Scouting Vanderbilt

Vanderbilt has earned a 6-6 record entering SEC action. Much like the Wildcats, the Commodores had to rejuvenate the roster after losing several contributors from an SEC Tournament title a season ago. Kevin Stallings' team sports a pair of double-figurer scorers in Kedren Johnson (16.6) and Kyle Fuller (11.9). Johnson has also knocked down a team-high 27 3-pointers on the year. Kevin Bright is tops on the team on the boards with 77 snagged on the season.

Kentucky is 61-18 in SEC openers and has won 22 of its last 25 conference lid lift-ers. The Wildcats logged a 79-64 victory over South Carolina to begin the conference slate a season ago. UK is 2-1 in conference openers under John Calipari.

SEC Domination

Since the SEC's inception in 1932-33, the Wildcats have been the most dominant team in the league, recording a 901-246 mark (.786). Only one other team has won more than 690 regular season SEC games (Alabama) and no other team has a better winning percentage. UK has averaged 11.6 wins and only 3.2 losses per season in 78 years in the SEC.

- The Wildcats have won 45 SEC titles and 27 SEC Tournament championships, more than the other 13 teams combined.
- Kentucky has won 11 of the last 19 SEC Tournament titles.

Series History vs. Vanderbilt

Kentucky owns a 136-45 record in the all-time series, including a 53-27 mark against the Commodores in Nashville.

UK claimed both regular season meetings a season ago, but the Commodores secured a win in the SEC Tournament title clash.

Volunteer Success

Kentucky is 153-79 all-time when playing in the Volunteer State. This will mark the first of two appearances in the state this season as UK will also travel to Tennessee on Feb. 16.

Cauley-Stein Tabbed SEC Freshman of the Week

Freshman Willie Cauley-Stein became the fourth Kentucky player to earn an SEC weekly award this season when he was tabbed the league's top performing freshman after becoming the first UK player to tally multiple double-double efforts this season with 11 points and 11 boards in a 90-38 win over Eastern Michigan on Wednesday. He was efficient from the field with a 5-for-6 day, while also contributing to a stifling defensive effort by the Cats.

Noel Named Defensive Player of the Month

ESPN's Jeremy Lundblad tabbed freshman Nerlens Noel as his December Defensive Player of the Month. Noel finished in the top 10 in both blocks (4.0) and steals (2.8) in the month while also ranking among the nation's top-25 leaders in rebounding. Lundblad noted that Noel is on pace to be the first player in the country to average 3.5 blocks and 2.5 steals per game since Houston's Bo Outlaw in the 1992-93 season.

ule, the Wildcats did something no UK team has done in nearly 70 years. With the help of BigBlueHistory.net, it is believed to have been the first time UK started four freshmen in a game since the 1943-44 season.

Per a box score appearing in the New York Times, UK started four freshmen and a sophomore in an NIT semifinal game vs. St. John's on 3/22/1944.

Stifling Defense

Kentucky has held three of its last five opponents to below .300 shooting for the game including a season-best .242 clip by Eastern Michigan. That total ranks as the lowest for any UK team since holding Central Arkansas to a .242 clip on Nov. 6, 2007. UK is 7-0 this season when holding teams under .400 shooting.

The Wildcats also held the Eagles to just 38 points which is the fewest points allowed in the John Calipari era and the least amount scored on UK since Texas Southern managed just 35 on Nov. 24, 2007.

Twin Towers

UK has started Willie Cauley-Stein and Nerlens Noel in back-to-back games against Louisville and Eastern Michigan. The twin towers have combined to average 17.5 points, 19 rebounds, five blocks and three steals. Both are already also making an impact on UK's record books for swats in a season.

INEXPERIENCED CATS

Kentucky is the only NCAA BCS level team in the nation to not return a single player with at least one start from the 2011-12 season.

Missouri returns just one starter, preseason All-SEC selection Phil Pressey, who started all 35 games a season ago.

Five other teams in the nation return at least two players who made at least one start a season ago in Florida State, Mississippi State, Nebraska, Utah and Vanderbilt.

As Coach Calipari often says comparing UK to any other school is a relatively pointless endeavor these days. No other team comes close to replicating the annual roster turnover the Cats deal with.

With that in mind, perhaps the best comparisons for this year's Kentucky team in terms of experience are Calipari's first three teams in Lexington. Let's take a look at the returning contributors (not just starters) from all four in terms of games played and started and per-game averages from the previous season.

NOTE: Team per-game averages are adjusted for percentage of games played by each player, which is why columns appear to not add up.

Harrow at the Point

Sophomore Ryan Harrow had a break-out game with a career-high 23 points in a win over Marshall and followed that with 17 at No. 3 Louisville. He's also been taking very good care of the ball with a 29-to-7 assist-to-turnover ratio over the last seven games. He committed zero turnovers against the Cardinals with three assists in 39 minutes of action. In UK's final non-conference action Harrow dished out a season-high eight assists to accompany his fourth-consecutive double-figure scoring effort.

Steal by Noel

Nerlens Noel currently leads the Wildcats with 34 steals, 20 more than the next closest teammate.

Currently averaging 2.6 per game, with 18 regular season games and at least two post-season games left, Noel is on pace to finish with 86 steals, nearing Rajon Rondo's school record 87 steals in the 2004-05 season.

Noel is closing in on cracking the freshman record books for steals in a single season:

SEASON NOTES

UK vs. the Country

UK will take on its second first-time opponent of the season in Eastern Michigan on Wednesday. UK played Lafayette for the first time in program history on Nov. 15, 2012 earlier this season. With the addition of Eastern Michigan Kentucky has now played 210 of the current 338 D1 programs.

Noel's Defensive Prowess

Freshman Nerlens Noel is displaying his versatility on the floor. He leads the team in blocks (43), steals (32) and rebounding (108) while ranking fourth on the team in scoring (10.5). According to Cat Scratches' Guy Ramsey, combining rebounding, steals and blocks UK's opponents have had an average of 69.9 possessions per game, or 699 for the first 10 games. Blocks, steals, or rebounds by Noel have ended 15.2 percent of the opponent's possession following the first 10 games of the year.

He had six steals against Baylor, becoming the first UK player to have that many swipes in

UNPARALLELED TRADITION

The Wildcats own an unparalleled tradition of success. Since 1903, the University of Kentucky has fielded 110 basketball teams. The first national championship was an NIT title in 1946. The first NCAA title came in 1948, and the latest, No. 8, occurred in 2012. No other program can claim the unparalleled success that matches the Wildcats efforts over the past century.

- Eight national championships (1948, 1949, 1951, 1978, 1996, 1998, 2012)

1. Kentucky	2,099
2. Kansas	2,081

4. Duke	1,984
5. Syracuse	1,857

- The highest all-time winning percentage in college basketball: (2,099-652-1, .763).
- Three NCAA runner-up trophies
- 15 Final Four appearances
- A national-record 52 NCAA Tournament appearances
- 157 NCAA Tournament games
- 111 NCAA Tournament wins
- 45 SEC regular-season championships
- 27 SEC Tournament titles
- 12 30-win seasons
- 56 20-win seasons

a game since John Wall had six vs. UConn on Dec. 9, 2009.

First Game in New Year Success

With a 90-38 win over Eastern Michigan on Jan. 2, the Wildcats improved to 63-19 in the first game of the new year since the beginning of the Adolph Rupp era in the 1930-31 season.

In the John Calipari Era, the Cats are 4-0 in such games.

Noel's Double-Double

It took him 11 games, but he finally earned it. Nerlens Noel logged a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds vs. Marshall in his first career double-double effort. He averages 10.7 points and 9.1 rebounds per game and had multiple double-figure scoring and rebounding nights, but it was against Marshall when he finally achieved the feat.

Rebounds

Kentucky snatched 41 or more rebounds in five-straight games which included season-highs of 48 against Baylor and Marshall before the streak came to an end with 39 boards vs. Louisville. It marked the first such 40+ board-stretch since the 2009-10 team pulled down 41 or more rebounds over a four game period to conclude the season.

It's a Team Game

The 2013 edition of the Kentucky Wildcats has a knack for finding each other for open shots. The Blue and White averaged 16.6 assists per game as a team - more than any other assists per game total through 10 games in John Calipari's tenure. UK's willingness to share the ball has also resulted in Calipari's most efficient squad from the floor through 10 games.

Wiltjer's 20-10 Night

Sophomore Kyle Wiltjer logged his first career double-double effort with a season-high 23 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in a win over Lipscomb. He also matched a career-high with seven made 3-pointers. Wiltjer became the first Wildcat to have a 20-10 game this season and the first since Michael Kidd-Gilchrist during the NCAA Sweet 16 game against Indiana.

Doubling Up

Freshman Willie Cauley-Stein recorded Kentucky's first double-double of the season in a win over Samford. The Olathe, Kan., native posted 12 points and 12 rebounds.

He was one of six Wildcats to score in double-figures, the first time for a UK team since the Cats did so against Indiana in the Sweet 16 last year.

Leading Scorer, but Dishing Dimes Too

Through the first 10 games of the season freshman Archie Goodwin led the squad in scoring, but also contributed offensively in other ways too. Goodwin led the team with 44 assists (4.4 apg). He logged seven-straight games with four or more dimes. That was the longest such streak since Marquis Teague passed out four or more assists in nine-straight games during the 2011-12 campaign.

Goodwin is the second freshman guard under John Calipari to lead his team in scoring and dish out four or more assists through the first 10 games. John Wall averaged a team-high 18.1 points and 7.1 assists in his first nine games. Here's a breakdown of UK's guards over the last four seasons through 10 games.

Player	PPG	APG
Goodwin (2012-13)	15.8*	4.4

Giving Back

During the winter break from school, the Wildcats participated in a few charitable activities. The entire men's basketball team spent time with Samaritan's Feet in addition to distributing winter coats the week of Dec. 17 in between practice sessions.

Lengthy Again

With an average height of 78.4 inches, UK ranks as the ninth longest team in the country according to Kenpom.com. Since John Calipari's arrival, UK has rated in the top 10 for average height in each of his four seasons.

Season	Height	Rank
2012-13	78.4	9
2011-12	78.8	2
2010-11	78.4	4
2009-10	78.6	5

Mays Heating Up

Graduate transfer Julius Mays has been a consistent long-range performer for UK. Mays hit 12 3-pointers in a five game stretch, and sunk at least one jumper from long range in UK's first nine games of the year.

Torching the Rupp Nets

Over a three-game home winning streak against Lafayette, Morehead State and LIU Brooklyn Kentucky burned up the nets shooting at a blistering 62.0 percent clip.

The Cats shooting prowess was highlighted against LIU Brooklyn, hitting 67.7 from the field. It was the highest field goal percentage for UK in the John Calipari era and the highest since UK posted a 68.7 mark in 2008-09 against Kansas State.

Joe B. Hall Inducted into Hall of Fame

Former UK men's basketball head coach Joe B. Hall and contributor and UK graduate Jim Host were two of 10 members in the Class of 2012 to be inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame on Sunday.

As a Kentucky assistant coach in 1972, Hall had the unenviable task of succeeding Adolph Rupp. Unfazed by the task, Hall guided the Wildcats for 13 seasons, winning 75 percent of 397 games. Within three years, he reached the NCAA championship game and, in 1978, he earned National Coach of the Year honors while coaching Kentucky to its fifth national title with a 30-2 record. His Wildcat teams won eight SEC championships and earned a Final Four berth for the third time in 1984. He was named SEC Coach of the Year four times.

The founder and principal of Host Communications, Host realized the potential growth of men's basketball and partnered the NCAA with major corporations like Gillette, Valvoline and Pizza Hut. Host, who also had a background in broadcasting, went on to create a model for multimedia rights, bundling everything from coaches' radio and TV shows, promotional appearances, endorsements and publishing into a single package for some of the nation's top programs. He has been recognized as one of college athletics' most influential people.

20-Poynt-thress

Freshman Alex Poythress had a streak broken against Notre Dame. Previously, he notched 20 points in four-straight games with 20 vs. No. 9 Duke, 22 vs. Lafayette, 20 against Morehead State and 22 vs. LIU Brooklyn to become the first UK freshman to have four-straight 20-point efforts in the John Calipari era. He was also the first Wildcat to tally four-consecutive 20-point nights since Jodie Meeks had nine-straight in the 2008-09 season.

in double figures in his opening five career games. Goodwin joined John Wall (2009-10) and Terrence Jones (2010-11) as the other Wildcats to achieve the feat. Goodwin posted 16 points against Maryland and No. 9 Duke, 13 against Lafayette, a career-high 28 against Morehead State and 22 vs. LIU Brooklyn.

Goodwin Earns Weekly Honors

Freshman Archie Goodwin was named the Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week as well as Dick Vitale's Diaper Dandy of the Week after averaging 25.0 points 7.5 rebounds and 6.5 assists in wins over Morehead State and LIU Brooklyn.

Goodwin logged a career-high 28 points in a win over Morehead State to begin the week. It is the seventh-most points in a game for a UK freshman in the history of the program and the most by any UK player this season. He then followed that performance by nearly charting the second triple-double in school history. He posted a team-high 22 points to accompany career-highs in assists (9) and rebounds (9) against LIU Brooklyn.

Young Cats Cool at the Free Throw Line

In Kentucky's 81-70 over Morehead State Thursday, UK freshmen Archie Goodwin and Alex Poythress were on the mark from the charity stripe.

Poythress finished a perfect 8-8 from the line, marking the 20th time under Calipari a Wildcat has been perfect at the stripe when taking more than six attempts.

Goodwin found his way to the line 17 times, the most since DeMarcus Cousins attempted 17 free throws against Tennessee in the 2010 season. Goodwin connected on 12 of them, tied for the most by a Wildcat under Calipari.

Efficient from Everywhere

Sophomore Kyle Wiltjer led an explosive offensive night for the Wildcats in a win over Lafayette. Wiltjer hit a career-high seven 3-pointers on 7-of-11 attempts to lead a 64.5 percent shooting night from the floor as a team. That percentage was the highest in the John Calipari era and the best clip since UK shot 68.8 against Kansas State on Nov. 28, 2008. UK also went over the century mark (101) in the regular season for the first time since scoring 108 in the year's opening contest against Marist during the 2011-12 season.

Trio Tabbed to Naismith Watch List

Three Kentucky men's basketball freshmen are among 50 players tabbed to the 2012-13 Naismith early season watch list for player of the year honors it was announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club on Tuesday. Archie Goodwin, Nerlens Noel and Alex Poythress were all selected as candidates to watch for the post season honor.

The 50-player watch list was compiled by the Atlanta Tipoff Club's Board of Selectors, which based its criteria on player performances from the previous year and expectations for the 2012-2013 college basketball season. The Naismith Men's College Player of the Year presented by AT&T will be awarded on April 7, 2013 in Atlanta.

Poythress Tabbed SEC Freshman of the Week

After averaging 21.0 points and 6.5 rebounds in games against 9th-ranked Duke and to Lafayette, Alex Poythress was named the SEC's Freshman of the Week.

Poythress had 20 points and added a team-high eight rebounds in a loss to No. 9 Duke. He then topped that performance with a 9-of-10 night from the field for a career-high 22 points in the win over Lafayette. He became the first freshman since Brandon Knight in Feb. 2011 to have consecutive 20-point efforts.

Wiltjer Named SEC Player of the Week

Kyle Wiltjer was named the SEC Player of the Week for the first time in his career after he led the Wildcats with 19 points on 6-of-9 shooting including a 4-for-6 clip from 3-point range in a win over Maryland. The four 3-pointers ranked as a career high at the time in addition to a career-high three swats.

Opening the Season

With the win over Lafayette, Kentucky is 94-16 all-time in home openers and has won 10 of its last 11 lid-lifters and is 4-0 under John Calipari in their first home-game.

Kentucky has also racked up a 90-19 all-time record during season openers. UK is a perfect 4-0 in the John Calipari era in the year's opening contest.

UK opened the season away from Rupp Arena for the first time since the 2002-03 season when UK began the year against Arizona State at the Maui Invitational.

Polson's Career Day

It was an unlikely hero that helped the Wildcats to a season-opening victory over Maryland in John Calipari's fourth season. Junior Jarrod Polson made the most of a career-high 22 minutes scoring a career-high 10 points while dishing out a career-best three assists in leading UK to a 72-69 triumph over the Terps. Polson scored four points in the last five minutes including the game's decisive free throws with less than 10 seconds to help seal the win for UK.

UK MBB Hosts Telethon for Superstorm Sandy Victims

Humbled by the devastation of Superstorm Sandy, the University of Kentucky men's basketball team, in conjunction with WKYT, hosted a telethon on Wednesday, Nov. 7. One hundred percent of the one million dollars in proceeds went to the American Red Cross to benefit the victims of the catastrophic storm.

UK Predicted to Win SEC Title

The Kentucky basketball team was picked by the media to win its 46th SEC championship this season.

The Wildcats have won the regular season conference title in two of John Calipari's three seasons, including a 16-unblemished mark in 2011-12.

Preseason Honors

Kentucky freshman Nerlens Noel was selected as a preseason All-SEC first-team member, while freshman Alex Poythress was tabbed to the second team by both league media and league coaches.

With regards to the media vote, Noel was one of seven players to earn votes for the preseason player of the year accolade. The Everett, Mass., native garnered three votes and finished behind Missouri junior Phil Pressey as

A Look at Who Returns in 2012-13

Kentucky's youth is always a topic of conversation. However, this year's team may just be the most inexperienced in John Calipari's tenure. In addition to losing all six players who started at least one game a season ago, Kentucky returns just 6% of its offense from a season ago. UK's top returning scorer is Kyle Wiltjer who averaged 5.0 points per game. Wiltjer also is UK's leading rebounder at 1.8 boards a game.

Cats in the Rankings

UK started this season ranked third in both the Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches' preseason top-25 polls.

It marked the third-consecutive season the Wildcats were selected in the top 10 of the USA Today/Coaches' pre-season top 25 and the third time in four years the Cats ranked in the top five of the AP's preseason poll.

- Prior to falling out of the AP Top 25 on Dec. 3, Kentucky had been ranked in 61 consecutive polls under John Calipari.

- UK was ranked in the AP top 10 in 24-straight weeks.

- The Wildcats had been ranked in the top five in 40 of those polls, (UK did not fall out of the top five at any point during the 2009-10 or 2011-12 seasons)

- UK had been ranked in the top three in 34 of those polls.

- Kentucky (11) trails only Kansas (16) as the No. 1 ranked team during the Calipari era.

Calipari Owns Record in Rupp

With UK's 2011-12 season-opening victory over Marist, UK head coach John Calipari recorded his 34th consecutive win in Rupp Arena as UK's head coach. It broke former UK head coach Rick Pitino's longest streak of 33 games in the venue.

Calipari's winning streak was snapped at 54 games with a loss to Baylor in his fourth season. The 54-game run, however, was his longest career home winning streak.

Cats Rock at Rupp

- UK has won 142 of its last 166 home games. Kentucky went on a 54-game winning streak in the venerable arena to begin the John Calipari era.

- The Wildcats are 485-61 (.888) all-time in Rupp Arena.

- UK has won 24 national attendance titles in the building, including 16 of the last 17.

- The Rupp Arena attendance record of 24,479 was set against Louisville on Jan. 2, 2010.

- The Wildcats have posted a remarkable 261-38 (.873) record in regular season SEC games in the building.

- UK has won 24-consecutive home games against SEC teams. The last conference loss to come at home was a 90-85 loss to Georgia on March 4, 2009.

UK has a total of 16 games on ESPN/ESPN2/ESPNU and five CBS games.

Three-Mania

UK has the nation's third-longest active streak of consecutive games with a made three-pointer. UK has hit a three-pointer in 840 consecutive games, which trails only UNLV and Vanderbilt. The Wildcats' last game without a 3-pointer came 24 seasons ago against Seton Hall on Nov. 26, 1988, a "three-point" loss in the Great Alaska Shootout.

UNLV and Vanderbilt have hit a 3-pointer in every game since the 3-point rule was adopted to start the 1986-87 season. Through Jan. 3, 2013, the Rebels' streak is 854 games, while Vanderbilt's streak is 844 games.

Record-Breaking Six Cats Drafted

Following a national championship, the Kentucky Wildcats made history once again as six players were selected in the NBA Draft, led by Anthony Davis, the second Wildcat selected as the first overall pick in the last three years.

Davis was selected No. 1 overall by the New Orleans Hornets, followed by Michael Kidd-Gilchrist at No. 2 by the Charlotte Bobcats. Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist are the first teammates to go 1-2 in NBA Draft history.

It marks the first time that six players from the same school were selected since the NBA Draft went to two rounds in 1989. UNLV is the only other team with six players selected in a single draft, which the Runnin' Rebels achieved in the 1977 10-round draft.

Since John Calipari's arrival, the Wildcats have become the first program in the history of the NBA draft to have four or more players selected in three consecutive drafts. UK has had 11 players selected in the opening round and 15 players taken overall over the last three seasons. Every starter and sixth man has been drafted by the NBA.

Freshman Class Ranked No. 1 Again

At the beginning of the early signing period, the Kentucky men's basketball team has received National Letters of Intent from Aaron and Andrew Harrison, Marcus Lee, Derek Willis and James Young.

Analysts have predicted it will mark the fifth consecutive top-ranked class in the country for the Wildcats.

UK Signees on Naismith Watch List

Kentucky men's basketball signees Aaron and Andrew Harrison are among the top seven senior boys named to the Naismith Trophy High School Player of the Year preseason watch list it was announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. The Harrisons are 6-foot-5 guards from Fort Bend, Texas. Aaron is rated as the nation's top shooting guard, while Andrew is the nation's top-ranked point guard.

WILDCATS IN THE NBA

Kentucky in the NBA Draft

- Following the 2012 NBA Draft, Kentucky has had 106 players drafted 108 times (Johnny Cox '58 and Roger Newman '60 both drafted in Junior eligible draft, but returned for senior year and were drafted again).
- UK has had 31 players selected in the opening round (11 have come in the last three years) of the draft.
- The Wildcats set a new single-draft high for Kentucky players drafted in a single year. The 2010 draft had five UK players selected, and the 1984 draft also had five Wildcats.
- Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist became the first pair of teammates to go No. 1 and No. 2 in NBA Draft history.
- With Anthony Davis selected as the No. 1 pick in 2012, Kentucky is the only school since the 2000 draft to have two No. 1 picks (John Wall – 2010).
 - With Davis going No. 1 overall, John Calipari will have coached three No. 1 picks in the last five years. And his three No. 1 picks are the most by one coach in NBA Draft history.
- Kentucky is one of just 15 schools in the nation to have multiple No. 1 overall draft picks.
 - With Davis earning the No. 1 overall pick, Kentucky's two-year gap between No. 1 overall draft selections from one school is second only to Duquesne, which had No. 1 overall selections in back-to-back years in 1955 and 1956.
- With multiple picks in its third consecutive NBA draft, Kentucky joins two other schools in having two or more players selected in three consecutive drafts since 1992. Calipari is one of only two coaches to have three consecutive NBA drafts be coupled with multiple players from his school since 1992 joining Mike Krzyzewski from Duke.
 - a. Kentucky – 2012, 2011, 2010
 - b. Memphis – 2010, 2009, 2008
 - c. Duke – 1995, 1994, 1993, 1992
- Coach John Calipari has had two or more players selected in FIVE consecutive NBA drafts dating back to 2008 with Memphis. He has three players who have been taken No. 1 overall. Following the 2012 draft, Calipari has had eight players taken in the top 10 of the draft in the last three seasons and 11 taken in the first round of the draft.
- With Marquis Teague taken by Chicago in the opening round of the draft, Coach John Calipari has had point guards taken in the first round of the draft for five consecutive seasons (Derrick Rose, Tyreke Evans, John Wall, Brandon Knight and Marquis Teague).
- Anthony Davis and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist are the highest pair of teammates taken in the NBA draft in the history of the NBA Draft. UK has now set a record with the highest pair of teammates taken in a draft with three consecutive drafts consisting of teammates from Kentucky. No school had previously had consecutive drafts with the highest pair of teammates before UK achieved the feat in 2010 and 2011 since the inception of the two-round draft format began in 1992.
 - a. 2012 – Anthony Davis (1st) and Michael Kidd-Gilchrist (2nd)
 - b. 2011 – Enes Kanter (3rd) and Brandon Knight (8th)
 - c. 2010 – John Wall (1st) and DeMarcus Cousins (5th)

Calipari and the NBA

Since his arrival as the head coach of Kentucky, John Calipari has had 15 players selected in the NBA Draft over the last three seasons. Eleven of those selections were first-round picks.

Calipari has coached 27 NBA draft picks in his 20 seasons. The average among active coaches is 1.8 draft picks.

Kentucky Basketball Head Coach

John Calipari

Kentucky head coach John Calipari reached the mountaintop in his third year in Lexington, guiding Kentucky to its eighth national championship and 15th Final Four. In doing so, he claimed his first national championship and his fourth appearance in the Final Four. He is one of only two coaches to lead three different schools to a Final Four (UMass-1996; Memphis-2008; Kentucky-2011, 2012).

The Wildcats rode the trademark hard-nosed Calipari defense to the title, finishing the season as the nation's top-ranked team in field-goal percentage defense and blocked shots.

Kentucky lost three members of its 2011 Final Four team (two to the draft, one to graduation), but Calipari reloaded with the nation's top-ranked recruiting class for the third straight season. Included in the class were eventual National Player of the Year Anthony Davis and All-American Michael Kidd-Gilchrist.

En route to the national championship, Calipari guided the Wildcats to an NCAA record-tying 38 wins, a perfect 16-0 mark in the Southeastern Conference, earning the school's 45th SEC championship, and extended his winning streak in Rupp Arena to 51 straight games. He has yet to lose a game at home as Kentucky's head coach.

Upon being named head coach on April 1, 2009, Calipari continued to work his magic of resurrecting once proud programs, taking an NIT team in 2009 to the 2010 NCAA Elite Eight. Along the way he led the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking (UK's first since 2003), the program's 44th SEC regular-season championship and 26th SEC Tournament title.

The honors continued after the season as Calipari became the first coach in UK history to receive the Adolph Rupp National Coach of the Year award. He then watched as five of his players were selected in the first round of the 2010 NBA Draft, the first time a school has ever produced five first-round picks. Among those picks was the first Wildcat ever taken as the No. 1 overall pick, John Wall.

In his second year in 2010-11, a season that was labeled as a "rebuilding effort," one in which Calipari and the Cats were supposed to struggle after losing an unprecedented five first-round picks in the 2010 NBA Draft, Kentucky reloaded as Calipari guided UK to its 27th SEC Tournament championship, kept his unbeaten record at Rupp Arena alive and collected his 500th career on-court win.

In his inaugural season as head coach of the Wildcats, Calipari posted his fifth straight 30-win season, the only coach in NCAA Division I history to do so. In addition to the Rupp National Coach of the Year, Calipari was also named the Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year.

When he led Kentucky back to the No. 1 spot in the country, Calipari became one of only two coaches (Frank McGuire) in NCAA history to lead three teams to a No. 1 ranking. He led UMass to a No. 1 ranking in 1995 and 1996, and he led Memphis to the No. 1 spot in the 2008 season.

Much like he did at UMass, when his players graduated at nearly 80 percent, Calipari has stressed academics. Fifteen of his last 18 seniors that came through the Memphis program earned their bachelor's degrees, and the six seniors under Cal at Kentucky have all earned their degrees.

The Wildcats posted a 3.12 grade-point-average in the 2012 spring semester with 10 players earning a 3.0 GPA or better.

As someone who prides himself on helping young men reach their dreams, he has placed 27 players in the NBA during his college coaching career, including 15 over his first three seasons at Kentucky. The 15 picks over a three-season span is the most of any coach.

In 2010, five of his UK players were selected in the first round for the first time in NBA history. He followed that up with four players in the draft in 2011 and six players in 2012, the most in a two-round draft.

Overall, he's turned out 15 NBA draft picks, 11 first-rounders, two No. 1 overall selections, five top-five picks and seven lottery picks at Kentucky.

Included in Calipari's NBA success are three No. 1 overall picks (Derrick Rose, Wall and Davis) over the last five years. No other coach has had three No. 1 picks, and 2012 was the first time two players from the same team (Davis and Kidd-Gilchrist) were taken with the top two picks in the draft.

Since the 2005-06 season, Coach Cal ranks as the winningest coach over the last seven years.

After bringing the University of Massachusetts basketball program to national prominence in the '90s and resurrecting the Memphis basketball program in the 2000s, Calipari became the 22nd coach in UK history and seventh in the last 80 years.

Following his third season at UK, Calipari's overall on-court record soared to 547-154 for an impressive 78.0 winning percentage. His 547 wins are the second most in NCAA Division I history in the first 20 years, Roy Williams being the other.

Calipari's 78.0 winning percentage is the third-highest among active NCAA Division I coaches with 10 years experience at college basketball's Division I level, trailing only Mark Few and Roy Williams. On the NCAA Division I list for winning percentage for all coaches (minimum 10 years), Calipari is in 10th place and ahead of Mike Krzyzewski, Jim Boheim, Bob Huggins and Lute Olson.

Calipari's eight 30-win seasons is tied for third most for a head coach in NCAA Division I history. For his career (20 years), Calipari has 18 20-win seasons and 12 25-win campaigns.

In 1996, Calipari moved from UMass to the NBA after leading the Minutemen to the Final Four. For his efforts, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year.

Calipari led the Tigers to the 2008 NCAA title game, and Memphis' 38 wins in 2007-08 made him the winningest coach for a single season in NCAA history. As a result, Calipari was named Naismith National Coach of the Year for a second time in his career. He is only the second coach to receive the honor multiple times since the award's inception in 1987. Krzyzewski is the other to do so.

Calipari, the 2009 Sports Illustrated National Coach of the Year, led the Tigers to nine straight 20-win campaigns and nine consecutive postseason appearances, the only Memphis coach to do that. He posted 252 wins — 28 wins per season — as the Tigers' head coach, making him the winningest coach in school history.

Calipari compiled a 193-71 record (.731) during his eight-year career at Massachusetts, including a 108-44 mark (.684) in Atlantic 10 play. In addition to five straight NCAA Tournaments, UMass also made two appearances in the NIT, advancing to the NIT final four in 1991. The 1990-91 season was the first of six straight seasons in which the Minutemen won at least 20 games.

Calipari's personal 20-win streak has reached the 17-season mark after 35 wins in his first year at UK and 29 in his second. All nine of his Memphis clubs won 20-plus games, along with his last six teams at UMass. In his final season at UMass, Calipari was named the 1996 Naismith National Coach of the Year and The Sporting News National Coach of the Year. He was also named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, as well as Basketball Times East Region Coach of the Year.

During the Minutemen's 35-2 season in 1995-96, UMass posted wins over Kentucky, Maryland, Wake Forest, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Virginia Tech and Louisville. UMass ended the regular season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the final regular season poll after being the top-ranked team for nine weeks earlier in the year. The Minutemen also won their first 26 games of the season, setting a school record for most consecutive wins.

In addition to his National Coach of the Year honors in 1996, Calipari was a Naismith Coach of the Year finalist in 1994 and 1995. He was the USBWA District I Coach of the Year in 1993.

At 29, when he was named head coach, Calipari began to build a program from the ground up, going 10-18 his first season before posting a 17-14 record his second year (receiving a bid to the NIT).

The Minutemen won their first A-10 championship in 1992 with a 30-5 record, including a 13-3 mark in league play. With a 77-71 overtime win over Syracuse in an East Regional second-round game, UMass made its first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

Calipari left UMass in June of 1996 to become executive vice president of basketball operations and head coach of the New Jersey Nets. He led the Nets to a second-place finish in the NBA's Atlantic Division and the playoffs in 1998, ending a five-year postseason drought for the franchise. The Nets' 17-game turnaround from the previous year was the best that season in the NBA.

He became a member of the Philadelphia 76ers coaching staff in 1999, rejoining Philadelphia coach Larry Brown, for whom Calipari was an assistant at Kansas.

Calipari began his coaching career at Kansas as a volunteer assistant under Ted Owens. In 1983, he was hired as the recruiting coordinator at the University of Vermont, but he was swayed back to the nation's heartland when Brown was hired as head coach at KU. He spent three seasons at Kansas (1982-85) before another three-year stint as an assistant coach to Paul Evans at Pittsburgh (1985-88).

The 53-year-old lettered two years at North Carolina-Wilmington before transferring to Clarion State. He played point guard at Clarion during the 1981 and 1982 seasons, leading the team in assists and free-throw percentage. The Eagles were ranked in the Division II Top 20 both years and participated in the 1981 NCAA Division II Tournament.

Calipari and his wife, Ellen, have two daughters, Erin and Megan and a son, Bradley. Erin graduated from UMass and is now in grad school at Wake Forest, while Megan is pursuing her undergraduate degree at UMass. Brad is a sophomore at Lexington Christian Academy.
