For Openers...

> Mizzou Basketball hits the road for the second consecutive game as the Tigers travel to Nashville, Tenn., to take on the Vanderbilt Commodores at historic Memorial Gymnasium ... The Tigers and Commodores will be meeting for the second time as league counterparts and Mizzou is making its first trip to Vanderbilt since the 2009-10 season.

> While the Tigers are playing their first game at Vandy since an 89-83 loss on Dec. 2, 2009, two Mizzou players have played games at Memorial Gym in their careers ... Jabari Brown scored seven points in his first career collegiate game as a member of the Oregon Ducks and Earnest Ross grabbed three rebounds in eight minutes as a freshman for Auburn in 2009-10.

> Mizzou is making its third trip to Vanderbilt in series history on Thursday and the Tigers are looking for their first win ... Mizzou has won two consecutive games in the series, but both of those meetings took place at Mizzou Arena.

> Mizzou is 2-0 on the road this season and has already equaled last season's number of road victories ... The Tigers are coming off a 70-68 win at Auburn and got 20 points from Jordan Clarkson and 16 points from Earnest Ross ... Missouri also got improved play from its bench, with freshman Torren Jones (11 rebounds) and junior college transfer Keanau Post (six rebounds) recording career highs on the glass.

> Mizzou dominated the backboards in the win over Auburn and grabbed a season high 20 offensive boards and shot a season high 41 free throws ... For the game the Tigers shot just 32.7 percent but attacked the rim to produce 31 points at the foul line, tying a season high.

> Missouri is looking to go 3-0 on the road to open the year for the first time since the 1994-95 season ... Missouri won games at Washington, SMU and Nebraska in a span of five days in early January that season ... Mizzou hasn't been 2-0 on the road in league play since 1998-99, Norm Stewart's final season on the Tiger bench.

> Mizzou continues to be led by the scoring tandem of Jordan Clarkson (18.9) and Jabari Brown (18.2) ... The pair combined for 35 points in the road win at Auburn and Clarkson is averaging 20.5 points in two road games this season ... Both Clarkson and Brown have reached double figures in all-15 games played this season ... The last Tiger to open a season with 15 consecutive double-figure scoring games was Kareem Rush (21 consecutive) in 2000-01.

> Missouri has just one starter back from last season's 23-11 team (Jabari Brown) and no players are back that saw action on that 30-5 club during the 2011-12 campaign ... In fact, Missouri's top scorer (Clarkson), rebounder (Williams III) and assist man (Clarkson) have all played less than one full season for the Tigers. > Earnest Ross hit some huge free throws late in Saturday's win at Auburn and the Cary, N.C., native continues to produce career numbers for Missouri this year, averaging 14.2 points and 6.3 rebounds ... His 14.2 points ranks No. 14 in SEC play and his 6.3 boards ranks No. 12 and is the top rebounding total amongst guards ... Ross currently ranks No. 4 among active scorers in the league with 1,061 points and No. 3 among active rebounders with 568.

Mizzou Basketball Cliffs...

> Mizzou Basketball looks for its third consecutive road victory this season as the Tigers travel to Nashville, Tenn., on Thursday to face the Vanderbilt Commodores.

> Missouri has won two consecutive games in the series, including an 81-59 win at home last year.

> The Tigers won 70-68 at Auburn over the weekend and Missouri continues to be a great bounce-back club under Frank Haith ... The win helped the Tigers improve to 16-2 all-time after a defeat under Haith and the team has never lost more than two games in a row under the guidance of the third-year coach.

> Missouri had eight players earn double-figure minutes in the win at Auburn, the most a win over Nevada on Nov. 29 ... Torren Jones (13) and Keanau Post (14) each played career high minutes off the pine and combined for seven points and 17 rebounds.

> Thanks to those rebounding numbers, Missouri once again ranks among the nation's best in rebounding this year ... The Tigers average 28.1 defensive boards per game, tied with Kentucky for the league lead and No. 17 nationally ... Mizzou's defensive rebounding percentage (.714) is tops in the SEC and among the national leaders.

> The Tigers continue to be a developing defensive team heading into league play ... Mizzou has not allowed their last six opponents to score more than 70 points and just one opponent has reached 80 points all season (Hawaii).

> Over its last six games, Missouri is allowing 64.3 points on 38 percent shooting from the floor and 29 percent shooting from three-point range.

> The Tigers faced two of the nation's top scoring teams, West Virginia (85.1 ppg) and UCLA (90.6 ppg) and held the two clubs a combined 35 points below their scoring norms ... Mizzou also held Western Michigan 10.6 points below its season scoring average, Illinois 6.5 points below its norm, N.C. State 13.0 points below its average and Long Beach State 8.3 points below its average.

> How good has Jabari Brown been in the clutch? The junior guard is a perfect 3-of-3 from three-point range in his last five games in the final three minutes of the contest and is 6-of-10 from three in the final nine minutes during that stretch.

> Brown recorded his 10th career 20-point effort in the win over Long Beach State ... The Oakland, Calif., native scored 22 points, including a critical three-point field goal with 2:18 remaining to help the Tigers finish non-league play at 12-1.

> He narrowly missed a second consecutive 20-point effort against Georgia, scoring 19 points in 40 minutes of work.

> Missouri recorded a rare ACC road win on Dec. 28 at N.C. State ... Although the Tigers haven't played many road games in ACC territory, the win in Raleigh was the second in ACC country in program history ... Mizzou won 87-73 at Maryland on Jan. 24, 1989 ... It was the club's first non-league road win since a 75-68 win at Old Dominion on Dec. 30, 2011.

> Head Coach Frank Haith will coach his 310th career game overall and is a spectacular 61-18 in three seasons at Mizzou ... Haith was the fastest coach in school history to 50 wins and has just one starter back for the second consecutive campaign.

> Mizzou has used the same starting lineup in all-15 games this season.

> Missouri is being led in scoring by the dynamic junior tandem of Jordan Clarkson (18.9 ppg) and Jabari Brown (18.2) ... The duo is combining for 37.1 points per game, No. 2 in the Southeastern Conference, just behind the Auburn duo of KT Harrell and Chris Denson ... Clarkson's 18.9 points per game is No. 3 in the SEC and Brown ranks No. 7.

> The pair is one of three teammate tandems in high-major college basketball averaging 18.0+ points per game.

> Mizzou plays in the friendly confines of Mizzou Arena where the club is 41-2 since 2011-12 and went a perfect 17-0 at home last season.

> Mizzou boasts a 145-22 (.870) record at home since the building opened in 2004-05 ... The Tigers are also 92-5 at home since 2008-09, amounting to an incredible .950 winning percentage.

> Non-conference opponents have not enjoyed their stops in Columbia, Mo., over the last few seasons and the Tigers have raced to an incredible 81 consecutive wins at home vs. non-league opposition since the end of the 2005-06 campaign ... Missouri's last non-conference loss at home came vs. Sam Houston State in the 2005 Preseason NIT, but since then, Missouri has gone nearly eight full seasons without a loss.

> That non-conference win streak is No. 2 nationally behind Duke ... Duke has won 109 consecutive non-ACC games at home.

> Jordan Clarkson recorded the first 30-point game of the SEC season on Nov. 12 and logged the 26th 30-point game during Missouri's SEC / Big 12 eras ... Clarkson needed just 18 shots to reach 31 points (12-of-18 FGs), and is one of just two Tigers during the two eras to have 30+ points, 5+ assists and zero turnovers ... Clarence Gilbert had a ridiculous 43 points, nine assists and zero turnovers vs. Iowa State in a four overtime win on Jan. 13, 2001.

> Clarkson has topped 20 points in seven of his last 10 games ... The junior has topped 20 points eight times in 13 games overall.

> Head Coach Frank Haith enters his third season at Missouri and will look to lead the Tigers to their third consecutive 20-win campaign ... Only Norm Stewart, Quin Snyder and Mike Anderson have enjoyed three 20-win seasons at Mizzou ... Stewart of course led the way with 17 20-win campaigns ... Snyder and Anderson each had three.

> Missouri has won at historic levels over the last five seasons ... In fact the Tigers have won 23+ games each of the last five seasons.

> The five consecutive 20-win seasons is a school record and Missouri's five consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament is the longest active streak in the Southeastern Conference.

> Mizzou Arena has been the site of two undefeated home seasons in its history ... Missouri was 18-0 in 2008-09 and was 17-0 at home last season ... Hearnes Center, the former home of Missouri Basketball, was the site of five undefeated home campaigns (1974-75, 1980-81, 1988-89, 1989-90 and 1993-94).

> Since 2006-07 (72-0) the club's margin of victory has been 25.8 points in those non-league home tilts.

> Mizzou will have two transfers sitting out this season ... Zach Price transferred from Louisville, where the 6-foot-10 forward was a member of the Cardinals' NCAA National Championship team ... Deuce Bello transferred from Baylor ... Both will be classified as redshirt juniors next season.

> Mizzou will be on national television a school-record 20 times this season ... That number has grown each of Mizzou's two years in the SEC ... The Tigers were on national TV 18 times last season, which was also a school record.

> Mizzou was picked fifth in the Southeastern Conference's preseason media poll ... Kentucky was the projected league champion.

> Dished a career high five assists and scored eight points in the win against Hawaii.

> Followed that up with five assists and five points in 21 minutes vs. IUPUI.

> Equaled that five-assist effort vs. West Virginia and added nine points and three rebounds ... Was a perfect 5-of-5 from the foul line.

> Played a career high 33 minutes in the win at Auburn and dished three assists with just one turnover during that time ... Has six assists and just one turnover over his last two games.

> One of many Tigers from Detroit over the years, joining names such as Doug Smith, Nathan Buntin, Lee Coward, John McIntyre and Lynn Hardy.

> A winner at every level of his playing career and helped Romulus to a Top 25 national ranking as a senior and was one of Michigan's top defensive players each of his last two years.

> Will be counted on to be one of Mizzou's top perimeter defenders.

Interim Coaches at Mizzou

Mizzou Associate Head Coach Tim Fuller capped his run as interim head coach on Nov. 25 as the Tigers dispatched of IUPUI, 78-64, at Mizzou Arena ... Fuller was a perfect 5-0 as head coach, which also included wins over Southeastern Louisiana (89-53), Southern Illinois (72-59), Hawaii (92-80) and Gardner-Webb (72-63).

> While the five games were Fuller's first as a head coach, it was not the first instance of an interim taking over at Mizzou ... The most notable interim head coach for the Tigers was Rich Daly, who went 9-5 in 1989 after Norm Stewart was diagnosed with cancer.

> Daly's first game was memorable ... See if you can name owner of this quote: "Regardless of how terrible the officiating is, please don't throw things onto the floor."

> You guessed it, Oklahoma's Billy Tubbs ... No. 3 Mizzou fell to Tubbs' No. 5 Sooners 112-105 that night, but Daly won 93-80 the following game vs. Kansas and knocked off OU two times the rest of the year before advancing to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16.

Mizzou Balanced Under Haith

Mizzou has been one of college basketballs most balanced teams over the last three seasons with six players averaging double figures in 2012-13 (tops in the NCAA) and five in 2011-12.

> Four players averaged career highs last year as Laurence Bowers (14.4), Jabari Brown (13.7), Phil Pressey (11.6) and Alex Oriakhi (11.1) scored at a career rate ... The fifth and sixth Tigers to average double figures were Earnest Ross (10.3) and Keion Bell (11.1).

> Missouri was the lone high major team in college hoops last season with six players averaging double digits in scoring.

> Missouri has had five players average double figures in scoring five times in its history, including the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons.

Taller Tigers Battle New Challenge...

Missouri fans will immediately notice the increased size on this year's roster, but did you know the 2013-14 Tigers are the tallest in school history? Missouri has seven players standing 6-foot-9 or better this year and that doesn't include the 6-foot-8 freshman, Torren Jones, or big guard Jabari Brown, Jordan Clarkson and Earnest Ross, who are each 6-foot-5.

> In addition, Missouri has four players taller than 6-foot-10 on the roster... that's a first in program history.

Season	Players 6-foot-9 or Taller
2013-14	7
1995-96	6
1989-90	5
1990-91	5
1994-95	5

Missouri Among Rare Company For Wins...

Missouri Basketball is one of just 12 teams in college hoops with multiple 30-win seasons over the last five years ... The Tigers of course won 30 games two years ago en route to a Big 12 title, but also won a school record 31 games in 2008-09 ... That feat puts the Tigers in rare company along with: BYU, Connecticut, Duke, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisville, Memphis, Murray State, North Carolina, Ohio State, Syracuse and Utah State as the only schools to enjoy multiple 30-win seasons since 2008-09.

Missouri National Guard

Missouri Basketball enjoyed a unique opportunity Aug. 24-25 as it traveled to Camp Crowder in Neosho, Mo., to participate in a promotional activity with the Missouri National Guard ... The Mizzou student-athletes played paint ball against the Tiger coaching staff, went on a 4.5 mile endurance hike in 95-degree heat, carrying 50-pound packs, and enjoyed weapons training with M16 rifles.

> Wes Clark stole the show on the range, hitting 23 of 40 targets ranging from 50-to-300 meters in distance.

Improved Post Play Under Haith

NOTING MIZZOU HEAD COACH FRANK HAITH

Head Coach Frank Haith begins his third season at the University of Missouri after leading the Tigers to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and transitioning the program into its new home, the Southeastern Conference.

The winningest coach at Missouri through his first two seasons (53-16, .768), Haith has made an immediate impact at Mizzou, not only with his club's efforts on the hardwood, but his commitment to the program's academic advancement and his support of the Columbia community.

Last year en route to Mizzou's fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, Haith's Tigers enjoyed a record-breaking team cumulative GPA of 3.06 and had three players, including starters Jabari Brown and Laurence Bowers, named to the SEC Winter Honor Roll. Bowers later became the first-ever Missouri Basketball player to finish his playing career with a Master's degree and Haith's time at Mizzou has resulted in 9-of-10 seniors earning degrees. In the community, Haith has been an active fundraiser for the Boys & Girls Club of Columbia and serves on the Coaches vs. Cancer leadership council. Coaches vs. Cancer was of course co-founded by Mizzou legend Norm Stewart. Haith was also a 2012 recipient of the Key to the City of St. Louis from Mayor Francis Slay and was honored by his alma mater, Elon, as the 2012 Eugene Perry Distinguished Alumnus, and was tapped into the Mizzou Omicron Delta Kappa leadership society for his efforts mentoring student-athletes.

While Haith has shown an incredible ability to be well-rounded outside of basketball, it has been his team's play on the court that has led to record-breaking attendance marks at Mizzou Arena the last two seasons. Last year he became the fastest Tiger head coach to 50 wins and has worked diligently to revamp a roster that has completely transformed in just two years.

Last season Missouri was the lone college basketball program to advance to NCAA Tournament play with just one returning starter and Haith will look to duplicate that feat once more this season with just one starter, Jabari Brown, back from last year's 23-11 campaign.

"I was really proud of that team last year because we had so many new parts, including on our coaching staff, but those who know me understand I am never satisfied and always want to achieve more," Haith said. "We are going to continue to develop a program that our fans and our state can identify with. We want this program to have that same blue-collar mentality that Coach Stewart brought and I feel like that's starting to take shape."

During last season's NCAA Tournament run Missouri enjoyed its second undefeated season in Mizzou Arena history, going 17-0 at home with wins over a pair of nationally-ranked opponents, including No. 5 Florida. In fact under Haith Missouri is an outstanding 9-4 vs. Top 25 teams including a 5-3 mark vs. the Top 10.

That performance came on the heels of a 30-5 inaugural season in Columbia.

Picked fourth in the Big 12 Conference pre-season coaches' poll, Missouri won a school-record 14 league games, and finished second in the conference standings with a 14-4 mark. The Tigers won the school's final Big 12 Tournament Championship with a 3-0 run in Kansas City, before advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

With that record-setting first season in the books, Haith received recognition in the form of numerous coaching accolades, including the prestigious Henry Iba National Coach of the Year honor, as well as the Associated Press National Coach of the Year. He was also named the Big 12 Coach of the Year and was the U.S. Basketball Writers Association District VI Coach of the Year. As a first-year coach, Haith guided his team to more regular season wins than any other Mizzou coach before him and became the first Tiger head coach since 1920-21 to win his first 14 games.

"It has been a special two years here and the future is only going to get brighter," Haith said. "Anytime you take over a program there is a process you need to follow to build a recruiting base, build your brand and most importantly, build the support of your fans. That has taken place here quickly and I'm really excited about the long-term future of Mizzou Basketball."

The 27-year coaching veteran was hired at Missouri on April 5, 2011, and immediately appreciated the Tiger's passionate fan base. The Burlington, N.C., native came from the University of Miami where he was not only forced to instill a winning mentality to his players and supporters, but do it at a university void of any lengthy basketball tradition.

Haith's task at the University of Miami was monumental, but his process of building a well-rounded program certainly helped turn around the fortunes of the Hurricanes last season, which had the most experienced team in the country with a host of fifth-year and sixth-year seniors, each recruited by Haith.

In his first of seven seasons as the head coach, Haith guided the 'Canes to seven ACC victories (despite being picked last) and qualified for postseason play. He was recognized by being named a Naismith National Coach of the Year finalist and NABC District 6 Coach of the Year.

Miami returned to postseason play the following year. The Hurricanes won 18 more games and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT, recording the program's first postseason wins since 2000. Over his final four seasons, Haith's Miami squad averaged 21 wins per season, with four consecutive postseason trips.

Postseason success was a theme under Haith. His teams won six total games in the NCAA and National Invitation tournaments, including a memorable run to the second round of the Big Dance in 2008. The 'Canes went 23-11 in Haith's fourth season, just one win shy of the school record and he was named a finalist for ACC Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors.

And it's not just on the hardwood where Haith has fueled incredible growth amongst his players. During his time at both Missouri and Miami his players were visible in the community and Haith has seen an incredible 31-of-33 seniors to play for him walked across the stage to receive a diploma.

"That's my proudest moment," Haith said. "To know we churn out young men, ready to make positive contributions in the community, ready to be great fathers and husbands. That's what coaching at the college level is all about."

It's not an accident Frank Haith was hired as the 17th basketball coach at Mizzou. The grind from student-assistant at Elon College to being named the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com doesn't just happen without a dedication to family, career and your student-athletes.

Haith paid his own way through Elon and graduated in 1988. He helped the Fighting Christians twice win 20 games and earned the opportunity to cut his teeth at perennial power Wake Forest the following year as a graduate assistant. His first full-time coaching position at Division I came at UNC-Wilmington from 1990-92 and he laid the foundation for his job at Missouri with a three-year stop at Texas A&M from 1992-95, which included helping the Aggies reach postseason play in 1994.

One of 10 siblings, family will always be first for Frank Haith, and his student-athletes are part of that family. A proud father and husband, Frank and his wife Pam are the parents of two children, Corey and Brianna and his son is entering his second year with the Mizzou program this season.
