OPENING KICK

★ The Commodores are averaging 252.4 yards passing over the team's last five games.

★ VU is averaging 10 tackles for loss in the team's wins this season.

★ RB Ralph Webb ranks 10th on the SEC's all-time rushing list and needs 45 yards to become just the ninth player in league history to rush for 4,000 yards.

★ QB Kyle Shurmur matched Jay Cutler for second in a single season at Vanderbilt with 21 TD passes last week and needs one to equal Whit Taylor's single-season school record (22) set in 1982. Shurmur needs 204 yards to become the sixth Commodore to throw for 5,000 yards in his career.

★ OLB Charles Wright's eight sacks are the second-most in the SEC.

A Vanderbilt victory would...

- ★ Be the team's second straight over Missouri in Nashville.
- ★ Be the squad's first SEC win of the year.
- ★ Give the team a winning record at home this season.

Coach Mason's post-game press conferences are held after he addresses the team. Only properly credentialed media will be allowed into the Vanderbilt press conference room at Vanderbilt Stadium and away games.

Mason's remarks will be held in the team's press conference area. The press conference area at Vanderbilt Stadium is located in the south end zone tunnel near the team's locker room.

The Vanderbilt locker room is closed. Up to six student-athletes will be made available for post-game interviews. These interviews will be conducted in the same press conference room as Coach Mason's remarks. The players are available at the conclusion of Mason's conference.

GAME WEEK INTERVIEW POLICY

All interview requests for Coach Mason and Vanderbilt student-athletes MUST go through Kyle Parkinson or Larry Leathers prior to the interview. Offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig will be available to media members at the conclusion of practice on Thursday morning. Student-athletes and other assistant coaches will also be available to media after Thursday practices.

Practice sessions are closed to the media.

COACH MASON'S RADIO SHOW WEDNESDAY

CREDENTIALS

Media seeking credentials should visit sportssystems.com/vanderbilt. Media will call is located at Gate 1 of Vanderbilt Stadium.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE ON TUESDAYS

Coach Mason will participate in a press conference for local media on Tuesdays at 12:15 p.m. It is held in the team's post-game press conference room in the south end zone of Vanderbilt Stadium.

Interviews with selected student-athletes will follow Mason's remarks. The press event is available on SEC Network+ and archived at vucommodores.com.

SEC COACHES TELECONFERENCE:
WEDNESDAY 10:30 A.M.

Coach Mason is available each Wednesday morning to media outlets as part of the Southeastern Conference Coaches' Teleconference. Mason's 10-minute segment starts at 10:30 a.m. CT. To participate, call the SEC Office at (205) 458-3010.

COACH'S SHOW ON FACEBOOK

New in 2017, The Coach's Show with Derek Mason will be available on Facebook each Friday afternoon of game weeks.

The new show will feature interviews and stories with Coach Mason, assistant coaches and student-athletes while being hosted by the Voice of the Commodores Joe Fisher.

ON THE INTERNET

Vanderbilt's website - vucommodores.com - hosts stories from former Sports Illustrated writer Zac Ellis along with stats, notes and videos.

GAME DAY AT VANDERBILT STADIUM

The press box at Vanderbilt Stadium opens 2.5 hours before kickoff unless otherwise noted. The press box will close approximately three hours after the conclusion of the game.

Game notes and depth charts for both teams will be available in the press box and online at vucommodores.com/FootballGameNotes.

Wireless internet is available in the press box along with live stats via statbroadcast.com.

Last time vs. Missouri

Columbia, Mo. (AP) - Drew Lock completed 22 of 37 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns as Missouri defeated Vanderbilt 26-17 on Saturday.

It marks Missouri's first Southeastern Conference victory since Lock's starting debut, a 24-10 victory over South Carolina on Oct. 3, 2015.

Each team opened with a three-and-out before Damarea Crockett's 6-yard touchdown run gave Missouri (3-7, 1-5) a lead it would never relinquish. Crockett had 20 carries for 154 yards and the touchdown.

J'Mon Moore caught eight passes for 138 yards and two touchdowns, including an 82-yard score with 9:50 remaining in the second quarter, and Johnathon Johnson added four catches for 73 yards.

Kyle Shurmur was 17 of 29 for 252 yards and two interceptions, one of which Missouri cornerback Aarion Penton returned 19 yards for a touchdown, the second of his career.

SHURMUR MOVING UP VANDERBILT CHARTS

Kyle Shurmur is putting together an impressive junior season having already thrown 21 touchdowns - second-most in a single season in school history. He has thrown a career-best four touchdowns twice this season, including at South Carolina. He threw nine all of last year and entered the season with 14 in his career.

Shurmur ranks in the top 10 in the SEC in multiple categories, including passing efficiency (6th), touchdowns (2nd), passing yards per game (5th) and passing yards (5th). He also ranks third in the league in points responsible for with 144. His 21 touchdown passes rank 17th in the nation.

The junior's 21 passing touchdowns are the most by a Commodore QB since Jay Cutler threw 21 as a senior in 2005. Whit Taylor owns the Vanderbilt single-season record with 22 in 1982.

Shurmur's solid start to the season also began his ascension up the Vanderbilt record charts moving him into fifth all-time in passing yards (5,104) and into fourth all-time with 35 career touchdown passes.

THE INCREDIBLE MR. WEBB

With numerous Commodore records in his hip pocket, senior running back Ralph Webb can become one of the leading rushers in Southeastern Conference history.

The three-year starter from Gainesville, Fla. enters the Kentucky game with 3,955 rushing yards, No. 1 all-time at Vanderbilt.

Webb started the season No. 20 all-time among SEC backs and has moved up to 10th through 10 games. He's sixth on the active rushers list in the NCAA.

In 2016, Webb broke the Vanderbilt single-season record en route to setting the new school career mark. He rushed for 1,283 yards, surpassing Zac Stacy's previous record of 1,193 yards in 2011. He also added 13 rushing touchdowns and posted seven games of 100+ rushing yards.

The 2016 All-SEC performer has been remarkably consistent and durable as a Commodore. Since entering the lineup in 2014, Webb set freshman, sophomore and junior rushing records. He enters the week-end riding a 47-game consecutive start streak.

ACTIVE NCAA RUSHING LEADERS

1. Royce Freeman - Oregon	5,364
2. Justin Jackson - Northwestern	4,973
3. Jarvion Franklin - W. Michigan	4,533
4. Nick Chubb - Georgia	4,318
5. Larry Rose III - New Mexico St.	4,237
6. Ralph Webb - Vanderbilt	3,955

Webb's Vanderbilt records

- ★ Career rushing yards: 3,955
- ★ Career rush attempts: 887
- ★ Single-season rushing yards: 1,283
- ★ Single-season rush attempts: 277 (2016)
- ★ Rushing yards by a junior: 1,283
- ★ Rushing yards by a sophomore: 1,152
- ★ Rushing yards by a freshman: 907
- ★ Most 100+ rushing games in a season: 7 (2016)
- ★ Most 100+ rushing games in a career: 15
- ★ Total career touchdowns: 32

Webb would like to break one more career record held by Stacy.

He is two rushing touchdowns shy of breaking Stacy's mark for rushing touchdowns. He moved passed Stacy for career touchdowns with a score against Western Kentucky.

Webb eclipsed Stacy's career rushing mark in a 111-yard rushing performance against NC State in the Camping World Independence Bowl Dec. 26.

In 2016, Webb also became just the second Commodore to top 1,000 rushing yards in back-to-back seasons. He joined Stacy, who accomplished the feat in 2011-12.

GROWING THROUGH THE AIR

Vanderbilt's passing game has grown as the season has progressed.

QB Kyle Shurmur notched his second 300-yard game in the last three with 308 yards against Kentucky last Saturday. The Commodores bring the fourth-best passing attack in the SEC (229.2 ypg) into the match-up with Missouri, who owns the second-best passing game in the league (306.0 ypg).

SHURMUR

MORE PASSING

Games	Comp/Att	Yards	TD	Int	YPG
1-5	78/139	1,030	11	1	206.0
6-10	106/181	1,262	11	6	252.4

The Dore averaged 206 yards per game (1,030 yards) through the team's first five games of the season but have grown over the last five games. VU has passed for 1,262 yards (252.4 ypg) over the last five games.

Shurmur finished strong in 2016 as well, averaging 290.5 yards (1,162 yards) and completing nearly 60 percent of his passes during the Dore's four November games.

TFL = WINS

The Commodores' defense is averaging 6.7 tackles for loss entering the weekend, which ranks third in the SEC behind Missouri (7.7) and Texas A&M (7.4).

The Dore have used those negative plays to help fuel the team's victories this season, averaging 10 TFLs in the squad's wins compared to 4.5 in the losses.

Charles Wright's 9.5 are tied for seventh in the league with Missouri's Terez Hall tied for second with 10.0.

Dare Odeyingbo has been the most consistent Dore in the backfield, being involved in a tackle for loss in seven of the Commodores' 10 games to total eight for the year. Wright and Odeyingbo are two of 20 players on the VU roster to record at least one tackle for loss this season.

WRIGHT

UNDER THE LIGHTS

Saturday's game will be just the third night game of the season for the Commodores and first since beating Kansas State 14-7 on Sept. 16.

Vanderbilt is 2-0 in night games with wins over the Wildcats and in the season-opener against Middle Tennessee.

THE BREAKUP

Vanderbilt's pass defense ranks seventh in the SEC, allowing 191.7 yards per game and 212.7 in league games.

The Commodores' success has been helped by breaking up passes. The squad has broken up 42 passes, fourth-most in the league.

Tre Herndon and Joejuan Williams lead the way for VU with nine each, sixth-most in the SEC.

MOVE THE CHAINS

Trent Sherfield enters the weekend with 40 receptions on the year, leads the Commodores with 621 yards receiving and has been vital in moving the chains for VU.

He's been the team's most effective player in gaining first downs with 31 of his 40 catches resulting in a fresh set of downs.

He's also been QB Kyle Shurmur's go-to guy on third down, making 18 catches with 15 of those resulting in first downs.

Ralph Webb has produced the most first downs on the ground, moving the chains 21 times this season.

The Commodores are averaging 16.3 first downs per game.

NOTES FROM KENTUCKY

★ It is only the second time this season the Commodores have lost a game in which they have scored first. The other time was a 34-27 loss to South Carolina. Vanderbilt moves to 4-2 this season when scoring first.

★ Ralph Webb passed 44 rushing yards on his nine-yard second quarter rush and moved into 10th all-time for rushing yards in the SEC, passing Emmitt Smith. Webb finished with 70 rushing yards on the day.

★ Jordan Griffin set a career high in tackles with 12 against the Wildcats. His previous high was seven earlier this season against Ole Miss and Florida.

★ Trent Sherfield hauled in eight receptions against the Wildcats. He has had at least two catches in every game this season and it is the most receptions since he had nine last season against Tennessee last season.

★ Oren Burks totaled 12 tackles, his second career double-digit tackle performance.

★ Kyle Shurmur connected with Kalija Lipscomb for a 17-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. He tied Jay Cutler (21) for the second most passing touchdowns in a season in school history.

★ The Commodores had nine different receivers catch a pass against Kentucky. It is the third game this season they have nine or more catch a pass.

★ The Commodores have forced a turnover in six games this season after Burks recovered a fumble in the first quarter.

★ The Commodores have recorded a sack in every game this season after Burks notched one in the second quarter.

★ Sam Loy punted four times for a season-best average of 45.2 yards per kick.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

Vanderbilt's 2017 schedule ranks among the toughest in the nation, with nine opponents appearing in postseason bowls last year.

TOUGH ENOUGH

FBS TEAM	WIN % (W-L)	The cumulative win percentage for Vanderbilt's 12 regular season opponents is .606, tied for ninth highest among NCAA FBS teams.
1. UMass	.652 (101-54)
2. LSU	.628 (98-58)
3. East Carolina	.624 (98-59)
4. South Carolina	.616 (98-61)
5. Fresno State	.615 (96-60)
6. Tulane	.614 (94-59)
7. Syracuse	.613 (95-60)
8. Georgia Tech	.609 (95-61)
T-9. Vanderbilt	.606 (94-61)
T-9. Duke	.606 (94-61)

The only SEC team facing a more difficult schedule in terms of opponent win percentage is LSU (.628).

Only five teams in the nation face more 2016 bowl teams than Vanderbilt – Syracuse (11), Notre Dame (11), Duke (11), South Carolina (10) and Ole Miss (10).

Vanderbilt's nine opponents that played in bowls are Middle Tennessee, Kansas State, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Western Kentucky, Kentucky and Tennessee.

18 STARTERS RETURN FOR DORES

Only two other teams in the Southeastern Conference return more starters from the 2016 season than the Commodores.

Head coach Derek Mason brings back 18 starters - nine on offense, seven on defense and two specialists - from a 2016 squad that went 6-6 in the regular season and made an appearance in the Independence Bowl.

Only Georgia and Kentucky - with 19 starters returning - bring back more than the Commodores. Another SEC East team, Florida, returns 17 starters.

The Commodores return virtually all of their offensive firepower from a year ago, including quarterback Kyle Shurmur, record-breaking running back Ralph Webb, fullback Bailey McElwain, wide receivers Trent Sherfield and Kalija Lipscomb and tight end Nathan Marcus. The Dores also return three offensive linemen in Justin Skule, Ean Pfeifer and Bruno Reagan.

The defense returns linemen Nifae Lealao and Jonathan Wynn, linebacker Oren Burks and defensive backs Tre Herndon, Taurean

BACK IN THE SEC

SEC Team – Total 2016 Starters Returning

Georgia – 19 (10 offense, 8 defense, 1 specialist)
 Kentucky – 19 (8 offense, 9 defense, 2 specialists)
Vanderbilt – 18 (9 offense, 7 defense, 2 specialists)
 Florida – 17 (9 offense, 6 defense, 2 specialists)

Ferguson, Ryan White and LaDarius Wiley. Kicker Tommy Openshaw and punter Sam Loy are also back.

Six more Commodores that started multiples games last year are also back with wide receivers C.J. Duncan and Caleb Scott and tight end Jared Pinkney on offense and end Dare Odeyingbo, safety Arnold Tarpley III and cornerback Bryce Lewis on defense.

IT'S A STREAK

Ralph Webb is slated to make his 48th straight start at Vanderbilt on Saturday, by far the longest active streak on the roster.

On the other side of the ball, Tre Herndon's streak of 29 straight starts was snapped at Florida. Only three defenders have started all 10 games this season: LaDarius Wiley, Joejuan Williams and Charles Wright.

Kyle Shurmur (26), Bruno Reagan (25) and Justin Skule (23) are the only other Dores to have started 10+ consecutive games.

THE GRADUATES

Three Commodores will have the honor of wearing the SEC Graduate patch this season.

Ryan White earned his degree from Vanderbilt last spring alongside Tommy Openshaw, who earned degrees in engineering science and economics, and transfer Scott Sypniewski picked up a diploma from Michigan before joining the Commodores over the summer as the team's long snapper.

CAPTAINS NAMED

The Commodores named six team captains for the 2017 season.

Senior Ryan White is a third-time captain and is the first Commodore to be named a three-time captain since Jay Cutler (2003-05).

Joining White as captains this season are Khari Blasingame, Oren Burks, Tre Herndon, Trent Sherfield and Kyle Shurmur.

WHITE

DOUBLE DUTY MASON

Vanderbilt head coach Derek Mason is on a very short list of college football head coaches that serves as his own defensive coordinators in college football.

Mason and San Diego State head coach Rocky Long are the only two head coaches in the country that run both the team and the defense.

Mason is entering his third season with both duties. Since taking over the defense, the Commodores have ranked among the Top 25 nationally in several defensive categories.

YEAH BRO

The Vanderbilt roster features three sets of brothers.

Dare and Dayo Odeyingbo, Jared and Jalen Pinkney and Emmanuel and Josh Smith.

The Odeyingbo brothers reside on the Dores' defensive line with Dare in his third year and Dayo a true freshman.

The Pinkney brothers are on opposite sides of the ball with

DARE & DAYO ODEYINGBO

Jared lining up at tight end as one of the Commodores' top weapons and talented younger brother and freshman Jalen on

The Smith brothers have been playing together at VU for the last two years but are roommates for this year for the first time since they were young kids. Both are expected to be major players for VU as linebackers.

EMMANUEL & JOSH SMITH

NOT SINCE 2011

Vanderbilt's 3-0 start to the season was the team's best start since 2011 when first-year head coach James Franklin led VU to wins over Elon, UConn and Ole Miss.

The 2011 squad finished 6-6 with a trip the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

HEAD COACH DEREK MASON

Age: 48

Alma Mater: Northern Arizona (playing career 1989-92)Degrees: Bachelor's, Criminal Justice, NAU 1993Family: Wife, LeighAnne; daughters, Makenzie & SydneyTwitter: @CoachDerekMasonVANDERBILT – 2014-17 (Head Coach)

Introduced Jan. 17, 2014 as the 28th head coach in team history... Notched first career victory as head coach in dramatic style, guiding team to 34-31 win over UMass on Sept. 13, 2014... After 2014 season, took over Vanderbilt defensive coordinator responsibilities...

Earned first road win at MTSU in October 2015... Earned first SEC victory Oct. 24, 2015 with 10-3 win over Missouri... Mason's 2016 team improved win total for second straight year, winning the final two games of the regular season against Ole Miss and Tennessee to get to six wins and earn an invitation to the Camping World Independence Bowl... Also earned first win over ranked foe on the road vs. Georgia... Offense improved in nearly every category in 2016, finishing sixth nationally in red zone efficiency... The 2016 defense was led by consensus All-American Zach Cunningham, who became just the third Commodore to ever earn first-team All-American status from the Walter Camp Foundation... Defense led the nation in the red zone.

STANFORD – 2013 (Willie Shaw Director of Defense)

Promoted to position of Willie Shaw Director of Defense, Mason guides one of the nation's top defenses as The Cardinal goes 10-3 overall, wins Pac-12 crown and plays in second straight Rose Bowl... Stanford finishes year ranked No. 10 on strength of four victories over ranked opponents... The defense ranks third in NCAA in rushing defense, 10th in scoring defense and 16th in total defense... Unit again ranks among Pac-12's best in numerous defensive categories... For second straight year, Mason's defense limits powerful Oregon spread offense, holding Ducks scoreless for first three quarters in eventual 26-20 Stanford victory... Three of Mason's standouts – LB Trent Murphy, LB Shayne Skov and DB Ed Reynolds – garner postseason All-America recognition.

STANFORD – 2011-12 (associate head coach/defensive coordinator)

Finalist for 2012 Broyles Award as nation's outstanding assistant coach... Stanford goes 23-4 overall in Mason's first two years as coordinator, wins 2012 Pac-12 title, captures 2012 Rose Bowl over Wisconsin, and plays in the 2011 BCS Fiesta Bowl... Mason's 3-4 attacking defense ranked among the NCAA leaders in both seasons... In 2012, the Cardinal defense topped the nation with 57 quarterback sacks, ranked second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense... Stanford also paced the Pac-12 in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and sacks... The 2012 defense also held eight opponents under 100 rushing yards and limited high-powered Oregon to just 14 points in an overtime win... In 2011 the Cardinal was third in the NCAA in rushing defense, sixth in 3rd-down efficiency and 11th in quarterback sacks, and finished among the Pac-12 leaders in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense, sacks and opponent first downs.

STANFORD – 2010 (defensive backs coach)

Hired by Cardinal head coach Jim Harbaugh... Helped change Stanford into a tough-minded, attacking defense... Unit was key to arguably Stanford's best year of modern era – a 12-1 overall record capped by 40-12 victory over Virginia Tech in the Orange Bowl... The 2010 Cardinal secondary was one of the great turnaround stories in college football as Stanford ranked high nationally in interceptions and pass defense... That unit included three eventual NFL players, including All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman from the World Champion Seahawks.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS/NFL – 2007-09 (assistant defensive backs coach)

Served as an assistant defensive backs coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2007 to 2009, playing a vital role in the team ranking sixth in total defense in 2008 and 2009 as the Vikings won NFC North titles each season.

OHIO – 2005-06 (wide receivers)

Hired by former Nebraska head coach Frank Solich, Mason coached Ohio receivers for two years, helping the Bobcats improve from 4-7 in 2005 to a 9-5 campaign in 2006 that ended with a GMAC Bowl appearance.

NEW MEXICO STATE – 2004 (wide receivers)

In lone season at New Mexico State, the Aggie offense with Mason mentoring wide receivers corps topped the Sun Belt Conference in numerous passing categories.

SAINT MARY'S – 2003 (co-defensive coordinator/assistant head coach)

First coordinator responsibilities came in only season at St. Mary's, member of NCAA I-AA Independent League.

UTAH – 2002 (wide receivers/special teams assistant coach)

Hired by Ron McBride, Mason tutored WR Paris Warren, an eventual 7th round draft pick, in his only year at Utah. The 2002 Utes offense featured young QB Alex Smith, the eventual 2005 No. 1 NFL draft pick.

BUCKNELL – 1999-2001 (defensive backs)

Secondary coach for three straight winning Bison squads... Coached two Bucknell defensive backs to All-Patriot League recognition... Bison defensive staff was directed by current Vanderbilt coordinator David Kotulski.

IDAHO STATE – 1997-98 (running backs)

Mason coached Idaho State running backs for two years under head coach Tom Walsh.

WEBER STATE – 1995-96 (wide receivers)

Mason worked with Weber State receivers, including Pokey Eckford, who earned All-America honors in 1995 after catching 77 passes for 1,074 yards and six TDs.

MESA (ARIZ.) COMMUNITY COLLEGE – 1994 (wide receivers)

Mason entered collegiate coaching as a receivers coach with community college located in San Diego.

NFL MINORITY COACHING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Mason spent time with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, New York Giants and Oakland Raiders through the Minority Coaching Fellowship Program. Philadelphia in 1999 and Minnesota in 2008.

SON OF A...

Two Commodores are sons of former NFL players.

Jaire George is the son of former Titans legend and Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George.

Caleb Scott is the son of former Commodore great and NFL WR Chuck Scott, who played for Los Angeles and Dallas.

THE LEAGUE

Vanderbilt has 11 former Commodores on NFL rosters.

Adam Butler, Zach Cunningham, Will Holden and Andrew Jelks are all in their rookie seasons.

Butler was signed by the New England Patriots as a non-drafted free agent in the spring before making the team during camp.

Cunningham was a second round pick by Houston last spring after an All-American season for the Dores in 2016.

Holden was a fifth round selection by the Arizona Cardinals after a stellar Vanderbilt career.

Jelks missed his final two seasons at Vanderbilt with injuries but was picked up by the Patriots.

The four rookies join seven experienced Dores in the league, including Casey Hayward, Andre Hal and Jordan Matthews.

COMMODORES IN THE LEAGUE

Notes from NFL (Nov. 6)

Adam Butler (2013-16) // New England // Butler made the Patriots' 53-man opening day roster after signing as an undrafted rookie free agent with the defending Super Bowl champions last May. Butler is playing both tackle and end at New England. Week 9: Butler and the Patriots were idle Nov. 5. What's next: The AFC East-leading Patriots, now 6-2 on the season, travel to Denver Nov. 9 for the Sunday Night NFL feature against the Broncos. Kickoff is 7:30 p.m. CT.

Zach Cunningham (2013-16) // Houston // The 57th overall pick of the 2017 NFL Draft, Cunningham has impressed since he arrived in Houston. A consensus First Team All-America inside linebacker for the Commodores in 2016, Cunningham has received high marks from Texan coaches with his abilities to play the rush and defend the pass. Cunningham joins a Houston defense that features returning linebacker starters Benardrick McKinney and Brian Cushing, All-Pro tackle J.J. Watt, end Jadeveon Clowney and former Commodore defensive back Andre Hal. Week 9: Cunningham registered six total tackles as a starting linebacker in yet another close loss for the Texans - a 20-14 defeat to Indianapolis in Houston on Nov. 5. What's next: The injury-ridden Texans, now 3-5, return to the road this Sunday to face the Los Angeles Rams, one of the NFL's most improved teams at 6-2. Kickoff at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is 3:05 p.m. CT.

Jay Cutler (2002-05) // Miami // Retirement didn't last long for the veteran Cutler, who has decided to continue his career with former Bears mentor Adam Gase in South Beach. Gase confirmed Cutler's return to the NFL in early August. Cutler, named to the Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015, has thrown for 32,467 yards and 208 touchdowns during an 11-year career with Denver and Chicago. He suffered a season-ending arm injury midway through the 2007 season, and announced intentions in May to join FOX Sports as a NFL color analyst. A leg injury to Dolphin QB Ryan Tannehill opened a path for Cutler's return to the game. After a strong preseason, Cutler looks to lead Miami back to the playoffs. Week 9: Cutler was impressive during a Sunday night performance against Oakland. Back after missing a game due to injured ribs, Cutler completed 34-of-42 passes for 311 yards and three touchdowns, but the Dolphins came up just short in a 27-24 home loss. What's next: Cutler and the 4-4 Dolphins stay in the spotlight, playing a Monday Night Football road game against the 6-3 Panthers on Nov. 13. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. CT in Bank of America Stadium.

Andre Hal (2010-13) // Houston // Hal, the Texans' starting free safety, signed a new three-year deal in August in advance of his fourth season with the club. Hal is coming off his finest year, helping Houston advance to the second round of the AFC playoffs by registering 60 total tackles, three interceptions and 10 passes defended. In his final appearance last year, Hal registered six total tackles, an interception and two defended passes in Houston's playoff loss to the Patriots. The former Commodore cornerback also earned 11 starts at free safety last year, and has 22 career starting assignments. Former Vanderbilt All-America Zach Cunningham joins Hal on the Houston roster. Week 9: Hal was one of the Texans' top performers in a 20-14 home loss to Indianapolis. The starting free safety contributed five total tackles in the loss. What's next: The 3-5 are back on the road Nov. 12, facing one of the NFL's most surprising teams in the 6-2 Los Angeles Rams. Kickoff at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is 3:05 p.m. CT.

Casey Hayward (2008-11) // L.A. Chargers // Hayward enters his sixth season regarded as one of the NFL's elite cornerbacks. In 2016, Hayward enjoyed his finest season, earning his initial Pro Bowl recognition after leading the league with seven interceptions. He also ranked second in the league with 21 pass deflections, and finished the 2016 regular season with 35 solo tackles. He joins former Commodore offensive lineman Spencer Pulley on the Charger roster. Week 9: Hayward and the Chargers were off Nov. 5. What's next: The 3-5 Chargers return to action Nov. 12 against the improved Jaguars in Jacksonville. Kickoff at Everbank Field is noon CT.

Will Holden (2013-16) // Arizona // Selected in the fifth round of the 2017 NFL Draft, Holden earned a spot of Arizona's 53-man opening day roster with a solid showing during the preseason. He has the versatility to play either tackle or guard for the Cardinals. Week 4: Holden participated on special team conversion units and played limited snaps on the offensive line as the 1-2 Cardinals dropped a 28-17 decision to the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football Sept. 25. Week 9: Holden was on the inactive list Nov. 5 when the Cardinals defeated San Francisco 20-10 at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif. What's next: The 4-4 Cardinals face 5-3 Seattle at University of Phoenix Stadium this Thursday, Nov. 9. The NFC West rivalry kicks off at 7:25 p.m. CT.

Andrew Jelks (2013-16) // New England // Jelks was placed on the reserve/non-football injury list Sept. 2 by the Patriots. New England coach Bill Belichick was impressed by Jelks at Vanderbilt Pro Day in March, then added Jelks as an undrafted free agent in May. Though he missed the last two seasons at Vanderbilt due to injury, Jelks joins fellow Commodore undrafted rookie free agent Adam Butler with the Patriots.

Wesley Johnson (2010-13) // New York Jets // Johnson enters his fourth professional season as the Jets' starting center, a role that Nick Mangold has served for the last decade. Johnson is coming off a 2016 campaign when he filled in admirably for an injured Mangold, starting eight of the final nine games for the Jets. Week 9: Johnson started at center as the Jets registered one of their most impressive wins of the season on Nov. 2, defeating the AFC East rival Buffalo Bills 34-21. Johnson and the OL helped the Jets offense produced nearly 200 rushing yards in the win. What's next: The 4-5 Jets look to return to .500 football on the road Nov. 12 when they face the Buccaneers in Tampa Bay. Kickoff at Raymond James Stadium is noon CT.

Jordan Matthews (2010-13) // Buffalo // Matthews enters his fourth season in the NFL. On Aug. 11, 2017, Matthews was traded from Philadelphia to the Buffalo Bills. Matthews has missed three weeks this preseason with an injury, but is expected to start in the season opener vs. New York. The Commodores' all-time leading receiver is coming off a campaign when he ranked second on the Eagles with 73 receptions and 804 receiving yards. Matthews posted impressive numbers in Philly: 225 receptions, 2,673 receiving yards and 19 touchdown catches in 35 career starts. Matthews is expected to miss up to a month after suffering a thumb injury Oct. 1 at Atlanta. Week 9: Back in the starting lineup at wide receiver, Matthews had six receptions for 46 yards in the Bills' 34-21 road loss Nov. 2 to the New York Jets. What's next: The 5-3 Bills host one of the NFC's hottest teams Nov. 12 when they play the 6-2 New Orleans Saints. Kickoff in New Era Field is noon CT.

Spencer Pulley (2011-15) // L.A. Chargers // Entering his second professional season, Pulley looks to be the opening day starter as Philip Rivers' center in Los Angeles. Pulley has enjoyed a quick rise since signing with the Chargers as an undrafted rookie free agent in May 2016. As a rookie, Pulley saw action in all 16 games for San Diego, contributing on both special teams and the offensive line. He joins former Commodore cornerback Casey Hayward on the Charger roster. Week 9: Pulley and the Chargers were off last weekend. What's next: The 3-5 Chargers return to action Nov. 12, traveling to Jacksonville, Fla. to face the 5-3 Jaguars at Everbank Field. Kickoff is at noon CT.

Stephen Weatherly (2012-15) // Minnesota // Weatherly enters his second season in Minneapolis aiming for an important role on the Vikings' defensive front. Selected in the 7th round of the 2016 NFL Draft, Weatherly finished last year on Minnesota's active roster, garnering a couple of tackles in late-season appearances. Weatherly has worked hard to transition from an outside linebacker at Vanderbilt, and currently sits at the top reserve to Viking right end starter Everson Griffen. Week 9: Weatherly and the Vikings were idle last weekend. What's next: The 6-2 Vikings are back in action this Nov. 12, facing a road trip in Washington D.C. to face the Redskin. Kickoff in FedEx Field is noon CT.

COACHING STAFF CONSISTENCY

One year after changing numerous coaching positions, head coach Derek Mason heads into his fourth season at Vanderbilt with a staff largely intact from a year ago.

The only offseason change Mason made was forced by illness. Warren Belin, a long-time Commodore defensive coach under Bobby Johnson, returned to campus, serving as Mason's outside linebackers coach.

Belin was enticed to Vanderbilt only after learning Osia Lewis would be leaving his duties to battle a liver cancer diagnosis. Lewis left his on-field responsibilities in February, moving into a senior defensive assistant/consultant to the head coach role.

Before the 2016 season, Mason brought on five new staffers: Lewis, Jeff Genyk (special teams coordinator/running backs), Cameron Norcross (offensive line), C.J. Ah You (defensive line) and Chris Marve (inside linebackers).

Only Gerry Gdowski remains from Mason's original staff. Last year, Gdowski mentored Vanderbilt quarterbacks after coaching tight ends in 2014-15.

BELIN

EXPERIENCE MATTERS

For the first time in the Derek Mason era the Commodores started an overwhelming amount of upperclassmen in 2016.

In the Dores' 13 games last year, 70.3% of the squad's starts went to juniors and seniors. The previous year just 54.2% of the starts went to older student-athletes and only 46.2% of the starts in Mason's first year in 2014.

THREE DORES BACK AFTER ALL-SEC FRESHMAN CAMPAIGNS

Pfeifer and Pinkney were named to Athlon's first team all-freshman squad. Loy was named as Athlon's second-team punter.

FOUR DORES ON SENIOR BOWL WATCH LIST

Prior to the season, four Commodores were named to the Reese's Senior Bowl watch list.

The four Dores are four of the most productive athletes on the 2017 roster led by Vanderbilt all-time leading rusher Ralph Webb. The star running back set the all-time VU rushing mark last fall and holds the class record for Vandy freshmen, sophomores and juniors entering his senior season.

COMMODORES SET TO HOST SEVEN GAMES IN 2018

Vanderbilt's 2018 schedule features seven home games at Vanderbilt Stadium, including games against Nevada, Florida and Tennessee.

The Commodores will also travel to Notre Dame, Georgia and Arkansas next fall.

VU is set to play in the first nine weeks of the regular season before taking the team's bye week Nov. 3.

The schedule has the Dores playing four of the team's first five games at home before playing four of the next five on the road.

The schedule wraps up with annual foes Ole Miss and Tennessee at home.

BURKS, WEBB EARN PRESEASON ALL-SEC NOD

Oren Burks and Ralph Webb were named preseason All-Southeastern Conference recipients by the league's head coaches prior to the season.

The duo also earned preseason recognition from the media attending SEC Media Days in July.

SEC head coaches voted Webb, a rising senior running back from Gainesville, Fla., and Burks, a rising senior linebacker from Fairfax Station, Va., as third-team all-conference recipients.

A preseason candidate for the Doak Walker and Maxwell awards, Webb enters his final season with 3,342 rushing yards. Webb ranks No. 20 on the SEC career rushing charts and could climb into the league's top five with a season comparable to last year when he set a new team single-season record with 1,283 rushing yards.

A Butkus Award candidate, Burks finished with 40 unassisted tackles, 59 total stops, 6.5 tackles for loss, 3.5 quarterback sacks and an interception last year. Burks' career statistics of 155 total tackles and four interceptions are active team highs.

POLY PIPELINE GROWING IN NASHVILLE

Vanderbilt's Poly pipeline continues to grow in 2017 with six student-athletes on the roster with Polynesian descent, doubling last year's total.

Senior Nifae Lealao is the elder statesman of the group and has been joined by now redshirt freshmen Josiah Sa'o and Sean McMoore. Sa'o plays alongside Lealao on the defensive line with McMoore on the offensive line. McMoore is the first Hawaiian to suit up for VU while Lealao and Sa'o both hail from California.

The Dore's freshman class features three new players with Poly blood, including two from The Rock in Feleti Afemui and Jonah Buchanan. Afemui is a linebacker from Kahului with Buchanan playing alongside Lealao and Sa'o on the defensive line from Honolulu. Michael Owusu rounds the gridiron group playing outside linebacker from Oxnard, Calif.

Even with seven Polynesians in athletics on West End, the most famous Polynesian in Nashville remains Heisman Trophy winner and Tennessee Titans QB Marcus Mariota.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

WR Caleb Scott and DB Donovan Sheffield are second-generation Commodores. Both following their dad's collegiate path through Vanderbilt.

Scott is the son of former Commodore TE Chuck Scott (1981-84). Scott's dad was a 1983 All-America and two-time All-SEC pick who still ranks T-3rd all-time among Commodores with 20 TD catches, sixth in receiving yards (2,219), and seventh in receptions (145).

Sheffield is the son of DB Robert Sheffield (1993-95). Sheffield's dad was a three-year letterwinner at cornerback from 1993-95.

GAME 1

Middle Tennessee
Sept. 2 | Murfreesboro

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. -- Kyle Shurmur threw for 296 yards and tied his career-high with three touchdowns as the Vanderbilt Commodores beat Middle Tennessee 28-6 Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

The Commodores snapped a five-year skid in season openers to give coach Derek Mason his first victory to kick off his fourth season in charge. They also won their third straight against the Conference USA school 37 miles away from Nashville.

"It was really important because for us it's something we hadn't done here in my tenure, so we got it done tonight," Mason said. "So now we move on."

Vanderbilt came out throwing with Shurmur, and the junior quarterback didn't disappoint. He completed 13 of his first 14 passes, including a 37-yard TD pass to Kalija Lipscomb to cap the opening drive. He added a 4-yard TD pass to Lipscomb for a 21-0 lead minutes into the second quarter.

Ralph Webb, the Commodores' all-time leading rusher, also added a 1-yard TD run. Shurmur hit Webb on a swing pass that the senior took 73 yards for a 28-0 lead in the third.

The Commodores smothered what was a high-powered offense in 2016 with Middle Tennessee running up 495 yards against Vanderbilt last season. The Blue Raiders averaged 517.7 yards and ranked 12th nationally scoring 39.7 points per game.

Bryce Lewis intercepted a tipped pass to set up Webb's TD, and the Commodores also sacked Stockstill five times. The Blue Raiders avoided being shut out at home when Stockstill found Richie James for a 22-yard TD early in the fourth.

GAME 2

Alabama A&M
Sept. 9 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Vanderbilt quarterback Kyle Shurmur threw four touchdown passes and ran for another as the Commodores smashed Alabama A&M 42-0 on Saturday, improving to 2-0 for the first time under fourth-year coach Derek Mason.

"I'm excited even if my face probably doesn't show it," Mason said. "You're excited to get the wins, but you know preparation is right around the corner. It's not about being comfortable, not about getting comfortable. It's just making sure we stay (focused)."

The Commodores dominated all facets of the game as they readied for next week's home challenge against 19th-ranked Kansas State. Shurmur completed 12-of-12 passes for 175 yards and three scores in the first half alone, finishing 15-for-18 for 202 yards. Vanderbilt outgained the Bulldogs 291-38 in the opening two quarters, holding Alabama A&M (0-2) to three first downs. The Commodores blocked one Bulldogs punt -- converting it into a touchdown -- and deflected another. Vanderbilt scored touchdowns on five-of-six possessions in the opening half.

"I thought our guys played a good first half," Mason said. "They scored points with Shurmur. That's the second week in a row he started fast. I like the way he played. I thought he had good command and that he saw everything he needed to see."

Playing in front of a crowd of 25,802, Vanderbilt recorded its first shutout since the Commodores blanked Kentucky 40-0 in 2012.

GAME 3#18 Kansas State
Sept. 16 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Kyle Shurmur scored on a 2-yard run with 8:23 left, and Vanderbilt upset No. 18 Kansas State 14-7 on Saturday night for the Commodores' first victory over a ranked, nonconference opponent since 1946.

Vanderbilt improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2011 with the Commodores' first win over a ranked, nonconference opponent since beating North Carolina State. The Commodores also have won five straight at home dating to last season.

"We're trying to get all these monkeys off our back," Mason said.

Kansas State (2-1) last beat a Southeastern Conference team on the road in the regular season in 1982 at Kentucky.

Jesse Ertz tried to drive the Wildcats to the tying score. But he was tackled short on fourth-and-8 deep in Vanderbilt territory by Oren Burks and LaDarius Wiley with 1:06 left.

"I threw my hand up and said, 'Thank you Jesus,'" Mason said.

Shurmur drove the Commodores 84 yards using up half of the first quarter to put Vanderbilt up 7-0 with a 2-yard pass to C.J. Duncan.

Ertz answered for Kansas State with a 75-yard drive, and on fourth-and-1, Ertz took the ball wide left and ran 15 untouched for a TD.

Ryan White picked off Ertz's pass soon after at the Wildcats 33, and Vanderbilt needed only four plays before Shurmur scored the clinching TD after having to pick up the ball off the ground after the snap. Shurmur said he didn't want to make a bad play worse.

"Just trying to get all I could and maybe score I guess," Shurmur said.

GAME 4#1 Alabama
Sept. 23 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Alabama coach Nick Saban challenged the top-ranked Crimson Tide to prove they knew how to not only win, but dominate an opponent for a full 60 minutes.

That, and a bit of motivation provided by the confident Vanderbilt Commodores, was all Alabama needed.

Damien Harris ran for a career-high 151 yards and three touchdowns, Bo Scarbrough added two TDs and top-ranked Alabama routed Vanderbilt 59-0 Saturday in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Alabama (4-0) now has won 19 straight over the SEC East. Better yet, the Crimson Tide hasn't lost to Vanderbilt since 1984 or in Nashville since 1969. Both streaks were assured at the end of the first quarter with Alabama up 21-0 after the second of Harris' TDs. And the Crimson Tide didn't let up.

Alabama outgained Vanderbilt in total offense 677-78 before running out the clock late for the largest margin in the program's vaunted history. The Crimson Tide also set a school record with 38 first downs, topping the 36 earned Nov. 22, 2014, against Western Carolina.

Vanderbilt (3-1) came in as one of the five remaining undefeated teams in the SEC with the nation's stingiest defense in points, total yards and against the pass. The Commodores had allowed just 13 points combined through three games, yet they proved no match against Alabama's dominating ground game.

GAME 5

#21 Florida
Sept. 30 | Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Lamical Perine scored three touchdowns, Malik Davis added two and No. 21 Florida beat Vanderbilt 38-24 on Saturday despite losing quarterback Luke Del Rio to a left shoulder injury.

Perine bookended two one-yard plunges around a 13-yard scamper as the Gators remained unbeaten in Southeastern Conference play and defeated the Commodores for the 26th time in the last 27 meetings.

Perine, a cousin of former Oklahoma and current Washington Redskins running back Samaje Perine, finished with 58 yards on 15 carries.

Davis, a freshman, ran 17 times for 124 yards. His final run was huge. On a fourth-down play, Davis broke through the line, stumbled and then regained his footing for a 39-yard score that sealed the victory.

Redshirt freshman Feleipe Franks replaced Del Rio in the second quarter and turned in his most effective performance of the season. Franks completed 10 of 14 passes for 185 yards, including a 49-yarder to Tyrie Cleveland that was nearly as perfect as his last pass in The Swamp.

The Gators (3-1, 3-0 SEC) and Vanderbilt played a tight game for the third consecutive year. That was an improvement for the Commodores (3-2, 0-2) after a 59-0 home loss to top-ranked Alabama a week ago.

GAME 6

#5 Georgia
Oct. 7 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Nick Chubb ran for two touchdowns and 138 yards, and fifth-ranked Georgia routed Vanderbilt 45-14 Saturday despite missing three players from the Bulldogs' stingy defense.

Georgia (6-0, 3-0 Southeastern Conference) continued its best start since 2012 when the Bulldogs reached the SEC championship. The Bulldogs also avenged a 17-16 loss to Vanderbilt last year by beating the Commodores for the 20th time in the past 23 games in this series.

Georgia ran through and over Vanderbilt, piling up 423 yards. Sony Michel added 150 yards and a TD, while Elijah Holyfield scored his first career TD on a 15-yard run. Georgia set the tone on its opening drive, running all seven plays for 83 yards.

Vanderbilt (3-3, 0-3) lost its third straight to wrap up the toughest four-game stretch in school history against the Commodores' fourth consecutive ranked opponent.

Coach Derek Mason, who oversees the defense, said the Commodores have to fix what ails them: defenders were in the right spots but didn't tackle well.

"That's what teams like this will do," Mason said. "They will expose exactly who you are if you aren't consistent with your tackling fundamentals and mechanics."

GAME 7*Ole Miss
Oct. 14 | Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. -- Shea Patterson threw for 351 yards and four touchdowns and Mississippi beat Vanderbilt 57-35 on Saturday.

Ole Miss (3-3, 1-2 Southeastern Conference) snapped its three-game losing streak while Vanderbilt (3-4, 0-4) has now lost four straight.

Vanderbilt led 14-7 in the second quarter after Ralph Webb ran for two touchdowns, but Ole Miss responded with 28 straight points in less than seven minutes. The offensive avalanche was helped by two Vanderbilt turnovers that gave the Rebels excellent field position.

Ole Miss kept the momentum early in the third quarter, earning a safety after forcing Vanderbilt quarterback Kyle Shurmur to fumble into the end zone. Less than a minute later, Patterson hit Brown for a 29-yard touchdown pass and a 44-21 lead and the game was no longer in doubt.

Brown caught eight passes for 174 yards and two touchdowns.

DaMarkus Lodge also caught two touchdown passes.

Shurmur threw for 174 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for the Commodores. Webb ran for 163 yards and two touchdowns.

"We need to mentally find ourselves, find our identity, rebuild our confidence and get fresh," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "I've seen a lot of football -- good stretches and bad stretches -- we've got to look inside and fix what ails us. We need to get better and we can do that."

GAME 8South Carolina
Oct. 28 | Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. -- Jake Bentley ran for two touchdowns and threw for another to lead South Carolina to a 34-27 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday that assured the Southeastern Conference's East Division race would go on at least one more week.

Bentley was 19-of-29 for 174 yards and ran six times for 47 yards, including his first scores rushing in his college career for the Gamecocks (6-2, 4-2).

Vanderbilt (3-5, 0-5) had two players ejected for targeting, including linebacker Charles Wright -- the team's sack leader -- on a hit on Bentley just after he released the ball.

"I saw a young man tackle a quarterback," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "We've got to get that right."

Bentley, who took advantage of open field in front of him for several big runs, said he is used to taking shots. "Anytime a quarterback runs it's like a little minnow with a pool of sharks," the sophomore said.

The Commodores finished with 10 penalties for 100 yards. The final one might have been the most costly. A holding penalty by tight end Sam Dobbs stalled a potential game-tying drive and Kyle Shurmur overthrew Caleb Scott on fourth-and-2 with just over a minute to go.

Shurmur threw for a season-best 333 yards and four touchdowns.

GAME 9

Western Kentucky
Nov. 4 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Kyle Shurmur hit Trent Sherfield on a 4-yard scoring pass on Vanderbilt's opening drive and the Commodores never trailed in a 31-17 win over Western Kentucky on Saturday.

Shurmur passed for two touchdowns and the Commodores rushed for two more, including Sherfield's 45-yard run with 48 seconds left in the third quarter.

It was the final non-conference game of the season for both teams.

"We wanted to move forward this week," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "We played extremely hard. It wasn't the prettiest thing early, but we started to move the needle a little bit."

Vanderbilt (4-5) scored 14 points in the first quarter for the third time this season. Their 14-7 lead marked the first time since the Kansas State win Sept. 16 that the Commodores held a lead after the first quarter.

Vanderbilt led 21-14 at halftime, their third halftime lead of the season.

Ralph Webb rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown on 23 carries for Vanderbilt. He moved into 11th place all-time in the Southeastern Conference in career rushing with 3,885 yards.

The Vanderbilt defense sacked Western Kentucky quarterback Mike White five times, two on third-down plays. The Commodores finished with a season-high six sacks. The Commodores recorded four sacks in the season-opener with Middle Tennessee State.

GAME 10

Kentucky
Nov. 11 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Benny Snell rushed for 116 yards and three touchdowns and Sihiem King added two rushing TDs, leading Kentucky to a 44-21 win at Vanderbilt on Saturday.

Kentucky (7-3, 4-3 SEC) improved its bowl stock while keeping Vanderbilt (4-6, 0-6) winless in the conference standings.

Snell, who entered the game as the SEC's leading rusher, became the ninth player in school history to reach 2,000 career yards. The 5-foot-11, 223-pound sophomore also became the first Kentucky player to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. Snell also set the school record for career rushing touchdowns (28).

Kentucky's Austin MacGinnis kicked three field goals and the Wildcats ramblled for 428 yards in total offense.

Kyle Shurmur threw four interceptions and one TD, and was sacked five times. He is tied for second with Jay Cutler (21) for most single-season TD passes in Vanderbilt history.

Ralph Webb rushed for 70 yards and one TD for the Commodores. The senior passed Florida's Emmitt Smith in career yards and moved into the top 10 in SEC rushing history.

Kentucky spotted Vanderbilt a 7-0 lead in the first quarter before rallying for 34 consecutive points to take control.
