Storylines

- Kentucky has begun the SEC season 3-0 and has won each of its first three SEC games by at least 23 points for the first time since the 1953-54 season
- Malik Monk scored 47 points vs. No. 7/6 North Carolina on Dec. 17. The 47 points crushed the school's previous freshman record of 35 points
- Monk followed that performance with 34 points at Ole Miss, the most points by a UK freshman on the road. With that game, Monk joined Jamal Murray as the only freshmen in school history with multiple 30-point performances in a season
- Monk is averaging 21.9 points per game. No John Calipari-coached player has ever averaged more than 21.2 points for an entire season
- De'Aaron Fox etched his name into the UK record books vs. Arizona State with just the second triple-double in school history and the first since Chris Mills in 1988 vs. Arizona State
- Only six games later, Isaiah Briscoe pulled off the triple-double feat at Ole Miss. Briscoe and Fox are the first pair of teammates in SEC history to log triple-doubles in the same season
- UK averages just 14.1 seconds per possession, the sixth-fastest mark in the country and the best among Power Five schools
- Bam Adebayo has a remarkable 46 dunks through 15 games. Anthony Davis owns the Calipari-era record with 92 slams
- Monk is second among all freshmen nationally with a 21.9 scoring average and leads all freshmen with 3.27 made 3-pointers a game. Fox is second among all freshmen with 6.7 assists per game and fourth with a 2.81 assist-to-turnover ratio. Adebayo is sixth in blocks per game (1.80) and eighth in rebounds (7.3)
- The Wildcats were picked by league coaches to win their 48th SEC title. UK has won at least a share of four regular-season titles under Calipari

Media Information

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for single-game credentials should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than five days prior to game day online at sportssystem.com/Kentucky.

CREDENTIAL CRITERIA

The University of Kentucky's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a UK basketball home or away event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Amount of coverage given to Kentucky throughout the season
- Intention/ability to cover all 22 sports at Kentucky
- Distribution/size of publication: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.
- Radio or TV station program format and size of audience
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s)
- Attendance at Kentucky media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities
- Space availability
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.

The University of Kentucky has the right to revoke credentials under its own discretion.

INTERVIEW POLICIES-GENERAL

All interviews with University of Kentucky basketball players or staff members must be arranged through the Media Relations office. Media should never contact a player or coach directly.

The Wildcat Coal Lodge, dormitories, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate university personnel.

PRACTICE/PRESS CONFERENCES

Other than announced exceptions, UK basketball practices are closed to the media. UK will accept requests to attend practice. All requests must be made by 10 a.m. on the day of the practice. In cases in which practices are open to the media, no cell phones are allowed in the practice facility.

Player interviews are conducted prior to practices the day before a game and will be available to all UK media in the Joe Craft Center lower-level lobby. UK will accept requests for player interviews, but they must be submitted 24 hours prior to the scheduled availability.

Coach John Calipari or an assistant coach will meet with members of the media immediately following player interviews in the lower level lobby of the Joe Craft Center.

Gameday shoot-arounds are closed to the media.

TELEPHONE PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Telephone interviews are available to the media on a call-back basis. Individual player and coach telephone numbers will not be given to members of the media.

Players are instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted directly by telephone. The UK Media Relations Office will arrange for telephone interviews at a time most convenient for the student-athlete.

Other special requests are handled on a case-by-case basis.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following each game, there is a 20-minute cooling-off period, during which time the players shower and dress. Approximately 10 minutes after the game ends, Coach Calipari conducts his postgame press conference while a player is taken to the UK Sports Network.

Following Coach Calipari's press conference and the cooling-off period, selected UK players are brought to the media interview room.

Wildcats Pull Away from Arkansas to Improve to 3-0 in SEC

With all eyes on Malik Monk as he faced his home-state school, Arkansas, it was one of his backcourt brothers that stole the show Saturday night in a 97-71 Wildcat win at Rupp Arena.

Freshman guard De'Aaron Fox scored a career-high 27 points as No. 6 Kentucky pulled away from Arkansas in the second half to improve to 13-2 on the year, 3-0 in Southeastern Conference play. Derek Willis and Isaiah Briscoe each added 15 points apiece and Monk tallied 12 in his ballyhooed showdown with the Razorbacks.

Fox played one of his most efficient games to date, making 10 of 16 shots, including a 7-of-7 night from the free-throw line. He also added six rebounds and six assists.

Arkansas put up plenty of fight in the first half, roaring out to a 24-20 lead with 8:04 left in the half thanks to a 9-0 run. But the Wildcats would respond with a run of their own using an unconventional lineup.

With Wenyen Gabriel and Willis in foul trouble, the Wildcats went to a four-guard lineup, sparking a 12-0 run that gave Kentucky a lead it would never relinquish.

Things got a little physical and chippy in the second half, but UK kept its composure and eventually pulled away from the Razorbacks. UK controlled the second half, 56-33.

It marked the Wildcats' third straight victory of 23 points or more to start SEC play, the first time that's happened since the 1953-54 season. It's also the first time UK has scored at least 97 points in three consecutive SEC games since Feb. 10, 15 and 17, 1975.

Willis, who had been hard at work polishing his jump shot during Camp Cal, saw the fruits of his labor against Arkansas, making 6 of 8 shots, including a season-best 3 of 3 from behind the arc. With his team off to a slow start in the first half, Willis kept the Wildcats afloat with eight early points. His total of 15 tied his season high.

Additional notes:

- It's the fourth time in John Calipari's eight seasons at UK the Wildcats have been spotless through their first three league games
- UK shot 52.5 percent from the field, the 10th time this season the Wildcats have hit at least half their shots
- Kentucky made 28 of 40 foul shots, season highs in both categories. It's the most free throws UK has shot in a game since attempting 46 vs. Illinois State on Nov. 30, 2015
- Against a team that prides itself on beating the opposition in transition, the Wildcats beat the Razorbacks in fastbreak points 24-4
- In addition to 15 points, Briscoe added a game-high eight boards
- Monk extended his season-opening streak in double figures to 15 games, but it was his first game he failed to make a 3-pointer
- With 11 points, Bam Adebayo extended his double-figure scoring streak to 12 games

Fox Tabbed SEC Freshman of the Week for Fourth Time

For the fourth time this season, Kentucky freshman guard De'Aaron Fox was named the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week. Fox led the Wildcats to a pair of home victories over SEC foes Texas A&M and Arkansas last week. The Houston led the team in scoring, assists and rebounds in the two impressive wins. He averaged 21.0 points, 6.0 assists and 5.5 rebounds per game.

UK's speedy point guard helped guide the offense to 98.5 points per game, while topping the 100-point plateau against the Aggies. It marked the fifth time this season that UK topped 100 points, a new record under the direction of John Calipari and the most since the 1995-96 team scored 100 or more nine times.

Fox poured in a career-high 27 points, while adding six boards and six assists to help topple the Razorbacks. He was an efficient 10 of 16 from the field and a perfect 7 of 7 from the line. It was his best performance at the charity stripe since going 9 for 9 against Canisius in the second game of the season. He had 15 points, six assists and five rebounds in the win over Texas A&M.

For the week, Fox utilized a 60.0 percent field-goal clip, the best among all of UK's guards. He has scored in double figures in all but two games this season. Furthermore, he has posted 10 games with six or more assists, including all three games against league foes.

This marks the eighth weekly award of the season for the Wildcats, the most of any team in the conference. Fox has been tabbed the Freshman of the Week a league-high four times. It's the most SEC Freshman of the Week accolades in a single season since both Ben Simmons of LSU and UK's Jamal Murray captured the honor four times a season ago.

Defensive Charge Sparks Another Offensive Onslaught in Win over Texas A&M

The saying has always been, "defense leads to offense," but for the number of eye-popping offensive displays the 2016-17 Kentucky Wildcats have showcased this season, their defense has been inconsistent. Well, playing in front of a home crowd for the first time in nearly a month, the Wildcats found their spark from a suffocating defensive effort en route to a 100-58 win over Texas A&M on Tuesday. UK flustered the Aggies into 25 turnovers -- the most in the Billy Kennedy era at Texas A&M -- which resulted in 35 points for the Cats off the visitors' mistakes.

In a series that featured overtime games in four of the last five matchups, a 3-0 lead by the Aggies was a misleading sign of what was to come for the 23,455 fans in attendance. Kentucky compiled a 15-0 run over the next three minutes, which saw six consecutive turnovers lead to six straight baskets for a 15-3 advantage that would never again be threatened.

Malik Monk led four Wildcats in double figures and UK topped 100 points for the fifth time this season, the most by a John Calipari-coached team and the most since the 1995-96 season. Monk poured in 26 points and has scored 60 points on 19 of 27 (70.3 percent) from the floor and 10 of 14 (71.4 percent) from 3-point range in his first two career SEC games.

Isaiah Briscoe and De'Aaron Fox combined for 28 points, 13 assists, six rebounds and three steals, while Bam Adebayo contributed 10 points, three blocks and three steals.

Every Wildcat saw action as the team dropped 13 3-pointers, the most since also tallying 13 in a win vs. Alabama in the SEC Tournament a season ago. Kentucky shot 52.4 percent from the field, its second-highest mark of the season and the ninth time this year the Wildcats made more than half their shots. It was the second-most lopsided win in league play in the Calipari era. Additional notes include:

- Kentucky's points per possession was a season-high 1.41
- UK made 21 of 26 at the foul line, a season-best 80.8 percent
- The Wildcats grabbed 13 offensive rebounds and won second-chance points 21-3
- Kentucky won each of their first two SEC games of a season by at least 23 points for the first time since 1996-97
- The Wildcats scored their most points in an SEC home opener (100) since Jan. 4, 1994, vs. Vanderbilt (107)
- UK scored at least 99 points in consecutive SEC regular-season games for the first time since Jan. 23 and 26, 1993
- Monk became the first freshman in program history to score 26 or more points in his first two career SEC games
- Monk became the first UK player to score 26 or more points in consecutive games to begin the SEC season since Dan Issel on Jan. 3 and 5, 1970
- Kentucky improved to 139-5 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 63 points or fewer
- It was Monk's ninth 20-point game of the season and the fourth time he's made at least five treys. He's scored in double figures in every game this season
- Sophomore Jonny David scored a career-high five points, including his first career 3-pointer

Year of the Triple-Double?

It's funny how history works. Prior to this season, Kentucky had just one triple-double in school history, dating all the way back to the program's inception in 1903. Chris Mills pulled off the initial and only one prior to this season on Dec. 27, 1988, but for all the great players to put on the UK uniform, that was it.

Until this season.

After an almost unbelievable absence of triple-doubles, the Wildcats (De'Aaron Fox and Isaiah Briscoe) have not only ended the drought this season, they've pulled off the feat twice -- in a seven-game span.

Fox was the first. On a night of record-setting accomplishments and a collective offensive outburst from the Wildcats in a 115-69 win over Arizona State in the Bahamas, Fox posted 14 points, a career-high 11 rebounds and 10 assists in 31 minutes of play, Fox recorded just the second triple-double in school history.

Only a month later, Briscoe turned the trick with 19 points, a career-high 11 assists and 10 rebounds in a 99-73 victory at Ole Miss. Briscoe had eight points, nine assists and six rebounds by halftime.

With Briscoe's triple-double, Fox and Briscoe became the first pair of teammates in Southeastern Conference history to log triple-doubles in the same season. With the way history has worked this season, could the Wildcats make it three?

High-Percentage Shots

Kentucky has made 50 percent or more of its shots in 10 games this season. That's a remarkable number when you consider the Wildcats have only played 15 games thus far. Why such high numbers? High-percentage shots, of course.

UK has scored a whopping 40.8 percent of its points on either layups or dunks and 44.3 points per game inside the paint. Which leads to another question. How the Wildcats getting such high-percentage baskets?

There could be a number of factors to point to. For one, this UK team likes to play fast and beat other teams down the floor, which can lead to layups and dunks. UK is averaging just 14.1 seconds per possession, the sixth-fastest mark in the country (as of games through Jan. 7).

Defense helps, too. The Wildcats are scoring 22.3 points per game off of turnovers, some of which are easy transition baskets. In that regard, UK is averaging 15.1 fast-break points per game.

Cats Deliver the Knockout Punch

UK is 201-3 (.985) in the John Calipari era when leading by at least 10 points at any time in the contest. Two of those three losses (a 21-point lead at Tennessee and a 12-point lead at Auburn) came during the 2015-16 campaign. The only other loss in the Cal era came during the 2012-13 season when UK gave up an 11-point first-half lead and lost 59-55 at Alabama. All three losses have come to Southeastern Conference foes on the road.

Perhaps most impressive of all is that 73.4 percent of games Calipari has coached in at Kentucky have produced 10-point leads at some point during the game for UK. The Wildcats have led by 10 points or more in a whopping 87.4 percent of Calipari's 230 career wins at Kentucky.

Monk Off to Historic Scoring Start

If there's one thing to be said from the first 15 games of Malik Monk's career, it's that he is as dynamic of an offensive player for the Wildcats as any player John Calipari has ever coached. As a matter of fact, he may be Calipari's best scorer ever. At least that's what the numbers say.

Following his record-setting 47 points vs. No. 7/6 North Carolina, his scoring average jumped all the way up to 21.9 points per game. It still stands at 21.9 points per game. If the season ended today, he would have the highest scoring average of any player Calipari has coached in college. No Calipari player has ever averaged more than 21.2 points for an entire season (Dajuan Wagner at Memphis in 2001-02).

Through games played on Jan. 7, Monk is second among all freshmen nationally in scoring.

The freshman from Lepanto, Arkansas, has topped the 20-point plateau nine times this season and in eight of his last 11 contests. He's reached double figures in all 15 games so far.

Monk isn't just a one-trick pony either. He can beat you in a variety of ways. Off the bounce, he's as good as anyone in the country. Athletically and at the rack, he's elite with a 42-inch vertical and 13 dunks so far -- many of which have appeared on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays.

Perhaps Monk's greatest strength is his ability to shoot. Through 15 games, Monk has connected on 49 made 3-pointers, just behind where Jodie Meeks (54) was when he went on to set the single-season 3-point record in 2008-09 with 117 made 3-pointers. He's made a trey in every game but one.

But Monk isn't just chasing history; he's already made some after the record-setting performance vs. the Tar Heels and at Ole Miss. Among the records and milestones Monk captured in the unforgettable performance vs. the Tar Heels:

- The 47 points vs. UNC were ...
 - The most by a freshman in school history
 - The sixth-most points ever by a Wildcat
 - The most points by a Wildcat since Jodie Meeks recorded the sin-

How Monk Stacks Up to Calipari's Best Scorers

If traditional numbers aren't enough, KenPom.com's efficiency rankings also put Malik Monk in the discussion for the best scorer under John Calipari. Just looking at some of the top Calipari freshmen scorers alone, Monk stacks up favorably.

Fox on Early Pace to Threaten Assists Record

Nearing the midway point of the regular season, Kentucky freshman point guard De'Aaron Fox has lived up to the hype as a speedy guard with exceptional passing ability.

Through the first 15 games, Fox has 101 assists, ahead of where Tyler Ulis (85) sat through the first 15 games last year when he went on to break the school's single-season assist record, and just behind former national player of the year and No. 1 NBA Draft pick John Wall's (102) pace (both Ulis and Wall missed a game during the first 15 contests).

Fox already has a team-leading four double-doubles by way of points and assists, which includes his historic triple-double against Arizona State -- the first triple-double in school history since Chris Mills did it on Dec. 27, 1988.

That's not the only history Fox has made. Against Stephen F. Austin, in the season opener, Fox dished out 12 assists to set two program records. The 12 dimes were the most by any Wildcat in his debut, and the most of any player in a season-opening game since assists began being kept in 1971-72.

The Houston native leads the Southeastern Conference in assists with 6.7 dimes per game (through games on Jan. 7). That mark is eighth nationally and second among all freshmen nationally. When he doesn't pass it, Fox is an adept scorer as well, averaging 16.3 points per game, ranked seventh in the SEC.

Adebayo Providing Extra Punch to Offense

After scoring in single digits in two of his first three career outings, freshman big man Bam Adebayo has topped double-figure scoring in each of UK's last 12 games to provide a consistent inside presence to complement UK's guard-heavy lineup. He's averaging 13.1 points per game on the season to go along with a team best 7.3 rebounds per game.

Even more impressive is his efficiency. Adebayo is utilizing a team-best .581 field-goal percentage with players attempting at least three shots a game. He already has 46 dunks on the season, including a career-high eight at Ole Miss. The most by a player in the John Calipari era is Anthony Davis with 92 during the 2011-12 season.

Adebayo isn't just contributing offensively, however, as told by his team-high 1.9 blocks per game.

Calipari's Best Freshman Trio Yet?

Among the many things Kentucky has been known for since John Calipari's arrival at Kentucky, the Wildcats have featured the nation's best freshmen. From John Wall and DeMarcus Cousins, to Brandon Knight and Terrence Jones, Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist, Nerlens Noel, Karl-Anthony Towns, Devin Booker, Tyler Ulis, and Jamal Murray -- just to name a handful -- UK has seen its fair share of freshman phenoms.

Believe it or not, De'Aaron Fox, Malik Monk and Bam Adebayo may be as impressive of a trio as Calipari has ever coached. They've each had electrifying and jaw-dropping performances, and between the three of them, they lead UK in points, rebounds, assists, blocks and steals.

Combined the trio is averaging 51.3 points, 14.9 rebounds and 9.7 assists per game. For comparison, the 2009-10 freshman trio of Wall, Cousins and Eric Bledsoe -- who likely would be the strongest competition to this year's group -- combined to average 43.1 points, 17.3 rebounds and 10.3 assists per game by the end of the season.

This year's edition of the freshman class isn't just statistically good among past UK greats, they're also some of the elite performers nationally. Monk is second in the country among all freshmen with a 21.0 scoring average and his 3.27 made 3-pointers a game leads all freshmen. Fox is second among all freshmen with 6.7 assists per game and fourth with a 2.81 assist-to-turnover ratio. Adebayo is sixth in blocks per game (1.80) and eighth in rebounds (7.3).

Kentucky has the unquestionable reputation as the league's gold standard. Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 959-268 mark (.782) in conference play. Only two other teams have won more than 700 regular-season SEC games (Alabama, Tennessee) and no other team has a better winning percentage.

- UK has averaged 11.5 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 83 seasons in the SEC

- Kentucky has won 47 SEC titles and 29 SEC Tournament championships
- The Wildcats have won 14 of the last 24 SEC Tournament titles
- UK has won at least a share of four of the last seven SEC regular-season championships under head coach John Calipari
- Kentucky has played in the championship game of the SEC Tournament in six of Calipari's seven seasons following its 2016 title

Kentucky Picked to Win 48th SEC Title

The Kentucky men's basketball program finds itself in familiar territory under the direction of eighth-year head coach John Calipari. UK started the season faced with the tough task of replacing more than 75 percent of its scoring and 70 percent of its rebounding from the 2015-16 team, yet a select panel of media voted the Wildcats to repeat as Southeastern Conference champions. Should Kentucky achieve that standard, it would mark the fifth regular-season title under Calipari and the program's 48th overall.

It's the 12th time since the 1998-99 season the Wildcats are the overall preseason favorite. UK was picked to win the title a season ago and did not disappoint, sharing the crown with Texas A&M. Calipari has directed his teams to regular-season SEC crowns in 2010, 2012, 2015 and 2016.

Each school selected media members that cover their team and additional media from across the nation were selected by the conference office to comprise the voting panel. Points were compiled on a 14-13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Each media member also voted for two All-SEC teams.

Senior Trio Adding Consistency to Lineup

UK's senior class of Dominique Hawkins, Mychal Mulder and Derek Willis are all playing significant minutes for the Cats and are producing in a variety of ways. The trio averages a combined 16.3 points, 7.8 rebounds, 3.5 assists, 1.7 steals and 1.3 blocks per game.

Willis is averaging a career-best 4.5 rebounds, Mulder has scored a career-high 90 points, while Hawkins owns a team-best 8.8 assist-to-turnover ratio. The 16.3 points per game from the seniors is the best in the John Calipari era. The 2012 team consisting of Darius Miller and Eloy Vargas averaged 10.6 points per game.

The 244 points scored on the year is already the fifth most by a senior class since the 2009-10 season.

Winning Big in Historic Fashion

Kentucky won its first seven games by at least 21 points. The only other team in school history to accomplish that feat was the 1947-48 team, which also ended its streak at seven games.

Among the seven victories, four (Duquesne, Cleveland State, UT Martin and Arizona State) saw the Cats win by at least 31. It was the first time UK had won four consecutive games by at least 31 points since Feb. 2-8, 1954, when it won four consecutive games by that margin.

UK's current scoring margin is plus-22.9 points per game, the second-best mark in the country (as of games through Jan. 7). The Wildcats' first nine wins were all by at least 21 points, the first time that's happened since the 1934-35 season.

When Kentucky beat Ole Miss by 23 points in the Southeastern Conference opener on Dec. 29, it marked the largest victory in an SEC opener for the Wildcats since Jan. 2, 1999, when UK beat Florida by 35 points. With two more blowouts vs. Texas A&M and Arkansas, Kentucky has won its first three league tilts by at least 23 points for the first time since the 1953-54 season.

Fastest Calipari Team Ever?

It's no secret that a staple of John Calipari-coached teams is to play fast. You'll hear him from the sidelines imploring his teams to get out and run and score as many transition baskets as possible.

Well, the 2016-17 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats is just that - really fast, as told by their average possession lasting just 14.1 seconds. As of Jan. 7, that mark was the sixth-fastest mark in the nation, and the best among Power Five programs.

But, for a coach who directs his teams to run the floor, this team takes it to a whole new level. This is the fastest Calipari team while at Kentucky and the fastest by more than two seconds.

Average Possession Length and KenPom's Adjusted Tempo Ranking:

2016-17 (UK): 14.1, 6th	2013-14 (UK): 17.9, 156th	2010-11 (UK): 18.3, 219th
2015-16 (UK): 17.7, 219th	2012-13 (UK): 17.4, 106th	2009-10 (UK): 16.2, 31st
2014-15 (UK): 17.7, 98th	2011-12 (UK): 17.8, 142nd

Keep It 100

For all the offensive weapons John Calipari's teams have featured during his eight seasons at Kentucky, this squad might have the most firepower, as told by the Wildcats' 94.2 scoring average, ranked second in the country (as of games through Jan. 7). That number is better than the 1995-96 team's final scoring average of 91.4, the best school mark in the shot-clock era, and slightly behind the school-record average of 95.4 from the 1970-71 season.

UK surpassed the Cal era record for most 100-point games in a season when it dropped 100 on Texas A&M in the SEC home opener. The previous mark was four games during the 2009-10 team. It's the most 100-point games for any UK team since the 1995-96 season when that squad posted nine games of 100 or more.

Three of this season's games came consecutively. UK logged a 101-70 win over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, followed it up with 111 points vs. UT Martin in a 111-76 victory and then dropped 115 on Arizona State in a 115-69 win. It marked the first time the Wildcats had scored 100 or more points in three straight outings since Dec. 16-23, 1977.

UK's 115 points vs. Arizona State are the most of the John Calipari era and the most since the Wildcats netted 115 vs. East Tennessee State on Dec. 30, 2002.

Sharing is Caring

Perhaps the most defining trait of John Calipari's teams and their success is their willingness to share the ball. Calipari, on an annual basis, brings in the nation's most talented players, most of whom were accustomed to taking the majority of the shots on their high school teams.

At Kentucky, to better prepare them for the next level, they learn to share -- and to prosper from it. Calipari doesn't promise shots to anyone. Instead, he preaches that as the team succeeds, everyone benefits.

This team may be his greatest example of that yet. With all the talent this team has, it has shared the ball better than any other Calipari team at Kentucky. The Wildcats have 282 assists through 15 games, 26 more than the 2009-10 team had at this point in the season. That group owns the Calipari era record for total assists with 573 by season's end.

Four players are averaging 2.1 assists or more per game, and Kentucky's 18.8 assists per game ranks fourth in the nation (as of games through Jan. 7). As a matter of fact, UK's assists average is only slightly behind the 1995-96 UK team's mark of 21.8 assists per game. That team went on to set the school record of 783 assists in 36 games.

Against Arizona State, the Wildcats dished out 33 assists (on 44 made field goals), the most in the Calipari era and just two off of the school record. UK also had 25 assists against Cleveland State, the fifth most in the Cal era.

Kentucky dishes out an assist on 55.2 percent of its field goals.

Kentucky Elite Under Cal

Since John Calipari took over the program in 2009-10, no one in the country has had more wins than Kentucky, and only Kansas and Gonzaga have a better winning percentage. UK is 230-49 (.824) during that time span.

1. Kansas: 230-44 (.8394)
2. Gonzaga: 217-45 (.8282)
3. Kentucky: 230-49 (.8244)
4. Duke: 224-49 (.8205)
5. Wichita State: 215-51 (.8083)

Big-Game Cal

John Calipari's teams aren't just good against the best teams in the country, they're great. Not only does Kentucky have a 46-19 record (.708) vs. Associated Press Top 25 teams, UK is 5-2 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five under Calipari.

All-time, Calipari is 11-6 when both teams are ranked in the AP top five. According to the SEC Network, only four coaches have won more such games. When both teams are ranked in the AP Top 25, Calipari's all-time record is 69-44, including a 39-16 mark at Kentucky. When both are ranked in the top 10 he has a 23-12 record, including 12-5 at UK.

Taking Care of Business

Kentucky's 46-19 record vs. opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 is impressive, but the Wildcats' ability to beat all-comers can't be overlooked. Under John Calipari, UK is 184-30 vs. unranked competition, an .860 winning percentage. The Wildcats' loss to UCLA during the 2015-16 season was its first loss to an unranked opponent since March 1, 2014.

Always Efficient

According to Ken Pomeroy's calculations on kenpom.com, UK's teams under John Calipari have consistently ranked among the most efficient teams in the country per possession.

Year	Offense (Rank)	Defense (Rank)	Overall
2017	121.3 (3)	90.0 (6)	1st
2016	120.4 (5)	98.0 (53)	6th

rankings through Jan. 7, 2017*

Bounce Back

The Wildcats don't lose very often during the John Calipari era, but when they do, they almost always bounce back.

UK is 36-7 under Calipari following a loss. Kentucky's back-to-back losses at Kansas and at Tennessee during the 2015-16 season were its first consecutive losses since losing a pair to Arkansas and South Carolina on Feb. 27, 2014 and March 1, 2014, respectively.

The Wildcats have only lost back-to-back games seven times during the Calipari era and they've never lost three in a row with Calipari on the sidelines. The last time UK lost three games in a row was in February 2009 when the Wildcats dropped four straight games to end the regular season.

Hold Them to 55

Defense has always been a recipe for success for the Wildcats under John Calipari. The special ingredient: 55 points. UK is a perfect 63-0 under Calipari when holding the opponent to 55 points or fewer. The Wildcats are 139-5 under Calipari when limiting the opponent to 63 points or less.

Three is Better Than Two

UK passed UNLV for the nation's longest active streak of consecutive games with a made 3-pointer in its final game of 2015-16. Having played two more games than the Wildcats this season through games on Jan. 7, UNLV has retaken the lead by one game with 991 consecutive contests with a 3-pointer. UK's current streak is 990 games.

The Cats' last game without a made 3-pointer came against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988 a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout.

Forever Young

Kentucky began the 2016-17 season with two veterans in the starting lineup in senior Derek Willis and sophomore Isaiah Briscoe. However, Kentucky once again checks in as one of the youngest teams in terms of experience, according to kenpom.com. UK ranks No. 347 out of 351 in terms of experience per minute. Only Mississippi State is younger among Power Five institutions.

UK's Nonconference Schedule Loaded

According to the NCAA's calculations, the Wildcats have played the fourth-toughest schedule to date. Through games on Jan. 7, UK's opponents have won 67.4 percent of their games.

UK's 12-game nonconference schedule prior to league play featured eight teams that made it to a postseason tournament in 2015-16, five teams who finished the year with a top 50 RPI ranking and four nationally ranked opponents at the time of the game. Three of KenPom's top five teams from last season (North Carolina, Kansas and Michigan State) were among UK's early schedule. Four of the Wildcats' nonconference opponents were ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 at the time, with UK going 2-2 in those games.

Kentucky still has one remaining nonconference team in Kansas in the SEC-Big 12 Challenge. The teams will meet on Jan. 28 in Rupp Arena.

The Wildcats' slate took the Wildcats as far east as the Bahamas for the second game of a two-year deal with Arizona State and as far west as Las Vegas for a matchup with North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic.

Kentucky also traveled twice to New York, first to play Michigan State in Madison Square Garden, and then against Hofstra at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn.

All told, Kentucky's 2016-17 nonconference opponents combined for a record of 200-157 in 2015-16, a .649 winning percentage. Four teams finished the season ranked in the top 25 of the all-important RPI. Five teams started the season ranked in both the AP Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches Poll.

National Attention

Kentucky basketball always garners the eyes of the country as UK routinely draws some of the highest national rating numbers on TV for college basketball games. Of course, this season has been no different.

The Wildcats' game vs. North Carolina in the CBS Sports Classic was the most watched college basketball game of the season (to that point) across any network, according to CBS. The game, which is being hailed as an all-time classic after Kentucky won a 103-100 thriller, drew a 2.4 household rating with a 5 share. In other words, 2.4 of all households with a TV set watched the game, while 5 percent of those watching TV at the time tuned in for the game.

The Kentucky-Louisville game was ESPN's best overnight (1.8) for a college basketball game this season. It also averaged a streaming audience of 60,000 people.

UK's game against Michigan State in the Champions Classic saw a total live audience of 2,150,000 viewers, including a streaming audience of 67,000 average viewers -- a top-five men's regular-season streaming audience ever for ESPN.

Keep a Watchful Eye on the Cats

Stocked full of some of the nation's top talent, a handful of Wildcats are on a number of national preseason watch lists:

- Bam Adebayo - Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award, Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award
- Isaiah Briscoe - Lute Olson Award
- De'Aaron Fox - Bob Cousy Award, Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award
- Malik Monk - Jerry West Award, Naismith Trophy, Wooden Award

Best in the Bluegrass

Kentucky has been dominant against teams in the state under John Calipari. UK is 14-2 against in-state foes with Calipari at the helm, including 8-2 vs. Louisville. Two of the victories over the Cardinals came in postseason play. UK had its four-game winning streak snapped this season, but has won all four meetings played in Rupp Arena. Louisville's two wins have come by a combined six points.

Here's a list of the meetings between the state's two premier programs since Coach Cal took over at Kentucky:

- Jan. 2, 2010 - UK won 71-62 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 31, 2010 - UK won 78-63 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 31, 2011 - UK won 69-62 at Rupp Arena
- March 31, 2012 - UK won 69-61 at the Superdome (NCAA Final Four in New Orleans)
- Dec. 29, 2012 - Louisville won 80-77 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 28, 2013 - UK won 73-66 at Rupp Arena
- March 28, 2014 - UK won 74-69 at Lucas Oil Stadium (NCAA Sweet 16 in Indianapolis)
- Dec. 27, 2014 - UK won 58-50 at KFC YUM! Center
- Dec. 26, 2015 - UK won 75-73 at Rupp Arena
- Dec. 21, 2016 - Louisville won 73-70 at KFC YUM! Center

All-Time Wins Leader Returned to the Top of the Polls

Kentucky was the top team in the land according to the Associated Press Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches Poll for two consecutive weeks (Nov. 21 and 28).

UK and John Calipari have been tough to beat playing the role of the hunted:

- The Wildcats own an all-time record of 221-30 (.880) as the nation's top-ranked squad
- UK has won 66 of its last 71 contests as the AP's top team
- The Wildcats are 69-7 (.908) as the AP No. 1 team since Calipari's first year at the helm, the best record in the country by a top-ranked team during that span
- In eight seasons under Calipari, the Wildcats have reached No. 1 in six of those seasons
- Calipari is 110-12 (.902) all-time as head coach of the AP's No. 1 team
- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing John Wooden (228), Mike Krzyzewski (233) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952), and is ahead of active coaches

Krzyzewski (.870) and Roy Williams (.849)

- Only Krzyzewski (193) has more wins as a No. 1 ranked coach among active NCAA Division I teams than Calipari
- Prior to the home loss vs. UCLA on Dec. 3, Kentucky had lost just twice at home as the AP top-ranked team in the history of the program and just once in Rupp Arena. Both of those losses came by just one point
- UK has been ranked No. 1 a total of 124 weeks since the AP started ranking teams during the 1948-49 season. Only UCLA (134) and Duke (129) have been atop the rankings for more weeks

Fox Posts Triple-Double in Record Rout of Arizona State

On a night of record-setting accomplishments and a collective offensive outburst from the Wildcats in a 115-69 win over Arizona State in the Bahamas, one achievement stood out above the rest: De'Aaron Fox's triple-double.

With 14 points, a career-high 11 rebounds and 10 assists in 31 minutes of play, Fox etched his name into the Kentucky record books with just the second triple-double in school history. Chris Mills notched the first and only other triple-double for UK on Dec. 27, 1988.

Fox collected his 10th assist with 4:44 left to play to get the triple-double on a Malik Monk 3-pointer. Coincidentally, the 3-pointer and record-setting assist put the Wildcats over the 100-point mark for the third consecutive game, the first time that's happened since December of 1977. Those were just a few of numerous eye-popping stats from UK's dominating performance on Paradise Island in the Bahamas.

- The total of 115 points was the most of the Calipari era and the most since Dec. 30, 2002, when UK scored 115 in a win over East Tennessee State
- With the 46-point drubbing, this season's Wildcats joined the 1947-48 Kentucky team as the only squads in school history to win their first seven games by at least 21 points. No team in program history has ever done it eight straight times to begin the year
- Kentucky's 33 assists are the high mark of the Calipari era. The 33 assists were two off the school record and the most since setting the school record with 35 on March 14, 1996, vs. San Jose State
- The Wildcats took more shots (84) than they ever have under Calipari thanks to the blazing pace of play and tied the Calipari-era mark for the most rebounds in a game
- The 59 rebounds tied Calipari-era mark for the most rebounds in a game
- The last time UK won four consecutive games by at least 31 points was February 1954

Wildcats Sign Four in Fall Signing Period for 2017

Continuing a trend that started with the arrival of head coach John Calipari, the Kentucky men's basketball program has once again put together one of the strongest recruiting classes in the country, signing four of the nation's top players during the early fall signing period. Highly rated prospects Shai Gilgeous-Alexander, Quade Green, Nick Richards and P.J. Washington have all inked national letters of intent with UK.

All four players are consensus four- or five-star prospects and all are ranked in the top 50 by the major national recruiting services. In a class stocked full of highly regarded players, national analysts are already calling UK's class one of the nation's top hauls for 2017.

In every season in the Calipari era, the Wildcats have signed either the nation's No. 1 or No. 2 recruiting class. UK looks to continue that streak with the latest additions of Gilgeous-Alexander, Green, Richards and Washington.

- Gilgeous-Alexander will come to Kentucky out of Hamilton Heights Christian Academy in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Originally from Canada, Gilgeous-Alexander was a member of the 2016 Canadian Men's U18 National Team that captured the silver medal at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship over the summer. He averaged 7.8 points, a tournament-best 5.4 assists and 3.0 steals per game, second best in the field. ESPN, Scout and 247Sports tab him a top-50, four-star prospect.
- Green is considered a five-star point guard prospect by Rivals, ESPN and Scout. ESPN ranks him as high as the No. 22 overall prospect in the class, while Rivals has him at No. 23, Scout tabs him at No. 25 and 247Sports list him at No. 31. Green, who was named the 2016 Pennsylvania Class 3A Player of the Year as a junior, was a part of the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship team that won a gold medal in Chile. He averaged 18.7 points, 4.2 rebounds and 3.8 assists in leading Neumann-Goretti High School to the Pennsylvania state championship last season.
- Richards will be the second player in the Calipari era to join Kentucky out of the Patrick

School in Elizabeth, New Jersey. National champion and No. 2 overall NBA Draft selection, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist was the other. Richards is ranked in the top 20 by the major recruiting services, including ESPN (No. 12), 247 Sports (No. 15), Scout (No. 17) and Rivals (No. 19). 247Sports tabs him as the second-best center in the class. He's a consensus five-star prospect.

- Washington, measured at 6-8, 229 pounds, is rated as high as No. 14 overall in the rankings by Scout. 247Sports and ESPN have him at No. 16 and Rivals tabs him No. 17. The five-star prospect is considered the top power forward in the class by Scout. Washington was a member of the 2016 USA Men's U18 National Team that won a gold medal at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championship over the summer. He started all five games and averaged 10.0 points and 4.0 rebounds. Washington also represented the U.S. at the 2015 FIBA 3x3 U18 World Championship.

Monk's Record Scoring Night Headlines Classic Win vs. UNC

For all the classic games the Kentucky-North Carolina series has featured, the 2016-17 matchup in Las Vegas was right up there with the best of them thanks to a record-setting scoring day from Malik Monk.

The UK freshman guard scored 47 points -- including the game-winning 3-pointer with 22 seconds to go -- to lead the Wildcats to a thrilling 103-100 victory in the CBS Sports Classic at T-Mobile Arena. Monk set all sorts of milestones with the offensive display, most notably crushing the previous UK freshman scoring record of 35 points, set by Terrence Jones (Jan. 11, 2011) and later tied by Jamal Murray (Feb. 6, 2016). Monk tied the program's all-time leading scorer, Dan Issel, for the sixth-most points ever by a Wildcat in a single game, and scored the most points by a Wildcat since Jodie Meeks recorded the single-game record of 54 points at Tennessee on Jan. 18, 2009.

On a day when both teams were at their near offensive peak -- both teams shot better than 50 percent from both the field and 3-point range -- Monk was just better than everyone else.

It was Kentucky's fourth victory in the last five games vs. North Carolina and its second win over a ranked team this season.

Noteworthy:

- Monk's 47 points are the most ever by a John Calipari-coached player in college. They are also the most in a single game by a Southeastern Conference freshman since Chris Jackson of LSU scored 55 points vs. Ole Miss on March 4, 1989, as well as the second-most points by a freshman in Division I college basketball since at least the 1996-97 season
- The 47 points tied the second most ever scored against North Carolina. It's the most since Rick Yuknus (Georgia Tech) scored 47 on Feb. 14, 1970. The record is 48 by Dick Groat on Feb. 29, 1952
- Tied for the sixth-most points in a game in school history, the 47 points are the second most ever by a Kentucky player against a nonconference opponent. Cliff Hagan scored 51 points vs. Temple on Dec. 5, 1953
- It was the first time UK has allowed 100 points in a game since losing to VMI 111-103 on Nov. 14, 2008. It was the first time Kentucky won a game in which it allowed 100 or more points since defeating Alabama 101-100 on March 1, 1979
- It was just the second time in UNC history and the first time in a regulation-length game that UNC lost a game in which it scored 100 points
- The Wildcats outrebounded the nation's No. 1 rebounding team (in terms of rebounding margin) 39-35. It was the first time in UNC's first 12 games it had been outrebounded
- The game was the most watched college basketball game of the season across any network, according to CBS. It drew a 2.4 household rating with a 5 share. In other words, 2.4 of all households with a TV set watched the game, while 5 percent of those watching TV at the time tuned in for the game
- The Wildcats scored 103 points, the most Kentucky has ever scored vs. the Tar Heels in a win
- UK shot 54.1 percent from the field, marking the seventh time in 11 games the Cats had made more than half their shots
- Kentucky topped the 100-point plateau for the fourth time this season. It tied the most 100-point games in the Calipari era as the 2009-10 team also achieved the feat

UK Leads Nation with 24 Players on NBA Opening-Day Rosters

The Kentucky men's basketball team, the nation's most prolific NBA player-producing program, once again leads the country with 24 players on an opening-day NBA roster. Duke came in second with 19.

Of the 449 players in the NBA to start the 2016-17 season, approximately 5.35 percent played college basketball at UK. Kentucky's NBA dominance is best represented in Phoenix and Sacramento, where a combined seven Wildcats now play at the highest level of the game.

Eric Bledsoe, Devin Booker, Brandon Knight and Tyler Ulis are all part of the 2016-17 Phoenix Suns roster, while former UK stars Willie Cauley-Stein, DeMarcus Cousins and Skal Labissiere call Sacramento their home. Two other franchises – the Charlotte Hornets (Aaron Harrison, Michael Kidd-Gilchrist) and the New Orleans Pelicans (Anthony Davis and Terrence Jones) – opened the season with two Wildcats apiece.

Using figures compiled by spotrac.com, Kentucky players' current contracts alone are valued at more than $659 million. Calipari-coached players only (which includes Derrick Rose and Tyreke Evans but not Jodie Meeks or Rajon Rondo) have nearly $751 million in current contracts. In just the 2016-17 season alone, UK players are slated to make more than $172 million. Calipari-coached players only will make more than $183 million. Over the course of their careers, Calipari players have generated approximately $1.2 billion in total NBA contracts.

The UK players aren't just making the NBA either; they're among the league's best players. The Wildcats are among the league leaders in every major statistical category.

All-Americans Play at Kentucky

Three different Wildcats -- all freshmen -- were named to at least one preseason All-America Team.

Bam Adebayo was tabbed a preseason second-team All-American by CBSSports.com and a third-team selection by College Basketball Talk, De'Aaron Fox was named a second-team All-American by Sporting News, and Malik Monk was a third-team pick by CBSSports.com.

Of course, those honors are just preseason, but UK has a track record of All-America honors, especially under John Calipari. Ten different Wildcats have earned All-America honors by one of the NCAA-recognized teams under Calipari.

Four Cats Selected to Preseason All-SEC Teams

Four players were selected to the preseason All-SEC squads by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press.

Freshmen Bam Adebayo and De'Aaron Fox were picked to the first team, while sophomore Isaiah Briscoe and freshman Malik Monk were tabbed to the second team.

Arkansas senior forward Moses Kingsley was tabbed the preseason pick for the league's player of the year award by the AP. The league's coaches do not pick a preseason player of the year.

Justus Moves to Assistant Coach Role; Robic Special Assistant

Joel Justus, who joined Kentucky two seasons ago as the director of analytics and then special assistant to the head coach, moved to one of the three assistant coaching positions for the 2016-17 season. John Robic, who has served as an assistant to Calipari at three different schools since the late 1980s, moved into the special assistant to the head coach role prior to start of practices in late September.

"I feel I have the best staff of people who surround me in the country," John Calipari said at the time of the announcement. "All are strong in areas that I'm weak. All of them understand that the relationships with our current players and working with them every single day to help them get better is the key to their success and this program. No one should look at this in any other way than me trying to shuffle our staff to put them in the best positions to succeed personally and for them to help our program remain the gold standard."

"Kenny (Payne), Tony (Barbee) and I will continue to work on putting the best incoming classes that we can together with young people who want Kentucky as bad as we want them and who understand that the program isn't for everyone. By putting Joel where he is and having him focus on who we need to hone in on, we'll be more prepared than we've ever been, which is scary. Robes will continue to focus on his strength of making us the most well-prepared team in the country and putting our kids in positions to succeed."

Chuck Hayes Inducted into UK Athletics Hall of Fame

Chuck Hayes was inducted into the UK Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of the 2016 class in October.

A fan favorite for relentless defense and tenacious rebounding, he was named the 2005 Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year and still ranks seventh in career rebounds with 910 in program history. He led the team to the 2005 SEC regular-season championship and was a key member on the 2003 and 2004 SEC Tournament titles.

Cousins Wins First Olympic Gold Medal with USA Basketball

Snatching up what seemed like every rebound, former Wildcat DeMarcus Cousins also hauled in the first Olympic gold medal of his career with a strong performance in the championship game of the 2016 Olympics.

With a gold medal on the line, Cousins saved his best for last for USA Basketball. Coming off the bench for a third straight game, Cousins set the tempo early by dominating the paint, sparking Team USA to a 40-15 first-half run, and ultimately to a 96-66 rout of Serbia.

Cousins played as well as he has all tournament, posting 13 points and a game-high 15 rebounds for his third double-digit scoring game of the Olympics. He had 11 points and 12 rebounds by halftime.

The 6-foot-11 forward, who was drafted fifth overall in 2010 after a sensational freshman season at Kentucky, averaged 9.1 points and 5.8 rebounds in eight games at the Olympics. He shot 61.4 percent from the floor, only shooting less than 50 percent in one game during the run.

Cousins is the 10th Wildcat all-time to compete in the Olympics and win a gold medal (not counting Sam Bowie, who was awarded a medal by President Jimmy Carter after the United States boycotted the 1980 Moscow Games), tied with North Carolina and UCLA for the most among all colleges. Cousins is also the third former UK player in a row to win a gold medal. Anthony Davis captured the gold at the last Olympics, in 2012, and Tayshaun Prince was a part of the 2008 gold-medal team. Cousins is the second John Calipari player to win a gold medal, joining Davis.

CBS Sports Classic Renewed for Three Years

Perennial powers Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio State and UCLA will continue to compete in the CBS Sports Classic, which has been renewed for the next three years.

The 2017 event will be held Dec. 23 at New Orleans' Smoothie King Center. Dates and locations for the 2018 and 2019 doubleheaders will be announced at a later date. Over the duration of the extension, the programs will face each other in a round-robin format.

Matchups for 2017 will feature Ohio State taking on North Carolina and UCLA facing Kentucky. Games in 2018 will include Kentucky-North Carolina and Ohio State-UCLA, while contests in 2019 will feature North Carolina-UCLA and Ohio State-Kentucky. The games will be televised by CBS Sports.

A Winning Institution

Both the UK men's and women's basketball teams posted a seventh straight 20-win season in 2015-16. Kentucky is one of just three institutions (UK, BYU and Duke) in the NCAA that have seen both their men's and women's basketball programs tally 20 or more wins in seven consecutive seasons.

UK's men's team had 27 total wins last season, while the women won 25.

Wins vs. Losses

In most all of sports it's easy to pinpoint areas of improvement in losses versus a team's wins. The 2016-17 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats is no different. Here's a look at some of the key stats in wins compared with those same stats in losses.

NEED-TO-KNOW NOTES

Cats Rock at Rupp

UK has won 210 of its last 238 home games, including a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era and a recent 42-game winning streak. All-time, the Wildcats are 554-65 (.895) in Rupp Arena.

Among the most notable marks of dominance in the nation's toughest venue to play include:

- The Wildcats are 295-40 (.881) in regular-season SEC games in the building
- Kentucky set a new program home record of 19 wins in 2014-15
- The Wildcats have gone undefeated at home in five of John Calipari's seven seasons, including 2014-15 and 2015-16
- Overall, UK has posted a perfect mark in 13 of Rupp Arena's 40 seasons

Cal Owns Longest Win Streaks in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

The winning streak reached as long as 54 games. Calipari didn't suffer his first loss in Rupp Arena until losing to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career winning streak. He also had the second-longest streak in the arena as the Cats won 42 straight from March 4, 2014 to Nov. 25, 2016.

Pack the House

Kentucky has led the nation in average home attendance in 18 of the last 21 seasons, including a Rupp Arena record of 24,110 in John Calipari's first season (2009-10) as head coach.

- Kentucky averaged 23,362 fans during the 2015-16 season
- UK has averaged 23,000 or more fans in six of Calipari's seven seasons

The Top-Ranked Team at Home

Kentucky has lost just three times at home as the Associated Press top-ranked team in the history of the program and just twice in Rupp Arena. Prior to the loss to UCLA by three on Dec. 3, the other two losses came by just one point.

The Wildcats are 53-2 all-time as the AP No. 1 team in Rupp Arena since its opening in 1976. The first loss was to Auburn, 53-52, on Jan. 9, 1988.

Coach Cal in Rupp Arena

It's been downright difficult to beat the Wildcats at Rupp Arena during the John Calipari era. UK is 127-5 (.962) at Rupp Arena under Calipari.

- UK is 16-2 vs. ranked opponents in Rupp in the Calipari era
- The Wildcats are 111-3 (.974) vs. unranked teams in Rupp under Calipari
- UK is 68-2 (.971) at home vs. nonconference foes under Calipari
- Calipari notched his 100th career win at Rupp Arena as UK's coach with the Wildcats' 110-75 rout of Auburn on Feb. 21, 2014. It took Calipari just 104 games to reach the century mark at home, the fastest of any UK coach

Cal Passes Hall for Rupp Record

With a 101-70 victory over Cleveland State on Nov. 23, John Calipari passed former UK head coach Joe B. Hall for the wins in Rupp Arena history.

Calipari currently has 127 victories inside the historic venue. Hall won 122.

First-Ballot Hall of Famer

Kentucky men's basketball coach John Calipari joined basketball's fraternity of legends in September 2015 after being elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on the first ballot.

Calipari joined an elite group of basketball players and coaches in the Naismith Hall of Fame, considered to be one of the ultimate honors in the sport.

The Class of 2015 included Calipari, Dick Bevetta, Wildcat Louie Dampier, Lindsay Gaze, Tom Heinsohn, John Isaacs, Spencer Haywood, Lisa Leslie, Dikembe Mutombo, George Raveling and JoJo White.

Calipari Wins 200th Career Game at UK in Record Time

With a thrilling 75-73 victory over rival Louisville on Dec. 26, 2015, John Calipari captured his 200th career win at Kentucky faster than any coach in UK history -- and nearly faster than anyone has ever done it at any other school.

Calipari reached the 200-win plateau in his 240th career game at Kentucky. Rick Pitino, previously the fastest to 200 wins at UK prior to Calipari, didn't capture his 200th Wildcat win until his 249th game. The legendary Adolph Rupp reached 200 during his 250th game.

Not only did Calipari reach the 200-win mark in record pace at Kentucky, he also nearly set the all-time Division I mark. With the win over U of L, he became the second-fastest Division I men's basketball coach to reach 200 victories at a single school, behind only LIU-Brooklyn's Clair Bee, who achieved the feat in 231 games.

Calipari is one of just 11 head coaches in Division I men's basketball history with at least 200 victories at two different schools and just the fifth coach at Kentucky to reach the 200-win plateau.

He's currently the only coach in NCAA history with at least 189 victories at three different schools.

Here's a look at some of the more impressive numbers in Calipari's journey to 200 wins:

- UK beat Florida more than anyone else during the first 200 wins, defeating the Gators 11 times
- Likewise, Kentucky beat Louisville (eight times) more than any other nonconference opponent
- Calipari defeated 89 different Division I schools (25.4 percent) of current Division I schools) during the run
- A total of 176 wins came with UK ranked in the AP Top 25, and 66 of them were while UK was No. 1

UMass Raises Banner in Calipari's Honor

As part of a 20th anniversary celebration of the UMass men's basketball 1995-96 Final Four team, the UMass Department of Athletics honored John Calipari on Dec. 16, 2015, prior to its game against New Orleans by raising a banner into the rafters at the Mullins Center.

Calipari's banner joined the retired jerseys of five all-time Minutemen: George "Trigger" Burkey, Marcus Camby, Julius "Dr. J" Irving, Lou Roe and Al Skinner.

- Calipari began his head coaching career at UMass where he turned the Minutemen into a national powerhouse from 1988-96
- In addition to the 1995-96's team's 35-2 record and the Final Four appearance, Calipari led the Minutemen to the 1991-92 NCAA Sweet 16, the 1992-93 and 1993-94 NCAA second round, and the 1994-95 NCAA Elite Eight. UMass won five straight Atlantic 10 titles during that span as well

Nearly Unanimous

John Calipari collected nearly every major national coach of the year award after guiding the historic 2014-15 Wildcats to a perfect regular season and eventually a fourth Final Four appearance in five seasons. Among the awards Calipari won in 2014-15:

- Associated Press National Coach of the Year
- Naismith National Coach of the Year
- NABC National Coach of the Year
- The Sporting News National Coach of the Year
- Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year
- SEC Coach of the Year
- 2015 USBWA District IV Coach of the Year

600 On-Court Victories

With a win over No. 5 Kansas on Nov. 18, 2014, John Calipari claimed his 600th on-court victory as a Division I head coach. He became the 13th active Division I coach to achieve the feat.

Calipari at No. 1

John Calipari is one of just two coaches (Frank McGuire) to lead three programs to a No. 1 ranking. With UK's No. 1 ranking in 2016-17, Calipari has guided six of his last eight and seven of his last 10 teams to the No. 1 ranking (and the ninth time he's done it overall).

When Coach Cal's teams have been at the top, they're been difficult to knock off:

- Calipari is 110-12 (.902) as the top-ranked Associated Press Top 25 coach in the country
- He's 69-7 (.908) when his team is at the top of the AP Top 25 as UK's head coach

AHEAD OF THE BARON OF THE BLUEGRASS

- Legendary coach Adolph Rupp won 876 career games while he was the coach of UK. He also led Kentucky to five NCAA titles during his 41-year tenure.
- John Calipari is ahead of the pace with the legend as far as victories to begin his career at UK. Also, Calipari (.824) is ahead of Rupp (.822) in total UK career winning percentage.

Coach	Games	Record	Next Game (280th Game)
John Calipari	279	230-49	Jan. 11 at Vanderbilt
Adolph Rupp	279	221-58	def. St. John's 44-38 (Dec. 30, 1943)
Tubby Smith	279	221-58	lost to Iowa 67-63 (Nov. 21, 2005)
Rick Pitino	270	220-50	End of UK coaching career at 270th game
Joe B. Hall	279	212-67	def. Georgia 68-66 (Jan. 2, 1982)

- Calipari tallied a 32-4 mark at UMass when the Minutemen were No. 1 and he was 9-1 at Memphis when he had the Tigers at the pinnacle of the rankings
- Calipari (110) trails only Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (193) in active coaches with victories as the No. 1 head coach
- Calipari has coached 122 career games as a No. 1 team, the fourth most in NCAA history, trailing John Wooden (228), Krzyzewski (233) and Adolph Rupp (131)
- Among coaches who have owned a No. 1 ranking in at least 119 games, Calipari's winning percentage of .902 trails only Wooden (.952), and is ahead of active coaches Krzyzewski (.870) and Roy Williams (.849)

There's No Place Like Home

Since the 2000 season, John Calipari-coached teams have posted a 280-23 (.924) record at home. At UK, Coach Cal is 127-5 (.962) in Rupp Arena.

In five of Calipari's eight seasons at Kentucky, the Wildcats have posted an undefeated record at home, including a school-record 19-0 mark during the 2014-15 season.

Calipari owns both of UK's longest winning streaks in the arena. He began his career at UK with a 54-game winning streak at Rupp Arena. It was the longest winning streak since the arena opening in 1976. With a win over Georgia on Feb. 9, 2016, he secured the second-longest streak in the storied building at 34 games.

5. Rick Pitino	27 (1995-97)

Life on the Road Isn't So Bad Either

As good as John Calipari's team's have been at home, they're nearly as good in hostile environments on the road. Dating back to the 2005-06 season, Calipari has recorded a 81-35 (.698) record on the road.

Calipari Unrivaled in Conference

John Calipari has won 14 league championships (including the 2010, 2012, 2015 and 2016 SEC championships) seven more than the next-closest coach in the SEC (Ben Howland has seven conference titles). With a 2016 SEC Tournament championship, Calipari now owns 13 conference tournament titles, eight more than his closest competitor (Howland).

He's tallied a 306-91 (.771) all-time record within conference play as a head coach and owns a 99-24 (.805) record since joining the SEC.

30 is the new 20

With a home win vs. Tennessee on Feb. 18, 2016, John Calipari notched his 22nd consecutive season of 20 or more on-court wins as a collegiate head coach. He leads all active coaches with that streak, ahead of Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (20), Bill Self (18) and Jim Boeheim (17).

More impressive, Calipari has nine seasons with 30 or more on-court wins. Only Mike Krzyzewski (13) and Roy Williams (10) have more.

Calipari is the first coach in NCAA Division I history to record five straight on-court 30-win seasons, notching 30 straight in consecutive seasons from 2005-06 to 2009-10.

The Success Rate

John Calipari has graduated 100 percent of the players (14 of 14) who have been eligible to receive their diploma by the end of their senior years and exhausted their athletic eligibility. Of that group, Patrick Patterson, Jarrod Polson and Alex Poythress completed their degrees in three years.

In the NCAA's APR, which measures eligibility, retention and graduation, UK has posted a single-year Academic Progress Rate of 977 or higher in every season under Calipari, including a perfect 1,000 in the last three single-year reports. Kentucky's four-year composite score in the most recent report, which was released in June, was a 1,000, earning the team an NCAA academic award for the second year in a row for finishing in the top 10 percent of Division I men's basketball programs.

Under Calipari, the team (scholarship competing players) has also posted a 3.0 grade-point average or better in seven of the last 12 semesters.

Dream Maker

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, Coach Cal has helped 39 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his college coaching career, including 28 over his first seven seasons at Kentucky, which is more than double any other coach.

- Four No. 1 overall selections (Derrick Rose, John Wall, Anthony Davis and Karl-Anthony Towns) during the nine drafts from 2008 to 2016. No other coach has more than two No. 1 picks

- In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history
- His six players in the 2012 and 2015 NBA drafts are the most in the two-round era
- Churned out 28 NBA Draft picks, 21 first-rounders, three No. 1 overall selections, six top-five picks and 14 lottery picks at Kentucky
- Of the 41 players who have finished their college careers at Kentucky under Calipari, 28 have been selected in the NBA Draft (68.3 percent)
- Of the 18 players at UK who have declared for the NBA Draft after their freshman seasons, all 18 have been first-round picks. He is 22 for 22 in that regard when including his players from Memphis
- Dating back to the 2008 draft, 33 players under Coach Cal have been taken in the NBA Draft, including 23 first-rounders
- Only coach to produce the top two picks in the same draft (2012 - Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist)
- Produced a top-10 pick in nine straight drafts since 2008. No other school has had a first-rounder in each of the last nine drafts

Developing Talent

John Calipari hasn't just signed the best talent in the country while he's been at Kentucky; he's been the best at developing that talent and getting it ready for the next level.

Of the 24 top-25 players Kentucky has signed and have completed their college eligibility, 21 were drafted and 18 were selected in the first round. Those draft numbers don't include Isaiah Briscoe or any of the 2016 or 2017 classes, all of whom are still in school or will attend school.

But that's only half the story. Calipari's players don't just make it to the pros; they're better prepared than anyone else. The proof is in the numbers.

Over the course of his career, Calipari's more than 40 NBA pros have made approximately $1.2 billion in NBA contracts alone, which doesn't include endorsement deals and overseas contracts. Of the players currently playing in the NBA, they've earned approximately $1 billion in guaranteed contracts.

Double-Digit Win Streaks

Kentucky's 38-game winning streak in 2014-15 was historic, but it wasn't completely out of the norm for John Calipari. It was the 17th streak of Calipari's career where his teams have won 10 or more consecutive games during the season, the sixth where they have won 20 or more, the fifth where they have won 25 or more, the first where they have won 30 or more, and the first with 35 or more. Here's a list of all of them:

- 38 Kentucky, 2014-15
- 27 Memphis, 2008-09
- 26 Memphis, 2007-08
- 26 UMass, 1995-96

Calipari Knows Defense

John Calipari's 2014-15 Kentucky Wildcat team was heralded as one of the best defensive teams ever. However, defense has always been a staple of Calipari-coached teams. Dating back to complete NCAA records beginning in 2001-02, Calipari's teams have been among national leaders in several critical defensive categories.

RECRUITING TRAIL

The Wildcats have signed more top-25 players over the past eight seasons than any other school under John Calipari's leadership. A quarter of all Rivals' top-10 prospects nationally over the past nine classes have signed with Coach Cal and the Cats.

A "players-first" coach with a penchant for helping people reach their dreams, John Calipari, a Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Famer, has guided six teams to the Final Four, led one to a national championship and helped 39 players get selected in the NBA Draft during his 24-year college coaching career.

Calipari guided Kentucky to its eighth national championship and his first national title in 2012. In becoming only the second coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four, he has racked up more than 600 victories, 17 NCAA Tournament appearances, six Final Fours and numerous national coach of the year honors.

In 2015, Coach Cal led college basketball's first ever 38-0 team, and became one of just three coaches to make four Final Fours in a five-year span. At the end of the season, Calipari became the 96th coach to join the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

While building a program out of obscurity at Massachusetts, laying the foundation at Memphis and restoring luster at the sport's greatest program at Kentucky, he has totaled the second-most wins in NCAA history in the first 20 years of a college coaching career.

Quite honestly, though, Calipari's on-court success overshadows a much more significant picture.

In his goal to lead a players-first program, he has helped 39 players realize their dreams and guide them to NBA Draft selections, including a record five first-round draft picks in 2010. Two years later, six Wildcats heard their names called at the 2012 draft, the most in the two-round draft era. UK, with Calipari's help, would tie those six picks again in 2015, including a record-tying four lottery selections. His four No. 1 overall picks are twice as many as any other coach, and he's had 28 players drafted during his seven years at Kentucky, including 21 first-round picks.

Calipari's players have entered the league NBA-ready. He's coached an MVP, three All-NBA players, three Rookie of the Year winners, and 10 players from Calipari's first six teams at Kentucky have made the NBA All-Rookie teams.

Much like he did at UMass, where his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors at Memphis earned their bachelor's degrees, and all 14 players at UK who were eligible to graduate by the end of their senior years walked away with a diploma in hand, including three players who earned their degree in just three years. In seven of the last 12 semesters, Calipari's teams have posted a combined team grade-point average of 3.0 or better.

His foundation, The Calipari Foundation, has raised millions of dollars to help the lives of those in need in the Commonwealth and across the country. In 2010, he used a telethon to raise more than $1 million for victims of the devastating earthquake in Haiti, and he organized another one in 2012 for victims of Superstorm Sandy. A year after helping raise $350,000 for charity during the inaugural UK alumni weekend, Calipari was the driving force behind the more than $1 million that was donated to local and national organizations during the second annual alumni weekend, and then $1.5 million in 2015.

With Rupp Arena under construction in 2016, Calipari held a celebrity softball game during the annual UK alumni weekend. That game, with the fantasy experience, raised approximately $1.5 million for charity with matching funds, including more than $450,000 that went to Louisiana flood relief efforts.

Author of five books, including the New York Times Best Seller "Players First: Coaching from the Inside Out," Calipari is a master of communication and maximizing talent. He lives by the motto that "it's never a matter of how far you have fallen, but instead it's about how high you bounce back."

BIO BLAST

- Four-time SEC Freshman of the Week (Nov. 21, Dec. 5, Dec. 19 and Jan. 9)
- His 101 assists through 15 games are ahead of Tyler Ulis (85) through the same amount of games last season, when Ulis went on to set the single-season school record
- Dropped a career-high 27 points on Arkansas to go along with six rebounds and six assists
- Scored a then-career-high 24 points to go along with 10 assists vs. North Carolina
- Recorded just the second triple-double in program history with 14 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists vs. Arizona State
- Leads the SEC in assists-per-game (6.7) and is eighth nationally in that category
- Has scored in double figures in 13 of 15 games
- Has led UK in assists in 11 of 15 games
- Made his first 21 free throws of the year, the second best start by a freshman in UK history
- Twelve assists vs. SFA set the UK record for dimes in an opener, as well as anyone's UK debut (with assist records dating back to the 1971-72 season)
- Preseason All-SEC First Team selection (AP/Coaches)
- Tabbed to the preseason Bob Cousy Award and Naismith Trophy watch lists
- Named a preseason second-team All-American by the Sporting News

BIO BLAST

- SEC Player of the Week and USBWA National Player of the Week (Dec. 19)
- SEC Freshman of the Week (Nov. 21, Jan. 2)
- Leads the SEC in scoring with a 21.9 average. No Calipari-coached player has ever averaged more than 21.2 points for an entire year (Dajuan Wagner at Memphis in 2001-02)
- Has scored more than 25 in three of the last five, and 30-plus in two of those
- Set the UK freshman single-game scoring record with 47 points vs. UNC on 18-of-22 shooting, including eight 3-pointers and the all-important go-ahead trey with seconds remaining
 - It's the most points any Calipari-coached player in college has ever scored
- Two games later scored 34, with five 3s, in the SEC opener at Ole Miss
 - It was the school record for most points by a freshman in a road game
- Has made 49 3-pointers in the first 15 games, just trailing where Jodie Meeks (54) was through the same amount of games during his record-breaking season in 2008-09
- Scored in double figures in all 15 games this year
- Preseason All-SEC Second Team (AP/Coaches)
- Tabbed to the preseason Jerry West Award and Naismith Trophy watch lists
- Named a preseason third-team All-American by CBSSports.com

BIO BLAST

- Missed the Valpo and Hofstra games due to a death in his family
- Has seen minutes in each of the last three games after not playing the previous five (two for aforementioned reasons)
- Scored two points with a rebound and a block in three minutes vs. Arizona State
- Efficient in his four minutes against Cleveland State, scoring four points and grabbing three rebounds
- Made the first basket of his career against Duquesne
- Redshirted after enrolling midyear during the 2015-16 season
- Played for the New Zealand National Team in the FIBA 3-on-3 World Championships for a second straight year this summer
- Was the most valuable player in the 3-on-3 tournament in 2015 when he lead New Zealand to a gold medal
- Was the youngest player to ever make the New Zealand National Team roster
- His father is a world-champion lumberjack who owns more than 150 individual world titles. Tai like his father, also enjoys competing in lumberjack competitions
