FIRST PITCH

No. 22 Louisville concludes a five-game road swing with the inaugural Battle of the Barrel against Vanderbilt on Tuesday night in Nashville, Tenn. Live audio of the series will be available to subscribers of CardsTV online at UofLsports.com. Live scoring will be available through the Gametracker feature on the baseball schedule page at UofLsports.com.

BATTLE OF THE BARREL

From the first meeting in 1971 to the most recent NCAA postseason thrillers, Louisville and Vanderbilt have provided the region with some of the best matchups that college baseball has to offer. The programs, separated by only 175 miles, have met eight times in the last four seasons including twice in an NCAA Regional. What began as a typical midweek game has evolved into something much larger - a true rivalry.

This season, the Louisville-Vanderbilt game will take on a name of its own as the two teams meet in the first Battle of the Barrel. The barrel trophy signifies Kentucky's history as a bourbon-making state and Tennessee's history as a whiskey-making state. Each year, the winning team will be presented with the barrel.

ABOUT VANDERBILT

Vanderbilt is 23-24 overall and 11-13 in South-eastern Conference action after winning two of three games at Tennessee during the weekend. The Commodores are led by coach Tim Corbin, who is in his 10th season at the helm in Nashville. Last season, VU finished 54-11 overall after advancing to the College World Series for the first time in school history.

LAST OUTING FOR THE CARDINALS

Freshman righty Jared Ruxer provided a quality start while junior second baseman Nick Ratajczak had the big hit as the Louisville baseball team earned an 8-4 series-clinching road win over West Virginia on Sunday afternoon at Hawley Field.

SERIES OVERVIEW

Tuesday's game will be the 25th all-time between the two schools on the baseball diamond and the 10th in the last five seasons. Some of the most important games in the series came in 2009 and 2010 when the programs met in back-to-back NCAA Regionals in Louisville. The Cardinals were on the winning end of a Monday night title game showdown in 2009, while the Commodores earned the victory in the 2010 championship game. Last season, No. 1 Vanderbilt earned a 5-1 victory over Louisville in Jim Patterson Stadium.

LOUISVILLE TWO GAMES OUT OF FIRST IN BIG EAST RACE WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO

After earning a series win against West Virginia last weekend in Morgantown, the Cardinals remain two games out of first and tied for second in the BIG EAST Conference race. With a 14-7 record, U of L is tied with Connecticut and one game ahead of fourth place USF and Seton Hall. No. 20 St. John's, which will visit Louisville for a three-game series this weekend, is atop the BIG EAST standings with a 16-5 record with just two weeks (six games) left in the regular-season race.

NOTES AND TRENDS TO FOLLOW...

The Cardinals are 16-3 this season against lefty starting pitchers... Louisville is 11-2 in night games... The Cardinals have outscored their opponents 79-10 in the first inning this season... Louisville is 0-12 when trailing after six innings... The Cardinals are 19-1 this season when hitting at least one home run... Louisville batters have been hit by pitches 95 times this season, which ranks second in the nation... Nick Ratajczak is 8th in the nation with 21 HBPs, while Ty Young is 24th with 17... Ratajczak is ranked as the fourth toughest player in the nation to strikeout with one every 26.9 at-bats... Louisville ranks eighth in the nation in scoring at 7.4 runs per game... Jeff Thompson is tied for third in the nation with nine wins.

ABOUT UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH DAN MCDONNELL

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series. Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a school record 47 wins during that 2007 season.

He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to three more NCAA appearances in 2008, 2009 and 2010, back-to-back BIG EAST Conference Tournament titles in 2008 and 2009 and back-to-back BIG EAST regular-season titles in 2009 and 2010. Louisville has hosted NCAA post-season baseball in three of the last four years, including one Super Regional and two Regionals. After the 2009 season concluded with Louisville advancing to an NCAA Super Regional for the second time in three years and a No. 14 national ranking by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, the 2010 season was highlighted by the Cardinals earning the program's first ever national seed (#7) for the NCAA Championships and a second straight NCAA Regional at Jim Patterson Stadium.

The BIG EAST titles and NCAA appearances are the perfect payoff for University of Louisville athletic director Tom Jurich, who secured the Port Chester, N.Y., native and his assistants with long-term contracts immediately after the team returned from Omaha in 2007. Just a year prior to that, it was immediately evident that he would be the next skipper of the Cardinals.

In McDonnell's five seasons as head coach, Louisville ranks 12th nationally in wins with 217, including a school-record 50 wins in 2010. During the span, the Cardinals have produced 12 All-Americans, 34 All-BIG EAST selections, three BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year winners and a pair of BIG EAST Player of the Year winners, while 27 Louisville players have been selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

Along with the Cardinals earning the program's first ever national seed (#7) for the NCAA Championships and a second straight NCAA Regional at Jim Patterson Stadium, the 2010 season also included a second straight BIG EAST regular season title and the new school record in wins. Four Cardinals – Neil Holland, Thomas Royse, Ryan Wright and Phil Wunderlich – earned All-American honors, while Royse was named BIG EAST Pitcher of the Year. Overall, eight Louisville players earned All-BIG EAST accolades as Andrew Clark, Holland and Wright joined Royse on the first team, while Jeff Arnold, Adam Duvall, Stewart Ijames and Wunderlich earned second-team honors.

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. During his playing days for the Bulldogs, McDonnell earned four letters, helping The Citadel to the 1990 College World Series, marking the first time a military school has made the trip to Omaha. He was a member of the All-Atlantic Regional team in Miami that same season.

As a second baseman, he was named first-team All-Southern Conference as a junior. He finished his career as the league's all-time leader in stolen bases with 99, a total that now places him fourth in school history. He is the school's all-time leader in walks, picking up 185 bases on balls, and is ninth in runs scored in Bulldog history with 165.

McDonnell is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

AMLUNG NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

On May 1, junior right-hander Justin Amlung was named to the midseason watch list for the 2012 Golden Spikes Award, which is awarded annually by USA Baseball to the top amateur baseball player in the country. A native of Louisville, Amlung is 7-3 on the season with a 2.16 ERA and 85 strikeouts in 83.1 innings. With his 22nd career win, Amlung moved into a tie for second on Louisville's career win list with Brian Bentley (1997-2000).

USA Baseball officials will announce the 30 semifinalists for the 2012 Golden Spikes Award on Tuesday, May 29. The list of 30 will then be sent to a voting body consisting of past USA Baseball National Team coaches and press officers, members of media that closely follow the amateur game, select professional baseball personnel and current USA Baseball staff, representing a group of more than 200 voters in total.

STURGEON NAMED TO JOHN OLERUD TWO-WAY PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Sophomore outfielder/left-handed pitcher Cole Sturgeon was named to the initial watch list for the 2012 John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award on May 3. The award, named for the Washington State star who achieved success as both a first baseman and a right-handed pitcher, will be presented by the National Collegiate Baseball Hall of Fame as part of the annual College Baseball Night of Champions on June 30 in Lubbock, Texas. Sturgeon, a native of Owensboro, Ky., is hitting .327 with 32 RBI and 31 runs scored while starting all but one game in the outfield. On the mound, he has a 2.92 ERA in 10 relief appearances to go with one save as one of the Cards' key lefties out of the bullpen.

AMLUNG NAMED BIG EAST PITCHER OF THE WEEK ON APRIL 30

Justin Amlung was named BIG EAST Conference Pitcher of the Week on April 30 after his dominant outing in Louisville's series-opening win over Connecticut on April 27. Amlung pitched 7.0 shutout innings allowing only four hits with six strikeouts to earn his seventh win of the season in Louisville's 5-0 victory against the Huskies at Jim Patterson Stadium. Amlung was the fourth Cardinal to earn BIG EAST Player/Pitcher of the Week honors this season joining freshman pitcher Jared Ruxer (April 16), sophomore infielder Ty Young (March 19) and senior outfielder/first baseman Stewart Ijames (Feb. 27).

LOUISVILLE OFFENSE SHOWS IMPROVEMENT IN 2012

After struggling for much of 2011, the Louisville offense has shown considerable improvement through 48 games of 2012. Entering the week, the Cardinals are hitting .304 as a team, more than 50 percentage points higher than the .253 team average they had in 2011. In the 48 games this season, Louisville has finished with 10 or more hits 26 times, while last season, they achieved that total just 16 times in 61 games. In the scoring column, the Cardinals have scored seven or more runs 23 times (22-1 record), while in 2011, they did it just 15 times overall.

SELF NAMED TO MIDSEASON STOPPER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Senior righty Derek Self was named to the midseason watch list for the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award, given to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division I baseball, as announced by the association on April 19. Self enters the week with a team-high seven saves. Overall, Self has 20 appearances out of the Cardinals' bullpen this season and is 1-2 with a 3.16 ERA.

ENGEL TO MISS 2-4 WEEKS WITH THUMB INJURY

On April 19, it was announced that outfielder Adam Engel would be out of action for 2-4 weeks due to a thumb injury on his left (non-throwing) hand. Engel suffered the injury during the fifth inning of Louisville's April 15 loss to Seton Hall when he collided with a Pirate middle infielder while stealing second. The injury forced Engel out of the Cardinals' lineup for the first time this season in the April 17 win at Indiana.

Engel has established himself as one of the nation's elite base stealers and has emerged as one of the key components to the Louisville offense. Prior to the injury, Engel was ranked fifth nationally with 28 stolen bases (in 29 attempts), while his 44 career stolen bases (in less than two full seasons) place him sixth on the Cardinals' all-time list.

RUXER NAMED BIG EAST PITCHER OF THE WEEK ON APRIL 16

Freshman right-hander Jared Ruxer was named BIG EAST Conference Pitcher of the Week on April 16 after his impressive performance in the Cardinals' 12-0 win at No. 1 Kentucky on April 10. Ruxer pitched 6.0 shutout innings allowing only three hits with a career-best six strikeouts to earn the victory as the Cardinals became the first team this season to shut out the Wildcats.

CARDINALS KNOCK OFF NO. 1 FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2005

With their dominating 12-0 victory against long-time rival and No. 1 Kentucky on April 10 in Lexington, the Cardinals clinched their first win over a top-ranked team since winning two of three in a series victory against No. 1 Tulane on March 25-26, 2005 in Louisville. In the win over the Wildcats, freshman righty Jared Ruxer was the star allowing just three hits with a career-best six strikeouts in six impressive innings as the Cardinals became the first team to shutout the Wildcats this season.

U of L backed up its first win by knocking off No. 1 UK for a second time with a 10-2 triumph on April 24 in front of a crowd of 3,862 at Patterson Stadium. Louisville essentially put the game away in a six-run third inning that saw eight straight Cardinals reach base before the Wildcats recorded an out. That outburst boosted Louisville's lead to 8-1. The Cards racked up 11 hits and their pitcher-by-committee approach resulted in only five UK hits.

LOUISVILLE CONCLUDES EARLY HOME STRETCH WITH 18-4 MARK

After its road trip to Alabama on March 9-11, Louisville returned home to host its second nine-game homestand of the season at Jim Patterson Stadium, which ended with the Cardinals winning seven straight games for an 8-1 record overall. In the first homestand of the season, U of L went 7-2 overall, including three straight wins to close it out. Overall, the Cards played 22 of 26 games at home between Feb. 22 and April 3 finishing with an 18-4 record in that span at Patterson Stadium.

"THE SHIRT"

For Louisville baseball players, "The Shirt" has become a source of pride and accomplishment in the Cardinals' clubhouse. Awarded to a player who had an outstanding performance or made a key play in a Cards' victory, "The Shirt" was an honor coach Dan McDonnell introduced to the program in 2007.

Prior to each game, a new shirt hangs in the Cards' dugout with a number on the back of it representing the team's next win. Following the game, McDonnell awards the shirt to his key contributor for that Louisville victory. In the first season of "The Shirt", the Cards awarded 47 of them for their 47 wins and the players earned another 41 in 2008. In 2009, the U of L players equaled the 2007 total with 47 more shirts, while the 2010 season ended with a school record 50 wins.

The No. 50 shirt above was the final shirt awarded in the Cardinals' 2010 season, which ended with a school record 50 wins. The photo was taken prior to Louisville's NCAA Regional win over Vanderbilt at Jim Patterson Stadium.

LOUISVILLE PLAYERS FIND SUCCESS IN SUMMER BALL IN 2011

The wooden bat collegiate summer league season was a successful one for the Cardinals, who had numerous outstanding performances in 2011.

Leading the way during the summer were right-handed pitcher Jeff Thompson and shortstop Alex Chittenden, All-Star performers and key contributors to the Keene Swamp Bats' New England League championship season. Thompson, who was 2-0 with a 0.71 ERA and 15 strikeouts in two playoff starts, was named the top pro prospect in the league after finishing his summer at 4-2 overall with a 1.60 ERA and 68 strikeouts in 10 starts and 50.2 innings pitched.

Chittenden, who was named the league's top defensive player, closed the summer hitting .276 with five home runs, 32 RBI, seven doubles and 35 runs scored in 48 games played. He also led the league in assists with 123 on the season, 34 ahead of the second-place contender, and was second in putouts.

Another strong summer performer for the Cardinals was pitcher Matt Koch in the Cape Cod League. A league All-Star, Koch closed his summer with 12 straight relief appearances (including 1.0 inning of shutout relief in the Cape Cod League All-Star Game) and 15.1 consecutive innings of relief without allowing a run. During the stretch, he had 16 strikeouts and allowed only eight hits. Overall, he was 1-0 with five saves and a 1.19 ERA in 17 regular season relief appearances and 22.2 innings of work this summer. Including his All-Star Game outing, he had an ERA of 0.89 in 23.2 innings in the prestigious league.

The radio schedule includes all 33 home games, the annual showdown at rival Kentucky on April 10, the matchup with in-state foe Western Kentucky on May 1, the three-game BIG EAST series at Pittsburgh on May 17-19 and all of the Cardinals' BIG EAST Championship and NCAA Championship games.

The Cardinals will again have a strong presence on the internet as subscribers can follow every game of the 2012 baseball season through CardsTV at UofLSports.com. Live streaming audio will be available for every regular-season and post-season game, while streaming video will be available for 32 of the 33 home games. For 2012, fans can also access the CardsTV audio stream for every U of L game on their smart phones through the CardsMobile app, which is currently available for iPhone ($0.99 per month) and Android devices ($4.99 per year).

In addition to the radio and web streaming schedules, the Cardinals will also have one nationally televised game in 2012 when ESPNU returns to Jim Patterson Stadium for the Louisville-St. John's matchup on Saturday, May 12 at 11:30 a.m., ET. It will mark the second straight season Louisville has hosted at least one nationally televised game and it will be the sixth national TV game at home in the last six seasons for the Cardinals.

LOUISVILLE IN THE MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL DRAFT

Since the hiring of head coach Dan McDonnell prior to the 2007 season, 23 Louisville players have signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including a school record nine Cardinals in 2010. Most recently, Louisville had three players selected and sign professional contracts in the 2011 MLB Draft. Those included pitcher Tony Zych, who went in the 4th round (129th overall) to the Chicago Cubs, infielder Ryan Wright, who went in the 5th round (175th overall) to the Cincinnati Reds and catcher J.J. Ethel, who went in the 49th round (1,484th overall) to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

PITCHERS LEAD THE WAY FOR LOUISVILLE DURING 2011 SEASON

In 2011, the Louisville pitching staff had six shutout wins and an ERA of 3.06. The Cardinals finished with 410 strikeouts and only 190 walks in 546.1 innings. The opening weekend included a stretch of 23.2 consecutive shutout innings and 25.2 straight innings without an earned run and included the Cardinals' first back-to-back shutouts since 2007. U of L followed that early stretch with a streak of 22.0 straight scoreless innings and 24 straight innings without an earned run to end the series at Pepperdine. Overall, the Louisville pitching staff allowed two earned runs or fewer in 30 games in 2011.

WRIGHT LEADS 2011 CARDINALS IN EVERY MAJOR OFFENSIVE CATEGORY

Ryan Wright was the Cards' top offensive player in 2011 leading the way in average (.346), home runs (12), RBI (52), stolen bases (16), slugging percentage (.598) and on-base percentage (.426). An All-American in 2010, Wright departed Louisville ranked in the top 10 in career hits (fourth), RBI (fourth), batting average (sixth), doubles (ninth) and stolen bases (ninth).

Justin Amlung and Ryan Wright earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors, while Stewart Ijames and Tony Zych also gained All-BIG EAST recognition as announced by the league office on May 24. Amlung finished the regular season with a 9-2 record overall to go with a 2.19 ERA and 73 strikeouts in 98.1 innings pitched and 14 starts this season. JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, a state-of-the-art, multi-million dollar baseball facility located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinal baseball team battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

A pregame ceremony to officially dedicate the stadium featured U of L graduate, former baseball team walk-on and local entrepreneur Jim Patterson, whose seven-figure donation spearheaded the drive to construct the ballpark. Joining Patterson were Louisville Mayor Jerry Abramson, U of L Board of Trustees Chairman Junior Bridgeman, U.S. Representative Anne M. Northup, U of L President Dr. James Ramsey, U of L Vice president for Athletics Tom Jurich, and more than 100 U of L baseball alumni.

Jim Patterson Stadium has a standard seating capacity of 2,500, including 1,500 chair-back seats and a grass berm in left field. There is a main press box with two radio booths, a television booth and an AD suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center, and a cutting-edge scoreboard in right field features an LED matrix scoreboard and a video screen. The playing surface is FieldTurf and the exterior has elements that mirror U of L's nearby football facility.

The basement of the adjacent building includes the baseball offices, three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities, in addition to a rooftop overlook of the stadium. The Jewish Hospital/Frazier Rehab Center occupies the 2nd floor of the building.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field. Infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound.

The stadium was placed on display to a nationwide audience and received rave reviews during the 2007 Super Regional between the Cardinals and Oklahoma State, with all three games being televised by ESPN and ESPN2. Fans poured into the stadium, establishing impressive attendance numbers.

The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

In 2009, U of L hosted its first ever NCAA Regional at Jim Patterson Stadium when it welcomed Indiana, Middle Tennessee and Vanderbilt. On the opening day of the regional, a stadium and school record crowd of 4,605 watched as the Cardinals earned an 8-2 win over IU. The Cards went on to win the NCAA Regional with a title game triumph over Vandy. Louisville hosted its second straight NCAA Regional and its third NCAA post-season round in 2010.

Admission to most home games at Patterson Stadium is free, and all areas of the park are accessible to those with physical disabilities.
