OPENING KICK

★ Vanderbilt hosts Tennessee in the 111th edition of the series that dates back to 1892 and is the Commodores' longest running series.

★ RB Ralph Webb needs 27 yards to break Zac Stacy's career rushing school record and 136 yards to break Stacy's single-season record. Webb is fourth in the league with 1,239 all-purpose yards, fourth in rushing yards with 1,058 and has recorded five 100-yard rushing games, passing his total from last season.

★ Butkus and Bednarik Award semifinalist Zach Cunningham leads the SEC with 109 tackles and is second with 16.5 tackles for loss. He is the first Commodore since Jamie Winborn (1998-2000) to record consecutive 100-plus tackle seasons and moved into third all-time at VU with 39.5 tackles for loss.

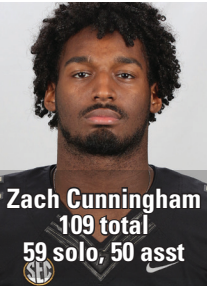

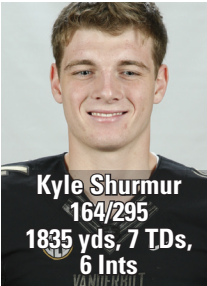

★ KR Darrius Sims set Vanderbilt's school record for kick return yards against Missouri and now has 2,309 yards.

★ Will Holden became the third Commodore this season to earn SEC honors, earning SEC Lineman of the Week for his work against Ole Miss.

A Vanderbilt victory would...

- ★ Be the team's third win in the last five vs. Tennessee.
- ★ Give VU four wins in the second half of the season.
- ★ Mean back-to-back victories for the second time this season.

Last time vs. Tennessee

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- The defense that attempted to carry Vanderbilt all season finally crumbled in the Commodores' season finale.

Joshua Dobbs threw two touchdown passes to Von Pearson and ran for a third score Saturday as Tennessee trounced Vanderbilt 53-28 to end the regular season with its first five-game winning streak since 2007. The Volunteers put up their highest point total against a Southeastern Conference opponent since a 59-21 victory over Mississippi State in 2003.

Ralph Webb rushed for 149 yards and Kyle Shurmur threw three touchdown passes for Vanderbilt (4-8, 2-6 SEC). Jalen Hurd rushed for 120 yards and a touchdown, and Cameron Sutton scored on an 85-yard punt return for Tennessee (8-4, 5-3).

WEBB CHASING STACY, VANDY RUSHING RECORD

Ralph Webb entered his junior season chasing history and former Commodore Zac Stacy.

Webb started the season eighth all-time in rushing at Vanderbilt but has moved up to second on the list with his 1,058 yards rushing in 11 games this season - including a career-high 211 yards against Middle Tennessee - passing Lonnie Sadler, Jared McGrath, Jermaine Johnson, Jamie O'Rourke, Carl Woods and Frank Mordica. Webb broke the all-time school record for rushing attempts against Kentucky, taking over the top spot from Carl Woods.

Webb rushed for 1,152 yards last season - the most ever by a Vanderbilt sophomore - to run his career total to 2,059 yards in just two seasons on the gridiron for VU. Webb's 1,152 yards came up just 41 yards short of Stacy's single-season Vanderbilt record of 1,193 yards set in 2011.

In his two-plus years carrying the ball for the Commodores, Webb already owns the second-, seventh- and ninth-most yards in a single-season at Vanderbilt. His 907 yards in 2014 is a VU freshman record. Webb owns rushing records for sophomores and freshmen at VU already. Stacy set the school record as a junior and followed it up with 1,141 yards as a senior in 2012.

Webb became the first Vandy rusher to top the 1,000-yard mark since that 2012 season by Stacy and just the fifth VU running back to ever cross the milestone. Webb joined Stacy as the only Commodores in history to post two 1,000-yard seasons when Webb ran for 123 yards against Ole Miss to go over 1,000 yards for the season.

Stacy holds the school single-season record with 1,193 yards (2011) with Webb needing 136 yards to break that record.

SIMS SETS KICK RETURN RECORD AT VU

Darrius Sims took over the top spot in the Vanderbilt record book for kick return yards in a career with a 25-yard return at Missouri.

The senior from Memphis, Tenn. began the season third all-time at VU in kick return yards trailing only Tony Jackson (1989-93) and former record holder Mark Johnson (1986-90).

Sims has led the Commodores in kick return yards each of the last three seasons and is set to do it for an unprecedented fourth straight year. He owns two kick returns for touchdowns, both coming in the same game against South Carolina in 2014. He took kicks back from 91 yards and 100 yards in that game to become just the second Commodore to ever return a kick 100 yards (Preston Brown vs. Ole Miss in 1977).

ZACH THE TACKLER

Zach Cunningham has picked up where he left off the 2015 season, as a tackling machine.

The junior led the Commodores with 12 tackles in the season opener to register his fifth straight game with at least 10 tackles dating back to last season when he made a team-best 103 stops.

He followed up with 10 more tackles against Middle Tennessee to extend the streak to six games and push his total to 80 tackles over a nine-game stretch.

He finally saw his streak of double digit tackle games come to an end with seven solo stops at Georgia Tech.

Cunningham totaled nine stops in the win at Western Kentucky and 1.5 tackles for loss. He notched another double digit tackle game with 14 stops against Florida, finishing one tackle shy of his career-best. The junior recorded 10 tackles at Kentucky for his fourth game this season with at least 10 tackles. He posted a career-high 19 tackles in the Dore's win at Georgia and 2.5 tackles for loss, earning Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week honors. He filled the stat sheet in the game at Auburn making nine tackles, recovering a fumble and blocking a field goal an amazing play.

Through 11 games he leads the league in tackles with 109 and is second in tackles for loss with 16.5. His 9.9 tackles per game rank 10th in the nation - second among players from Power 5 conferences - and he is just one of 27 players in the nation with 100-plus tackles.

He became the first Vanderbilt defender since the legendary Jamie Winborn, who recorded three straight 100-plus tackle seasons 1998-2000, to record back-to-back 100-plus tackle seasons with his 10 stops at Missouri pushing him over the century mark. Cunningham is also on pace to lead the Commodores in tackles for loss for the second straight year, something that has not been done since Marcus Buggs did it in 2006-07. Cunningham moved into third place all-time with 39.5 tackles for loss in his career in the win over Ole Miss.

The Pinson, Ala. native finished 2015 in a flurry, racking up 10 tackles against Florida and Kentucky, 14 against Texas A&M and 10 solo tackles against Tennessee.

Sports Illustrated's Chris Burke pegged Cunningham as the 23rd overall pick to the Pittsburgh Steelers next spring in his initial NFL mock draft.

Cunningham has also been named as one of 12 semifinalists for the 32nd annual Butkus Award, given yearly to the nation's best linebacker. He is one of five linebackers from the Southeastern Conference to make the list along with Alabama's Ryan Anderson and Reuben Foster, LSU's Kendall Beckwith and Florida's Jarrad Davis.

The Bednarik Award has also named Cunningham one of its 18 semifinalists. He is one of nine players from the SEC to make the cut for the award that goes to the nation's best defensive player.

SHURMUR IN NOVEMBER

Through the three games in November, QB Kyle Shurmur has passed for 746 yards to rank third in the league this month.

Shurmur owns three straight games with 200-plus yards passing for the first time this season and first time in his career after passing for 273 yards in last week's win over Ole Miss, 252 yards at Missouri and 221 yards at Auburn the week before.

STEADY PROGRESS

Head coach Derek Mason and the Commodores have made steady progress over the team's three seasons with Mason at the helm, winning more games each season.

The last time Vanderbilt saw a coach increase his win total over three consecutive seasons was Bobby Johnson, who did it 2006-08. Johnson's Commodores went 4-8 in 2006 followed up with a 5-7 campaign in 2007 before going 7-6 with a Music City Bowl victory to give VU its first winning season since 1982 when George MacIntyre led the Dores to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

MacIntyre's '82 squad also capped a three-year stretch that saw Vandy increase its win total with the team going 2-9 in 1980 in MacIntyre's second season on West End, 4-7 in 1981 and 8-4 in 1982.

RACKING UP YARDS

Vanderbilt's offense has racked up yards over the last two weeks, going over 400 yards of total offense in each of the team's last two games.

In last week's victory over Ole Miss, the Commodores gained 481 yards for the Dores' most against an SEC team this season and most-ever under Mason against a league foe. The 481 yards are the most by a Vanderbilt team against a fellow SEC team since 2006 when the Dores dropped a shootout at Kentucky despite having 621 yards. The two teams combined for over 1,200 yards that day, including 996 passing yards.

Over the last four games, the Commodores' offense is averaging 433.5 yards led by the team's ground game. Vandy has rushed for 845 total yards and an average of 211.3 while scoring nine touchdowns on the ground.

Vanderbilt is one of six FBS teams to play 80%+ of their games against teams with winning records, joining league brethren Ole Miss, Mississippi State and Tennessee along with Utah State.

Entering Saturday night, the Commodores have played only two teams that have losing records. Vandy's victory over the Rebels last week dropped Ole Miss to 5-6 on the year and Missouri enters the final weekend at 3-8.

The other nine teams to square off against VU this season are a combined 64-34 (.653).

HOLDEN EARNS SEC LINEMAN OF THE WEEK

Will Holden became the third Commodore this season to earn SEC honors, being named SEC Lineman of the Week for his performance against Ole Miss last week.

The Dores' left tackle produced a 93% blocking grade with three domination blocks over 76 snaps. The senior paved the way for three Ralph Webb rushing TDs and 208 yards rushing.

BETTER IN LEAGUE PLAY

Vanderbilt's defense has been better in SEC games allowing 18.3 points per game and 357.4 yards for fifth-best in the league in both categories.

The team's pass defense in league play has been stellar, allowing the fourth-fewest in SEC games with just 201.1 yards in seven contests.

NOTES FROM LAST WEEK

HOLDEN EARNS COSIDA ACADEMIC HONOR

Senior offensive tackle Will Holden is under consideration for national Academic All-America honors after being selected Nov. 10 to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District Team.

The recognition puts Holden, a three-year starter from Green Cove Springs, Fla., in position to become Vanderbilt's first national Academic All-America since linebacker Hunter Hillenmeyer was selected in 2002. Sports information directors across the nation will vote on the national ballot in late November.

Holden also becomes the first Commodore district All-America recipient since punter Taylor Hudson and fullback Fitz Lassing were selected in 2013.

DEREK MASON: HEAD COACH & DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Head coach Derek Mason is on a very short list of head coaches that also serve as their own offensive or defensive coordinators in college football.

Mason and San Diego State head coach Rocky Long are the only two head coaches in the country that run both the team and the defense. Mason and Long are two of eight college head coaches to serve as both head coach and coordinator joining head coaches that run the other side of the ball with Georgia Tech's Paul Johnson, Massachusetts' Mark Whipple, New Mexico State's Doug Martin, Washington State's Mike Leach, Kansas' David Beaty and Tulsa's Philip Montgomery running their respective teams' offenses.

Mason, Beaty, Johnson and Leach are the only ones to pull double duty at the Power 5 level. Mason and Johnson squared off against each other on September 17

VANDERBILT COACHES YOUNGEST IN SEC

Vanderbilt's coaching staff has skewed much younger this year under Derek Mason in his third season. During the offseason, Mason hired former Vanderbilt All-SEC LB and 27-year-old Chris Marve to coach the team's linebackers and former Oklahoma DL and 34-year-old C.J. Ah You to coach the Commodores' defensive line. Adding Marve and Ah You to the coaching staff dropped the Dores' average age on the coaching staff to 41.6. Mason's staff is the youngest staff in the Southeastern Conference, narrowly in front of South Carolina's new coaching staff. Marve and Ah You join Marc Mattioli (29), Cortez Hankton (35) and new offensive line coach Cameron Norcross (39) as VU coaches to begin the season under 40-years-old.

The SEC by average age (44.5) is the second-youngest league among the Power 5 conferences led by the Atlantic Coast Conference with an average coach age of 43.9. The SEC is in front of the Pac-12 (44.7), Big 12 (44.7) and the Big 10 (45.1).

IRON WEBB

Junior Ralph Webb has been a workhorse for the Commodores in his two-plus years of action on West End. The Gainesville, Fla. native has started all 35 games of his career and owns the most career starts on the VU roster.

Webb has also carried the rock for the Dores, racking up a school-record 697 carries in his time on West End, including a single-season, school-record 277 last year.

On the other side of the ball, senior Adam Butler has the most career starts with 34. Will Holden holds the second-most career starts behind Webb on offense with 33.

JELKS, STANKAVAGE SIDELINED FOR SEASON

OL Andrew Jelks and QB Shawn Stankavage will be sidelined for the 2016 season with injuries. It's the second straight season missed for Jelks due to injury and second in the last three years for Stankavage.

Jelks has started 22 games in his career but has not played since 2014.

VU 2017 SCHEDULE HAS SEVEN HOME GAMES

Vanderbilt is set to host seven home games in 2017.

Despite opening on the road at Middle Tennessee, the Commodores will play their most home games at Vanderbilt Stadium since 2014.

The Dores welcome Alabama to West End for the first time since 2007 and match up with the Tide for the first time since 2011.

Vandy continues its series with local teams Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky and begin a series with Kansas State. The Commodores and Wildcats last played in 1984, when VU opened the season with a 26-14 win over KSU.

FIVE NEW COACHES ON STAFF FOR 2016

Heading into his third season at Vanderbilt head coach Derek Mason has just one original member of his coaching staff in Gerry Gdowski remaining on the staff. But Gdowski has a new role for the 2016 campaign as the former Nebraska QB now coaches the Commodores' QBs. Former QBs coach and offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig traded spots with Gdowski and now coaches the Dores' tight ends.

Five new coaches have joined the staff in veteran coaches Jeff Genyk, Osia Lewis and Cameron Norcross along with young coaches C.J. Ah You and Chris Marve rounding out Mason's staff.

Genyk brings head coaching experience to the table, having served as the head coach at Eastern Michigan 2004-08. He also has stops as an assistant at Northwestern, California, Nevada and Wisconsin. He joins VU from Northwestern, where he served as a quality control for the Wildcats. For the Dores, Genyk serves as the teams special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

Norcross coached in the Mountain West Conference for 15 years prior to his move to West End, coaching for 11 years at his alma mater, Nevada, and four years at Fresno State most recently. He helped the Bulldogs to an 11-2 season in 2013 and helped Nevada head coach Chris Ault develop an innovative offense for the Wolfpack.

Ah You joins the Commodores from Oklahoma, where he played for Bob Stoops prior to an NFL career. Back with the Sooners, Ah You served as a defensive quality control assistant working with the team's defensive line. He was a seventh round pick of the Buffalo Bills in 2007 but played six seasons with St. Louis, ending his career after the 2012 season.

Marve is no stranger to Vanderbilt having earned All-SEC honors with the Commodores as a LB in 2010 and 2011. Marve led the Dores in tackles in 2009 and 2011, including a remarkable 121 total tackles in 2009 which made him the last Dore to surpass 100 tackles in a season until Zach Cunningham did it last year with 103 tackles. The Memphis, Tenn. native owns three degrees from Vanderbilt.

CUNNINGHAM, WEBB ON PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Zach Cunningham and Ralph Webb enter their junior seasons with numerous accolades, including being named to a pair of awards watch lists.

Cunningham is on the Bednarik Award watch list after a stellar 2015 that saw him earn first team All-SEC honors. The Bednarik Award is given annually to the nation's best defensive player.

Webb finds himself on the Doak Walker Award watch list. The Gainesville, Fla. native became just the fifth Commodore to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark last season, rushing for 1,152 yards. The Doak Walker is awarded annually to college football's top running back.

BURKS NAMED TO GOOD WORKS TEAM

Oren Burks has been named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works Team for his accomplishments on and off the field.

As a student, Burks has become a key leader on the Vanderbilt campus. He has been elected president of Vanderbilt's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) for the 2016-17 calendar year after serving as a Commodore football representative in last year.

He is a co-founder of the Revitalizing & Empowering Vanderbilt's African-American Male Population (REVAMP) student organization in 2015, and helped coordinate a series of on-campus lectures and activities during the school year. REVAMP was recognized as the university's top new student organization last spring.

THREE COMMODORES EARN PRESEASON ALL-SEC NOD

A trio of Commodores earned preseason recognition from the league's coaches last week when LB Zach Cunningham and RB Ralph Webb were tabbed second team All-SEC and LB/S Oren Burks was tabbed as a third team member.

Cunningham is coming off a first team All-SEC season as a sophomore last year when he led the Commodores in tackles (103), tackles for loss (16.5) and sacks (4.5).

Cunningham, Webb & Burks

Webb enters his junior season needing 1,085 yards to break

Zac Stacy's all-time rushing record. Webb rushed for 1,152 yards as a sophomore last season - the most ever by a sophomore at Vanderbilt - on a school record 277 carries. Webb holds the record for rushing yards for sophomores and freshmen (907). Stacy holds the record for rushing yards for a junior with 1,193, which is also the school single-season record.

Burks moves into the Vanderbilt defense's new star position this year after posting a solid sophomore season in 2015. He made a career-high 58 tackles and led the Commodores with three interceptions.

The nod from the league's coaches adds to the media voting Cunningham and Webb to their All-SEC second team at SEC Media Days in July.

WELCOME TO POLY-VILLE

The Vandy roster features an island-like feel to it in 2016 with three players coming from Polynesian descent.

Junior Nifae Lealao is the elder statesman of the trio and has been joined by freshmen Josiah Sa'o and Sean Auwae-McMoore. Sa'o plays alongside Lealao on the defensive line with Auwae-McMoore on the offensive line. Auwae-McMoore calls Hawaii home while Lealao and Sa'o both call California home.

Vanderbilt's soccer team joined the Polynesian party, adding freshman Taiana Tolleson to the growing 'ohana' (family) at Vanderbilt.

Even with four Polynesians in athletics on West End, the most famous Polynesian in Nashville remains Heisman Trophy winner and Tennessee Titans QB Marcus Mariota.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

WR Caleb Scott and DB Donovan Sheffield are second-generation Commodores. Both following their dad's collegiate path through Vanderbilt

Scott is the son of former Commodore TE Chuck Scott (1981-84). Scott's dad was a 1983 All-America and two-time All-SEC pick who still ranks T-3rd all-time among Commodores with 20 TD catches, sixth in receiving yards (2,219), and seventh in receptions (145).

Caleb Scott produced his best season at VU last year, catching 24 passes for 339 yards and two TDs.

Sheffield is the son of DB Robert Sheffield (1993-95). Sheffield's dad was a three-year letterwinner at cornerback from 1993-95.

Donovan Sheffield played in six games as a freshman in 2015, making five tackles, including two for loss.

MASON CREATES PLAYER PERSONNEL DEPT.

Head Coach Derek Mason unveiled the program's new player personnel department in early July with an impressive five-member team to be directed by former University of Nebraska administrator and Nashville-area native Austen Everson.

In addition to Everson, who serves as Director of Player Personnel, Eric Lammers is the Director of Recruiting, and Corey Phillips and Donielle White are the Assistant Recruiting Coordinators. Andrea Poole Cain, a veteran staffer, serves as Director of Recruiting Relations.

GAME 1

South Carolina
Sept. 1 | Nashville

NASHVILLE – Will Muschamp had no worries about sending Elliott Fry out for the longest field goal of his career. Even though this was the coach's first game with South Carolina, he had seen the kicker connect repeatedly in clutch situations.

Fry kicked a career-long 55-yard field goal with 35 seconds left, and the South Carolina Gamecocks rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to beat Vanderbilt 13-10 Thursday night in Muschamp's debut as head coach.

Muschamp started Orth at quarterback and also played freshman Brandon McIlwain. But it was Orth who went back into the game in the third quarter and threw for 152 yards rallying the Gamecocks to their eighth straight victory over Vanderbilt in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Vanderbilt now is 0-3 in season openers under coach Derek Mason, though his Commodores did manage to score an offensive touchdown in the first half. But Tommy Openshaw missed a 45-yard field goal wide left with 3:44 left, and Vandy turned it over on downs with 14 seconds left.

"Every decision we made will be questioned," Mason said. "The bottom line is we didn't win this game. Now we have to get back to next week and play MTSU."

Fry also kicked a 48-yard field goal in the third quarter, and Deebo Samuel atoned for a fumbled punt in the first quarter by scoring an 8-yard TD on an end-around with 7:30 left. Fry had total confidence he could connect from 55 after barely coming up short from 62 in warmups.

GAME 2

Middle Tennessee
Sept. 10 | Nashville

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason turned the lights out in the locker room for 10 minutes during a weather delay that lasted for an hour, 44 minutes. He wanted his Commodores to picture themselves playing good football.

Aside from a blocked punt on the first play once the game resumed, Ralph Webb and the Commodores did just that.

Webb ran for a career-high 211 yards and two touchdowns as Vanderbilt easily handled the weather delay and beat Middle Tennessee 47-24 Saturday.

"We did what this team hasn't done since I've been here," Mason said. "I mean just responded all the way around."

Vanderbilt (1-1) took control with a 28-point second quarter after trailing 10-5 at the end of the first, the final two TDs coming after the storm. Middle Tennessee blocked a field goal on the first play after resuming the game, setting up Brent Stockstill's 5-yard TD pass to Ty Lee to pull within 19-17.

The Commodores answered by scoring two TDs in a span of 87 seconds, the last a 3-yard TD by Webb giving him 102 yards before halftime. Vanderbilt also forced two turnovers to win its second straight in this series against an in-state rival.

Stockstill finished with 399 yards passing and three TDs for Middle Tennessee (1-1), which was trying to start 2-0 for the first time since 2001.

GAME 3

Georgia Tech
Sept. 17 | Atlanta

ATLANTA – Justin Thomas threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Marshall on the first play of the game, Dedrick Mills ran for three touchdowns and Georgia Tech beat Vanderbilt 38-7 on Saturday, holding the Commodores scoreless in the final three quarters.

Mills ran for 58 yards with touchdown runs of 15, 4 and 5 yards. His last two scoring runs came in the third quarter, when Georgia Tech extended a 17-7 halftime lead.

Thomas threw for 136 yards and ran for 84 yards before sitting out the final quarter as Georgia Tech (3-0) remained undefeated against Vanderbilt (1-2) since World War II.

"Today was our day," Thomas said.

The Yellow Jackets gained momentum for Thursday night's visit from No. 5 Clemson as they won their sixth straight game in the series and improved to 12-0-1 against the Commodores since 1941.

Vanderbilt was held to 275 total yards, including 69 yards rushing on 18 carries by Ralph Webb, who led the Southeastern Conference in rushing through two games.

Georgia Tech produced a surprising 222 yards passing, including a late 77-yarder from backup Matthew Jordan to Clinton Lynch.

The Commodores were held to 85 yards rushing while averaging only 2.8 yards per carry.

Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason gave credit to Georgia Tech defenders for looking "sort of like popcorn" as they shed blockers.

GAME 4

Western Kentucky
Sept. 24 | Bowling Green

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. -- Vanderbilt's defense turned away a 2-point conversion play at the end of the first overtime as the Commodores escaped with a 31-30 victory over Western Kentucky on Saturday.

Kyle Shurmur's 5-yard pass to Nathan Marcus on the first possession of overtime gave Vanderbilt (2-2) its first lead of the game, and Tommy Openshaw added the point after for the Commodores.

Western Kentucky (2-2) answered quickly, needing just two plays to find the end zone on Mike White's 8-yard pass to Shaquille Johnson in overtime.

Hilltoppers coach Jeff Brohm elected to go for two points. White rolled to his right, but his pass was deflected into the air off Anthony Wales' helmet and ruled incomplete, as Vanderbilt players rushed the field to celebrate the comeback victory.

Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason was just glad to escape with the victory after his team yielded 501 yards of total offense to the Hilltoppers.

"Defensively, we leaked a lot of oil out there today, but we came up big when we needed to," Mason said. "That was important. When we needed to establish some momentum, we did. The offense got it back and got rolling. The offense kept us alive."

The Commodores went 75 yards in the final 1:02 of regulation in seven plays to tie the game at 24-24 and force overtime. A pass interference call in the end zone on Western Kentucky's De'Andre Simmons against Vanderbilt's Trent Sherfield gave the Commodores the ball at the Hilltopper 2 with three seconds to play in regulation. Vanderbilt running back Ralph Webb, who had three rushing touchdowns in the game, leaped from just inside the 5 and landed just beyond the front edge of the end zone for the tying score.

GAME 5

Florida
Oct. 1 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- The Florida Gators aren't in the mood to pick apart a road win in the Southeastern Conference, especially after last week's ugly loss.

No matter what they might need to fix.

Jordan Scarlett ran for a 4-yard touchdown with Eddy Pineiro adding a pair of field goals as No. 23 Florida held off Vanderbilt 13-6 Saturday.

"A wise man once said, 'you even have to bring your ugly babies home from the hospital,' and that was ugly," Florida coach Jim McElwain said. "In fact that might have been what someone told my dad when I was born. But I feel really good that our guys found a way to win."

Florida (4-1, 2-1 Southeastern Conference) came up with two interceptions and two sacks on a day where the Gators defense otherwise struggled against one of the nation's worst offenses with three starting linemen missing most of the game.

Ralph Webb ran for 110 yards as Vanderbilt outgained Florida 265-236 in total offense. The Commodores (2-3, 0-2) had a final chance to force overtime until Nick Washington intercepted a Wade Freebeck pass with 54 seconds left sealing the Gators' win.

The Gators never trailed and led 10-3 after Scarlett scored on a 4-yard touchdown run, and Pineiro kicked a 42-yard field goal as the half expired. Pineiro added a 26-yarder with 8:17 left.

Florida had a chance to pad its lead after Vanderbilt punter Sam Loy fumbled the snap and lost the ball with 5:07 left with the Commodores trailing 13-6. But Austin Appleby fumbled the snap on second-and-goal at the Vanderbilt 1 with 2:56 left giving the Commodores one last chance.

GAME 6

Kentucky
Oct. 8 | Lexington

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- Stephen Johnson rushed for a touchdown and converted a big fourth-and-1 play late in the game leading to Austin MacGinnis' 28-yard field goal, while the Wildcats' defense stifled Vanderbilt late to survive with a 20-13 victory on Saturday.

Needing a spark to slow Vanderbilt's momentum after scoring 10 straight points, the Wildcats turned to their ground game led by Benny Snell Jr. (20 carries, 94 yards) and Jojo Kemp with just under 8 minutes remaining. The duo positioned Kentucky to cash in a third and final time on fourth down as Johnson stretched for 1 yard to the Commodores' 19.

Kentucky didn't take a chance on a final fourth-and-1 at the 10, and MacGinnis' kick with 1:38 left provided a cushion that proved huge as Vanderbilt, with no timeouts, quickly drove 59 yards to the 8 seeking at least a tie. But several passes by Vandy's Kyle Shurmur were incomplete, including a fourth-down attempt that went off Kalija Lipscomb's hands with 2 seconds left.

Kentucky (3-3, 2-2 Southeastern Conference) is now halfway toward its goal of a postseason berth. Vanderbilt (2-4, 0-3 SEC) fell short in its quest to give coach Derek Mason his first conference road win.

Kemp added a 4-yard TD run for the Wildcats. Kemp, Johnson and Stanley "Boom" Williams each ran for at least 54 yards as Kentucky gained 258 on 52 attempts.

Most importantly, the Wildcats made huge, timely plays when needed on both sides of the ball to protect a lead that seemed in doubt as the Commodores tried to rally from a 17-3 halftime deficit.

GAME 7

Georgia
Oct. 15 | Athens

ATHENS, Ga. -- Derek Mason finally picked up the sort of victory that should ease some of the heat on the Vanderbilt coach.

Just the opposite for Georgia's Kirby Smart, who is facing plenty of scrutiny after a stunning loss to the Commodores.

Vanderbilt claimed its first Southeastern Conference road win in Mason's three seasons as coach, upsetting Georgia 17-16 on Khari Blasingame's 2-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter and a huge fourth-down stop late in the game Saturday.

The victory set off a wild celebration as the Vanderbilt players raced over to Sanford Stadium's famous hedges to celebrate with a small group of black-and-gold-clad fans.

"I told our young men this morning that if we wanted to do something epic, we needed to make sure we took the fight to them," Mason said.

For Vanderbilt (3-4, 1-3), it was only the third win over Georgia in the last 22 meetings between the SEC East rivals. Mason had dropped his first nine league road games.

"You saw a football team committed to doing one thing, and that's going on the road and getting a win," Mason said. "We also talked about a new season, the second half of the season. We can't do anything about what's behind us, but we could do something about what is in front of us."

Georgia went ahead for the first time early in the third quarter on Jacob Eason's 17-yard touchdown pass to Isaac Nauta. The Bulldogs added their third field goal, stretching the lead to 16-10 with just under 14 minutes remaining.

But Vanderbilt responded with its only extended drive of the game, going 75 yards on eight plays to reclaim the lead when Blasingame powered over with 9:43 to go. The big play was a screen pass on third-and-12 that Ralph Webb took for a 37-yard gain to the Bulldogs 11.

GAME 8

Tennessee State
Oct. 22 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Vanderbilt went to its running game to make an impressive comeback against Tennessee State.

After falling behind by three points late in the first half, the Commodores rattled off three unanswered touchdowns en route to a 35-17 win over Tennessee State on Saturday.

"The biggest thing was being ahead of the chains, being good on first and second downs so you don't have to be in those bad situations," Commodores quarterback Kyle Shurmur said. "So if like we're in third and short it's so much better than third-and-8 or third-and-9."

Vanderbilt's Ralph Webb rushed for 125 yards and Khari Blasingame ran for 100 and three touchdowns.

"It felt good just to be out there making plays," Blasingame said. "Those offensive linemen, they really did a good job moving people. Those holes were huge. You could have put a truck through those things."

Shurmur completed 15 of 23 passes for 143 yards and one touchdown, giving Vanderbilt (4-4) its fifth homecoming win in the past six years. Vanderbilt fell behind 17-14 late in the first half before the rattling off three straight touchdowns.

Ronald Butler completed 19 of 30 passes for 285 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for Tennessee State (5-2) in the second all-time meeting between the Nashville schools that are only three miles apart.

"I thought defensively we struggled in the first half," Commodores coach Derek Mason said. "It was a rough start, but offensively, I thought they came on and did a really good job of answering back."

Vanderbilt took its first lead at 21-17 with 1:46 left in the half after Darrius Sims had a 33-yard run to the 3 and Blasingame punched it in to cap a five-play, 78-yard drive.

GAME 9

Auburn
Nov. 5 | Auburn

AUBURN, Ala. -- An injured Sean White came off the bench to throw a touchdown pass and Josh Holsey intercepted a last-minute throw to lift No. 9 Auburn to a come-from-behind, 23-16 win Saturday over Vanderbilt.

The Tigers (7-2, 5-1 Southeastern Conference, No. 11 AP) sputtered after starting John Franklin III in place of White, who had an unspecified injury. White returned to open the second half with Auburn down 13-10, then threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Darius Slayton and led two field goal drives.

Auburn coach Gus Malzahn said White was "banged up" and didn't take a snap in practice leading up to the game.

The win coupled with Mississippi State's upset of No. 7 Texas A&M means Auburn can win the SEC West with victories over Georgia and No. 1 Alabama. That game was airing on Auburn's huge video board in the minutes after this one ended, setting off another celebration for fans after the Tigers' sixth straight win.

Vandy (4-5, 1-4) stayed alive into the final minute against the 26-point favorites thanks to Caleb Scott's 29-yard catch of a tipped ball on fourth and 18. The Commodores moved to Auburn's 30 before Holsey's interception put it away.

The drive was set up when Daniel Carlson's attempt at his fourth field goal was blocked. Alabama native Zach Cunningham leapt over the line at the snap and knocked it down.

White completed 10 of 13 passes for 106 yards and Kamryn Pettway topped 160 rushing yards for the fourth straight game. Pettway ran 25 times for 173 yards, but came up limping at the end of a 60-yard run to set up the decisive score after appearing on his way to the end zone. He was clutching his left leg on the ground.

Shurmur completed 24 of 36 passes for 221 yards and a touchdown. He also had a 21-yarder on the final drive before the pick.

GAME 10

Missouri
Nov. 12 | Columbia

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- Drew Lock completed 22 of 37 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns as Missouri defeated Vanderbilt 26-17 on Saturday.

It marks Missouri's first Southeastern Conference victory since Lock's starting debut, a 24-10 victory over South Carolina on Oct. 3, 2015.

Each team opened with a three-and-out before Damarea Crockett's 6-yard touchdown run gave Missouri (3-7, 1-5) a lead it would never relinquish. Crockett had 20 carries for 154 yards and the touchdown.

J'Mon Moore caught eight passes for 138 yards and two touchdowns, including an 82-yard score with 9:50 remaining in the second quarter, and Johnathon Johnson added four catches for 73 yards.

Kyle Shurmur was 17 of 29 for 252 yards and two interceptions, one of which Missouri cornerback Aarion Penton returned 19 yards for a touchdown, the second of his career.

C.J. Duncan caught five passes for 89 yards and Caleb Scott had three catches for 63 yards.

Darius Sims rushed seven times for 86 yards, Khari Blasingame had 14 carries for 64 yards and a touchdown, and Ralph Webb added 11 carries for 34 yards and a touchdown.

Missouri gained 481 yards despite a 13-minute differential in time of possession. It's the Tigers' highest yardage total in SEC play since Nov. 15, 2014 when they gained 587 yards en route to a 34-27 victory over Texas A&M.

Vanderbilt (4-6, 1-5) punted three times in the fourth quarter and was held to -14 yards.

GAME 11*Ole Miss
Nov. 19 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Derek Mason had Vanderbilt baseball coach Tim Corbin talk to his football team about not being afraid of success and how to handle the roller-coaster of emotions during a game.

The Commodores showed Saturday night they listened very well.

Ralph Webb ran for 123 yards and three touchdowns, and Vanderbilt scored 31 straight points in beating Mississippi 38-17 Saturday night to snap a three-game skid to the Rebels.

With the win, Vanderbilt (5-6, 2-5 Southeastern Conference) assured Mason his best record yet in his third season. The Commodores now need a win in their regular season finale to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2013. Their APR is so good that five wins could be enough, winning a sixth game would be even better.

"Listen that's exactly what we're going to do," Mason said. "We're going to line ourselves up and try to get ourselves ready to go play one more game because that's what we're guaranteed. And you know what? We're looking forward to this one."

Kyle Shurmur threw for 273 yards and two touchdowns, and the Commodores also had three sacks. Linebacker Zach Cunningham, the SEC's leading tackler, recovered a fumble.

Vanderbilt was the first SEC opponent that Mississippi played this season that hadn't been ranked, and the Commodores snapped the Rebels' two-game win streak. Now the Rebels (5-6, 2-5) need a win in the Egg Bowl to extend its bowl streak.
