TEAM NOTES

Commodores have solid 2012-13

The Commodore women's golf team, currently ranked seventh in the latest Golfstat rankings, has played in 10 tournaments this season, and finished outside of the top five only once. Vanderbilt has had three runner-up finishes this spring alone, coming at the Central District Invitational, the Darius Rucker Intercollegiate, and the Insperity Lady Jaguar Intercollegiate. The Commodores most recently finished third at the West Regional in Stanford, Calif.

Vanderbilt in Top 10

The Commodores have been in the top 10 for most the season in both the Golfstat and Golfweek polls. Heading into the national championship, Vanderbilt is ranked seventh.

Fourth consecutive NCAA Championship

The Commodores will appear in their fourth consecutive NCAA Championship, dating back to the 2010 championship in Wilmington, N.C., which is a program best for consecutive appearances. In all, this will mark Vanderbilt's eighth stint at the NCAA Championship, with the Commodores' best finish coming in 2004 when they finished fifth.

Martindale and Stratton lead Vanderbilt into NCAA Championship

Sophomore Kendall Martindale is the team's stroke leader heading into the NCAA Championship with an average of 73.13, and senior Lauren Stratton is next on the team with an average of 74.07. Martindale has six top finishes on the season, including a third-place finish at the West Regional at Stanford, while Stratton has three top fives. Stratton finished in a tie for fifth at the Liz Murphey Fall Preview with a total of even-par, 216.

Stratton accomplishes a Vanderbilt first

Senior Lauren Stratton, who recently graduated with a degree in Economics, is the first Vanderbilt women's golfer to play in four national championships as a member of a qualifying team. Her best finish came at last year's championship in Franklin, when she finished in a tie for 29th.

Allen heads to 10th career NCAA Championship

Vanderbilt head coach Greg Allen, now in his sixth season, will be attending his fourth consecutive national championship as head coach of the Commodores, and the 10th as a head coach. Allen was the head coach at Arizona, where he coached Lorena Ochoa and Natalie Gulbis, among others, before moving to Nashville in 2007. His best finish at a national championship was a second-place finish at the 2002 NCAA Championship.

Dores finish 4th at SEC's

Vanderbilt finished in fourth place at the SEC Championships, which tied for the third-best finish in program history. The Commodores won the 2004 championship, and were runner-up in 2010. VU also finished third in 2002 and 2006.

Dores finish in top three at Regional for 2nd consecutive season

The Commodores finished in third at the West Regional at Stanford Golf Course, which followed up a second-place finish at the 2012 Central Regional in Columbus, Ohio.

Same Lineup

The Commodores have started the same five players in all eight of the team's events this year - senior Lauren Stratton, junior Rene Sobolewski, sophomores Irina Gabasa and Kendall Martindale, and freshman Jenny Hahn.

COACHING STAFF

Greg Allen, considered one of the outstanding collegiate golf coaches in the NCAA, is in his sixth season at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's golf program.

Allen has made an impact in six seasons - his Commodores have been to six consecutive NCAA Regionals and and four consecutive NCAA Championships, a school first. His 2012-13 team is currently ranked seventh in the latest Golfstat rankings, has played in 10 tournaments this season, and finished outside of the top five only once. Vanderbilt has had three runner-up finishes this spring alone, coming at the Central District Invitational, the Darius Rucker Intercollegiate, and the Insuperity Lady Jaguar Intercollegiate. The Commodores most recently finished third at the West Regional in Stanford, Calif.

Allen has had unprecedented success with the Commodores, especially in the last four seasons, where his teams have been to four consecutive NCAA Championships and he has coached a SEC Player of the Year in Marina Alex, who won two of those awards, and two first-team All-Americans in Alex and Lauren Stratton.

In 2010, his first NCAA Championship team at Vanderbilt broke through to finish seventh in Wilmington, N.C., while also in 2010, he coached the SEC Player of the Year in Marina Alex and had two freshmen make the All-SEC Freshmen in Anna Leigh Keith and Lauren Stratton.

In 2011, his Commodore team qualified for the NCAA Championship after winning a one-hole playoff against Florida State in the NCAA East Regional. It was Allen's second consecutive trip to the national championship as Vanderbilt's coach and eighth overall. He also guided Vanderbilt to their first back-to-back top 10 finishes at the NCAA Championship after his 2011 squad ended the event in a tie for 10th place. Two of his players, Alex and senior Megan Grehan, were named to the All-SEC Second team at the end of the regular season.

In 2012, Vanderbilt advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third consecutive season and a date on their home course when the Commodores finished in second place at the NCAA Central Regional in Columbus, Ohio. The Commodores' second-place finish was the second-best at a regional in program history - only the 2004 team's win at the Central Regional was better. VU finished in 11th place at the national championship, and Alex and Stratton were each named NGCA First-Team All-Americans. It was the first time in the history of the program that the Commodores have had two first-team All-Americans in the same season.

Allen came to Vanderbilt after a seven-year tenure as the head coach at the University of Arizona, where he twice won the Pac-10 Conference, finished as NCAA runner-up in 2002 and coached Lorena Ochoa - the number one ranked player on the LPGA Tour before her retirement in 2010 - among nine other All-Americans.

Allen had a lengthy record of achievement at Arizona during his seven years there. In addition to his Pac-10 titles and 10 All-Americans, he coached eight NCAA

Two of his players won three Golfstat Cup Award for the nation's lowest stroke average. His Wildcat teams also won nine tournament championships and registered 28 individual victories. Allen has also coached LPGA and PGA stars Natalie Gulbis, Erica Blasberg, Laura Myerscough, and David Gossett during his coaching career.

Allen arrived at Arizona after serving as assistant men's golf coach at Texas from 1998-2000. He helped lead the 1999-2000 Longhorns to a banner year that included the NCAA Central Region championship and a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championship, its highest finish in five years. The squad ended the season ranked No. 8 in the final MasterCard Collegiate Rankings. The 1998-99 team had its best showing in six years, as it earned three tournament victories and finished in the top three in seven of its 13 competitions. Well known for his rapport with collegiate players, Allen handled many of the day-to-day operations for the Longhorns and assisted head coach John Fields with scheduling, recruiting and coaching at practices and tournaments.

Prior to that he was Director of Tournament Operations for the American Junior Golf Association in Roswell, Ga., where he spent five years as both director of tournament operations and tournament director. While in Roswell, Allen was responsible for planning and executing 47 national junior golf tournaments and other AJGA events. He oversaw all AJGA tournaments and was responsible for the supervision of eight tournament directors, as well as the hiring of 24 summer interns.

He is a native of Beechmont, Kentucky and graduated from Murray State in 1993 with a degree in journalism. As a student, he worked in the sports information office, where he was a liaison for numerous sports, including golf. Prior to graduation, Allen worked two summers as a communications intern for the AJGA, where he was responsible for all on-site media relations at 10 national junior golf tournaments.

He and his wife Julie, a swim coach who competed in the 1988 Olympic trials, have four children, Maggie (16), Mollie (12), Mason (10) and Mabry Jane (3).

COACHING STAFF

Holly Clark, Assistant Coach

Holly Clark is in her third season as an assistant coach with the Vanderbilt women's golf team after spending two seasons as the head coach at Carson Newman College.

Prior to her arrival at Vanderbilt, Clark began the Carson Newman golf program in January of 2008 as the team's first head coach, and helped lead the Lady Eagles to their first NCAA Regional appearance in 2010 and the South Atlantic Conference Championship in their first year of existence in 2009. Clark had an individual compete in the NCAA Regional in the program's first year in 2009, and coached a NGCA All-American and an Academic All-American in 2009-10.

"I'm really excited to have Holly join our program and become part of the family," said Vanderbilt head coach Greg Allen. "She has an impressive background in a very short time as a coach. Starting a college golf program shows me that she knows what it takes to work hard and get things done. She has a wonderful personality filled with southern charm that the Vanderbilt community will fall in love with."

Before her arrival at Carson Newman, Clark was a four-year standout player at the University of Tennessee, where she helped lead the Volunteers to the 2006 NCAA East Regional title. The Morristown, Tenn., native turned in one of her top individual finishes at the Southeastern Conference Championships that same year, when she placed 12th. Clark also finished eighth at the Mercedes-Benz Women's Collegiate Championships in 2004.

Off the course at Tennessee, she was named to the All-SEC Good Works team and earned Academic All-SEC honors. She also earned National Golf Coaches Association Academic All-America honors as a senior.

Originally from Morristown, Tenn., Clark was a standout at nearby Morristown West High School, where she led the Lady Trojans to a state title in 2003 and captured state medalist honors. She was named East Tennessee High School Player of the Year as a senior.

Holly and her husband Chris reside in Brentwood, Tenn., with their newborn daughter, Harper Kenley, who was born on April 17, 2013.
