What's On Tap

Vanderbilt will complete a stretch of three of four Southeastern Conference series on the road this weekend against newly named No. 1 Arkansas in Fayetteville. The Commodores will take on the red-hot Razorbacks on Friday at 6:35 p.m. and Saturday at 3:05 p.m. before closing the set out on Sunday at 1:05 p.m. Saturday's game will be televised regionally on Fox Sports Net, check local listings for broadcast information.

Scouting Arkansas

Arkansas is 24-6 overall and a SEC best 10-2 after taking two of three at South Carolina last weekend. The Razorbacks were named No. 1 by Collegiate Baseball on Monday and took on Arizona State in a two-game midweek series at Baum Stadium. The Sun Devils were ranked No. 1 as well in three separate polls: Baseball America, USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and the in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers poll. Arkansas trailed in both contests but rallied to beat ASU twice, 7-3 and 8-7, to sweep the series.

The Razorbacks have five starters returning from last year, led by outfielder Chase Leavitt who leads the team with a .380 batting average to go with nine doubles and 27 walks and a .533 on base percentage. First baseman Andy Wilkins and second baseman Ben Tschepikow are the top power hitters with nine and seven homers respectively. As a team UA is batting .291 with 34 homers and 207 runs scored (6.9 per game).

Left-hander Dalas Keuchel (5-0, 3.45 ERA) will start in the opener Friday night, with right-hander T.J. Forrest (2-2, 4.32 ERA) scheduled to go on Saturday. Right-hander Justin Wells (1-0, 3.51 ERA) is scheduled to close the series out with his first start of the season on Sunday. Left-hander Stephen Richards (4-0, 1.27 ERA) is the team's closer with six saves and 29 strikeouts and 10 walks in 21.1 innings. The team sports a 4.03 ERA, fourth best in SEC, with 257 strikeouts and 103 walks in 268.0 innings.

Sonny Gray Named SEC Freshman of the Week

Freshman pitcher Sonny Gray was named Southeastern Conference freshman of the week after helping lead the Commodores to a series win over No. 19 Florida over the weekend.

The Smyrna, Tenn., native earned a save and picked up a win in the Commodores first SEC series win of the year. Gray picked up the save, his fourth of the year, with an inning of scoreless relief in Saturday's 4-3 win over the Gators. He then came on in the eighth in Sunday's 9-9 tie game and held Florida in check, limiting them to just one hit in two innings with three strikeouts. He went 1-0 with a save in two appearances on the week with four strikeouts and one walk in three innings of work. He was the lone Commodore pitcher to not allow a run against the Gators.

On the season he is 2-0 with a 1.83 ERA and has 19 strikeouts and eight walks in 19.2 innings over 12 relief appearances.

This is the second SEC Freshman of the Week award for the Commodores, as Aaron Westlake took home the honor earlier in the year.

Casali Comes On

Over the last 10 games Curt Casali has become a driving force in the Commodores lineup. Casali is hitting at a .395 clip (15-for-38) with four doubles, a homer, eight RBI and 12 runs scored in that span. He recorded his first collegiate stolen base when he stole home against Auburn on March 27 and his two-run double in the seventh inning last Sunday against Florida helped spark the Dores comeback from a 9-2 deficit.

On the season, the Connecticut native is second on the team with a .359 batting average and leads the team in homers (6) and RBI (34). The sophomore was expected to be the full-time starter behind the plate, but an arm injury prior to the season, forced him to make the move to first where he will likely play the rest of the season.

Andrew Giobbi Returns

Junior catcher Andrew Giobbi returned to full-time action against Auburn two weeks ago after missing 16 games due to a broken hand suffered against Vermont on Feb. 27. Giobbi played right field all three games against Auburn and then returned to his normal spot behind the plate against Florida last weekend. Since his return he has heated up offensively going 12-for-31 (.387) with a homer, double, triple and eight RBI in eight starts games. His average has risen from .160 before the injury to .286 entering this weekend's action.

Minor Makes Move

In a season full of ups and downs, one of the pitchers who has remained consistent is junior southpaw Mike Minor. The Chapel Hill native has gone a minimum of seven innings in six of his eight starts on the year including seven innings in his last three starts against Kentucky, Auburn and Florida. He went 5.2 innings in his first start of the season against Stanford and left the game with a 5-1 lead that was later relinquished. On March 27 against Auburn, he limited the league's leading home run team to just five singles in a 12-3 win over the Tigers. He struck out 11, one short of his career high of 12 against Alabama last season. In his last three starts, Minor has allowed 23 strikeouts and four walks in 21.0 innings.

He was named to the Golden Spikes Award and Brooks Wallace Award Watch Lists, both honors given to the top player in college baseball.

Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball tabbed him a second-team preseason All-American while the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association had him on its third team.

Last season Minor tied for the team lead in wins with seven, finishing with a 7-3 record with two complete games. As a freshman in 2007, he went 9-1 and sports a 18-7 career mark into the Arkansas series.

Minor served as the ace of the USA Baseball National team squad that went 24-0 over the summer and captured the FISU World University Championships in the Czech Republic in July. He went 3-0 with a 0.75 ERA during the tour with 37 strikeouts and 13 walks in a team high 36 innings.

The Chapel Hill, Tenn., native two biggest performances came against the Cuban National team in a span of a week last July. The Cuban contingent was the same team, minus one player, that captured the 2004 Olympic gold medal and was the runner-up at the 2006 World Baseball Classic.

Minor threw 6.1 innings of four-hit shutout baseball in a 1-0 win on July 6 at the Haarlem Baseball Week In Harleem, Netherlands. He followed that up in his next start by allowing just an unearned run on four hits over six innings in the gold medal clinching game of the tourney on July 13.

Minor completed his two-year National team run with an 8-2 record and a 1.17 ERA with 74 strikeouts and just 17 walks in 69 innings of action.

Dores Blanked By Middle Tennessee

Chad Edwards pitched a complete game shutout and Bryce Brentz went 4-for-4 with two homers and five RBI to lead Middle Tennessee to an 8-0 win over Vanderbilt Tuesday night at Reese Smith Field.

The Commodores dropped to 19-13 with the loss while the Blue Raiders moved to 22-7 on the year.

Edwards (5-0) held VU in check the entire game, limiting the team to just six hits while striking out three and walking three in MTSU's first complete game shutout since the 2001 season.

Middle Tennessee had 13 hits with Brentz, who came in hitting at a .448 clip with 13 homers, leading the offensive attack.

Drew Fann, making a return to his hometown, led VU with two hits on the night.

The Blue Raiders took a 1-0 lead in the first when Tyler Burnett led off with a single and moved to third on a failed pick off attempt by starter Nick Christiani that went into right field. Bryce Brentz brought him home with a RBI single to center.

MTSU added two more runs in the fourth on Drew Robertson's single to center with runners on second and third with two outs.

Brentz continued his hot night with a two-run homer in the bottom of the fifth with two outs in the inning and then added a solo shot off of reliever Drew Hayes in the seventh to extend the lead to 6-0.

Christiani (3-2) allowed five runs, four earned, on seven hits in five innings of work with seven strikeouts and two walks in the losing effort.

Commodore Tidbits

Vanderbilt went 2-2 last week and are now 19-13 on the season ... VU has lost its last two midweek games after opening the year 7-0 in such contests ... The Commodores lost their first midweek game of the season, but rebounded to take their first Southeastern Conference series of the year against No. 19 Florida. The series win was the first in league action since sweeping Tennessee last year and the first home conference series win since defeating Auburn last year (April 18-20) ... VU rallied back from a seven run deficit, 9-2, in the sixth inning on Sunday, scoring 14 unanswered to win 16-9. Till that point the team had just five hits and two runs, one unearned. They finished with 16 hits, 11 coming in final three innings ... The Doers hit .263 on the week with four homers, two triples, six doubles and 30 runs scored (7.5 per game) ... Curt Casali had big week going 7-for-15 (.467) with two doubles, a homer, six runs scored and four RBI ... Andrew Giobbi continued to be on a tear since returning from a broken hand. He went 6-for-13 (.462) with a double, triple, five RBI and four runs scored. In the seven games he has been back in the starting lineup he is 12-for-27 with a double, triple, homer, eight RBI and six runs scored ... Steven Little had a hit in all four games to extend his hitting streak to eight. He went 6-for-17 (.353) with two doubles, a homer and four RBI with six runs scored ... Also extending a hit streak was Riley Reynolds who now has a 14 game skein. He was 6-for-19 (.316) with a double on the week ... The pitching staff sported a 7.97 ERA with 35 strikeouts and 14 walks in 35.0 innings ... Caleb Cotham picked up his first SEC win of the year in Saturday's 4-3 win. He gave up three runs, one earned, on four hits in eight innings with six strikeouts and five walks. He leads the SEC in opponents batting average at .188 ... Sonny Gray played the key role on the mound in the series win over Florida. He picked up the save, his fourth of the year, with an inning of scoreless relief in Saturday's. He then came on in the eighth in Sunday's 9-9 tie game and held Florida in check, limiting them to just one hit in two innings with three strikeouts. He went 1-0 with a save in two appearances on the week with four strikeouts and one walk in three innings of work. He was the lone Commodore pitcher to not allow a run against the Gators ... Freshman Grayson Garvin pitched two innings of scoreless relief against Belmont last Tuesday. He allowed just one single, while striking out three and walking one ... VU plays four games on the road this week and will then return home to play eight of 10 to close out the month of April.

Vanderbilt Newcomers Among Nation's Best

For the second time in four seasons, Vanderbilt's baseball recruiting class has been ranked in the Top 3 in the country. Baseball America ranked the class second in the country while Collegiate Baseball had the class ranked at No. 3. Both publications listed Arizona State as having the No. 1 class, while Collegiate Baseball had Oregon at No. 2 with a 35 member class in its first season back since being eliminated as a varsity sport after the 1980-81 season. 13 members of the class reported to school in August with three other players choosing the professional ranks. Of the 13 that are in school, eight were drafted and decided to play collegiately. The coaching staff put together the class in anticipation of a mass exodus following the 2008 season. The Commodores lost seven offensive players who had started over the last three years, including first round draft picks Pedro Alvarez and Ryan Flaherty as well as the school's all-time hits leader Dominic de la Osa. Of Perfect Game's Top 250 prospects for college, high school and Puerto Rico, 32 players from high school did not sign professional contracts and are attending Division I schools or junior colleges. Of the 32, Vanderbilt had five players, the most of any school in the country.

Facility Upgrades Are Complete

Two seasons ago temporary bleachers were put out in right field due to Vanderbilt's first ever NCAA regional at Hawkins Field. The success of that regional set in motion plans to add permanent bleachers from right to the left-field "Green Monster". Those bleachers were added in the offseason along with 200 additional chairback seats down the first base line, bringing the seating capacity to 3,700. Season and single-game tickets are available for both the chairbacks and bleacher seats. Fans can purchase them via www.vucommodores.com or via the ticket office at (615) 322-GOLD. Also added in the Baseball Fieldhouse is a new Hall of Honor showcasing the top players and teams in Vanderbilt history. Video highlights of recent seasons are also available via a touchscreen monitor in the facility.

In six seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has turned Vanderbilt into one of the national powers of college baseball. In 2008, Corbin guided the Commodores to their second straight 40-win season (41-22) and third consecutive appearance in the NCAA tournament. The Commodores battled through the first half of the season without the services of Preseason Player of the Year Pedro Alvarez and managed to record road sweeps over Mississippi State and Tennessee for the first time in school history.

Corbin's overall record of 239-130 (.648) is third best in terms of wins at Vanderbilt, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

The 2008 draft saw eight current Commodores selected, highlighted by Pedro Alvarez who was taken with the second overall pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Vanderbilt became the first school in draft history to have the first overall pick (David Price in 2007) and second overall pick in consecutive drafts, an indication of the talent Corbin has brought into the program over the last six years.

In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage set a new national team high and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

In 2006 he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth-place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters being freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. New for 2009 are permanent seats in the outfield pushing Hawkins Field seating capacity to double the amount when Corbin arrived in 2003. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 28 VU players have been drafted over the last four years, including eight in 2008.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.
