receptions.

Team's leading tackler the last two seasons from his weakside linebacker position, reaching the 100 mark both years, and is seven shy of topping the 100-mark for the third consecutive season (93) ... Has a streak of 33 consecutive games with at least four tackles, covering every game since 2005 ... Became the first Wildcat in 15 years to reach 300 stops in his career (now has 349) ... Needs just one more stop to reach the Kentucky career top 10 in tackles ... Has 15 double-figure tackle games in his career ... Has played in 43 games, starting 38 ... Elected team captain by the Wildcats.

2007: Named the SEC Defensive Player of the week after the Arkansas game ... Between the Kent State and Arkansas games, he posted three consecutive double-figure tackling efforts, including a season-high 18 in a win over Arkansas ... Forced a fumble against the Razorbacks that Trevard Lindley returned 66 yards for a score ... Made a tremendous play when he made a fourth-down tackle just short of the goal line, saving a touchdown against Louisville ... Notched two tackles for a loss, including his first quarterback sack of the season, against South Carolina ... Registered the 15th double-figure tackling effort when he made 11 stops against LSU, also notched a pass break-up in the winning effort.

KENTUCKY 50, EASTERN KENTUCKY 10

SEPTEMBER 1, 2007

Kentucky running back Rafael Little rushed for 135 yards - the eighth 100-yard rushing game of his career - and five different Wildcats scored in a 50-10 season-opening victory against Eastern Kentucky in front of 66,512 fans at Commonwealth Stadium. It was UK's first win in a season opener since 2002.

The Wildcats notched their sixth win in seven tries, including last season, for the first time since 1984-85 and Kentucky eclipsed the 50-point plateau for the first time since the 2004 campaign.

Quarterback André Woodson completed 20-of-29 passes for 259 yards with three touchdown passes. He directed UK's offense, which gained 568 total yards and accumulated 288 rushing yards on the ground - its most since the 2004 season. Wide receiver Dicky Lyons had six grabs for 113 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown bomb on UK's first offensive play. Keenan Burton caught five passes for 49 yards with a TD.

The Wildcats defense was equally impressive, holding the Colonels to just 202 yards, the fewest since Murray State had 189 total yards in 2003. Micah Johnson and Johnny Williams led the defensive effort with seven tackles each, while Sam Maxwell had six stops, including two tackles for loss.

Kentucky scored on six of its first eight possessions, scoring five touchdowns during that span. The Wildcats took a 30-3 advantage into the locker room at halftime, and Little found the end-zone from 38 yards out on UK's first possession of the second period.

KENTUCKY 56, KENT STATE 20

SEPTEMBER 8, 2007

Seven different Kentucky players scored touchdowns and the Wildcats outscored Kent State 42-6 in the second half to cruise to a 56-20 win against the Golden Flashes in front of 67,380 fans at Commonwealth Stadium.

UK and Kent State, which rushed for 215 yards in the opening half, entered halftime in a 14-all tie. The Wildcats scored touchdowns on their first six possessions of the second half to put the game away.

Kentucky's offense generated more than 200 yards passing and more than 200 yards receiving for the second consecutive week, marking the first time the Wildcats have accomplished that feat twice in a season since 1999. UK recorded 266 yards on the ground for the first back-to-back 235-plus-yard rushing games since 1990.

Tailback Rafael Little notched his second consecutive 100-yard rushing game with 102 yards for the ninth 100-yard game of his career. With 13 receiving yards, Little also became the 14th player in school history to record 1,000 receiving yards, making him the fourth player in SEC history to reach both 2,000 career rushing and 1,000 career receiving yard marks.

It was a balanced offense that again led the Wildcats as UK recorded 266 yards rushing and 218 yards passing. Additionally, UK had three players rush for 50 or more yards each for the second consecutive game.

Fullback John Conner had a breakout game, recording his first two career rushing touchdowns, while receiver Steve Johnson, Jr., had a career-high 71 yards receiving with a score.

Linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the defensive effort with 15 tackles, while Braxton Kelley added 11. Woodyard extended his streak of consecutive games with at least four tackles to 26.

KENTUCKY 40, NO. 9 LOUISVILLE 34

SEPTEMBER 15, 2007

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson's 57-yard touchdown strike to receiver Steve Johnson, Jr., with 28 seconds remaining lifted the Wildcats to a 40-34 win against No. 9 Louisville in Commonwealth Stadium to mark UK's first victory over a top-10 team in three decades.

The Wildcats led 33-28 with six minutes remaining when Louisville signal-caller Brian Brohm completed an 84-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard run for touchdown by Anthony Allen and put Louisville in front 34-33.

With time ticking down and Kentucky backed up to its own 43, Woodson launched a pass to Johnson, who streaked down the home sideline for the winning score. It was the sixth lead change of the game. Woodson broke the Southeastern Conference's streak of consecutive passes without an interception, extending his mark to 257 straight. He completed 30-of-44 passes for 275 yards, marking career highs in both completions and attempts.

Tailback Rafael Little rushed 27 times for 151 yards to record the 10th 100-yard rushing game of his career and his third consecutive 100-plus-yard game. Johnson recorded the first two-touchdown game of his career, also adding a score early in the first quarter. Keenan Burton led the receiving corps with nine catches for 99 yards.

Kentucky, which trailed 21-19 at intermission, beat Louisville for the first time since the 2002 season and the victory gave the Wildcats a win in eight of their last nine outings, dating back to last season.

Wide receiver Dicky Lyons caught four passes for 33 yards, which made him the 17th player in Wildcat history to reach the 1,000-yard mark.

Senior linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the defensive effort with 13 tackles, increasing his streak of consecutive games with at least four tackles to 27.

NO. 21 KENTUCKY 42, ARKANSAS 29

SEPTEMBER 22, 2007

Kentucky scored 21 consecutive points in the fourth quarter to cap a dynamic final-period comeback that gave the Wildcats a 42-29 victory against Arkansas at Reynolds' Razorback Stadium. The win, in front of the sixth-largest crowd in Arkansas school history, gave the Cats their first 4-0 start since the 2002 campaign.

Quarterback Andre' Woodson, who broke the NCAA's all-time record for consecutive passes attempted without an interception, threw for 265 yards with two touchdowns. He now has 296 straight tosses without being picked off.

Trailing 29-21 early in the fourth quarter, Kentucky opted to kick a field goal on fourth down from the Arkansas 19. But a roughing the kicker penalty on the attempt gave the Cats first down from the nine-yard line. That set up a two-yard run for a touchdown by freshman Derrick Locke with 7:59 left to bring UK within two, 29-27.

A 32-yard touchdown pass from Woodson to receiver Keenan Burton, who moved into sole possession of second place on the school's all-time receiving touchdowns list, with 4:02 remaining put the Cats in front 35-29.

The UK defense shut down Arkansas on its next possession, forcing a four-and-out, before Woodson called his own number on a one-yard sneak to ice the game for the Wildcats with 59 ticks left on the clock.

Wide receiver Steve Johnson, Jr., had a career night with seven receptions for 111 yards, while senior linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the defensive effort with 17 tackles. It marked the 14th double-figure tackle game in Woodyard's career.

Kentucky notched its fifth fourth-quarter comeback in its last nine outings and gave the Wildcats a win in nine of their last 10 games for the first time since 1977.

NO. 14 KENTUCKY 45, FLORIDA ATLANTIC 17

SEPTEMBER 29, 2007

Kentucky quarterback André Woodson threw a career-high five touchdown passes to four different receivers as the Wildcats improved to 5-0 for the first time since 1984 as they defeated Florida Atlantic 45-17 at Commonwealth Stadium.

Woodson completed 26-of-33 passes for a season-high 301 yards, but had his NCAA-record streak of consecutive passes without an interception snapped at 325 in the Kentucky victory.

Kentucky, which eclipsed the 40-point mark for its school-record fifth consecutive game, was led by running back Rafael Little who had 20 carries for 112 yards – his fourth 100-plus rushing game of the season, and wide receiver Keenan Burton who had 100 yards receiving.

The Wildcats went over the 500-yard mark of total offense for the second time this season. They had 568 total yards in the season opener vs. ECU. It marks the first time since the 2002 season that the Wildcats have had two games in the same season with more than 500 yards of total offense.

Micah Johnson led the defensive effort for the Cats with a career-high nine tackles. He also had a 21-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the game, marking UK's first interception return for score since the 2004 campaign.

NO. 11 SOUTH CAROLINA 38, NO. 8 KENTUCKY 23

OCTOBER 4, 2007

South Carolina defensive end Eric Norwood tied an NCAA record with two touchdowns on fumble returns as the Gamecocks got a 38-23 win against the Wildcats in Columbia's Williams-Brice Stadium.

The Cats stayed close during the opening half before Carolina's Mike Davis scored on a 3-yard run to take a 17-10 lead at intermission. Norwood opened the second half with a 53-yard fumble return touchdown to take a 24-10 advantage.

Kentucky answered with a pair of Lones Seiber field goals, but a 7-yard pass from USC signal-caller Chris Smelley to Patrick DiMarco put the Gamecocks ahead 31-16 early in the fourth quarter. Quarterback André Woodson found Steve Johnson from six yards out to bring the Cats within eight, 31-

23. But a touchdown pass from Smelley to Cory Boyd with 3:28 remaining sealed the South Carolina win.

The Wildcats generated 384 yards of total offense, out-gaining South Carolina by 42 total yards, but Kentucky lost four turnovers to give the Gamecocks the advantage.

Running back Rafael Little rushed 25 times for 135 yards to record the 12th 100-yard rushing game of his career and his fifth of the season. His 12 100-yard games moved him into third-place all-time in that category.

Woodson, who became just the third Wildcat in school history to throw for 7,000 or more yards in a career, had his 12th consecutive game with 200 or more yards by completing 23-of-40 passes for 227 yards.

Kentucky had over 150 yards rushing and over 200 yards passing for the fifth consecutive game, finishing with 157 yards on the ground and 227 yards through the air.

NO. 17 KENTUCKY 43, NO. 1 LSU 37 (30T)

OCTOBER 13, 2007

André Woodson's seven-yard pass to wide receiver Steve Johnson in triple overtime lifted No. 17 Kentucky to its first win against a No. 1 team since 1964 as the Wildcats knocked off top-ranked LSU, 43-37, in front of 70,902 fans – the fourth-largest crowd in Commonwealth Stadium history.

Trailing 27-21 heading into the fourth quarter, the Wildcats benefited from two field goals by Lones Seiber to knot the score at 27-all with 4:21 remaining in the game. On the ensuing possession, LSU slowly marched down the field and set up kicker Colt David for a 57-yard field-goal attempt. David, who had been 2-for-2 on the day in field goals, kicked a deep shot that sailed just left of the goalpost to send the game into overtime.

After the two teams traded scores in the first two overtimes, the Wildcats got the ball first in the third OT. On third and goal from the LSU seven-yard line, Woodson found Johnson for the game-winning score. It was Johnson's second-game winning TD of the season against a top-10 team as he also had the go-ahead touchdown against then-No. 9 Louisville. The Wildcat defense then stifled three runs by LSU's Jacob Hester on the final drive before Braxton Kelley came up with the game-clinching tackle on fourth-and-two.

Woodson finished 21-of-38 for 250 yards with three scoring strikes. The signal-caller also had a 12-yard run for a touchdown in the second quarter. Woodson (7,055) became just the third player in school history to record more than 7,000 career offensive yards.

Johnson had a career day, finishing with seven catches for 134 yards. Running back Derrick Locke carried the ball 20 times for 64 yards with a touchdown.

Wesley Woodyard led the defensive effort with his 15th career double-figure tackle performance. Woodyard had a team-high 11 tackles, while Jeremy Jarmon had a career-high 10 stops.

NO. 14 FLORIDA 45, NO. 8 KENTUCKY 37

OCTOBER 20, 2007

Florida quarterback Tim Tebow threw for a career-high four touchdowns and ran for one more as the No. 14 Gators held on to defeat No. 8 Kentucky, 45-37, in front of the largest crowd in school history – 71,024 fans – in Commonwealth Stadium.

With the Wildcats trailing 38-24 early in the fourth quarter, Kentucky rallied to come within one touchdown as signal-caller Andre' Woodson found wide receiver Dicky Lyons, Jr., from seven yards out with 3:35 left in the game.

On Florida's last possession, Tebow converted on a third-and-two by completing a 40-yard pass to Percy Harvin down to UF's own two-yard line and Tebow called his own number one play later to ice the win for the Gators. Kentucky closed out the game with a six-yard touchdown pass from Woodson to Burton to make the final 45-37 margin.

Lyons notched his first career three-touchdown performance finishing with 124 yards on eight receptions. Fellow receiver Steve Johnson caught eight passes for 128 yards to mark his second consecutive 100-yard game.

Kentucky gained the most yards (512), the most yards passing (415), and the most points (37) allowed by the Florida defense this season.

Braxton Kelley led the defensive effort with a squad-best 10 tackles, while linebacker Wesley Woodyard added eight stops.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 31, NO. 14 KENTUCKY 14

OCTOBER 27, 2007

Mississippi State's Christian Ducre rushed for a career-high 119 yards with a touchdown and the Bulldogs claimed six second-half turnovers as MSU defeated Kentucky 31-14 on Homecoming at Commonwealth Stadium.

The Bulldogs took a 14-7 advantage into the locker room at halftime following Wesley Carroll's one-yard touchdown strike to Anthony Dixon less than two minutes into the second quarter. Mississippi State built its lead to 24-7 out of intermission on a 31-yard field goal by Adam Carlson and another Dixon touchdown. For the day, Carroll completed 15-of-28 passes for 152 yards and two TDs.

UK wide receiver Steve Johnson, Jr., scored his second touchdown of the day with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter to bring the Wildcats within 24-14, but the Bulldogs secured the win with Ducre's 34-yard run for score with 8:15 to go in the game.

Johnson had both of the Cats' touchdowns for the second two-score game of his career. He finished with three catches for a team-high 69 yards. True freshman running back Derrick Locke made his first career start and finished with a career-high 118 all-purpose yards. He rushed 11 times for 46 yards. Quarterback Andre' Woodson finished 24-for-42 for 230 yards with two touchdown passes.

Senior linebacker Wesley Woodyard led the Kentucky defensive effort with a squad-best eight tackles, marking the 33rd consecutive game in which he has recorded at least four stops.
