SCOUTING THE GAELS

» Saint Mary's is 21-9 overall and finished with a 13-5 record and 2nd place tie with BYU in West Coast Conference play.

» The Gaels lost three starters and seven letterwinners from last year's team that went 23-12 overall, 11-7 (4th) in the West Coast Conference and advanced to the second round of the NIT.

» Brad Waldow is one of only two players nationally to average at least 19 points and 9 rebounds per game. He ranks second in the West Coast Conference in scoring with 19.3 points per game and leads the league in rebounds at 9.0. He is also 3rd in the WCC in field goal percentage at .563.

Randy Bennett, Saint Mary's Head Coach

A two-time West Coast Conference Coach of the Year (2011, 2008) and 2010 Sporting News WCC Coach of the Year, Randy Bennett, took over as the head men's basketball coach prior to the 2001-02 season.

In his 14th season, he is the school's all-time wins leader, guided SMC to eight post-season appearances (5 NCAA and 3 NIT), led the Gaels to their first post-season victory and had a player drafted (Patrick Mills, 2009) by the NBA for the first time since 1984. Two Gaels are currently playing in the NBA.

Bennett is third all-time among WCC coaches in career league wins and has a 304-144 (.679) record while compiling a 139-65 (.681) mark in WCC regular-season competition. Bennett became the winningest coach at SMC when the Gaels defeated East Tennessee State in the semifinals of the Rainbow Classic on December 21, 2007, passing James Weaver (110-67), who held the record for 47 years.

He has led SMC to at least the semifinals of the WCC Tournament in 13 of his 14 seasons, and seven championship game appearances. His side captured WCC Tournament titles in 2010 and 2012. Under Bennett's tutelage, the Gaels have posted eight second place finishes in the WCC and the 2011 and 2012 regular-season championships.

In addition to team accomplishments, Bennett has had 15 players earn All-WCC recognition, with 22 first team and seven honorable mention selections. He coached Mickey McConnell and Matthew Dellavedova to WCC Player of the Year honors. In 2011, he served as an assistant coach for the USA team that competed in the FIBA U19 World Championship in Latvia.

WALDOW IS NATIONAL AWARD FINALIST

Brad Waldow was one of 15 players selected as finalists for the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award, presented to the nation's top center by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Named after the Hall of Famer and three-time NCAA Champion, the honor is in its inaugural year.

WALDOW NEARING ALL-TIME WCC LEADERS

Brad Waldow enters the postseason among the West Coast Conference's top 25 all-time scoring leaders. He is also likely to end the season as one of the top 10 in field goal percentage and he has a shot at a top 20 spot in rebounding.

RECOGNIZING GREATNESS

Former Gaels guard Patrick Mills became the third SMC men's basketball player to have his number retired last weekend at the team's final regular season home game. Mills' familiar number "13" joined Matthew Dellavedova's number "4" and Tom Meschery's number "31" in the McKeon Pavilion rafters. Mills attended the ceremony and was accompanied by San Antonio Spurs teammates Boris Diaw, Manu Ginobili and Tiago Splitter.

UNSELFISH GAELS

Saint Mary's leads the WCC in percentage of assisted field goals with 62.8 percent of the Gaels' baskets coming off an assist. At home against San Diego, a season best 23 of SMC's 26 field goals were assisted.

School	Assists	FGs	Pct.
Saint Mary's	457	728	62.8%

WALDOW'S 2ND WCC POW HONOR

Saint Mary's senior forward earned WCC Player of the Week honors for the second time this season after leading the Gaels to wins over San Diego and BYU. He averaged 24.5 points and 10 rebounds in the two victories and shot an efficient 75 percent from the field in the two games.

WALDOW'S 1ST WCC POW HONOR

Waldow earned WCC Player of the Week honors for the 1st time this year after a 3-game stretch to lead SMC to wins over New Mexico State, Denver and UC Irvine. He averaged 23.3 points and 8.7 rebounds and shot .652 from the field in the 3 games and tied his career best with 28 points against UC Irvine's 7'-6" Mamadou Ndiaye.

WALDOW IS LEADING MAN

Constant double teams and being the focal point of opposing teams' game plans hasn't stopped SMC big man Brad Waldow from providing constant offense in the low post this season. Through 30 games, Waldow has led the Gaels in scoring 21 times and has scored 20 points or more 14 times.

EARLY STARTERS

The Santa Clara game on Dec. 27 marked the earliest WCC contest ever for the Gaels. SMC has played just five league games in the month of December:

Dec. 27	2014-15	vs. Santa Clara	W	73-60
Dec. 29	2014-15	vs. San Francisco	W	69-56
Dec. 29	2011-12	vs. BYU	W	98-82
Dec. 30	2013-14	at Pacific	W	88-80
Dec. 31	2011-12	at Pepperdine	W	74-45

STREAK BUSTERS

With its 71-67 overtime win at Creighton, the Gaels ended the Bluejays' 24-game home win streak, the 5th longest nationally.

POINT GUARD U

When Aaron Bright decided to transfer to Saint Mary's to attend grad school for his final year of eligibility, he joined some pretty good company in the Gaels' point guard lineage. A few of the point guards under Randy Bennett that preceded Bright were 1st team all-WCC standouts Patrick Mills, Mickey McConnell, Matthew Dellavedova and Stephen Holt. Mills, McConnell and Dellavedova were each Bob Cousy Award finalists.

5TH YEAR TRANSFERS

Guard Aaron Bright and forward Desmond Simmons joined the Saint Mary's program last summer after the two players earned undergraduate degrees at Pac-12 Conference institutions. Both players are utilizing a NCAA rule that allow players who graduate to transfer for their final season of eligibility without having to sit out a season.

Bright earned his degree in science, technology and society from Stanford, while graduated from the University of Washington with a degree in anthropology. Both players are enrolled in SMC's M.A. in Leadership program.

NBA TAKES NOTICE

For the first time in program history, Saint Mary's can claim two players active in the NBA. San Antonio's Patrick Mills played a key role in the Spurs' 2013 run to the NBA title, serving as the primary backup at point guard and making key contributions throughout the season. Mills' compatriot Matthew Dellavedova is also making an immediate impact in the NBA as a guard with Cleveland, already earning a handful of starts in just his second season in the NBA and earning a spot in the league's all-star weekend as a member of the World team in the BBVA Compass Rising Stars Challenge.

KING JAMES ON DELLY

Matthew Dellavedova is already a beloved figure in Moraga, but it hasn't taken him long to establish the same kind of reputation in Cleveland. His teammate and four-time NBA MVP LeBron James offered this assessment of the former Gael after a game on Dec. 9, 2014: "He's just scrappy man," James said. "Delly is a guy that's always been counted out. Saying he can't make it, he can't do this, he can't shoot enough, not fast enough, not tall enough. One thing about it: Heart and effort will take away a lot of the things that you cannot do. I'll take a guy like that any day on my team."

GAELS ADD FOUR INCOMING FRESHMEN

The Gaels signed three incoming freshmen that will join the program next season: Kyle Clark (Wynyard, Tasmania, Australia), Stefan Gonzalez (Pocatello, Idaho), Jordan Hunter (Sydney, Australia) and Tanner Krebs (Hobart, Tasmania, Australia).

GAELS IN ESPN MIDNIGHT GAMES

Saint Mary's has played in six total ESPN Tip-Off Marathon events - all at home and all victorious for the Gaels.

Nov. 15, 2014	New Mexico State	W, 83-71

WALDOW MOVES UP CAREER LISTINGS

Heading into last season, Brad Waldow might have been best known for losing a tooth (and Coach Bennett's subsequent reaction - visit YouTube for a visual) in the 2012 WCC Tournament. Now, the all-WCC forward is known for being one of the top big men in program history.

Last year he became the 31st SMC player to surpass 1,000 career points. He enters the postseason with 1,731 points, which is 5th on the school's career list. He is also 2nd in free throw attempts, 3rd in made field goals and 4th in career rebounds, and blocked shots. He is also just behind Matthew Dellavedova for 2nd in career starts and games played.

Waldow is only the 3rd player in program history to surpass 1,700 points and 800 rebounds.

BENNETT HAS LASTING POWER

Saint Mary's is one of just three Division I men's basketball programs in the state of California to have the same head coach in each of the last 10 seasons.

Randy Bennett is joined by only Bob Williams of UC Santa Barbara and Steve Fisher of San Diego State as the state's only 10+ year coaches at their institution.

Bennett's Gaels have also been the most successful among that group of the last decade, winning 73 percent of their games heading into this season.

On a national level, Bennett is tied for the 22nd longest active tenure at one institution.

SMC TO RENOVATE MCKEON PAVILION

Saint Mary's announced plans to build a new Student-Athlete Performance Center and renovate McKeon Pavilion. The $13 million project features dedicated facilities for varsity athletes, including a weight room, training and on-site sports medicine areas, a new volleyball locker room and academic services area. The project will also add approximately 500 seats to McKeon Pavilion. The project was made possible by a lead gift of $1 million from Kevin M. Nagel, CEO of Envision Pharmaceutical Holdings and minority owner of the Sacramento Kings.

GAELS POST ANOTHER 20-WIN SEASON

This year, Saint Mary's surpassed the 20-win mark for the eighth-straight season, the ninth time under Randy Bennett and the 11th time in school history. In every year when the Gaels won more than 20 games, they advanced to postseason play.

AUSSIES UNDER BENNETT'S REIGN

When Randy Bennett came to Moraga in 2001, he recruited Australian Adam Caporn (2001-03) to fill a void at point guard. Caporn helped bring SMC all-time leading scorer Daniel Kickert (2002-06) to Moraga in 2002, which then sparked the transfer of Carlin Hughes (2007-09) and Lucas Walker

(2007-09) from Montana State-Billings. Ben Allen (2008-10) joined the mix prior to the 2007-08 season when he transferred to SMC from Indiana. Patrick Mills (2007-09) came the same year, and Clint Steindl (2008-12) made the trip across the Pacific Ocean prior for the start of the 2008-09 campaign. Two years later, Matthew Dellavedova (2009-13), Jorden Page (2009-13) and Mitchell Young (2009-13) joined the Gaels. Matthew Hodgson, Dane Pineau, Emmett Naar and Jock Landale are the most recent Aussies to join the team. Aussie Junior National Team players Kyle Clark, Jordan Hunter and Tanner Krebs will arrive next season.
